JUPITER PLUVIUS AND OLD SOL STAGE DESPERATE STRUGGLE

Old Jupiter Pluvius, in addition to causing the farmers of Ohio a lot of worry about getting in their crops, by tipping over his little sprinkling can, is causing the Advanced Theory class a lot of trouble. They are wondering if there ever will be enough nice days to complete the Recreation Ball tournament.

So far only two teams have played.

O C ANNUAL MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES HELD MAY 31

Roy Burkhardt delivered the first address on the annual Memorial Day program May 31. Robert Knight gave a tribute to the Spanish-American War Veterans, Professor Troop, "A Tribute to the World War Veterans" and Lillian Shively, "A Tribute to the Foreign Missionaries". This part of the program was given in the chapel.

From thence the audience proceeded to the campus where Wayne Harsha delivered a "Tribute to the Civil War Veterans", after which a wreath was placed on the memorial to the Civil War Veterans. The flag was then raised to half mast and taps were sounded as the last act of the program.

O C Sibyls Come Out

The 1927 Sibyl will make its appearance today or tomorrow, Editor Robert Knight announces after a recent interview with the printers. No definite time can be stated. Notice will be posted on the bulletin boards at the earliest possible time.

Dr. Graves Has Many Degrees and Is Now President of New York

Plans are rapidly being formed for the Seventy-First Annual Commencement exercises which will take place at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 15, in the First United Brethren Church. Frank Pierpont Graves, Ph. D., LL. D., Commissioner of Education for the state of New York and President of the University of the State of New York will be the speaker.

Diplomas will be awarded to approximately one hundred seniors. This is the largest class that has ever graduated from Otterbein since its foundation in 1847. There seems to be some question about the possibility of some of the Seniors graduating so that a definite statement can not be made regarding the exact number to receive the coveted sheepskin June 15.

Baccalaureate June 12

The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. William E. Schell, the general secretary of the Board of Education of the United Brethren Church, Sunday morning June 12. Sunday night Professor J. R. Schutz of North Manchester College, Manchester, Indiana, will be the speaker at the joint anniversary of the Christian Associations.

Has Several Degrees

There can be little doubt that the college could scarcely have secured a more capable man to deliver the commencement address. Dr. Graves secured his A. B., A. M., and Ph. D. at Columbia University and since that part in the drive. The drive will be called Otterbein Day.

According to an announcement by President Clippinger last Saturday evening there yet remained approximately $20,000 to be collected before the complete grant by the Rockefeller Board can be claimed. Whether or not this amount is raised by commencement time depends upon the cooperation loyal supporters of Otterbein manifest this week.

The Columbus Otterbein Women's Club sent in their check for $500, in addition to their former gift, last Saturday. Victory Commencement is the war cry for this week. In an interview Saturday, the president expressed the hope that the goal would be reached, although he stated that there would have to be some real work done interim if this fond hope is to be realized.

Miss Johnson was lovely in a georgette gown of pale blue trimmed with lace, against which she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Ave Marie, adaption of "Intermezzo" from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni, was an especially well received number. Miss Johnson holds the unique distinction of being the first Otterbein student to ever graduate in both piano and voice.

CAPITAL GAME IS TIE WHEN HALTED BY RAIN

ERRORS ARE NUMEROUS

Tan Swatters Make Four Triples and Capital One Home Run. Runs Unearned.

The clouds wept in the ninth inning of the Otterbein-Capital game May 24 because Otterbein had made so many errors that the score was tied at five all. Capital earned one run; Otterbein's liberal policy gave them their other four.

In the last inning Rarick walked and stole second. Strobel singled. The next two men were out and Mix hit to Euverard who dropped the ball allowing Rarick and Strobel to score. Mix stole second and scored while Hax's grounder was being fumbled.

In the second Riegel placed a delightful triple in the verdant trees in deep left and scored on an infield out.

Otterbein's fourth inning will be long remembered. Slawita walked and Riegel singled. Rarick out in right got his daily exercises at this time as he chased triples by Cline and Beucler. Young's single made the score Otterbein 5 to Capital's 3.

In the fifth Mix scored on two errors. In the seventh Bernlohr hit a mighty home run into Alum Creek which tied the score.

Rain stopped the game in the ninth with one out.

EVEN IF IT HURTS

Fate holds the key to the glories of victory for Otterbein College. Will she give that key to us or not? Will the last $20,000 be raised in time to call this Commencement, Victory Commencement?

The answer in part lies in the hands of the student body. There is no better advertisement for a school than the student body. If the student body supports the drive how much more are other people who are not so closely connected with the college going to cooperate in winding up the drive in a glorious fashion? Some of us have given to the Endowment Fund ourselves, even though it may not have been a very large subscription, but it counted a little. Are we going to allow the drive to fall short by only a very few thousand dollars when we might have encouraged some one else to give to our alma mater?

It may hurt a little to give some ourselves or it may take time that we need very badly to solicit the aid of someone who might be able to raise the fund a little nearer the goal, but let's do our part even if it hurts.

Inquiries have been coming to us concerning the reason for the removal of certain editorial comment from the editorial columns of the last issue. The rumor that the aforementioned comment was ordered suppress by the administration, has no foundation. The reason for the late issuance of the Tan and Cardinal was due entirely to the editorial staff.

WHAT THE PUBLIC DEMANDS

"Newspapers give too much space to college athletics and too little to more important college events," the Dartmouth college newspaper complains.
The Dartmouth overlooks the fact that such news is the type that the campus readers demand. Modern newspaper policy is to provide the public with the news that it likes, and it is another question altogether whether those stories are the type which is best for the people.

A football game draws as many as 100,000 spectators, and it is the duty of the college newspaper to give this large mass of supporters all the news available about football. A campus debate can seldom fill a university auditorium, and a story written about a forensic activity is of interest to only a small group of students, and the space given for such an affair has to be given in reference to its general interest.

It is true that a newspaper could try to create an interest in scholastic activities such as debating, but when it is proved that the campaign has become useless, the paper should turn again to athletics where the public's interest lies. The debaters will still find their activity written up in a conservative way on the front page of the campus daily.—Stanford Daily.

RIGHT FACE

Lovers of the true and the beautiful will agree with the Bookman in its suggestion that, for the good of American literature and increased sales, certain authors forbid the dissemination of their photographs. One cannot look at Joseph Hergeshimer for any length of time and still remain confident in the belief that he has taken tea with Corrine Griffith as many times as he says he has. Christopher Morley undoubtedly as a very kind face but he does not appear to be as whimsical as his publisher's blurbs would have led his readers to believe.
And, as the Bookman points out, Will Durant's goatee is a splendid goatee as such but its insouciance little becomes a best selling philosopher.

That Edna St. Vincent Millay does not destroy the illusion which her henchmen and harpweavers have created is small compensation for the fact that Mr. Hencken resembles a well-fed lodge member. Colonel Lawrence's profile is sufficiently romantic. Ring Lardner's face is tinged with the traditional gloom of the comedian, and Sherwood Anderson, fortunately, gives an impression not incongruous with his writing. But these are exceptions.
They cannot counterbalance D. H.
Lawrence's beard nor Ford Maddox Ford's chins. And all the world now knows that the authority on behaviorism in blondes is herself a jet brunette.

WIN OVER BOWLING GREEN
CLOSES TENNIS SEASON

Win All But One Doubles Match.
Losers Were Champs of Northwestern Conference.

Bowling Green Normal tennis stars were downed by a 5-1 score in a return match here last Friday. Captain Pilkington, Lai, Sanders and Bechtolt lived up to expectations by easily defeating the Normalities. Lai and Pilkington easily set down their opponents in the first doubles match, while Sanders and McConaughy lost a hard-fought contest.

Bechtolt finished his tennis career for Otterbein by defeating Whalen to the tune of 6-2, 6-3. Roby has completed his tennis activities in the interests of Otterbein. These two men will be sorely missed by next year's squad. This match ended the tennis season. Otterbein won 6 and lost 3 of its matches this year.

The Bowling Green victory was especially gratifying as the Normal School boys are the champions of the Northwestern Ohio Inter-collegiate Conference. As yet no election for next year's captain has been held, but one will no doubt be held within the next few days.

This year the College Orchestra has been asked to give the program. The numbers of the music faculty realize that Otterbein has the best orchestra this year she has ever had.

OLD SOL, JUPITER PLUV- IUS WAGE HARD BATTLE

The Lakotas defeated the Jondas 16-4 when Old Sol held his own and made it sun shiny and dry enough for the two teams to meet on the diamond behind the Association Building. The other two teams scheduled to play that night were the Sphinx and Cook House but the Sphinx forfeited and the credit of win by forfeit goes to the Cook House team.

The nights for the Country Club-Outlaws game and the Annex-Philotas game were rainy and the grounds too wet so they are postponed till weather fit for recreation ball arrives.

The winner of the Cook House-Lakota game will then be scheduled to play the winner of the game between the two winners of the Country Club-Outlaws and Annex-Philotas games. The winner of this game will be entitled to the honors of the "champions" of the Recreation Ball Tournament of Otterbein College held during the months of May, June and who knows—it may be held over till the fall of 1927 or spring or 1928, all depending upon the attitude of our old "friend" (can we call him that) Jup Pluvius.

PHILALETHEA PLANS TO GIVE PAGEANT

DITMER WILL COACH AT MIAMI NEXT FALL

Will Assist With All Four Sports and Teach in Four Year Coaching Course.

Merlin A. Ditmer, '10, has accepted a position with the athletic department at Miami University as assistant coach and teacher in the four year coaching course to be offered there beginning with next year. Mr. Ditmer will probably assist with all four sports, giving his especial attention to foot ball and track.

The exact situation at Miami cannot, of course, be ascertained, but indications point toward an advancement for Mr. Ditmer at Miami as compared with the position he has held as head coach at Otterbein for the last seven years. Miami as a well organized athletic department will no doubt offer fine opportunities for Mr. Ditmer to display his worth.

"Dit" as he is known on the campus, was prominent in athletics when he was in school, taking part in football and track. He came to Otterbein in 1919 and has since that time coached all four sports with the exception of the last three years when R. K. Edler had charge of the basket ball squad.
