Buck Institute of Education "Out of the Gate" Grant

The Department of Education received a national grant to support training in Project Based Learning (PBL), a teaching method which examines real-world problems with 21st century skills. The "Out of the Gate" grant will provide professional development to Otterbein Education faculty, teacher partners from five different central Ohio school districts, and up to 300 Otterbein education majors.

Forum for Youth Advocacy Uganda (FOYA) Helps Young Girls

Ten years ago, Forum for Youth Advocacy \(FOYA\) was introduced to a wonderful community in Uganda. Since then fifty Otterbein students have traveled there with four alumni visiting this year. In 2018, FOYA will work with projects in building libraries and ensuring that young girls are empowered to stay in school. Allowing these young girls to tell their stories and giving them a voice in their curriculum helps form positive developmental assets to continue their education. FOYA will also work with young adolescent girls in educating them on menstrual hygiene and reproductive health.
