OTTERBEIN ORATOR IN TIE FOR SECOND PLACE

WOOSTER MAN WINS

Wooster, Wittenberg and Otterbein in Tie For First on Initial Ballot. Propst Third.

Nathan Roberts, representing Otterbein in the men's division of the state Inter-Collegiate Contest for Peace, Friday evening at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, tied with Charles Lemmen, Wittenberg College, for second place after a three cornered tie for first place was broken by the judges. "Shackles of Folly" was the subject of Roberts' address.

Alice Propst, Otterbein's representative in the women's division of the state contest, ranked third. There was no third prize awarded.

Representatives of Otterbein, Wittenberg and Wooster tied for first place in the men's division. To break the knot, the judges resorted to the percentage system of judging. As a result, Robert Tignor, of Wooster, speaking on "A Path for Peace," nosed out Roberts of Otterbein by one point.

Vivian Wilson, Mt. Union's representative, won first place in the women's division with her address entitled "Hereditry." Wittenberg's representative, in the women's division, Louise Richardson, won second place.

Representatives of six Ohio colleges, who had been winners in district contests held in April, participated in the state contest.

ASSESSMENTS ARE REQUIRED PAID

Ernest Riegel, Business Manager of the Sibyl, requests that all organizations and individuals pay their assessments this week, so that in turn the Sibyl debts may be paid this year in a good business-like manner. Payment of subscription money would also be appreciated. If this notice is heeded, the 1927 Sibyl will enter a contest for year books, details of which will appear in next week's issue of the Tan and Cardinal.

Banquet Beauties Feature in Twentieth Century Melodrama

Come all ye seeking inspiration and revel in the infinite possibilities of a Tuesday night.

Melodrama, plain and unadorned, stalked on our campus. The moon threw a ghoully cast over all and transformed hitherto peaceful collegians into demons of activity savoring of the Mexican Border.

Pancho Villa and his brigands of swarthy skin, bright kerchiefs, and ready guns, would have found their mesquite and cactus a haven of peace and rest compared to this home of the dry and school of the thirsty on this Tuesday night just passed. Toast-masters, Presidents, Deans, Fair Elaines, rambunctious Juniors; tuxedos, stiff shirt fronts, pistols, umbrellas and bravado mixed themselves in a way truly terrifying.

Fain would they tell us that the day of Joan of Arc, Barbara Fritchie and (Continued On Page Two.)

QUIZ AND QUILL COMES OUT LATE THIS WEEK

The annual spring number of the Quiz and Quill magazine will be off the press some time this week. Members of the club feel that this year's effort is truly representative of the literary talent of the school because the majority of the articles in the magazine have been written by students who are not members of the Quiz and Quill Club.

The magazine will contain sixty-four pages, and will be printed on light tan stock with a heavy paper cover. The cover will be green bearing a clever design, drawn by Donald McGill. Definite announcement can not be made concerning the exact date the magazine will be off the press but it is probable that it will be available by Thursday or Friday.

March 20—Otterbein at Bluffton and Mt. Union at Otterbein.

March 9—Otterbein at Muskingum and Wittenberg at Otterbein.

Y. W. Cabinet Holds Retreat

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet held a retreat over this last week-end at Professor Hursh's farm, commonly known as "Seven Hills of Aredebt." The group went out to the farm Saturday evening and returned Sunday morning.

Plans for the coming year were discussed, including suggestions for each committee chairman. The cabinet reports that the affair was a complete success despite the fear arising from certain uncontrollable sources during the night. There were fourteen including Mrs. Hursh, the faculty advisor, who attended the retreat.

PRESENTED BY FRENCH CONVERSATION CLASS

WILL SING FRENCH SONGS

"La Plaisanterie", "Le Barbier De Seville", "Le Petit Chaperon Rouge" are Titles.

Wednesday evening, May 18, the French department will present its annual French Plays in the College Chapel. The program will consist of three plays presented by the class in Conversation and Composition under the direction of Mrs. A. P. Rosselot, and several French songs sung by Miss Mary Mills.

The first play "La Plaisanterie", is a modern comedy portraying the troubles of a Lady Dentist and her patient. Miss Nitetis Huntley plays the part of the dentist, Miss Alice Foy that of the patient and Miss Vivian Hayes that of the servant.

The second play, "Le Petit Chaperon Rouge", is the old familiar story of Little Red Riding Hood, played in costume. Miss Grace Shufelt plays the part of Little Red Riding Hood.

SCIENCE PROF. LAUDS JANITOR FOLLOWING 100% SERVICE MOTTO

"The fellow who never does more than he is paid for, never gets a chance to get paid for more than he does." That wouldn't be a bad motto for Profs. and students, would it?

The janitor referred to is Mr. Euverard, and he lives up to his motto. He is supposed to be a janitor but he does most everything else, in addition to this. He considers nothing absolutely out of his line of duty. Here are some of his tasks this year: table making, shelf erecting, glass cutting, puttying, sandpapering, filling wood, staining, varnishing, painting, making mounting boards, erecting coat hangers, making germinating boxes, mounting locks, making animal cages, erecting blackboards, etc., this along with sweeping, dusting, washing blackboards, scouring sinks, emptying waste jars and a lot of other things that must be done around the science hall every week. We remember that we have seen him raking leaves, mowing the lawn, and setting out shrubbery this year, too.—A Science Prof.

Endowment Drive in Sunday School Goes $300 Over the Top

DRIVE IS PUT ON A CLASS QUOTA BASIS

REPORTS NOT COMPLETED

Approximately $30,000 Still Needed for Jubilee Fund. Speakers In Field Sunday.

As a result of the drive conducted in the Sunday School last Sunday to collect money for the Jubilee Fund, Superintendent Weinland reports that a total of approximately $1250.00 was realized. The total of all contributions had not been ascertained by press time yesterday.

The drive was put on a quota basis for each class. There are thirty classes in the Sunday School and the average attendance of the entire school is about five hundred, although the enrollment is eleven hundred. The goal was placed at $1000.00, but even the figure $1250.00 will probably be exceeded when all the contributions are recorded.

Within the last few weeks enough money has come in to the treasurer of the college to decrease the amount necessary to obtain the whole of the grant made by the General Education Board, by approximately $5000.00. Approximately $30,000 is still needed. There are only fifteen more days in which to complete the drive if the goal is to be reached in time to call Commencement, Victory Commencement. Interest in the campaign has increased some what but there is some hard work ahead if the goal is to be realized, according to President Clippinger. While the church and college is trying to complete the drive before June 1, the contract does not expire until July 1, the time intervening being allowed for balancing accounts.

Last Sunday several representatives of the college were out in the interest of the Endowment Fund. Professor H. W. Troop spoke at Rossen and Pleasantville, Ohio. Perry Laukhuff was sent to Deshler, Ohio, and Robert Knight to Columbus Grove. Professor A. P. Rosselot went to Gallion and President Clippinger spoke at Helena and Woodville. Several more speakers will be sent out next week.

COMING ARTIST TO SING "NELLIE GRAY"

Dan Harris will probably sing "Darling Nellie Gray" on his program given here Thursday, June 2, under the auspices of the Otterbein Women's Music club. Miss Agnes Wright will be his accompanist. This will be his last concert before he sails in September for Italy where he will continue his musical studies.

Back in 1922 during the Diamond Jubilee Celebration on the Otterbein campus, there was presented a pageant entitled "Spirit of Otterbein" representing the various scenes in the history of the college. One scene was to represent the composing of "Darling Nellie Gray" by Benjamin R. Hanby of the class of '58. In conjunction with this there was a singer dressed as an old negro slave who sang the song. The singer chosen was Dan Harris who was then in school. He sang the song with much sympathy and expression and those who heard it were greatly impressed and remember it to this day.

When Mr. Harris was in the Otterbein Glee Club in his college days he sang "Darling Nellie Gray" on the regular glee club program and it was usually received with much applause.

Let's Help Them Win

Out of the shades of uncertainty has come a good base ball team. The players have the spirit that is so necessary to a winning team. They have not had the support that they merit. Why should we expect them to win by themselves? They like to play the game merely for the joy they get out of it. But how much more they would get out of it if we would turn out to see them play? It is not putting it too strongly to say that we can make them win if we get out to the games and make them feel that we want them to win and not merely take their daily workout.

SOCIOLOGY CLUB VISITS OHIO SCHOOL FOR DEAF

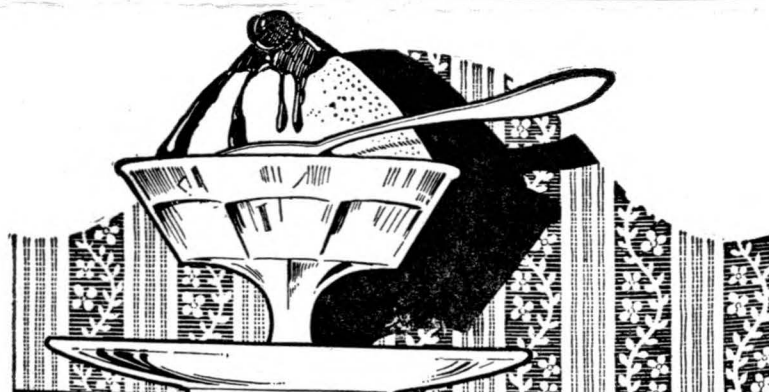

Several members of the Sociology club visited the Ohio State School for the Deaf Thursday afternoon. The school is maintained by the State Welfare Department and is conducted on a plan similar to the public school. In addition to work from the kindergarten through the high school, various kinds of trade are taught. The children are not taught sign language, but are taught to speak by lip reading. Their voices, however, are high pitched and monotone.

This Tuesday and Thursday visits will be made to the State Hospital for the Insane. Anyone interested in making this trip is invited to go with the club.

Mr. Gerald Rosselot, the music teacher, Mr. Theodore Riegel, the Notary, and Miss Elizabeth Lee, Rosine, the Heroine.

Through the courtesy of the Cap and Dagger Club and Prof. Lester Raines, in loaning their scenery for the production of these plays, the staging will be much more elaborate than in previous years. Mr. C. E. Boyer will be in charge of arranging the stage and Mr. Roy Schwartzkopf of the fighting.

Bad Weather Prevents Remarkable Performances. Capt. Pinney Gets Most Points.

KENYON TENNIS CREW DRUBS OTTERBEIN TEAM

Otterbein tennis artists were again defeated by those of Kenyon by a 5 to 1 score. Lai was the only man to win a set. He played as No. 3 man and defeated his opponent rather handily. Pilkington, Bechtolt and Sanders lost their singles matches and Lai paired with Pilkington and Sanders with Roby lost their doubles.

The Otterbein men missed connections and were about one hour late in arriving at the court.

WILL OFFER COACHING COURSES IN ATHLETICS

Wittenberg University is offering a series of courses in athletic coaching, running from June 13 to 28. Courses are offered in football, basketball, baseball and track.

The faculty is made up of members of the coaching staffs of Wittenberg, Notre Dame, Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio State, Harvard, Iowa State and Muskingum. This work might be of interest to senior men who plan to coach next year.

ANNEX AND COOK HOUSE MAINTAIN LEAGUE LEAD

Annex and Cook House continue to lead in the men's intramural league after last week's games. Both teams have perfect records in the two games they have played.

Hance and Marsh hurled Cook house to victory against Jonda 8 to 3. Lehman pitched for the losers. Buell opposed Kurtz on the mound as Annex defeated the Outlaws 13 to 1.

Philota turned in its first victory Thursday night against Lakota 5 to 3. Moody for the winners matched his pitching skill against Seitz. Country Club took a forfeit game from the Y when the latter failed to have a full team ready to play.

TAN TRACK MEN MEET MUSKINGUM SATURDAY

Coach Ditmer's track team will meet Muskingum's track team here next Saturday and it is hoped that the weather this week will be such that it will permit the team to get in good shape for the Muskies. Saturday was a bad track day and the Tan tracksters could not show up very well, even though they did defeat Heidelberg by the score of 95-36, and if the weather warms up and dries up they will be in better condition to hand the Muskies a wallop.

Ohio Northern defeated Muskingum Saturday at New Concord by the score 81-50 and it is hoped that Otterbein will do the same thing this Saturday. Muskingum took firsts in the half mile, two mile, and javelin throw. Cochran of Muskingum broke the college record for the half mile covering the distance in 2:04.4.

GAME COMEDY OF ERRORS

Kenyon Pitcher Master of Situation. Beucler and James Pitch For Tan.

Otterbein's ragged fielding and weak hitting caused them to be defeated by Kenyon at Gambier Friday by the score of 5 to 1. The Otterbein team made nine errors, seven of them in the infield, which explains the defeat.

Rathbun, Kenyon's cocky right hand pitcher was very effective throughout. Beucler for Otterbein was disheartened by the lack of support and gave way to James in the seventh.

Kenyon never actually earned a run. Our boys appeared to have some sort of stage fright as they made fumbles and wild throws with much freedom and abandon. The Kenyon team played confidently and with skill throughout.

With the score 3 to 0 in favor of Kenyon, Otterbein pushed over their lone tally in the seventh, when Borrer got a base on balls. He took second on a passed ball, third on Brock's in-

"I am not concerned that I have no place,—I am concerned how I may fit myself for one. I am not concerned that I am not known; I seek to be worthy to be known."—Confucius.

GOVERNORS NEED GOVERNED

In his book "What Ails Our Youth" George A. Coe brings out the fact that the faults commonly attributed to youth are caused by the actions of older people. He quotes Mahatma Ghandi of India as saying that when we ask "What ails our youth?" we mean "What ails our western civilization?" Coe goes on to say that it is "not isolation, not stratification, not teaching on the one side and learning on the other, but mutual learning, mutual striving, mutual acknowledgement of faults and mutual repentance—this is the way of social growth and health."

Obviously the mutual element has been sadly lacking for many years in the relations between the governing body, the Board of Trustees and the student body of Otterbein College. From the time of the founding of the college until 1920 the administration had complete control of all departments of the college and the affairs of the student body itself. In 1920, after a heated discussion between the Board of Trustees and representatives from the student body, student government was instituted. This was a great step forward. Not only are the students now given an opportunity to get the training afforded by self-government, but the administration is permitted to get a glimpse of student thought and student ideals.

Then last spring after a personal conference between the President of the Board of Trustees and the two Christian Association Cabinets, the President of the Student Council was invited to meet with the trustees at their Commencement sitting. No one can doubt the significance of the meeting between the cabinets and the President of the trustees. The eyes of the president were opened to some of the conditions that really exist on the campus.

Allowing the President of The Student Council to sit on the Board of Trustees as a representative is of course a big step toward co-operation between student body and administration. But we must not stop there. He must have a vote. In as much as the majority of the measures passed by the Board of Trustees are of vital interest and concern to the student body, their representative should have a voice in working out such measures.

There can be no cooperation if the students are to have merely passive representation. What opportunity has the average trustee of knowing conditions that actually are in existence in the student life on the campus? The only way a trustee may form an opinion concerning such matters is by taking the facts as presented by the President and drawing his conclusions from them. Why not let the representative of the student body give his opinion and state the reactions of the student body as he sees them?

Since cooperation is the keynote of advancement, why not allow the two bodies, the governors and the governed, to meet on a common ground, and allow each to profit by the criticism, suggestions and advice of the other? Both factions can not possibly see the same proposition in the same light. Both sides of the question should be looked at instead of one as has been the case for so many decades. Let each party help the other.

A LIMITATION OF ARMAMENT

The Student Council has decided to make a survey of the campus organizations to find out how many groups one person may belong to, and as a result to plan some way to limit the number of extra-curricular activities one person may enter. The figures that will result from this survey will afford valuable material on which to base any process of limitation.

At first sight it appears that there are a select few that are the leaders of all the organizations on the campus. This condition is a very unhealthy one. Those who are at the head of these organizations are unfair to themselves and to the other students on the campus. When one student engages in too many outside activities he must necessarily slight his class work. As a general rule such persons do not have sense enough to know when they have a full schedule. Some method of limitation would keep the extra-curricular "road hog" in his place and at the same time would give those who are not in many activities an opportunity to get the training in leadership which such experience affords.

All those girls, who can conscientiously say that they enjoy living with a dean of women who threatens to shoot their fellow students when they indulge in a college prank, may stand on their heads.

A realization that Life can not be found is becoming more and more evident to the high school graduate. Sixty seven out of a class of seventy two graduating from the local high school this year, are planning to go to college. Of that number twenty two preferred Otterbein.

PHILALETHEAN PAGEANT PART OF COMMENCEMENT

The Philaethean Pageant which has been in the process of completion for the last few weeks has been finished and rehearsals will be held within a short time. The entire production was written by Miss Verda Evans and Miss Laura Whetstone, both of whom are members of the Quiz and Quill, honorary literary club. It will be presented at the annual commencement open session.

The pageant will deal with the significant points of history of the Society since its founding in 1852. The affair will commemorate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the society. There will be one hundred and thirty-five in the cast.

O C "KNOW THYSELF"

The true principle which many do not see behind a college education is that of knowledge of self, a knowledge that will lead a man to know his own capabilities and at the same time question the ends which he is trying to gain. Too many see the college as a place in which to be prepared to go out into the world and achieve material success and too few see the college as the place in which to be really prepared for life.

Judged by the standards of material success, every college in the land could well be replaced by schools of vocational training. American colleges do not fit men to make a living.

A knowledge of self carries with it a knowledge of the way the other man may think and conceded him at least the same right to his belief as we have to ours. This end the college has always before it. It seeks to take away the practical man's contempt of the fine distinctions of philosophy and the beauties of art and literature and to make them understood by all. It seeks to make it possible for all men to meet on a common ground and discuss their differences with mutual understanding.

Conditions sometimes make us wonder if in the colleges themselves these very fine principles which students are expected to carry with them at graduation are given much consideration. Everywhere we read of violent acts of one sort or another by students or faculty in some American college because of fancied grievances. Isn't it possible we need a little more mutual understanding?—The Carletonian.

In spite of the fuller crimson on the robin's breast, the lapwing's new crest, the dove's livelier iris, the straying of the young man's fancy to what he has been thinking about all year, studying is being done by some few students and on this very campus too.

Game Notes.

The Kenyon diamond is a very beautiful one, being located at the foot of a steep hill that is covered with woods.

Umpire Durfee proved to be a very colorful arbiter. He carried on conversations with the players in the most jovial manner possible throughout the game.

Euverard made a long run to catch Walling's foul fly in the eighth. Shannon came home on the catch. Some thought that he should not have made the catch since Shannon was on third at the time. The fact is that the one run made no great difference anyway.

GRADUATING RECITAL PLEASES BIG AUDIENCE

Mary Whiteford Renders Program of Difficult Masterpieces. Relatives Present.

Before a very appreciative audience, Miss Mary Whiteford appeared in her graduating pianoforte recital on Friday evening, May 13, in Lambert Hall.

Wearing an orchid gown, with a deep-fringed cape thrown across her shoulders, Miss Whiteford made a delightful appearance on the stage which was adorned with baskets of flowers, from relatives and friends; potted-ferns, and a gorgeous Spanish shawl thrown over the unused piano.

Her numbers, played so gracefully and naturally, were presented in an almost professional manner. They were given in the following order:

Beethoven . . . Sonata, Op. 14, No. 2
Allegro
Andante

Liszt . . . Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 6
Chopin . . . Nocturne, Op. 27, No. 2
Grunn . . . uni Impressions, Op. 27
(Indian Suite)

The Flute-god (Pa-yatamau)
The Rainbow Spring
A Mysterious Story
Korkokshi Dance
Mendelssohn . . . Concerto in G Minor
Molto Allegro con Fuoco

Presto-Molto Allegro evivace
(Orchestra Parts on Organ were played by Prof. G. G. Grabill.)

Besides her parents and grandmother, there were many Canton friends in the audience. Katherine Long, Evangeline Spahr, Helen Ewrey, and Catherine Matz served as ushers.

BIRD'S EGG EXHIBIT IS DISPLAYED THIS WEEK

Prof. F. A. Hanawalt arranged the exhibit in the Science Hall for last week. The Whistling Swan which was shown is very rare, and is now protected by game laws. The Vulture eggs were recently found by Prof. Hanawalt himself. Two species of Bob White were shown to illustrate the difference between the Texas and Ohio birds.

The Hellbender, or water dog, on exhibit in the zoology laboratory, was caught by Forrest and Ora Cline. It is an animal rarely found in this part of the country, though it is the second one found in Westerville in the past four or five years.

LIT. SOCIETIES TRIAL ATTRACTS BIG CROWD

LACKS CONVINCING EVIDENCE

Courtroom Atmosphere Prevails During Legal Clash. Prof. Weinland Is Judge.

An attendance which taxed the capacity of Philophronean Hall was the result of the efforts of literary society men to revive interest in the societies by means of a mock trial. The session proved interesting as well as instructively entertaining. The hundred and twenty-five persons who crowded into the "courtroom" sat attentively throughout the entire performance and were well rewarded, for everything in the way of details, from judicial dignity to reportorial scratching of pencils was in evidence.

Professor Louis Augustus Weinland was the presiding judge, and his office was well enacted. For the trial, the case of Albert Mayer, charged with the disturbance of "the peace, order, and tranquility" of a session of Philomatheas was prosecuted. Defending Mr. Mayer were the Philophroneans, John Noel and Richard Sanders. The plaintiff was represented by Philomatheans Lewis Hampshire, Neely Boyer, and Karl Kumler. Elward Caldwell was court clerk, while Clay Kohr was the bailiff.

Quite a variety of witnesses was summoned by the lawyers, from frosh girls to the Dean of the College. Those appearing as witnesses were Miss Lucy Hanna, Clyde Bielstein, Allen Bauer, Phillip Charles, Everett Boyer, Albert Mayer, George Moore, Charles Lambert, George Rohrer, Dr. N. E. Cornet, Russel Heft, Lorentz Knouff. All testified that they heard shots fired, but there was the apparent lack of convincing evidence to indicate conviction. Before the jury repaired to the jury room, Judge Weinland so instructed the members as their duties that they were too befuddled to make any decision as to a verdict.

The members of the jury were: Profs. C. O. Altman, A. P. Rosselot and P. E. Pendleton, Dr. T. J. Sanders, Dr. J. R. King, Mrs. A. P. Rosselot, Miss Virginia Brewbaker, Emerson Horner, Morris Hicks, George Griggs, Frederick Miller, and Gilbert Allaman.

LAST GENERAL RECITAL GIVEN WEDNESDAY NITE

The last General recital of the year was given by the School of Music in Lambert Hall Wednesday evening May 11.

Some of the outstanding features of the long and varied program were piano, violin and mandolin ensemble numbers. Oliver Spangler, Katherine Beck, Katherine Matz, and Mildred Wilson played a piano quartette; Zuma Heestand, Grace Senff, Helen Kern and Gerald Rosselot rendered a pleasing mandolin number; Dorothy Wainwright and Mary Trout produced a piano duo and Carl Patton and Raymond Schick played a violin duo.

Vocal selections were rendered by Margaret Kumler, Elizabeth Gress, Ethel Kepler, Donald Euverard, Elma Harter and Lawrence Miller. Piano solos were given by Elma Harter, Mildred Kopp, Grace Senff, Glendora Barnes, Zelfa Fisher, and Stella Callo-way. Tzok Sham, Frances McCowan, Homer Huffman and Le Vere Breden played the violin and Viola Burke and Katherine Matz rendered selections on the organ.

SOPHS BANQUET SENIORS DESPITE ALL HAZARDS

Toastmaster and Sophomore President Made Late In Arriving At Banquet Hall.

Tuesday evening the Sophomore-Senior Banquet was held and as usual there was much excitement accompanying it. The Freshmen and Juniors did their utmost to break up the gathering but in spite of all their attempts the Banquet was a real success.

The fracas started in Cochran Hall when several bold and daring foes attempted to abduct Don Shoemaker, who was toastmaster, and Al Mayer, the Soph president. However there were no serious casualties in spite of the fact that a member of the so-called weaker sex very ably demonstrated one of the uses of a revolver.

From thence the fugitives fled in a trusty "Lizzie" and arriving in a locality where the existence of a police force is not a myth, (they departed from Westerville) they called officers of the law into action and thus dispersed the swarming Frosh and Juniors clinging to the exterior part of Lizzie's anatomy. Returning whole they arrived here in time to enjoy most of the celebration. Don Shoemaker performed his duties as toastmaster very ably.

Among the guests present were President and Mrs. Clippinger, Dean and Mrs. Cornet, Professor and Mrs. Pendleton, and Dean Taylor. The program was lively and interesting, and the menu extremely delightful.

STUDENT COUNCIL UPHOLDS "GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT"

DISAPPROVES OF CLASS WARFARE AT BANQUET

COUNCIL ELECTION TONIGHT

Committee Is Appointed To Draw Up Plans For Memorial Day. May Have Special Speaker.

Expressions of disapproval concerning recent class warfare at the Sophomore-Senior Banquet last week occupied a major position on the business program of the Student Council which met last Wednesday evening in Cochran Hall. No definite plan was adopted by the Council other than to advance a scheme for recommending that the men of the college refrain from further class warfare. A meeting of all men was scheduled to be called this morning for this purpose.

Plan for Memorial Day.

Bessie Lincoln is chairman and Alice Propst and Edwin Gearhart are members of the committee of the Student Council which is drawing up plans for Memorial Day in Co-operation with a special Faculty committee. Efforts are being made to secure a special speaker for the program which will be given in the Chapel on Monday, May 30.

The Faculty has already decreed by special action that Saturday, May 28, will be picnic day.

To Elect New Council Tonight.

Student Council elections for the year 1927-28 will be officially conducted by members of the Council tonight at 8 o'clock in Lambert Hall, the Y Parlors, and Prof. A. P. Rosselot's class room.

The Junior Class will hold its elections in Prof. A. P. Rosselot's classroom, the Sophomores in the upstairs parlor of the Association Building, and the Freshmen in the auditorium of Lambert Hall. The new council will take office at noon on Commencement day.

The juniors will elect four men and four women, the sophomores three men and three women, the freshmen two men and two women, to the Men's and Women's Senates, respectively. According to the constitution of the Student Council, nominations are in order at any time and there is no limit to the number of nominations.

The committee investigating the possibility that the Student Chest Fund be included in the Matriculation Fee recommended that the matter be referred to the student body for a vote. Martha Alspach is chairman and Marguerite Banner and Craig Wales are members of this committee.

A pro rata division of the balance of the Student Chest Fund in the bank was ordered by the Council. James O. Phillips, treasurer of the fund, will divide $450 sometime this week.

Freeman To Sell Caps.

The J. C. Freeman & Co. was awarded the privilege of selling the Freshmen caps for next year. Twenty-five cents of the profit from each cap will go to the Varsity "O" to which organization was delegated power from the Men's Senate to enforce the Freshmen regulations.

The new caps will be made up of a tan and cardinal color combination in place of the black and green colors which have been in vogue for a number of years. Freshmen girls will wear tan and cardinal ribbons in place of the customary green ribbons.

Y Requests Investigation.

A. O. Barnes, representing the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, brought to Student Council a request that the governing body conduct an investigation on the possibility of instituting a point system for controlling extra-curricular activities.
