IN CONGRESS, JULY 4. 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such Principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence indeed will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them to absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless they be assented to by his appointed Council, and in such manner, as to him shall seem proper.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of People, unless they be assented to by his appointed Council, and in such manner, as to him shall seem proper.

He has called together legislative Bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable and distant from the depository of the public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the People.

He has refused for a long time after such Dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative Powers, necessarily suspended, have returned to the People at large for their exercise, the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of Anarchy from without, and civil discord within.

He has endeavored to prevent the Population of these States, for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners, refusing to encourage their Migration hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their Offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our People, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us in times of Peace, Standing Armies, without the Consent of our Legislature.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the civil Power.

He has combined with others to enter into a combination with the British King, to secure the assistance of their Arms, and the means of their Ships, for the carrying on of a cruel and unprovoked war against our Coasts, Harbors, and shipping, and to devour the lives and property of our Citizens.

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent.

For depriving us in many cases of the benefits of Trial by Jury.

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended Offences.

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to make it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies.

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments.

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves sole Legislators for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our People.

He is at this time carrying large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to augment the wretched crews of the British ships, and to complete the work of death, devastation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty, treachery, and fraud paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized Nation.

He has constrained our fellow Colonies taken captive on the high seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the auxiliaries of their Funds and Soldiers, to fight themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions we have petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free People.

Not have We been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their Legislatures to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have begged them to be the first of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of magnanimity.

We must therefore acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We therefore the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, assembled, appealing to the supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do in the Name and by the authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States, that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.

And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

Thomas J. Kerr, IV
President!

August 12, 1976

Dear 1976 graduates:

Congratulations on your achievements. Education is an exciting process. I have enjoyed sharing your years on campus. You have acquired new intellectual skills. You have developed new leadership abilities. You have accepted opportunities at Otterbein to strengthen your personal identity and values.

I am confident about your future. That confidence is born from knowing and observing many of you. It also comes from knowing thousands of Otterbein alumni whose Otterbein experience has contributed so much to make their lives productive and meaningful,

Remember that many others helped make your Otterbein education possible. Family, faculty, staff and friends have contributed through encouragement, talents and support. Alumni and other donors have given to make possible both the fine facilities and many College programs. Consequently you paid only a fraction of what your education cost.

Repay the commitment others have made to you by sharing the benefits of your talents and education with others. Remember Otterbein. Help her provide the opportunities you have had to others.

You have my best wishes for personal and professional fulfillment. May God bless you.

Sincerely, -

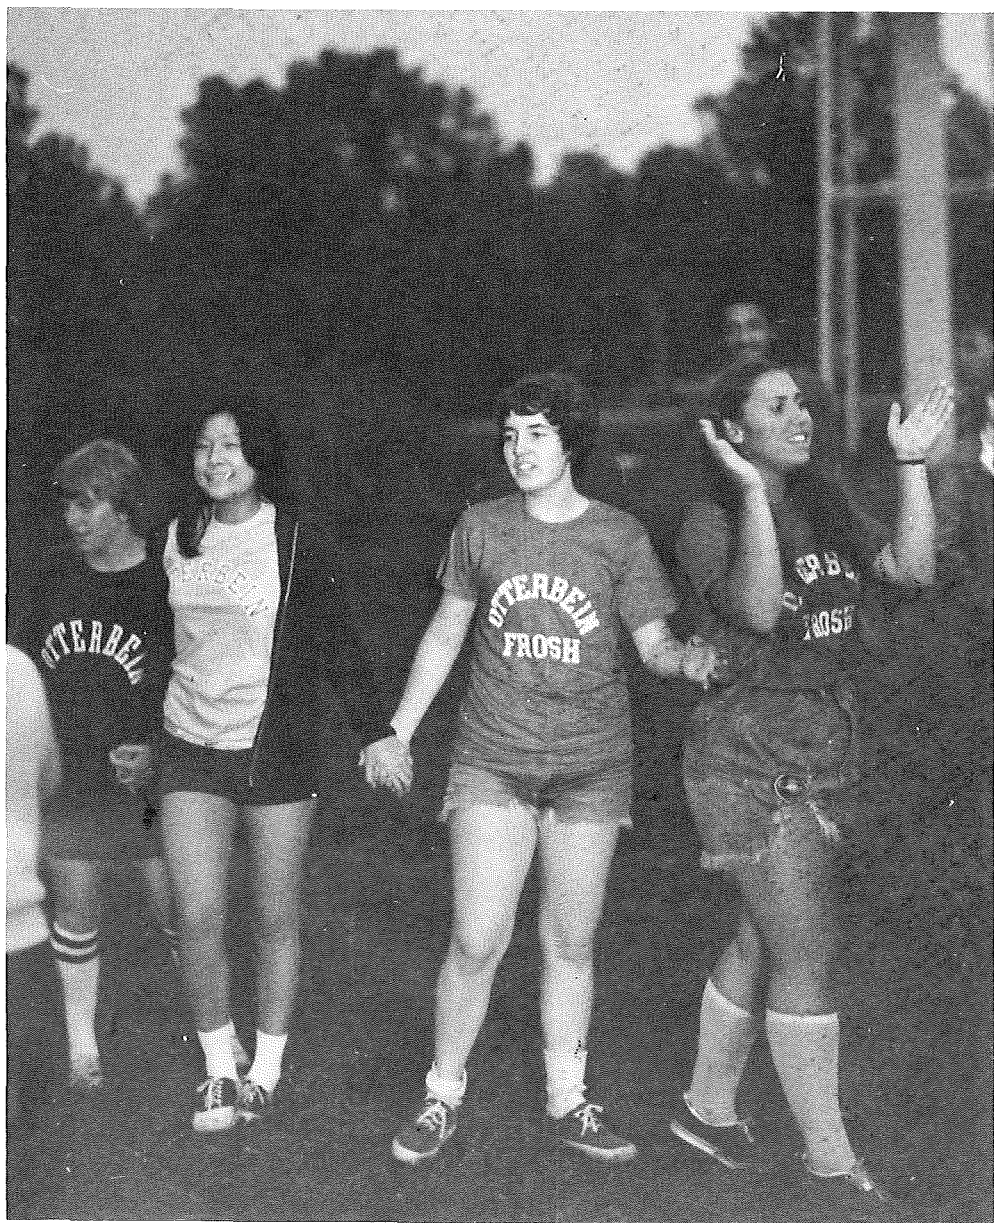

k-.- t/.

"If we can't be thankful for what we receive, ...

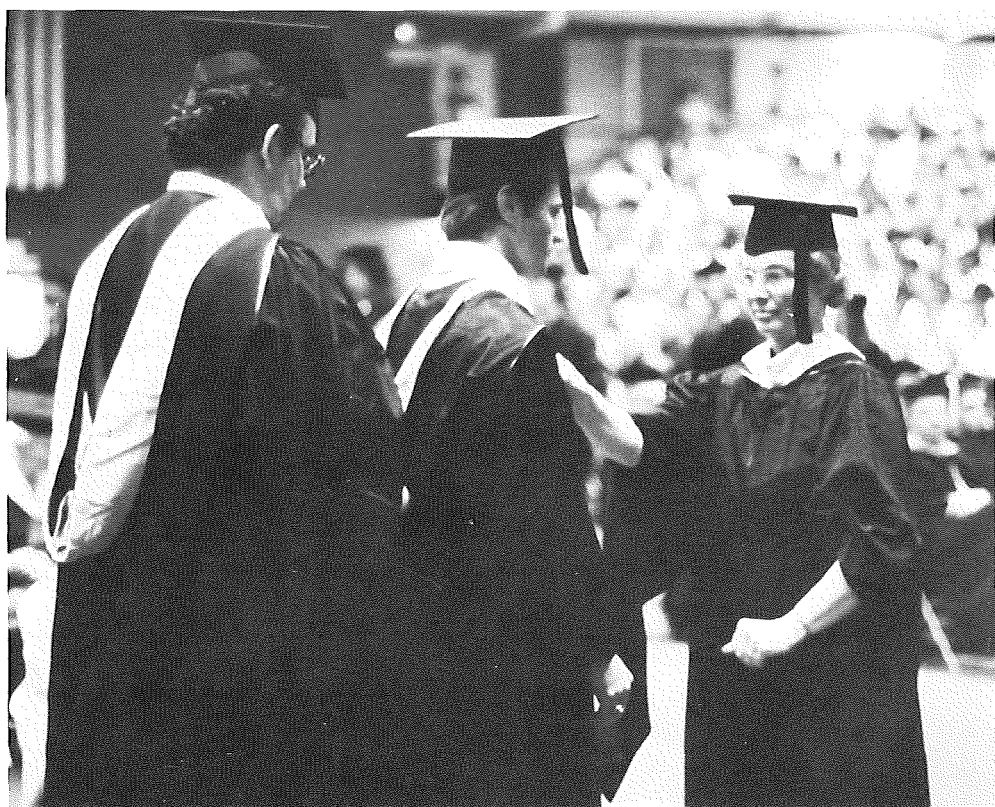

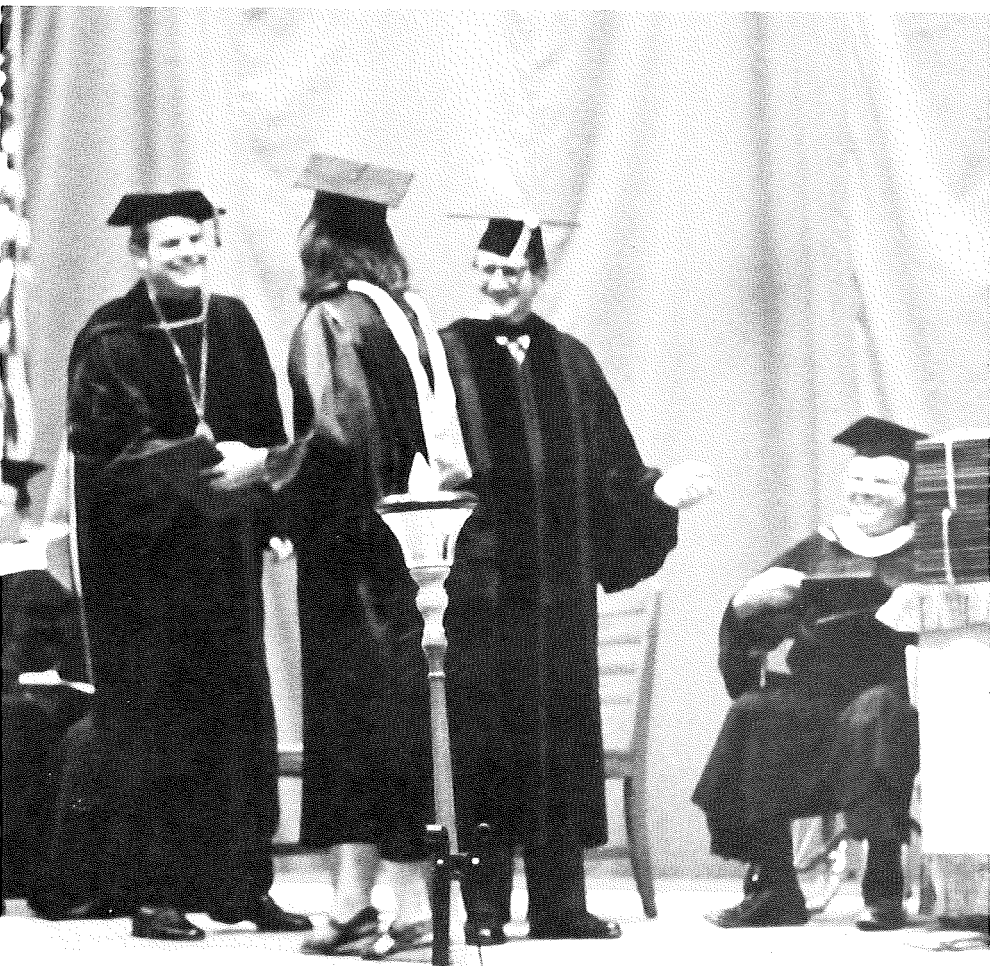

... we should be thankful for what we escape." - Arnold H. Glasgow

The commencement address of the 1976 Otterbein College graduation ceremony was delivered by The Reverend Joseph Hughes Yeakel. Reverend Yeakel, bishop of the Syracuse area, the United Methodist Church, used the theme "And May Yours Be 20/20," as the basis for his speech. Otterbein was also recognized as a bicentennial college by the Honorable Alan E. Norris. Marianne Grace Eldridge led the Otterbein Love Song and Thomas Hoover gave the benediction.

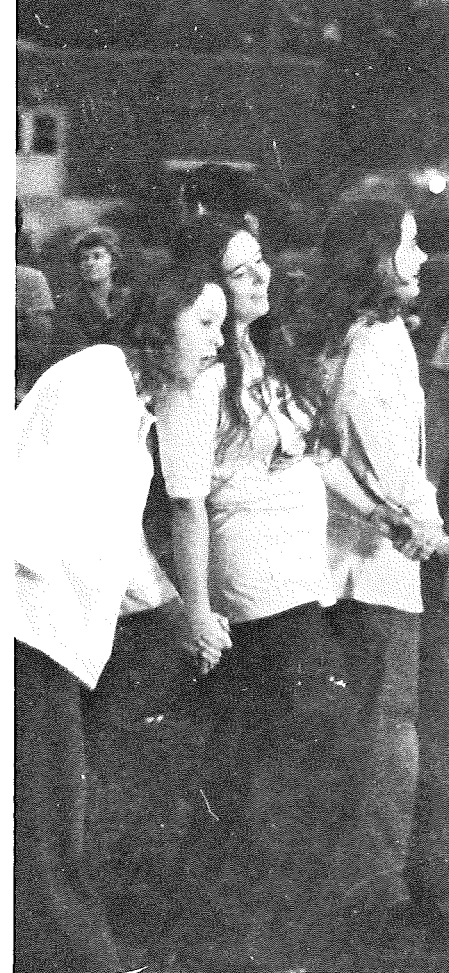

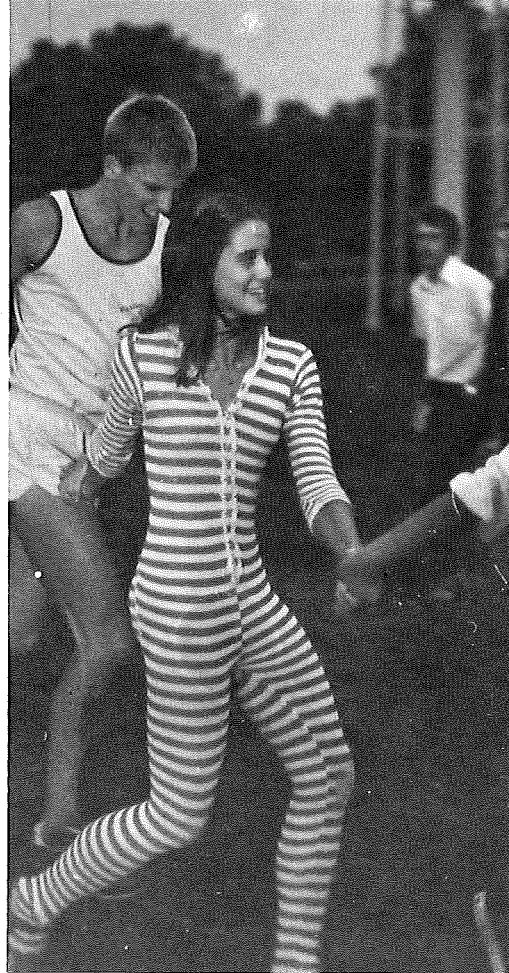

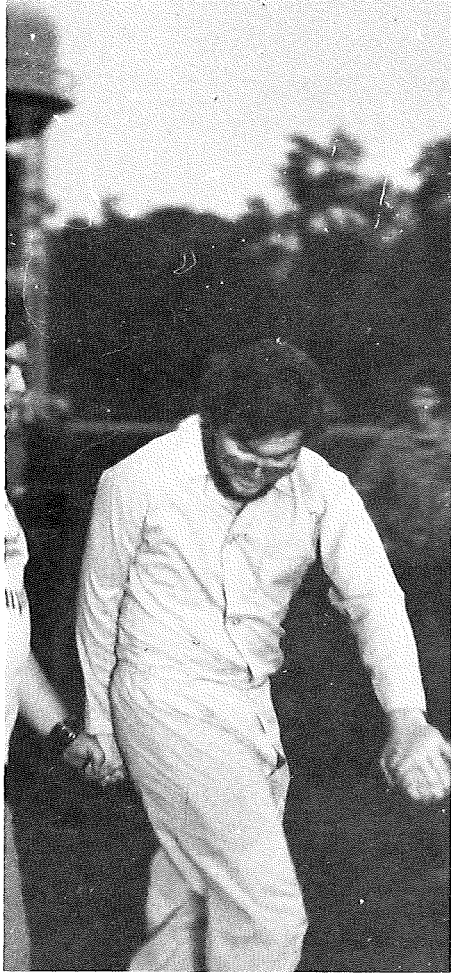

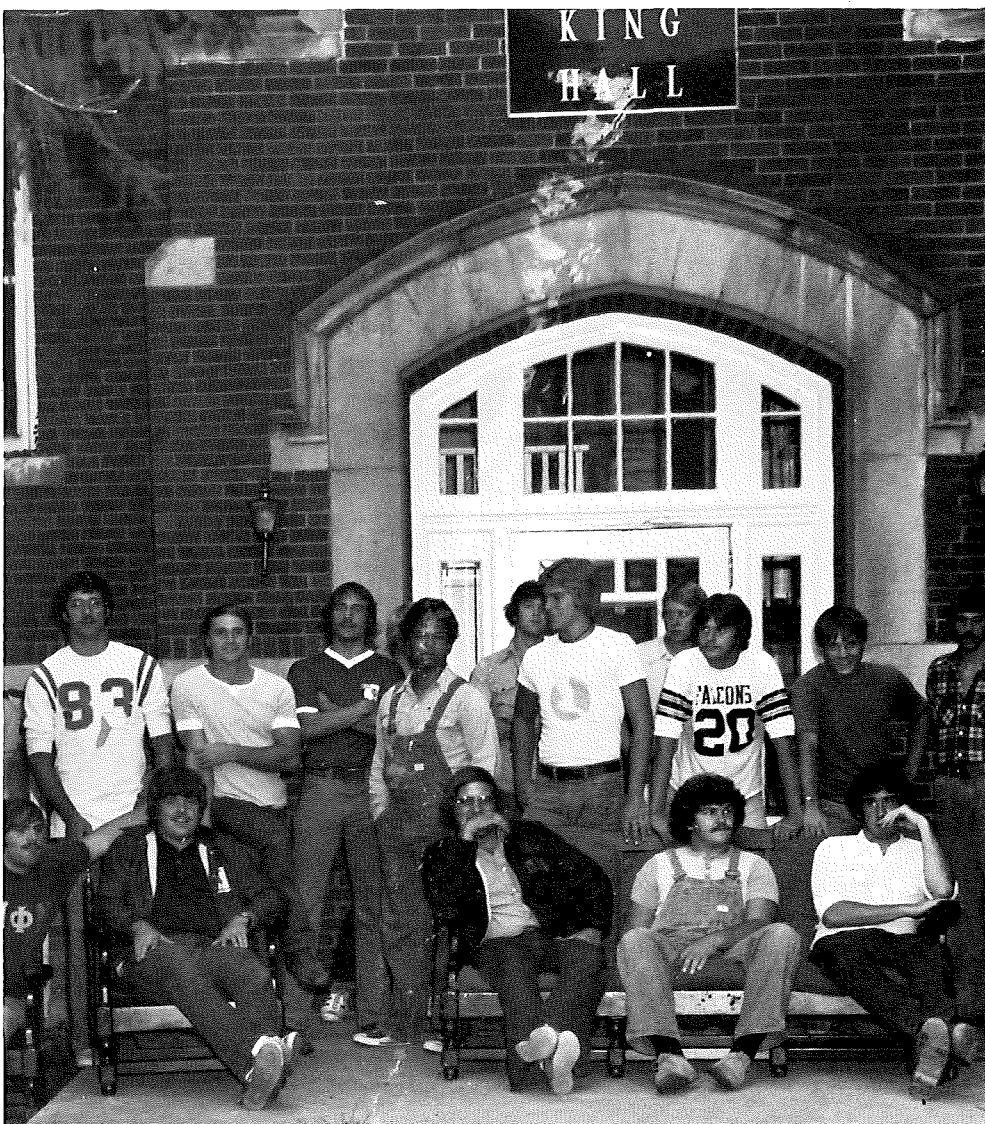

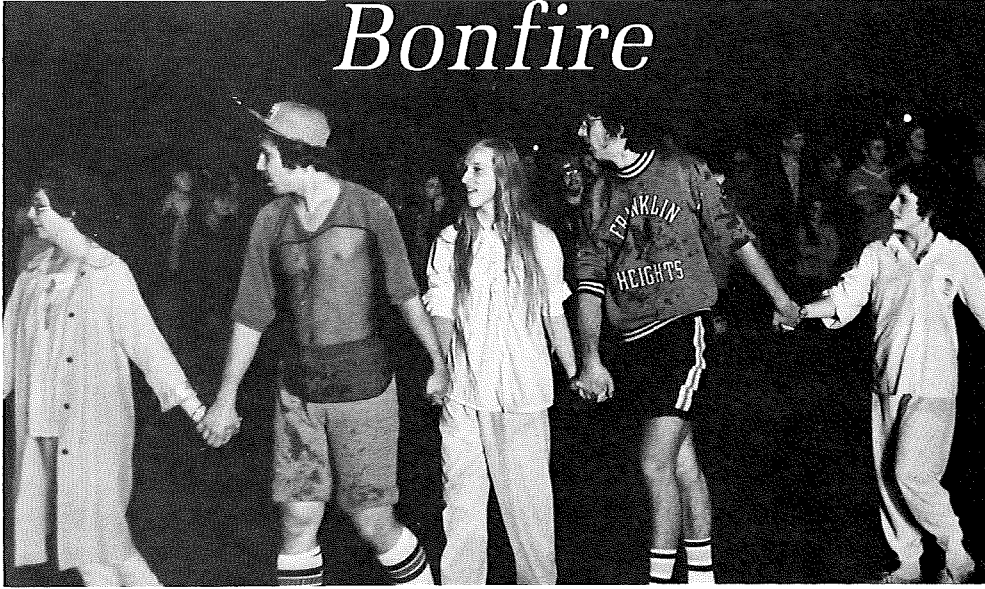

ACTIVITIES

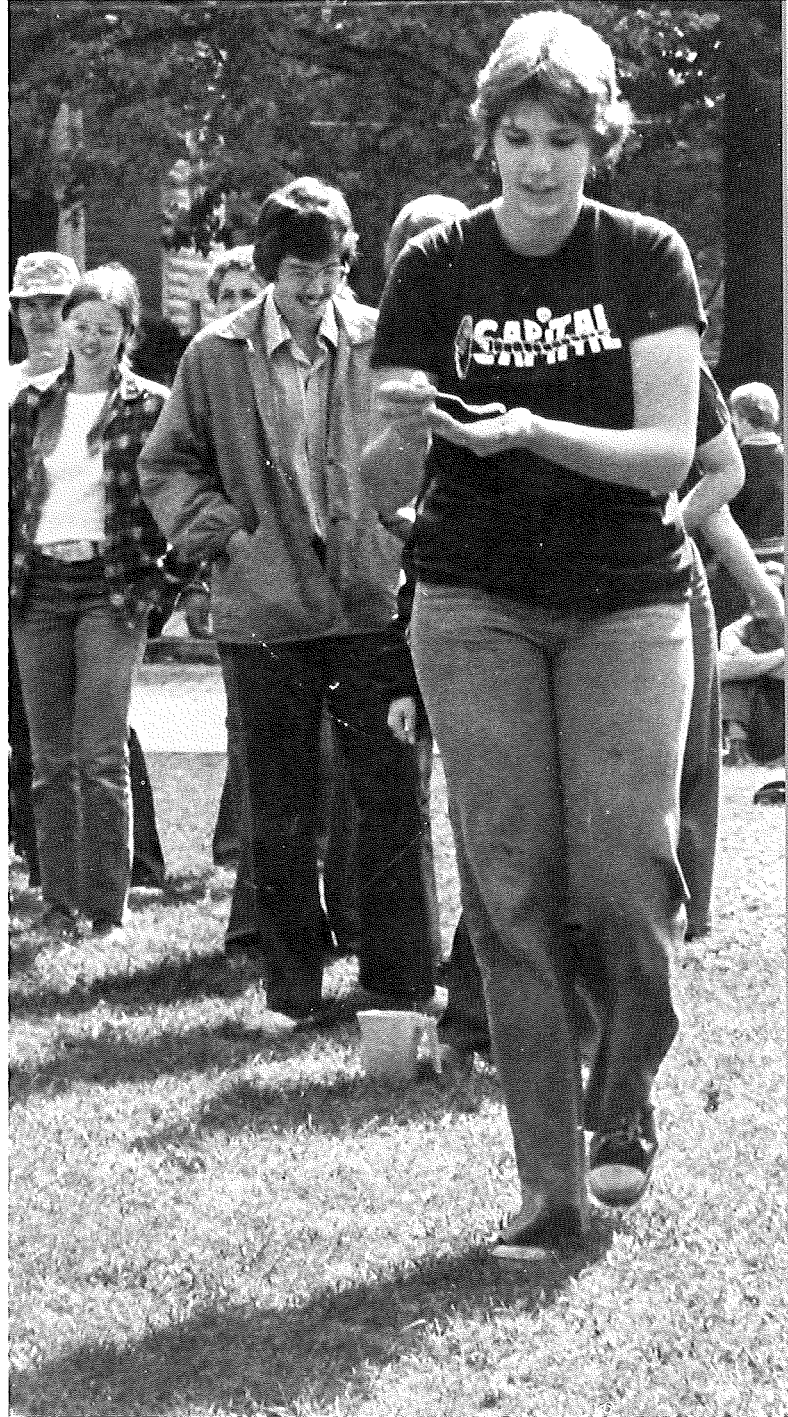

Bonfire

Freshmen started the year with a bang having their bonfire the first weekend of fall term. The attire was informal - pajamas and night gowns were seen all around King Hall during the traditional snake dance. For their finale they serenaded President Kerr and his family outside his house with the Otterbein Love Song.

First there was the bonfire, then there was Scrap Day. Oh, you remember . . . it was that day when the Freshmen and Sophomores became kids again and competed against each other in two hours of intense competition! There was the bathtub stacking relay which called for great strategy as the teams piled as many people as they could into the tub. The toilet paper relay demanded a quick but gentle touch and a good amount of teamwork. Musical tubs sent the Freshmen slipping and sliding towards their victory which was clinched with the annual tug-of-war across Alum Creek. The day ended with a tired but closer Freshman class.

All Allmerican Holle- colling

Sorority and Independent women kicked off the Homecoming Celebration by serenading their individual candidates. Homecoming candidates were presented during the serenades. Women contended for the year's queen title. Saturday brought Otterbein Alumni back to a rain-soaked alma mater. The queen, Elaine Clarke, was introduced at the football game against Wooster. George Washington and his cherry tree, the Liberty Bell, and even Mickey Mouse reigned on various floats. Amid rain and decorations, alumni, friends, students and faculty, trod visiting sorority, fraternity, and dormitory housing and a reception at the Campus Center.

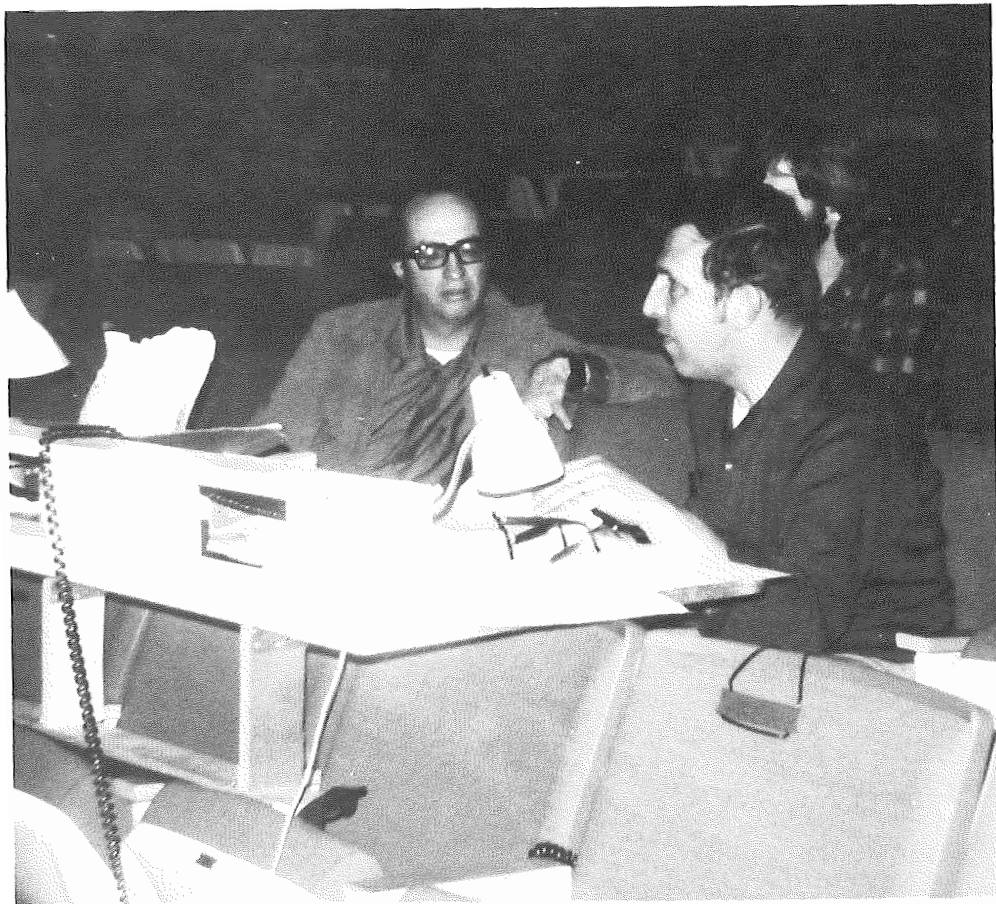

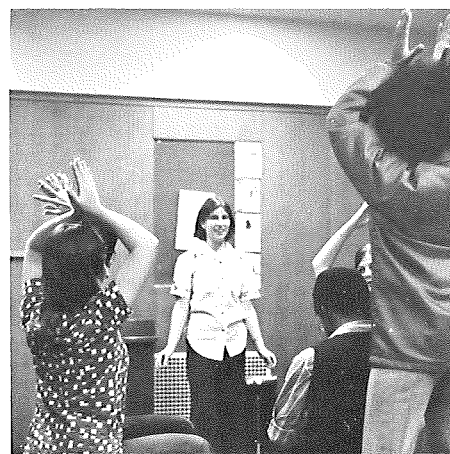

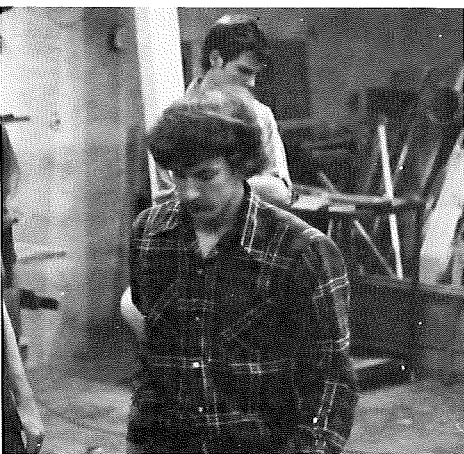

Theatre

Behind the Scenes

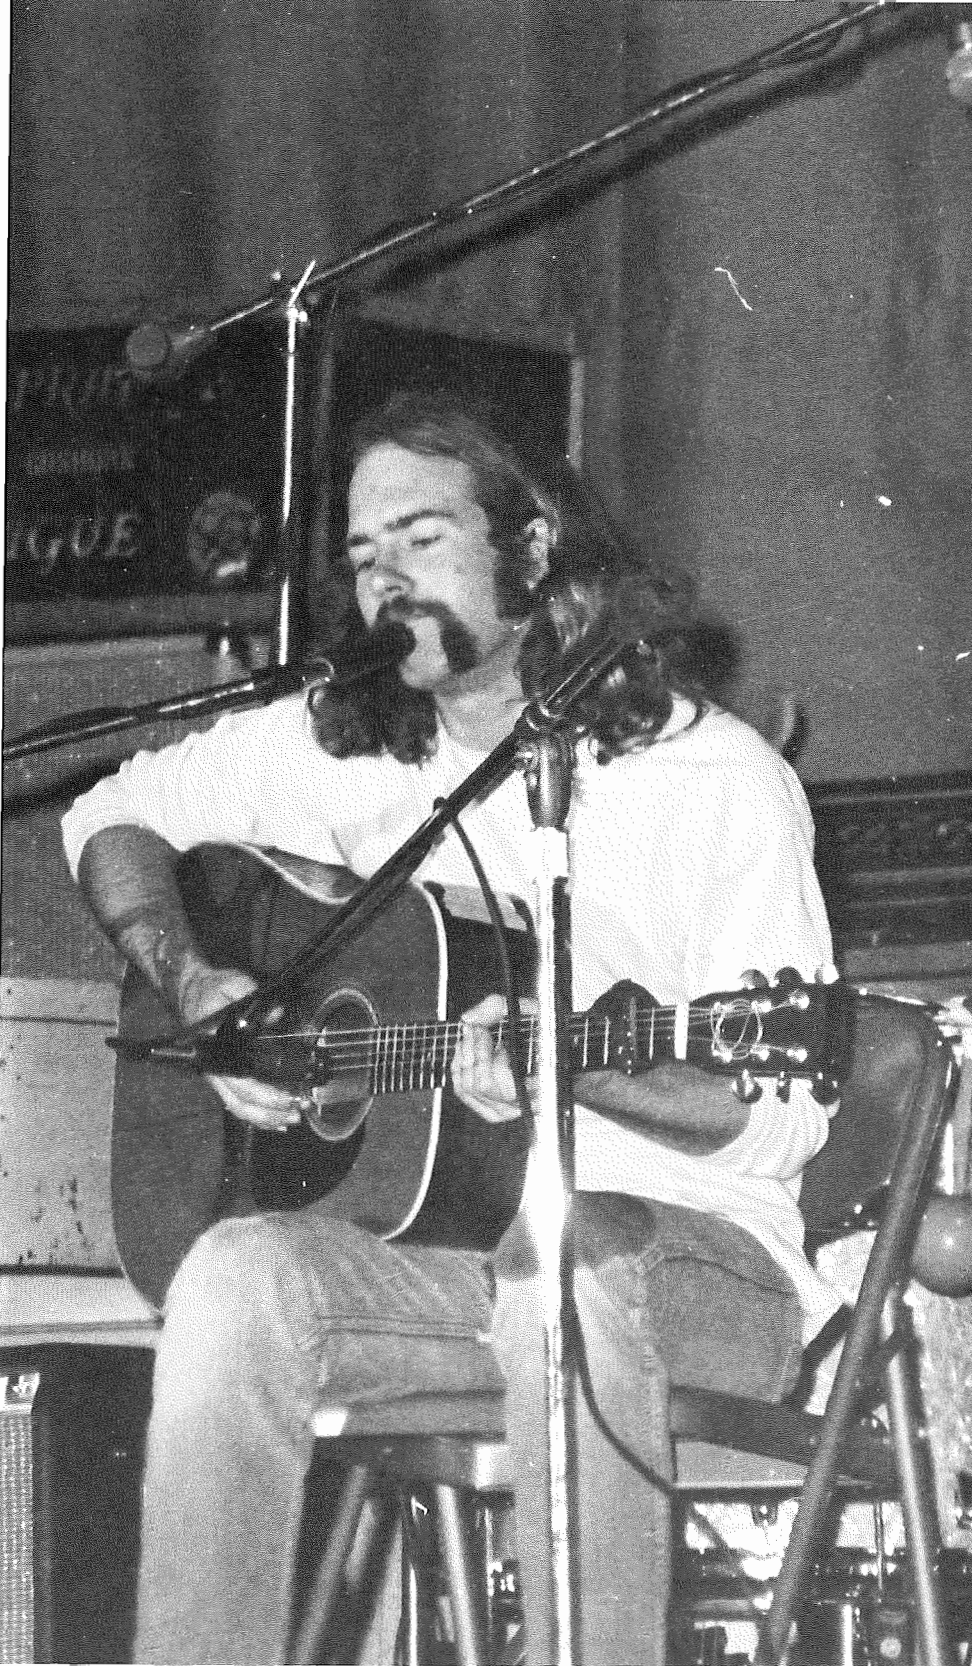

Behind the scenes picks up on Otterbein Theatre technicians who spend many long hours constructing sets, focusing lights, building costumes, and other necessities which make a show run. This special section is dedicated to Fred "Pop" Thayer and all the "techies" of Cowan Hall.

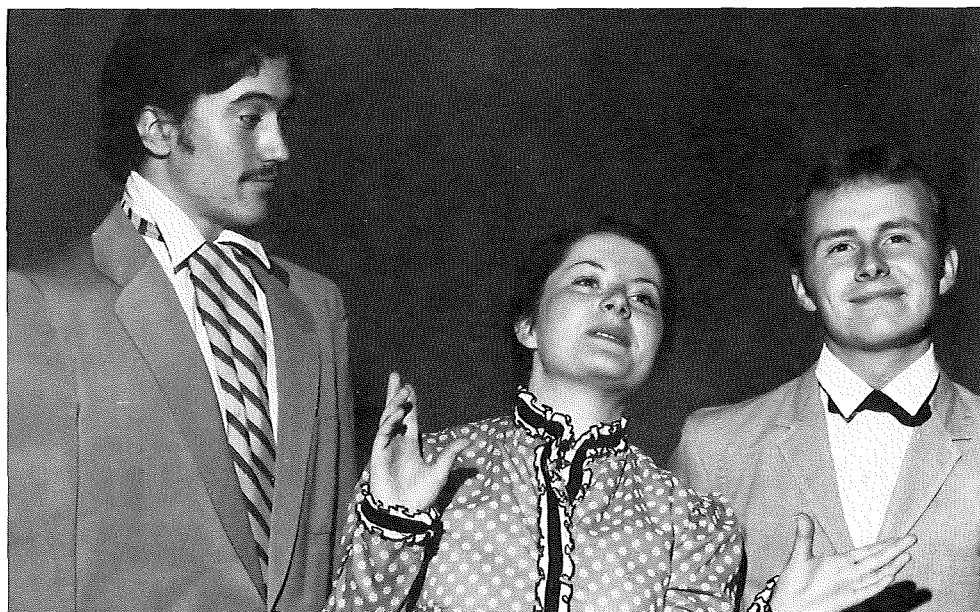

Concerts

Pure Prairie League!! This popular rock group appeared November 6 1975 in the Rike Center. There was a very favorable student response to using the Rike Center for an activity such as this. Attendance reached 1700 persons. This exhibited the versatility of the Rike Center facilities. Also appearing, along with the well-known Pure Prairie League, was Alex Bevan and the Star-Spangled Washboard Band which was well received by the crowd.

This concert sponsored by C.P.B. in conjunction with Agora Productions of Cleveland, Ohio, provided a major concert that students had asked for over the years.

"The Matchmaker"

Thornton Wilder's "The Matchmaker" was presented on October 22-26 as part of Otterbein's Bicentennial celebration. As one of America's most popular plays, the Matchmaker included the mischievous wiles of Dolly Levi, who "put her hand in" and affected the lives of Ermengarde, Ambrose, Barnaby, Cornelius, Minnie Fay, Irene Molloy and Horace Vandergelder in very amusing ways. Adventure, lovers, and laughter were paramount in this production directed by Dr. Charles Dodrill. The four sets were designed by Professor Pop Thayer and built by his stagecraft class into the wee hours of the morning. The costumes which depicted the 1890's were designed by Petie Dodrill. David Robinson chaired the costume crew and Beth Kendig and Jo Runnels created two of Dolly Levi's elaborate costumes. Props were diligently hunted for, sewed up and made (remember those hats!) by Lucinda Sigrist and her crew. Michael McCleese (God help him) did season tickets with his devoted crew. Where did you put all those people on Saturday night, anyway?

Because they achieved the necessary 20 points in hourly work on crews and/or as cast members, Sue Ware, Jurgen Tossman, Russ Scull, Jim Dooley and Bobbi Cunning were inducted into the Cap and Dagger Dramatics Club late in fall term.

Operas

Otterbein's performance of "Down in the Valley" and "The Jumping Frog of Calaveres County" was indicative of the performing talents of the student body. As the music department occupied Cowan's stage for the opera production, students became more exposed to another aspect of the performing arts, while others took total responsibility for lighting and set design.

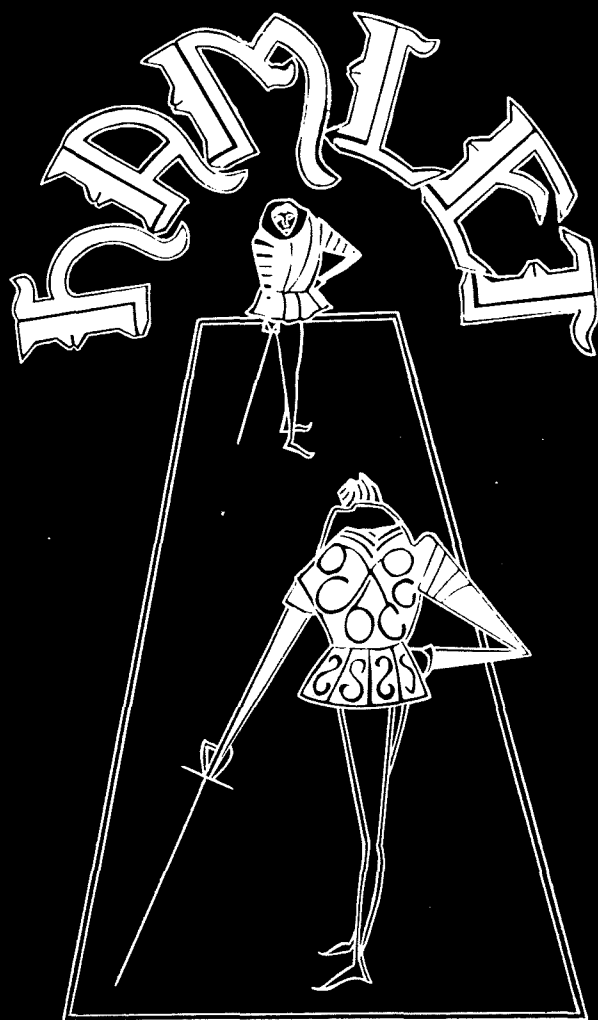

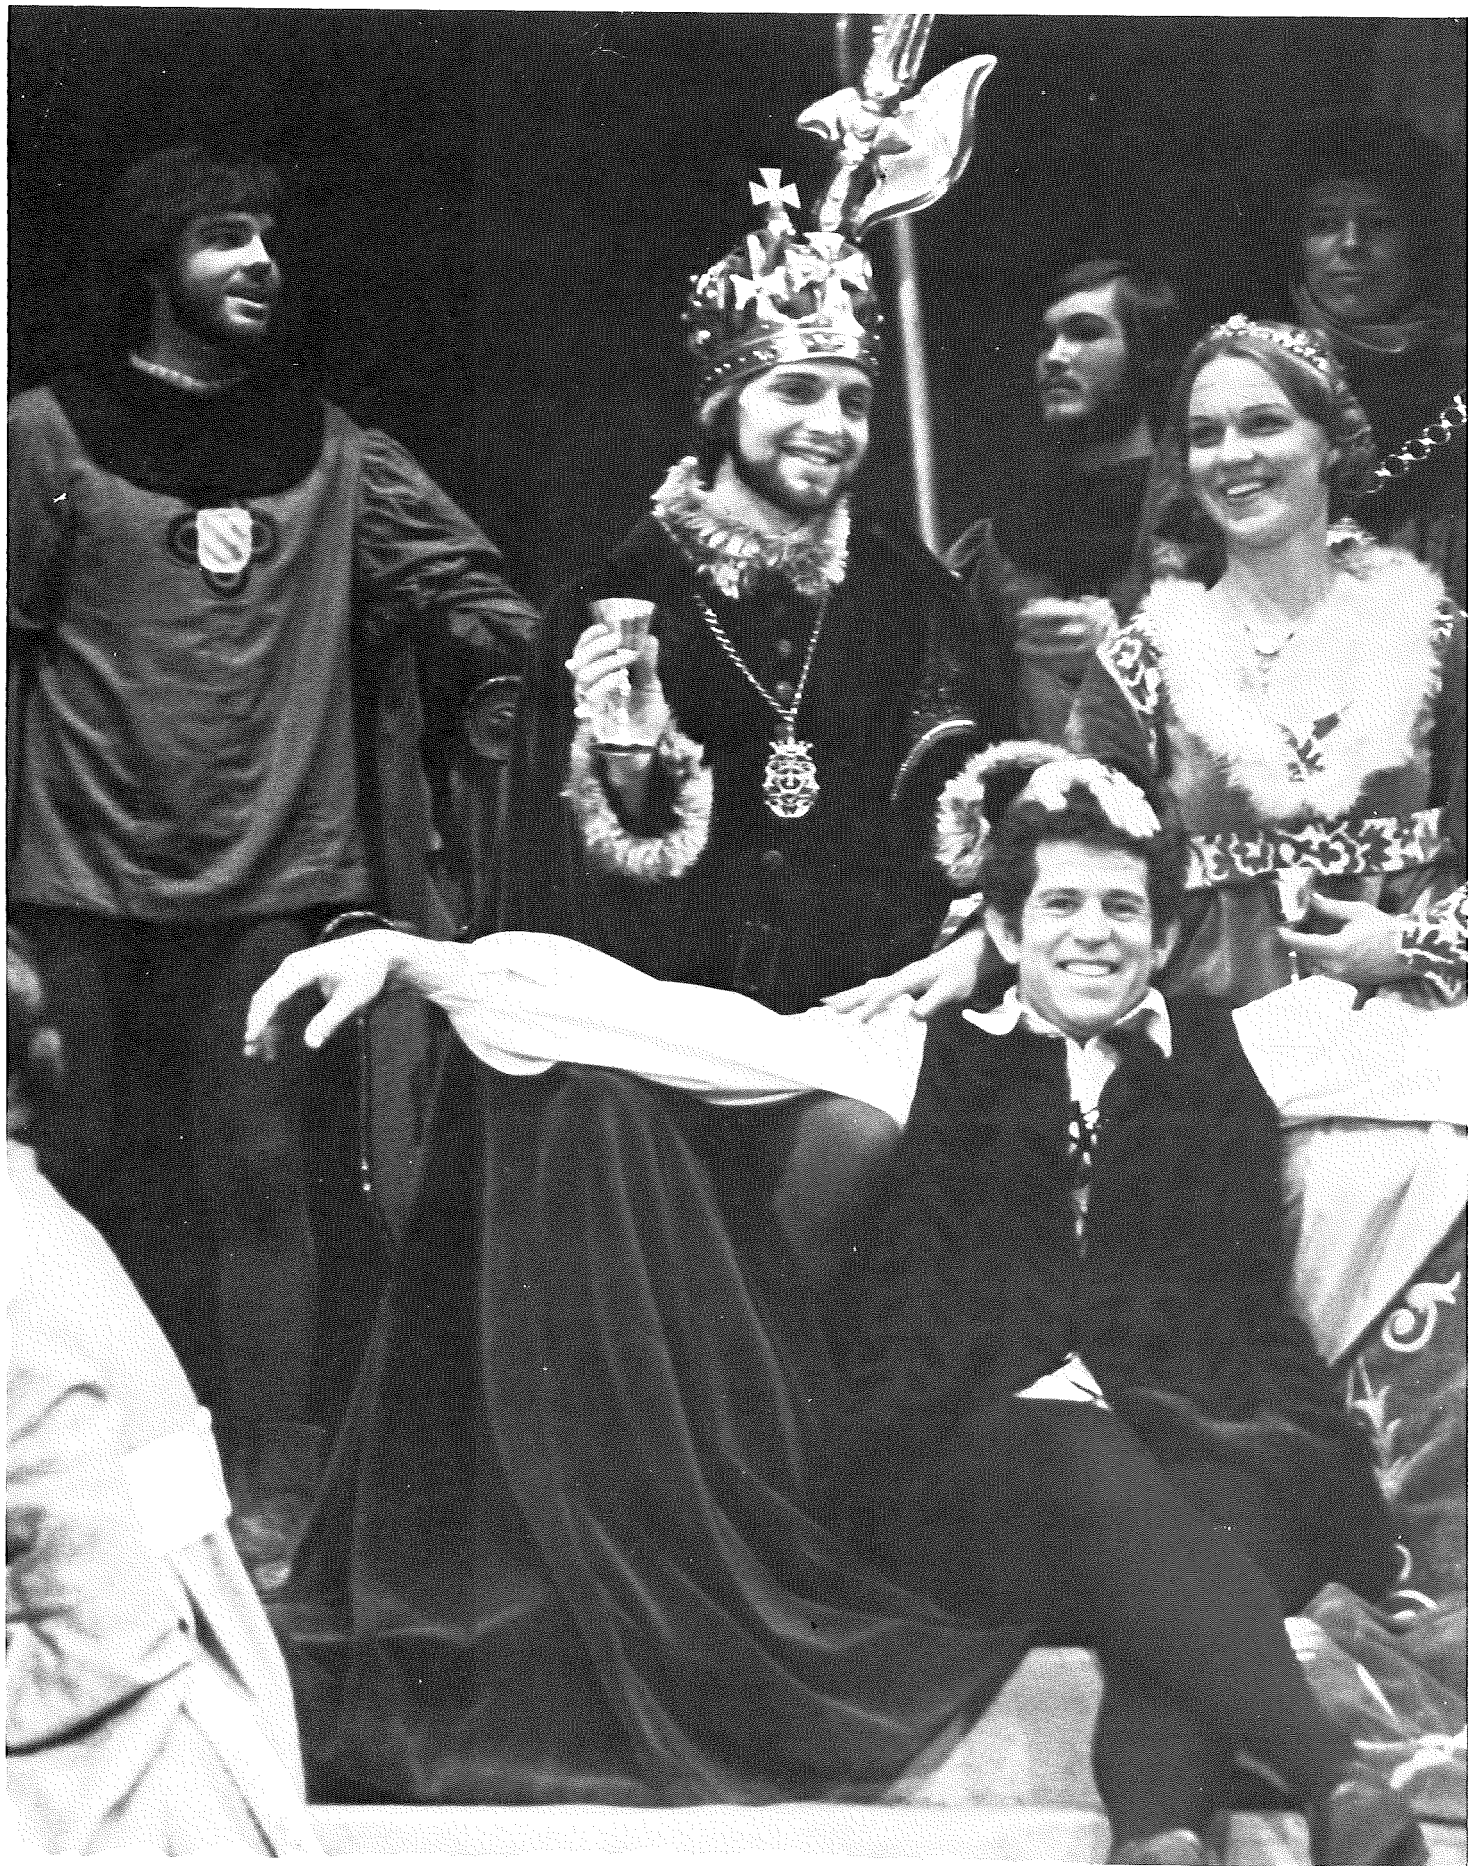

Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp

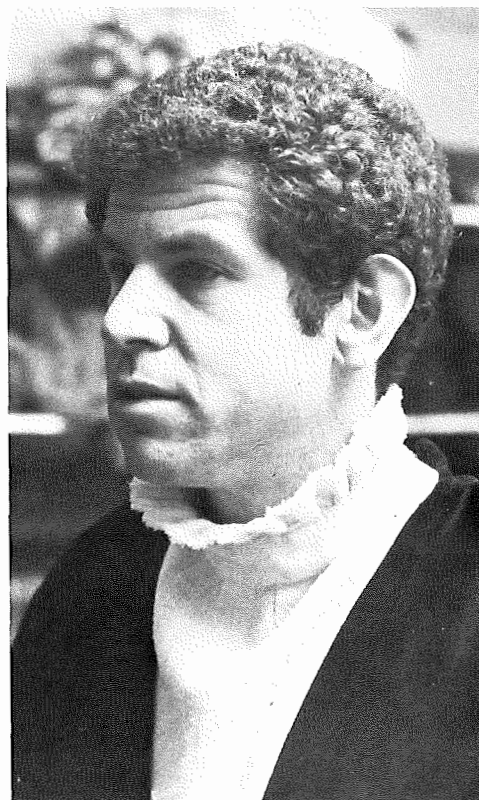

The Children's Theatre production of "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" under the direction of Mr. Jim Avidon was a complete success as it relaxed the mind of the adult yet challenged the imagination of the younger audience. The combination of make-up, costuming, lighting and sound techniques created the necessary effects to make the show enjoyable and "believable" to audiences of all ages.

To Be or Not To Be

Tony Roberts was the fifteenth guest star to appear at Otterbein College. In the title role of Hamlet, Roberts demonstrated standards which aided not only actors, but other students as well, to attain professionalism. "To be or not to be, that is the question ..."

Lost Horizon

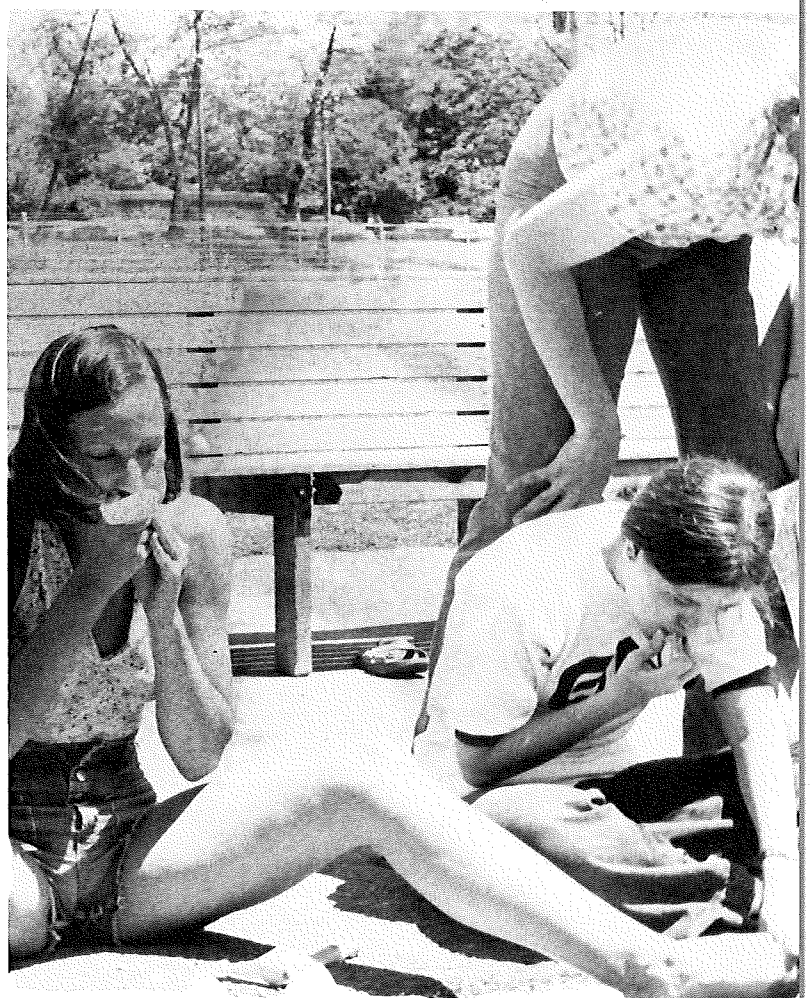

Winter Homecoming Weekend had a full schedule for those who attended activities. Great things were planned including skating at the Ice Chalet, skiing at Clearfork, plus a victory over O.W.U.

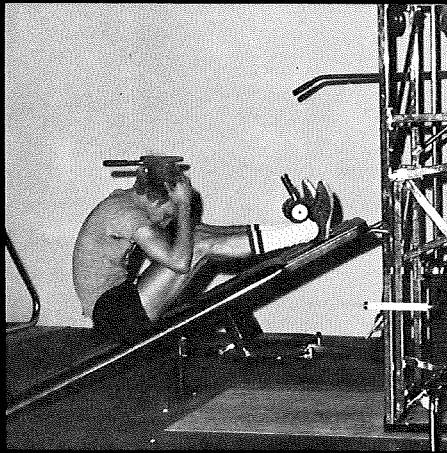

May Day

Parents, brothers and sisters came to the 'Bein on May 22 for the traditional May Day. Game booths surrounded the campus center. The trike race, stilt race, tug-o-war, were just some of the events which highlighted the afternoon. A production of "The Showboat" received special recognition and the May Day Court was introduced.

DeMoss and Holden Discuss the Values of an Internship

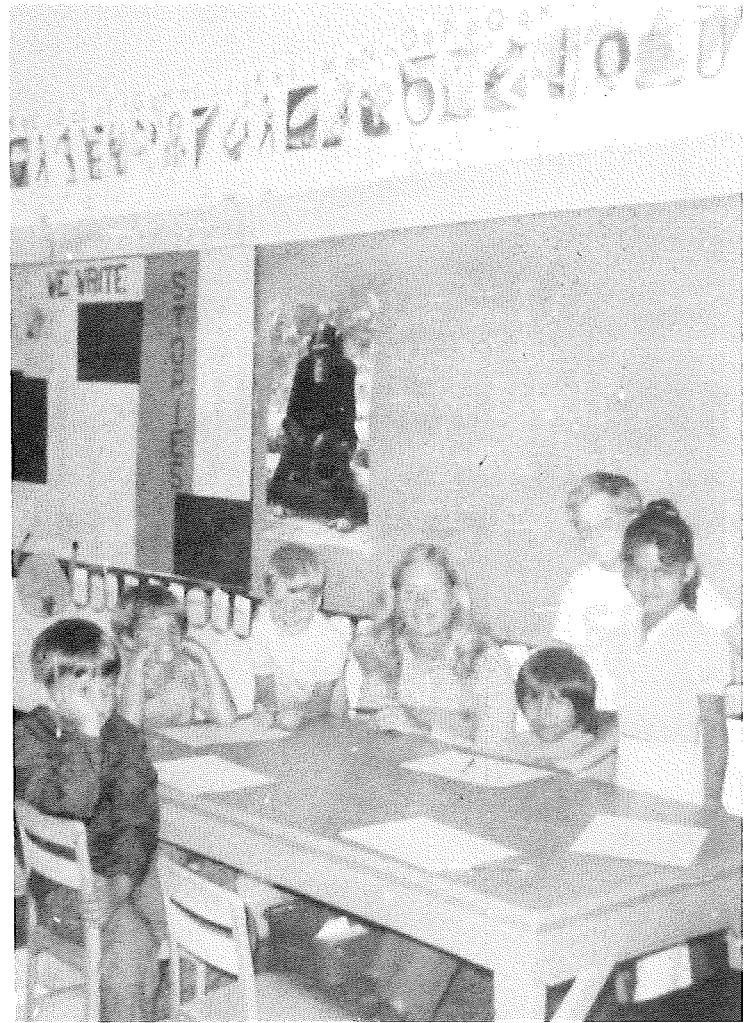

Holden and WCMH anchorman Hugh DeMoss discuss the aspects of communications during Art's internship at channel 4. Holden's field work program, through the Speech/Theatre Department, allowed him to see the other side of the television business. Len Robinson, along with Art, spent ten weeks at WCMH rotating time in each department.

McCurdy Progra111

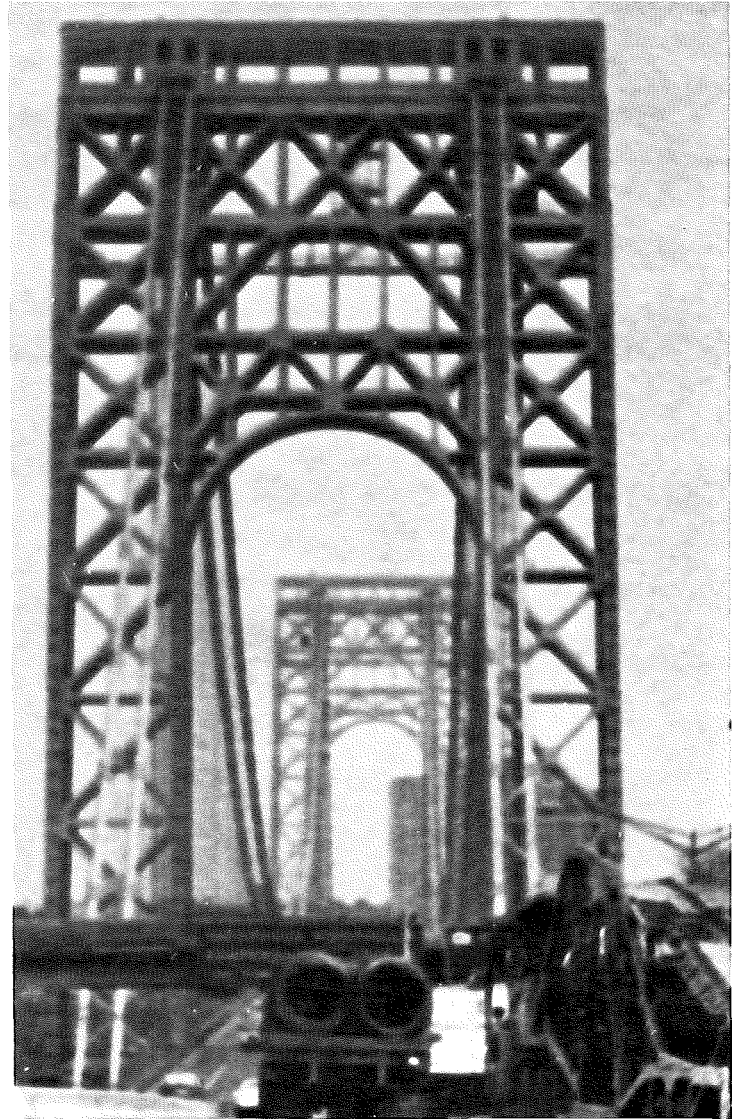

McCurdy Mission School, located in Espanola, New Mexico, provided an excellent and rewarding teaching internship for nine junior elementary and secondary education majors. The interns lived in the boarding school while they stayed at McCurdy, assisting in whatever way they could to the students. Four days a week were spent in the classroom, and weekends were reserved for extended travel to the Grand Canyon, Mesa Verde, Carlsbad Caverns and Colorado.

World Campus Afloat

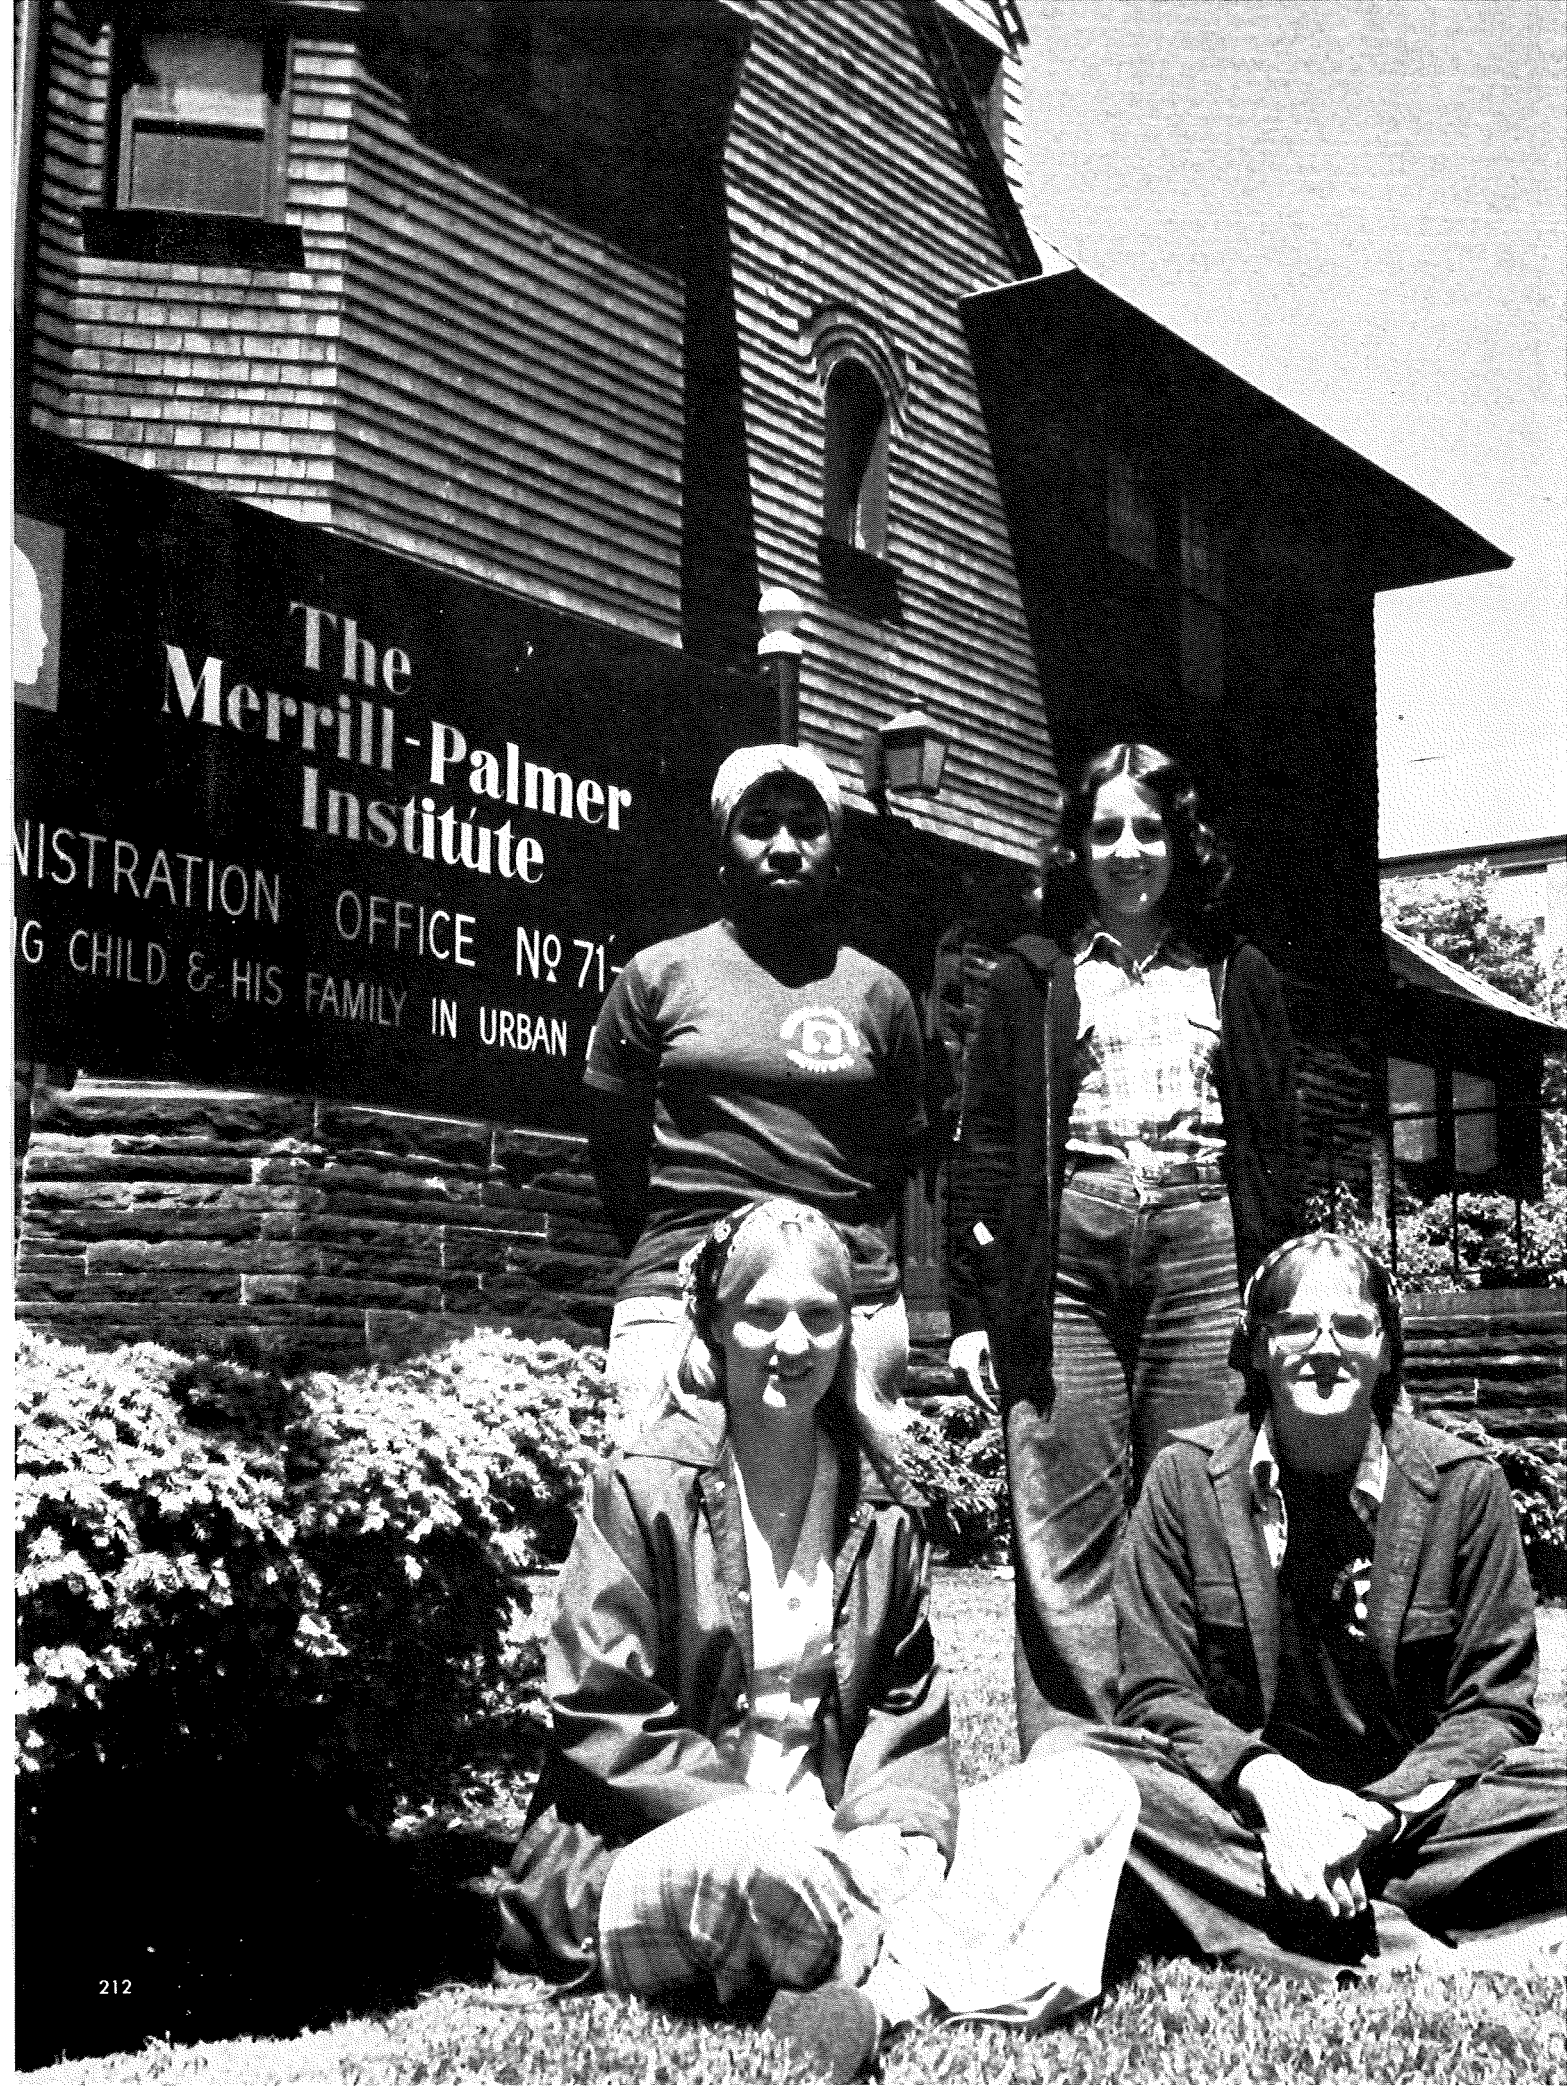

Seven Otterbein students went aboard the S.S. Universe Campus, participating in World Campus Afloat, this past fall. The ship's community included 350 students from all over the country, faculty and staff from various colleges and an excellent crew from Taiwan. Some of the highlights of the trip included seeing the Acropolis in Greece, riding camels in Egypt, bargaining at the covered bazaar in Turkey, shopping in Columbia, parties in the student union aboard ship and soaking up the sun near the pool. All in all, it was an unbeatable experience for all involved.

Hell Day

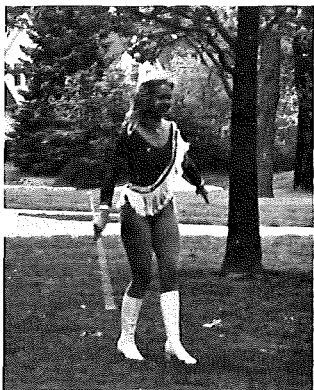

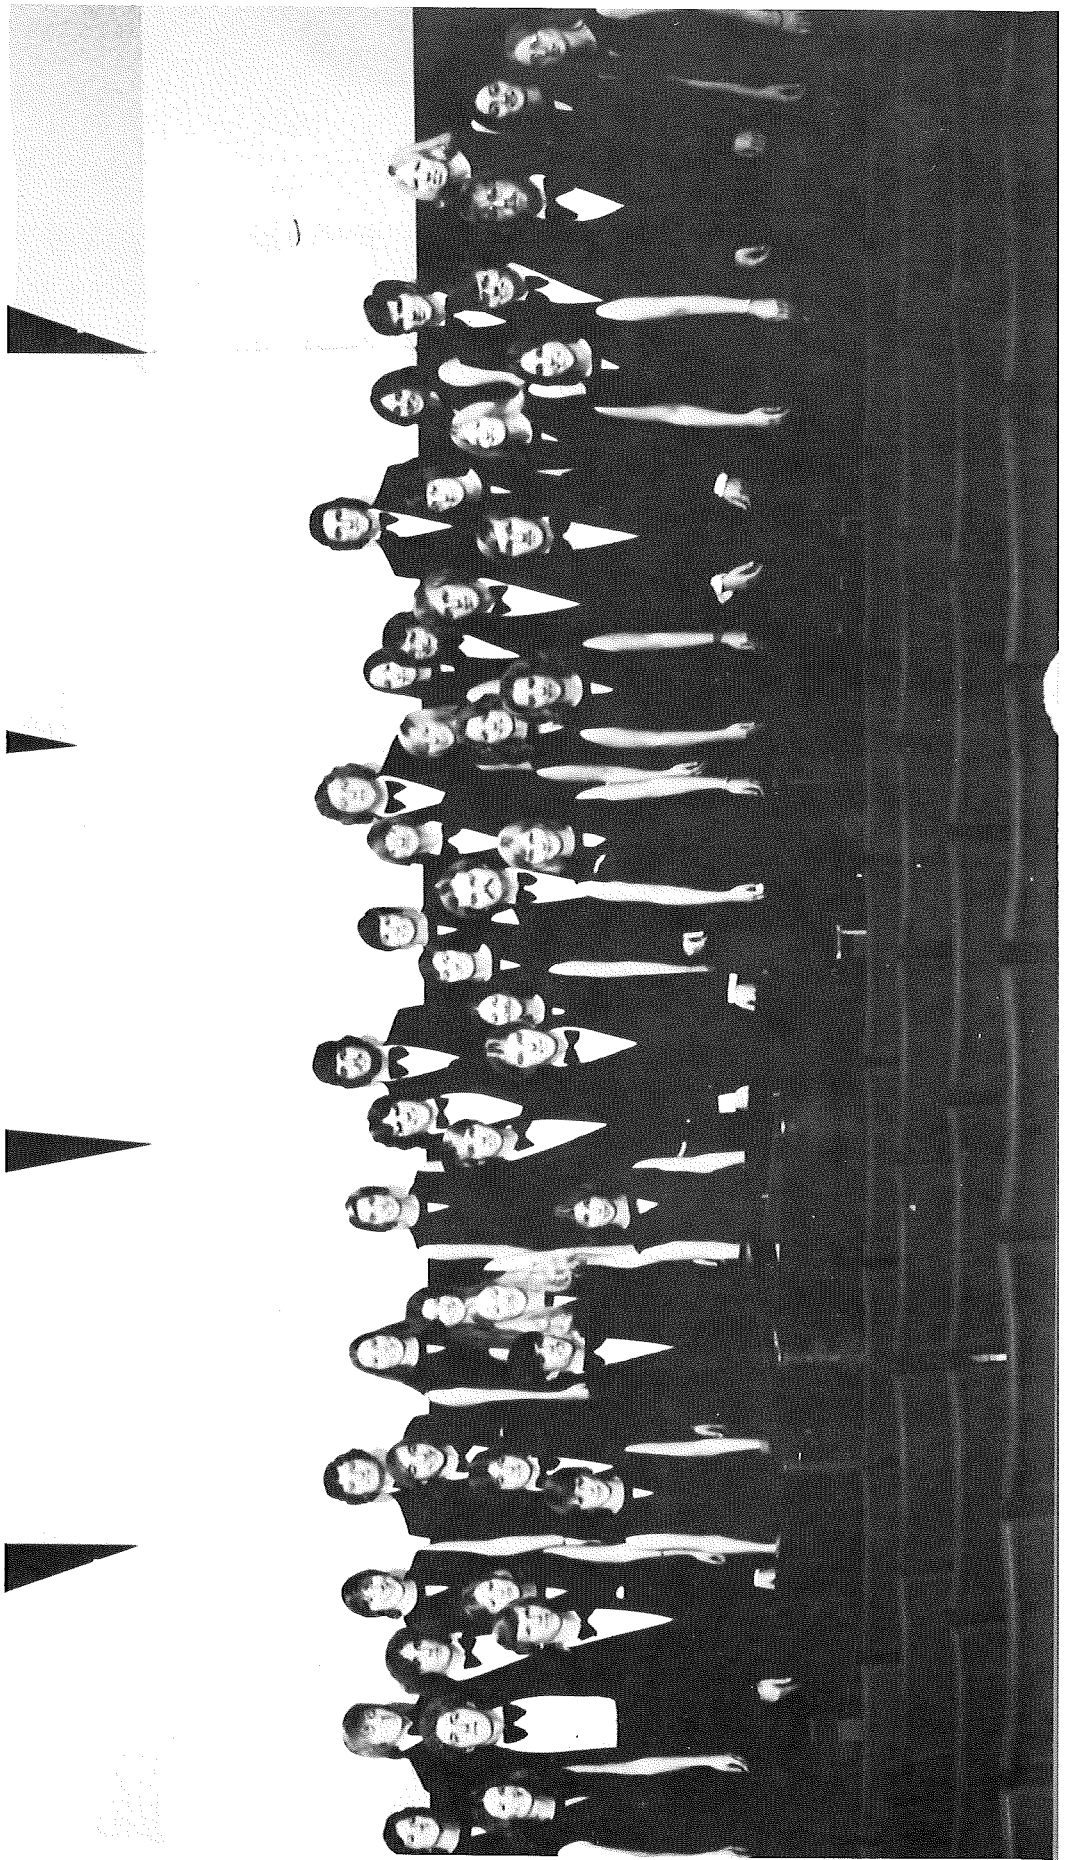

Band

Once again this year Otterbein had one of the best bands in the Ohio Conference. Under the direction of Gary Tirey and assistants Don Wolfe and Paul Lubrod, the highlight of this year's marching band season was an invitation to the Buffalo Bill's game. Because of the Bicentennial year, a new section, the Alumni fife, drum, and bugle corps joined the drum major, Gary Wooten, feature twirlers, Pam Grant and Teresa Blair, and the O Squad and flag corps to form one of the top ten small college bands in the nation.

Concert Choir

Opus Zero

This contemporary music ensemble is not only known and enjoyed by Otterbein students and local audiences but have now claimed fame and gained fans in Chicago and Detroit. Combine the talent of these 16 singers with a five piece musical ensemble; add Gian Morcelli's choreography and Prof. Dennis Kratzer's directing and you have entertainment that will thrill any audience.

Religion in Life

The Campus Crusade held weekly mobilization meetings Friday evenings, and during the week groups stemming from them held Bible studies in the dorms, and many action groups of evangelism. A retreat was held at Camp Wesley to discuss creation. During the year they assisted the Red Cross Bloodmobile and the Fire Relief Fund and helped move the girls of Cochran after the fire. City-wide C.C. worked with the "Here's Life Columbus" group in the I've Found It campaign.

Campus Christian Association - Agape - was a group of people from all walks of religious beliefs and activities that met on Sunday nights in the Red Tub to talk, sing and share their knowledge of life and experiences. A good chance to be heard and understood in a small group setting.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a national organization of athletes committed to Christ and His teachings. F.C.A. aspires to confront athletes and coaches, and through them the youth of our nation with the challenge and adventure of following Christ and serving Him. The Otterbein FCA consists of 10-15 athletes who meet regularly for Christian fellowship and Bible study.

The Religious Activities Council moved from the house commonly called the Red Tub to Tavvers 1 and Towers 15. Plans were enacted to provide a space for meditation and fellowship, as well as a formal meeting room. The R. A. C. helped sponsor the controversial movie "The Ruling Class." They also held the annual Campus Sharing Days Auction. Led by D. Hines, many goodies were auctioned off. This year $431.50 was made and sent to World University Service. Winter found the Council helping sponsor the award winning movie, Ben Hur. In the spring, from April 4 to 6 Religion in Life Week was held in the form of speakers and discussion topics. Food Day was also sponsored by the Religious Activities Council. 203 students donated their evening meals and a 20 mile hunger walk was held. CROP received $516.52 from these efforts. CROP receives and distributes food to poverty and emergency areas around the U.S. and the world.

Members of the Religious Activities Council are: D. Banwart, J. Brunk, J. Brush, B. Buchan, Kim Christy, R. Clarke, C. Cramer, S. Crissinger, B. Cuning, J. Downing, D. Elliott, S. Fast, M. Soul, the Black student organization sponsored the Annual Black Culture Week. The "Soul Train" Dance got the activities underway with Deb Mukasa crowned "Black Goddess." Her Court consisted of Karen Cole, Karen Cook, and Rhonda Pope. "Brother Soul" this year was Ricardo Murph. His brothers were Steve Atkins, Chuck Noble, Danny Baldwin and Gerald Hazley.

Resident Assistants

Beginning with camp in September, a R.A.'s life can be best described as busy! Along with the usual tasks of counseling, dorm duty, programming, and float-building, their job was highlighted by such events as a picnic at President Kerr's home, a surprise party given by Dean Oldag, and a day spent horseback riding.
