INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

International Day of Persons with Disabilities, sanctioned by the United Nations, aims to promote understanding of the issues experienced by people with disabilities, celebrate their achievements, and mobilize support for an inclusive community.

LEARN HOW YOU CAN EFFECT CHANGE:

Students of all abilities - Become advocates by engaging in a writing workshop. Learn how to present challenges to and opportunities for upholding the rights and dignity of people with disabilities on campus. Allow the campus community to hear your voice!

Faculty and staff - Learn about concrete ways you can support students with disabilities on campus.

Featuring a panel of Otterbein students.
