GLEE CLUB GOES ON EASTERN TRIP

Otterbein Singers Give Concerts in Beach City, Canton and Barberton During Easter Vacation.

HAVE LARGE AUDIENCES

Christian Endeavor Gave Reception at Canton—Club Well Entertained at Easter Trip.

Singing at Barberton on Tuesday night, the Glee Club completed a four-day concert trip through eastern Ohio. More dates had been arranged than could be carried on the Easter tour but all were cancelled but Beach City, Canton and Barberton. The club left Columbus at noon Saturday and landed in Beach City at either four thirty or five thirty, depending upon whether the time was taken from the watches of the club or the Wheeling and Lake Erie clock (Eastern Time). The concert here was given before a capacity house of the audience at this place.

Leaving Beach City Sunday morning the club arrived in Canton in time to be present at the Easter service of the First U. B. church at that place. Several songs were sung in the Sunday school, which is one of the largest in the denomination; 129 present being present on Easter morning. The members of this Sunday school were the promoters of the concert here and they succeeded in bringing out over 1200 people on Monday night. The solo numbers by Miss Miles and Mr. Gilbert were received with much applause by the President Speasard's readings were encored several times. After the concert the Christian Endeavor society tendered the club a reception in the church.

Otterbein to Meet Ohio State Here Next Saturday.

If weather conditions permit hard practice on the local diamond, there is no reason why Otterbein can not successfully meet Ohio State on their home ground. The Wesleyan team showed where several improvements could be made in the team and where the practice was needed the most. The week end will see the strongest team Otterbein has had in years if the weather moderates so Mundhenk will be able to get his arm back in normal condition to pitch that steady consistent game which won much commendation last year.

It is a fact that State can not duplicate her success of last Saturday on our grounds and if everyone is out and rooting for Otterbein we stand an excellent show to win. Everyone be there!

WESLEYAN WINS OPENING GAME

Otterbein Meets Defeat in First Game of Season at Delaware Saturday Afternoon.

BOOTH GETS THREE BAGGER

Booth, Ream and Haller Play Their Usual Good Game—Wood Makes Good Showing.

In their first game of the season, Otterbein's baseball nine met defeat by a score of 10 to 3 at Delaware last Saturday when they played Ohio Wesleyan, one of the strongest teams in the state.

The result of the game depended almost wholly on the pitching forces and the batting, as both teams played close defensive ball, considering the extremely cold weather. On account of the condition of his arm, Wesleyan had no trouble in hitting Mundhenk while the Tan and Cardinal supporters were only able to register one clean hit from Malone, Wesleyan's stellar south paw. After the sixth inning, when Wood replaced Mundhenk, the Red and Black warriors were unable to make their long drives, selfishly knocking the ball outside the diamond.

Everyone expected a close game in the first inning when Captain Booth smashed the pill deep into center field bringing Grubh in the plate for the first score of the season. In the last half Mundhenk, Ream and Booth executed a neat double play. Malone tightened in the second inning fanning Miller and Mundhenk. When Otterbein took the field, Guin and Myers placed the ball in center and left fields respectively allowing Guin to score. In the third period Otterbein could not place the pill in.

CINCINNATI TAKES PRIZE

A. W. Neally Scores Third Place in State I. P. A. Contest at Delaware.

All Otterbein students are proud of the fact that they had a representative at the Annual State Classical Contest of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association held at Delaware on last Saturday night, April 14. Wayne Neally acted in this capacity and only missed first place because of one point in the system of grading. About fifty students were present at the contest and felt confident of winning. A muffled groan was heard to pass over the audience when the decision of the judges was announced. Even disinterested persons in addition to Otterbein people expected Mr. Neally's masterful delivery and eloquent flow of oratory to bring him first prize. The final decision gave Mr. Irving F. Reichert of Cincinnati first place, Mr. A. F. Zosch of Wooster second, Wayne Neally of Otterbein third, R. J. Carothers of Marietta fourth and W. G. Gehri, Ohio Northern last.

In the previous contests Mr. Neally was awarded first place with an overwhelming majority of points. He won in the local tryout and also in the central district contest against La Porte, Indiana, and Mason the prize orator of Ohio State. With this record of very successful contesting, the laurels of the State meet were coveted by Otterbein followers. In one particular the order of the speeches was in favor of Mr. Neally. He appeared last and although his audience was somewhat tired at this point, as soon as he began his oration a feeling of intensity and interest was apparent over the entire assembly. At the close of his speech whisperings were heard throughout.

STUDENTS BACK PRESIDENT

Otterbein Students Hold Patriotic Meeting Where Loyalty is Pledged to Nation's Head.

An impressive and solemn demonstration was given by the students Tuesday evening upon the village streets in the way of a parade, which was led by the national colors in procession. The march was made to marital music by the college band. An interesting feature of the parade was the large flag carried by a score of girls from Cochran Hall.

After a parade through the streets, the students and many townspeople, who had followed the procession, proceeded to the college chapel, where Dr. Charles Snively took charge. As an expression of sentiments of students and faculty of Otterbein, it was voted to send the following message to President Wilson.

April 4, 1917.
Mr. Woodrow Wilson,
President of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

Students and faculty of Otterbein university assembled in mass meeting Tuesday evening, April 3, passed unanimously a resolution expressing complete confidence in your present policy tackling the war problem and pledging you entire loyalty and support in the crisis through which you are now leading the nation.

W. G. Clippinger,
Miss Edna Miller,
Stanho Wood,
Committee.

Dr. E. A. Jones, a member of the Otterbein faculty, gave a stirring address upon patriotism and the present national crisis. Having passed through one national struggle, Dr. Jones would be loath to stir an audience to useless passion, but at this time when the world is looking toward the

This Winter's Passing Show.
Further Plans Made For Visitaton Days.

The following program for Visitaton Days was announced by President Clipping:

Registration and assignment of homes for visitors will take place during Friday morning and observance of class room work will occupy the greater part of the day. A band concert will be held at 2:30, after which a game of baseball has been scheduled. Ohio university has to be from the attraction, but the school has canceled all games this season on account of their wishing to have no special training.

6:30 p.m.—Open sessions of Philo-phroan and Philomathian literary societies.

Saturday, 7 a.m.—May morning pageant, Music Otterbein orchestra. Visit to the Anti-saloon league. Automobile ride.

10 a.m. — Annual inter-class track meet.

Sunday, 9 a.m.—Sunday school.

11 a.m.—Church services. Sermon by Rev. E. E. Parther.

The conference and student rally on "Ways and Means of Going to College" will be held in the college gymnasium. Addresses by Press. Clipping, Dr. C. W. Brewbaker, Rev. O. T. Deever, college students and visiting guests.

Ohio Academy of Social Science.

A new state organization to be known as the Ohio Academy of Social Sciences was launched at the annual meeting of the Ohio College Association held at Columbus during the Easter recess. The purpose of this organization is to apply to the state's life such scientific knowledge of economic, social, and political problems as may be possessed by the faculty, students, and religious communities outside of the colleges. A committee consisting of H. L. Eott of Oberlin, chairmain; Gardner Latimer of the Toledo Commerce Club, O. C. Lockhart of Ohio State University, F. L. Olson of the Akron Municipal Research Bureau, and E. S. Todd of Miami University was authorized to investigate and work for tax reform. A committee consisting of M. B. Hammond of Ohio State, chairman, T. R. Harris of Miami University, A. R. Hatton of Western Reserve University, Gardner Latimer of Toledo, and S. C. Lawrie of the University of Cincinnati was authorized to manage the affairs of the Academy during the first year. H. B. Drury of Ohio State University was made secretary of the committee.

A feature of interest to readers of the Review is that Doctor Charles Swain was chairman of the Social Science Section of the Ohio College Association which decided to form this new organization.

MISS MAC LAREN PLEASURES

Her Splendid Presentation of "Bought and Paid For" Enjoyed by Large Audience in Chapel.

Patrons of the Woman's Lecture Course received a rare treat on the night of April 3 when Miss McLaren read the "most delightful" of her "Bought and Paid For," by Frank Raymond.

Bought and Paid For is in itself fif-es, this time not "the most interesting and entertaining and one of the best known" as it was advertised in its condition by Miss McLaren. Its setting is in New York City. Robert, Stafford, a rich young business man, had been attracted by her courtesy to Virginia Blain, a telephone operator in one of the city's hotels, and he had invited her with his sister and brother-in-law to his apartments for dinner. So she comes, bringing with her Fannie her sister and James or Jimmy Gilley, Pappina's husband. Jimmy is a shipping clerk who has earned a dollar a week. He is also elated with ideas for making money which never materialize. Stafford at this time proposed marriage to Virginia but she does not accept as she does not think that she loves him. However he drinks a toast to her as his future wife. Fannie and Jimmy are much elated at the announcement.

The next act takes place two years later. Virginia, now Mrs. Stafford, returns to her brother-in-law and Mr. and Mrs. Gilley. Jimmy is now in the employ of Stafford at a greatly increased salary. Both Stafford and Jimmy come home every Sunday in order to get Virginia's advice. Stafford declares that he bought and paid for Virginia with the jewels she has showered upon her. She finally flees to her room, exalted by the quarrel. The next morning he repeats the condition in which he had come home and asked his wife's forgiveness. He remembers nothing of the things which he said to her and refused to listen when she tried to tell him. Unable to stand longer this state of affairs which has been going on for some time she tells him that he must either give up his drinking or she will leave him. Stafford refuses to allow his wife to do things in regard to his personal habits and she leaves, declaring that she will not return until he comes for her. He is equally insistant that she must make the libations for reconciliation. So they part.

The final act of the play occurs six months later. Mrs. Stafford has been clerking in a store. Mr. Gilley has quit Stafford's employ and is being bought about from job to job. The family is in a worse financial condition than before Mr. Stafford's advent. Mr. Stafford remonstrates over Virginia's having, has given up his drinking, and making for the time when she should return to him. Jimmy, discouraged over the loss of his last job, has another brillian thing in his head. He calls Stafford up before Virginia returns from work and tells him she wants him to come to her that evening. Stafford loses no time in coming and a happy reconciliation takes place. Jimmy also realizes his hope of being reinstated in Mr. Stafford's employ.

Miss McLaren's portrayal of the different characters was so well done that the entire cast of the play seemed to be on the stage. Her work is the more remarkable in that she never rears over the play which she gives, but watches it as it is given, by some good company. After she has listened to it several times she is able to reproduce it exactly. She has won the admiration of all who heard her and will be hearty welcomed if she can come to Westerville again.

IN OTHER COLLEGES

—Exchange Editor.

Oberlin's course in military training began with an enlistment of 300 men. The officers who will have charge of the instruction are graduates of the University of Missouri and have special preparation for this kind of work.

In accordance with the wish of the faculty and student body the college faculty at Wooster last Friday afternoon voted to adopt a required course in military training. This course will require all men in school to take military training for the balance of the year on five days in the week in periods of one hour each.

Beginning with the opening of the school year, 1917-18, "hazing" at varsity games at Davidson will be under the ban of student action, as a result of a vote taken by the student body. At a meeting of the Pan-Hellenic council, held last Monday night, it was decided to enforce the wearing of green head-gear by freshmen at Wittenberg next year.

An "athletic legion," said to be the first military organization of its kind in this country, and composed of students engaged in all forms of sport, is to be organized at State. Only athletes will be eligible for the legion. Some of the college and business men of Oberlin are getting their shoes shined as many as four and five times a day. It is not because the street are exceptionally muddy or that they are going to use their shoes as mirrors. The plain fact of the case is that there are women bootblacks in the town. It is part of the Oberlin College-Wittenburg league finance campaign to raise $75,000 in three years for a new women's dormitory. Eight women of the Gascou Dormitory are the initiators, and they are rapidly adapting the "light or dark polish, air" air of their male competitors.

Prices are under way for the contraction of a large stadium on the new field at Ohio State. This new stadium will be horse-shoe-shaped instead of the bowl effect as first planned. It is expected to increase the seating capacity of the Ohio Field to 18,000. According to present plans the regular program for athletics will be carried out until war exigencies may require its suspension.

All that is necessary to make Prep Perry with the hundred yard dash in the interclass meet is the thoughts of a coach of ether. Ask aforesaid Perry for particulars.

To mold and shape a human life is work for you, the greatest challenge of their ideas of the Christian Church. Two-thirds of the great universe, he called attention to God's omnipresence and infinite, wisdom, and love. The second challenge comes from the character of the work of the church. Her purpose is to win men to Jesus Christ. To do this is to convert men to the greatest ideas in this world. To mold and shape a human life is the greatest achievement within the reach of man. It is a work the angels may well covet. This is the work of the church. Two-thirds of the people on this earth are yet to be made fit for a future life. Here is a work for you, the greatest challenge in the world." In conclusion Dr. Landis magnified the glory of the ministry and spoke of the need of thorough preparation.

Our Patriotism.

Every Ohioan is proud of the patriotic enthusiasm which was demonstrated at the mass meeting which was held in the college chapel on the Tuesday evening before the Easter vacation. During the Civil War a large number of men from Otterbein honored their country and their Alma Mater by putting their lives in the struggle and in the present crisis, Otterbein will put the best that she has at the service of our country whenever the occasion demands it.

Many of us are wondering, why we can not begin military training at once, instead of waiting until next fall. It is thought by some that to begin military training now would necessitate the cancellation of all intercollegiate athletic schedules, but several other colleges in Ohio who are planning to keep up their athletics are also starting military training "limply." The chances are that a government officer will have charge of the training are much better now than they will be next fall and in case an emergency arises during the summer vacation, the training which could be given this spring would be of inestimable value in the service of our country.

Be Sociable.

How do you like to meet a person who occasionally recognizes you, and then when you make an acquaintance the conversation tends never, to have seen you? We have known a few eccentric individuals of this kind and do not hesitate in saying that an acquaintance is very unpleasant.

Few people realize the effect that a good cheerful greeting has on another individual. The effect is more especially noticed if a person whom one regards as a superior meets him with a hearty sincere greeting. It makes one feel that he really does count to something after all. It gives him more self-confidence. He feels that people know him and have at least a small degree of interest in him.

On the other hand there is a feeling of depression, of unworthiness which comes over the sensitive soul who, in acquaintance, feels that stands above him in many respects fails to recognize him. He feels that the other fellow is "too good for him." This of course is a foolish attitude to assume but we have not unfrequently heard expressions of just such feelings.

In college especially should people notice the effect of such actions. If you know a fellow whom you think does not amount to much, or who seems to always follow you in order to take a friendly interest in him—make him feel that you are glad to know him and see what a change will take place.

The Faithful Few.

If there is anyone to whom too little credit is given in this world, it is the person who spends a whole half day every week reading proof for a college paper and never has his name mentioned in its columns, or the individual who writes up one of the most interesting column of the paper and is given no recognition whatsoever by the publication. We know of two or three such characters and wish here to express our sincere appreciation of what they are doing for the Otterbein Review.

The College Paper.

Few educational institutions of importance in the United States are without a student weekly or daily newspaper. These papers are a definite fixed part of the make-up of every live and progressive student body of practically every enterprising and interesting educational institution. The number of such papers is increasing, just as there is a growth in institutions and increase in attendance.

Today a student newspaper is almost a necessity to the life of a wide-awake student body, and the importance of these newspapers is realized. What of the football victories, of the glee club's success, of the class and student body elections, of the social activities on the campus or the progress of an alumnus—what of all these without a newspaper to carry the intelligence to the public? What if the ingenious pranks of the student meetings? What of the eternal "freshman questions?"

Most of these go for naught unless there be yawning corners or the student body elections, of the social activities on the campus, of the progress of an alumnus—all of these without a newspaper to carry the intelligence to the public? What of the ingenious pranks of the student meetings? What of the eternal "freshman questions?"

We used to kill potato bugs but we changed, and if grub still keeps on changing a wheelbarrow load of money to buy a loaf of bread and a piece of cheese. We used to kill potato bugs but we tip our hats whenever we happen to meet one because they belong to the aristocracy now. Everybody can't afford to get close to a potato as Mr. Potato Bug. Even the man at the ice cream factory has raised his mouth an inch higher. If a fellow isn't pretty well thought of at the bank he had better apply for admission into the ranks of the bachelors. It doesn't matter so much about the rising prices on clothes. This year finds us pretty safe, according to the Fashion Nut, no matter how little we wear. There is a possibility that tattooing may be the next thing. How about the little things of the life? "My child, frown not en the money things. Give, little boy, give; the bones. —An Essay by Olaf.

Rising Prices.

Nowadays prices on most everything are ascending to unknown altitudes. There was a time when it was possible to go to market with just a little change and buy a loaf of bread and a piece of cheese. Now the ice cream foundry has raised his prices immensely. The chances have changed, and if grub still keeps on changing a wheelbarrow load of money to buy a loaf of bread and a piece of cheese.

The judges were all agreed that he should have first place in delivery. In this respect there was no approach to Mr. Neally on the part of any of the orators.

Rumor had it, previous to the contest, that the man best in delivery would win, but it seems the method of grading was changed. Although Mr. Neally was first in delivery he was a little low in thought and composition. This was given as the cause for this position in third place.

The judges were as follows: Daniel Poling, President of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, Boston; Professor Newcome of Wesleyan, and Professor Goodell of Denison.

V. L. Phillips of Otterbein, in the office of State Secretary of the I. P. A., made most of the arrangements for this convention at Delaware. The splendid success of the entire convention was due in a large measure to his efforts. As the successor to Mr. Phillips, R. H. Huber of Otterbein was elected to this office for the coming year.

Between the Oratorical Contest and the decision of the judges Dan Poling gave a wonderful address on the Liquor Problem. This concluded the evening's program.

United States for leadership in humanitarian principles in the struggle between democracy and monarchy and oligarchy we stand and take our place in the fight.

The students were stirred by a veteran of a former war, Comrade M. A. Cady, a veteran of the Civil War and commander of James Price Post, Grand Army of the Republic. His intense patriotism was contagious.

President W. G. Clippinger praised President Wilson for his stand in the many crises of the past three years, when he has been so sorely beset with external complications and trouble from within. His forbearance has been great, but the time has come when the United States must rise up and help put down the enemy of true government. When the war began it might have been a war of nations, but it has passed that stage and come to the place where it is a fight between democracy and monarchy and oligarchy.

The last on the program of addresses was a speech by Rev. A. G. Schatzman, ringing with patriotic utterances, after which the meeting closed with a prayer by Rev. E. E. Burtner.

A collection was taken by the students to buy a new flag for the college campus. Because the flag on the main building is not visible from the town when the leaves are on the trees it is being planned to erect a flag pole on Grove street at the end of College avenue.

A few days later the following reply to the message to President was received by the committee:

The White House, Washington, D. C.

The President thanks you for the good will which prompted your kind message, which has helped to reassure him and keep him in heart.

a safety zone while in the last half Cardwell scored on Edward's three base hits, Edwards reached the home plate on Stevenson's single and Stevenson scored on Brewer's single. The last inning Malone fanned Garver and Miller and put Gilbert out at first on a short bingle. Deardoff and Cardwell both scored on Revarre's two bagger. Revarre soon followed when Edwards smashed one just beyond the reach of the shortstop. A double play by Grabill, Ream and Booth stopped their runs in this period. The fifth inning was a repitition of the fourth except that Wesleyan made but one run. In the sixth Malone fanned Garver and Miller and caught Booth's bingle. Mundhenk replaced Miller in right field and faced the Wesleyan sluggers. Edwards and Hanson were benched on short bingles and Guin was caught stealing. Gilbert, Mundhenk and Haller were put out on short tries to third and short. In the eighth Grabill and Ream through a little strategy moved forward one base scoring the latter. Revarre met the ball squarely sending it deep in center field making the only home run of the game. Wood tightened, fanning Edwards and Hanson. In the last inning Lingrell, running for Wood scored on Haller's Texas-leaguer.

parlors. Following a program of stunts, C. E. Lash, '15, introduced each member of the club with a "hot shot." Serving real punch and wafers an enjoyable occasion was brought to a fitting close. This was but the beginning of an "occasion" for some of the club and one or two even got lost on the streets and wandered about till the wee hours of the morning.

Most of the club took in the sights of Akron on Tuesday enroute to Barberton. The party could not walk the hills so they rode around the city in a jitney. The concert in Barberton was given in the High School Auditorium, a building which is indeed a credit to this enterprise city, made famous by Barber's matches. The audience though not as large as that of the night before (because of the Firemen's Ball) was equally appreciative. Plans had been made to return to Westerville Tuesday night but being unable to persuade the "powers that be" to stop the midnight train, it was necessary to remain till Wednesday morning.

Lieutenant William Gresham, a nephew of Mrs. George Scott, was in charge of the naval squad on the Aztec, an American freighter which was sunk by a German submarine Monday. As far as can be learned he with the other sailors were saved after a struggle of two or three hours in a lifeboat. His mother, Mrs. John Gresham, spent several weeks last summer with the Scott family. They live in Jonesboro, Tenn.

COCHRAN NOTES.

Miss Jane Corbett and Miss Isabel Allen from Oberlin visited Marjorie Miller, April second and third. During the third Joseph and five Miss Esther Harley, Miss Mildred Hunt, and Miss Marjorie Whistler from Dayton were at the Hall, seeing Otterbein and visiting Betty Fries.

Esther Van Gundy returned after the Easter vacation.

April 11, Alice Hall said goodbye for the rest of the year. We are all sorry to lose Alice and hope she will return in good health next year.

Wednesday night Mr. Harper and Mr. Hunter, of State visited Nell Johnson, taking supper at the Hall.

Instead of "Button, Button, Who's got the Button," the favorite game at the Hall in "Who's on the wagon, are those caps and gowns?" Thursday night proved that those who work last, work best.

Mary Alice Myers and Grace Barr went to Grace's home for the weekend.

The Hall girls going to the Delaware convention were Alice Reseit, Jessie Weir, Lois Neibel, Meryl Black and Gladys Lake. Those who went over for Saturday were Betty Fries, Katherine Warner, Annette Brane, Martha Soder and Edna Miller.

Ask Gladys Lake about the red-haired, freckled-faced boys at the same Saturday.

Helen Vance and Agnes Wright went home over the weekend, and Nell Johnson visited in Columbus.

Miss Marion Dared and Miss Lois Heller, of Oberlin were guests of Gladys Swigart, Sunday.

The other Sunday guests were Mr. Nobles and Louise, Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Hendrix.

Goldie Morgan and Marjorie Miller Lead Y. W. C. A. Meetings.

Goldie Morgan had charge of the interesting and helpful Y. W. C. A. meeting Tuesday night, the subject of which was "Little everyday kindnesses." We were told that we should be kind to others because of the great need which the world has for those little acts of kindness. Then, too, we should help others to think that it brings to us. But the greatest reason for doing it is that this is the only true way to show our devotion to Christ.

A very interesting meeting was led by Marjorie Miller on Apr 3. Her subject was "What Does Easter Mean to Me?"

ALUMNAL.

'16 Fred A. Hanawalt, president of Biology and Natural Science at Central High School Campus O., was chairman of the Biology Section of the mathematics and Science association which convened at Ohio State during the Easter vacation.

'18 C. F. Bronson surprised his friends by returning from Tulsa, Oklahoda, for a short visit. He has been engaged in the oil business in the south-west since his graduation. "Brook" intends to remain north for some time.

Dr. J. P. Lands of Dayton led the Y. M. C. A. meeting Thursday evening and spoke in the chapel the following afternoon.

The death of Mrs. D. P. Lorenz of Westerville has caused much grief among her many Otterbein acquaintances.

S. S. Harkness spent a few days in Westerville prior to the Easter vacation. "Harley" is now teaching at Pemberville.

Horace H. Hort is reported serious ill in New York City.

C. M. Arnold spent a part of his Easter vacation renewing old acquaintances. Among the towns visited was Madison, Kentucky.

14 J. S. Eagle and Edgar Spatz, Seniors at the Bonheur Theological Seminary, Dayton, returned to Westerville Friday to attend the sessions of their respective societies, Baptist and Philomathes.

Bishop A. T. Howard landed at Vancouver, Washington last week, on his return trip from holding conferences in our mission fields. Along with others he was placed in quarantine for smallpox. On the Bishop's return from an episcopal visit he found his home in Dayton quarantined on account of scarlet fever. It is to be hoped the restraint will be brief.

"New York teachers plan testimonial dinner to Frank D. Wilsey," says The New York World of April 2. Mr. Wilsey is a graduate of Otterbein of the class of 1876. He has been prominently identified with New York educational interests.

The teachers' association of the city have united in tendering a dinner to Mr. Wilsey, as a testimonial of his worth as a friend and of his value as a member of the board of education. The dinner will be given at the Hotel Astor on the evening of April 21. Both men and women have expressed their desire to take part. The dinner arrangements are in charge of E. F. Eller, treasurer of the Hoi School Association.

Ottorbein Brotherhood Membership Exceeds 150.

Over one hundred and fifty members have enrolled for service in the United Brethren Brotherhood recently organized. At the April meeting held Tuesday evening there was an expression of great enthusiasm for the things that the organization stands for, and the organization is looking forward to the church and town. Over one hundred attended the first organized meeting to hear Dr. Chas W. Bredeweger, of Dayton, general secretary of the Otterbein Brotherhood in the United Brethren church, speak and to partake of the fellowship of the other members of the local brotherhood. Light refreshments were served.

Dr. Bredeweger outlined the work that a brotherhood should do in a church and in a community. He complimented the men of the church upon having such a large membership, which he said was exceptional. His old-time religious fervor, he urged the men to increase their membership, but not to stop at getting members, but give each individual something important to do.

Classes Choose Track Captains.

Anticipating the inter-class meet which is to form a part of the program for Visitation Day, the various classes proceeded to choose their track captains last week. The men elected were:

Prep—Thatcher.

Freshmen—Peden.

Junior—Barnhart.

Senior—Walters.

Already the men are working and this meet promises to be one of real interest.

Mrs. C. L. Blue of Sidney, spent several days here before the Easter recess visiting her son, James.

J. W. Somers of Brooksville, spent several days here visiting his son, Ross. Mr. Somers expects to move his family to Westerville next fall.

Mr. Donn, the turtle owner, was here visiting his son, James.

A spotted turtle was brought to the lab. and seen by the turtle being dissected.—"Aren't they horrible! I don't see how you can eat."—Marguerite Meyer—"Oh, we don't eat these."

You cannot afford to miss the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. A. C. Siddall will be the leader, his subject being, "Initiatives for Better Living."

We wish to announce that Prof. Fritz has been blessed by the arrival of a son, Charles Andrew, Jr., born April 12 at 6:30, weight 7½ lbs. His present home is Grant hospital.

A community meeting in the interests of the Red Cross Society is to be held in the Presbyterian church Thursday evening. Columbus people will be in charge of the meeting. The Red Cross Society does a great work not only in times of war but in peace as well and is deserving of the support of every one.

Mother—"Helen, you stood on the porch quite a while with that young man last night."

Helen—"Why mother, I only stood there for a second."

Mother—"You have no excuse for that.

George Francis has qualified for a position on the aerial corps of Bar- num & Bailey's Greater Shows by his thrilling leap from a second story window Friday night.

Harold Arnold of Fostoria was a weekend visitor with his brother, Kenneth.

Dean McFadden and Mrs. Noble have completed plans to organize a Red Cross unit among the girls. This will give our girls an opportunity to show their patriotism and will make them feel that they have a part in the vast preparedness program which is being worked out by the nation. The work will be organized this week.

"The man I marry must be a hero."

"Oh, come, dear, you're not so bad looking as all that."—Ex.

Prof. Schgar at Chapel Thursday morning quoted the following from the Bible, "—they toil not, neither do they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of them." He forgot to mention that, this is the only description of a college student given in the good book.

Great preparations are underway for the Visitation Days, May 4, 5 and 6. Several hundred invitations have been sent out and a fine response is expected. The plan is locally endorsed by all the ministers and alumni, all of whom are boosting it in every way. Special plans are being made for the May Morning breakfast, the girls being organized for that work.

"Oh! curse these organ recitals," cried the stude, as the zoology lecturer reached for another cat.—Ex.

There was a bit of excitement in town Friday night after literary society. It all started Thursday night when a few Freshmen got away with the rest of the school year, the enlistment of war persists, the officer will be voluntary. If however a condition of war persists, the officer will be retained next year and the training made compulsory. This will give Otterbein an opportunity to do her part along with the other colleges of the state, and the plan will surely receive the hearty support of the student body. The girls have already arranged for their part and boys must not be far behind.
