Dear Mrs. Cornell:

I was extremely pleased to learn of your recent donations of two major collections to the Otterbein Archives. So much of what we do on a daily basis revolves around what is new and looking to the future. I have always advocated a constant attention to our past to better understand our history, our traditions and the important precedents established by those with the vision to found a college. Your contributions are especially important as we prepare an updated history of the college for our 150th anniversary in 1996-97.

On behalf of the Otterbein community, many thanks.

Cordially,

C. Brent DeVore
