OTTERBEIN PROFILE

The College

Founded in 1847, Otterbein is a private, independent, co-educational four-year liberal arts college affiliated with the United Methodist Church.

Location

Westerville, Ohio, a suburb of the state capital of Columbus.

Majors and Degrees

The Bachelor of Arts degree is offered in accounting, business administration, business/organizational communications, chemistry, computer science, economics, English, equine science, French, health education, history, home economics, interior decorating, international relations, journalism, life science, mathematics, music, philosophy, physical education, physics, political science, psychology, public relations, religion, sociology, Spanish, speech communication, theatre, and visual arts. The Bachelor of Science degree is offered in accounting, business administration, chemistry, computer science, equine science, life science, mathematics, physics, and psychology. The Bachelor of Fine Arts is offered in theatre, with concentrations in acting/ directing and design/technical programs. The Bachelor of Music Education is awarded to students preparing for teaching careers in music. The Bachelor of Science in Education is awarded in elementary education. The College also offers the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. Pre-professional programs are offered in dentistry, engineering, law, medicine, optometry, and veterinary medicine. In addition, master's degrees in education and business administration are offered in cooperation with two other Ohio institutions.

The Campus

Otterbein's 70-acre campus includes 25 buildings. The Courtright Memorial Library houses more than 150,000 volumes and 890 periodicals, as well as an outstanding modern learning resource center and television studio. McFadden Science Hall and Schear Science Hall have modern laboratories and classrooms as well as the newly-renovated planetarium and observatory. Cowan Hall houses theatre and speech facilities, including a newly-constructed scene shop and WOBN-FM, the campus radio station. The recently-renovated Battelle Fine Arts Center is the home for programs in music, art and dance. Historic Towers Hall houses classrooms as well as the modern Battelle Computer Center. The modern Rike Physical Education-Recreation Center houses men's and women's athletic and physical education facilities and offices.

Students

Approximately 2,000 men and women from throughout Ohio, surrounding states and several foreign countries attend Otterbein, including approximately 700 adult students in day, evening and weekend classes.

Faculty

Otterbein's student-faculty ratio of 13 to one offers students the opportunity to receive personalized attention from their instructors. Approximately 51 percent of the full-time faculty hold doctorates or appropriate terminal degrees. Professors are active in campus affairs, serve as advisers to students, and participate in a unique sabbatical program to research and study recent developments in their fields.

Athletics

Men and women compete in the Ohio Athletic Conference, NCAA Division III. There are eight varsity sports for men and seven for women. A complete intramural program is available to all students.

Fraternities and Sororities

Nearly 50 percent of Otterbein students participate in the six fraternities and five sororities on campus.

The Arts

Professional training programs are available in music, theatre, dance, and visual arts, with numerous cultural events free to students, including a professional Artist Series, music department events (orchestra, opera, band, choir concerts), visual arts exhibits of student and professional works, and the widely-recognized Otterbein College Theatre, with winter and summer seasons.

Off-Campus Programs

A variety of off-campus programs are available, including foreign language study in Dijon, France and Segovia, Spain. Semester at Sea, a shipboard-campus program offered in cooperation with the University of Pittsburgh, enables students to take a variety of liberal arts courses while on cruise. The McCurdy Schools Plan offers juniors in elementary and secondary education a term of study in Española, New Mexico. Study opportunities also exist with the Washington Semester Plan, operated through the American University in Washington, D.C., and the Philadelphia Semester Program, operated through a consortium of universities in the Philadelphia area. Army, Navy and Air Force ROTC is offered in conjunction with The Ohio State University. Internships provide experience in a student's chosen career field.

Costs

1987-88 annual tuition is $7,656. Room and board for one year is $3,036.

PRESIDENT

Message from C. Brent DeVore

Otterbein College has a proud tradition of athletic and academic excellence. A member of the Ohio Athletic Conference, we field men's teams in football, cross country, soccer, basketball, indoor and outdoor track, baseball, tennis and golf. Women compete intercollegiately in volleyball, cross country, soccer, basketball, indoor and outdoor track, tennis and softball. This year we will be defending conference championships in men's basketball and men's cross country.

From the beginning of our intercollegiate competition at the turn of the century to today, our mission has been to balance academics and athletic competition. Our commitment has been to the whole person, both in and out of the classroom. Our coaches are teachers first, mentors making deep and lasting impressions on their students.

While the drive to win is important, our real commitment lies in developing leadership traits and the competitive spirit, which will aid our scholar athletes during their lives after Otterbein.

On behalf of Otterbein's faculty, students and administration, we thank you for your support of Otterbein's athletic programs in 1987-88 and for your continuing involvement in their successes.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

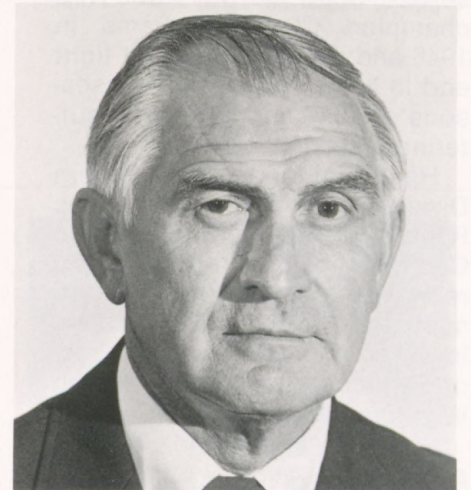

E. W. "Bud" Yoest

Under the direction of athletic director, E. W. "Bud" Yoest, Otterbein's men's athletic programs have grown in size and scope and gained national recognition.

In fact, since Yoest took charge in 1974, six of the nine men's athletic programs have turned in cumulative winning percentages of more than .500 and 31 student athletes in five intercollegiate sports have been named All-America. The Otterbein baseball and basketball teams have reached the national finals and semi-finals respectively.

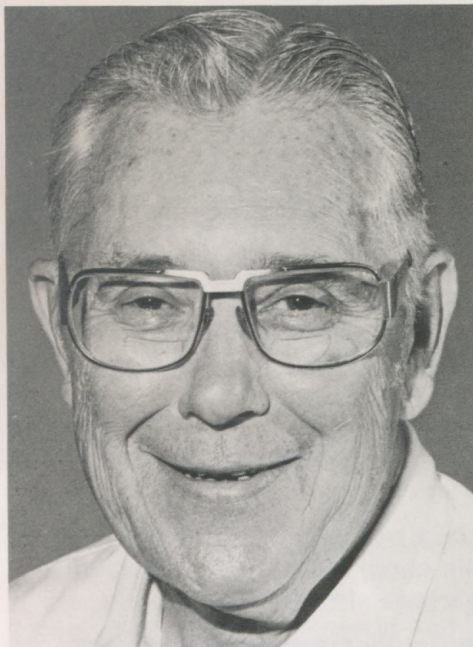

A 1953 graduate of Otterbein, Yoest started his career at Mifflin High School in Columbus serving as a physical education instructor and football coach. Returning to Westerville in 1956, he joined the Cardinal staff as head track coach and an assistant football coach. Yoest's Otterbein track teams compiled a 133-73 record over 18 years. During this time, he coached 156 All-OAC athletes and nine NCAA All-Americans.

A professor in men's health and physical education, Yoest serves as the department's chairperson, continuing to teach as well as supervise the academic and athletic programs.

BOB SHAW

OTTERBEIN HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Bob Shaw enters his third season as head coach of the Otterbein Cardinals.

The 1943 All-America tight end brings more than 35 years of professional playing and coaching experience to his task of rebuilding the Otterbein football program, which labored through a 1-19 record during Shaw's first two seasons at the helm. Shaw served as the team's defensive coordinator from 1981 prior to taking over the head coaching duties from Rich Seils shortly before the start of the 1985 season.

The 64-year-old Shaw, a native of Richwood, Ohio, began his football career at The Ohio State University in 1941. He played three years at tight end, earning all-conference honors in 1942 and 1943. He was named Associated Press All-America in 1943.

After a two-year stint in the service, Shaw played for the NFL champion Cleveland Rams in 1945 and was their starting tight end in 1946. He sat out the seasons of 1947 and 1948 after suffering a cervical fracture.

He played for the NFL Western Division champion Los Angeles Rams in 1949. With the Chicago Cardinals in 1950 he set an NFL record for most touchdown receptions in one game by catching five scoring passes. The record, which he shares with Kellen Winslow, still stands today.

Shaw left the NFL in 1951 and played three years with the Calgary Stampeders (1951-52) and the Toronto Argonauts (1953) in the Canadian Football League (CFL). At Calgary, Shaw set a CFL scoring record of 110 points in 1951.

While playing in the CFL, Shaw spent one semester a year at Otterbein and earned a bachelor of science degree in education in 1952.

Shaw spent the next three years as head football coach at high schools in Washington Court House and Cuyahoga Falls before entering the professional coaching ranks in 1957 when he was an assistant coach under Hall of Fame coach Weeb Eubank at Baltimore. After two years as receiver coach at Baltimore, Shaw went to San Francisco in 1959.

He left the NFL in 1960 and became director of athletics at the New Mexico Military Institute, a two-year junior college located in Roswell. Shaw also served as the college's head football and basketball coach and was the one who introduced the pro offense to Roger Staubach, quarterback of Shaw's 9-1 team in 1960. Shaw compiled a 22-6-1 record in football in three years at the institute.

In 1963, Shaw returned to professional football, this time seeking head coaching experience in the CFL. He spent four years at Saskatchewan (1963-64) and Toronto (1965-66) before returning to the NFL in 1967.

He spent the next nine years as pass offensive coach for New Orleans (1967-68), Chicago (1969-71) and Buffalo (1972-75). In his 12 years as an assistant coach in the NFL, Shaw worked with such standout receivers as Dan Abramowicz, Ahmad Rashad, Raymond Berry, Harlon Hill, Billy Wilson and Dick Gordon; and quarterbacks Johnny Unitas and Y. A. Tittle.

Unable to nail down an NFL head coaching assignment, Shaw went back to the CFL as head coach and general manager of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats from 1976-77. He was named CFL Coach of the Year in 1976 when the Tiger-Cats made it into the Eastern Conference finals. Shaw relinquished his head coaching duties in 1978 and continued to serve as general manager. In six seasons as head coach in the CFL, he compiled a 39-54-2 record.

Shaw joined the Otterbein Health and Physical Education Department in 1981.

He and his wife, Mary, live in Westerville and have two children, Webb, 36, and Amy, 28.

1987 RETURNING LETTERMEN

PAT ARCHER

TB 6-0 175 So.
LaGrange (Keystone)
Business Administration

Could become one of the better running backs in Otterbein's history... Return specialist last fall, scoring on an 89-yard punt return (stadium record) at Baldwin-Wallace while maintaining a 10.5/yard average on 15 punt returns and 19.7 yard average on 15 kickoff returns... Rushed for 33 yards on ten carries and caught four passes for 69 yards in '86.

DAVE BORROR

DT 6-0 215 Jr.
Columbus (Centennial)
Math/Physics

One of seven returning starters on defense... "Has been a very consistent performer," Shaw said... A good nose for the ball, Dave, along with Joe Spahr, led the team with four fumble recoveries each last year... Collected 42 tackles, 20 unassisted in '86... A two-year letterman, enjoys fishing, swimming and weight lifting.

ROB BOWMAN

WR 6-1 180 Sr.
Mansfield (Lexington)
Business Administration

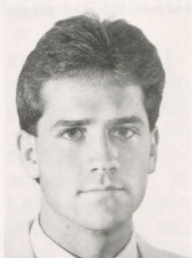

One of nine returning starters on offense... Fourth-leading receiver on the '86 squad with 12 catches, including one touchdown against Marietta, for 161 yards... Has a career 18 catches for 237 yards... A two-year letterman.

JEFF BOYD

QB 6-2 175 So.
Gahanna (Lincoln)
Physical Education

Saw action in five games last season and started at quarterback in the final two games... Possessed the best completion percentage, 44.1, among the three freshmen quarterbacks, hitting 30 of 68 attempts for 343 yards and two touchdowns... Threw a team low three interceptions... Best game was 214 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass, in a 16-9 loss to Muskingum... "Has inherited the number one quarterback spot," Shaw said... "It's his job to lose."

BILL CRUM

C 5-11 190 Sr.
Crestline (Crestline)

JAY NEWSOME

DB 6-1 185 So.
Springfield (Shawnee)
Business Administration

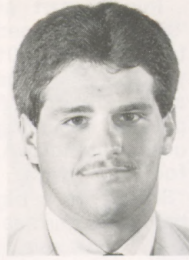

Penciled in as one of three new starters in the defensive backfield... "Especially if he comes back the way he ended last year," Shaw said... Collected 11 tackles, five solos, in '86... Greatest football thrill was starting against Wittenberg, which pitted him against several of his home town friends.

RANDY NORMAN

DE 6-2 205 Jr.
West Lafayette (Ridgewood)
Health & Physical Education

A two-year letterman and returning starter at defensive end, racked up 54 tackles, 35 unassisted, and recovered three fumbles last year... "He's gotten bigger, stronger and should be devastating this year," Shaw said... Greatest football moment was blitzing Capital's quarterback, which resulted in a mid-air somersault last season.

TED PAXTON

FB 6-1 228 Sr.
Columbus (Westerville South)
English

Has all the tools to become an outstanding fullback... Academically a senior, begins only his second season in football... Hampered with nagging injuries early in '86, rushed for 31 yards on 14 carries and caught 15 passes for 148 yards... A good blocker and a two-time conference champion in the discus... Selected first team academic all-conference... Seeking to become a successful writer and, possibly, work with the C.I.A.

JIM PHILIBIN

LB 6-1 205 So.
Columbus (Beechcroft)
Business Administration

A linebacker on a team with four experienced returning linebackers... "We're trying to find a spot for him where he can be a starter," Shaw said... Saw a great deal of playing time in '86, recording 55 tackles, 32 unassisted, and two fumble recoveries... Enjoys recreational sports, drawing and writing.

MARK ASHER (Emporia State '78) Defensive Secondary

An all-conference two-year starter at linebacker at Emporia State, Asher began his football career at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas in 1973, earning the President's Trophy his sophomore season. He received a bachelor's degree in secondary education and coaching in 1978 from Emporia State, where he coached the defensive line in 1980 and 1981. Asher received a master's degree in physical education and coaching from Emporia in 1981. Coached tight ends at Ohio State in 1983 and 1984, outside linebackers at New Mexico State in 1985, and was defensive coordinator at Garden City Community College, Kansas, in 1982. He came to Otterbein in 1986 and is a member of the physical education faculty. A native of Wamego, Kan., Asher and his wife, Paty, live in Westerville.

Frank Howe (Ohio State '41) Linebackers

Howe brings 33 years of head coaching experience, almost all of it in the Columbus Public School system, to his first year at Otterbein. A recipient of numerous football awards, including the 1970 Buckeye Sideliners Woody Hayes Award, 1980 Columbus Citizen-Journal Coach of the Year Award and 1984 Buckeye Sideliners Outstanding High School Football Coach Award, Howe was installed in the Ohio High School Football Coaches Hall of Fame this year. He started the football program at Columbus Northland High School in 1966 where he taught biology and life science until retirement in 1984, producing nine division and five city championships there. Also served as head coach at Sunbury, Worthington, Reynoldsburg and Central High Schools, amassing a 177-116-11 career mark. Holds a bachelor's (1941) and master's (1957) degree in education from the Ohio State University. Frank and his wife, Virginia, live in Westerville and have two married daughters, Vicki and Linda, and six grandchildren.

Wiley Piazza (Southern Mississippi '74) Receivers

Piazza enters his second season as assistant football coach and head track coach. A member of the physical education faculty, he is completing his doctorate in physical education from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Piazza, a native of Vicksburg, Miss., received his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Southern Mississippi at Hattiesburg in 1974 and his master's degree, also in physical education, from the University of Texas at Tyler in 1977. He came to Otterbein from Wittenberg in 1986. Piazza and his wife, Peggy, live in Columbus.

Andy Powell (Ohio State '68) Offensive Line

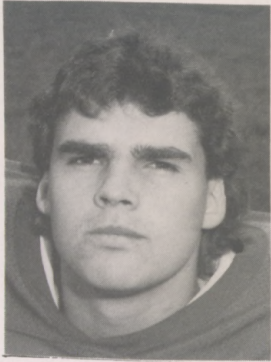

Powell, head football coach from 1976 to 1986 at Columbus Beechcroft High School, where he still teaches mathematics, begins his first season at Otterbein. Built the Beechcroft program, serving as its first head coach, and won the city league championship in 1981 and 1982. Advanced to the Division II State Playoffs in 1982. Selected Agonis Club Coach of the Year in 1978, 1979, 1981, and 1982. Previously at Columbus Walnut Ridge High School from 1968 to 1976, serving as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach. Served as head wrestling coach at both schools. Received his bachelor's (1968) and master's (1976) degrees in education from the Ohio State University. Powell and his wife, Diane, live in Westerville along with daughter, Alison, 12, and son, Jarrod, 10.

Dick Reynolds (Otterbein '65) Offensive Backs

Needs little introduction. Reynolds will begin his 16th season as head basketball coach at Otterbein this winter, sporting a 264-131 career record, which includes conference championships and NCAA tournament appearances in each of the last three seasons. A 1965 Otterbein graduate, Reynolds was a 12-time letterwinner in football, basketball and track. Was selected second team all-conference at defensive back in 1962 and was an honorable mention selection at quarterback in 1964. Dick and his wife, Ellen, have two children, Chad and Amanda, and live in Westerville. Chad, a sophomore, is a member of Otterbein's football and basketball teams.

CARDS RUNNING TO RESPECTABILITY

It was the best of defeats.

Sure, the Cardinals (0-2, 0-1) take a string of eight successive defeats into tonight's Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) matchup with Heidelberg (1-1, 0-0), but they also bring a ground attack—often sputtering in the past—which may have found new life in Otterbein's latest defeat.

The Cardinals, paced by freshman tailback Allen McIver, from Westerville, outrushed (184 yards to 153) two-time defending OAC champion Mount Union in last Saturday's 29-14 loss at home. The Purple Raiders led the conference in total defense and allowed a mere 92 rushing yards a game last season.

Otterbein head coach Bob Shaw, who entered the season with an improved running attack as a top priority, admits the running game was much better than in the season opening loss at Alma when the Cardinals could muster but 72 yards on the ground. "We've still got a long way to go on that yet," he said. "Hopefully, our offensive line got some confidence."

McIver, with 107 yards on 19 carries, became the first Otterbein back to go over 100 yards in a game since 1985 when starting tailback Tim Vorhees, then a freshman, rushed for 117 against Ohio Northern.

The turnaround couldn't come at a better time. Otterbein's next opponent, the Student Princes of Heidelberg, possess the second best defense against the rush in the OAC, holding opponents to 105 yards a game.

Heidelberg, under fourth-year head coach Dick West, entered the season in explosive fashion, racking up 517 yards in total offense in a 38-16 win over Anderson (Ind.) at home, but stumbled last Saturday, losing, 17-12, at Kalamazoo (Mich.).

The Student Princes have won the last three meetings with Otterbein, including a 22-14 decision in Tiffin last year. Otterbein's last victory over Heidelberg, 47-13, came in 1981.

Following Heidelberg, Otterbein travels to Ohio Northern (1-1, 1-0) next Saturday at 1:30 p.m. before homecoming Oct. 10 against cross-town rival Capital (0-0-2, 0-0-1).

CARDINAL NOTES

CARDINALS IMPROVING?—Slightly. The Cardinals are giving up less than last season, 298.5 yards in total defense compared to 369 yards while gaining less, 188.5 yards a game to 200.5. Otterbein is playing the same schedule as last year, in exact order, except the sites have been switched.

OTTERBEIN NOTABLES—McIver sits seventh in the OAC, averaging 70 yards a game on the ground despite three carries for 33 yards in the season opener at Alma. Junior punter Craig Sutherland, from Akron, leads the league with his 41.4-yard average. Starting tailback Tim Vorhees, a junior from Carroll, is tied for sixth place, averaging 4.0 receptions a game. Pat Archer, a sophomore from LaGrange, places fifth with a 6.6-yard punt return average.

HEIDELBERG GAME '86—Otterbein carried a 12-game losing streak into Tiffin last season and appeared on the verge of victory, taking a 14-6 lead into the fourth quarter. Heidelberg, however, mounted a comeback, scoring 16 points in the final quarter to win, 22-14. The Cardinals waited another week to give Shaw his first collegiate coaching victory, a 6-0 victory over Ohio Northern Oct. 4. The Cardinals have not won since.

HEIDELBERG NOTABLES—The Student Princes claim credit to the top two running backs in the OAC. Sophomore halfback Bryce Tuohy leads the league with 209 yards and three touchdowns on 24 carries while sophomore fullback Roger Bradley sits in second place, 188 yards and two touchdowns on 41 carries.

Otterbein "O" Club

Dwight "Smokey" Ballenger, President

For the past 32 years, the Otterbein "O" Club has provided financial and moral support to the Otterbein athletic program.

The "O" Club, with a membership of over 1,800, is made up of former Otterbein athletes, alumni, friends and local businessmen—all loyal Cardinal fans.

Dwight "Smokey" Ballenger, a 1939 Otterbein graduate and outstanding athlete in four sports, is one of the club's founders and has served as president over the past 28 years.

As president, Ballenger has supervised a great number of major projects, including the addition of lights, construction of an all-weather track and renovation of locker rooms at Memorial Stadium; construction of permanent dugouts and purchases of a tarp and scoreboard for the baseball field; purchases of a scoreboard and various equipment for the soccer field; and purchases of vans for athletic transportation as well as golf carts for trainers.

This past January, the club received a surprise gift of a motor coach from Mrs. Dorothy McVay. The 40-foot bus will be used by athletic teams and other college groups.

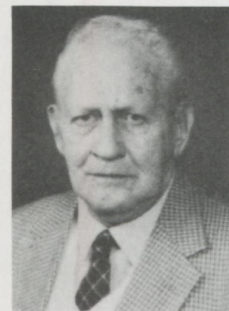

Each year the "O" Club holds summer golf outings in Dayton and Westerville. The golf outings, along with membership dues and other contributions, account for the majority of the club's annual income, which make the projects listed above possible.

The group also sponsors the two-day Otterbein "O" Club Basketball Classic, held in the Rike Center each December. The Classic, well supported by the Central Ohio community, is in its eighth year.

In 1981, under the chairmanship of Robert "Moe" Agler, the "O" Club established a foundation to provide continued financial support for the College's athletic programs. The foundation, with 186 members, designates the interest income produced from major gifts to athletic programs and projects, insuring a solid, progressive future for Otterbein athletics.

Other foundation officers, in addition to Ballenger and Agler, are Edwin Roush, E. W. "Bud" Yoest, Jack Groseclose and Francis Bailey.

OTTERBEIN MARCHING BAND

Whether Otterbein's bands are drumming up college spirit during a game or parade—or producing the pure entertainment and listening enjoyment of a concert—they are on the go representing the campus and performing at an exciting pace the school-year 'round.

This year, the Otterbein Marching Band, under the direction of Gary Tirey (associate professor of music and director of bands, shown right) has 120 members. Accenting band performances with spiffy style and synchronization are the "O" Squad dance drill team and Cardinal Guard flag corps.

Two drum majors provide band leadership. Senior Lisa Thatcher of Centerburg is serving Otterbein for the third consecutive year in that capacity, a responsibility she shares with freshman Karen Younkin of Circleville. The College's talented feature twirlers for 1987 are junior Vicki Cawley of Marion, who is beginning her second year in that position, and freshman Gina Carl of Asheville.

In addition to performing for all five of Otterbein's home games this year, the OC Marching Band has a full roster of extra activities. Along with being the traditional crowd-pleaser in the annual Homecoming Parade, slated this year for Oct. 10, it is scheduled to be one of the featured groups in Columbus' Secret Santa Parade on Nov. 22. Early September saw the rigors of OC Band Camp, and on Sept. 25 the group attended (as special guests) a concert by the U.S. Marine Band in Columbus. Also on the band's agenda are performing appearances at two central Ohio high schools.

Two select Ohio high school bands have been invited to share the limelight with Otterbein band members in September; Barberton and Princeton high school bands. Other band-related fall activities include a November performance by the OC Concert Band.

Musical numbers on the various band programs this year will include Henry Fillmore's "Lassus Trombone," a tune that will spotlight the talents of the outstanding trombone section. A jazz arrangement of "Doo Dah" makes for fun listening, and the band's performance of "Crown Imperial" will ring familiar to the Otterbein community from commencement processions.

"A challenging piece we'll be using that is new to the central Ohio area in marching band repertoires," said Tirey, "is Gershwin's 'Rhapsody in Blue,' and we will also perform an entire show based on the five main songs from 'West Side Story.'"

"In honor of the bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution," Tirey adds, "we will be doing, as our final selection of the first show, a fantasia on America called 'Sweet Land of Liberty.'"

BEGINNING HIS 20th year as Otterbein's band director, Tirey this summer, as part of his sabbatical work, accompanied a group of band alumni and current students on a tour of England. It marked the fourth British band tour for Otterbein in the past two decades.

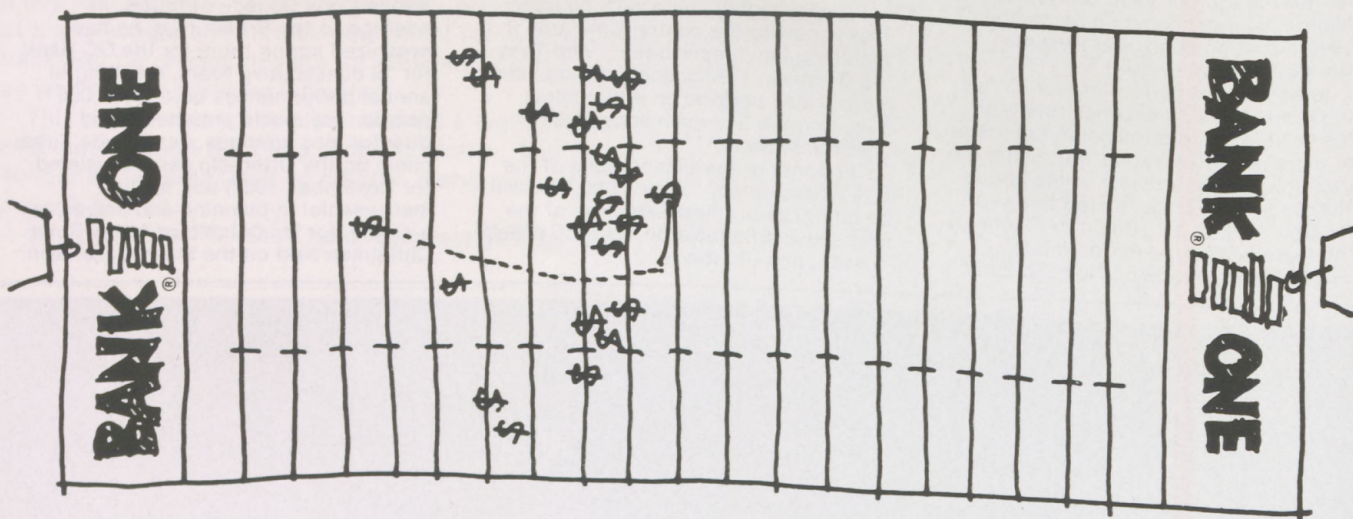

A native of Anna, Ohio, Tirey is a graduate of both Capital University and VanderCook College of Music. In addition to the British tour, he has organized spring tours for the OC Band for 19 consecutive years, resulting in annual performances before 100,000 people. The music professor/band director also arranges a statewide Tuba clinic on the Otterbein campus (slated for November, 1987) and is also instrumental in planning and serves as a conductor for Columbus' Merry Tuba Christmas held on the statehouse lawn.
