2-28-1916

The Otterbein Review February 28, 1916

Archives

Otterbein University, archives@otterbein.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.otterbein.edu/otreview

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.otterbein.edu/otreview/28

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Historical Otterbein Journals at Digital Commons @ Otterbein. It has been accepted for inclusion in Otterbein Review by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Otterbein. For more information, please contact digitalcommons07@otterbein.edu.
ART STUDENTS PRESENT PLAY

Caste from Art Department Show

"A Perplexing Situation" in Lambert Hall with Success.

FRITZ TELLS LOVE SECRETS

Girls Play Well in Boys' Parts—Uncle "Ep" Makes Big Hit—Orchestra Pleases.

Thursday evening, February 24 before a good audience, the art students successfully staged a two act comedy entitled, "A Perplexing Situation." The production showed thorough preparation and the various characters were well represented. In a reminiscent monologue Professor Fritz splendidly rendered, "My Old Sweet-hearts," and repeatedly forced smiles from the audience.

The perplexity of this situation starts when the Middleton girl, warm new gowns for a wedding. The stingy father finally makes the proposal that he will give each girl seventy-five dollars if they say nothing from morning until six o'clock in the evening. The daughters eagerly accept but soon many difficulties ensue. Jessy Middleton's lover unexpectedly calls, Jessy dare not talk and he leaves in despair; the cook, frightened because of the sudden silence of the girls, spills the potatoes and as she screams the curtain falls.

In the second act Uncle Epitumas visits the Middletons. When the girls fail to answer his questions he concludes that they are dumb. In the meantime Mrs. Nosey has falsely reported that Mrs. Middleton has small-pox. The office is just ready to quarantine everyone when the father returns. Soon the clock strikes six and all the women burst forth with exclamations of relief. The necessary explanations are then made, the father fulfills his promise and all the lovers are happy.

In "My Old Sweet-hearts," Professor Fritz at the diocese age of thirty-two is to be married on the morrow. He receives a congratulatory letter which reads, "It is the best thing you ever did in your life, I know because I tried it twice." Signed, "An Old Sweet-heart." He solicits who this might be and, as he recalls various sweet-hearts they appear in pantomimic representation. He first thinks of Betty, the one mad at his youth. Many times had she been thrashed because of her. Then he recalls that later his affections shifted when he met that vivacious Kate. She soon after became the theater manager but evidently this was a mistake after he (Continued on page five.)

R. P. Mase Elected Assistant Baseball Manager to Turner.

At the regular meeting of the Athletic Board last Wednesday evening Glenn C. Mase was elected assistant baseball manager. He will work with E. R. Turner. According to present plans the new field is to be used for baseball this spring. Work has been carried on all winter in preparation for its immediate use as soon as the baseball candidates begin to "warm up their arms." Mr. Mase will have a large share in the development of this field. Negotiations are being made with the Union of Columbus for the marked destined to back stop. This will be done within the next few weeks.

RATTO IMPERSONATES WELL

"One of the most entertaining of impersonators. His program was of a good quality one up to the standard of the lyceum platform..."

The first number was an impersonation of an Italian. This was very cleverly done. The novelty of the program is that Mr. Ratto "makes up" while on the platform. From an Italian street vender we see in a twinkle of time the old farmer at a country ball relating his experiences and opinions.

The third number of the program was the reading of a selection, "The Old Violin." In Mr. Ratto displayed his talent of expression and interpretation in a splendid manner.

Among the other characters he impersonated were those of a Swede, Irishman, German and also anurchin found upon our city streets.

"The most moving part was when the painter's story was related. His tears were such that nothing definite could be made out of them but upon the whole it was very well done."

EDU CATORS MEET FOR CONFERENCE

Noted School Men Hold Important Sessions in Detroit at Superintendents' Convention of N. E. A.

VITAL PROBLEMS DISCUSSED

College Teachers Convene—Doctor E. A. Jones Represents Ohio on Committee on Teachers' Salaries.

"(By Edmund A. Jones.)"

The 46th Annual Meeting of the Department of Superintendence was held in Detroit, February 21 to 26 was the largely attended of any meeting in its history. All phases of educational work were represented at the U. S. Bureau of Education; State, city and county superintendents; supervisors; universities and colleges; Normal and Elementary schools as well as technical, industrial, manual training and agricultural schools. All parts of our country were represented and a large number of the most prominent educators had a place upon the program.

The Society of College Teachers of Education held sessions on Monday forenoon and afternoon and Tuesday morning.

The Relation of College and University departments of Education to other agencies which have to do with the scientific study of Education was the first topic considered. This was discussed by several specialists in the line of Educational research: Director E. W. Ballon of Boston, S. A. Couris of Detroit, Dr. W. A. Jessup of the University of Iowa, Prof. Geo. D. Strayer of Columbia University and others participated in the general discussion which followed. It was claimed that much good had already resulted from educational measurements and tests recently carried on by experts and the plea was made that the Universities should send out more men especially trained for research work and prepared to rightly interpret the facts discovered.

The topic for the afternoon was the Relation of the Department of Education to Other Departments within the College or University.

This was discussed by Prof. W. C. Bagley of the University of Illinois. The members of the University of Pittsburgh, Prof. Elwood E. Caberry of Leland Stanford Junior University, Prof. A. J. Ingles of Harvard and Prof. E. A. Miller of the University of Wisconsin. Prof. Bagley presented a very interesting paper based upon replies received to a questionnaire which had been sent to many institutions.

"It developed that there was a good deal of antagonism at first manifested (Continued on page five.)

Philomathes Gets New Chairs—Other Improvements Are Made.

After much hard work and patient waiting Philomathes was at last re­warded by getting her new chairs. The need of the chairs has been felt for several years but circumstances were such that nothing definite could be done until this year. They are comfortable and massive and fit in perfectly with the color scheme of the hall. They are finished in a dark cherry color to match the woodwork and have green leather backs in conformity with the walls of the hall. They add immensely to the aesthetic value of the hall. The minor improvements are under way in the beautifying of the hall.

CAPITAL WINS IN FINISH

Otterbein's Quintet Takes Lead in Second Half but Loses Out in Last Minutes.

The Otterbein basketball team met defeat at the hands of their neighbors, Capital University by a score of 28 to 25. The game was hard fought and closely contested but one important thing was lacking—namely that of "roosters." Had Otterbein adopted Capital's plan and had a crowd of "roosters" at the Columbus game the result would have no doubt been different. Time after time Otterbein took the ball out of dangerous territory, but only the faint cheers of three or four faithful supporters could be heard when a goal was made. Nevertheless the boys all gave good account of themselves in every respect. The game was clean and the "roosters" were maintained throughout. Otterbein did not take a back seat when it came to this for they seemed to have an abundant supply of "roosters." The Otterbein basket-ball team met the Columbus basketball team at Columbus for the erection of a basketball track there. Otterbein's back seat to the Columbus marksmen was at last manifested as the Columbus team a few weeks ago. Otterbein's back seat was at last made manifest as the Columbus team a few weeks ago. Otterbein defeated Columbus by a score of 28 to 25.

"The Otterbein basket-ball team met the Columbus basketball team at Columbus for the erection of a basketball track there. Otterbein's back seat to the Columbus marksmen was at last manifested as the Columbus team a few weeks ago. Otterbein defeated Columbus by a score of 28 to 25."

The Otterbein basket-ball team met the Columbus basketball team at Columbus for the erection of a basketball track there. Otterbein's back seat to the Columbus marksmen was at last manifested as the Columbus team a few weeks ago. Otterbein defeated Columbus by a score of 28 to 25. The Otterbein basket-ball team met the Columbus basketball team at Columbus for the erection of a basketball track there. Otterbein's back seat to the Columbus marksmen was at last manifested as the Columbus team a few weeks ago. Otterbein defeated Columbus by a score of 28 to 25.
Otterbein Wallopped in Initial Period But Comes Back in St. Mary's Fashion.

Outclassing Otterbein in the ability to "rough it" St. Mary's defeated Otterbein at Dayton on last Thursday evening by a score of 39 to 16. There seemed to be no safety valve on the players whatsoever for Referee Zimmerman but seldom made use of his whistle regardless of the obvious fouls made by the Dayton team. The St. Mary's floor is practically twice that of Otterbein's and the team seemed lost and were unable to get around with sufficient speed to break up the clever passing of the non-conference champions of Ohio.

The first half of the game spelled disastrous defeat to Schnake's men. St. Mary's started the scoring and had ten points to their credit before Otterbein had secured a tally, Krusling, Nugent and Hochwalt doing the scoring. During this period the Saints ran up a total of twenty-nine points while the Otterbein scoring machine could gather but four. The Girls exhibited a class of passing which Otterbein could not break up. No scores were made after dribbles but only after a long succession of short passes which quick rushes would stop had the Otterbein men made an attempt to do it. Turned was the only man who watched his man and put up any kind of defensive play.

In the second half Otterbein came back and played a St. Mary's game even to the extent of getting a little rough now and then. This rushing and close guarding held St. Mary's to but a ten point score for this half while the total of eight had Otterbein seen the need for a close defensive and fighting style of play earlier in the game the score would have been much closer.

With all the improvement in defense Otterbein was unable to score. When the Tan and Cardinal men did get the ball there was no one to pass to under the basket and when one got there a St. Mary's man was covering. This forced Otterbein to rely on its often been noised about that the cream of Otterbein comes from Pennsylvania and the queenly city of Dayton, Ohio. The latter may proudly boast of her contribution in charming young women, among whom Miss Norma McCally is a favorite. Throughout her college career she has won many warm friends by her pleasant smile and kindly manner. Her first year in Otterbein was marked by an especially jolly good time. In her work as Vice-President of Y. W. C. A. she has proven herself ambitious to enroll new girls in the Association. As a student, Norma has proved deeply into the "amo, amas, amat," and although she will be greatly missed by Otterbein circles, we predict for her a most brilliant career as Latin instructor.

As President of the Cochran Hall Association, Miss McCally has exhibited splendid executive ability, justice and quiet tact. In her work for her a most brilliant career as Latin instructor.

Otterbein St. Mary's

Sechrist R. F. Hochwalt
Peden L. F. Nugent Schnake C. Krusling Moravek R. G. Sherry Turner L. G. Hess

Substitutions—Brown for Moore, Roth for Hochwalt, Windbiefel for Sherry. While as a Sophomore she entered a Pennsylvania "In-Kline" which we are sure will eventually land her at the top of the steepest Pou. The "In-Kline" in the Junior class of last year is not forgotten when some new frolic is enjoyed by the Hall girls, for "Goldie" is sure to have been the instigator.

Norma McCally.

The Home of Quality

Fashion's Highest-Class and Most Exclusive Creations in

Women's New Footwear

There is snap and sparkle a-plenty in the six modish shoes herewith presented. Every line conforms to fashion's dictum for spring. Size them. Appreciate them.

Coronation pumps of black kid, bronze kid and neutral gray. Large tongues, open-work pattern, welted soles and leather Louis heels. Not being shown anywhere else in the city.

Priced at ................. $5.00
All white washable kid lace boots. White heels and soles. It will be a simple matter to keep in style with this new model. The most perfect-fitting, high-grade boot shown this spring. All sizes. Priced at .......... $7.50
Ivory donees. A spick and span new model of glazed ivory kid. Washable French wood covered heal. Pointed toe, long vamp, dome top. This boot promises to be the leading member of the shoe family. All sizes. Priced at .......... $8.00
Gray and champagne 8½-inch musketoe boots, in all sizes. Leather Louis Cuban heels and welted soles. Priced at ............... $6.00
White Calfskin high-cut boots with ivory soles and heels. 60 days ahead of the season. A New York toe, long and receding. Every size and width. Priced at ............... $8.00

THE UNION

Columbus, Ohio

Thompson & Rhodes

MEAT MARKET
Otterbein Man Talked of

As Columbus Superintendent, John H. Francis, superintendent of Los Angeles schools, will be tendered a salary of $6000 if the board of education members carry out plans put under way at a special meeting last Friday.

It is said that Mr. Francis is the unanimous choice of the board; that he has been invited to Columbus to look over the situation, and that while here Tuesday he will be given assurance at a board meeting that he will be named for the place. Official election, under the law, cannot occur until May 1.

When the board went to Detroit Tuesday to the meeting of the National Educational Association to confer with educators for a man for the position some of the men who are now most favorably considered were thought of seriously. It was there, after consulting with twenty-one prospects, that the board members decided Mr. Francis to be the logical man for the position.

Mr. Francis graduated from Otterbein in 1892 and has been associate and the schools at Los Angeles for nearly twenty years. His first work in the schools there was as commercial teacher, then principal of the Commercial high school, principal of the Technical high school and then as superintendent of the city schools, in which capacity he has served for the past six years.

The board of education has been considering a school survey to improve educational conditions, but it is thought that should Mr. Francis signify his intention to accept, the board will make a more extensive survey than has been planned, and give the new superintendent full power to act in any way he should see fit.

Students Help Otterbein

Services at Canal Winchester

Otterbein junior was observed at Canal Winchester Sunday, when a quartet of Otterbein students took the church by storm and with some lively speeches, songs, solos, and yells, injected the spirit of Otterbein in their little city. Rev. Mr. Riebel, '08, pastor of the United Brethren church invited the boys, who were most delightfully entertained by the congregation. In the evening the crowd went to Salem and gave the folks there a taste of college life. The Sun was at Salem and gave the folks there a taste of college life. The Sun.

Seniourman takes job

Heidelberg to Put Hard Fight

On next Saturday evening all basket ball lovers will say good-bye to the 1916 season, for on that date Captain Schnake's warriors will stage their farewell game. The strong Heidelberg quintet is coming to stage the battle and Otterbein will have a chance to turn the tables for the recent defeat received at Tiffin.

A good reason for our attendance will be on account of the fact that it is Schnake's last game. "Cliff" has been a mainstay of the team ever since his entrance, and has been a star player during his well-known career on the floor. "Shonappi" will fight his last battle for Otterbein and it is with deep regret that such is the case.

Not only will our captain do his duty but the entire team will be in fine fettle for the farewell game. The recent defeats have not disheartened the team in the least. They have the same pep and spirit that has always characterized the team.

The Tiffin lads are also going to try to hold their excellent reputation, which they have made so far this season. A number of the Heidelberg contingent is expected to accompany their team and help to make things lively.

This is our last chance for this season. Let's make it good.

Science Club Tonight

In Professor Scheer's recitation room at seven-thirty o'clock the Otterbein Science Club will meet. An interesting program has been arranged. The new officers will be inaugurated.

Bender & Rappold will buy your short stories.—Adv.

Otterbein Man Talks of Los Angeles School

As Columbus Superintendent, John H. Francis, superintendent of Los Angeles schools, will be tendered a salary of $6000 if the board of education members carry out plans put under way at a special meeting last Friday.

It is said that Mr. Francis is the unanimous choice of the board; that he has been invited to Columbus to look over the situation, and that while here Tuesday he will be given assurance at a board meeting that he will be named for the place. Official election, under the law, cannot occur until May 1.

When the board went to Detroit Tuesday to the meeting of the National Educational Association to confer with educators for a man for the position some of the men who are now most favorably considered were thought of seriously. It was there, after consulting with twenty-one prospects, that the board members decided Mr. Francis to be the logical man for the position.

Mr. Francis graduated from Otterbein in 1892 and has been associate and the schools at Los Angeles for nearly twenty years. His first work in the schools there was as commercial teacher, then principal of the Commercial high school, principal of the Technical high school and then as superintendent of the city schools, in which capacity he has served for the past six years.

The board of education has been considering a school survey to improve educational conditions, but it is thought that should Mr. Francis signify his intention to accept, the board will make a more extensive survey than has been planned, and give the new superintendent full power to act in any way he should see fit.

Students Help Otterbein

Services at Canal Winchester

Otterbein junior was observed at Canal Winchester Sunday, when a quartet of Otterbein students took the church by storm and with some lively speeches, songs, solos, and yells, injected the spirit of Otterbein in their little city. Rev. Mr. Riebel, '08, pastor of the United Brethren church invited the boys, who were most delightfully entertained by the congregation. In the evening the crowd went to Salem and gave the folks there a taste of college life. The Sun was at Salem and gave the folks there a taste of college life. The Sun.

Seniourman takes job

Heidelberg to Put Hard Fight

On next Saturday evening all basket ball lovers will say good-bye to the 1916 season, for on that date Captain Schnake's warriors will stage their farewell game. The strong Heidelberg quintet is coming to stage the battle and Otterbein will have a chance to turn the tables for the recent defeat received at Tiffin.

A good reason for our attendance will be on account of the fact that it is Schnake's last game. "Cliff" has been a mainstay of the team ever since his entrance, and has been a star player during his well-known career on the floor. "Shonappi" will fight his last battle for Otterbein and it is with deep regret that such is the case.

Not only will our captain do his duty but the entire team will be in fine fettle for the farewell game. The recent defeats have not disheartened the team in the least. They have the same pep and spirit that has always characterized the team.

The Tiffin lads are also going to try to hold their excellent reputation, which they have made so far this season. A number of the Heidelberg contingent is expected to accompany their team and help to make things lively.

This is our last chance for this season. Let's make it good.

Science Club Tonight

In Professor Scheer's recitation room at seven-thirty o'clock the Otterbein Science Club will meet. An interesting program has been arranged. The new officers will be inaugurated.

Bender & Rappold will buy your short stories.—Adv.

The Otterbein Review
Published Weekly in the interest of Otterbein by the Otterbein Review Publishing Company, Westerville, Ohio.
Members of the Ohio College Press Association.

W. Rodney Huber, '14, Editor
Homer D. Cased, '17, Manager
L. E. Richey, '16, Alumni
R. B. Breitling, '16, Athletics
W. T. Comfort, '16, Locals
E. H. Hendrix, '16, Exchanges
Ruth Drury, '16, Cochran Notes
Alice Hall, '18, Y. W. C. A.
S. R. Breitling, '18, Asst. Mgr.
E. L. Royles, '16, Circulation Mgr.

Address all communications to The Otterbein Review, 20 W. Main Sreet, Westerville, Ohio.
Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Year, payable in advance.

Entered as second class matter Oct. 18, 18, by Otterbein at Westerville, O., under Act of March 3, 1879.

EDITORIALS

A man is known to his dog by the smell, to his tailor by the cost, to his friend by the smile; each of these know him, but how little or how much depends on the dignity of the intelligence. That which is truly and indeed characteristic of the man is known only to God.—T. Ruskiri.

Radical Journalism.

The Challenge is the name of a new college publication issued by the students of Barnard College and Columbia University. It is intended that the paper should be collegiate in its interests and as soon as possible. The policy of this paper is to voice student sentiment, particularly the radical and unorthodox views of college youths. Any article of literary merit having a pertinent idea will receive consideration. It is expected that it should stimulate the growth of opinion among American students. It is not intended to antagonize but it will not conciliate at the expense of its principles. A paper with such a purpose is worthy of a place in any college. There seems to be a spirit behind the movement, however, which savors of the tendency to stir up trouble. We can't help feeling like that when we think that the plan for this publication is entirely independent of all college, college, educational, those in authority at both of these institutions were greatly concerned with the entire proposition and view it with disfavor.

Now signs are things, and many of them, in every institution which may seem to be dreadful wrongs—absolutely wrong. We have all conceptions of what should be. Every college student sees these things on every hand. If he were in control there and an opportunity to do good would be run much differently. Why, there is scarcely a week that passes, but that we are reminded, by some well meaning fellow student, concerning some one or something that should be altered. The objections we have done it but far oftener we have, instead written nothing or even in an exceptional case done the opposite, which is a little ridiculous.

Early in our experience as the editor of this paper, a gentleman commended us for overlooking in our editorials comments a lot of things which seemed big but real bad. We think that things to be found and the more said the worse things get. The sensational antag onisms are unfair. No well regulated college has to face such things. The policy of this paper is to voice the sane ideas of college life, the mission of any college publication is to express the great interest but in a few the entire college make it possible to a great extent.

Of all places in the world there is none which has a more complete list of slang than the college. The average student has a vivid and characteristic word or phrase for so many things. To the outsider, these are as vague in their meaning as so much Greek, but in the college world they portray a vivid mental picture. As varied as these expressions are and as common is the case where they are used, there is a strange sentiment prevalent against the use of these time orderisms are unfair. No well regulated college would allow one's word to be dependent upon these expressions is disastrous. The time will soon be upon us when we will be expected to express ourselves in the language of the college. For this reason some of us may meet with a pretty difficult proposition if that time should ever come. There is wisdom in the saying that it would be a good idea to make a gradual change and in such a case the time to begin is now.

College Prohibition.

It is with tremendous force that the temperance cause has recently hit some of the great universities of the country. Not only are prohibition organizations with their oratorical content and the like attracting great interest but in a few the entire student body, have placed a ban on the singing of songs with an intemperate sentiment. However, we have not been unwise servants of existing conditions. It has been our purpose to be fair in our judgment of all persons and conditions.

To voice the sane ideas of college life, is the mission of any college publication. If trouble is sought it will be found and the more said the worse things get. The sensational antag onisms are unfair. No well regulated college has to face such things. The policy of this paper is to voice the sane ideas of college life, the mission of any college publication is to express the great interest but in a few the entire college make it possible to a great extent.

In his recent address before the Central Ohio Farmers' Institute, President Clipping spoke of the college as a benefit and service in the community in which it is located. He called our attention the various ways in which the college might be of great usefulness to any wide awake municipality. As a civic and scientific institution the college can have a great influence for good. With its Christian organizations, special speakers, evangelical bands and Sunday school workers, the college may become a religious force in the community. By the educational atmos phere surrounding it, the school of higher instruction exerts a wonderful influence for good among both young and old alike. It likewise offers splendid recreational facilities, art and spiritual enthusiasm to the community. Finally it provides a high standard of ideals for those residing in the vicinity of the college. The streets are institutions and college towns that do not get along well together at all. We are glad, however, to say that such is not the case in Westerville. Then there is the rate harmony between the college authorities and town officials and people. Proof for this is given by the great agitation which was created about ten years ago with the time of moving Otterbein to Dayton. Then again in all the endowment cam-paigns the Westerville folks have supported generously. The town seems to be right behind and with the college in everything it does, it realizes the asset which it is to the community.

In a like manner the college is helping the town. To a marked degree it is Otterbein that makes Westerville. Why this is true to such an extent that we have received letters addressed Otterbein, Ohio. Those uplifting and beneficial influences of the college make it possible to a great extent that Westerville should be called "the biggest little city in Ohio."

Hothouse Life.

A letter written by Frank Norris, best known as author of "The Pit," to a Detroit bookseller was discovered the other day. The letter is a forceful little sermon with an obvious text:

"Don’t believe a fiction writer should shut himself up in his profession. He should be written from the closet or the study. You’ve got to live your stuff. Believe novelists, of all people, should take interest in contemporary movements, politics, international affairs and big things of the world. The college man who buries himself for four years and then expects to go out and achieve success should get the lesson of these few lines.

"Whether you expect to be a novelist or an engineer, you must live your life. Human attributes cannot be cultivated by hothouse methods. You must keep in touch with those about you. Elbert Hubbard did not have much faith in the college man, but he made this significant statement: "College has just one thing to recommend it, and that is the change of environment that it affords the pupil. This is what does him good—new faces, new places, new associations."—Ohio State Lantern.

If it were not for the faithfulness of a particular few, a college editor would lose all faith in mankind.

Honest, Wouldn’t You?

Did you ever think you’d like to Back up just a little ways, And enjoy again the pleasures Of your happy boyhood days? Would you trade your patent leathers And your made-to-order clothes For an hour of runnin’ barefoot, Squealin’ mud between your toes? How’d you swap your old dyspepsia And your job of findin’ fault For a cup of good coffee And a pocketful of salt? Would you give your fancy tackle Of your happy boyhood days? And a pocketful of salt? Would you give your fancy tackle Of your happy boyhood days?
ART STUDENTS

The first session of the National Council was held in the ballroom of the Hotel Statler with President Robt. J. Aley of the University of Maine in the chair and a large crowd in attendance.

The topic for the evening was Thrift. The general problem was stated in an opening address by S. W. Ford, a banker of Chicago. This was followed by several ten minute addresses on the relation of thrift to Country Life, Industries, Banking, and Insurance. The authorities on Natural Resources and Life, the Home and Men's Organizations such as Chambers of Commerce, Labor Unions, etc.

This proved to be a most interesting topic. The statement was made that the United States of America is the most thriftless nation in the world. Starting statistics were given to prove it. Our earnings are large but we are a nation of spenders. If the wheels of industry were to stop we would be out of business. We must get back to Franklin. Economy is a habit and thrift is a virtue. Thrift must be taught to our children, school and industrial plants if we would make sure of a prosperous future for our country.

The session closed with a beautiful a cappella tribute to the memory of Dr. Z. S. Snyder, a deceased member of the National Council, by Chas. H. Keyes, President of Skidmore School of Arts, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Further sessions of the National Council were held on Tuesday forenoon and afternoon in the Arcadia Auditorium.

The following topics were discussed:

- The Function of the Graduate School of Education
- Standards and Tests of Efficiency
- National Welfare and Rural Schools
- The New Ideal in Education - Better Parents of Better Children

Some of the speakers on these subjects were P. P. Paxton, United States Commissioner of Education; Profs. Strayer and Judell; Dr. Helen C. Putnam of Providence; Commissioner Saedden of Massachusetts; and Superintendent Chadsey of Detroit.

The opening session of the Department of Superintendence was held in the Arcadia Auditorium with President M. P. Shawkey, State Superintendent of West Virginia in the chair and the largest crowd in attendance ever gathered on a similar occasion.

Excellent music was furnished by the Central High School Orchestra and the invocation was offered by Rev. Charles H. Williams, D. D. of Oberlin, Ohio. Addresses of welcome were given by Superintendent Chadsey of Detroit and L. L. Keeler, State Superintendent of Michigan. Frank D. Potter, State Superintendent of Illinois responded in behalf of the Department.

The principal address of the evening was given by Dr.. Ray Butter, President of Columbus University. His subject was "What is Going on in the World."
CAPITAL WINS IN FINISH

(Continued from page one.)

the half with a score of 16 to 10 in their favor.

After a good rest and some words of advice, Otterbein appeared second half. The ball was passed Schnake taking the jump and in a half minute scored a goal. This put "pop" into the team and they completely bewildered their opponents, running the score to a tie and then to the count of 24 to 30 in Otterbein's favor. This score remained in Otterbein's favor until about three minutes of the end when Rickert started Capital's last spurt and they took the lead. Otterbein stopped this just as the final shot was fired. The score for this half being 16 to 15 in favor of the Lutherans.

Otterbein (28) (28) Capital

Secrist 1. F. Meuler
Roden 1. F. Baugartner
Schnake 2, Eberly
Brown 1. G. Kantzer
Turner 1. G. Rickert
Field goals-Schnake 7, Schnake 6
Kantzer 3, Secrist 3, Meuller 2,
Ricken 8, Roden and Baumgartner.

Pole goals-Schnake, 7 out of 10;
Rickert 6 out of 11.
Time of halves-20 minutes.
Referee-Prug of Wesleyan.

STUDENTS IGNORANT OF WAR

(Continued from page two.)

"Name the ruler of Russia." (One student said that he was Victor Emmanuel XXIX.)

"Name the ruler of Bulgaria. (One answer gave him as King Augustus.)

"Name the ruler of Austria." The William result not included in the above is rather better. At least twenty out of twenty-three knew who commanded the French armies; Boulain and New York struggled with him as "Joefrey," "Joffrey," "Geoffrey," "Jed Boffrey." The general result at New York is this: "Not at all answered all of the inquiries correctly, while one-third obtained a grade above 90 per cent. Of a class of twenty-three there nine failed, while the average rank was 60 per cent. Another class of the same number of freshmen averaged only 92 per cent and thirteen failed to pass, while a class made up who men did as poorly and averaged a grade of only 61 per cent.

The ignorance of the generality of young men at college, says The Times editorially, "is a startlingly incredible. It proceeds thus light-heartedly: "They have studied and read few books. The history, outside of a compendium of American and perhaps Greek and Roman history, stuffed with dates unappallingly dreary and indigestible, art, poetry, and geography, some confused remembrances of school atlases and maps; science, most of the record of human achievement, are unknown to them. They have forgotten, so able are most of our schools, most of the little learned there. They have not yet acquired, most of them, the main advantage of the college mental training, the art of knowing how to know. Some scheme and skeleton of knowledge, to be filled out later, they are beginning to get. They will learn, too—the young gentlemen of Brunswick and New York haven't learned it yet—to know accurately, not to pretend to know what they don't. But every examiner is aware of the want of concentration, the mental confusion, the reluctant working of the brain, that are so common among the victims of college-examinations. It takes time, except in the case of brilliant minds, to learn how to pass an examination. Mistakes of haste are common. In an examination which 'doesn't count,' like this war-examination, possibly the temptation to 'kid the professor' wasn't wholly wanting."

Varsity Scores and Schedule.

Jan. 5—Otterbein 1, Capital 62.
Jan. 29—Otterbein 27, St. Mary's 50.
Feb. 3—Otterbein 15, West Lafayette 25.
Feb. 4—Otterbein 23, Baldwin-Wallace 62.
Feb. 5—Otterbein 18, Kenyon 32.
Feb. 12—Otterbein 17, Ohio Northern 25.
Feb. 16—Otterbein 18, Ohio Northern 21.
Feb. 24—St. Mary's 39, Otterbein 12.
Feb. 26—Otterbein 25, Capital 23.
Mar. 4—Heidelberg at Westanville.

LITERARY

Programs for next Sessions.

Philalethea.

Magazine—Florence Berlet.
Eulogy—Ruth Van King.
Legend—Neva Anderson.
Exposition—Ruth Fries.
Vocal Duet—Neva Anderson, Ruth Fries.

Piano Solo—Eva Anderson.
Vocal Duet—Elouise Converse.
Piano Solo—Vida Wilhelm.

Philomathae.

Parliamentary Session.

Chlorothea.

Plano Solo—Ethel Hill.
Javecute—Stella Lilly.
Vocal Solo—Elmire Noel.
Illustrated Paper—Clara Garrison.

Vocal Solo—Elizabeth Henderson.
Parody—Lydia Garver.
Vocal Duet—Lucile Blackmore,
Mary Griffith.

Philophrons.

Treatise—National Resources of South America—O. G. Ream.
Papers—Peoples and
South America—B. Warrick.
Description—Climatic Conditions
South America—E. Van Mason.
Debate—Resolved, That commercial reciprocity between the United States and South American countries would benefit the United States.

Affirmative—J. G. Spitt.
Negative—O. S. Rappold.

You'll Get It!

If you want a thing bad enough To go out and fight for it,
Work day and night for it,
Give up your time and your peace
And your sleep for it,
If only desire for it
Makes you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seem all empty and useless
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope, and confidence,
Never to tire of it,
Make you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope, and confidence,
Never to tire of it,
Make you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope, and confidence,
Never to tire of it,
Make you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope, and confidence,
Never to tire of it,
Make you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope, and confidence,
Never to tire of it,
Make you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope, and confidence,
Never to tire of it,
Make you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope, and confidence,
Never to tire of it,
Make you hold other things tawdry
And cheap for it;
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and dream
Is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it,
Fret for it,
Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or of man
For it,
With all your capacity,
Strength and sagacity,
COCHRAN NOTES

Helen Ensor and Claire Klaugh entertained Marie Siddal, Mary Siddal and her mother, Mrs. Hahn, of Findlay, last Saturday night. As usual there was a good time in the corner room on Fourth Floor.

Because of a kindness of some sort, from somewhere, by someone, Ruth and Buddy were able to have a "push" last Tuesday night—one of those good ones that ends up with ice cream.

Miss Dorothy Sprengel of Delaware has been the guest of Ulah and Meryl Black.

Marie Hendrick and Edna Farley have been very extravagant—housing two pushers on successive nights this week. The first one was a "Dutch treat," the guests even furnishing the orchestra. The second was out of a box from home—a "real" treat.

Mabel Fleming, Elouise Converse and Mary Williamson were dinner guests Sunday.

In honor of Mary Williamson several of her friends gave a party last Friday night in the Reception room. In the light of the shaded candles could be seen the beautiful gowns—all the way from pale silks of the ladies to the dark strip of the "geetlemen."

Helen Eldridge has come to see us again.

Annette Brane spent the week-end at home in Dayton. Evidently she couldn't leave her roommate so Lydia went too.

When Betty Henderson came back from home she brought a box of good things. Kate Shupe also was poisoned with a box equally as good. On Tuesday night the feasting began and not till Thursday night did the festivities cease. Chicken, pickles, bread—oh everything else good!

We have been wondering for some time how the struggle for existence between O. S. U. and O. U. would come out in Mae H's mind. However we are exceedingly sorry to say that O. S. U. has won—at least Alta has taken Mae's place in O. U.'s affection.

H. McDermott—"I wish I had enough handkerchiefs so I wouldn't have to save 'em for Sunday."

Pretty Maid—"Oh! Do as I do, borrow them from Burt."

In honor of their friend, Miss Dorothy Sprengle, the Black girls treated their friends to Colorado Easter Saturday evening. The Comb Band, with a violin obligato under direction of Lacy Blackmore, furnished much amusement. Also Mrs. Annie Beegle's rendition of Uncle "Ep from up Kintry," again brought peals of laughter from her auditors.

It is reported that Edna Miller, having taken a course in kindergarten work last Saturday night, is now ready to give instruction to anyone in that branch. Course open to high-schoolers or preps.

Mrs. Frank Lee Speaks.

Mrs. Frank Lee of Westerville spoke to the Young Women's Christian Association girl last Tuesday evening. Her talk concerned questions of live interest to the girls. This was followed by a few remarks by the leader, Miss Helen Ensor, who announced the mission study books for the second semester.

Have You Read All the Ads in this paper ... ...

BECAUSE of the MERIT
And because of our "Expert Foot Fitting Service," there are more Walk-Overs sold in Columbus than any other one kind of shoes.

For Men and Women ................. $3.50 to $7

Walk-Over Shoe Co.
39 North High Street
COLUMBUS, OHIO

House Cleaning Time
Is here. Let me clean your rugs, carpets, etc. with my
High Suction Vacuum Cleaner
Prices Reasonable—Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Clark O. Bender, 81 W. College Avenue

Mrs. Frank Lee Speaks.

Mrs. Frank Lee of Westerville spoke to the Young Women's Christian Association girl last Tuesday evening. Her talk concerned questions of live interest to the girls. This was followed by a few remarks by the leader, Miss Helen Ensor, who announced the mission study books for the second semester.
LOCALS.

The following Otterbein students followed the team to Dayton and were present at the St. Mary's game Thursday night: O. H. Frank, H. E. Michael, L. J. Michael, W. M. Comfort, H. D. Cassel, and W. L. Davis.

C. L. Booth spent the week-end with his parents in Canton.

W. R. Huber spent the week-end at his home in Dayton.

Cleorheta reports a very interesting and profitable extemporaneous session last Thursday evening.

Many took advantage of the holiday last Tuesday to take long walks into the surrounding country.

Brane Dry Goods company has been awarded the contract for furnishing the carpet for the new U. B. church. The new carpet will be lion velvet of two shades of green.

The art glass windows have been accepted by the trustees, after some changes have been made in the designs. The designer for the Chicago firm came to Westerville and rejected some of the windows, thus meeting the approval of the trustees. Workers are sanding the floors, one of the finishing touches on the building. Power has been installed and the heating and ventilating system is in working order. The tile floors are being laid in the vestibule. Dedication day will be April 15.

Let us send you our SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL PROSPECTUS. It tells of a service very profitable to teachers. Central Teachers' Agency, 20 E. Gay St., Columbus, Ohio.

O. H. Frank and L. J. Michael spent the week-end at the home of the former, at Lewisburg.

Elmo Lingrel spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in West Mansfield.

John Hendrix of "State" was in Westerville Sunday.

H. D. Cassel, Herman Michael and "Deacon" Davis were at home for the week-end, going Thursday to attend the game.

W. I. Comfort left Thursday for his home in Libaca. He reports the town to be as peaceful as ever.

Dr. T. J. Sanders and F. P. Sanders were called to Medina by the death of their brother, John W. Sanders, Feb. 19. He suffered from pneumonia. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Sanders returned home Wednesday, his brother remaining at his late brother's home for a few days.

Y. M. C. A. Notice.

On Thursday evening the Mission Study Rally will be held. The Missionary Committee of which G. T. Rosselot is chairman will have charge of the meeting.

Subscribe for the Otterbein Review.

Initials Carved Years Ago
By Otterbein Graduate Found.

While Franklin W. Harris, of 44 West Home street, was cutting up an apple tree Saturday, he discovered that he had squarely hit the grain of the wood upon which the initials of "H. R. J." had been carved many years ago. They were very light, though they were buried three inches deep. The wood around the letters had not discolored. The initials immediately pointed to Hulda R. Jones, of Westerville, who is consul in the office of the attorney general of Ohio. Mr. Jones called at Public Opinion office Tuesday morning and took a look at the two pieces of apple wood. He said that he had lived in that house on West Home street some thirty years ago, when he was then a young boy. "It is very probable that I cut those letters and it is also probable that if you were to cut down some more trees around there you would find more. I dimly remember cutting my initials in that tree." To have done this artistic piece of carving, Mr. Jones must have climbed the tree, because the place containing the initials was fifteen feet from the ground. The remarkable feature of the whole thing is that Mr. Harris just happened to hit the right place with his ax. The curiosity may be seen at Public Opinion office.

Morrison Publishes Poems—Many Relate to Otterbein.

J. L. Morrison has just received from the printers a book of poems, written by him during his many useful years of life. It is a book of some fifty poems, whose themes cover a wide range of subjects.

Some are deeply religious, some deal with memories of past associations with comrades of the civil war, and others with those of Otterbein university, in which Mr. Morrison is deeply interested. One is dedicated to his wife, who died a few years ago, another to Rev. J. G. Bldzdown and one to the Otterbein Argus. One tells of a "W. R. C. Dinner." Many are songs used in temperance movements, such as "Song Used in the Murphy Temperance Movement" and "Saloons Will Have to Go." Several verses are dedicated to Lylie McMillan, for many years the college janitor. Opposite this is "The Old College Bell." One of the most interesting in the book is entitled "The Old Postoffice." This was written shortly after its removal to its present quarters.

Miss Marie Wagner entertained on Friday afternoon from two till five in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peden, at their home 193 Hamilton ave., in the way of a miscellaneous shower. The parlors were beautifully decorated in pink and white. Pink and white candles gave a soft mellow light as the bride opened her many handsome presents before about thirty-five guests. One unique feature of the afternoon was that of piercing cupid's heart with darts, the honor of being the next bride fell to Miss Hilda Bauer, of Abner.

The following Otterbein students attended the Varsity game:

H. D. Cassel, Herman Michael and O. H. Frank.

We just received large shipment of German-town yarn for those HUG-ME-TIGHTS.