OTTERBEIN TAKES DENISON SCALP

Idding's Men Dedically Defeat Baptists at Granville in First Game of Gridiron Season.

REAM MAKES TOUCHDOWN

Tan and Cardinal Warriors Show Excellent Coaching in Offensive as well as Defensive Play.

All dope records were smashed when Ream, right half-back for Otterbein, picked a pretty pass out of the air and fell across the line for a touchdown on Denison's gridiron last Saturday in one of the greatest victories ever won by the tan and cardinal, eleven. Lingrel then kicked the goal which completed the scoring for the entire game, and when the last minute of play was ended Otterbein left the field with a 7-0 victory for the first time since the early 90's.

Both teams fought hard and made the best use of every minute they were in action. The defense of the enemies was strong and Lingrel's quarter was "stone-wall" variety and was almost invincible for the "Big Red" team. However, Denison made several pretty gains with long passes, but when it came to pushing the "pigs" the Otterbein line stood firm.

As for Otterbein's offensive playing none too much can be said. Time after time large gains were made through the Big Red line, while the Granville boys were forced to use open field punting. Lingrel then made 12 yards through right tackle, and Miller passed to Lingrel for 5 yards more. Mundhenk then gained 1 yard, placing the ball at the 24 yard line. At this stage of the game a few substitutions were made. Rupp went in for Denison while Huber replaced Gilchrist for Otterbein.

TEAM GETS RECEPTION

Hundreds of Students Meet Team When Visiting Athletes Arrive from Granville.

Great was the celebration in Westerville when news of victory came Saturday evening. Tailing for an hour and forty minutes the chapel bell sent its peal for miles, announcing Denison's defeat. All the town was in a turmoil. From the receipt of the news until the arrival of the team, students gathered boxes, bannets and paper for a bonfire. At eighty-three the band assembled and three hundred students paraded the streets in snake-like fashion until the car arrived bringing the heroes of the day. A wagon was pulled to the platform of the car and men and foot ballers stepped from the car he was lifted upon the wagon amidst roaring cheers. Then the parade proceeded to the college chapel, where the Otterbein "pup" reigns supreme.

As each player stepped on the platform to take his seat the crowd went wild. Cheer after cheer was led by Stanton B. Wood. Then John C. Carver introduced the team that scored the greatest victory for Otterbein in years, and the first defeat of Denison for the Tan and Cardinal in eighteen seasons. Doctor VanBuskirk in his old time way told how it feels to beat Denison. Elmo Lingrel expressed his feeling when he shot the ball to Ream for the score, while Ream told how it felt to catch it and bring home the coveted scalp. "Get Kenyon" was the "pup" cheer by W. E. Naulity. With enthusiasm at its highest pitch all left the chapel for the bonfire as the band played "O. U. Will Shine Tonight." As the fire burned a dance was held around it, after which Abe Grint, '10, made one of his old-time speeches.

Three rousing yells were given and the crowd left the scene after helping in one of the greatest celebrations ever accorded an Otterbein team.

Elmo Lingrel Elected President of Senior Class. Otterbein's senior class assembled Thursday night to elect the class officers for the coming year. Elmo Lingrel was elected president; J. O. Redbird, vice president, Grace Moog, secretary; J. O. Todd, treasurer; and J. B. Carver yell master. The class also chose a new social committee chairman, Miss Ruth Van Kirk. The seniors expect a big year.

On Saturday, Oct. 25, will occur the first Senior meet when the class of 1912 will strike out for Worthington.

PHYSICAL WORK BEGINS.

Boys' and Girls' Classes. Well, according to the "Gym" Work to be Varied—Upper Classmen Enlist.

Last week the classes in physical education met for the first time and organized for the semester's work. All classes were well represented, which shows that unusual interest is being taken in the work.

The boys' classes started their work on last Thursday. The morning section went to the athletic field and soccer football was played. On account of the weather the section in the afternoon was obliged to work in the gymnasium. This class after a few instructions from Professor Martin did a little drill work, played games and finished the hour with good last run. The work discovered such an interest that several of the upper classmen have joined the ranks.

The meeting day for the girls was also interfered with on account of the rainy weather. They spent the time in the "gym," but hope that at the next meeting the weather will permit a "hike." There is an opportunity for all the girls to join one of the classes and get some excellent training.

Professor Martin said that the work would be varied so as to make it interesting as well as beneficial to those engaged.

The by the end of the week the team should put on a much better appearance. Signals were rigged in the Denison encounter, but will be well handled for Kenyon. At any case the many injuries should be healed by the end of the week. With the best coach in the state and a mighty team this practice should bring forth the desired results for the Kenyon game.

SIDELINES.

Otterbein's victory over Denison was the real sensation of Saturday's football games in Ohio.

Lingrel's punting and passing was superb, for he put the ball just where he wanted it.

Last Saturday's game was one of fight to win, as both teams were evenly matched. Otterbein, averaged 180 pounds, whipped Denison the team at 165 pounds to the man.

Rupp, the All Ohio half back last year, played a remarkable game, carrying the ball for long gains for the Big Red team of which he is captain.

Ream certainly had glue on his fingers, at least it looked that way to those who saw him hang on to that oval.

Mundhenk, Miller and Evans certainly showed the stuff, for they broke through like veterans.

Fighting conversation is always interesting. Rupp, making a long end pass said to Ling, "You won't get me." Ling's laugh after deflecting him under the screen, "I got you, didn't I?" Rupp, kicking himself up, "I'll say you did."

Mundhenk used the military style when bucking the line. This is probably due to the fact that he was two years in Ohio State.

Gilbert has the nerve and he don't let a sprained ankle stop him from gaining the ground.

Cook of Denison is a bear when it comes to breaking through the line. He spoiled several pretty plays for Otterbein.

Coach Iddings don't say much but that smile on his face last Saturday shows that he is proud of the whole team.

Don't seven to nothing against Denison sound like "Get Kenyon." Let's do it.

"Coalley" Wood led the O. U. backers in some fine cheering and helped the team to victory.

Coach Iddings must have given away to his temper when he kicked the bucket.

"Bill" counsellor is a real man playing both tackle and center with equal certainty.

The motto for this week is, "Get Kenyon or Bust!"

John Ward, the noted expert of Denison training said: "Otterbein's team indicated that it has been coached well. It played as a unit. Denison's line made to appear like a thread. Otterbein's technique wasn't superior to that of Denison."
Y. M. C. A. MAKES PLANS.

New Activities to be Taken Up by Association Cabinet for ensuing Year.

In working out the policy of the Y. M. C. A. this year, the President has found it difficult to determine what line should be followed. He realizes the work of the association must necessarily deal with young men who have almost entirely come from Christian homes and who, already having, in some degree at least, affiliated themselves with some form of Christian work in their home communities. Therefore he feels that the policy of the Y. M. C. A. should be fashioned to lead these men more, expressly, into the life of Christian service. To do policy than this is to miss the very purpose of the Association. The constitution states that "the object of the Association shall be to promote, growth in grace and Christian fellowship among members and aggregating Christian work, especially by and for young men, to train them for Christian service, and to lead them to devote themselves to Jesus Christ, not only in distinctively religious callings, but also in secular pursuits.

It is the hope of the present administration to work out a plan and completely as possible this noble purpose. The first step, necessary in realizing this ideal, is to enlist every man, in school as a member of the Association. Every man in Otterbein a member of Y. M. C. A., is the slogan.

Already the various committees have formulated their policies for the year. Preparations for special Bible study, mission study classes, social service work, and the many other phases of Association work have been made.

The aim of the weekly meetings is to broaden the view of life, to give necessary and wholesome instruction; to foster and promote a healthful social spirit; to elevate ideals, and to give good wholesome, spiritual food.

While from the very nature of the student association it is necessary to direct its efforts largely toward the college student, but this year the borders are to be broadened and work is to be taken up in the High School and among boys of the community. The association believes in the "Big Brother" movement and hopes to express its faith in deeds and not creeds.

If these plans and purposes of the present administration hopes to actualize the object of the association. It hopes to turn men who are fitted as Christian leaders into the various communities and vocations they enter. With such excellent plans being put into practice by efficient and interested men, the association work for the ensuing year under E. R. Turner should even beat the splendid record of the past.

New plans were discussed and a project was begun by the Public Speaking Council last Tuesday night. The project is to control forensics as the Athletic Board does the athletes. Two new stage scenes will be purchased for the stage.

Y. W. C. A. GIRLS ARE BUSY.

Plans for Year are Being Put in Practice by an Enthusiastic Cabinet.

Edna R. Miller, president of the Young Women's Christian association has splendid policies for this year's cabinet. Already the various committees are at work to put them into practice. Each committee with Miss Edna as their leader are to do great things should come from the association. The plans for the year is in the following quotation from the Hand book:

"The purpose of the Association shall be to unite the women of the institution in loyalty to Jesus Christ, to lead them to accept him as their personal Savior, to build them up in the knowledge of Christ, especially through Bible study and Christian service, that their character and conduct may be consistent with their belief. It shall thus associate them with the student of the world for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. It shall further seek to acclimatize the Christian church and to the religious work of the institution."

A more practical and definite policy is outlined locally, where the Y. W. C. A. sets to "give every girl a chance to find herself," to discover her latent possibilities and resources. This is made possible by the practical and inspirational meetings with student leaders, and the Bible classes, where the girls can express their own ideas and discuss each other's viewpoint. Every girl is picked on some committee and given some definite work to do, thereby providing opportunity for various lines of self-development. From time to time special speakers will bring messages of some particular interest to college girls. The group spirit is emphasized with 'slogans' as a slogan. The social service ideals are carried out in real service, and in every line of activity the spirit of Jesus Christ is the standard, that the words of the national motto may be fulfilled, "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

Freshmen Have Jubilee at Davis Hall-Acre.

On last Wednesday evening the freshmen had the first real push of the year. They have been "pushed" around ever-since they came to Otterbein, but this was organized, planned and enjoyed by the freshmen themselves.

The class met on the Ashin Creek bridge and up the paths went to Davis Hall-Acre where they enjoyed an evening of planned, and less a most interesting program.

The leading entertainers were Professor and Mrs. West, Miss Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Barr. The singing was interesting and original and the reading by Miss Barr was taken with much applause. After enjoying the sandwiches, cocktails and icicles, the "pushers" and their "helpful" "maids" acquaintances turned again toward Cochran Hall, feeling that the class of 1900 is the greater and best which ever entered Otterbein.

Scrap Day Difficulties

Is scrap day to be or not to be?
That is the question. The very air is charged with rumors pro and con. One student can scarcely talk to another, for the most important question of the day is being debated. Even the faculty has been discussing the question from all sides. But talk and rumors will never settle it. Action must be taken immediately. If such is not done, we may predict more rough stuff in the near future. So let scrap day snap for the fellow that hasn't any fight in him and so we can't blame the underclassmen for that character.

But we believe that if scrap day was decided upon this way, it seems to fill the very nerve and tissue of the class enthusiast would have its vent on that day and then would be wasted. We also believe that class spirit is an important factor of early college life, for it is only to the class that the new born college "babe" clings for recognition. Out of the early enthusiasm for scrap days comes the real college spirit. The one precedes the other. Unless there is an abundant supply of class spirit to begin on, college spirit will stand but little chance for future development.

If the authorities grant the day since the first compact is shattered it will be up to every student to support them. The faculty is utterly helpless in this matter without the hearty cooperation of each and every student. We want a scrap day, but we also want a scrap day that the activities, athletic teams and organizations of every other year have absolutely no record in, that the activities and organizations of the class will be reduced to nothing, and that a reduction fit side would be more satisfactory financially.

But most important of all objections to the present form is the fact that the activities, athletic teams and organizations of every other year have absolutely no record in this publication. This conclusively shows that the publication has been too extravagant and pretentious, and that a reduction fit side would be more satisfactory financially.

What remedy is there for these de­fects? Only one; that of changing the form and making the annual publication.

In an annual we could have a more compact, but still more attractive book than before. Every page could be filled with concentrated "pulp", every article of interest and importance. As the size of the book would be reduced, the cost of publication would also be much less, and in all probability instead of piling up a big debt, the annual would at least pay its own expenses.

In addition, every event of the college year would be recorded in a continuous record of the school life, instead of the intermittent one we now have.

This plan has been discussed in many social circles, and has been heartily approved. Experience has shown that it is not wise to burden oneself with a lot of unnecessary details from the past, which were hard to fill, and for which the school has been swamped with outside duties, and lessons would be neglected.

Denison left the game and Chandler replaced him. Ream failed to gain. Gilbert and Lingrel plunged the line for eight yard gains. Otterbein was then penalized fifteen yards. Lingrel again pulled off another spectacular pass to Ream who crossed the line for the second time but the touchdown was ruled out. The quarter ended with the ball in Otterbein's possession on the 47 yard line. Score, Otterbein 7, Denison 0.

A short rest and the game proceeded. This was the final quarter and Denison's last chance to win. Like a drowning man after a struggle they used the forward pass to pull the game out of the fire. They carried the ball to Otterbein's 25 yard line and then failed to produce the necessary punch. Lingrel punted. Rupp gained three yards, Lang failed on a buck and Reynolds takes a pass on the 50 yard line. Several yards were made by passes but Otterbein held on the 20 yard line and took the ball. Rupp went out after a failure to win for his team and Steger took his place. Lingrel made fifteen yards by two bucks. Mundhenk failed to gain, while Gilbert made first down. The game ended with Otterbein's ball on Denison's 45 yard line. Score, Otterbein 7, Denison 0.

GLEE CLUB ORGANIZES.

Director A. R. Spessard Predicts a Splendid Organization for 1916-1917 Season.

From all indications Otterbein will have a better glee club this season than she has had for several years. There have been two rehearsals and Professor Spessard says that, considering the fact that it is the beginning of the year, it is the best sounding organization he has heard for some time.

The members of last year's that were together last summer at Miami Valley 'Kid' during summer vacation. The members are:

Mary Gardner Funk Speaks to Girls on Timekeeping Subjects.

All girls who attended the meeting on Tuesday evening were pleased to hear Mrs. Mary Gardner Funk speak on "Culture for College Women." She emphasized the fact that there may be a college training without culture just as there may be a rose without fragrance. Culture is not synonymous with wisdom or success. A college course in classics and music is a refinement gained from education in its broadest sense. Those who have gained culture are marked as those who have lived with culture. Culture is at its best, while the others who have not gained it have lived in opposition to the best. Culture comes from comingling in various activities, from reading good books and always from the Bible and from learning to pray. It has its advantages just as fragrance has its advantage to the rose.

Gladys Lake, Bible study chairman, presented a lesson on "Excellence." She asked that the girls this year might put aside the usual foolish excuses and entirely replace them, which promise to be helpful. The student leaders are: Freshmen, Ethel Hill, Sophomores, Opal Gilbert, and Juniors and Seniors, Ethel Meyers.

R. P. Ernestberger discussed stereo-phonograph meeting of the Science club held last Monday evening. Ruth Dick read a paper on the cold storage problem. Students interested in science are urged to take advantage of these discussions.

LECTURE COURSE IS ANNOUNCED.

produces results as surprising as they are unique. To create added interest to his lectures and introducions to his programs. They studied the lives of Beethoven, Mozart and other composers and the interpretation of the Bach and Beethoven has been put forth by the group. Listening to this quintet is one of inspiration as well as education. Folk songs are sung and described with great interest by Mr. Lambert in the program of the course.

Next is the only lecturer which is Henry M. Hyde of the Chicago Tribune. His subject is "The Whole-sale manufacture of criminals." Interesting and instructive as well as stirring in the disclosing of facts regarding criminals and the laws of punishment and lack of protection against them makes this number a good one.

The Pariser Players present the third number of the course. These men should delight every one. They will produce "Three One Act Plays," anyone of which would satisfy for an evening program. This plan is made one because it gives one a variety and opportunity to form an opinion regarding the different kinds of theatrical productions.

The Pariser Players have the distinction of being the first professional organization to be established by a church. They come from the congregation and friends of Chicago's Bloomington Parish. Their numbers, all of whom have been contributed to by Mr. E. J. Says: Fellows, let's get in on 'dress-up week" Oct. 8 to 9.

DOINGS OF 1818

Where and What the Graduates of Juniata East, are Doing in the World of Work.

Believing that the whole world is interested in hearing about the Senior class of 1816, we have bestowed ourselves and, from the five corners of the earth, have gathered the following information:

Mae Baker is at Sugar Creek, Ohio, amusing herself by teaching Latin and German in the High School there.

Donn Beck is teaching English,
German and History at Ohio City.

H. D. Bercaw is showing the High School students of Anderson, Ind., how much he learned at Otterbein.
You can guess what Ann Biddle is doing best to prove to the students of the Rich-wood High School that "a" equals "b.

Myra Brenizer is teaching in the High School at Benton Ridge.

Edna Bright, finding out what the youngsters of Columbus, Ohio, think of their old alma mater.

Fred Koleag is attending Otterbein.
Claire Kintigh has charge of the Public School music at Greensburg,
Pa.

W. A. Kline, English and History in Westerville High School.

Clara Kreiling, as we are told, is giving music lessons at her home in Marshallville.

C. D. LaRue, Principal of High School at Liberty Center.

Stella Lilly, English and History at Edgerton, Ohio.

Norma McCall is Latin, English and History at New Albany.

G. L. McGee, is married and living on a farm near New Albany.

Vesta Myers is in school at Otterbein.

Orpha Mills, at home, Tuscola, Ill.

Helen Moses, at home in Westerville preparing for her marriage to Mr. Arthur Lambert of Anderson, Ind.

Mable Nichols, at home in Westerville.

Mary Nichols is teaching English at Piketon.

Erena Noel, Latin at Mendon, O.

Mary Foye is as modest as ever, so much so in fact that we have been unable to hear anything from her.

Ruth Fletcher is at home at Columbus, Ohio.

Clarence Richey is initiating the future chemists of Hilliard's High.

Stanley Ross is Asst. Principal of the High School and has Mathematics and Science at Genoa.

Glenn Ross has charge of the Washington Avenue Church in Columbus.

Frank Sanders has Latin and History at Rushylvania, Ohio.

C. W. Schmidt is in Canton, con-ected with the Tax Department of Stark County.

Leo Shaw teaches English and Latin at Brimfield, Ohio.

E. L. Baxter completed his course in summer school and is now principal of the High School at Genoa, Ohio.

Joe Goughnour is teaching Mathetics, Science and Football at Vandalia, Ill.

Myrtle Harris has Physical Geography, Agriculture, English, History, etc. at Lucas, Ohio.

Marie Hendrick, Music and Art at Alexandria.

Rodney Huber is traveling salesman for the American Book Co.

George Jacoby is employed in the offices of the American Issue Publishing Co. George was married last August and has been behaving himself very well ever since.

Fred Koler is attending Otterbein.
Claire Kintigh has charge of the Public School music at Greensburg,
Pa.

mocratic Art and Vocational Training
classes in the "Public Schools of Lima"

Floyd Vance is Assistant Cashier
in the bank at Reynoldsburg.

Don Weber is in business with his father in Dayton.

Glee Club to Fill Date.
The Otterbein Glee Club has announced a date at East Linden on Thursday, Oct. 5th. Rev F. P. Sanders intends opening a mis-ion church at that place and the Glee Club has been engaged to form an "opening wedge" at which time the regular church services will be announced.

The trip will be made by the personnel of the club under the direction of Professor Spessard. Organization of this season's club will take place next week.

A. L. Glunt was once more with his friends in Westerville during the last few days of the week. Being a loyal backer of the "Negasus" and cardinal he came from Anderson, Ind., to see his Alma Mater walloped.

Girls, we have those English shoes that look so "mamish." Come in and see them at E. J.'s

A full line of Sweater Coats and Sport Caps at E. J. Norris'.

Russell Senger is teaching English and History at West Carrollton.

Joel Shumaker has English, History,
Music and Athletics at Claridge, Pa.
Joel began an announcement that, contrary to the report, he is not mar-rried—yet.

Rowena Thompson has the Do-
mocratic Art and Vocational Training
classes in the "Public Schools of Lima"

Floyd Vance is Assistant Cashier
in the bank at Reynoldsburg.

his friends in Westerville during the last few days of the week. Being a loyal backer of the "Negasus" and cardinal he came from Anderson, Ind., to see his Alma Mater walloped.
