ANNUAL JUNIOR PLAY WILL COME SATURDAY

Eight Contestants Are Selected For Howard Russell Declamation Contest

Tryouts Held During Classes Last Thursday

CONTEST HELD NEXT MONTH

Miley, Snyder, Edwards, Senff, Sanders, Baker, Debolt and Derhammer Will Compete.

Semi-finals for the Russell Declamation Contest were held Thursday, in the Public Speaking class room, and resulted in the selection of eight students, four women and four men, who will compete for the three prizes of $25, $15, and $10 offered by Dr. Howard H. Russell in the final contest to be held in the college chapel, sometime in December.

All freshmen and sophomores enrolled in Public Speaking classes were required to enter the contest, and tryouts were conducted within the three classes at their regular recitation hour (Continued On Page Two).

EDDY PAMPHLETS MAY YET BE SECURED FROM Y

Sherwood Eddy, a nationally known Y. M. C. A. speaker who was on the campus a few weeks ago, discovered that there was a greater demand for his books than he could supply, so he sent on one hundred pamphlets called "Religion and Social Justice" written by himself and ten copies of "Dollars and World Peace" by Kirby Page.

Most of these pamphlets have been sold, only about twenty of "Religion and Social Justice" being left. Those who still desire a copy of Eddy's works may get one from Louie Norris, president of the Y, or get one after the Y meeting tonight. "Religion and Social Justice" is practically an enlargement of what Mr. Eddy tried to say in the short time he was here.

In case someone should want one of the books that Mr. Eddy brought with him but was unable to get one at that time, they may order one through the local Y. M. C. A. by getting in touch with the president.

Why not buy for two purposes?

ANNUAL ARMISTICE DAY IS FORMALLY OBSERVED

Armistice Day was formally recognized at Otterbein during the prolonged chapel period Friday morning when a special program was presented in charge of the Student Council, and again at 11 o'clock when everyone stood at attention for two minutes as the flag was lowered and taps played in honor of those who gave their lives in the war. The latter service was in accordance with the nation-wide manner of paying tribute.

John F. Carlisle, a Columbus attorney, gave the principal address at the chapel assembly. Karl Kumlér gave a short historical sketch of the World War, and Robert Bromely spoke on "The Significance of Armistice Day". Kipling's "Recessional" was sung by a quartet composed of Lewis Frees, James Harris, Fred Miller, and John Hudock.

Otterbein Fairy Story:

Paul Whitman and his orchestra will be here this week to help Otterbein faculty and students celebrate the opening of Willies' new confectionery.

WATCH VACATION DATE

Vacation dates for Thanksgiving this year will extend from 12 o'clock noon Wednesday, November 23 until noon Monday, November 28. All new students are requested to observe the regulation regarding pre and post-vacation absences, as recorded in the Y Handbook.

NEW RELAY OF CHAPEL LEADERS IS ARRANGED

A new relay of chapel leaders has been arranged including several professors who have not been previously on the schedule, and a student leader every four weeks.

This change has been made as a result of both faculty and student opinion that variety of leadership tends to whet the interest of the school as a whole in the chapel proceedings.

McBride Speaks in Chapel

Dr. F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, spoke in chapel last Tuesday morning. He emphasized the importance of students exercising their franchise at the polls in the recent election.

Women's Social Groups Claim Prizes

Silence in ended! The hand has moved around the dial, and the three days of judgment have passed away. The clock has violated all known rules of clock etiquette and has struck 72 times. Tongues are loose at both ends, and club rooms are the scene of breath-taking revelry.

An ambulance stands before Cochran Hall, the driver is in position, and the door is held open. Why? Foolish question! It is to transport those girls who are suffering from crushed ribs and dislocated bones to the hospital.

Wednesday at 9:00 bids went out from the girls' groups through the medium of Mrs. Barnhill, dean of Saum Hall. They were returned at noon Friday, and during the 72 intervening hours there was no communication between club girls and new girls. At three o'clock the answers to the bids were opened, and though no public demonstrations were permitted, the club rooms became the scenes of such riotous welcome that it is a wonder the constant attendance of an ambulance wasn't necessary.

Fifty-one girls were bid, and forty-four accepted an invitation. Arbutus, Greenwich, and Onyx clubs headed the list with eight pledges each. Talisman was close second with six, while five girls handed "Yes" cards to the Owls. Arcady placed three on their pledge list, and Polygon placed two. Lotus, Phoenix and Tomo Dachj satisfied themselves with one, each.

ARBUTUS

Martha Evans, Centerburg; Emma Grim, Ripley; Kathleen Hancock, Philipsburg, Pa.; Margaret Miller, Canton; Henrietta Runk, Canton; Olive Shisler, Beach City; Evelyn Stair, West Salem; Laurene Wahl, Union City, Ind.

BARRIE'S "THE ADMIRAL CRICHTON" IS THE TITLE

PROFIT GOES TO SIBYL

Edna Hayes and Wendell Williams Carry Leading Roles. Must Pay High Royalty.

"The Admirable Crichton," a comedy by the well-known English dramatist James M. Barrie, will be presented by the Junior Class in the chapel next Saturday evening. The fact that the Juniors are having to pay the unusually high royalty of $50 for the staging of this production is indicative of the high standing of the play, and should recommend it to those who are interested in outstanding contemporary drama. After the production expenses are paid the receipts of the ticket sale will go toward defraying the cost of the 1928 Sibyl.

The title role of Crichton will be played by Wendell Williams, with Edna Hayes in the part of Lady Mary. (Continued On Page Five).

OTTERBEIN GUILD SENDS BOX TO PORTO RICANS

Otterbein Guild, the women student's auxiliary of the foreign missionary society, met Sunday afternoon, November 13 at the home of Mrs. E. M. Hursh to discuss Porto Rico as a foreign mission field.

Josephine Drury who was born in Porto Rico, and whose parents are now there lead the discussion, favoring the group with some songs in the Spanish tongue. The whole program was planned as an imaginary trip to Porto Rico. The girls making up the Guild brought gifts to put into a Christmas box to be sent to the United Brethren mission branch in Porto Rico. The box will be sent, this week, probably Friday.

If there are those who were not at the meeting but who would like to contribute to the box they may do so this week, before Friday. Gifts should be given to Esther George, president of the organization or Ethel Shreiner who is the secretary.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR PARTY IS POSTPONED

Due to the fact that the Junior play is going to be held on the evening set for the Christian Endeavor party, the party has been postponed to Monday evening, Nov. 21, at 8 o'clock. It will be held in the basement of the church.

WORK ON BOULEVARD LIGHTS WILL BE COMPLETED SHORTLY

ELEVEN STANDARDS WILL ILLUMINE GROVE STREET

NEW UNITS MAY BE ADDED

Standards Paid For By Class of '27,
City and Adjoining Residents
Pay Rest.

Work on the eleven boulevard lamps which are to light Grove Street from Park to Home streets has been progressing, and will probably be completed near the first of December according to information given out by Professor J. P. West, treasurer of the college.

The lights represent in part, the gift of the class of 1927 to the college. It was originally intended to install four lights along the east edge of the campus but through the co-operation of the city management, and the citizens living along Grove street between Park and Home streets the idea was developed to extend the system. The eleven lights have been planted about 130 feet apart, in spots where they will be of the most service.

The city management is planning to assume all responsibility for wiring the lights, and for providing the necessary current. The standards themselves are to be paid for with the donation of the class of 1927 and the gifts of the citizens whose property faces Grove street.

The lamps were provided by the Boulevard Lamp Company of Cleveland, Ohio, and were chosen with both beauty and utility in view. The lighting system has been installed in such a manner that it can be extended to adjoining streets at any time.

CONSERVATORY GIVES FIRST RECITAL OF YEAR

Piano solos, and a quartette, violin solos, a mandolin quartette, and an organ solo, were some of the many varied numbers given at the first musical recital of the year on last Friday evening, November 11 at Lambert Hall.

A large appreciative audience greeted each of the following participants:

Oliver K. Spangler, Geneva Shela Kathryn Beck, and Grace Senff in a piano quartette; Edith Patrick in a piano solo; Ada Margaret Coon accompanied by Ethel Kepler in a vocal group; Releaffa Freeman, in a piano solo; James Harris, vocal solo, accompanied by Mildred Wilson; Raymond Schick, violin group, Elma Harter, vocal solo; Margaret Miller, piano solo; Ernest Stirm, vocal solo; Homer Huffman, piano group; Ethel Kepler, vocal solo; Frances McGowen, piano solo; Dorothy Wainwright, vocal solo accompanied by Professor A. R. Spessard on the cello; Zuma Heestand, Grace Senff, Nell Ambrose, Frances George in a mandolin quartette.

RELATION OF FATHER TO SON DISCUSSED SUNDAY

Clyde Bielstein conducted the Father and Son service in the young people's Sunday School, Sunday morning. During the devotional service Claude Zimmerman read the scripture and Doyle Stuckey offered prayer.

A fine talk was given by Junior Clippinger on "My Dad as a Pal." He expressed the thought that a Dad wants his son to be a better man than he is, and that to do this the son must be a better boy than his Dad was as a boy.

Professor Rosselot spoke on "Being a Pal to My Son." He brought out the thought that a father lives his youth over again in the youth of his son, and that he doesn't want his lad to make the same mistakes that he did, and so he guides him. A true Dad is a chum.

Donald Euverard led the singing. The service was dismissed by James Harris, the young people's superintendent.

Follow-Up Student Chest.

Due to the failure of the student body to meet the quota set for the Student Chest, members of the Student Council have been assigned names of those who did not pledge, and will see these persons individually. All pledges should be paid as quickly as possible.

Date Printed Wrong

The statement was made in the last edition that the Jack Wood's Quartet and Bell Ringers' number of the Lyceum Lecture Course series would come on February 28. Next year being leap year this number will come on February 29. An error was made in preparing the copy.

EIGHT ENTER RUSSELL DECLAMATION CONTEST

of 7:30, 9:00, or 11 o'clock. Five persons not in Public Speaking classes wished the privilege of a tryout, and a special session was held for them at 4 o'clock.

Dean Cornet acted as judge for the 7:30 class, and selected Wilbert Miley and Margaret Snyder for the best and second-best in the class. Zuma Heestand and Theodore Croy tied for third place, but only those winning the first two places will take part in the finals.

Evelyn Edwards and Grace Senff were adjudged the two best declaimers in the 9 o'clock section, while Helen Ewry was placed third. The judging was done by members of the class who were not required to enter the contest.

In the 11 o'clock section, Professor Pendleton adjudged Richard Sanders and John Baker as the two winners. A. Otis Ransom and Marion Kiess were given third and fourth places. Professor Donald Clippinger who was the judge for the independent section at 4:00 p. m. selected Lucile Debolt and Harold Derhammer as the two best speakers in that group.

The quality of all the speeches was far above the average, and the judges encountered considerable difficulty in selecting the winners.

The boy who said, "If the river was whiskey and I was a duck, I would dive to the bottom and never come up," knew he was a writer of fiction.

Tan Loses to Heidelberg Crew in Final Gridiron Tilt of Season

IN GAME FEATURED BY MUCH ROUGH PLAYING

SCORE 13-0

Touchdowns Made in Second and Fourth Quarters on Straight Football.

Winding up its football season at Heidelberg, Otterbein suffered a setback when the Orange and Black eleven managed to push over two touchdowns. Through out the entire game the playing was rough and infuses were common to both teams, occasioning many heavy penalties.

Otterbein's line was not strong enough to hold and stop the plunging of Kramer and Adams who seemed to go thru the line at will; however the line showed its grit and fighting spirit after Kramer and Adams had worked the ball 15-yards from the goal line when they forced Heidelberg to lose it from their 30-yard line down the field.

Heidelberg made 15 first downs to Otterbein's 6 but their aerial work was not as successful for they completed 3 passes out of 12 attempts for a gain of 41 yards while out of 13 attempted passes, Otterbein completed 5 for 55 yards.

This game ended the college football careers of many men who played their last game for Otterbein. The graduating of Captain Crawford, Riegle, Pinney, Minnich, Gearhart, Norris and Schott this year will be a heavy loss for Coach Sears.

Heidelberg can readily credit the winning of the game to their stellar quarterback, Kramer, who too was playing his last game. His all around ability to kick, pass and carry the ball, easily distinguished him as the outstanding player of the game.

The first quarter was scoreless and the Tan and Cardinal team played rugged ball, both on defense and offense; only the punting of Pinney saved the eleven from great losses.

The first score of the game came early after the second quarter had started. Pinney kicked to Heidelberg's 40-yard line from where, line plunges by Mahaffy and Kramer carried the ball to Otterbein's 30-yard line. Kramer circled right end for 16 yards and then plunged for 4 more through the line. Adams and Kramer then netted 7 more yards by smashing through the line and with the ball on our 3-yard line, Kramer carried it over for the first marker of the game. He place kicked for the extra point.

Otterbein then seemed to come to life for Hess kicked to Minnich who returned 10 yards to Otterbein's 30-yard line. A long pass, Minnich to Hance netted 23 yards and brought the ball into Heidelberg's territory. Saul hit the line for 2 more, Minnich failed to gain and then a pass Minnich to Pinney gained 6 yards. Lee again made first down through the line. Two plays by Pinney and Minnich were good for 6 yards. Lee hit tackle for one and placed the ball on Heidelberg's 22-yard line. Saul attempted to hit center for first down but was stopped in his tracks and the ball was given to Heidelberg on their own 20-yard line. The half ended with the ball in midfield.

In the third quarter Otterbein threatened to score after securing the ball on their own 44-yard line by holding Heidelberg for downs. A pass Minnich to Pinney was good for 10 yards and first down. Miller and Fletcher then reeled off 3 yards apiece, but on the next play Fletcher was thrown for a 7 yard loss. Pinney punted 40 yards to Heidelberg's 25 yard line and after a few line plays, Kramer kicked 20 yards to Miller on Otterbein's 40-yard line. Pinney smashed the line for 3 and a long pass Minnich to Riegel was incomplete; but the ball was given to Otterbein at the place the ball touched the ground for a Heidelberg man had interfered with the catching of the pass by tripping Riegel. The ball was put in play on Heidelberg's 40-yard line. Fletcher made one; a pass Minnich to Riegel was good for 6 yards and then a long pass by Minnich was grounded thus ending all chances for a possible score as Heidelberg received the ball on the next play.

In the last quarter the Tiffinites earned another touchdown. Securing the ball on Otterbein's 40-yard line, the Orange and Black worked their way to the 10-yard line. Kramer attempted to pass the ball over the line for a touchdown but the ball was grounded and the referee ruled a touchback giving the ball to Otterbein on its 20-yard line. A 15 yard penalty for holding brought the ball back to the 5-yard line. Pinney passed to the 40-yard line where Kramer intercepted. A pass Kramer to H.

hit the line for 7 and with the ball on the 18-yard line Kramer on an off tackle play twisted and side stepped his way through the Otterbein line for his second touchdown. He failed to kick for the extra point.

Score Heidelberg 13, Otterbein 0

The game ended without further scoring though the Tan and Cardinal team fought hard to get a touchdown by attempting some long passes.

Pinney, Gearhart and Riegle put up a great game for Otterbein.

MOVIE STUDENTS

Westerville is more or less limited in the amusements it offers the students of the town. A prominent local business man has accordingly built a theater of a really pretentious rating
for a village the size of Westerville.

Students have been attending the "State" in fairly large numbers. And there is every inducement for them to go. It is comfortable, there is plenty of room, the music is good. In fact it has most everything the old "Garden"
had not.

Now that there is a comfortable
place to go and most of the students have the habit, perhaps it would not be amiss to remind ourselves of some of the real reasons for the existence of the theater, or some of the values that may be gotten from theater going. A motion picture may be of untold value or it may be a neutral or actually destructive influence, depending almost entirely upon the attitude of the person concerned.

There has grown up in the modern a subtle shifting of values from that which is life at its best, to what is merely the husk or shell of life. The danger then lies in the acceptance of this faulty portrayal of life, for life itself. Thus in order to combat this danger one must be able to analyze the play and see whether the author has used certain effects merely to portray certain character traits or soul dementions or whether it is his conception of life.

The whole thing involves a study of the drama or the short story. It is necessary to know the rules of the game before one can play it or be able to understand how someone else plays
it. Going to a movie without knowing the qualities involved in the development of the theme is like going to a football game to watch and hear the crowd cheer, band play and players idly run up and down the field. The football novice doesn't enjoy a game.

"Camille", a movie lately put on by the Varsity "O" was a splendid production as far as character drawing and dramatic action go. But it was a picture of the sordid, coarse underworld of Paris. The untutored, unthinking observer might have taken it for a picture of life, if he had not been able to see what the author had in mind when he wrote it.

Every man must be a student of life.
To be able to stand life he must be able to understand it. Why not use the plays pictured on the movie screen as a means of studying life. Why not try to analyze the forces that have preyed upon the leading characters and then see how those forces effect one's own life. If theater goers hold this attitude toward the productions, the time and money involved will be well spent.

How much more economical would such a procedure be than merely tossing the usual quarter in the ticket window and passively allowing the stimulants from the screen mold one's conception of life.

Schedules may be important in the music department but it does seem that the instructors might have paused at least two minutes last Friday morning during the raising of the flag. Not only were the other students in the building disturbed but the instructors themselves were entirely lacking in respect to war heroes who have gone on.
Of course the offenders could have forgotten that Friday was Armistice Day.

O C

Another advantage a college offers is an opportunity to study human nature. We all wish to be competent judges of humanity. Therin lies success in life. Could there be a better place to begin our practice? Certainly we can not begin sooner. Every worthwhile friend more than repays the trouble of cultivation. And since we can not tell the potentialities of a person by casual acquaintance, why not put the harness of gentleness on old kindness and politeness, hitch them to the strong plow of helpfulness, and turn some sod?

Another contribution a college should make to one is the benefit to be derived from the accumulated experience of its faculty. It is true that this is not available as it would be if our universities were more on the plan suggested by that wise man who said that his ideas of a university was Mark Hopkins sitting on one end of a log and a young man on the other, but do we drain or "Educo," our professors?

Education that comes from personal contact becomes a living force by virtue of the inspiration of the teacher.
The modern idea of the university is that of the department store offering standardized courses of information in everything from algebra to zoology, a mere factory turning out thousands of standardized graduates. Are our professors inaccessible as some would have us believe? To me the most of these demi-gods seem very human; almost capable of recalling when they were in our predicament. Do you suppose the fault here might lay with us?
Last Christmas one of my luminiferous classmates while home on vacation was asked if he had had many contacts with the professors. "Only one,"
he replied, "and that was on a very narrow stairway. I quickly recovered myself, however, and, begging his pardon, I passed on." "But," you will say, "we will be accused of 'handshaking' if we go to the profs. too often." To that I reply we must always run risks in securing the best in life. Besides, to put the matter on its lowest basis, these professors are being paid handsome salaries, are privileged to live in luxurious homes, and work only twelve hours a week, why can't they afford to be magnanimous?
I know not what course others may take, but as for me and my savings give us knowledge or we get out.

Again college training should enable one to correlate and synthesize
the big, underlying theories and principles of life. But modern education seems to be making for intellectual

confusion, moral instability, and spiritual bankruptcy. This is not altogether the school's fault, however. Fond parents pathetically insist on sending Johnny to college whether he desires to go, or whether he has succeeded well in high school, or whether he is physically able to stand the strain of college work. He must go with or without brains, and regardless of the fact that he would probably be better off if his parents would take the money which they will spend on his education and buy him a small grocery store, or farm, instead of buying him a college degree. Christian Gauss, Dean of the College, Princeton University, says, "Of the 600,000 young men now in college, it would possibly have been better in nearly 100,000 cases, had they not come." Still we believe in equal chance for all. The only method we can use is the trial and error method, and allow the school to do as Woodrow Wilson told an anxious mother on the opening day of college what Princeton would do with her son. He said, "Madam, we guarantee satisfaction or we return the boy."

We have taken it for granted that the main reason for the college's existence, which is to train the mind by exercising it in study, will be fulfilled! I have here tried to show only some of the more important contributions which a college should give the student.

ANNUAL JUNIOR PLAY COMES THIS SATURDAY

Wendell Rhodes will act as Stage Manager. The ticket sale is in charge of the Business Manager, Frank Mraz. The price of admission is $.50 and $.65 according to location in the chapel.

The story of the play concerns itself with relations of a butler to his master under very unusual circumstances. Much of the action is laid in the picturesque setting of an island on which the characters are shipwrecked.

WEDDING BELLS

A very interesting wedding in which two of last year's seniors became one in spirit and life's ideals occurred on Friday, October 28th, 1927 in the beautiful island of Porto Rico. The marriage ceremony united Mr. Elward M. Caldwell, '27, and Miss Jeanne Bromley, '27. The service was by the groom's father, Rev. C. E. Caldwell, our U. B. missionary to Porto Rico. The groom is teaching Social Science in the Porto Rico Polytechnic Institute, San German, and Mrs. Caldwell will become Dean of Women for that institution.

PROFESSOR E. W. E. SCHEAR

A. B., Otterbein, 1907

M. A., Columbia, 1915

(The following article has been contributed by Mr. Schear, head of the department of Biology and Geology).

All the work in the various biological sciences and in Geology is being carried on under the management of one department. It is needless to say that, "Fondly do we hope and fervently do we pray" for the time when four full time professors will be needed to carry on the work in these various lines adequately.

At present we are doing the best we can with two regular professors and four student assistants. Professor F. A. Hanawalt came into the department in 1920 and is now teaching the courses in the various Zoological sciences and Geology, while the courses in Bacteriology, Botany, Physiology and Genetics are being taught by the writer.

For the past six or seven years the enrollment in the department has averaged from one hundred and seventy-five to two hundred students throughout the year. Four sections, two in Zoology and two in Botany, are regularly open to freshmen, while two other courses, Entomology and Ornithology are offered from time to time without departmental prerequisites. Enrollment in all other courses offered is limited to those who have had a certain amount of training in various basic sciences.

A few of the courses that should be added and which we hope may be introduced very soon are Geography and Physiography, the bacteriology of foods and water, Eugencis, some advanced work in hygiene primarily for teachers, and at least a second year's work in Botany.

In this age of science it is not only our ambition and our constant endeavor to keep full up with the advance of learning and to keep ever before us as a department the slogan "never content with less than the best."

BASKET BALL SQUAD TO BATTLE FORMER CAPTAINS

The varsity basketball team will have less than a month to get in shape for their first tilt of the season which will be the annual game with the former captains. The date for the big affair is set for December 10 and it is expected that the former captains will bring a strong aggregation to contend with the varsity.

As yet no definite information can be obtained as to just who the former captains are who will return for the game, but if interest among the captains of the former days runs as high as in former years it is likely that the varsity will have plenty of competition.

All former captains who expect to return for the game with the varsity are requested to get in touch with Professor R. F. Martin.

LOCAL ELECTIONS RESULT IN THE PLACING OF TWO FACULTY MEMBERS ON CITY COUNCIL

L. W. WARSON ELECTED TO SCHOOL BOARD

FORMERLY SUPERINTENDENT

All Will Assume Official Duties At First of Year. Town Approves Faculty.

Three Otterbein men were elected to local administrative bodies at the general "off year" elections Tuesday. Professor Troop, of the Department of Economics and Business Administration, was re-elected to the Westerville Council. He has been serving as a member for some time, filling the vacancy created by the resignation of Frank Bookman. Professor B. C. Glover, of the Mathematics department was the other successful candidate for a position on this body. L. W. Warson, the Otterbein Alumni Director was elected to the school board. Mr. Warson was for a good many years superintendent of the Westerville schools, before going overseas during the war.

This is the first time in the history of the town, and incidentally of the college, that several individuals directly connected with the college have been elected to official positions at the same time, the townspeople heretofore being antagonistic and disapproving of any attempt on the part of the faculty members to secure offices.

Professors Troop and Glover will be eligible for election to the office of Police Court Justice, which will be selected by a vote taken from the three council members themselves, shortly after their installation January 1, 1927. Whoever is elected, will preside at all council meetings and act as Justice of the Court. Dr. Snively who has acted in the capacity of mayor for the last few years will retire from office, at the first of the year.

These men will assume office January 1, 1928.

GLEE CLUB PERSONNEL IS FINALLY COMPLETED

The personnel of the Glee Club has now been completed by the director, Professor Spessard. Twelve new men have been taken in this year. They are: Homer Falstick, Ronald Fuller, Alvin Harrold, William Boor, Donald Euverard, Phillip Charles, Morris Irvin, DeMott Beuchler, Ross Carson, Gerald Rosselot and Raymond Clymer.

This makes a club of 31 members including the director and manager. Out of this number 18 will play in the Banjo-Mandolin Orchestra which will contribute about a third of the club's program.

The practice of the Club has been very encouraging thus far. The club's manager, Ferron Troxel, has begun work on the schedule of concerts.

LOCALS

SIBYL GROUP PICTURES ARE TAKEN THIS WEEK

Group pictures for the Sibyl will be taken this Thursday and Friday at McCahn's studio at 38½ North State street. In order to facilitate the taking of the pictures the business managers of the Sibyl insist that those who are to be in the groups must be on time if they are included in the picture. There are several pictures to be taken, necessitating strict adherence to the schedule.

All who are to be in pictures are requested not to wear sweaters as has been done in the past. The staff is striving for uniformity in the types of pictures taken, hence students are asked to dress accordingly.
