Death Again Invades Ranks of U. B. Editors

DR. H. F. SHUPE SUCCUMBS

Dayton Clergyman Was Editor of Watchword, Christian Endeavor Paper.

Students of Otterbein College were shocked last Wednesday morning to learn of the sudden death of Dr. Henry F. Shupe, editor of the Watchword for over thirty years, in Dayton last Tuesday evening. The exact cause of his death has not been determined. Dr. Shupe was an uncle of Perry Laukhuff, a senior in the college. The funeral was held last Saturday in Dayton.

Dr. Shupe was apparently in good health when he made a visit to the campus two weeks ago. From Westerville he proceeded to Mt. Vernon where he visited relatives. Almost immediately after his return to Dayton there came the news of his sudden death.

The death of Dr. Shupe was the third to occur within a year in the ranks of United Brethren editors. Dr. J. M. Phillippi, editor of the Religious Telescope, died two weeks ago. The death of Dr. W. O. Fries, editor in chief of all United Brethren literature, occurred about a year ago.

Dr. Shupe was born near Scottsdale, Pa., March 18, 1860. He was a student in Otterbein for one year, was graduated from Bonebrake Theological Seminary in Dayton in 1885, and received his D. D. degree from York College, Nebraska. He was also a graduate of Chautauqua Literary and

MUSIC STUDENTS TO GIVE RECITAL TOMORROW EVE

Organ, Piano, Vocal, Violin and Mandolin Numbers Will Constitute Program.

Tomorrow night, in the auditorium of Lambert Hall, students of the Otterbein School of Music will be presented in the first recital of the year. The program is to be given promptly at 8:15.

All departments in the School of Music are represented in the recital. A varied program has been arranged, consisting of organ, piano, vocal and violin number and a mandolin solo. Selections have been chosen from a wide range of composers featuring marches, duos, songs, light numbers and classical pieces.

Students participating are Viola Burke, Boneta Engle, Ruth Haney, Frances McCowen, Zelfa Fisher, Mary Whiteford, Mary Mills, Betty Gress, Florence Prinz, Vira Dunmire, Olive Holt, Elward Caldwell, Mildred Zinn, Dorothy Wainwright, Kathryn Gantz, Lawrence Miller, Harold Thompson and Mabel Eubanks.

These concerts are given frequently throughout the school year and no admittance charge is made. All students are invited to attend.

Pledges In Student Chest Campaign Nearing $2,000

Over $770 Cash Pledges Secured Friday Morning

GOAL IS $2500

Senior Class Contributes $7 More Than $395—Goal Set By Student Council.

Of the $2500, which was set as a goal in the Student Chest Campaign, only a little over $1900 was pledged in the final wind-up drive which was conducted last Friday morning in the chapel. A total of $770.05 was received in actual cash the same morning the drive was conducted.

The Senior class reached its goal of $395 before any of the other classes were within finishing distance and turned in a total of $408.50 in pledges and $175.80 in actual cash. A white dog, wrapped within an innumerable number of boxes, was presented to Perry Laukhuff, president of the Senior class, as first prize.

The entire campaign was conducted under the auspices of the Student Council. A follow-up campaign will be made of those students who took chapel cuts Friday morning, and also of those students who were forced to be absent, in an attempt to get the $2500 pledges. Each list of names will be given to the respective classes with instructions to the captains to secure additional pledges.

The Freshman class receives the credit for pledging the largest sum. It gave $550.55 out of the $790 allotted to

ERISMAN FINISHES FIRST IN CROSS COUNTRY RUN

No startling results were secured as a result of the Cross Country preliminary try-outs held on the local track last Friday afternoon. Erisman finished the three-mile stretch in 17½ minutes and Cheek finished in 18 minutes. Hicks and Holdren came in third and fourth respectively.

If the men show radical improvement within the next few weeks Coach Dimer will send them to the Cross County Meet at Oberlin on November 13. The length of the run at this meet will be four and one-half miles.

COME TO Y TONIGHT

A joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., a special feature of which will be an especially prepared talk by Dean N. E. Cornet, will be only a part of the Y program for this evening in the Association building. After the regular meeting everyone will adjourn to the gym where a party with lots of Hallowe'en atmosphere will be held. The Y organizations cordially invite everyone to attend.

COACHES FAVORABLE TO PLAIN DEALER PROPOSAL

New Plan Would Restrict Conference Participation to Juniors and Seniors.

In answer to a telegram proposing that conference athletics be restricted to Juniors and Seniors only sent out to coaches and physical education directors by the Cleveland Plain Dealer, Professor R. F. Martin, after conferring with the remainder of the athletic staff, issued the following statement:

"The intense competition in intercollegiate athletics has thrown a great strain on the student participating especially if he is a 'star'. The value of the individual would be greatly reduced if competition were limited to two years, because a larger number would of necessity compete.

"On the other hand, intercollegiate athletics, if the strain is reduced, offers a training that more of our college students should have. This can partially be secured by limiting the number of years a student may compete to two.

"At the present time, we would favor restricting competition to Juniors and Seniors thus allowing the student the first two years of his college course to get well grounded in curricular work, participate in the usual Freshman and Sophomore physical education activities and in intramurals."

Once There Was A Little Boy Who----

Once upon a time there was a little boy and cried because Santa Claus had not brought him a pretty book, too, and he wondered what the reason might be. So he asked the little boy next door and he said, "It's because you didn't ask Santa Claus for one early enough and he couldn't order one for you and when the pretty books came there weren't enough to go around and he couldn't bring you one."

So the little boy went home and wrote a letter to Santa Claus right away and asked him to be sure to bring one of the pretty books next Christmas and to please send the order in right away so there would be enough to go around and he wouldn't

Twenty-Three Students Make Cap and Dagger

F. M. BECHTOLT PRESIDENT

Local Dramatics Club Had Only Six Active Members Before Try-Outs Were Held.

Out of fifty aspirants who tried out for Cap and Dagger Dramatics Club last week only twenty-three were successful in gaining membership. It was very difficult to choose the qualified students, as those who tried out were exceptionally good according to Prof. Raines.

Active members of the club are chosen from the associate membership. When a person has sufficiently shown himself or herself as being qualified to take part in a play given by the club, and has served with the club, he then becomes an active member.

Those who have successfully passed the requirements of entrance as associate members are: Alice Propst, Marian Dew, Maurine Knight, Gladys Snyder, Jeanne Bromley, Margaret Tryon, Margaret Baker, Isabelle Ruehrmund, Bessie Lincoln, Margaret Haney, Lillian Shiveley.

Quentin Kintigh, Wendell Williams, Alfred Owens, Robert Bromley, Richard Sanders, Morris Hicks, and John Dolle.

Those of the Freshman class who were chosen as associate members are Helen Clemens, Lucy Hannah, Everett Snyder and Jack Baker.

Active members of the club at present are Elizabeth White, and Jean Turner Camp, Duane Harrold, Francis Bechtolt, James Gordon, and Edward Hammon.

This year Professor Raines came to Otterbein from the State School of Iowa at Ames. He is very much interested in dramatics and the club as an organization. Mr. Raines is Vice President of the Inter-Collegiate Players Association.

SELECT CONTESTANTS FOR FROSH-SOPH DEBATE TEAM

The Freshman and Sophomore debate teams were announced last week by Professor L. Raines, head of the Public Speaking Department. The Frosh will be represented by John Vance, Arley Zinn and George Eschbach. In the second year line-up appear Quentin Kintigh, Bernard Redman, Raymond Gates and Dean Wise. The Sophomores will uphold the affirmative while the Freshmen struggle with the negative of the question, Resolved: That the Volstead Act Should Be Modified to Prevent the Sale of Light Wines and Beer.

Duane Harrold and John Hudock will coach the "Sophs", while the "Green" will be tutored by Palmer Fletcher and Karl Kumler. The exact date of the performance is not settled although it will be held before the Christmas Vacation.

The winners of this tilt will receive the James O. Cox prize of $25.00.

Grand Old Man of Watchword Fame Is Suddenly Called by Death in Dayton

PROF. HURSH ON STATE FACULTY Y COMMITTEE

Also Attended Cleveland Conference To Select New State Student Secretary.

Professor Hursh has been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Prof. Aubrey, of Miami University, on the Faculty Committee of the State Y. M. C. A. Prof. Aubrey has resigned from his position at Miami to take a similar position at Smith College, thus leaving a vacancy on the Ohio committee.

On Oct. 8 Prof. Hursh was called to Cleveland to attend a meeting of this committee to consider the selection of a State Student Secretary to take the place left vacant by the resignation of H. L. Seamens, who has functioned in that capacity for the last few years. Mr. Seamens has become well known to several of the students on the local campus, more particularly those who have some connection with the local unit of the Y. M. C. A. He has turned in his resignation in order to take some work in Yale University this year. Next year he expects to take a position as Regional Secretary of the Rocky Mountain area.

Prof. Hursh reports that the Faculty Committee sat jointly with the State Student Subcommittee in the consideration of likely candidates, but that no one has been definitely appointed as yet.

Scientific Circle in the 1891 class. Dr. Shupe was ordained for the United Brethren ministry in 1886; he held Pennsylvania pastorates at Tyrona from 1884-88, Williamsport in 1889, and at Braddock from 1890-93.

Since 1893 Dr. Shupe had been editor of the Watchword, the organ of the Christian Endeavor Societies of the United Brethren church. From 1893 to 1900 and from 1905 to 1909 he was secretary of United Brethren Christian Endeavor work. He was also a member of several other important Christian Endeavor organizations.

Dr. Shupe was the author of two important Christian Endeavor Books: "Effective Endeavor" in 1915, and "Hunger of the Teens" in 1908. He has also written a number of pamphlets on C. E. work.

Dr. Shupe was familiarly known among the young people of the U. B. church as "Uncle Harry". He conducted a special department in the Watchword for the very young people of the church, and used his nickname in the work.

Dr. Shupe was a great friend of young people. Those students from Dayton will particularly miss the "good soul now gone to the divine realm."

DR. C. W. BREWBAKER GIVES CHAPEL ADDRESS

"College does not stop when you are graduated—you are learning every day," declared Dr. Charles W. Brewbaker, Secretary of the general Sunday School work of the U. B. Church, in his chapel address yesterday morning.

Dr. Brewbaker, in company with his wife, is planning to visit all of the U. B. colleges in the United States in the near future. He has received several honorary degrees from Otterbein.

Tan and Cardinal Gridders Fail To Bring Scalps Baldwin-Wallace Warriors in Saturday Tussle

Otterbein lost her third Ohio Conference football game of the season last Saturday afternoon to Baldwin-Wallace at Berea 19-3. Pinney made Otterbein's only score early in the second quarter when he place-kicked from the 5-yard line.

Baldwin-Wallace took an early lead when a pass Homan to Smith took the ball over from the 17-yard line. Pinney kicked off to the 12-yard line and Baldwin-Wallace returned to the 35-yard line. Two line plays carried the ball four yards to the Baldwin-Wallace 39-yard line. A pass, Homan to Baesel, was good for thirty-eight yards and first down on Otterbein's 23-yard line. An end run and a line play gained five yards. Minnich knocked down a pass from Homan. A pass Homan to Smith was good for the remaining distance to the goal line. Homan kicked goal.

Tans Score in Second Period.

Otterbein's score came in the third play of the second quarter. An exchange of punts gave Baldwin-Wallace the ball on their own 48-line. A line play gained one yard. Minnich knocked down a long pass from Homan. Saul intercepted Homan's next pass and ran it back sixteen yards to B-W's 33-yard line. Pinney went off tackle for five yards. Wurm hit center for four yards. Pinney hit right guard for a half a yard. Pilkington sneaked for first down but both sides were offside. Pinney hit center for first down but the play was called back and Baldwin-Wallace was penalized five yards for offside. First down on the B-W 19-yard line. Pinney hit right tackle for five yards. Wurm fumbled but Pilkington recovered for a half-yard loss. Pinney hit between tackle and guard for 6½ yards and first down on the eight-yard line. Pinney made a yard and a half through center. Pinney hit the line twice and made two yards, taking the ball just inside the five yard line. With Minnich holding the ball Pinney place-kicked squarely between the goal posts for the three points.

Baldwin-Wallace lost a good chance to score at the end of the half when Homan called time out after the Bereans had taken their limit. The ball was on Otterbein's one-yard line at the time and before they could make enough plays to take the ball the necessary distance the gun sounded for the end of the half.

Shows More Power.

Otterbein showed power at the beginning of the second half when they carried the ball half the length of the field on straight football only to lose it on a fumble. Another Otterbein fumble in the final period paved the way for B-W's second touchdown. Smith's drop kick was wide and Otterbein took the ball on her own 20-yard line. Pinney hit the line and went around the end for five yards. Wurm went off tackle for five yards and first down. On the next play Otterbein fumbled and Baldwin-Wallace recovered. Straight football including a fourteen and a nine-yard run scored B-W's second touchdown from there. The final score of the game came in the last quarter when Baldwin-Wallace passed within scoring distance; Homan sneaked over from the one-yard line.

Captain Snavelly received a leg injury in practise last Wednesday afternoon and was not in uniform. His absence was keenly felt. An open date next Saturday afternoon will give him a good opportunity to recover for the Muskingum game.

Captain Homan was the shining light for Baldwin-Wallace. He passed thirteen times. Six of his passes were completed for a gain of ninety-nine yards. Six of the passes were incomplete and one was intercepted. Otterbein completed one out of four passes for a gain of five yards. Otterbein made six first downs to Baldwin-

Wallace's seventeen.

Pinney showed himself as good a full back as he is an end. He punted creditably and hit tackle and guard for over fifty yards besides place kicking for Otterbein's only score.

DEVELOPING INITIATIVE

"The thing for you to do is what you are told. Take the advice of people who know more about things than you do."—President Thompson.

This quotation is true of about four-fifths of the American student body today. The insignificant student of today bows humbly before the great sphinx of learning, does, says, and thinks as the sphinx tells him. In short he is tied to scholastic apron strings. His power of initiative has been destroyed. It is no more.

The lecture method of conducting recitations in the small college is responsible, in a large part for the deplorable lack of initiative. Notice the class where a lecture is in progress.
Skeptical boredom lays heavily upon the auditors. Occasionally the professor stirs a dozing student by directing at him abstruse and embarrassing questions. This is the signal for the entire class to arouse itself and make feverish motions as if jotting down notes on the lecture.

Then notice a class where an actual recitation is in progress. The spirits of the entire group are high and they ask and answer questions willingly, even eagerly. There is no dozing, no embarrassing questions.

The difference—just what is it? The answer is that the difference is simply initiative or a lack of it.

Now you might ask the question—
"What would, or could, the student do with initiative if he were allowed to exercise it"? That is but a problem for speculation. It is a question whether or not a student would use initiative to the best advantage.

The American student is revolting against being tied to the apron strings of the faculties and college administrations. He no longer wants a cut and dried schedule that deceives him
by saying that he has done enough
when the day's assignment is finished.
He has begun to feel the urge of responsibility, and consequently the urge to develop his initiative.

COLLEGE OPENS

The annual migration to the halls of learning and the stadia is ended.
Seven hundred and eighty colleges, universities and technical schools have swung wide their doors and are now running full blast.

Here and there changes in teaching methods have been instituted. The honor system has been ousted from several schools and as many more have added it to their regulations.
Princeton has begun her three-course study plan; Massachusetts Agriculture College permits unlimited cuts to high grade students; the college of the City of New York has made military training optional.

For the seeker after "trends" in college policy, the treatment of freshmen should be noted. Freshmen orientation week has been given a trial at many schools and as at Wesleyan has usually met with remarkable success.
The administrative offices of Ohio State announce that the plan will be tried out there next year.

Glenn Frank, former magazine editor and president of Wisconsin, in an interview recently prophesied that the time will come "when the universities will grant a degree for the first two years that will satisfy the mass of students who, without sustained intellectual interest, simply go to college because they or their fathers feel that they must be college men."

A skyscraper "Temple of Learning" projecting 350 feet above the street level is the central feature of a tentative $5,000,000 building program for Temple University, Philadelphia.

Such are some of the innovations in this college world. The significant fact is that there seems to be a spirit of unrest in our colleges, a desire for change. Things are not what they should be in the world of education and students as well as faculties realize this. The result is change and that is the first step toward progress.

PHILOPHRONEA

Philophronea demonstrated that she is really interested in developing her men along the line of parliamentary usages by voting to waive the by-laws, in order to stage a double period of parliamentary drill, at her regular meeting Thursday evening.

The literary program consisted of an Original Story by Lehman, J. H. and a Criticism by Redman, B. D. About a dozen applications for membership were read and approved. This number falls short of the total of last week when fourteen were accepted.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

A very practical discussion on "Religion in professions" was led by Don Shoemaker in C. E. Sunday night. Various members of the sociof religion to occupation. The two musical numbers by the men's quartet furnished the special music for the evening.

Y. M. C. A.

Last week's Y. M. C. A. meeting was led by Perry Laukhuff. As announced, Mr. Laukhuff conducted the meeting in the form of a Bible discussion group.
He presented some parts of the book of Matthew for the consideration of the men present. The lively discussion which followed proved the interest and worth of the topic. A few more such meetings are anticipated.

The attendance at this meeting was especially good. About fifty students and five members of the faculty were present.

Announcement of tonight's meeting will be found on another page of the Tan and Cardinal.

BELL TOLLER NOW LACKS WIRING TO BE COMPLETE

All apparatus for the electric bell toller has been installed by the manufacturers and now the work is being delayed by electricians who are to do the wiring of the instruments.

Although the apparatus is electric, it will operate independently of the lighting circuit. A 12-volt storage battery with charging equipment has been installed in the basement of the Administration building.

The bell may also be rung without the use of the electrical equipment, which may be adjusted to ring the bell any time it is desired. Master clocks will be installed in the President's office and in the Treasurer's office.

The apparatus will be ready to operate as soon as the wiring is completed.

Has everybody heard the Waiter song? Show me the waiter to home.

This column must stop fellows, since I am carrying 16 hours, and since one should spend two hours in study for every one of my recitations and since I should catch up on lost sleep, and since the local Gondola starts at 7:30 sharp.

An original reason for taking English was advanced by the English department at the University of Denver. They say that the college man bent on romance must know how to say more than "goodnight" to his lady love.

PHILOMATHEA

A pianologue was a special feature of the regular session of Philomatheia last Friday evening. The number was given by Charles E. Mumma with Harold Thompson accompanying. A review of the book "Sands on the Shore" was read by Waldo Keck. A Sermonette by Doyle Stuckey and piano solo by Wayne V. Harsha completed the regular literary program.

Parliamentary drill, with the question, "Resolved: That Philomatheans Shall Wear Evening Clothes at all Regular Sessions", was conducted by Wayne V. Harsha.

Four new members were accepted as associates Friday evening. They are: Paul Fletcher of Westerville, Forest Benford of Tyrone, Pa.; Hugh Steckman of Altoona, Pa.; Morris Hicks of Fredericktown, O.; and Carl Moody of Westerville.

Election of the new president took place at this session. Wayne V. Harsha will be the next president of Philomatheia. J. Neely Boyer is the outgoing president.

EIGHT TRY OUT FOR TAN AND CARDINAL

The results of the Tan and Cardinal try-outs held last Thursday afternoon in the offices in the basement of Lambert Hall were far from gratifying. Only eight students, two of them freshmen, signified their intentions of trying out for the staff. Those who tried out are: Charles E. Shawen, general reporter and makeup staff; Thelma Hook, general reporter; Alfred Owens, dramatic, music, and art reporter; Ellis Hatton and Arthur German, athletic staff; James Bright, King Hall reporter; and Robert Bromley, general reporter.

A meeting of the Publication Board will be held this week for the confirmation of appointments. Several other revisions will also be made in the staff which will appear in definite completed form.

More helpers are needed on the makeup staff. Anyone wishing to do makeup work may apply to the editor or the business manager.

Special Announcement.

It is the student's duty to arrange for a try-out at the time announced for that purpose. The director has arranged the time for try-outs and the men should be willing to arrange to come at that time. If the interest does not increase, it will be several weeks before the try-outs are completed, and the club is organized.

Men who play mandolins are also needed for the Banjo Orchestra.

Barberry Hedge Removed.

The barberry hedge which grew between the main walks leading up to the Administration building has been removed by the janitors under orders from the college officials. The lawn will be graded and planted with grass seed. It is the plan of the college authorities to keep this stretch of lawn as clean of bushes as is in keeping with the symmetry of the rest of the lawn.

Y. W. C. A. CONDUCTS CANDLE LIGHT SERVICE TUESDAY

Tuesday evening at 7:30, the annual Candle Lighting Service of the Y. W. C. A. was held. As the light was passed from one girl to another, appropriate verses were read by the President and several hymns were sung. At the end of the service, the meeting adjourned to the Association parlors where a brief prayer was followed by the singing of "Follow the Gleam" and the negro spiritual, "Steal Away". A solo by Mary Mills completed the program.

Next Tuesday evening, a joint meeting of Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will be followed by a social to which all students will be welcomed.

INTEREST WANES IN GLEE CLUB TRY-OUTS

The number of men who have tried out for the Glee Club this year is much smaller than ever before. This is due perhaps not to lack of interest but to outside influences which prevent the men from trying out. There is especially a shortage of second bass and it is the duty of those who sing second bass to see Prof. Spessard as soon as it can be arranged. If the Otterbein Glee Club is to continue to be one of the best in the state, there will have to be more interest shown.

PAPER HIRES SERVICES OF WEEKLY COLUMNIST

In this day and age of the world innovations are nothing startling unless they actually excite the attention of the multitude. This week the Tan and Cardinal institutes an innovation in the form of a column. We know almost that it's going over big (no, we are not egotistic, we are not even writing it); but if the column goes across each and every week it must have the contributions of the multitude. The columnist can't think of a whole column full of satiric and sardonic humor and wit every week of his life—YOU will have to help him out.

Place your contributions in the Tan and Cardinal box in the south hall of the Administration building and they will reach the proper person.

We hardly believe that we will tell you his name for a little while; but we might let you in on his pen name—it's Mr. How I. Backfire—and we're not sure it's even that. Oh yes, he wants a name for the column, too. Anything that's snappy and is indicative of the type column he is conducting will do. And we'll try to get a funny little cartoon to go with it, too. Put all your suggestions in the same Tan and Cardinal box.

P. S. You may guess his real name, but don't tell anyone.

Will yuh, huh?

Y. M. C. A. TO CONTINUE DRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS

Every man on the campus will be approached personally within the next few weeks as the result of a Membership Drive begun two weeks ago by the Y. M. C. A. George Griggs, chairman of the Membership Committee, is in charge.

This campaign will be conducted by the thirteen members of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet. A fee of one dollar will be charged for a membership card. Upon presentation of this card, the holder will be welcomed at all City and Student Associations, and, during vacation periods, will be granted privileges subject to local limitations, while the ticket is in force.

it, thus bringing the average subscription to a rather low point. The Frosh turned in $195.05 in cold cash Friday morning.

Although it missed its goal by about $95 the Junior class pledged a total of $369.25 and paid on the spot $121.30 in cash. The Junior goal was $465.

The Sophomores had a goal of $545 but was able to secure only $349.30 in pledges. They have already paid $121.90 of their pledges.

The Faculty under the leadership of Prof. H. W. Troop and Prof. A. P. Rosselot pledged the sum of $223. The august body of learned men and women drew $156 in cash from its purses Friday morning.

After a double prelude, consisting of two numbers, "At Peace with the World" and "I Never Knew" played by Prof. G. G. Grabill on the organ, Lawrence Marsh led a number of cheers to break the formality of the gathering.

Louie Norris then took charge of the campaign. He explained a number of points that had been missed in the preliminary talks, and conducted an open forum relating to the Chest Fund.

Those members of the Senior class who gave a contribution over $5 are as follows:

Charles Lambert, $15; Charlotte Owen, $13; Reginald Shipely, $10; Roy Burkhart, $8; Bernice Norris, $7.50; Harry Widdoes, $7.50; Evelyn Carpenter, $7; Wayne Harsha, $7; Perry Laukhuff, $7; James Phillips, $7; Walter Martin, $7; Mabel Eubanks, $7; Frances Harris, $6; Lawrence Miller, $6; Mrs. Mary Mayne, $6; Freda Snyder, $6; Mary Whiteford, $6; Richard James, $5.50; Mary Long, $5.50; Elizabeth Trost, $5.50; and John Lehman, $5.50.

The Junior list of contributors over $5 is slightly smaller than the Senior list:

George Griggs, $11.00; A. O. Barnes, $10.00; Mary Thomas, $8; Nelle Ambrose, $7; Clara Baker, $7; C. E. Boyer, $7; Florence Howard, $7; Gladys Snyder, $7; Verda Evans, $6; Prof. E. M. Hursh, $6; Helen May, $6; D. Harold, $6.50; Craig Wales, $6.

The Sophomores had 17 contributors who gave more than $5: Albert Mayer, $10; Lillian Shively, $10; Don Shoemaker, $10; Carl Wilson, $10; Mildred Shaver, $8; Charles Mumma, $7; Marian Carnes, $7; Dorothy Phillips, $7; Gladys Dickey, $7; Ruth Asire, $6; Mildred Bright, $6; Margaret Duerr, $6; Kenneth Echard, $6; Martha Shawen, $6; Faith Baker, $5.90; Lois Weaver, $5.50; Herbert Holmes, $5.50.

In the Freshman class David Allaman gave $10.50; Dorothy Wainwright, $10; Glendora Barnes, $8; Alice Foy, $8; Whitmore McMullin, $8; Boyd Rennison, $7; Oliver Spangler, $6.55; Virginia Badgley, $6.50; Helen Ewry, $6; Doris Johnson, $6; Evelyn Edwards, $5.50; Helen Scheidegger, $5.50.

As the cash is secured it will be divided pro rata among the organizations which were a part of the Student Chest campaign. Since the $2500 was not fully pledged no organization will secure its full budget. However, officials of the drive are confident that the amount will be pledged when the remainder of the students are solicited.

Figures and reports of the campaign will appear in the Tan and Cardinal from time to time as they develop.

Plans are already under way for the publication of the 1926 Christmas Quiz and Quill. The staff is at work now collecting material which will be printed in this issue. The Christmas number is made up of contributions from the club members and the alumni. The magazine for this holiday season will be similar to that put out by the club last year. Mrs. Jean Turner Camp is the editor of the Christmas number this year.
