SPOT ANNOUNCEMENTS

30 sec. The Otterbein College Theatre will present "The Boy Friend" on Thursday through Saturday, October 26-27-28. A musical comedy spoof of the 1920's, "The Boy Friend" was a smash hit in London and New York in 1953 and 1954, and its wild songs and zany dances have been "wowing" audiences ever since. The play will be presented in Cowan Hall on the Otterbein campus in Westerville--curtain time is 8:15 p.m. For ticket information, call TU 2-3611.

30 sec. An old lover says: "It's never too late to have a fling, For autumn is just as nice as spring, And it's never too late to fall in love," and a young girl answers, "Boop a Doop, Boop a Doop." Sound crazy--it is. It's "The Boy Friend," to be presented by the Otterbein College Theatre on October 26-27-28, Thursday through Saturday. A musical comedy spoof of the 1920's, "The Boy Friend" is as zany as the period which it spoofs--full of wild and extravagant songs and dances. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. on October 26-27-28. For ticket information call TU 2-3611.

30 sec. Take five pretty girls--add five handsome fellas--have them all sing and dance in the 1920's style--add a pair of old lovers, a rich-boy meets rich-girl love story, witty dialogue and about 15 musical production numbers----shake well and laugh a lot at the result and you have "The Boy Friend." A musical comedy spoof of the 1920's, "The Boy Friend" will be presented by the Otterbein College Theatre on October 26-27-28, Thursday through Saturday. For ticket information call TU 2-3611--reserved seat tickets are $1.25. Whatever you do, don't miss "The Boy Friend."
