A THEATRE WITH A PURPOSE

The Otterbein College Theatre has offered the best in theatrical entertainment to its campus and community for nearly two decades. This season, through our varied program, the Otterbein College Theatre will strive to maintain its three-fold objective: ENTERTAINMENT, ARTISTIC AND CULTURAL APPRECIATION, AND EDUCATION — to both its spectators and participants.

In addition to four major productions and the film series, the theatre program this year will include a children's theatre production of Hansel and Gretel, and the second season for our religious drama program. The latter group toured last season a total of twenty-three performances. Their repertory will include Sign of Jonah, Christ and the Concrete City, and The Devil and Daniel Webster.

The theatrical staff consists of the following personnel: Professor Charles Dodrill, Director of Theatre; Professor Fred Thayer, Technical Director and Designer; Petie Dodrill, Director and Costume Designer; Mrs. Alan Norris, Publicity; and Dr. James Grissinger, Chairman of the Department of Speech and Theatre.

1965 — 1966

THE SERVANT OF TWO MASTERS

December 7, 8, 9, 10, 11

CARLO GOLDONI

This witty Italian farce comedy will be presented in "commedia dell' arte" style on the arena stage of Cowan Hall. The production will utilize "commedia" costumes, masks, and traditional farce slap-stick.

ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

October 21, 22, 23

IRVING BERLIN

This famous musical comedy opened in New York starring Ethel Merman as the famous marksman champion from America's backwoods, Annie Oakley. Playing for three years, Annie became the sixth longest-running musical in U.S. theatrical history. Twelve hit songs by Irving Berlin are featured, including "Anything You Can Do," "Sun in the Morning," and "Show Business."

OUR TOWN

May 12, 13, 14

THORNTON WILDER

One of the finest plays of our time—Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize winning drama about an American small town at the turn of the century—will highlight May Day campus festivities. It was termed by the New York Times as "... a hauntingly beautiful play."

THE MADWOMAN OF CHAILLOT

March 3, 4, 5

JEAN GIRAUDOUX

A play of delightful humor, controversy and love for humanity, Madwoman of Chailot will be presented by a "town and gown" cast of approximately 40 and will feature a PROFESSIONAL GUEST ARTIST in the title role. Hans Conreid, Ed Begley, Arnold Moss and Kim Hunter have been seen in our four previous guest star productions. A female artist of comparable stature will be sought for this year's show.

6 AWARD WINNING FILMS

October 8—"I'm All Right, Jack," British

November 23—"Last Year at Marienbad," French

January 7—"Rashomon," Japanese

February 9—"Ballad of a Soldier," Russian

March 11—"Lazarillo," Spanish

April 22—"The Good Soldier Schweik," German
