PUBLIC OPINION OCT. 26, 1989

'Cinderella' to play Otterbein

One of the favorite children's tales of all time will be recreated by Otterbein College Children's Theatre in the Nov. 17-19 production of "Cinderella."

The Nov. 17 show will be at 7:30 p.m. Performances on Nov. 18 will be at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. and on Nov. 19 at 1:30 p.m.

Serving as guest director for the production will be Petie Dodrill, theatre director at Gahanna Lincoln High School. She has directed more than 20 children's theatre productions for the college in past years.

Starring as Cinderella will be junior Carolyn Valentine of Sidney who appeared in past Otterbein College Theatre productions such as "Sweeney Todd" and "Romeo and Juliet."

Junior Ben Hodges of Morristown, Tenn., who was featured as Ken de La Maize in "Musical Comedy Murders of 1940," Judge Turpin in "Sweeney Todd" and played a major role in "Chorus Line," will play the part of the prince.

Other cast members include Amy Patten of Harlan, Iowa, fairy godmother; Kellyanne Pearman of Westerville, mother; Colby Paul of Worthington, first sister; Nicole Rabel of Atlanta, second sister; Michael Hayes of Zaleski, Roland, and Anastasia Klimaszewski of Aurora, queen.

Also playing roles are Alex Chatfield of Huntsburg, John Barrett of Whitehall, Laura Hagan of Newark, Mike Warren of Marietta and James Minter of Depauw, Ind.

Tickets are available at the box office, 898-1109, beginning Nov. 7.

The 1989-90 Children's Theatre production of "Cinderella" became the third highest-attended show in Otterbein Theatre's 84-year history. Actors in the show were: Carolyn Valentine, left as Cinderella with Nicole Rabel and Colby Paul as the wicked step sisters.
