All the world's a stage,
All the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances;

And one student in his time plays many parts,
His acts being in seven ages. As, first the new student
Seeing his college as the Administration . . .

And then the smiling schoolboy, with his many faces
Shown through the activities of a Student's Life . . .

And then the lover of knowledge
Who finds an Academic Life . . .

Then the soldier, full of spirit,
Whether an athlete or a spectator
Finding excitement in the Sports . . .

And then the fraternal feeling with fellow students,
Sharing hopes and ideals as Greeks . . .

The sixth age shifts to find the mellowed student,
Who through the years has acquired a knowing look
And is seen as the Senior . . .

The last scene of all is not seen on the college campus
It swings to worlds far away,
There the student portrays his final and lasting role,
The one for which the first six have gone before.

Cars lined the streets; parents and freshmen piled out—Freshmen Orientation had begun. That first day was mingled with shy hellos, helpful hints from J.C.'s, and mass moving-in to the Freshmen Quad, Cochran, and King. But before the parents left, there was that reassuring talk with each freshman's advisor on Towers' lawn. All too quickly car doors slammed again, and only some were returning home. Others remained behind—embarking on new adventures, new friendships, new challenges. These first few days would be the final preparation, coupled with anticipation, for the Class of 1970 as they too became the face of Otterbein.

During the first few weeks of classes there were opportunities for the freshmen to mingle with the upperclassmen to get the feel of college life. At the Freshman talent show many of the frosh stepped up to the stage to show the rest of the campus their worth. Alum Creek provided the setting for the Big—Little Sis picnic sponsored by the YWCA. Frosh girls and their upperclass sponsors gathered on the banks of the creek to talk over the problems that face all co-eds.

Owls all-campus, featuring Otterbein's Marlins was the first social event in which the entire campus participated.

The scream of "BURN BABY BURN" was a chant heard in every part of town as the freshman class was determined to build the biggest bonfire ever.

The excitement and preparation for the bonfire had begun hours before the sophomore class chairman lit the base of the 40 foot fire. During operation "Burn, Baby, Burn," freshmen collected objects varying from an old organ to a bathtub and balanced them precariously on top of the pile. Only the freshmen, bedecked in their pajamas and dancing around the fire, distracted from its intense heat and brightness. As the frosh cheered for the team, their pep and enthusiasm began to grab the entire crowd. That clear fall Friday evening left an imprint on the hearts of Otterbein students. Its memory will linger even longer than the fire's embers which burned till morn.

The traditional ritual of crowning the Freshman Beanie King and Queen was one spark that was to ignite the enthusiasm of the Freshman class. Each Frosh, clad in various styles of pajamas, reached his peak of pep and enthusiasm as he was led in cheers by Cindy Schuler and Carol MacKenzie, Freshman cheerleaders. Then, the moment came for the crowning of the 1966 Freshman Beanie King and Queen—Carl Henry and Beth Hodder. Last year's King and Queen, John Baffa and Patsy Shar, relinquished their titles by crowning the new royalty.

There is a uniqueness in the Otterbein students that enables them to live every moment of their college life to its greatest extent. It may be a structured event, perhaps a pizza party or a dance in the Pit, or it may be that spontaneous moment in the Roost, where friends smiled a little brighter or laughed a little happier as they shared a new confidence or a new joke. Otterbein students have found a life here that extends beyond the realm of academics and studying and permeates every aspect of their personalities.

Try to remember the days of September ... a sock hop after the game ... Saturday afternoon at the library ... an opportunity to "eat out ..." There was time to relax out on the lake ... or to lend a helping hand where needed ... and, of course, a stop at the local bar ...

Skeptics may ask, "What's the good of Scrap Day anyway?" Well, if you take away the water and the fun, the laughter and cheers, the defeats and victories, you might not think anything remains. But it was an unequaled day of reckoning and realization. The amazed sophomores witnessed the spunky freshmen winning the sand bag relay. Towers Hall nodded its bell in approval of the freshman tug-of-war victory! However, through their overall loss of Scrap Day, the weary frosh learned respect and humility, not only for the sophomores, but for a unique tradition of Otterbein College.

Water and soap suds, wet squeaky sneakers and soaked clothes, laughter and tears—all are a part of Scrap Day.

Annual rivalry between the sophomores and freshmen is always a blast. This year rule changes were made; fifteen separate events were scheduled throughout the day. The sophomores as usual won the competition, but the victory was marred by the freshmen triumph in the tug-of-war.

With sad feelings freshmen continued to wear their beanies for an additional two weeks. Sophomores, remembering their previous year's defeat, glowed with the spirit of victory.

"All the men and women merely players . . ."

"They have their exits and their entrances . . ."

Rain, rain go away, come again another day! Coats are wet, hands are cold, shoes are soaked, oh, will it never end?

UMBRELLAS! Umbrellas! umbrellas! hanging and spirits lag as the rain comes falling down. When the downpour ends and the skies clear, the spirits rise. Dull sidewalks glisten in pools of water. The air has a new sweetness. The breeze blows fresh and clean.

On crisp clear autumn afternoons and chilly evenings the Otterbein fans turned out to cheer for their favorite team. As the players took their positions for the kickoff the excitement rose in the stands and with every clash of the two teams on the field the crowd roared with enthusiasm.

Miss Becky Lust become the Queen of Otterbein's Fall Homecoming celebration amid bright colors and smiling faces. Miss Lust, representing Theta Nu sorority, began her reign at halftime of the football game. The new Queen began her duties by presenting awards for the best floats. The festivities of the day continued after the game as the Queen and her court attended the sixtieth anniversary play, "As You Like It." The day ended at the Homecoming Dance with the presentation of the court.

On a crisp autumn day, the campus main street surged with activity—pines, panthers, model T's, students, and royalty. The occasion? Homecoming, Otterbein style, was finally taking shape after weeks of planning and hard work. Mums, petal paper, and pretty girls added color and gaiety to the beat of the drums and the sound of the band.

Homecoming was a day for everybody. It was a chance for the ROTC drill team to demonstrate its skill, for Otterbein and Heidelberg to fight it out again, and for friendly sorority and fraternity competition as each float was judged with care. And, it was a day for lovely Queen Becky Lust to reign with graciousness and poise. There were varied emotions that afternoon, from the awed look of a small boy or the excitement of a student, to the endurance and loyalty of a President as he intently watched the game on a chilly afternoon.

Dim lights and a bleak, almost bare stage offered the setting for the Ohio premiere of "Brecht on Brecht." The cast of six presented readings and dramatizations of Brecht's life and experiences as he interpreted them. Jim Lewis, Jim Anderson, Mike Metzel, Connie Theokas, Barb Immel and Sharon Ruhly, portrayed various characters who touched Brecht's life. The play, with its sometimes stark reality balanced by lighter moments, brought unusual drama to the Otterbein stage.

Studying, relaxing and creating—all are phases of student life at Otterbein. Afternoon classes over, head for the Roost! The life and color at Otterbein blend together into varying hues which become mere memories as the year passes.

The scene of many events during the year, including art shows, Otterbein's Campus Center has a uniqueness which shadows its doors once a year. Traveling, talking, and even singing ... It's WOBN holding the Cap-Otter Marathon lasting a continuous twenty-four hours before the rival football game. All for spirit ...

Mid-terms were over. Thanksgiving had come and gone. The magical month of December had finally arrived. And what better way to start the whirlwind of Christmas gaiety than with the traditional Pan-Hel formal? Combining the elegance of Valley Dale with the excitement of the season, it proved to be one of those nights for lingering memories.

Studying, sleeping and studying, college seems to be a never ending cycle. Biology lab, western civ assignments on library reserve and literature terms to check, all keep the Otterbein student working. As the year progresses, the library, science labs and Towers Hall study rooms become dens of . . .

Slipping, sliding and slushing to classes characterizes snowfalls at Otterbein. To students, the snow is more than discomfort. It is snowball fights, snowmen, sledding and the promise of ice skating and skiing. But the campus with a new cover of snow is a sight few students will ever forget.

Singing voices, smiling faces join to herald the season's arrival. Carols ringing, lights ablazing, Christmas tree shining . . . Parties merry, feelings cheery, vacation nears . . . People coming, people going, last minute papers and gift-wrapping to do . . . Hustle, bustle, hurry, scurry, ". . . in the air there's a feeling of Christmas."

Children were delighted as they were carried into the land of make-believe when "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" was presented by the Otterbein College Theatre. Colorful costumes and bright scenery added to the fairy tale mood.

Panic . . . excitement . . . new acquaintances . . . stage fright . . . parties . . . combined to form the Reader's Theatre Festival. Colleges and universities throughout the nation presented a wide variety of productions, including Otterbein's "Brecht on Brecht."

Tension heightened as the spotlight scanned the Alumni Gym, and the crowd cheered as its beam selected Marlene Lansman as Winter Homecoming Princess. Sally Norton was chosen as Maid of Honor, and Cheryl Muha was the First Attendant.

"O-T-T-E-R-B-E-I-N, let's go!" The Otters heeded the advice from this familiar chant as they went all the way to the Ohio Conference tournament finals. Fans were repeatedly thrilled as the team moved from one victory to another.

"Neophyte!" . . . and girls clad in middy blouses fell to their knees in obedience . . . "Attitude check!" . . . and a cry of "love it, love it, love it" rang out . . . The day continued with various acts—worms crawled out of apples, owls gave a familiar hoot and Greenwich Village came to life. It was a day of seeing crowds, of meeting the spectators and getting their John Henrys. This was Hell Day, the one day that gave the Q.P.V. a three-ring circus not even Barnum and Bailey could imagine.

QUEENS, QUEEN'S, QUEEN: Dancing for hours, Interfraternity Council Formal, King's Inn, queen candidates, and that special mood . . . highlighted by the crowning of Carol MacKenzie, Miss Tan and Cardinal of 1967.

Good times, Bad times, Our times—time for friendships . . . times of hardships. Rushing was over . . . pledging, pledging, pledging. Friendships . . . hardships . . .

Greeks import action (not that they need to) by sponsoring all campus events; such as hay rides, barbecues, pizza parties, and dances.

An awed senior, Debbie Barndt, was crowned as the 1967 SIBYL queen. Jan Lenahan, last year's queen, was present to congratulate the new queen; while Editor-in-Chief of the SIBYL, Judi Garratt, presented Debbie with a bouquet of long stemmed red roses. As SIBYL queen, Debbie mirrors the exceptional attributes of an Otterbein student—energy, enthusiasm, and leadership.

Every week old Barlow provides the setting for an Otterbein happening, the Friday night coffeehouse. The attraction ... cards and coffee ... a Zen Buddhist ... folk-singers ... student-produced film features ... art exhibits ... a history prof on Huff ... dangling conversations ... And the most rewarding moments of all—faculty talking with students ... students talking with faculty ... Otterbein ... social work ... war ... ideas ...

Spring ??? Warm weather ... Sunshine ??? Tennis ... Baseball ... Girl watching ??? Quiet talks ... Long walks ... Spring!

The arrival of spring is celebrated each year with a salute to mothers. This year the Mothers Weekend program was highlighted by the Home Economics Department's spring style show, and the college Theatre's presentation of Our Town.

Women from the Home Economics Department modeled various spring styles for an audience of students and their mothers, previewing fashion trends for the coming warm weather.

Albert Dekker, as the narrator, headed the cast of Our Town. Mr. Dekker worked with many other fine actors in the Otterbein tradition of presenting one play each year with a professional guest star.

Who says American women are aggressive? Spend a week (Jump Week, to be exact) with roles reversed, and what do you find? Girls with chills and shaky knees with the fear of being "shot down;" and guys thoroughly enjoying the idea of taking the "easy" way out. Line up seven candidates . . . and what are the results? The coeds pick Lorenzo Hunt as reigning king. It all happened as W.S.G.B. sponsored M.E.R.V. (Men's Economic Recovery Week). But isn't it a relief to know that it only comes but once a year?

Heavenly events combined with angels just seem natural. And the Angels certainly took the spotlight at the annual Military Ball as Margie Reese, Barb Billings, Ann Lawther, Elaine Ellis, and Toni Churches, five of the charter members, were recognized for their efforts in making the local flight what it is today. To make the evening complete, royalty reigned over the dance as the men of R.O.T.C. selected Miss Lawther as "Queen of the Ball."

Spring arrived at last! The Season for concerts, sailing, romance, convertibles—that wouldn't start . . . Ohio State came to the Pit—Otterberg Nite . . . Mayne Hall guarded by a "security officer" . . . . .

Bright colors . . . dancers . . .
 children . . . laughter . . .
 lovely coeds . . . May Day!!!
 Queen Anne Barr reigns . . .
 The program—singing, impersonations, jokes . . .

Fantasy, dancing, and music blended into "Brigadoon." Moments of laughter, tears, and anticipation . . .

Rigorous relays, palatable pies, ephemereal eggs, tremulous tricycles . . . The results—Pi Sig and Arbutus named winners . . .

Peace Corps volunteers, Margo Gortarese and Bill Sakovich, visit campus during international week . . . Kings win Harmony Night with Deltas second and Greenwich third . . .

Sun shining . . . warm weather . . . sun bathing—UGH! A WATER BALLOON . . . School ends . . . armloads of boxes . . . hundreds of stairs . . . tears . . . good-byes . . .

Four years of work come to a close . . . The climactic moment arrives . . . Each senior steps forward to receive his coveted diploma . . . Congratulations!!! Farewells . . .

Graduation festivities included—Governor Rhodes speaking and receiving an honorary degree . . . commissioning of officers . . . music . . . the Love Song . . . President Turner pronouncing the one-hundred and twentieth year at an END . . .

ADMINISTRATION

Lynn W. Turner, is the chief executive of Otterbein College. As such he represents all aspects of the college. He works with the administrators, trustees, students and faculty. For the world of, and outside the college, President Turner is the spokesman. He embodies all that is Otterbein College.

Dr. Wade Miller

Dr. James V. Miller

Mr. John Taylor

Miss Joanne VanSant

Administrators guide and direct a college. Wade Miller is the Vice President in charge of Development. James V. Miller serves as Academic Dean of the College. These men work to administer and improve the policies and programs of Otterbein College. Students receive direction from Joanne VanSant, Dean of Students and John Taylor, Assistant Dean of Students. The deans work with the students and relate the administrative programs to them.

Mr. Michael Kish

Mr. Woodrow Macke

Director of Admissions, Michael Kish, is one of the first persons to be associated with incoming freshmen. He must evaluate the applications of prospective students from all over the United States. This year, Albert Horn, Treasurer of the College, moved into a new office. This is just another example of how the Administration strives to meet the ever-growing needs of the College. Woodrow Macke, a very versatile Business Manager, is not only involved with the daily efficient functioning of Otterbein College, but also is always aware of future plans for the betterment of the College.

Mr. Virgil Raver and Mr. Peter Baker

Mr. Witt is in charge of testing and guidance at Otterbein. His position includes giving tests to present and prospective students and serving as chairman of the scholarship committee. Registrar and Assistant Registrar of the college, Mr. Raver and Mr. Baker oversee all student registration. Their other responsibilities include the distribution of grades and keeping transcripts and many other records up to date.

Mr. Elsley Witt

Mr. Craig Gifford

Mr. William Skaates

Mr. Gifford, Director of College Information, and his assistant Mr. Skaates prepare all news releases for the college. Both of these men work actively with the yearbook staff, Mr. Gifford as advisor and Mr. Skaates as photographer.

Mr. Kenneth Pohly

Mr. Pohly, Director of Religious Activities, serves as our chaplain, counselor, and friend. He is closely involved in the activities of both the Campus Christian Association and Delta Tau Chi. As Director of Men's Housing, Mr. Seyfarth is responsible for such diversified activities as the selection of J.C.'s, allocation of housing, and housing maintenance. Mr. Turner, Assistant Director of Development in Charge of Church Relations, serves in the areas of church organization and fund-raising. And the Director of Alumni Relations, Mr. Pflieger, is involved with the various alumni clubs and also works as an assistant in fund-raising activities.

Mr. George Seyfarth

Mr. Chester Turner

Mr. Richard Pflieger

Although many of Otterbein's workers are behind the scenes, the importance of their work is evident. Anyone who lives in a dorm, eats in the Campus Center, or uses any of the campus facilities, appreciates their courtesy and helpfulness, as well as the jobs they do.

Almost no one on Otterbein's campus has escaped a visit to the Health Center, and even though the thought of waiting in line for hours to be stuck, prodded, and pillled appeals to no one, we remain indebted to the services which Mrs. Crane and her staff perform.

Dignity and precision are perhaps the two words which best describe the combined efforts of the Otterbein AFROTC and the Angel Flight.

Honor Guard: Jon Banning, Frank Miller, David Geary, Harry Mandros, David Michael, Ralph Witt, Jim Norman

Mark Stevens, James MacKenzie, David Geary, Dennis Cowden, Jim Miller, Reggie Farrell, Mike Martling, Jared Miller

The pep band, rifle team, and drill team, are merely three facets of an organization which trains students to enter the Air Force as well-disciplined officers. The Guardian Angels lend a bit of feminine appeal to the rigorous life of the Air Force man, and their skill as a drill team has been demonstrated repeatedly as the trophies keep coming in.

Art Department: Earl Hassenflug, Albert Germanson, Lillian Frank

Occupying the top floor of Lambert Hall is the Art Department. Not only does this department teach the principles behind drawing, sculpture, painting, molding and design, but it also sponsors picture rental service, participates in the Festival of Arts Week and arranges the many art exhibits displayed in the Campus Center lounge.

Biology and Geology Department: Thomas Tegenkamp, Arnold Leonard, Charles Botts, Jean Willis, George Phinney, Michael Herschler, Beverly Miller

Alpha Epsilon Delta: ROW 1: Mary Feagin, Judy Gebbart, Carol Capell ROW 2: Les Aiello, Mr. Botts

In our age of space the natural sciences have become extremely important. The Biology and Chemistry Departments place emphasis on scientific accomplishments, stressing all areas from astronomy to zoology. The science honoraries further the goals of the department by recognizing students with above average classroom achievement. Sigma Zeta promotes the study of the natural sciences by bringing related speakers and programs to the campus. Alpha Epsilon Delta stresses the importance of education in pre-medical study. This international honorary society receives members who plan to study medicine after they leave our campus.

Chemistry Department: Keith Crane, Carole Bohn, Roy Turley, Rexford Ogle

Economics and Business Department: Paul Jursa, Charles Hobson, Young Koo, Melencia Cua

Education Department: ROW 1: Mildred Stauffer, Nell Pagean ROW 2: Chester Addington, Franklin Young, Roger Deibel, Raymond Bertelson

To succeed in life one needs a good education; to receive a good education, one needs a good teacher concerned with the student's future. The Education Department prepares well-qualified elementary and secondary teachers.

The Otterbein Chapter of the Ohio Student Education Association stresses awareness and achievement of professional standards in education. As prospective teachers, its members hear lectures, attend conferences and participate in projects designed to prepare them for becoming members of the teaching profession.

English Department: Allan Martin, Elizabeth Lee, Robert Price, Cleora Fuller, Louise Cobb, Velma Ogg, Todd Zeiss, James Ray, John Coulter

The faculty of the English Department strives to create an interest and appreciation of the English Language and its heritage; they guide the student toward more effective communication through writing of their thoughts and impressions. Outside of classroom themes and essays, a student may express his ideas and thoughts through the Quiz and Quill.

Foreign Language Department: ROW 1: Sylvia Vance, Elizabeth O'Bear, Darlene Bennett ROW 2: Robert Howell, Charles Buffington, James Carr

The program of the Foreign Language Department extends far beyond the confines of Towers Hall. It reaches across the ocean to those students studying abroad. The program provides the opportunity for cultural exchange. The enthusiasm of those students who have returned from abroad is added encouragement to the student who is struggling through those first, difficult years of a new language.

History and Government Department: Saul Friedman, Thomas Kerr, Harold Hancock, Ursula Holterman, Donald Eder, John Laubach

Otterbein has one of the finest History Departments in the nation; and for hard working students in the department, the highest honor is membership in Phi Alpha Theta, national history honorary.

Political parties are the main stream of our democratic existence. Otterbein shows the American spirit by having active Democratic and Republican groups on campus.

Young Democrats: ROW 1: John Holt, Mike Blevins, Bill Gerrard, Mike Metzel, Cherie Black ROW 2: Kim Shields, Mr. Saul Friedman

Home Economics Department: Margaret Gill, Barbara Settles, Mabel Joyce

The Home Economics Department strives to enrich the knowledge of students in home economics and home management. Students may elect a variety of courses to prepare them for a career or to simply expand their knowledge in a field which is a part of everyday life.

This department further encourages its students through the sponsorship of the Home Economics Club. This organization carries out a number of activities each year, including the spring style show.

Mathematics Department:
Roger Wiley, Fredrick Bamforth, Louise Bollechino

Math for business majors, math for elementary teachers, math for secondary teachers, as well as math for engineering hopefuls. Since math is a requirement for several different degrees, the Mathematics Department is one of the most diversified. Math enters into all phases of life, from housework to music to computers. This department offers courses at all levels to satisfy the needs of any student.

Music Department: ROW 1: Arthur Motycka, Richard Chamberlain, Alan Bradley, Larry Rhodes ROW 2: Anthony Ginter, Glen Daugherty, Lawrence Frank

The vibrant strains of music that permeate the air in the vicinity of Grove and College Streets can usually be traced through an open window of Lambert Hall to a student, engrossed in his preparation of a sonata or a portion of a symphony. The sounds may be diversified as each person strives to express his mood through music. At other times, these strains may be the conscious effort of the Symphony of Winds, as they blend their chords into a well-balanced melody. However, behind the musical sounds that permeate the campus the listener should not forget those faculty members of the Music Department that unceasingly devote their efforts to produce a melodious effect in every endeavor.

Chamber Orchestra: ROW 1: Meg Million, Martha Roush, Mary Feagin, Virginia Tryon, Marybeth Wonders, Mary Campbell, Bruce Turner, Sue

Thoughts are often communicated through words, while feelings are conveyed by music. Thus the spirit of a college is often expressed by its musical organizations and presentations.

The Music Department offers a wide range of programs for students seeking a musical career or simply enjoying music. The Cardinal Marching Band, the Symphony of Winds, and MENC are just three active organizations sponsored by this department.

Women's Physical Education Department: Eula Sabock, Marilyn Day, Jo Ann Tyler, Mary Ann McCualsky

Developing social skills and understanding the ethical and moral principles reflected in the sports, games, and dances of society is one of the stated objectives of the Physical Education Department. Although intercollegiate sports are part of their activities, the department stresses intramural participation.

The Women's Physical Education Department

offers many outlets for girls on campus. Majors and minors belong to Pi Epsilon which promotes an interest in health, physical education, and recreation. The Women's Athletic Association sponsors the Modern Dance Club and the coed Riding Club as well as over-seeing intramural and intercollegiate sports. Like "Peanuts," they may not have many wins, but they do have some great discussions.

Modern Dance Club: Anna Lou Turner, Jo Kiger, Linda Grznar, Dotty DeTurck

The Men's Physical Education Department is a member of the Ohio Conference Association. They are the sponsors of Varsity "O", Sailing Club, and intercollegiate sports.

Men's Physical Education Department: Robert Agler, Curtis Tong, Richard Fishbaugh, Elmer Yoeft

Physics and Astronomy Department: Donald Molyneux, Philip Barnhart, Donald Bulthaupt

The Physics and Astronomy Department aims its curriculum to all levels of interest; such as research, experimentation, and every day theory. As well as preparing a student for graduate study, the department offers basic background courses that can be used in any area of application.

Outstanding features of this department are the Weitkamp Observatory and the Planetarium.

The Psychology and Sociology Department offers the knowledge of basic human attitudes and behaviors. Although "booking it" is of great importance, understanding people must also come from practical experience provided by field trips, laboratory sessions, and social work. While studying in this department, students are reminded that they must live and work with complex individuals, not innate objects.

Psychology and Sociology Department: Barbara Settles, Albert Lovejoy, Larry Cox, Joyce Karsko

The Religion and Philosophy Department is active in all areas of campus and academic life. Students not only receive religious training for a profession in religion, but many find stimulation and insight from the study of religion and philosophy.

Three campus organizations work under the sponsorship of this department. They are: the Young Women's Christian Association, Delta Tau Chi, and the Council of Campus Christian Associations which works to coordinate the religious activities of the campus.

Religion and Philosophy Department: James Recob, Kenneth Pohly, Paul Ackert, William Amy

Inexperience, an over-abundance of injuries, and just about everything else added up to make 1966 an undramatic freshman year for Coach Larry Lintner.

Despite the fact that the Otters could post victories over only Indiana Central and Kenyon, there were a few bright spots in the season. Big Bill Baker won a berth on the All Ohio Conference second team and Bill Speaks led the conference in punting.

Cross Country Team: ROW 1: Bill Waight, Bob Reichenbach ROW 2: Coach Bob Agler, Jim Garrett, Rob Adkins, Dave Lehman

Paced by Captain Bob Reichenbach, a small but dedicated squad of harriers took on a host of strong competitors for the grueling run. Included were meets with Ohio State University, West Virginia and Kentucky for the Bob Agler-coached squad.

Despite a disappointing team record of 12 losses, Otterbein's wrestling team, coached by Dick Fishbaugh, showed considerable improvement over the season. Several individuals were outstanding, including Captain Warren Wheeler and heavyweight J. D. Wilson, as well as Larry Estes, who placed third in the heavyweight division in the Ohio Conference Tournament.

Basketball was king of the Otterbein court and Coach Curt Tong's cagers—undoubtedly the best balanced team the college has seen—were true crowd pleasers. Although their record (19–6) was not their best, the fans will remember their exciting brand of ball and their hard-nosed competitiveness—downing Akron, fourth in the nation, and becoming the first small college to defeat Ohio University at Athens. It was more than five men on the basketball court—it was all of Otterbein.

After breezing past Muskingum, the Otters handled Denison and Wittenberg to capture the Southern Division of the Ohio Conference for the third consecutive year. The Otters battled all the way in the championship match, only to bow to Baldwin-Wallace in the final seconds of overtime.

Two men—one 6'4", one 5'10"—both of them big. Don Carlos—Little All American, first Cardinal to have his number retired, holder of nearly every Otterbein and Ohio Conference record. Tim Pond—playmaker, honorary captain, dynamite on the court. Both gave their all to make Otterbein great.

Steve Laek, Rich Harsh, Carl Davis, Ken Barr, Jack Diedalis, Manager Cecil Elliott

A greatly improved diamond crew under the leadership of freshman Coach Dick Fishbaugh saw the Otters on their way to one of their best seasons.

The team felt the stun of an Ohio Conference ruling which deprived them of three conference victories and their second place rank as the result of an ineligible player.

Several individual efforts aided the cause, including Dave Hoernemann's being named to the All-Ohio Conference first team. Also Eddie Harris and Jim McKee were given honorable mention.

Despite their lone victory over Marietta, Curt Tong's racqueteers continued to rebuild and gave a good show of their potential as the season progressed.

Jed Morison was the outstanding player as he was undefeated in singles play in regular season action.

Tennis Team: ROW 1: Hamer Campbell, Bob Ostrander, Jim Bruce, Bob Colton, Ron Anslinger ROW 2: Glen Shaffer, Jed Morison, Bob Buttermore, Butch Lenahan, George Henderson, Al Harris

A highly competitive squad gave the Otterbein linksmen their best season to date. Meeting tough opposition throughout the season, the squad finished up with second place in the Ohio Conference Tournament.

The climax of the year was an invitation to participate in the NCAA tournament, the first such invitation to any Otterbein team in any sport.

Faced with a rebuilding task, the Otterbein cindersmen relied on a handful of seasoned individuals to guide the youthful squad.

Sam Murphy was outstanding in hurdle competition, with assistance coming from John King, Roger Nisley, Jon Zwayer, and Dave Lehman.

Acting Coach Dick Morrow substituted for Coach "Bud" Yoest who was on sabbatical.

Not all of Otterbein's athletes displayed their talents in varsity uniform. An extensive intramural program allowed many more men to participate in such sports as touch football, basketball, softball and horseshoes.

Teams were sponsored by the fraternities, YMCA, freshmen, ROTC, and independents. Sphinx Fraternity took first place in the overall season competition.

Women also had their chance to participate in sports, both on the intramural and intercollegiate level. Basketball, field hockey, volleyball, and softball were among the favorites of the college coeds.

Men and women participated together in intramural competition. Co-rec activities included volleyball and pool competition as well as ping-pong and other sports.

The Pan-Hellenic Council is the governing body over the sororities. Each sorority is represented on the council by its president and elected representatives. The council sets up rules for the rush period, plans the Pan-Hel formal, and is in charge of the newly initiated May Day competition.

The fraternity governing body, the Interfraternity Council, sponsors the IFC formal as one of their main activities. Each fraternity is represented on the council, and they set up rules for the rush programs and general house rules for each fraternity to follow.

Epsilon Kappa Tau has as its motto "Eros Kai Timi" or "Love and Honor". Formed in 1918, the sorority remains true to the ideals for which she was founded: character and personality, fraternalism, scholarship, social activity, and culture. An inconspicuous, delicate, pink, five-petaled flower, The Trailing Arbutus, gives its name and color to E.K.T. Purity and courage to defend its principles are the standards represented by the crest. Important events this year were the All-Campus, Arbutus Goes Reno, and various service projects such as giving blood. As the "pink mass" frequents the campus, we remember that the ties of college friendships are dear when bound together in sisterhood.

Kappa Phi Omega was founded in 1921 by a group of young women from Westerville who chose the motto "Sisters and friends unto the end." Kappas' flower is the yellow chrysanthemum, her mascot the Scottie dog, and her colors turquoise and gold. Kappas' all campus Pizza Party was enjoyed by the sorority and the whole campus. The four rubies of the Kappa pin symbolize leadership, scholarship, friendship, and dedication, the goals of all members. The white pearls symbolize the unity of the sorority which provides the basis for individual development.

Charlotte Zirkle

Rho Kappa Delta was activated on the Otterbein campus in 1923, by eight coeds. She was given the name of "Arcady," symbolizing the land of friendship in Greek mythology. Burgundy, one of her colors, represents her striving toward high ideals, as in the true Greek tradition. Her objectives are to seek and obtain knowledge, to strengthen and encourage friendship, and to promote recreation. The squirrel is her mascot, while the white carnation serves as one of her flowers. She treasures as her motto: "Thoughtful each of all."

Sigma Alpha Tau, the oldest sorority on campus, was organized in 1910. At the time of its founding, the sorority was known as the "Owl Club," and thus the owl has become its symbol, mascot, and nickname. Jade green and gold are the sorority colors; the yellow chrysanthemum is its flower. "Stick Always Together" and "Sagacity, Affection, and Truth," symbolizing the Greek letters  $\Sigma\text{AT}$  are the mottoes which the group has adopted. During the 1966-67 school year, Owls sponsored an all campus sock hop in the Alumni Gym and an Easter Egg Hunt for the children of faculty members.

Tau Delta was founded in 1921 with the original name of Tomo Dachi which means "circle of friends." The sorority was forced to disband in 1937 because of the depression, but was re-established in 1943. The objectives of the sorority are to encourage broadening of friendships and outlooks, to encourage scholastic achievement and to encourage the development and use of talents and abilities. The sorority mascot is the Siamese cat and the flower is the white rose. Deltas uphold their motto, "To thine own self be true."

Tau Epsilon Mu Sorority was founded in 1914 by seven young Otterbein women. These women chose as their motto "Everybody's Lonesome," which is derived from the book by the same name. On the sorority crest are the scarab, the lamp of learning, and the book. The sorority's mascot is the "green worm," its colors are purple and gold, and its flower is the Talisman rose from which the sorority receives its nickname, Talisman. Each year Talisman sponsors a Basketball Bounce and a Christmas party for faculty children.

Theta Nu Sorority, or Greenwich, as it was nicknamed, was founded in 1917 by five art majors. They chose "Artes Honora-bit" or "she will honor the arts" as their motto—one which every Greenwich girl strives to fulfill. The violet was chosen as her flower, with purple and white as her colors. The deer was adopted as the mascot, and the artist's palette was chosen for the symbol. The pin is a pearl triangle representing past sisters, friendship of members, and future goals. In her activities, Theta Nu emphasizes the social, academic, religious, and athletic areas of college life.

Eta Phi Mu Fraternity was founded in 1923, with six charter members. These first members formed a social brotherhood which would promote high standards of life. These brothers adopted the story of Jonathan and David as their own, and it is from this that the fraternity's English name is adapted. From the six charter members the fraternity has grown to become one of the largest on campus. Jonda men participate actively in campus governing, honorary and professional organizations, as well as the athletic and musical groups. The chapter house is located at 159 West Park Street.

Lambda Gamma Epsilon or Kings Fraternity was founded in 1948. The name Kings was derived from the fact that most of the original members worked in King Hall. After moving about campus, Kings established its present residence at 138 W. Main St. in 1963. Today, the Kingsmen take pride in their royal colors of maroon and gold and their motto, which reads, "Loyalty to God, country, brothers, and Otterbein."

Pi Kappa Phi or Country Club was founded in 1908 and so named because it first met outside the city limits. It was the only fraternity to remain active during World War II. The colors are orange and black, and the fraternity motto is

"Staunch friends at all hazards." The crest signifies the book of openmindedness, with the head of noble Caesar. The hands of friendship are clasped on crossed swords, and a group of four chevrons bind the men together.

The brothers of Sigma Delta Phi took an important step this year by revising their crest. These changes resulted from an attempt to make the crest more meaningful and were only minor additions and alterations. Much of the fraternity history has been lost since the founding in 1919 by five students.

This occurred because in 1943 and 1951 virtually the entire membership was called to military service. The present active chapter is the result of reactivation by seven students in 1962. "Truth to us above all," is the guiding principle of the Sphinxmen, and the American Beauty Rose is their flower.

Zeta Phi was founded in June, 1931 when Delta Beta Kappa and Lambda Kappa Tau merged to form the one fraternity. Zeta's collors are black, white, and gold; their flower is the Dr. VanFleet rose; and they go by the nickname of "Lions." Located on West College Avenue their newly painted house rooms twenty men and their housemother. Zeta has among its traditions that of being the first fraternity to have a house.

The following lines are from one of Sheila's favorite poems:

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, that moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry—slave at night,
Scouraged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

Thus she lived—
Thus she died."

—William Cullen Bryant

Sheila Murphy was an active participant in campus life at Otterbein. She was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, YASNY, Phi Alpha Theta, and Young Republicans. She was on the Dean's list several times during her college career.

She served as head proofreader for the SIBYL this year. Sheila was also an active participant in the speech department; she was a member of the varsity debate team and won second place in the state in extemporaneous speaking.

Throughout the year many people have asked me what SIBYL means, so I thought an explanation of this would be an appropriate way to end the book. I found the following meaning printed in the 1917 SIBYL:

Long, long ago there lived in the land of Apollo a beautiful Greek goddess, Sibylla, who, according to an old legend, became enamored with the sun god and desired to find some way to prove her love.

Scattered throughout the world were the tiny leaves of the great oak tree of knowledge, upon which Apollo had inscribed in golden ink the names and fates of individuals. Sibylla determined to search far and wide until she had collected these leaves, and then present them to Apollo as a lasting proof of her devotion. The path over which she traveled was rocky and lined with many thorns, and the task became more and more difficult. After many years of searching she returned to Apollo.

"This is the fruit of my toil," said the weary woman, spreading before Apollo her ponderous volumes. "Here are nine Sibyllan books, but the tenth is yet to be found."

Her task completed, Sibylla then vanished from the world . . .

I have had a close, creative, hard-working staff this year, and this book contains as many of their thoughts and ideas as mine. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of them, but special thanks go to Ed Elberfeld, Viv Morgan, Diane Osterwise and Pam Stiles for their outstanding contributions. I would also like to thank my scheduling head and assistant editor Carol Sorenson for all the help and moral support she gave me throughout the year. George Lindsey also deserves special recognition for the time and effort he put into this book. Our advisor, Craig Gifford, has spent many hours helping us, and we all want to thank him for the work he has done on this book and on past SIBYLS.

I would like to express my appreciation to the college and the publications board for giving me the opportunity to be SIBYL editor. I have enjoyed this position and have gained invaluable experience from it. And I hope I have fulfilled some of the expectations placed upon me when I was given this job.

Many months of work have gone into this yearbook, and we have strived in every way to present a representative view of this year at Otterbein. There were many exciting moments when we found exactly the right pictures or words to express the mood we wanted, and there were also the frustrations and disappointments when things didn't go as smoothly as expected. But we are proud to present this yearbook as a record of Otterbein College in 1967.

Sincerely,

Judi Garatt
