CHARLES W. DODRILL, Director of Theatre since 1958, is a recipient of many awards, including the "Top Ten Men of the Year" award by the Columbus Citizen Journal in 1967. Dr. Dodrill is past president of national Theta Alpha Phi Theatre Honorary, the Ohio Speech Association and the Ohio Theatre Alliance. He is responsible for many innovations in Otterbein Theatre, including the "guest star," summer theatre, the professional theatre intern program, and most recently the BFA degree in Theatre.

D. MARTYN BOOKWALTER has just completed his MFA in Theatre Design at the California Institute of the Arts. After graduation from Otterbein in 1975 he studied design at the New York Lester Polakov Studio of Scene Design and taught design at the Dayton Arts Center. He has designed over 50 major productions in recent years, including serving as Designer for the 1976 Summer Theatre, a position he will also fill this season.

ELIZABETH SCHILLING, an Otterbein voice instructor since 1970, has a Bachelor of Music Education and a Master of Arts in Vocal Pedagogy from Ohio State University. She has also studied in Vienna and Graz, Austria. Mrs. Schilling frequently appears as a singer, most recently as Ruth in Otterbein's presentation of Pirates of Penzance. Other recent favorites include the Mother Abbess in The Sound of Music and Cousin Netty in Carousel.

DENNIS ROMER, a 1971 Otterbein graduate, was a guest actor and director for the 1975 Summer company. This season he will appear in Jacques Brel and direct Not Now, Darling! Since 1975 he has worked with Melvyn Douglas and Jean Arthur at the Cleveland Playhouse, toured the country with Howard Keel and John Raitt in Shenandoah. He had a featured role with Kenley Players last summer with Ricardo Montalban starring. The staff and students of the Otterbein Summer Theatre extend grateful appreciation to the above PATRONS for their support. All of the above have contributed $10 to $25 to help pay a small monetary stipend to company members. Without this valuable support we could not exist because box office funds are not sufficient to meet needs. Thus, PATRON support is an absolute necessity! Others desiring to contribute may do so at the box office. We still need an additional $400 to support the present company.

NEXT PRODUCTION

NOT NOW, DARLING!

TUES-SAT., JULY 12-13-14-15-16

Director - Dennis Romer

This hilarious farce, which set box office records in London and Paris before coming to Broadway, will remind local audiences of the Otterbein SRO hit in 1975 Move Over, Mrs. Markham. Set in the exclusive London fur salon of Bodley and Crouch, the struggle to keep mistresses and wives separated leads to situations from which only a bumbler like Crouch could emerge a hero. Recommended for adult audiences.
