DEBT CLEARED AT DEDICATION

Over Nineteen Thousand Dollars
Raised at Sunday Services—Bishop
Mathews Dedicates Church.

DR. DAUGHERTY PREACHES

Special Music Adds Much to Elaborate
Programs—Knox Memorial
Pipe Organ Pleases.

After raising a sum which with later additions now amounts to about nineteen thousand, five hundred dollars Bishop G. M. Mathews dedicated the First United Brethren Church on Sunday evening. The services of the entire day were marked with great joys and were crowned with victory. The auditorium and Sunday school rooms with their galleries were crowded at both morning and evening services and the afternoon audience filled the main auditorium.

Bishop Mathews preached at the morning service in which he crowned God "King of Kings and Lord of Lords." At the afternoon service three addresses were given by Rev. J. B. Hawk of the Methodist church of Westerville, Rev. R. A. Hitt, superintendent of Southeast Ohio Conference and Rev. W. G. Stiverson, a former pastor of the church. Rev. S. F. Daugherty, pastor of the church for eight years and at the present time pastor of the United Brethren church at Annville, Pennsylvania preached at the evening service. During Dr. Daugherty's pastorate here the work toward the new church was begun. It was through his efforts that the work was undertaken and hence it was of special significance that he should speak at the dedicatory service.

The music was a delightful feature of the services of the day. A choir of fifty voices under the direction of J. A. Bendinger sang the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah in the morning. Miss Verda Miles sang "Open the Gates of the Temple" by Knox immediately after the organ voluntary. Miss Mary Weinland and Mr. Frank J. Resler gave a beautiful rendition of the "The Lord is My Light" by Dudley Buck. Mrs. Resler played for this number. In the afternoon the choir sang "Unfold, Ye Portals" from "The Redemption" by Gounod. The Anthem in the evening was the "Gloria" from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass." Mr. Resler sang "Come Unto Me" by Coenen. The work of Glenn Grant Grabill at the organ brought out beautifully the splendid qualities of the organ.

A significant fact brought out by N. E. Cornet in his report of the

GIRLS TO BE EDITORS

Members of Philaethea Will Publish
Review on May 15—Staff
Is Selected.

Philaethean girls have accepted the proposition made a few weeks ago by the Review staff that they put out a co-ed issue. The date of this number has been fixed for May 15. Already the girls have begun preparations for a very attractive and interesting paper. Some very original things will be done for the benefit and interest of the readers of this college publication.

The staff which will be in charge of the issue was selected with Norma McCally, '16, as editor-in-chief and Ruth Drury, '18, in charge of the business division. Other members of the staff are as follows:

First Assistant Editor — Dona Beck, '16.

Second Assistant Editor — Vida Wilhelm, '19.

Athletics—Myra Brenizer, '16 and Ruth Fries, '18.

Alumnals—Helen Moses, '16.

Locals—Elouise Converse, '18.

Exchanges—Ethel Meyers, '17.

Cochran Hall—Grace Armentrout, '19.

Y. W. C. A.—Rachel Cox, '19.

Assistant Manager—Lois Adams, '19.

Circulation Manager—Neva Anderson, '18.

Assistant Circulation Manager—Lenore Rayot, '19.

Cartoonist—Marie Hendrick, '16.

Hendrix Elected President.

Dr. T. J. Sanders' Sunday school class elected J. P. Hendrix president at their meeting yesterday morning. The other officers who were inaugurated are: G. O. Ream, vice president; R. L. Rouse, secretary; A. C. Siddall, treasurer. This class made a pledge of $300.00 for the new church yesterday. At previous times the class has raised $250.00.

SOPHS BANQUET SENIORS

Cochran Hall Scene of Merry Gathering—Decorations Artistic—Splendid Program Rendered.

The Sophomore-Senior banquet of Wednesday, April 26, will be a memorable event in the minds of the classes of 1916 and 1918. The seniors and guests pronounce it the best class banquet held during their sojourn at Otterbein, and sincerely enjoyed and appreciated the pleasant evening tendered them by the sophomore class.

The beautiful floral basket, the profusion of ferns, the lattice work entwined with smilax around the columns, illuminated by the dimmed red lights, transformed the dining room of Cochran Hall into a quaint, artistic setting for the feasting and merry-making which followed. The hand-decorated place cards very cleverly eliminated the confusion which usually occurs during the seating of the guests. Durant's orchestra added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. The splendid rendition of classical and popular music alike pleased the banqueters as was shown by their hearty applause.

Alice Hall introduced the toastmaster, Mr. Isaac Merle Ward, who was ably equal to the occasion. The speakers made their toasts short, snappy, and to the point. The musical numbers delighted all. The following program was rendered:

Scientist Will Lecture Tonight.

This evening at 8:30 Professor J. Seymour of the department of physiology of Ohio State University will meet at the Otterbein Science Club meeting in the Association building. In his subject "Health Fads" he will discuss the merit or demerit of sleeping out of doors, standing on your head before breakfast and other fads. Everybody is welcome and urged to be present. Admission is free.

OTTERBEIN WINS OVER WESLEYAN

Ream Ends Overtime Game with Fatal Blow Over Short
Scoring Weber.

WESLEYAN HITS HARD

Both Teams Make Costly Errors—
Wood Goes to Mound and Saves Day.

In one of the most thrilling contests ever staged on the local diamond, Ohio Wesleyan's ball tossers went down to defeat here last Saturday at the hands of the Otterbein nine, by a 8 to 7 count. Such a game is seldom witnessed in college baseball. From the beginning to the end interest never lagged, but grew by leaps and bounds. The climax came when Ream sent a liner over short in the tenth inning scoring Weber and winning the game for Otterbein. Although the diamond was rough, due to late rains the game was marked by some pretty plays, which brought many cheers from the large crowd of enthusiastic rooters, which lined the field.

Otterbein began running away with Wesleyan in the first part of the game and things looked soft. In the fifth inning Wesleyan seemed swamped when the score stood 7 to 1; but the Delaware athletes took on their battling eyes and gradually tightened the count, making the eighth inning prosperous by scoring three runs. With Otterbein in the van of a 7 to 6 score, the Tan and Cardinal players took their places in the ninth determined to hold Wesleyan scoreless. The players and the crowd were on edge as Mundhenk did his best to vanquish the Wesleyan batters; but the pressure was too great and Deardorf crossed the plate tying the score. Otterbein came to bat in the last half of the ninth and were out in one, two three fashion.

It was the glorious tenth, the most exciting inning staged here for many a day, that brought the victory. Otterbein again took the field for the supreme test and Wesleyan lined up for the onslaught. The first man up, smashed one for two bases and the clouds became dark. They were broken a bit when Williamson, a pinch hitter was out at first. The ### Chapel Has New Hymn Books.

New hymn books have been purchased and were in the chapel pews this morning. Hymns of worship and service by the Century Company is the title of this book. It is the chapel edition of this work and is especially adapted to the use and needs of college students.

FRITZ SELECTS CASTE

Seniors Begin to Practice for "Much Ado About Nothing"—Girls Will be Boys.

Practices began last week for the senior play "Much Ado About Nothing" which will be given on Wednesday evening, June 14. Professor Fritz, after a thorough try out of the individuals who came before him, selected the caste just before the Easter vacation. Each one is especially adapted to the role assigned and is working hard for the ultimate success of the play.

Only a few of the boys of the class tried out for places and the majority of the parts call for men. It was necessary to fill these places with ladies.

The cast is as follows:

Pon Pedro—M. S. Czatt.
Don John—Lehr Biddle.
Claudio—S. C. Ross.
Benedick—G. T. Rosselot.
Leonato—H. D. Bercaw.
Antonio—E. L. Boyles.
Balthazar—Marie Hendrick.
Borachio—Ermal Noel.
Conrade—Rowena Thompson.
Dogberry—C. D. LaRue.
Verges—A. L. Glunt.
Friar Francis—W. A. Kline.
Sexton—G. L. McGee.
Oatcake—Edna Bright.
Watchman—Clara Garrison.
Hero—Helen Moses.
Beatrice—Mary Nichols.
Margaret—Helen Byrer.
Ursula—Norma McCally.

College Press Association to Meet in Cleveland Next Week.

Representatives from the various college papers of Ohio will meet in Cleveland on Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13. This convention is of a practical nature. The sessions are devoted to the discussions of various phases of newspaper work. Addresses will be given by prominent newspaper men of Cleveland who will talk upon those subjects of vital importance in college journalism.

At one session a round table discussion will be held for the benefit of the editors and business managers. As an incentive for a large attendance the R. Kenyon Sharer cup is offered to the paper having the most representatives present at the convention.

A contest among the papers is an interesting feature of the convention. This consists of four divisions namely; best editorial dealing with college life only; best make up; best headlines; best athletic page.

At this convention The Otterbein Review will be represented by C. W. Vernon and H. R. Brentlinger.

Capital Plays Here Saturday.

Winning the first two games in splendid fashion, the varsity now stands ready to deliver the punch next Saturday, when Capital comes to cross bats on the local lot. This game should excite keen interest for the rivalry of these two baseball teams is historic. The stories of

PROMINENT SENIORS

Stella Rissa Lilly.

When the famous class of 1916 entered Otterbein almost four years ago, Hicksville, a small village in the northern part of the state, did its share to add to this splendid company by contributing Stella Lilly to its ranks. This lady had taught school the preceding year and knew so well how to conduct herself on all occasions that no one even suspected that she was a freshman.

Throughout these four years she has been energetic and faithful to her work and has proved herself a capable and conscientious student. What she does, she most surely does with all her small might, indeed at times it has been seriously doubted whether the tiles in the lobby of the library will be able to stand the wear and tear which she imposes upon them. To say the least one can hear Stella's "patter" a square's distance from its owner.

This lady has always been actively interested in the Young Women's Christian Association, having occupied a cabinet position during most of her college course. She has also helped the executive board of Cochran Hall consider some of its weightiest matters and it is needless to say that Cleiorhetea would have suffered had it not been for her.

During her freshman year most of the time everything seemed to be all "Wright" with her, but during recent months she simply "Boyles" over without the slightest idea. It's hard to understand Stella. However as a teacher next year we know she will be successful and we are wishing for her the best and happiest of futures.

former games would fill a library of baseball anecdotes, and the ensuing game promises to be typical of the past. Capital always has a good team and especially this year, for Saturday they easily defeated Muskingum at New Concord, a feat not to be laughed at. Otterbein never did bite the dust very much for the Lutherans and every body should be out to see that it does not happen on next Saturday at two-thirty. Remember the defeats in basketball and come with blood in your eyes.

DAYTON BANQUET CHANGED

Publishing House Meeting Prevents Many from Attending Spring Reunion of Otterbein People.

Because of a meeting of the trustees and friends of the U. B. Publishing House given by W. R. Funk it was found necessary to postpone the Otterbein Banquet. For years the Monday following Easter has been reserved among United Brethren people in Dayton for the Otterbein reunion. This year the long standing precedent was broken because some folks seemingly disinterested in Otterbein stepped in with another function which could have at least been held at a later hour so that both functions could have taken place.

All arrangements had been completed by the committee in charge consisting of I. D. Warner, '11, and Ramey H. Huber, Ex '17. Invitations, sent out to all alumni and friends of the institution were acknowledged by many with regrets because of the necessity of attending the other affair.

It has not yet been definitely decided when the Otterbein banquet will be held. There is a splendid interest in the affair and Dayton people are looking forward to the event in the near future with much pleasure.

Model Home Discussed.

Home is a word we all love and treasure for the home is where the heart is; the abiding place where sympathetic relationship exists among the members; a world of love shut in, a world of care shut out. If we spoke merely of a house, a model house, we could easily discuss house plans and the ideal arrangement of rooms, but a home—a model home is an atmosphere which exists only where mutual responsibility; mutual knowledge; mutual confidence; mutual sympathy and mutual reinforcements exists. To make a good home, that shall be a joy to every one who comes to it, is the highest ambition in life. The well-ordered home is a center of intellectual interest. Reading, the exchange of ideas, wit, humor, honor and clean mirth are its chief amusements.

These are a few of the good thoughts brought to the attention of the Y. W. C. A. girls by Rowena Thompson last week.

Bird Expert Entertains.

In his lecture on Birds and Bird Music, Dr. Henry Oldys of Washington, D. C., spoke of the increasing interest in birds. There are laws which protect the birds and provide for them. It is necessary that this should be done because of the great work that the birds do in destroying insects and pests. Henry Ford is doing much for the birds by building houses and providing food for them.

A very interesting part of his lecture consisted of the song imitations of the best bird singers. Mr. Oldys is very skillful in whistling these melodies.

After a long and tiresome ride the Otterbein track team failed to show up very strong against Denison last Saturday and came home with the pinched end of a 72 to 39 score. On account of the sticky field slow time was made in the track events and no records were broken, Otterbein took four first and Denison captured ten.
Higlemire starred for Otterbein making 10 points with two firsts. Davies of Denison likewise won two firsts. Otterbein was weak in the track work and as a result Denison took every first.

LYCEUM TALENT SELECTED

Committee Announced Splendid Program—Otterbein Choral Society Will Give Last Number.

The Citizen's Lyceum committee has secured a most excellent series of entertainments for the following year. The sixth number will be put on by local talent, the Otterbein Choral society, which is a new feature of the course and promises to be of much interest.

The numbers are as follows:

Gay Zenola MacLaren, a dramatic reader, will present several modern plays. Miss MacLaren attends the production of a modern play five times, and then, without having read the original book or dramatization, can go upon the lyceum platform and give an imitative recital of the entire production.

The Schumann quintet brings to the lyceum a genuinely new idea—that of presenting symphonic concerts with a company of only five musicians. To secure this symphonic effect a specially constructed organ is carried by this company. To create added interest the quintet gives historic introductions to its programs.

Henry M. Hyde, a widely known writer on the Chicago Tribune, will lecture on "The Wholesale Manufacture of Criminals." He shows that every year congress, legislatures and city councils turn large bodies of hitherto respectable and respected citizens into criminals by passing new criminal laws.

The Panama singers presenting "Panama" is composed of four young men. The program includes the Spanish, the Mexican, the Indian, the Negro, and the American songs. Classical and popular solos, quartets, medleys and readings will be given with the whole program tied together in a sketch of Panama.

The Parish Players present a high type of drama. The Parish Players have the unique distinction of being the first professional theatrical organization in the United States to be established by a church.

The last number will be given by the Otterbein Choral society under the able direction of Prof. A. R. Spessard. Much time and labor will be put forth to make this number a pleasing and successful one.

Glee Club Will Give Concert

In College Chapel on May 9.

All efforts of the members of the glee club are being concentrated in preparation for the annual home concert on Tuesday evening, May 9 in the college chapel. The program includes many new numbers which should prove a real treat to Otterbein music lovers. Besides the glee club numbers the Otterbein concert quartet will give several vocal and instrumental numbers. Professor Fritz will read.

Tickets are being sold by the various members of the club at twenty-five cents each. Reserved seats should be ordered through J. R. Williams by mail on Monday, May 8 at an additional price of ten cents.

Juniors Win Interclass Meet

Each Event Closely Contested.

With only three representatives the Juniors easily captured the big end of the final count in the interclass track meet last Tuesday. More than once the Freshmen gave the winners a close fight and the "Sophs" and "Preps" also made a good showing. Although no varsity records were broken yet all the events were well contested and interesting throughout. The enthusiastic rooting soon distinguished the various classes and added pep to the occasion.

The Freshmen listed the most entries but took only three firsts while the juniors took six. In the 880 yard run Freshman Fellers who made the best time was disqualified because he was paced in and the first count went to the "Preps". The seniors were squeezed down to three points. Miller featured strong for the Juniors making 32 of the 45 points.

Racquetters Win Over Kenyon—

Doubles Called for Darkness.

With a combination of fast work and skillful serving Otterbein was able to defeat the Kenyon representatives 2 to 1 here last Saturday. Delayed on account of rain the match did not begin until late in the afternoon and then the courts were pretty heavy. Only two Kenyon men were here since Schaeffer was unable to come.

The first single match was played between Sapp of Kenyon and Ross of Otterbein. At the hands of these experts the ball was in the air most of the time and everyone was assured of some good tennis. Although Sapp soon won the first game yet Ross was there to pick the next. This alternate winning continued until Sapp won four games then Ross spurted and soon finished the set in his favor, the games standing 6 to 4. In the second set Ross showed up still stronger holding his opponent to only three games thus making the score for this set 6 to 3.

In the second match of singles Lowry of Kenyon clashed with Bercaw. The first set was the most hotly contested as neither man could get a substantial lead in games but after hard fighting Lowry captured the set 8 to 6. The remaining sets also went to Kenyon, the games standing 6 to 3 and 6 to 0.

Although it was late Setiger and Resler started the doubles with Sapp and Lowry but the last set was called on account of darkness. Otterbein led throughout, the first set ending 6 to 3, the second 3 to 1.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mobre of Babberton, Rev. R. A. Hitt, D. D., Superintendent of South East Ohio Conference; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Knox, and Mr. J. A. Weinland of Columbus attended the Dedication of the new church Sunday.

It is reported that G. L. McGee has married a wife but the Review is unable to obtain definite data concerning the lady sufficient to give extended space to the subject in this issue.

Otterbein and the Church.

Upon the dedication of the First United Brethren Church we congratulate the people of Westerville. The undertaking of such a proposition called forth the heroic efforts of the members of the church and many friends in town and in the denomination. The splendid new plant will give the workers in the church all the modern conveniences for a long time to come and will greatly increase the efficiency of their work.

At this point however we are inclined to reflect a little and consider the past which in the excitement of the day is almost forgotten. For more than fifty years the United Brethren people have been the guests of Otterbein. The college buildings have always been used for church purposes of all kinds. The chapel has served as an auditorium and recitation rooms have been on Sunday turned into Sunday school rooms. During the week the various meetings of the church and church organization have always used the college. And all this has been given for a paltry sum of about one hundred and fifty dollars a year. This has not paid the janitor or cared for the incidental expenses of the care and improvement of the buildings.

Of course the people of the church have contributed liberally to the college at different times when the schools needed money badly. But this was not done because of lack through the church. In any case the college as such has given a great deal, a sum that can not be estimated, to the church during this past half century.

More Social Events.

There are times when some folks around Otterbein are just rushed to death with the numerous meetings which they must attend and the responsibilities which fall upon them. Yet with it all are we privileged to enjoy quite enough of social affairs? Every meeting is for business with very little real social life. With the exception of the events of commencement week there are but the class banquets which may be placed in the class of formal affairs.

A school with the traditions, numbers and other customs such as Otterbein should have many more occasions which would be of a dignified character.

True it is that a great many of our students do not enjoy them and would not go. They are, however, prominent for their inactivity along all kinds of college life and hence should receive no recognition.

These affairs should not be so elaborate and expensive as the two which we now have. The joy of the occasion would be just as great without the profuse decorations, beautiful as they are.

We believe that some organizations and groups would be adding a great deal to the social life of the institution and a pleasing source of entertainment to themselves should they join together in frequent formal gatherings.

Edmund A. Jones.

On last Tuesday morning we were particularly impressed with the chapel exercises as conducted by our beloved professor, Doctor Jones. This occasion was but one of the many which has meant so much to us and which lingers so long in our memory. Every service which he conducts possesses the charm of his delightful personality. There is always a different thought left deep in the hearts and minds of the students with each chapel period at which he is the leader. Common place things and long worn out practices are never indulged in. Instead we are referred to some new theme in an original manner which makes the lofty ideals the more vivid.

In the classroom and on any special occasion he in a like manner presents things in a very interesting manner. His keen sense of wit is ever prevalent in his every day life. His wonderful power of memory serves him well upon every occasion. Doctor Jones has endeared himself to every student of Otterbein through his magnetic personality and deep interest in all student activities.

Help the Review, "the best college weekly in Ohio," by mentioning it when buying from advertisers.

Scrap Day.

How are class difficulties to be solved next year? That is a question that comes up at this time, for just one year ago we were making arrangements for the "Scrap Day" program which was carried out last fall.

At that time the proposition was a new one and demanded a great deal of work. Now, all have some idea at least of the nature of such a series of contests. The affair being so general in its interest and purpose should be started by an organization with such a scope. The athletic association fulfils such requirements and could through the athletic board very successfully arrange for such a day.

Before this can be done there should be some expression on the part of the faculty and student classes as to their attitude toward contests similar to those held last year, or the unpleasant class fights of previous years.

If you are going to the glee club concert get your tickets now. In former years the chapel has been filled and we look for a large crowd this year.

We hope that the students who risked attendance at church on dedication day will not fail to continue the good practice.

A lot of fellows refused to help in the celebration on Saturday night. It is a good thing that a lot of the rest have spirit enough to put Otterbein interests above private and personal ones.

I'd Rather Be Square.

I'd like to be rich, and I wonder who wouldn't?

And yet if it cost me what some people pay,

I'd like to be rich—but I find that I couldn't;

There's too much worth while that is lost by the way.

To sacrifice friends and ideals surrender—

My heart and my conscience, my soul and my mind,

And sell all my dreams for a dollar-marked splendor

Would leave me too poor for the riches I'd find.

I'd like to be rich, there is pleasure in money,

It's good stuff to have, and it's good stuff to spend,

It helps you to pay for your milk and your honey

And gives you a chance to be nice to a friend.

I'd like to be rich, but I'd never be willing

To pay such a price as some men do for gold,

The cost is too high and the pace is too killing,

And too many things must be bartered and sold. —Ex.

storm was yet to come and the rooters' hopes fell prostrate, when the next two men were safe at first and second, filling the bases. At this juncture of the game Mundhenk gave way to Wood, who held the balance in his hands. With the confidence of a veteran "Cocky" walked slowly to the mound. The crowd was still as he threw the first few balls; but a great cheer came when he forced Hill to pop to Ream. Two men were out and the infield backed up to get the man at first. Battenfield, Wesleyan's star athlete stepped to the plate to do or die. "Cocky" delivered two straight balls; but made the next one good for a strike. Gloom came when the "ump" yelled, "ball three", but subsided a wee bit when the next one was a fouled strike. Oh my! but there was anxiety when Wood drew back for the final throw. The ball seemed to barely float to the plate. "Battie" was ready and swung only to fan the air, Haller clutching the ball for the third out.

With the old time fight and pep the Otterbein team made a glorious finish in the tenth. "Don" Weber, the first man up drew a pass. Ream stepped to the plate and on the second ball pitched, "Webb" stole second and was safe at third on a bad throw by the catcher to second. Wesleyan's hopes were shattered, when Ream finished a beautiful game, by a pretty drive over short.

DEBT CLEARED

AT DEDICATION

Board of Trustees was that the entire cost of the church exceeded only by two hundred dollars the sum which was requested of the quarterly conference for the building purposes. At that time there was some opposition to building at that particular time but now it is evident that the past year was exactly the time to build. The building, as it now stands could be duplicated only for a sum of from seven to eight thousand dollars more than has been used. Steel, brick, art glass and many other materials have advanced greatly in price during the past year.

The Sunday school rooms are splendid in every detail. The four main class rooms have a seating capacity of seventy-five each and will easily accommodate the large classes of the school. The commodious assembly rooms and well equipped basement are all great assets to the building.

Joseph J. Knox of Columbus gave the largest individual gift. Besides the four thousand dollar pipe organ he made a cash gift of $1000. Mr. A. A. Moore of Barborton, O., helped the cause greatly yesterday with a pledge of $500.00 in addition to his previous gift of $300.00. The students gave very liberally and had a great part in the final victory. Gifts from members of the church exceeded all expectations. The general sympathy and interest of the people of Westerville was very noticeable and greatly appreciated by the United Brethren people.

May Morning Breakfast to be Held Next Saturday at Seven.

Much to the happiness of students and townspeople, May is here in all her glory; but with all May's pleasure it could never be complete without the annual May morning breakfast. Cochran Hall will put on a gala appearance next Saturday when hundreds of appetites will be satisfied, by a dainty, but substantial breakfast. The doers are the Y. W. C. A. girls, who are working hard to make the breakfast the best ever. Tickets will be on sale all week by the fair ladies of the cabinet and who could refuse for a quarter?

Beautiful Shield Presented For Class Baseball Champs.

In a short and snappy speech at the close of chapel last Thursday morning, Professor Altman enthusiastically discussed the coming interclass baseball war. He emphasized the importance of preparing for war, more war and perpetual war if any class would win the proffered trophy. The prize is a magnificent bronze shield mounted on walnut and a suitable inscription will record the worthy champions. In closing the professor quoted that everyone should not seek to be chosen but seek to be worthy to be and after all this voices the true Otterbein spirit. Let everyone put aside their marbles and jack knives and do something worth while for their class. Boost, root and fight for your class team for thereby you boost the varsity.

Churches Have Special Music.

Last Sunday the choirs of the Westerville churches presented splendid praise services. The Presbyterian choir, under the direction of Maude Alice Hanawalt, presented a cantata, "The Resurrection." Preceding the cantata, Miss Hanawalt sang "The Angel's Message." The prelude to the cantata was sung by Miss Goldie McFarland. The soloists were A. R. Spessard, Mary Baker, C. E. Watts, Mrs. F. E. Samuel and F. B. Howe. Miss Hulah Black was the accompanist.

The choir of the Methodist church gave a sacred concert in the evening. As a closing number the choir sang the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the Messiah. Walter A. Maring is the director and Miss Mabel Fleming the pianist.

Some extremely interesting facts were brought out in the course of different speeches given at the United Brethren congregation's farewell service to the college chapel on Easter. Dr. T. J. Sanders, J. A. Weinland, Mrs. Lydia Guitner and Glen T. Rosselot talked on the different topics relative to the connection between the college and the church. J. W. Everal presided.

Russell Oratorical Contest Fixed for May 24 in Chapel.

Doctor Howard H. Russell's oratorical contest will be held on Wednesday evening May 24. This announcement comes from Professor Fritz together with that of the try-outs which will be held on the Friday previous to the contest. All members of the senior and junior classes are admitted to the contest and are urged to participate in this part of the work of the department of public speaking. The prizes which are awarded are three in number with amounts of fifteen, ten and five dollars each. According to a special request of Dr. Russell the founder of the contest the orations will be limited to those on themes relating to the cause of prohibition.

Second Team Will Play.

A short schedule has been arranged for the second team. Assistant Manager Mase is counting on two more games with some Columbus team; but has been unable to arrange any as yet. Besides playing the Varsity every evening the scrubs will have the privilege of showing their ability against these teams. They should also receive the backing of the student body, for whom they are giving service. Schedule:

May 5—Westerville High School.

May 13—Capital Seconds at Capital.

May 20—Capital Seconds at Westerville.

June 9—Anti Saloon League.

DIAMOND DUST

Young Grabill was the shining light at the bat, garnering two hits and lining a clean one into right only to be thrown out at first.

"Cocky" said he prayed, when he went into the box, that if the Lord was ever going to help him, he should do it now. He surely helped at the right time.

Coach Hamilton of Wesleyan made a mule of himself, when he growled at the umpire for every close decision. He also showed poor spirit when he coached on third. The excellent spirit and manliness displayed by the members of his team bore better witness to the real spirit at Delaware.

"Buck" Haller is filling "Phil's" place in handy fashion, which is a job for the very best.

A night shirt parade was held in celebration of the victory. About fifty fellows gathered about ten o'clock and snake-danced the streets to the music of a band. The shirt tailers finished the frolic at the dormitory when songs and yells were the issue.

ALUMNALS.

'13, '11. Evelyn K. Young of Westerville and Grover C. Muthersbaugh of Steubenville, were married at high noon Easter Day at St. John's Episcopal church, Columbus. They will make their home at Steubenville where Mr. Muthersbaugh is teacher of science in Well's High school.

'10. L. Luzern Custer and his mother, of Dayton, Ohio, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary A. Custer on West College avenue.

'94, '95. Mrs. M. D. Barnard of Cleveland, O., mother of L. L. Barnard and E. S. Barnard, spent the last week in Westerville and attended the dedication of the new church.

'02, '95. Mrs. F. H. Hornbeck (Nola Knox) and Mrs. W. J. Zuck, of Columbus were out of town guests at a reception given last Thursday by Mrs. F. M. Flickinger and Mrs. S. E. Kennedy in honor of Mrs. J. J. Knox.

Wednesday, June 14th has been chosen as alumna day. The annual banquet will be held on this day. A big program is being planned. Watch these columns for more about it!

'07. Mrs. Guy F. Hartman (Ora L. Bale) of Akron, Ohio, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bale.

'10. Miss Lillian Scott of Pickerington, Ohio, was a guest at the Karg home over Sunday.

'92. Dr. O. B. Cornell spent Saturday and Sunday in Cleveland in the interest of the Masonic Lodge.

The ballot is being sent out this week to all Alumni, for the election of alumni officers and trustees.

'92. G. L. Stoughton has been chosen as toast-master at the Westerville High School Alumna Banquet.

The following alumni were here for the dedication: Bishop G. W. Mathews, '70, Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. L. R. Harford (Lillian Ressler, '73), Omaha, Nebraska; Miss Cassie Harris, '15, Pleasantville, Ohio; Mr. E. L. Weinland, '91, Columbus; Miss Mary Weinland, '07, Columbus; Miss Lela Guitner, '92, Dayton; Rev. W. E. Bevey, '93, pastor of North Congregational Church, Columbus and wife; Rev. T. H. Kohr, '72, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Linden Heights, Ohio, wife and daughter; Rev. W. G. Stiverson, '97, Columbus, Ohio, and Rev. Mrs. Minnie A. Hall, '09, pastor of United Brethren Church, St. Marys, O.

Otterbein faculty and alumni were conspicuous at the meeting of the Ohio College Association which was held at Ohio State University on Friday and Saturday, Apr. 21 and 22. President W. G. Clippinger was among the speakers on Friday afternoon at the Psychology, Philosophy and Education section. His topic was "Methods of Teaching." Professor F. A. Hanawalt, '13, read a paper before the Ohio Academy of Science section. Professor T. H. Sonnedecker, '83, professor of Greek, Heidelberg University is Chairman of the Committee on Comity.

The following members of the Otterbein faculty were in attendance. Doctors Scott, Jones and Snayely, and Professors Rossetot, Altman, Schear, Weinland and West. R. L. Druhot, '13, C. R. Weinland, '06, and H. P. Drury, '10, were among the alumni present.

The Track, Baseball, and Tennis season is here. Read the Otterbein Review for accounts of these events. The remaining issues can be had for 35 cents.

E. C. Worman Tells Men of India's Religion and Needs.

Religion at Otterbein is a "man's religion" according to E. C. Worman, '07, who addressed the men at the association building last Thursday evening. In India the religion serves schemers for financial gain. All manner of sin and immorality is resorted to for the benefit of the heathen gods and priests.

These conditions in foreign fields present a challenge to the Christian people of the world and especially to the students of our colleges. The opportunity is for service to God and mankind. It is God's will that men just like the average college student should do this work for it is by means of these that all has been accomplished. The work demands conscientious work and faith in God.

LOCALS.

Professor Altman made a "pep" speech in chapel Wednesday in the interest of the Wesleyan game and interclass baseball.

John E. Johnson, student secretary of the Ohio Young Men's Christian Association, was in Westerville Friday. He held conferences with the various local committees and plans were outlined for the coming year.

Mr. Miller, a representative of the Canton Engraving Co., was here Thursday interviewing the 1917 Sibyl board.

Earl Barnhart rather "put it over" on the rest of the banqueters by riding in a "taxi."

The new refrigeration plant of the Williams Confectionery was put into operation during the Easter recess.

Doctor and Mrs. T. J. Sanders entertained at dinner Monday evening Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Daugherty, of Annville, Pa.; Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Secrist and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Sanders.

A number of students took opportunity to see the electrical show held in Robinson laboratory, Ohio State University, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Young America" has solved the problem of what to do with the old athletic field. Several of the small boys about town have turned it into an aviation field for their kites.

While Elmer Barnhart was canoeing on Alum creek last week a thirteen inch black bass flopped into his boat. It sounds rather fishy but it is not altogether improbable.

R. M. Bradfield of Lilly Chapel spent Sunday at the Cook house.

We do not know whether it was because the track team was away or because there were so many Wesleyan men on the campus, that there was such a number of surprising "points" Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. G. Clippinger is recovering very rapidly from her recent operation and the president expects to bring her home the latter part of this week.

Mrs. C. H. Bell and daughter Georgiana of Fort Wayne, Indiana, visiting Joseph Bell over the weekend.

Classes Take Excursion

On Saturday morning the members of Professor Schear's classes in nature study and zoology took a tramp down along Alum creek. Many birds were seen which have been discussed in the recitations of the past week.

May 14 Mother's Day.

Governor Willis, in a proclamation expressing a beautiful tribute to motherhood, has set aside Sunday, May 14, as Mother's day. He asks that flags be displayed on public buildings and that citizens wear "a bright flower for mothers living and a white flower for mothers departed."

COCHRAN NOTES

Everybody is back from vacation at last. Ruth Kirkpatrick arrived this morning.

Dedication Day brought several guests to the Hall. Mrs. Lake, Mrs. White and Mrs. Fries are visiting their daughters and Ermal entertained Katherine and Ruth Maxwell.

Lucile McCulloch has joined us again. Evidently there's something mighty attractive in the east.

Mae Hanson is certainly fortunate. Lots of us have our mothers here for a day or two, but for a week or more is a pleasure we don't even dream of.

Nell Johnson visited Lelo Shaw over the week-end.

Stella and Opal surely won't need to hear the lecture on "Health Fads." They aren't tempted to resort to artificial means when motoring brings rosy cheeks without fail.

After a good rest at home Alice Hall is real well and at work again.

Cochran Hall pushes often make people sick, but its unusual to need a push to cure our ailments. Betty has our most sincere sympathy.

Cochran Hall will be the busiest boarding in town next Saturday morning. Don't fail to enjoy our "dee-licious" breakfast.

Pittsburg Organist Will Give Free Pipe Organ Recital Tonight.

Sutherland Dwight Smith, a prominent organist in Pittsburg and representative of the Estey Organ Company will give an inaugural organ recital in the United Brethren Church tonight at eight o'clock. The church choir under the direction of Professor J. A. Bendinger will assist in the program.

During the intermission between the program Mr. Smith will give a short address "The Evolution of the Pipe Organ". In this he will tell of the mechanism which goes into an organ and explain the principles of its operation.

The program which will be given by Mr. Smith is especially designed to show the various qualities of the organ. A great variety is provided for the interest of all lovers of music. The opening number is the "Festal March" by Smart. Other selections are "Spring Song" by Mendelssohn, "Rondo D'Armour" by Westerhout, "Epithalame" by Mac Master; "Buona Notte" by Nevin and Wagner's prelude to "Lohengrin." In the second part Mr. Smith will play "Andante" by Tschakowsky; "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell; "Canzone Ambrose" by Nevin. He will close his program with two selections from Wagner's opera, "Tannhauser," "The Evening Star" and Pilgrim's Chorus. The chorus will sing "The Lord is My Shepherd" by Schubert and the "Cherubim Song" by Tschakowsky.

This recital is absolutely free to all who attend.
