ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

June 25-30

This Joseph Kesselring classic comedy promises to start our 19th season on a high note of hilarity. The story revolves around the Brewster sisters, two charming and loveable ladies, who populate their cellar with remains of "acceptable" victims, and the zany antics of their family: a brother who thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt, a fugitive nephew whose recent plastic surgery has backfired and another nephew who is having difficulty accepting his Aunties' unique "hobby". Join us for one of the most popular comedies of all time.

BABY

July 5-7, 9-13

Central Ohio will have its first opportunity to experience this delightful Broadway musical, which explores the joys, pains and comedies of three very different couples and their journey to parenthood. The Tony award-nominated score with music by David Shire and lyrics by Richard Maltby, Jr., includes "At Night She Comes Home to Me," "Fatherhood Blues," and "Two People in Love." BABY promises to be an intimate and humorous evening of musical theatre.

TERRA NOVA

July 16-20

In the winter of 1911-1912 five Englishmen and five Norwegians raced each other to the bottom of the earth. Only the five Norwegians returned. This is the story of the five Englishmen. Blending historical fact drawn from the journals of Antarctic explorer Captain Scott with brilliantly devised fantasy scenes, author Ted Tally has crafted a compelling study of heroism in the face of bitter defeat. Managing Director Ed Vaughan will portray Captain Scott and guest artist Dennis Romer will direct the production.

THE GOOD DOCTOR

July 23-27

Neil Simon has collaborated with Anton Chekhov to produce a warm, tender and very funny evening of theatre. The play is a series of nine vignettes linked together by The Writer (played by guest artist Dennis Romer), who offers wise and droll comment on the characters he has created. The sketches offer an appealing balance of hilarious and poignant moments.

MURDER ON THE NILE

July 30-31, August 1-3

Take heart mystery buffs, once again we close our season with our old friend Agatha Christie. This time we find ourselves on a paddle steamer on the Nile River with the usual collection of intriguing characters and enough twists and turns in the plot to keep us on the edge of our seats. Make your plans early as the last two summer mysteries have played to 100 percent audience capacity. If you love a mystery, don't miss MURDER ON THE NILE.

From the Managing Director. . .

WELCOME TO OUR 19th SUMMER THEATRE SEASON! If early indications prove correct, Summer Theatre 1985 will be one of the most successful in our history. Two weeks prior to opening we established a new season ticket record and individual tickets sales were moving along at a brisk pace. We believe that theatre does not exist without an audience and we deeply appreciate your continued support of our efforts to provide you with a season's bill of plays designed to be entertaining and artistically satisfying.

As a result of your support, we have expanded our production budget 40% over the last three seasons. We have increased our technical budgets; added to our technical and directorial staffs and purchased new equipment, including new lighting instruments in 1983 and a new sound system in 1984; and contributed to the purchase of a new light board for the current season. Finally, we have given our lobby and theatre space a fresh new look. The colorful environment is much more pleasant to work in and we hope you share our enthusiasm for the theatre's new stylish surroundings. We would like to thank Petie Dodrill for her outstanding design of this project.

We look forward to sharing our 19th season with you; continue to tell your friends about us, and most importantly, enjoy the show!

DENNIS ROMER, actor and director, was a company member and resident director at the Raft Theatre on Theatre Row in New York City for three years. His favorite projects were the world premiere of HOME by Martin Zurla and the play CHINAMEN, by Michael Frayn. Other directing credits include the world premiere of TRYING by award-winning playwright Joanna Glass and a critically acclaimed production of SUMMERTREE by Ron Cowen. Dennis just produced and directed the world premiere of FRONTIERS, written by four women at the Victory Theatre in Los Angeles. He received his M.F.A. in directing from Wayne State University and his B.A. in theatre from Otterbein in 1971. As an actor, Dennis spent two seasons as a company member at the Cleveland Playhouse, where he had the privilege of working with Melvyn Douglas and Jean Arthur in the original production of FIRST MONDAY IN OCTOBER. He has played opposite Ricardo Montalban in ACCENT ON YOUTH with the Kenley Players; Selma Diamond in BAREFOOT IN THE PARK; and John Raitt and later Howard Keel in SHENANDOAH at the Kennedy Center. A veteran of numerous TV commercials, Dennis has also created three long-running characters in the land of soap: the ever-perfect Dr. Doug Campbell on "AS THE WORLD TURNS", the slightly tainted Tony Burton on "SEARCH FOR TOMORROW", and the distinctively nasty Dr. Roy White on "FOR RICHER, FOR POORER". Since moving to Los Angeles from New York last year, he has played a smiliar range of characters guest starring on "Hotel", "Matt Houston", "Mike Hammer", and "Brothers".

Dennis Romer appears through the courtesy of Actor's Equity Association.

THE GOOD DOCTOR is presented through special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc., 45 West 25th Street, New York, New York 10010.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE . . .

As a young director of (I think) eight years old, my very first theatrical productions were staged during long afternoons in my grandmother's attic. I will forever recall them as completely magical plays because in this privileged space were memories and mysteries - a nostalgic world lovingly preserved in trunks and boxes and old clothes, inspiring many great performances. We have set this production in a Russian grandmother's attic, if you will, to recapture that magic. It seemed to us the ideal space for a writer, a playwright, or a player: a world in which anything can happen and imagination can be exercised. The little kid inside you knows what we mean.

SPECIAL CHILDREN'S THEATRE: ANDROCLES and the LION

Based on an old Aesop's fable, Aurand Harris' "Androcles and the Lion" is a story of a good-natured Roman slave who befriends a hurt lion while trying to win his freedom from a miserly master. The play is a comedy with plenty of action guaranteed to provide an entertaining afternoon for the young and old alike. Performance dates are: Thurs., Fri., and Sat., July 18, 19, 20 with two performances daily at 1:15 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. General admission is $2.50; groups over 25-$2.00. Make your plans early; last year's children's show played to 95 percent capacity.

Try Our New "Sisters Style" Catfish.

• Farm Raised • Freshwater • Fantastic!

Sisters pampered catfish grow up tender in special freshwater, aerated reservoirs, where they are grain fed.

Sisters serves only boneless catfish filets. Big, flaky pieces, dipped in a light batter and cooked to a crispy, golden brown.

As a dinner with hush puppies and your choice of side dishes or as a sandwich on a corn-dusted roll, you'll love catfish — "Sisters Style."

You've Never Had It This Good.
