FORENSIC WARRIORS TO STAGE DUAL THIS WEEK

WITH MUSKINGUM COLLEGE

Friday Evening Will Witness Fray on Home Platform. Thursday in New Concord.

The feature of this week's forensic activities will be a dual debate with Muskingum, the present conference champions, on Thursday and Friday evenings. The negative team composed of LaPorte, Kumler and Harrold will meet Muskingum's affirmative on the New Concord platform Thursday evening. Timmons, Carson and Clark will speak for the Black and Magenta school.

Friday night, beginning promptly at 7:30 p. m. in the chapel, Muskingum will return the visit when she sends her negative to the battle of words with Otterbein's affirmative team. Bromeley, Echard and Knight will represent Otterbein, and Ross, Frack and Milligan will speak for Muskingum.

Both of these debates will be open forum contests. The Public Speaking Department encourages the audience to ask questions on both sides of the question.

After the debate Friday evening, the Muskingum team and coach, Prof. Charles Rush Layton who was graduated from Otterbein in 1913, will be entertained by Otterbein debaters in King Hall. Deans N. E. Cornet and Cora A. McFadden have also been invited to attend. The public may also attend this reception.

Music Club to Commemorate 60th Anniversary of Death of Ben Hanby

WHERE BEN HANBY WROTE "DARLING NELLIE GRAY"

Tomorrow marks the sixtieth anniversary of the death of Benjamin R. Hanby, a graduate of Otterbein College, and author of that famous song "Darling Nellie Gray". The Benjamin Hanby Music Club, a Westerville organization, is meeting tonight at the home of Rose Richardson, 53 Glenwood Drive, to commemorate the death of Benjamin Hanby who died March 16, 1867.

GLEE CLUB SINGS BEFORE PACKED HOUSE AT MARION

Over 250 Turned Away From Doors. Also Give Concert In Etna Saturday.

The Glee Club gave a concert at Marion, Friday night, to a packed house. People lined the walks of the church and it was estimated that over 250 people were turned away. A similar crowd greeted the club at the same place on Easter Sunday last year. The audience welcomed the club warmly and they were given a hearty invitation to return next year.

Before the concert the club was given a banquet by the young ladies of the Christian Endeavor Society. The feature of the after-dinner program was an address by Stanley Pascal Kurtz.

Saturday night a concert was given in the high school auditorium at Etna. Here the club sang to nearly a full house.

Next week the club will go on a three day trip, singing at Akron on Thursday, Canton on Friday, and Sugarcreek on Saturday.

house in which Ben Hanby wrote "Darling Nellie Gray" when he was a sophomore in Otterbein College. The house still stands, unoccupied, on the north side of West Home Street, west of Center Street. The small iron railing around the roof of the front porch makes the house recognizable.

When he was a student in Otterbein, Hanby was very prominent in many activities. He was a member of the Philomathean Literary Society in which he served several terms as critic.

After graduation from Otterbein in 1858, Hanby traveled in Pennsylvania, Virginia and Maryland for the College. He married Miss Kate Winter who received her degree in 1857 in the first class Otterbein ever graduated. Mrs. Kate Winter Hanby still lives in Redondo Beach, California. She is a sister to Miss Sarah Winter who makes her home with Prof. Alma Guitner and her mother on West College Avenue. Mrs. Hanby visited Otterbein during the Diamond Jubilee celebration in 1922.

Romeos and Juliets Scored by "Betty"

Cochran Hall crowded to capacity. Pussy-willows in tall vases, sweet peas in flat bowls and an intangible air of something unusual in the air.

Co-eds in twos, threes, and singly seem pensive. They slip furtively into the Dean's room and deposit white slips of paper and dart out quickly.

DEAN IRMA E. VOIGT TO SPEAK AT JOINT Y MEET IN Y BUILDING TONIGHT

Dean of Ohio University Women To Discuss "Relations of Men and Women".

Dean Irma E. Voigt, Dean of the Women and a professor of public speaking at Ohio University, will be the feature speaker at the joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. which will be held this evening at 6:15 p. m. in the upper room of the Association Building. Dean Voigt will deliver her popular lecture on "Relations of Men and Women" which she has delivered in many other colleges.

Dean Voigt will be remembered by most students as the conductor of a commission on a similar topic at the Y conference which was held on the campus last spring. This commission, needless to say, was the only one of six which attracted a capacity crowd.

Dean Voigt is only one of the many popular speakers who are being brought to the campus through the efforts of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

FACULTY TAKES ACTION ON SENIOR RECOGNITION PLANS

Services May Be Transferred to U. B. Church. Late Bulletin on Front Page.

Plans for Senior Recognition Day were brought to a head last night at the regular meeting of the Faculty when President of the Student Council, Perry Laukhuff, presented a tentative plan. The results of the Faculty action appear as a late bulletin on the front page.

Removal of all ceremonies to the United Brethren Church was the most drastic deviation from the traditional program. The Recognition services are scheduled to be held in the church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Dean Irma E. Voigt of Ohio University as the chief speaker. President Clippinger is also slated to speak on the program. The seniors will march from the basement of the church as the Processional. Prof. G. G. Grabill will probably play the Processional march.

Senior Recognition Day services are open to the public.

LATE NEWS BULLETIN

After a petition from the senior girls stating that they did not wish Senior Recognition Day to be held on Wednesday was presented to the Student Council yesterday afternoon, the Faculty refused to consider the matter further and future plans were dropped.

CONFERENCE HOPES FOR DEBATERS ARE DASHED

WIN TWO AND LOSE TWO

Garner Victory at Northern March 9.
But Lose to Heidelberg and Marietta Friday.

The Negative debate team suffered defeat at the hands of Heidelberg's Affirmative team. The contest was extremely keen and interesting, and the decision very close. With this defeat the hopes for Conference championships were obliterated.

Otterbein was tied for first place with Muskingum and Wittenberg for first place in the Ohio Conference before the Heidelberg and Otterbein debate last week. Muskingum now holds first place.

Professor Carl W. Wiley, of Ohio State University, was the judge. The affirmative team representing Heidelberg was composed of Paul Sheats, Raymond Cashel, and Lee Vanbargan, with George Gaier as alternate. Bruce La Porte, John Hudock, and Duane Harrold were the forensic "battlers" for Otterbein, with Philipp Charles "on the bench."

Paul Sheats opened the affirmative case by maintaining that the tendency to restrict personal liberty in the U. S. constitutes a menace to all national welfare. His colleagues went further to show that this tendency in the three governmental departments violates the Constitutional Rights of the American People, and that it undermines the principles of free Government itself. The negative debaters proved their contentions that the restriction of personal liberty is the bulwark of our American civilization, the taking away of personal liberty is for the protection of society and that the subjection of the minority is for the welfare of the majority. In the clash of opinion the visiting artists had the edge. The rebuttals were spirited and effective.

At the conclusion of the debate, the local Epsilon chapter of Pi Kappa Delta entertained the speakers, judge, and the Otterbein Women's Debate Team at a formal luncheon in the "Tea for Two" Tea Rooms.

Lose to Marietta

Otterbein's affirmative suffered an unexpected defeat at the hands of the Marietta negative on the Ohio River College's platform last Friday night.

Dr. Elmer U. Hoenshel Puzzles Many Students With the Word "Pursue"

"Pursue" was the word which Dr. Elmer U. Hoenshel, the noted travel-ogist who gave his lecture in the U. B. Church Saturday evening on "The Passion Play" for the benefit of the Young People's Evening Choir, purposely mispronounced in his chapel talk last Friday morning. Dr. Hoenshel recited the first verse of "Rasselas" by Dr. Samuel Johnson two different times and offered a copy of one of his books as a prize to the first person who should name the mispronounced word. Not a person in the college, either student or Faculty member, accosted Dr. Hoenshel with the correct pronunciation of the word which had been mispronounced.

In an interview granted the Tan and Cardinal Friday afternoon, Dr. Hoenshel stated that he is a self-educated man. He has received no degrees from any university except an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Lebanon Valley College at Annville, Pa. Dr. Hoenshel is, however, a graduate of a seminary.

Dr. Hoenshel's home is in Waynesboro, Virginia. Although his profession is teaching, Doctor Hoenshel declared, his hobby of lecturing has almost become his profession in the place of teaching. His travels take him to many colleges and churches over the country. Many of his lectures are given for the benefit of clubs and organi-

Fletcher, Knight and Bromley represented Otterbein. Sheldon, Daniels and Brooker were the Marietta speakers. Mr. Harbinson, a graduate of Oberlin and a graduate student at Ohio State University, was the only judge.

Northern Defeated

Last Wednesday evening Otterbein won her second Ohio Conference debate of the season from Ohio Northern at Ada. The "personal liberty" question was used with Ohio Northern University upholding the affirmative side of the question. The speakers for Northern in their order were Gasper Corso, Anthony Musca and David Beletsky.

The Otterbein lineup for this forensic battle of wits was Bruce LaPorte as first speaker, John Hudock as second with Duane Harrold to complete the array. Philipp Charles acted as alternate.

The judge in this debate was Prof. Earl C. Wiley of Ohio State who as a critic-judge explained his decision to the audience.

SOCIOLOGY CLUB VISITS WELFARE ORGANIZATIONS

Trip Also Made to Jeffrey Mfg. Co. With View of Studying Conditions.

Last week the Sociology Club made the first of a series of trips to Columbus for investigation and study of various institutions connected with social welfare work. On Tuesday the club visited the Godman Guild and the Gladden Community House as examples of institutions which carry on social settlement work. The buildings and surrounding neighborhood were inspected and a comparative investigation made as to type of service given, classes of people benefiting by this service, financial program, and other similar studies.

On Thursday the club visited the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co. This factory was studied from the standpoint of working conditions of employees, recreational facilities, protection from accidents, etc. The Jeffrey Co. is considered as having the best working conditions of any factory in Columbus and the investigation was made upon this basis.

Next week similar institutions will be visited so that comparison of the facilities and deficiencies of each may be made.

Y CABINETS TO BRING SPECIAL SPEAKER HERE

FOR SERIES OF MEETINGS

Dr. Ralph M. Davis of Hyde Park Presbyterian Church of Chicago Comes March 27.

A committee, composed of members from both the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A's, has arranged to bring Dr. R. M. Davis, pastor of the Hyde Park Presbyterian church of Chicago, to the campus to spend four days in speaking and holding conferences with students who may care to talk with him.

Dr. Davis is a man of athletic build and one who has a winning but challenging personality. He has spoken to several student conferences and has been acclaimed an unqualified success in every instance.

The cabinets of the Y association are bringing him to the campus because they feel he is an able man, and that he will stimulate some positive thinking on the part of the students who really want life interpreted to them constructively.

TAN SUCCUMBS TO KENYON IN FINAL BATTLE

SCORE ENDS 72 TO 39

Foul Shooting Contest Is Feature of Last Court Struggle. Buell Is High Scorer.

Using the same line-up that has started every game this year, Kenyon romped away with the last varsity basketball tilt of the season, with the heavy end of a 72 to 39 score. The Kenyon crew went on a scoring rampage the last half and almost without exception was unable to miss. Both teams played a rough game, thus drawing many fouls. Kenyon scored 16 points by the foul route and Otterbein scored 13.

The up-state pill tossers had a smooth working offense, but their defense was rather weak. Had the Tan shooters showed the same ability to hit the bucket as they have in some former games, the tale might have been different.

Barnes Handicapped.

Captain Barnes who has been handicapped during the latter part of the season on account of illness was not permitted to start the game but was sent in after the first few minutes of play. Kenyon started out by scoring with a nonchalance that was surprising. From the middle of the first half the O. C. floormen settled down and did some high class playing, and for a time it looked like Kenyon was in for the game of her life. At the end of the half the score stood 28 to 19 with the bachelor school in the lead.

The Tan men however came back in the second half and played a fast and furious game for the first fifteen minutes. They were within four points of the fast going Purple team

OHIO CONFERENCE MANAGERS MEET TO ARRANGE SCHEDULES

NO MEN'S INTER-CLASS BASKET BALL GAMES THIS YEAR

According to advice received from the athletic department, there will be no men's interclass basketball this spring.

It is believed by the Department of Physical Education that all those interested in basketball have been getting their fill of the prune and group leagues and it is not necessary for further games this spring. Weather conditions at this time of year do not warrant basketball playing, and with the spring sports coming to the fore, the basketball games would interfere with the other sports.

at two different times but were unable to maintain the terrific pace.

Many Fouls Called.

The referee, who seemed to think the modern basket-ball game should closely resemble a foul shooting contest, used little discretion in calling fouls. As a result three Otterbein players were ejected from the game via the personal foul route. Snively for the first time in his basket-ball career in Otterbein, was put out of a game on personals. Van Curen and Schott were also removed on account of committing four fouls.

Buell was the leading scorer for Otterbein with 9 points. Dempsey and Van Epps were the big scorers with 16 and 15 points respectively.

TO CONVEINE IN CHITTENDEN HOTEL IN COLUMBUS

MARTIN IS PRESIDENT

To Consider Status of Industrial Basket Ball Teams In Regard to Professionalism.

Ray Tillotson, basket-ball coach at Miami and secretary of the Ohio conference managers association, has called a meeting of the association for March 18. This meeting will be held at the Chittenden Hotel in Columbus and will open at 9:00 o'clock. Professor R. F. Martin is president of the association.

The 9:00 o'clock session will be for the purpose of arranging basketball schedules. At 2:00 o'clock the business of the Association will be transacted.

There are several items which will be brought up through various committees that have been appointed to make reports. The matter of establishing uniform expense rates for officials was referred to H. F. Pasini who has been vested with the authority to appoint conference referees for recommendation. The status of industrial basketball teams with regard to their professionalism is left to the committee of which Fred Sefton, Athletic Director at Akron University, is Chairman. The committee headed by George Gauthier, Athletic Director of Ohio Wesleyan to enlist the aid of the High School Association in reviving baseball will undoubtedly be ready to report. The assignment of football officials will also be an important matter of business.

TRACK POSITIONS NOT CINCHED SAYS DITMER

To date, no one man on the track squad has his position cinched, according to Coach M. A. Ditmer. The squad is beginning to get a taste of intensive training with the result that many of the men get down to serious work if they intend of "get set" for the season.

Tryouts have been held daily in some form or another, with varying results. No one person on the squad seems to be a consistent winner in the events as yet. Coach Ditmer's cryptic statement "No stars on the Squad" reveals the rather serious situation that Otterbein must watch or she will lose the fine records of past years' track men.

More men are daily reporting in answer to the call of Coach M. A. Ditmer for baseball men. The baseball squad received its first regular workout last Thursday in the gymnasium, although the battery men have been working out daily for the last two weeks.

Suits will be issued to the men on the squad this week, and if the warm weather continues the men will be taken outside for the workout.

SUCH GOOD ADVERTISING

Ignoramuses of this fair country of ours could not have provided Sinclair Lewis, the noted author, with any better advertising than they did when the book censors of the Watch and Ward Society of Boston consigned Mr. Lewis' latest book ("Elmer Gantry") to the black list. Columns of newspaper publicity will doubtless appear regarding this situation.

The same principle worked for H. L. Mencken, editor of the famous green-backed American Mercury, as is now working for Sinclair Lewis. The Mercury has always been noted for its liberal thoughts and strange societal ideals, but reading of it was confined mostly to the intelligentsia. But now—look what newspaper publicity has done. The alley denizen and the immature school youth will alike buy it eagerly in hopes of finding something with which to thrill jaded nerves.

Time and again fundamentalist censors have taken jabs at the freedom of the press, one of the sacred foundations on which this country was established, and in each instance their efforts have only resulted in having them made the laughing stock of the larger part of the thinking population of the nation.

PEDAGOGY

When a pugilist, battered, Wabbly, defeated, can no longer stand up and trade punches with his opponent, he prays for the bell—and stalls.

When a basketball team finds itself ahead by a couple of points with only a few seconds to play—it stalls.

When a professor has talked too fast and exhausted his stock of lecture notes and still the bell hasn't rung—he stalls.

Others visibly betray their consternation as they arrive at the end of their last card with five minutes still to go.

But they are all game to the last. To dismiss the class and allow their harried disciples time for a few extra drags on a cigarette would be most unpedagogical. So they stagger on, rehashing previous remarks, improvising like a member of the Wisconsin players who has forgotten his lines.

The class folds up its notebooks, wriggles into fur coats, hauls out compacts to inspect noses for signs of shininess, studies watches hopefully. No one is listening, and the prof. knows it, but his reputation for inexhaustibility of wisdom is at stake.

Many of the more enlightened members of the Wisconsin faculty realize it is only an act of charity to dismiss the class and have it over with. They can make it up on some other occasion when they have more to say.

Any seeker after wisdom who has been kept listening in his 9 o'clock class in Bascom until he has just one and one half minutes in which to make his ten o'clock in Ag hall, realizes how well they can make it up on some other occasion.—Wisconsin Daily Cardinal.

TIMELY TOPICS

Appalling Situation

Editor Tan and Cardinal.

Sir—The situation in the library is becoming appalling and I wonder if something cannot be done about it. All through the day one can scarcely find a vacant chair any place. Additional tables and chairs should be installed in both the east and the west study rooms on the main floor. Each one of these rooms could stand another table similar to the ones that are there now.

What is more disgusting is the reserve department of the library. It is almost impossible for fifty to ninety students in one course to read from three, and never more than six, books. The professors are not at all considerate either, if a student is unable to read the assignment.

I would like to ask, too, what's the reason the library can't be kept open until nine o'clock? One merely gets well started on an assignment when the closing bell rings, and then perhaps you can't reserve the book you are reading because someone else beat you to it. Why not keep the library open until nine and get more student assistants?

I'm not the only crab on this situation; there are 576 more like me.

Disgusted Student.

Has the Prince of Wales deigned to grace our Campus with his presence or is Percy Marks giving a lecture on Morals of the Co-ed? All wrong, the love-lorn score tonight and Betty Fairfax, of Columbus Dispatch fame, noted authority on affairs of the heart and upholder of the modern girl, is scheduled for eight o'clock on the program of the Citizenship Club. The Cochran Hall girls have dragged an invitation to the affair through the good graces and influence of the Dean. Fair Elaine ne'er waited more expectantly for Brave Lancelot than did the fair damsels wait for the famous Betty.

Floor space at high premium, front row chairs harder to get than tickets to the Follies; stair-ways, window seats and umbrella racks lined to capacity.

The questions propounded were many and various—more various than many. Evidently one of the love-lorn rather expected friend Betty to be a maker of love potions inasmuch as she put in the following pertinent inquiry:

PACKED HOUSES SEE "HEAVEN ON EARTH"

Packed houses greeted the two performances of "Heaven On Earth" at the Garden Theatre last night. The movie was presented by Pi Kappa Delta, honorary forensic organization. The proceeds will be used to send delegates to a Provincial Convention of The Province of the Great Lakes held at East Lansing, Michigan, April 13 and 14. Director Lester Raines and four members of the local chapter will attend. One member in oratory, one in extemporaneous speaking and two members of the debate teams will compose the delegation. Contests in these divisions of public speaking will be entered.

"How can a young lady make herself more attractive in the eyes of a young man in whom she is intensely interested so that he will come to reciprocate her affection?"

In motherly tones Aunt Betty advised that she be patient and persevering. We were rather disappointed as we expected to be quoted from "How She Won the One She Loved" or something similar but we didn't even hear the suggestion of using Woodbury's or Pond's Cold Cream.

Another young Diana would ask "Should I or shouldn't I". The wily Betty, however, refuses to be compromised so does not advise this victim of a suppressed desire but suggests in an offhand manner that she better not. Does one always follow advice—I wonder.

And then someone with spring fever or a complex inquires "What is Love." We were answered in beautiful platitudes and nice phrases but somehow we didn't think it fit what we usually thought of in this connection. We were tempted to turn the meeting into a testimony service and have the engaged girls present give us a dissertation. (Another suppressed desire.)

Then one cynic or bachelor maiden asks "Do college romances live?" (You understand that these questions weren't called forth in stenorian tones but had been sent in secretly before). We think this one must have used purple ink and written a square, backhand script. When Miss Fairfax expressed her doubts as to their longevity, three girls fainted and a fourth fell off the stair step.

We know one thing anyway. Miss Betty doesn't believe in free love or petting parties. (The Cochran Hall girls arose in a body and gave vociferous cheers at the expression of these sentiments—That's your bed-time story, now go to bed).

Oh yes, one thing more—we had a few questions we'd have liked to asked but we thought better of it so guess we'll have to write to her.

O C

At last we are able to tell you why the Tan and Cardinal makes mistakes; we have to have a way of knowing who else, besides the proof readers, reads the paper.

3. A point shall be called when the team receiving fails to legally return the ball to the opponents' court.
4. Service is the putting of a ball in play by an eligible player, by batting it into the opponents court in any direction with one or both hands while standing with both feet behind any part of the end line of the court.
5. The ball is "dead" when the Referee's whistle blows calling any decision, or when the Timekeeper's whistle blows at the end of the halves.
6. The game shall consist of two halves of 20 minutes each, with a rest of 5 minutes between halves.
7. A tie game shall not be played off.
8. Players on the teams shall rotate. The odd lines rotate to the right and the right-hand player steps back, the even lines rotating to the left and the left-hand player steps back.
9. The ball may be batted in any position with one or both hands, the hands being either open or closed, but it must not touch the floor or go out of bounds or under the net.
10. The ball may be played by any number of players after service before being batted over the net provided it is

Publishers Offer Food For Stomach To Sell Food For Brain

The highbrow publishers are certainly doing wonders in the way of catering to the appetites of the reading public. We have just received in the mail an offer of a set of Dickens' works for only $55 "and a genuine English plum pudding absolutely free" with it.

Here is an innovation, surely. The day may come when publishers will give away all sorts of "eats" in order to unload their books. What boundless opportunities there are in this line. Think what splendid offers could be made, as for example these:

"Poems of Spring and Passion," $2.75, with a quarter-peck of onions free. "History Out-lie," padded leather edition, $24, and a kit of mackerel on the side. "Essay of O. Shaw" in limp binding, $12, and two pounds of "hot dogs" included. "Complete works of Scott", in 22 volumes, $44, with a bottle of the emulsion to every purchaser. A dozen eggs with every copy of "Bacon's Essays". "How to Repair and Pay for a Ford," 50 cents, including a bunch of beets. "Daniel Webster's Abridged Dictionary," $14, with a gallon of cider as a premium. "Wise Cracks by Roger Wills," $1.50, and enough chewing-gum to last a week thrown in. "How I Did the United States," by Queen Marie, gilt-edged edition $10, and a mess of spinach. "Resurrected Old Stories of O Henry," in 60 volumes, $30, with a bag of peanuts free as an inducement.

Yes, we can see great possibilities in the new system of disseminating good reading. Agriculture and commerce will henceforth become the true handmaidens of literature. With every book that is sold, some product of the field or factory will be included, and thus the purchaser will be edified in both his head and his stomach at one fell swoop.

When the sale of a new novel begins to lag, it can be jacked up by giving a piece of pumpkin pie or a dish of prunes or a banana with each copy. By this method there is no excuse for any book being a drug on the market. All that will be necessary will be to keep on throwing in more and more eatables until the public will bite.

That the Staff flowers for this week go to the Saum Hall girl who wrote home for money to go to see Gallin-Curci and the Brox Sisters in "Cocoa-nuts" at the Hartman.

She heard that one frosh got her dates mixed and when her various Lochinvars arrived they held a Pan-Hellenic meeting to keep peace.

That she understands that the Coeds of Cochran Hall are starting a movement to make all proctors and other interested parties wear collegiate cleats so they'll not be taken unawares.

That some people better quit growling and laugh a bit or they'll have to buy a tag. (Apologies to Scenic Section Bailey's Drug).

That she's thinking of dropping Leader's Corps and joining the Ladies Aid for safety first reasons.

That the list of coming attractions at the Wintergreen leads her to think that they have at last realized the competition of the Hartman and are taking steps to meet the situation.

77% OF SENIOR CLASS, NOT STUDENT BODY, MAY TEACH

President W. G. Clippinger Issues Statement To Dispel Unfortunate Impression.

In order to correct an unfortunate impression which has been created by newspapers, President W. G. Clippinger issued a statement last week to the effect that 77 per cent of the present senior class of the college is preparing to teach and not 77 per cent of the entire student body as quoted by one newspaper. President Clippinger estimates, on the basis of a recent report made by Professor C. O. Altman, that between 50 per cent and 60 per cent of the student body is taking work in the education department.

This percentage is unusually high, college officials believe, adding that the increasing strictness of state rules is largely responsible. Many students who are not sure they desire to take up teaching as a profession take enough education courses to secure a teacher's certificate in case they may decide to do so.

Plans are at present being made by the college to strengthen its department of education both in its regular courses and in its cooperation with Westerville schools in practice teaching to do the very high grade work necessary to meet the state standards.

After having been postponed a number of times, the legislation which may affect Otterbein's education department seriously will probably be given a hearing in the state legislature Tuesday afternoon.

COOK HOUSE AGAIN INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONS

Cook House again turned out a championship team this year. They were able to go through the entire year without suffering defeat. They won every game in the Social Group League and after winning that honor were entitled to play the winner of the Prune League. Accordingly the Cook House met the Hoffman Drugs last week and defeated them by a score of 26-22.

The game was fast and rough and kept the referee and umpire busy. Both teams were fairly evenly matched but Cook House was able to forge ahead and come out on top with the high score.

Kaufman and Gibson were high point collectors for Cook House scoring 7 and 6 points respectively. Debolt of Hoffman Drugs collected 10 points by dropping in five field goals.

Prune League Finishes

Although there was one game played in the Prune League it did not change the leader of the league for Hoffman Drugs still lead the league and were entitled to play Cook House for the championship of the Intra-Murals.

Country Club Seconds defeated Philotas Seconds by the score of 18-15. Noel and Spangler of Country Club Seconds each scored 6 points while Keller of Philotas Seconds scored 6 points.

Gallagher continues to lead the scorers with 64 points to his credit having scored 26 field goals and 12 fouts. Simmermacher of Lakota Seconds follows with 61 points having dropped in 23 field goals and 15 fouts. D. Allaman and E. Widdoes are tied for next place having each scored 57 points.

COUNCIL ASKS FACULTY TO ADD LIBRARY HOUR

MANY STUDENT REQUESTS

Student Council Also Considers Limitation of Extra-Curricular Activities.

A recommendation that the library be kept open until 9 o'clock was sent by the Student Council to the Faculty to be considered in its meeting late yesterday afternoon. Continued and urgent requests on the part of the student body prompted the Student Council to take this action in its meeting last Wednesday evening. A similar recommendation was voted down by the Faculty last year.

A point system for the limitation of extra-curricular activities was also under consideration of the Student Council in its meeting last week. Members of the Faculty and members of the student governmental organization feel that steps are now necessary for the curbing of extra-curricular activities.

A report of the committee investigating the possibility of the Student Chest Fund in the matriculation fee was presented; the committee was instructed by the Council to proceed further with the investigation.

The Constitutional Revision Committee is still continuing its work.

PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED FOR 1927-1928 LYCEUM

FIVE NUMBERS IN SERIES

John Drinkwater's Famous "Abraham Lincoln" Will Open Lyceum Season.

"Abraham Lincoln", John Drinkwater's famous drama of the great American, will be the feature on the 1927-28 Citizen's Lecture Course, Dean N. E. Cornet, chairman of the local lyceum committee, announced late last week. There are 27 characters in the play which is one of the largest productions ever billed by the Redpath Lyceum Bureau.

"Uncle Sam's Samoan Islands—Their Arts, Crafts, Music and Songs" is the subject of the lecture which will be delivered by Wherahiko Rawei, a Polynesian story teller.

R. B. "Army" Ambrose, demonstrator of scientific inventions, and Jay Tobias, reader, musician, comedian, are two of the other numbers scheduled. The Jackson Plantation Singers, a group that entertained an audience on this year's program, is scheduled for the final number. No dates for any of the performances have yet been announced.

Assisting Dean Cornet in arranging the programs are J. P. West and F. E. Samuel. President of the Student Council, Perry Laukhuff, conferred with the committee in charge of the program. The lyceum committee has asked for the co-operation of the student body through the Student Council.

The Quiz and Quill Club held its regular bi-weekly meeting last night at the home of Prof. C. O. Altman, 249 East College Avenue.

The feature of the program was the reading of an original one-act play by Ernestine Nichols and Verda Evans. Familiar essays were produced by Bessie Lincoln and Louie Norris. Jean Turner Camp favored the club with a group of poems.

NEW "GONDOLA" TO BE ERECTED ON S. STATE

Otterbein students will welcome the announcement that Westerville is to have a new "Gondola". A building permit was issued to B. C. Almond, owner of the Garden Theatre by City Manager, L. G. Whitney. The new playhouse, which will seat 350 persons, will be erected on South State Street north of the Stoner House between Walnut and Plum Streets.

The new structure will have a two story front, the first floor of which will include two store rooms and the theatre entrance. The second floor will be used for a tea room.

"BETTY FAIRFAX" SPEAKS AT CITIZENSHIP CLUB

Many Co-eds Ask Mrs. Maude Murray Miller of Columbus Dispatch Many Questions.

"If girls are bad it is almost always the fault of the parents," declared Mrs. Maude Murray Miller, the "Betty Fairfax" of the Columbus Dispatch, in her informal address before the Citizenship Club at its annual guest night at Cochran Hall last Tuesday evening. Otterbein co-eds were the special guests of the Club. Nearly 300 persons attended the meeting. Dean Cora A. McFadden was the hostess for the evening. She was assisted by Mrs. S. E. Rupp, Mrs. S. W. Kirts, Mrs. S. J. Fickel, and Mrs. T. C. Tussey. College co-eds were allowed to conduct a question box in which were found a number of startling questions on love, honor, and war, to be answered by Mrs. Miller.

Proper training, according to Mrs. Miller, must begin at home. Mrs. Miller is herself the mother of two sons, one of whom is an American consul in Persia. During her remarks she referred to herself as an old-fashioned mother because she still believes in disciplining children with a whip on occasions.

Mrs. B. W. Valentine and Mrs. C. O. Altman were among those who were elected as officers at this meeting of the Citizenship Club. Mrs. A. P. Rosselot is the ex-president of the Club.

Miss Mabel Eubanks sang two solos and Miss Hazel Barngrover gave two violin selections at the opening of the program.

Glee Club and Orchestra Will Radio-cast. Alumni Over Country Organize.

Friday night, March 25, will be celebrated as Otterbein night throughout the United States. On that night all the great family of Alumni, Ex-students, and friends of Otterbein will get together and live over old memories. The outstanding feature of the evening will be a radio program broadcast from station WAIU in Columbus by the Otterbein Glee Club, and a special message of greeting from President W. G. Clippinger.

Extensive plans for Otterbein Night have been made under the direction of Mr. L. W. Warson, Alumni Secretary. The Alumni of the United States have been organized into groups with a leader over each group, and meetings have been planned in every center where there are many Otterbein Alumni. A big time is being arranged for in New York City. Other cities where large reunions will be held are Scottsdale, Pa.; Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Dayton.
