DEDICATION PLANS MADE

Leading Men of Denomination to Speak—Special Music Planned—Furnishings Being Installed.

bishop G. M. Mathews, D. D., LL. D. of Dayton will deliver the sermon at the morning service at the new Otterbein church on dedication day, Sunday, April 30. In the afternoon a fraternal service will be held at which time addresses will be made by Rev. J. B. Hawk, Ph. D., minister of the Methodist Episcopal church of Westerville, Rev. R. A. Hitt, D. D., superintendent of the Southeast Ohio Conference and Rev. W. G. Stiverson of Columbus, Rev. S. F. Daugherty, D. D. of Ashtown, Pennsylvania will preach at the evening service at which time Bishop Mathews will officiate at the dedication ceremony.

Special music of a very elaborate character will be prepared by a choir of sixty voices under the direction of Professor John A. Bendigser. At the morning service they will give the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the Messiah" by Handel. The anthem in the afternoon will be "Undefold, Ye Fartals" from "The Redemption" by Gounod. The "Gloria" from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass" will be given at sight. Miss Mary Weinland and Frank J. Resler will sing a duet "The Lord is My Light" at the morning worship. Mr. Resler will sing a solo "Come unto Me" by Camden in the evening, Mrs. Resler will be at the organ for both of these numbers.

The church is rapidly nearing completion. During the past week the seats have been received. These are being installed together with the other furniture of the pulpit and vestibules. The beautiful Estey pipe organ the gift of Joseph Knox of Columbus in memory of his father John Knox is completely installed and inspected. Professor Grabill is using the organ daily in preparation for the dedication services. The furnishings for the basement are all ready for use.

On the outside, the grading of the lot is being finished and the cement work will be done during the coming week. The structure presents a very beautiful appearance with its pleasing lines which blend so well with the Carnegie Library building.

Bird Expert Will Lecture.

Henry Oldys of Washington, D. C. last spring of the United States Department of Agriculture will lecture on Birds and Bird Music in the college chapel at 8:10 on Wednesday evening. Mr. Oldys is in the employ of the Cleveland Bird Land Bird Lovers Association. His lectures are free to all who attend. He speaks particularly in reference to the common wild birds. With his lecture he will show illustrations of birds and give whistled reproductions of bird songs.

PROTECTIVE SENSORS

Tennis Season to Open With Ohio State Tomorrow—Girls Will Play Tournament.

Unusual interest is being shown in tennis at Otterbein this spring. The old courts have been greatly improved so that practices have been much faster. In the next two weeks several new courts will be made on the old baseball diamond for the new field to be rapidly being worked up for use. With these new courts the majority of students will have opportunity to play at any time. These courts have been made possible by the Ham Bone Minist. Show held last fall.

For the girls an elimination tournament will be held. This proposition is being handled through the Cochran Hall association. To the winner a handsome silver loving cup will be offered.

Otterbein's varsity team will be strong this year. Bereow, the one-time squash captain, has been playing a fast game in the singles. Ross has been working with him in the doubles. Resler, a local lad, plays a fast and consistent game, his baffling service being especially effective.

Manager H. D. Bereow has completed the following schedule with some of the strongest teams in the state:

April 18—Ohio State at Columbus.
April 19—Carnegie at Westerville.
April 20—Ohio Northern at Ada.
May 13—Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware.
May 19—Ohio Wesleyan at Westerville.
June 3—Wooster at Westerville.
June 9—Capital at Columbus.
June 10—Assumption at Springfield.
June 13—Grace at Westerville.

Classes Will Contest for Track Supremacy Tomorrow.

Tuesday at three o'clock, the annual inter-class track meet will be staged on the old athletic field. Every prize of good sport is expected to be out. The various classes have some mighty good material in good form and every chance that the competition will be keen. This is to be done to discover new material and to give some classes a better chance.

Work has already been done to put the track in shape and some fast time should be registered. Any record, that is broken in this meet will stand as the college's best and will be recognized. No fear has been expressed as to breaking any running record as yet; but the discuss record may go.

Spirit is running high and every loyal member should be out to do his bit for the honor of his class.

Franklin Blue of Sidney was in Westerville, visiting friends Monday and Tuesday. He is a prospective member and expects to enter O. U. next fall.
ASSOCIATION MAKES GAINS

Religious Work Among the Men Interests Many—Finances Short—
Cabinet is Faithful.

(By E. L. Boyles.)

Another year of the Y. M. C. A. work is now a matter of history. As every other administration we had visions and plans in our minds, in many ways we have fallen far short of our hopes but we feel that our ideals were high and that in a measure we have been of service as an association to the student body, the faculty, the town and to our Heavenly Father.

At the beginning of the year a whirlwind campaign for membership was carried out under the direction of the membership committee. As was the case last year only paid-up members are considered members. A follow-up campaign resulted in the securing of a goodly number of additional members.

In the weekly meetings a decided turn for the better was brought about through the efficient and commendable work of the religious meetings committee. The average attendance was greatly increased due in a large measure to the varied and interesting meetings arranged for by this committee. Subjects of especial and vital interest were presented. These subjects covered a field broad enough to interest every man in school. Among the most notable and inspirational meetings were those led by students.

Because of the strained circumstances in which we found ourselves financially, we were permitted to enjoy only a very limited number of “teed” nevertheless the social committee deserves the highest commendation for the democratic spirit they maintained about the campus.

Under the supervision of the house committee, a cabinet was installed in which to keep the records and property of the Association. Electric lights were also installed in the main auditorium. Special music was provided at times by the music committee. This is one phase of the work that we feel has been neglected somewhat and ought to be greatly strengthened.

The handbook committee presented each of the new students a very acceptable and useful handbook at the opening of school last fall. The chairman of the employment committee dropped out of school for one semester necessitating a new man. After the position was finally filled and the work understood the efficiency of this department raised rapidly. About $6200 was earned during the year by the fellows who worked.

The deputation committee was able to supply gospel teams every time a call was received. A number of such teams consisting of from four to twelve individuals were sent out at various times. In every case they did themselves credit. Effort was made to interest the high school boys and the men of the Anti-Saloon League in the Y. M. C. A. but nothing definite could be worked out.

Baseball Rally Big Success—Students Surprised, Not Defeated.

Last Friday morning the freshmen and sophomores agreed to collect bonfire material for the baseball rally in the evening. During the afternoon representatives of both classes worked hard and hauled five large wagon loads of wood to the new athletic field. To insure a mighty flame, forty gallons of oil were purchased and concealed near the wood. According to statements made by some of the unhappy committee, this collection would not have made the largest fire in the history of the school.

About half an hour before the literary activities were adjourned a see small flame started to play at the base of this hard worked for heap of material. Soon the pile became a scorching mass and in a short time melted to a few smoking embers. When the "world's best" guatape arrived a small boy was seen making rapid footprints in the sand of a distant field. Determined not to be fooled all the classmen soon gathered two more loads and the oil was poured on. The leaping flames adequately illuminated the bands and various "pep" speakers. The rally was supponed a grand success.

Submarines and Aeroplanes

Discussed by Lois Neibel.

"Aeroplanes and Submarines" was the subject of the Y. W. C. A. meeting which Lois Neibel led. That we dwell in the depths, like submarines, with exceedingly low standards of living is most evident and the leader urged that with our abundant opportunities we should emerge from these depths and live in the heights of aeroplanes. They are so far above the common things which annoy and vex us every day that they may be compared to our ideals which we are constantly striving to make real. Like aeroplanes, too, which need steady propellor to guide them smoothly through the air, we need Christ in our lives, with one whom we are able to accomplish nothing. As college women we should all live in aeroplanes, not that poorly constructed kind which are soon dashed to pieces, but the firm, substantial sort, from whose heights we may see the many people less fortunate than we who need our help.

Battery Goes to Columbus.

Today Minghenk, Wood, Lingrel, Haller and Fletcher are in Columbus working out with Hills'witt's Association batteries. Manager "Bobby" Quinn of the Senators has kindly consented to do his best with the Ohio boys and much good should be derived.

It is really surprising what names some of our seniors have earned for themselves here. From the splendid recommendations a number of them have received we wonder what the school will do next year without our gentle dispositions, strong inclinations for study and qualities of leadership.

E D I T O R I A L S

Teaching is to be judged by the condition of mind it produces in the learner. It produces a devouring eagerness, independent judgment, accuracy and rapidity in doing the work and a becoming modesty, it is good teaching, however done.

James M. Greenwood.

The Church and the War.

Peace! Peace! Peace! That is the eternal cry of America. Everyone is worn out with war. The newspapers are no longer featuring it as they did. Our citizenship is disgusted with the blinding fog of the European monarchs about the business of useless power. We can hear in every pulpit, upon every lecture platform, the weary of war. The newspapers with money and enthusiasm which they have at their disposal have purchased this feature. Not one of us can escape the responsibility.

If you are an alumnus join the club, interest others in Otterbein and stand by the spirit which has so long endured such relations. Students who urge us to support the system, the men in charge and the alumni to interest others in Otterbein.

Banquet Dates.

It is too bad that conditions are as they are for the class banquet which is to be held next week. Because we stated in last week's column that it is understood that the same applies to the class function just passed. In the first place it is unfortunate that there are not enough fellows in these classes to make it possible for all to have partners. Because of this circumstance there are necessarily some fellows who would be left out.

But even then there are some fellows who are so slow, bashful, green — we can go further for the words would not look well in print — that they have not found a girl for these school affairs. We didn't stop saying mean things about them for fear of hurting their feelings. You fellows come around privately and tell us just what we think, for really these words are music to our soul when just provoked as we are now while writing this.

New, girls, we don't expect this will help the situation, for nothing can help these fellows. But here is something that will show up these uptight individuals in grand style. Put on your very best gown, curl your hair and even put on a little powder if you think you look better with it on, gather some spring flowers to wear and come to that banquet. Every girl should be there. If you hesitate to come alone get together and just have one grand time while that good partner stands outside and peeps in at the windows. We are certain that you will have a grand time, to tell the truth a better time than we would have with any of our girls. This is a good-for-nothing fellow, and those who little and sneaking the outlookers will feel.

Girls' Issue.

Not that we are tired of the work or do we want a rest but just on general principals we are arranging for the girls to publish The Otterbein Review sometime during the month of May. From securing advertising to the writing of editorials the girls will be in complete charge. They will select their own staffs of editors and choose the ball players and of writing the poems and the articles served them in Cochran Hall. We are looking forward with keen delight to this great opportunity to do that all our readers will enjoy and read it with profit.

For a change we have a chance so try ourselves on writing up a history. We had just about exhausted our line on defeats. We have an end of the season and we need some copy so keep up the good work.

Students hailling from Dayton and the fertile Miami Valley need a good injection of spirit. The banquet next Monday promises to be a big one. Some matters of vital importance to both the students will come up. Every one should be present.

For years there has been no trouble between the college students and the town boys but it is never too late to start something. The kindling of the bonfire last Friday night by some outsiders is a thing which should not be tolerated by the college men.

Columbus Paper Comments Proxy.

President Clippinger addressed the men at a Noon Lenten meeting in Columbus on April 8. The following is an editorial taken from the Ohio State Journal of Sunday, April 9.

Twelfth Annual Meeting.

Dr. W. G. Clippinger was the speaker yesterday. He is a pleasant and powerful orator and everything he says reaches the standard of plain, common sense. His subject was: What is Religion? He answered the question in all its aspects in a manner that impressed all hearers. He commanded the attention from first to last. It is impossible to give even a meager report of his address, it was so full of good points and every point was as practical as everyday experience. He certainly commended religion to his audience, and it was the real kind, not the formal and buby sort that resulted in passing circumstances, but the real kind, that constituted the character of the man himself. There was applause at the close of it, the first applause that had been awakened during the noon meetings.

The Birds.

I love the birds at my window, I wake with their morning song; They are always bright and happy And are busy all day long.

I love to look at the pretty things With glee and gay, I love to watch their moving wings As up in the air they fly; But better still is their music As they sing a lullaby.

I love to watch them building Their home in bush and tree; As they carry bits of straw and mud And place them carefully.

I love to see the tiny eggs The mother keeps so well, And when they come I'm gladder than I can tell.

And I like to think that the Father, Who notes the sparrow's fall, Loves both the birds and the children And watches over all.

OPENING GAME

Batter were out in one, two, three home with a goose egg. Pitching like a veteran John Joy filled the big wizard of Otterbein's play. No time aid the player let up their loose control is phenomenal and every one has confidence in his ability. "Buck" Hallor showed real catching ability, using good judgment all times and pegging between innings so that not a Northern man felt safe to steal. Ream played well in the field, bringing many a cheer, by a hair-raising play. In fact the entire team played beyond criticism and fond hopes pervade.

ALUMNALS.

'14. Friends of Mrs. J. R. Miller (Hazel Garver) are pleased to see her out again after several weeks of confinement to her home.

'09. Miss Lela Guiter, acting religious work director of the Y. W. C. A., Dayton, Ohio, spent a few days during the past week at her home on College avenue.

Ex '17. Don H. Davis visited friends in Westerville last Friday and Saturday. He is a junior in Ohio State this year.

'09. J. H. Franks, Superintendent of the Los Angeles public schools, will address the Columbus Home and School Association at its annual meeting the 15th part of May.

'77. Mr. E. L. Siney, Dayton, has been teacher of the Young Men's Sunday school class of the First Church for forty years. On April second the anniversary of the beginning of this service was celebrated fittingly at the Church. More than ninety guests were present in response to invitations sent out to former members of the class.

Ex '09. Frederick G. Bale, attorney of Canton, Ohio, who is devoting his time to anti-Balhun League work, represented that organization in one of the Dayton churches last Sunday, Mr. Bale is making good in the temperance work.

Dr. E. C. Worman and wife (Emma Guiter, '01) arrived at the Guiter home last Friday morning. They left Madras, India on February 26th and after spending a week in Shanghai, China, reached Vancouver, British Columbia a week ago last Saturday. While passing through Japan they called on Mr. and Mrs. Kraeck Shibley (Grace Reynolds), '08 and '06, who are engaged in Missionary Work at Kobe. Mr. Worman is Student Secretary for the Y. M. C. A. in India.

'05. The First Church of Dayton has taken Rev. E. H. Harsh as their missionary pastor. Rev. J. G. Huber, '98, is the pastor of this Church.

'14. J. R. Miller, who is teaching at Huntington, W. Va., spent the week-end in Westerville.

'11. Professor John F. Williamson had charge of a Concert at Memorial Hall in Dayton on April seventh. One of Professor Williamson's pupils, Hilbert Kraeck, so distinguished himself as a tenor soloist that Madam Schumann-Heink volunteered to give a benefit concert for him, free of expense, on the night of May 25th. Mr. Kraeck is only nineteen years old.

'72. Mrs. L. R. Harford (Lillian A. Reeler) of Omaha, Nebraska is spending a few days at the Reeler home on Grove street. Mrs. Harford is president of the Young Woman's Missionary Association of the United Brethren Church. She has been attending the meeting of the board of trustees at Dayton during the past week, from which place she comes to Westerville to visit her brother. Mrs. Harford is also the national president of the Young Women's Christian Association.

'18. Wade G. Daub recently invented and secured a patent on a grain harvesting machine, which is designed to cut and gather the standing grain and form same into a shock. When this shock is large enough it is properly cast upon the ground. This style of machine has been the source of much invention.

'18. Roy L. Harkin is a visitor in Westerville to-day.

COCHRAN NOTES.

Dr. Sherrick was Catherine Wall's Sunday dinner guest.

What fellow in school wouldn't be smart if eighty girls should rush after him to raise a "racket." Such will be the case if any fellow is seen loitering on Cochran Hall Tennis Court. At a meeting of the girls last Friday it was decided to form a Cochran Hall Tennis Club. The handicap system was ruled out and the straight tournament system was voted in. Not a girl in the Hall will be allowed to complain if she hears alarms and footfalls at 5:30 in the morning for every girl is expected to try out for both the singles and the doubles.

An unsolvable mystery! Why do Ruth Kirkpatrick and Lucille McCulloch always leave a week before vacation? The supposition is that there must be some special attraction at home.

Wanted—Position as first-class caterers. Inquire at Room 8, Second Floor.

"Bib's" push was a howling success with such a "howling success" that "Bib" was called up the next day. "Posse Bib," it is hard to be responsible for the noise of a roomful of girls.

Lydia Garver was called home on account of the death of her brother.

Spring house-cleaning time is here! Mr. Bender will make your rugs look like new ones with his vacuum cleaner. Glee Coppock and Helen Byrer will make looking glasses out of your windows.

Gail Williamson returned last evening. She attended the funeral services of her grandmother.

Garvers Give Peal of Bells As Memorial to Deceased Son.

Upon the death of their youngest son, Herbert, last Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Garver of Strasburg arranged to give a peal of bells to the New United Brethren church of Westerville. Mr. Garver has been a member of the board of trustees of Otterbein for a number of years and has long been a staunch friend of the institution. Four of the Garver children have come to Otterbein, Mary having graduated last June, Lydia a member of the class of 1916 and John a junior. Paul, a boy of 14 has already imbued the college spirit by his visits here at commencement times. Mr. and Mrs. Garver place these bells in the church as a memorial to their deceased son, Herbert.

Glee Club Concert Postponed.

Complicated circumstances in the glee club necessitated a change in the date of the home concert. It was found that the special features could not be prepared for the date to be announced. The time for the concert has not been definitely decided upon yet. It will be arranged so that the program will be given early in May.

Mrs. Cochran to Entertain.

All the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church are to be the guests of Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran at her home in Dawson, Pennsylvania at a reception on Wednesday, April 22. At this time the bishops are holding their semi-annual meeting. President and Mrs. W. G. Clippinger have received an invitation to this reception.

Try outs for parts in the senior play are being held today instead of on last Wednesday as previously announced.

Dayton Otterbeinites Will Banquet Next Monday Night.

Dayton alumni, students and friends are planning a great banquet and get-together, meeting on Monday night, April 21, at the Rike-Kumler banquet hall. C. W. Plessinger, '06, superintendent of school in West Carrollton, Ohio, will act as toastmaster. Mr. A. T. Howard, '96, Richard C. Kummer, '94, and T. H. Nelson, '13, will speak. Miss Marie Siddall, '14, and Homer D. Cassell, '15, will represent the students. President Clippinger will be in attendance and will be on the program.

A large number are expected to be present at this banquet. The president and secretary of the Miami Valley Alumni Association are making every effort that a large number of the graduates be there. It is hoped that some college spirit can be set loose at this time and that the Dayton people as a whole be stirred up with a greater interest in Otterbein.
