DIRECTORS

Fred J. Thayer, designer-technical director at Otterbein since 1960, was graduated from Bowling Green State University with an M.A. in Theatre. He has designed for the University of Toledo, Bowling Green, and Country Dinner Playhouse. Designer of more than 130 productions, he has studied in New York with Jo Mielziner and Lester Polakov and frequently serves as a technical consultant. He is also the Managing Director of this year's Summer Theatre.

Kathleen Lewicki, has completed her third year at Otterbein as an instructor of costume design and technical theatre. She received her MFA in Production from Carnegie-Mellon in 1978. While at Otterbein, she has designed settings and costumes for numerous productions. This summer Kate designed costumes for Charley's Aunt, Rodgers and Hart, Reynard the Fox and will design Murder at the Vicarage next week.

Edward G. Christman III, is the assistant to the Costumer for this season and designed costumes for Rainbow Dancing last week. Ed is a senior at Otterbein with major interests in both costuming and acting. He has designed costumes for Shadow Box this past year and A Mid-summer Nights Dream for the Zanesville Community Theatre.

The staff and students of the Otterbein Summer Theatre extend grateful appreciation to the above Patrons for their support. All of the above have contributed $10.00 or more. Otterbein Summer Theatre is in need of an additional $400.00 in Patron funds, in order that we may supply a small monetary stipend to our hard working performers. If you desire to contribute, you may do so at the box office or by mail. Thank you very much, Fred J. Thayer.

NEXT PRODUCTION...

"MURDER AT THE VICARAGE"

July 28-29-30-31 August 1

An Agatha Christie mystery that involves a body found in the parson's home, complete with numerous suspects and multiple confessors to the crime that again requires the shrewd Miss Marple to aid in the unraveling of the mystery. At intermission you get an opportunity to name the killer. A winner each night will receive two tickets to the Otterbein Theatre's opening production in the fall.
