Directors Corner

I got a phone call from my friend Ed Vaughan about four weeks ago to tell me that my longtime friend and mentor, Dr. Charles Dodrill, had suffered a heart attack and would be unable to direct Brighton Beach Memoirs. Ed wanted to know if I would direct the show, teach a couple of acting classes and serve as an artist-in-residence for the fall term. I decided to accept the challenge and have thoroughly enjoyed the entire process of working with this script and this cast of student actors. Brighton Beach is a play about the innocence of youth and the regrets and frustration of being an adult. It's also a play about family and love and emerging sexuality. Of all the plays by Neil Simon, this is his most human and revealing. I hope we have done this great playwright justice and that we stir up some memories of your own family and loved ones. By the way, Dr. Dodrill is recovering quite nicely.

About Us

The Otterbein College Theatre and the Otterbein Summer Theatre are the producing organizations of the Department of Theatre and Dance.

The Department offers several alternative degree programs, including:

The Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in acting or design-technical theatre, designed to prepare students for careers in professional theatre.

The Bachelor of Arts degree in theatre is a fundamental theatre training sequence with options in Music Theatre, Children's Theatre, Theatre education and Theatre Arts management. The most recent addition to our degree offerings is a Bachelor of Arts in dance.

The Department of Theatre and Dance combines with the Department of Music and Visual Arts to form the new Center for the Arts. While each department provides separate intensive student education and performance opportunities, they frequently combine efforts in co-curricular performances activities that are annually attended by thousands in the central Ohio area.

Theatre students combine intensive classroom study with practical production work to develop and practice their craft. Our curriculum places strong emphasis upon the development of well-rounded persons within the liberal arts spectrum, while at the same time providing specialized theatre training in all areas of theatre. The purposes of the Otterbein College Theatre:

1. To train students in the arts of the theatre and prepare them for careers.
2. To provide opportunities for disciplined work in classes and on stage.
3. To develop high artistic standards thru the use of guest professionals.
4. To "bridge the gap" between educational training and career goals.
5. To provide entertainment, education, and cultural enrichment for students and community thru public performances.

The above goals are reached thru intensive class work and the 10 annual productions in winter and summer theatre programs. Approximately 9 studio productions are also presented each winter. Most of our students work in summer theatres here or at other Ohio theatres, and our seniors spend 15 weeks on professional theatre internships either in New York City or in regional theatres all over the country. The highly qualified faculty is frequently augmented with visiting professional actors, directors and designers, thus providing the link between academia and the realities of the professional theatre world.

The Department of Music

Since 1852, when the president of Otterbein brought the first piano to the village, music has been a part of many students' lives at the College. Composer Benjamin Hanby (Up on the Housetop, Darling Nellie Gray) taught "juvenile singing" at the College in 1855, and by the time of the Civil War, a vocal music professor was hired and a choral society was established.

Today seven full-time faculty and twenty-two adjunct faculty members teach in the Department with undergraduate degrees awarded in music education, theory and composition, applied music, history and literature, musical theatre, and music and business. The Department is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

American College Theater Festival 20th ANNIVERSARY

Presented and Produced By the John F. Kennedy Center For the Performing Arts

Sponsored by the National Broadcasting Company

Supported in Part by

The Kennedy Center Corporate Fund

The U.S. Department of Education · Ryder System

This production is an Associate entry in the American College Theater Festival. The aims of this national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater production. To this end, each production entered is eligible for adjudication by a regional ACTF representative and certain students are selected to participate in ACTF programs involving awards, scholarships, and special grants for actors, playwrights, designers, and critics at both the regional and national levels.

Last year more than 650 productions and 15,000 students participated in the American College Theater Festival nationwide. By entering this production, our department is sharing in the ACTF goals to help college theater grow and focus attention on the exemplary work produced in college and university theaters across the nation.

Otterbein Theatre Advisory

The Otterbein Theatre Advisory Committee was created in the fall of 1986. In association with Otterbein College, the Advisory Committee established the theatre endowment program. The program is designed to benefit two critical areas: talent grants for students, and special capital projects.

This summer, in addition to greeting theatre patrons, the Advisory Committee sponsored a reception for season ticket holders, so they could meet this summer's guest artists and theatre company.

The Otterbein Theatre Advisory Committee is growing and will become more involved with the theatre department, while continuing it's efforts to meet the endowment fund goal of $250,000.

If you are interested in joining the committee or contributing to the endowment fund, please contact Dr. Robert Fogal at 898-1305 or Jeanne Augustus at 898-1657.

We are pleased to recognize the following categories of giving to the Theatre Endowment.
