RALLY REVIVES FOOTBALL SPIRIT

Eight Hundred People Pack Chapel to Give Otterbein Gridders Inspiring Send-off.

SENIORS STAR IN STUNT

Parade of Five Hundred Students Block Traffic on Streets, and Hold Car for Ten Minutes.

All Westerville seemed to fall into the good old Otterbein spirit Saturday night when the big football rally was held. The affair was a rollicking success from start to finish. The Freshmen started actual work by constructing a giant cone of boxes, barrels and remains of trees on the old athletic field. These new men fell into the traces in fine style and worked out their part of the program in old time form.

Promptly at seven o'clock the band began to play and a procession of nearly five hundred students started down College avenue in a long waggling line. Major "Cocky" Wood held the parade in easy command at all times and under his expert direction the procession marched up and down State street holding back all traffic including one of the Columbus limiteds for at least ten minutes.

On the return trip down College avenue "Willies" was taken by storm as the students wound their hilarious way in and out of the arboretic cafe. From College avenues, the line of march was turned toward Cochran hall where the rowsidiely entered without politely ringing the doorbell. When the paraders were filled a big "Yea Otterbein" was given. The chapel was well filled when the paraders arrived and standing room was at a premium. It was estimated that over seven hundred persons were present at the ceremonies in the auditorium. The band played while the seniors "made up" for their stunt.

Preparation complete, the class of 27 began their last rally stunt as students of Otterbein. This sad fact never entered their well developed minds as they copped the climax of their stage achievements. Entering in a formal procession with the Denison Coffin borne by foot-ball men (Continued on page five.)

SIBYL BOARD TO MEET.

On Tuesday evening the Sibyl board will hold its first meeting. Plans are to be laid and organization to be completed. Contracts for printing and engraving have been let and the 1917 Sibyl is on its way. In order to make it a success it will be necessary that the entire student body and a goodly number of the alumni back it in every possible way.

Notice to Warblers.

Very few of the new men have tried out for the Glee Club. These tryouts are open to every man in school and those with musical ability should take advantage of this opportunity on account of the training which it affords.

THE BOOSTER APPEARS

"Nifty" Little Paper Published for First Time, Today in the Interests of Otterbein Athletics.

"The Booster", a newly little publication will be issued quarterly by the general Otterbein Athletic Club.

Its aim is to report to members of the Otterbein Athletic Club, Alumni and friends of Otterbein University what is being done by this organization, and its plans for the future.

Once a year a detailed financial statement will be made through its columns. Editor Ralph W. Smith, secretary of the local association, deserves the support of everyone concerned and will appreciate suggestions relative to this new publication.

The initial issue comes off the press September 28. Filled with the spirit and information regarding the issues at hand the pages of this little circular are certain to be received by all enthusiasts and supporters of Otterbein Athletics with satisfaction.

Local clubs similar to the one in Westerville have been formed in Anderson, Ind. and Dayton, Ohio. The plan as has been described before is that these local organizations should all be consolidated into what is known as the Otterbein Athletic Club. "The Booster" will be representative of all.

Let everyone support this new enterprise with occasional contributions and thus make the work of the Editor easier as well as add interest and breadth to its contents.

GYMWORK NOW COMPULSORY

Many Disadvantages of Old System Are Overcome by New Athletic Policy.

For many years past Otterbein has had a department of physical education called "Pickups" in her Athletics and Gymnasia classes during the winter months. Naturally this sort of a system did not reach the larger part of the students. Gymnasia classes were purely elective for all students and only comparatively few took advantage of them.

Then the classes were held for such a short a season that to obtain much real benefit was a task. Besides it is a drawback, when the indoor sports were being held after a class hour, to find room for those used for developing varsity teams.

Such conditions as those brought Otterbein to her senses and she immediately went to work to remedy this evil.

For the last few years Otterbein students, faculty and friends were dreaming of a new department of physical education. Along with this new department also was a new athletic plan or system. Now this new system is in practical use.

As a head for this new department Royal F. Martin is doing his best to make it a success. Harold J. IDDINGS succeeds Mr. Martin as coach of athletics. Mr. Martin in his new position assumes entire control of the physical education department also automatically becomes the graduate manager of athletic teams.

The department of physical education is composed of compulsory physical training for all students both male and female of the Freshman and (Continued on page five.)

ALUMNI RETURN TO PHILALETHEA

Philaletheans of Years Gone-by Render "Old Time" Program Before Attentive Listeners.

DOCTOR SHERRICK PRESIDES

Minutes of the Society's First Session in 1858 are Read and Approved.

One of the most delightful occasions in the history of Philalethea was held Thursday evening when the society and friends were entertained by her alumnae in an "Old Time" session. The flight of time was forgotten, for all there were given a fitting tribute to the occasion. Alumnae of many years back intermingled as girls again with the more youthful members and all ages from seventeen to sweet sixteen heard the excellent program.

All chair officers displayed the dignity and grace acquired in Philalethea many years ago. Miss Sarah M. Sherrick, '89, was president; Miss Geneva Cornell, '94, secretary; and Mrs. Gertrude Slater Sanders, '77, was a most able critic. Miss Sarah J. Winter, '74, as chaplain brought the old time spirit into the very opening exercises and Miss Alma Conner, '94, kept up the spirit in the office of editor. The minutes of the first session of Philalethea, in 1858, were read and approved.

The whole program breathed an atmosphere of keen pleasure in reviewing old memories. Most of the program were those actually given in society many years ago; and two songs, those by Mrs. Sarah Kummer and Mrs. Adelle Crieh Kohr, were written by the solioists for this occasion.

The program follows:

Chorus—"Darling Nelly Gray," Helen Shaskan, '96, and society.
Recitation—Mrs. Inez Alexander Crouse. Given 1873.
Piano Solos—Mrs. Elizabeth Cooper Ressler, '83.

Endeavorers to Entertain.

Tonight, at seven-thirty, Christian Endeavorers will hold a social in the basement of the First United Brethren Church. This event promises to be a big one and a pleasing program has been arranged. The Endeavorers intend to enter the field of politics tonight and elect several municipal officials to fill make believe vacancies. Refreshments will be served and a roving time is assured.
NEW RULES DISCUSSED

College Officials Meet in Columbus to Discuss Football Rules—Otterbein is Represented.

Coach Iddings and Physical Director R. F. Martin were in Columbus Tuesday, attending the annual meeting of the Football Rules Committee of the Ohio Conference, which was held in the Chamber of Commerce room in the Capital City. W. St. John, former Wesleyan Coach, and now director of athletics at Ohio State, presided over the meeting while representatives of Ohio Wesleyan, Denison, Otterbein and Wittenberg, as well as many Southern Ohio officials were in attendance.

No new rules were formulated at the meeting, nor were any changes made which will seriously affect the sport. However, a lively discussion of the rules now in effect took place, during which most of the coaches spoke. In addition, as several other prominent referees, umpires and linemen of Ohio colleges were present, and gave their interpretation of various rules.

The most important new rule provides that in all kickoffs the ball be placed on the 50-yard line, in all goals the ball be placed on the 50-yard line, and in all punts the ball be placed on the 50-yard line.

The matter of allowing coaches the privilege of walking the sidelines during a game was discussed. At some fields, such as the State gridiron, the benches for coaches and substitutes are located near one end of the field. When the ball is in play, it is practically impossible for him to keep up with the action. At a moment's notice the committee decided that, should the coaches of the opposing teams agree upon it, the measures of the eleven would be permitted to walk the sidelines, although under no circumstances are they to be allowed on the field.

SIDELINES

Scrimmage is rapidly becoming a daily occurrence. Coach Iddings seems determined that all plays shall work as successfully in practice as they are in theory.

Every afternoon the sideline are crowded with interested watchmen. Such interest befriends the proper Otterbein enthusiasm.

The big fight seems to be for guard positions, with Sholty, Maze, Evans, Fish and Phillips all "on the job."

Lingrel, Ream, Gilbert and Mundhenk make a mighty fine looking backfield of speed and experience—what more could one ask?

At present the line averages 108 pounds and the backfield 166 making a team average of 167.

Lingrel seems to be as good a punt er and kicker as ever the pigskin can boot and throw the pigskin.

Hal J. Iddings

Otterbein's new Football Coach has already won a place in the hearts of all his many supporters. He is a perfect gentleman at all times and as a result, has been named the "Coach of the Year." He is a fine physical type.

The loss of Booth will be keenly felt. His height made him a fine defensive player and he was never known to make a bad pass.

The tackles are well taken care of with "Big" one side and "Captain Bill" on the other.

As for ends—Well said! Miller is a real find and we all know the ability of Peden.

Coach Iddings displays a flash of real speed Thursday evening when he showed Waiters a clean pair of heels. The sideline critics say that they can realize that he surely was "some man" during his career at Chicago.

Spirit, Saturday night at the rally ran high. Now let all that can show up in practice the spirit imbued there and back the team by going to Granville September 30. Keep up the slogan—"Get Denison."

Sunday's Dispatch contained the headline—"Iddings Clamors for More Speed in Backfield." Each day however shows some improvement and maybe we can "shift into high" before long.

Ream promises to make a very good plugging halfback. The way he gets his head down and plays looks mighty good from the side line.

Gilbert still has the "old stuff." His style of "fasting" through a "open field is well nigh wonderful.

CLASSES ELECT OFFICERS

Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen Classes Organize for the College Year of 1916-17.

Class elections have been the subject of conversation for the last few days. As usual 12:30 P.M. has been the favorite time of meeting. The three lower classes have organized but the Seniors are yet to be heard from. The results are as follows:

Juniors

President—E. B., Brown.
Vice-President—T. E., Phillips.
Secretary—J. E. Wilhelm.
Yell Master—J. J., Mundhenk.
Social Chairman—Betty Fries.

Sophomores

President—A. C., Singell Jr.,
Vice-President—R. H., Huber.
Secretary—Gladsly Lake.
Treasurer—J. R., Harnaline.
Yell Master—V. E., Crabbe.
Social Chairman—Earle Barnhart.

Freshmen

President—H. W., Hall.
Vice-President—Lyman Hert.
Secretary—Gladsly Swigart.
Treasurer—Roy Peden.
Yell Master—Irma Hayne.
Social Chairman—Gladsly Howard.

Determined to Whip Denison

Otterbein Team is Working Hard

"To fight and fight hard is the determination of Otterbein's husky gridironers when on next Saturday they meet with Denison at Granville. Every man on the team will be in tip-top form after a week of solid practice. Although a little slow in starting the backfield should round into shape by the end of the week. The line needs a little more seasoning but will be ready for the battle. Straight plays have been the only ones used in signal practice so far as Iddings wants his team to master the simple game first. This week should see some new plays.

Fifty students are expected to follow the team and help in the battle, which promises be a hot one.

Little has been heard from the Big Red camp; but judging from previous performances during the past few years a warm reception will be tendered Iddings' men. Otterbein hasn't downed Denison for at least fifteen years; but it can be done. If it should turn into an Otterbein victory, it will be the biggest and most desired scalp of the season.

Y. W. C. A. Welcomes Girls

At the beginning of the college year, every effort is made to welcome the new students to Otterbein and its associations. Such was the plan of the first meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association which was held on last Tuesday evening.

The regular meeting consisted largely of "chummy talks" by the various members of the cabinet in which the plans for the year were discussed. Then all joined in various games until the evening was passed.
Miss Jessie M. Brown came to us from Ohio State University. She takes the place of Miss Blanche Bar­conni who resigned as instructor in Art last spring. Miss Brown is well qualified for her position. She specialized in art in Otterbein, Columbus, Chicago for three years, and in the Art Department of Blue Mountain College, Mississippi. Otterbein is fortunate in securing her services as the head of the Art Department.

--Life.

Don't Neglect the Body!
On the slope of the ridges of the Catskills is a cottage which houses a curious university club. It has little in common with university clubs of the cities, save that its members have plundered degrees from the branches of higher education.

These university clubsmen know literature, philosophy, science, history, story, and they are wise and read and know the problems of every day life. Their conversation is that of bright, clever, proficient, successful men of affairs—if useful members in the world of commerce, science or letters.

Yet not one of them works.
They have degrees and leisures and punctuated with deadly carefulness. Their bodies are floundering worthless specimens to house a soul.
All day long they lie in their long invaluable chairs wrapped in heavy blankets.
They blink at the hills and years for the passports of health back to the centers of human salubrity from which they were sent. To them joyment and happiness will never come.
They must be content with an aching remembrance of the bright days in their imagination and in their minds with thoughts of successful careers.

Only too late has the realization come to these men, that study in books is not all to be taken care of in a college career. They set about at the very beginning to mould their destinies with the one idea of knowledge, in their unmastered minds, utterly forgetting the development of the body. Their candles burned long into the night. Studies were maxiced—but health was neglected. Yes, they were developed well in the fields of learning and higher education but they did not apply themselves in the slightest degree for the preservation of that greatest asset—good health.
We do not depic the epic value of the acquisition of one of the finest mental disciplines. But we do beg leave to call respectful attention to the neglect of an adequate development of the nearest and dearest thing to the student—his body.

Otterbein presents all that could be wished in this all important phase of life. The gymnasium classes are prospective, say, "I'm going to and I'd rather not make the team. I'm too slow.
You know there's no chance for me so what the use of going out to try every day? I'm here and when I play all afternoon I just simply can't get down to work at night. Such fellows are here for themselves alone. They are greedy.
They don't have the school at heart.
The last excuse is a weak fort to crawl into, for competent authorities have found by investigations that the best work is done after exercise is taken. Yes and football playing at that. Don't become discouraged because you are not on the varsity at the first call. Shifts are to be made.
Remember that the varsity men were scrubbed at one time. It was only through hard practice that they have made good. Coaches have said that a team is only as strong as its substitutes. Then the scrub is as valuable as the varsity man himself. So let your prospect wash the yellow streak off his back by taking a plunge into the Otterbein spirit and do your part in the building up of a winning team.

CLUB TALK

To the Editor:

Abe Oster hit the nail on the head perhapps in last week's issue of the Review.

He said, "Any plan can be a success if given the proper kind of support." That is in part very true, though a great deal of the system of any business. The university, the students and the alumni have co-operated for the first time in the history of the institution on an athletic basis. With this co-operation, there should be great things coming about athletically under the Tan and Cardinal during the next few years.
No team without enthusiasm behind it, however will amount to shucks.

From a few views from the sidelines recently, it looks like Osterbein has a team that can and will fight, every inch of the way. Every department of the school has helped to give the very best of getting the scalp of every team on the schedule this season. This is the year to do it.

The alumni of Otterbein university is to a man behind the system, coaches and team this year.
They are working through the Otterbein Athetic Club to give financial assistance, where it is badly needed.
If this year is a success, more will be done in the years to come, so let us all get behind that team which is going to Granville on Sept. 30.

I am in receipt of a letter from Homer P. Lambert, president of the Otterbein Athletic Club, who says, "I will try to be present at the Denison game. Very glad to hear of the enthusiasm under the new system. But impress this fact upon the boys, that a whole lot depends upon them, not all on the coaches."
ROY REVIVES FOOTBALL SPIRIT

The seniors made an impressive scene. Mounting the platform it was observed that Prexy and all the rest of the faculty were reproduced in make-up and costume. Taking their seats, Doctor Clipping or alias Thurston Ross called the faculty meeting to order. A telegram announcing a serious injury to Lingrel in the afternoon game caused consternation and havoc to reign. The professors, shocked at this, a cataclysm began an onslaught on football as an intercollegiate sport in Otterbein. Professor Sanders, Guittier and West led in the battle of arguments proclaiming that this roughness of the gridiron is a thing to be disconcerted. On the other hand Professor Rosclet, Doctors Jones and Sherrick upheld the sport despite the awful tragedy of the afternoon. The grieving Doctor nodded his head in acquiescence until sympathizing with the faction whose side seemed the best during the battle of words. In the midst of this heated discussion a second telegram brought the welcome news that Lingrel was not hurt but only stewed. Weeping and wailing over such a disaster to this young man the dignified professors began to become less resentful against football. At this juncture the screams of a baby were heard and L. B. Mignery, wheeled in a baby car by attentive nurses, made his way to the platform. When placed on the stage a sign "Victory" painted on a banner, told the story of Denison's defeat. Learning of the victory and realizing that the injury to Lingrel was a mistake the staged faculty voted to retain the grand old game forever.

Next on the program came the Juniors. Miss Charlotte Kurtz took the part of a fairy and waving her magic wand summoned to the platform members of the class of '98 made up to represent the various phases of college life. This stunt was unique and extremely original. Every member of the Junior class was on the stage with their mascot, a kitten produced from the bell of "Rube" Barnhart's horn.

John B. Garver, president of the Athletic Association, then took charge of the ceremonies introducing first Manager George A. Sechrist who outlined the season's schedule in a complete and enthusiastic manner. Professor Fritz then favored the audience with a reading adapted from "Old Siwash" to fit Otterbein's conditions. The reading made a decided hit but the applause failed to bring the professor to the stage again. Capt. "Bill" Counsellor was the next speaker, introducing the most important man in Otterbein athletics—Our Coach. "Bill" was followed on the platform by Coach Iddings himself who spoke on the subject. "Our Team," Coach Iddings emphasized the fact that the enthusiasm of the evening should be but a starter to a season long "pep and boost-
Many States and Churches Represented.

An attendance of students from 41 states and four foreign countries was evidenced at the recent regular meeting of the Ohio State Alumni Association, held in the ballroom of the Ohio State University on Friday evening, Oct. 11, with President H. S. Boardman in the chair.

The association had a membership of nearly 200, including alumni and friends from all parts of the United States and Canada.

The program consisted of a brief address by the president, followed by the reading of reports from various committees and a discussion of current topics of interest to alumni.

Dr. W. H. Glennon, president of the Ohio State University, was the principal speaker of the evening, and he delivered an address on "The Future of Education." His talk was well-received by the audience, who were all enthusiastic in their praise of his eloquent delivery and deep insight into the problems of education.

The meeting adjourned at 10:00 p.m., with the promise of further meetings in the near future.

That Ye May Know.

Several people have been inquiring of me just how it feels to be president. The editor himself wants to know so I write this to satisfy all curious ones. It feels mighty good, to be in command of five hundred students, thirty faculty members, three janitors and a Shylock. Think of the joy to be had from sitting in the old chapel, yes more than that, on the platform, the holy of holies, with the footlights glancing on your face knowing that you are "prexy." One cannot imagine the joy to be had from doing certain things as president which herefore have not been considered as exactly orthodox. Then what a relief, what an exultation, to be able to look all the professors in the eye and not have to worry about the fact that they are no more than professors, but are also "prexy." It was just like being one of the assistant professors, and being able to look them in the eye and say, "I am the president," unlimited power as it were.

The Administration Committee regarded this act as the breaking of a moral pledge and as yet have not decided upon their future action. The fresheries are anxious to get back at the Sophs, and unanimously declare that revenge will be theirs if there is a return of the "scrap" day." This action, according to the Administration Committee, is an attempt to undermine the good name of the university. The action is considered by many to be a violation of the rules of the university, and is likely to lead to further trouble.

The Sophomores, on the other hand, are easier to please, beyond doubt, their class supremacy and prar night will be the faculty will be lenient in this matter.

Extemporaneous—Mrs. Lou Hett Francis, Mrs. Mary Hewitt Lauterborn, Mrs. Mary Baker, Mrs. J. E. Guitner, Mrs. John A. Shauck.

Chorus—"Philalethes", Society.

After the call of old members and reading of "delinquents" the session adjourned for a social good time. Old rose and white was the color scheme in the ice cream and "Philalethes" baked" cake. Special thanks is tendered to Mrs. Mary Grise Naber, 14 who originated the idea and to any member on the program who helped make it a real success.

That Ye May Know.

Several people have been inquiring of me just how it feels to be president. The editor himself wants to know so I write this to satisfy all curious ones. It feels mighty good, to be in command of five hundred students, thirty faculty members, three janitors and a Shylock. Think of the joy to be had from sitting in the old chapel, yes more than that, on the platform, the holy of holies, with the footlights glancing on your face knowing that you are "prexy." One cannot imagine the joy to be had from doing certain things as president which herefore have not been considered as exactly orthodox. Then what a relief, what an exultation, to be able to look all the professors in the eye and not have to worry about the fact that they are no more than professors, but are also "prexy." It was just like being one of the assistant professors, and being able to look them in the eye and say, "I am the president," unlimited power as it were.

The Administration Committee regarded this act as the breaking of a moral pledge and as yet have not decided upon their future action. The fresheries are anxious to get back at the Sophs, and unanimously declare that revenge will be theirs if there is a return of the "scrap" day." This action, according to the Administration Committee, is an attempt to undermine the good name of the university. The action is considered by many to be a violation of the rules of the university, and is likely to lead to further trouble.

The Sophomores, on the other hand, are easier to please, beyond doubt, their class supremacy and prar night will be the faculty will be lenient in this matter.

LOCALS.

George Drechsel spent the weekend at his home in Circleville.

Horace J. Truettman, who entered as a '96, has left school to become a United State Marine.

Professor S. Whyte is in the city on business.

Vic Bice because it is the season!

Daisy takes “real” cable.

Dr. Jones—“Who saw him.” (Applause).

At the Ohio A. M. E. conference held at Washington C. H. last week Rev. James Bridges was appointed to Westerville.

The steaming of Doctor Snively’s home is nearly completed. When finished this residence will be an imposing ornament to the street.

For class plays get your buns at Days”—Adv.

At least fifty students have expressed their intentions of attending the Denison game, next Saturday at Granville. Automobiles are being hired, while others are going to “scoot.” Such is the spirit here now.

Governor Willis has proclaimed Oct. 25 as fire and accident prevention day, and publicly to observe the day by removing rubbish from all premises, by having heating apparatus, electrical wiring and chimneys inspected and put into condition for winter, and by renewing interest in all things for the conservation of human life and property.

Girls! Those good “eats” come from Days”—Adv.

Persons passing the mail box at the corner of Grove street and College avenue Monday morning, were surprised to hear the cry of a cat coming from within. How the cat got in the box is a mystery but it is certain that it was not pleased with its new home.

Let us measure you now for your fall and winter overcoat and suit. E. J. Norris.—Adv.

Mr. Dwight Sutherland Smith of Pittsburgh was in Westerville Thursday retuning several stops in the organization. Mr. Sutherland gave the opening organ recital here last spring.

Harold F. Rowland, who has been attending Otterbein for the last four years left Westerville last Friday to take up work in the University of Pittsburgh, “Rolly,” for that is the name that his many Otterbein friends have given him, will study economics and higher accountability.

Doctor P. H. Kilbourne, ’08, wife and children drove up from Dayton Saturday evening to visit Mrs. Kilbourne’s parents, Mrs. and Mrs. G. Crouse. The Doctor and family returned to Dayton Sunday afternoon.

Freshmen to the number of fifteen cleaned up the wood piles back of the business houses Saturday for the bonfire, which was lighted after the program in the chapel. The new men who helped showed the true spirit; but to those who flunked out on the job we suggest a little more “pep.”

Kahn tailored suits give distinction and individuality. E. J. Norris.—Adv.

President Clipping announced East Ohio and Allegheney Conferences last week at Cleveland, Ohio and Johnstown, Pa., respectively. At Johnstown a big Otterbein rally was held and spirit ran high in consideration of Otterbein affairs.

COCHRAN NOTES.

Reforms are still continuing; fresh curtains in the dining room and flowers on the tables, are the latest.

A friend from Barberton, visited Gladys Swigart over the week-end.

Scandal! Those interested see Room No. 1 on first floor; any Sunday evening at ten o’clock.

Mary and Martha Storer motored to Johnstown as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Coons of Westerville.

Agnes Wright spent the week-end at her home in Canal Winchester.

Irene Wells arrived Sunday evening. Welcome to our city, Irene!

Time to change tables! A new system of seating in the dining room has been adopted.

It will no longer be “the fruit basket upset” idea.

Ruth Van Kirk’s father with friends drove to Westerville on Saturday, to spend Sunday with Ruth. They brought some mighty good eats.

Gladys Howard visited relatives in Circleville, Sunday.

We are all anxiously awaiting the arrival of our Ruth K. It is reported that she will come, so we must not give up.

Mary Myers has moved up to fourth. A case of waiting on Ruth.

Sunday evening’s tea party was a great success. There was a full attendance and a good time was enjoyed by all! Ask Olive Wagle how to make tea; the colorless kind.

Helen Keller was a Sunday dinner guest at the Hall.

College Men.

Since the U. S. was founded, only one man in seven hundred and fifty has gone through college; yet from this group there have come 17 of the 26 presidents, 10 of the 27 vice presidents and 17 of the 34 persons in the Hall of Fame. Only 1 per cent of our present population are college people, yet this small percentage furnishes 29 of the 51 governors of states and territories, 81 of the 93 U.S. Senators, 472 out of 395 Congressmen, and 9 out of the 9 Supreme Court Judges.

Twenty students of Oberlin College among whom were several football celebrities and glee club men were expelled for belonging to secret organizations. A few years ago, two Greek letter fraternities were discovered and were supposedly broken up.

"There goes a fellow who seems to take the worst possible view of everything," remarked the grouch.

"What is he, a pessimist?" asked the old fogey.

"No, he’s an amateur photographer," replied the grouch.—Ex.
