Anne Alexander (assistant properties mistress), a BFA design/technical major from Peninsula, Ohio, returns for her second year with OST. In the past year, Anne was properties mistress for Noises Off, co-master carpenter for The Crucible, and co-master painter for Frontiers.

Anne has previously worked with Weathervane Community Playhouse and Kent State University's Porthouse Theatre.

Diana Blazer (costume shop assistant), is a BFA performance major from Mechanicsburg, Ohio and is joining OST for her first year. During her first year at Otterbein, Diana was active in workshops, portraying Jewel in Patio and Jennifer in Approaching Lavendar. She kept involved as a "techie" by working on a variety of backstage crews. She also served as costume crewhead for The Crucible. Diana enjoys sewing and satisfying her insatiable hunger for Oreo cookies.

Trad Burns (properties master), hails from Vermilion, Ohio and has just completed his second year as a BFA design/technical major. This is his second season with OST. He has been involved with many productions since his freshman year including; properties master for Amadeus and Carousel and master electrician for Sleeping Beauty.

Some of Trad's favorite pastimes include time off, sleeping and breaking props during productions.

Beth Burrier (assistant music director), is excited to be with OST for her second season. She is a junior music education major from Zanesville, Ohio. Beth is rehearsal assistant for Opus Zero, a member of Concert Choir and recently was pianist for Otterbein's production of Carousel.

Kevin Ford Carty (acting company), returns to OST for his second season. A senior BFA musical theatre major, Kevin enjoys basketball, good friends, and rock and roll, not necessarily in that order. Past credits include Mozart in Amadeus, Garry in Noises Off, and Elano in Sleeping Beauty. Last summer he appeared in Jacques Brel and Whodunnit. Kevin plans to intern in the fall of '88, then reside in Chicago.

Jean C. Childers (acting-apprentice), originally from Indianapolis, Ind., Jean spent her fall semester in the University of Pittsburgh's Semester at Sea program. She is a BFA performance major and this summer marks her stage debut. She likes to eat ice cream late at night, invent bizarre pasta dishes, and read vampire novels.

Chris Clapp (scene shop assistant), is a junior BFA design/technical major spending his first season with OST. In the past year Chris has served as master painter for Amadeus, master carpenter for Sleeping Beauty and master electrician for Frontiers. He also plays tenor sax in the Jazz Band and oboe in the Concert Band. Chris wants to be a lighting designer, but if necessary, will settle for being a scenic designer.

Christine Cox (business manager), from Delaware, Ohio is a 1987 graduate from Otterbein and is happy to be spending her third summer with OST. Though Chris is at home backstage and in the box office, she has been onstage in West Side Story, Baby, Peter Pan, Jacques Brel, as Eliza Doolittle in My Fair Lady and most recently as Nettie in Carousel.

Lisa Davidson (acting company), a senior BFA performance major from Worthington is with us for her second season. Past roles include Belinda in Noises Off, Nora in Ah! Wilderness, Louise in Plenty and Lady Boxington in last year's My Fair Lady. Lisa will spend her fall quarter interning in New York at Pat McCorkle Casting and plans on moving to Chicago to begin her career as an actress.

Tim Gregory (acting company), a native of Cincinnati, returns to OST for his fourth and final summer. Some of Tim's past credits include Antonio Salieri in Amadeus, Henry Higgins in My Fair Lady, Petruchio in Taming of the Shrew and John Proctor in The Crucible. Tim will spend this coming winter interning with the casting agency of Simon and Kumin in New York. In his spare time, Tim enjoys reading, playwriting, playing football, basketball, softball and racquetball and watching the Celtics.

John R. Gutknecht (scene shop manager), is a sophomore design/tech major, originally from Hinckley, Ohio. John has been living in Barrington, Illinois for the past six years. Prior to coming to Otterbein John had been working in technical theatre in the Chicago area. This past season, among other things, John was master carpenter for Noises Off, props for the Crucible, and master electrician for Carousel. This will be his first year with Otterbein Summer Theatre.

Rachael E. Harris (acting-apprentice), is spending her first summer with Otterbein Summer Theatre. A freshman BFA performance major from Worthington, Ohio, Rachael has participated in various shows ranging from Harriet in the fall workshop production of The Waiting Room to mainstage as Belita in Sleeping Beauty and Betty Parris in The Crucible. In her spare time Rachael enjoys camping, hot tea on winter evenings, and beef jerky.

Todd Alan Kreps (acting-apprentice), is from Loveland, Colorado and has completed his second year as a BFA performance major here at Otterbein College. This is Todd's first season at Otterbein Summer Theatre. Some of his roles include Danforth in The Crucible, Rosenburgh in Amadeus and Gort in Otterbein Children's Theatre production of Sleeping Beauty. Todd enjoys skiing, mountain climbing, and Chutes and Ladders.

Catherine Randazzo (acting company), graduated this past June with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in performance. This is her third year with OST. She last was seen as Carrie in Carousel, and has appeared as Dotty in Noises Off, Pam in Baby, Anita in West Side Story, Betty in The Foreigner and Tiger Lily in Peter Pan. Originally from Seven Hills, Ohio, Catherine will attend Graduate School in California for her Master of Fine Arts degree in acting. She is looking forward to intense work, sunny skies, sandy beaches and tanned men.

Ralph E. Scott (acting company), is very excited to be participating in his first year at OST. He has been seen in Amadeus, Noises Off, and Carousel, and will be a senior in the fall. Ralph is from Albany, Ohio. He loves the Rolling Stones, Elvis Presley and his family.

Bethany Smith (box office reservationist), age 20, will be a junior BA theatre and speech education major. She has been a box office assistant for two years. Bethany was in Carousel, serves on the speech team, plays in The Westerville Civic Symphony, and was seen in workshop productions of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat as the Narrator and Pirates of Penzance as Mabel. Bethany is from Canton, Ohio.

Rich Uhrick (scene shop assistant), Rich has just finished his first year at Otterbein, and is spending his first summer here at OST. He is a design/tech major from Columbus, Ohio, and has worked a crew for every show last year; he was master carpenter for The Crucible. Rich plans to continue in theatre at Otterbein, and even plans to design a few of the shows before he graduates. He also enjoys camping and the great outdoors.

Susie Walsh (production assistant), is a design/tech major from Barrington, Illinois. Susie has worked in both technical and stage management areas. This past season she was master electrician for Noises Off, and assistant stage manager for Carousel. This is her first OST season.

Scott Willis (acting company), native of Ashville, Ohio is a senior musical theatre major. This past year Scott appeared as Johann Kilian von Strack in Amadeus, and the Starkeeper in Carousel. A sports fan, Scott also enjoys swimming, horseback riding, and nature.

Dennis Romer

Dennis currently resides in the San Fernando Valley in Southern California with his wife, Doreen and his four year old son, Eric. However, out of fear and obvious desire to overextend himself financially, he still maintains an apartment in New York City.

A graduate of the class of 1971 at Otterbein Dennis went on to Wayne State University where he received his MFA in directing and was a member of the Hilberry Repertory Theatre along with guest artist Michael Hartman. Dennis is a current directing member of the Ensemble Studio Theatre in Los Angeles where he has directed Chinamen by Michael Frayn and where he is currently developing a new work entitled Coming of Age by Doreen Dunn. Dennis recently produced and directed the world premiere of Frontiers in Los Angeles at the Victory Theatre with D Martyn Bookwalter doing the scenic and lighting design.

As an actor, Dennis has played major and supporting roles at the Meadow Brook Theatre, the Cleveland Playhouse and is a member of the Raft Theatre Acting Group in New York City on Theatre Row. He has also played contract roles on As the World Turns, Search for Tomorrow, and he recently completed the role of Gene Blake on All My Children. In Los Angeles he has had guest and co-starring roles on Dynasty, Mike Hammer, Matt Houston, Hotel, Crazy Like a Fox and most recently Starman.

Dennis returns this year to direct The Dresser after guest starring last year with Karen Radcliffe in Otterbein Summer Theatre's critically acclaimed production of Plenty. Dennis appreciates his continuing association with Ed Vaughan and OST.

David Robinson

David Robinson (Costume Designer) is returning to OST after designing last summer's Whodunnit and Plenty. He was called "one of our most creative young designers" by The New York Times and "always imaginative" by The Village Voice. Since his graduation from Otterbein in 1978, he has designed over 150 plays, musicals, dance pieces and industrial shows in New York, Georgia, Colorado, Maine, Connecticut and Ohio. He returned this winter to design Harrigan and Hart at Player's Theatre and will be designing costumes for Opera Columbus' Christmas Production of Babes in Toyland.

Rob Johnson

Rob Johnson (Lighting Designer) holds a Master of Fine Arts degree in design from Ohio State University in addition to a Master of Arts degree in design from West Virginia University. Rob has been working as a freelance designer based in Columbus, designing sets and lights throughout the midwest. Rob has designed several productions for the Columbus Light Opera including The Mi- kado and Pirates of Penzance. He has recently designed lighting for Otterbein College Theatre's production of Amadeus and a production of Oklahoma at Mershon Auditorium.

Rob has been a guest artist for the past four summers at Bowling Green State University where he designed sets and lights for several musicals. He has also designed lighting for various Columbus dance companies.

Rob is currently the resident designer for the Gallery Players. This fall he will join the Otterbein faculty where he will teach scenic and lighting design.

Michael Hartman

Michael Hartman returns to OST for the third time since he graduated in 1970. Previously he played Treves in The Elephant Man and last season he was seen as Nat Miller in Ah! Wilderness.

Michael made his Broadway debut in Sherlock Holmes and he has performed regionally at the Equity Library Theatre, the GEVA Playhouse, the McCarter Theatre, The Virginia Stage Company and Center Stage in Baltimore. He has also performed at the Kennedy Center in productions of Streetcar Named Desire, All the Way Home, Husbands, Hot Grog, The Hostage, Toys in the Attic,

The Front Page and Diamond Studs. Michael has also appeared on soaps and has accumulated over 100 TV commercials and voice overs.

Michael is an avid sports fan who follows everything from horse racing and baseball to Otterbein Basketball. He keeps an apartment in New York City and a house in Baltimore, Maryland where he lives with his wife and friend of 18 years, Toni, and their 13 year old daughter, Tess and their 11 year old son, Micah.

Michael Hartman and Dennis Romer have worked together at Otterbein for three years and at the Hilberry Classic Rep. at Wayne State University for two years. He is honored to work in The Dresser and to renew old friendships with Ed Vaughan and Dennis Romer.

Our 21st Summer Season Professional

The following people have agreed in principle to participate in the 21st Otterbein Summer Theatre season. All will have a 30 day out clause in their Guest Artist Contract to allow them to continue to pursue major film or TV opportunities.

Actors

David Graf '72 returns for his second season with Otterbein Summer Theatre having played the title role in last season's smash hit The Foreigner. David has just completed filming Police Academy IV, in which he appears as the gun-toting Tackleberry, and a major role in another feature film, Burnin' Love. He co-starred in the TV series He's The Mayor last winter, and appeared as Bink in Irreconcilable Differences, with Ryan O'Neal and Shelley Long. David will be featured in our production of See How They Run.

Michael Hartman '70 is returning to Otterbein for the third time since graduating in 1970. Previously, he played Treves in The Elephant Man and the father in Ah! Wilderness. He will take on the challenging role of Sir in this season's closing production of The Dresser. Michael made his Broadway debut in Sherlock Holmes and continues to be active in regional theatres and national television commercials.

Kathryn Graf has been a member of the acting community in Hollywood since 1983, and is currently seen on USA Network's Consumer Challenge. Her additional television credits include current appearances on Superior Court, Days of Our Lives, and The Young and the Restless. Los Angeles area theatre credits include: The Trojan Women, Tartuffe, No Exit, Happy Birthday, Wanda June, and John Ford Noonan's recent premiere of Green Mountain Fever. Kathryn is looking forward to this summer at Otterbein.

Karen Radcliffe '80, who is returning to Otterbein for the second time since graduating in 1980, appeared in a featured role on Dallas opposite Linda Gray. She continues to work in the Fort Worth Shakespeare Festival. During the past four years she has appeared in over forty commercials and several films, including the recent ABC film Right to Kill. She has appeared on TV in Last Run starring Robert Mitchum.

Directors

Carter Lewis '73 returns this season to stage The Real Thing. Mr. Lewis directed last season's stunning production of Plenty with guest artist Karen Radcliffe. He is a freelance director and playwright and continues to make his home near San Francisco, California. Since last summer he has directed Painting Churches for Players' Theatre and My Sister in This House for CATCO.

Dennis Romer '71 recently completed playing the role of Gene Blake on All My Children. Other TV appearances include roles on Dynasty, Mike Hammer, Hotel, and Crazy Like a Fox. For OST, he has directed Whodunnit, Terra Nova, and The Dining Room. This season he will direct the closing production of The Dresser.

Designers

D. Martyn Bookwalter '75 is considered one of the best scenic designers in Los Angeles having won the Los Angeles Drama Critics Award for outstanding scene design for the third year in a row. He was nominated for an Emmy for Painting Churches, produced for American Television KCET-LA. He returns this season to do the lighting for See How They Run and the scenery and lighting for The Real Thing and Is There Life After High School?. Most recently Mr. Bookwalter did the scenery and lighting for Otterbein's highly acclaimed production of Noises Off.

David Robinson '78 continues to be highly successful as a freelance costume designer, working for such diverse groups as: The Colorado Snowmass Repertory Theatre, Caesar's Palace in Atlantic City, Hanana Rahn's Modern Dance Company's New York season, the Atlanta Marriott Marquee Hotel, starring Dionne Warwick, and his first film, Nightmare Cabaret. He returns to OST for his second season and will design the costumes for See How They Run and The Dresser.

Otterbein Summer Theatre Staff

Ed Vaughan, Otterbein Theatre faculty member, serves as the Artistic Director of Otterbein Summer Theatre for the fifth consecutive season.

Tod Wilson, a 1986 Otterbein graduate from Gahanna, Ohio joins Otterbein Summer Theatre for his fourth season. This summer Mr. Wilson will serve as the managing director after spending two seasons as business manager/assistant producer. He is currently working on his graduate degree in arts management at The University of Akron.

Chris Cox, a 1987 Otterbein graduate from Delaware, Ohio is spending her third summer with Otterbein Summer Theatre as the business manager. Though Chris finds herself at home backstage, she has been onstage in West Side Story, Baby, Peter Pan, Jacques Brel and as Eliza Doolittle in My Fair Lady.

Roger Tackette, is a 1984 graduate of Otterbein and is returning for his sixth summer theatre season. In the past he has functioned as an apprentice, scene shop assistant, acting company member, director of children's theatre, and assistant to the producer. Roger has recently completed his M.F.A. degree in directing at Lindenwood College in St. Louis, Mo. This summer Mr. Tackette will be the technical director.

Robert Hetherington, joins Otterbein Summer Theatre for his third season having directed productions of Baby, The Good Doctor, Jacques Brel, and The Foreigner, with David Graf. This season Bob will once again team with David Graf in our third production, See How They Run. He will also direct our opening production of Life After High School.

David Hammond, returns to Otterbein Summer Theatre to design the set for the production of See How They Run. Previous Otterbein designs include: Amadeus, Lady House Blues, Terra Nova, and The Elephant Man. David has also designed for Player's Theater of Columbus and the American Contemporary Theatre Company. He is currently director of theatre at Upper Arlington High School.

Katie Robbins, Otterbein's talented costume designer, joins Otterbein Summer Theatre for her first season as the costume designer for the opening two productions of Life After High School and The Real Thing. Ms. Robbins has just completed her first year as assistant professor in the Otterbein College Department of Theatre and Dance. She holds a B.A. degree from San Jose State University and a M.F.A. degree from Humbolt State University in California.

Mary Beth Robinson, returns for her fourth season with Otterbein Summer Theatre. She has just completed an assignment as the costume shop manager at Wittenburg University and will function as the costume shop manager with Otterbein Summer Theatre for the second straight season.

Fred J. Thayer, Otterbein's coordinator of design/technology, will function as the lighting coordinator for all Otterbein Summer Theatre productions. Mr. Thayer's most recent credits include the scenic and lighting design for Carousel and the lighting for Sleeping Beauty.

Stephen C. Buckwald has just completed his first year as an acting/directing instructor in Otterbein's Department of Theatre and Dance, and recently directed The Crucible. He holds a B.A. degree from Temple University and a

M.F.A. degree from the University of Connecticut. Mr. Buckwald is functioning as assistant Artistic Director and will also serve as sound coordinator.

Craig Johnson, Otterbein Music faculty member, joins Otterbein Summer Theatre for the second time. This season he will serve as musical director of Is There Life After High School? Mr. Johnson was the musical director of the 1984 summer hit, The Fantastiks.

Thank You

for making our
21st Summer Season
so successful and so very special!

- Mailing List If you would like to be on our mailing list and receive announcements of college cultural activities, please fill out a card at the refreshment stand.
- Refreshments The refreshment stand is located in the lobby for your convenience. We would appreciate your cooperation in not bringing cups into the theater. Thank you.
- Restrooms and Telephones The restrooms and telephones are located upstairs opposite the main entrance of the Campus Center.
- Backstage Visit You are welcome to come backstage and say "hello" to the cast, crew and guest artists immediately following any production.
