A Word From The President

Ashland College is proud to present the 1962 football team. Our Eagles, under Coaches Martinelli and Stokes, will be dedicated to do the same good, hard football our fans have enjoyed during the past. These boys have worked extremely hard with their dedicated coaches to assure their success.

This success will not be measured solely by the won-loss record, but by the determination and all-out effort which has become the trade mark of our football teams.

We welcome all opponents to our campus and sincerely hope that each game will be hard-played in the best traditions of American College football.

Glenn L. Clayton, President

From The Athletic Director

Ashland College is indeed proud to present the 1962 edition of the Eagles football team. Under the tutelage of our outstanding head coach, Fred Martinelli, and his fine staff we know our squad will play the hard-nosed, bruising game of football our fans enjoyed so much last season.

The continued growth and increasing prestige of Ashland College is easily discernable. Our football team shall continue to be a constructive force in the interpretation of our program to the public.

Good students with great desire under splendid coaching add up to a great 1962 football season for our Eagles in 1962.

Yours Truly,
Robert Brownson

THE MID-OHIO CONFERENCE

This year the football division of the Mid-Ohio Conference will consist of only four teams — Ashland, Bluffton, Defiance and Wilmington. This change was brought about when Findlay and Ohio Northern University dropped out of the league because of disagreements in recruiting policies.

George Donges of Ashland College might be called "Founder of the Mid-Ohio Conference". Following Ashland's withdrawal from the Ohio Conference in 1947, Donges worked toward the formation of a small, compact athletic association of colleges with approximately the same enrollment.

Donges became the league's first president; other officers elected at that time were Mendel Beattie of Cedarville, vice-president, and C. D. Beard of Defiance, secretary-treasurer.

Original league members were Ashland, Findlay, Defiance, Bluffton, and Cedarville. Ohio Northern was added to the league in 1950, and Wilmington was added in 1954. Of course Findlay and Ohio Northern dropped out in 1961.

The Mid-Ohio Conference has come a long way since its conception in 1948. Today, in 1962, it is not only a league of growing colleges, but also it is an association of progressively better athletic teams. Many MOC members can now be found competing against some of the best small colleges in the nation. The MOC has begun to attract athletes of a better caliber and, as a result, this league's reputation for sports has begun an upward surge that should lead to much greater heights in the near future.
