presents 19th season

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

June 25-30

This Joseph Kesselring classic comedy promises to start our 19th season on a high note of hilarity. The story revolves around the Brewster sisters, two charming and loveable ladies, who populate their cellar with remains of "acceptable" victims, and the zany antics of their family: a brother who thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt, a fugitive nephew whose recent plastic surgery has backfired and another nephew who is having difficulty accepting his Aunties' unique "hobby". Join us for one of the most popular comedies of all time.

BABY

July 5-7, 9-13

Central Ohio will have its first opportunity to experience this delightful Broadway musical, which explores the joys, pains and comedies of three very different couples and their journey to parenthood. The Tony award-nominated score with music by David Shire and lyrics by Richard Maltby, Jr., includes "At Night She Comes Home to Me," "Fatherhood Blues," and "Two People in Love." BABY promises to be an intimate and humorous evening of musical theatre.

TERRA NOVA

July 16-20

In the winter of 1911-1912 five Englishmen and five Norwegians raced each other to the bottom of the earth. Only the five Norwegians returned. This is the story of the five Englishmen. Blending historical fact drawn from the journals of Antarctic explorer Captain Scott with brilliantly devised fantasy scenes, author Ted Tally has crafted a compelling study of heroism in the face of bitter defeat. Managing Director Ed Vaughan will portray Captain Scott and guest artist Dennis Romer will direct the production.

THE GOOD DOCTOR

July 23-27

Neil Simon has collaborated with Anton Chekhov to produce a warm, tender and very funny evening of theatre. The play is a series of nine vignettes linked together by The Writer (played by guest artist Dennis Romer), who offers wise and droll comment on the characters he has created. The sketches offer an appealing balance of hilarious and poignant moments.

MURDER ON THE NILE

July 30-31, August 1-3

Take heart mystery buffs, once again we close our season with our old friend Agatha Christie. This time we find ourselves on a paddle steamer on the Nile River with the usual collection of intriguing characters and enough twists and turns in the plot to keep us on the edge of our seats. Make your plans early as the last two summer mysteries have played to 100 percent audience capacity. If you love a mystery, don't miss MURDER ON THE NILE.

From the Managing Director. . .

WELCOME TO OUR 19th SUMMER THEATRE SEASON! If early indications prove correct, Summer Theatre 1985 will be one of the most successful in our history. Two weeks prior to opening we established a new season ticket record and individual tickets sales were moving along at a brisk pace. We believe that theatre does not exist without an audience and we deeply appreciate your continued support of our efforts to provide you with a season's bill of plays designed to be entertaining and artistically satisfying.

As a result of your support, we have expanded our production budget 40% over the last three seasons. We have increased our technical budgets; added to our technical and directorial staffs and purchased new equipment, including new lighting instruments in 1983 and a new sound system in 1984; and contributed to the purchase of a new light board for the current season. Finally, we have given our lobby and theatre space a fresh new look. The colorful environment is much more pleasant to work in and we hope you share our enthusiasm for the theatre's new stylish surroundings. We would like to thank Petie Dodrill for her outstanding design of this project.

We look forward to sharing our 19th season with you; continue to tell your friends about us, and most importantly, enjoy the show!

FROM THE DIRECTOR . . .

This play, TERRA NOVA by Ted Tally, allows us to witness the re-creation of a startling historical event. In the winter of 1911-1912, five Englishmen and five Norwegians raced each other to the South Pole. Tally has focused on the English expedition, and Captain Robert Falcon Scott's relentless pursuit of an ideal, a journey that eventually reveals the courage of the human spirit.

For me, as a director, it is a distinct privilege to work with scripts that examine and probe the psyche and spirit of the courageous people who break new ground and venture into the unknown. I just directed the world premiere of a new play, FRONTIERS, written by four women, currently running at the Victory Theatre in Los Angeles, California. Its subject matter is the settling of the Kansas frontier at the turn of the century from a woman's point of view based on historical fact.

Working back to back on these projects has been a real discovery for me about the capabilities and potential of all human beings. We're all searching, seeking, looking for answers, coming to grips with who and why we are here on this planet. But very few of us willingly give up all of our creature comforts and venture into the unknown. Scott and his companions, whether for national pride or personal satisfaction, made that decision, and raced the Norwegians to the bottom of the earth.
