HIGH STREET EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

It seems difficult to write something in the first two or three days of the month that will seem "News" at the end of the month when "The High Street Witness" arrives in your home. At least we can anticipate some things for the future, and know that plans can be in the making in the weeks ahead.

By this time all of you are aware that Conference is over with all of its rush and hurry. Your Pastor was exceedingly busy all during Conference, and in the days that have followed. As these lines are prepared the final copy for the Conference Journal has been finished and is ready to send to the printer. It is a happy day when such important tasks are completed.

Before this paper arrives at your home our Revival meeting will have closed. We pray that God will bless any who have found a new experience through the Lord Jesus Christ, and we trust that all who love the Saviour will be inspired to work harder because of the meeting.

We would remind you that there are important events ahead. On Sunday, October 4, all the Protestant Churches of our land will be observing the Lord's Supper. Mark down this date in your memory and on your calander, and be sure to attend the house of God on "World Communion Day."

We have already reminded you last month of our Missionary Institute to be held on the week end of October 16th to 18th. Our speakers will be Prof. Calvin Reber, a former Missionary to China who was supported for some time by High Street Church, and Rev. Paul Robinson, Director of the Missionary Technical Course at The Moody Bible Institute. Both of these speakers will be a wonderful blessing to our Church, and we

PASTOR'S REPORT TO THE CHURCH COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION

September 1, 1953

August has been an extremely hot month which has cut into attendance drastically, but we are still ahead of last year in every department. Averages for the month are as follows: Sunday School 261; Morning Worship 263; Evening service 61; Prayer Meeting 45. Averages for a year ago were: Sunday School 234; Morning Worship 196; Evening Service 55; Prayer meeting 30.

Annual Conference has been the big news of the month, and by this time you are well aware that your Pastor and his family have been returned for another year.

In spite of the heavy press of Conference activities this has been an exceedingly busy time in the regular work of the Church. As Pastor I have made 108 calls; preached 10 times; conducted three funerals and two weddings. The parsonage family has spent time on vacation, but as yet your Pastor has not been able to separate the busy maze of activities to find time enough to get away. Perhaps later in the year a brief time can be arranged for rest purposes.

trust that through them we will have a new Missionary vision.

Remember to keep this copy of the High Street Witness with the two previous copies as a part of your directory. Perhaps with this months edition we will conclude the printing of our Church roll. Be sure to notify the Church office if any errors are detected in all of these reports. Remember also to pray for your Pastor and for the Church.

Faithfully yours,
Frank R. Hamblen.

Controversy over the mode of baptism, the manner of observing the Lord's Supper and other externalities of our faith are but a hang-over of a past order.

MRS. C. R. WENDELL

Mrs. Opal Doris (Vermillion) Wendell, daughter of Francis B. and Lottie Vermillion, was born April 1, 1903 in Lima, Ohio and departed this life at Camp Sychar, Mt. Vernon, Ohio August 12, 1953, while her husband was attending sessions of the Ohio-Sandusky Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Camp St. Marys, Ohio.

Mrs. Wendell was a child of the church, being converted in her teens and serving in many and varied ways through the church since that time.

On July, 29, 1929, she was united in marriage to Rev. Clyde Wendell. To this union was born one son, Philip, and Danny came to join this family circle in 1943.

During her life in service with her husband, they served the following charges: Stoutesville Charge, 4 years; Columbus, Westgate, 4 years; Toledo, Salem, 5 years; and for the past 8 years here at Bellevue where they have carried on a ministry particularly blessed of God.

As a faithful companion of her husband, Mrs. Wendell was a talented musician, playing the organ

A NEW VENTURE

"Launch out into the deep" were the words of Jesus to his disciples after they had fished all night and caught nothing. The editor of the O.S.N. is launching out into a great responsibility. Any degree of success will be dependent upon the grace of God and the cooperation of his fellowmen.

We thank Rev. Eustace Heckert for his patience, kindness and willingness to help us on this new venture.

It has been necessary to change methods of handling subscriptions. We are in the process of changing to a card file system. We must ask the cooperation of all pastors, and more particularly, the cooperation of all subscribers. If you do not receive your copy of the O.S.N., if you receive two copies, or if your address is not correct, please notify your editor immediately.

We want to urge the local churches to submit articles telling of their local advancements in the Kingdom of God. The answers to the problems of your church, may give a key to the answer of a similar problem in a sister church. Our church reports should be a means by which we transmit information and inspiration. May we have your cooperation in this aspect of this new venture?

It is our firm belief that the O.S.N. ought to be in every Ohio Sandusky Conference church member's home. The O.S.N. gives the program of the Conference. The O.S.N. reports the outstanding events in the local churches. The O.S.N. is an aid to the pastor by informing the church member as to what is expected of pastor and church. The O.S.N. reports each the attendance and Conference Quoto payments. Why not accept a challenge? Why don't you try to have the O.S.N. in each home of your church?

Only a small portion of the reports to Annual Conference will be found the O.S.N. For a very small charge you can have the complete minutes of the Ohio Sandusky Annual Conference. Why not place your order for your Conference minutes with your pastor now?

Our prayers for consolation are continually uttered on behalf of the loved ones of Mrs. C. W. Wendell and Rev. G. E. Burrell.

There are many pastors and churches getting acquainted with each other. This too is a new venture. Let us pray that we may know and do the will of God that He may be glorified.

MRS. C. R. WENDELL

and piano. In the work of the local church she was the assistant organist and pianist. She also served as the teacher of the Young Adult Class, and served in many other capacities when and wherever needed.

Beyond the call of the local church she was active in the Women's Society of World Service, serving for several years as Librarian in the former Ohio Conference Branch, and for the past two years in the Ohio-Sandusky Branch. She also served as the silent partner with her husband in work at Camp Sychar, where he has been president the past several years.

In her community she was interested in such Christian organizations which made for community betterment, such as the W.C.T.U. She also was interested in cultural uplift, particularly in the field of music, being a member of the Bellevue quartet.

Through all those interests she assisted her husband in ways which were advantageous in their ministry. But it is not for these thing that she will be particularly remembered. She will rather be remembered by those who knew her best for her natural gift of friendliness and her unmatched ability of being a hostess in the home. Her home was ever a "haven of rest and joy for passers-by". As was written in the Bellevue Gazette:

"Many of us shall remember Mrs. Wendell best for her magnificent sense of humor—the kind of humor which was whimsical and light-hearted—the sort of thing which always preached a silent sermon—"all's right with the world."

In the church she will be remembered not so much for the things she did but by the gracious and kind way which she helped others in developing their own talent and leadership. In her home she always wore an inviting smile which indicated God's smile of approval upon her life and upon the life in the home. She made her home not only a haven of rest for those who came for a visit, she in her kind way gave enrichment of life, and empowering of spirit, helping those who touched her life to emerge with new courage to face the realities of life. These lines have been written by a friend in her behalf:

In Memoriam

It's very hard to put in words our feeling toward a friend

Especially when she's been called home to life that never ends.

We stand beside her now still form and try to stop the tears

That flow not for her—but for us—and think of lonely years

That stretch ahead for loved ones—stunned, aching hearts,

But conscious of a Comforter who lifts them up—and then peace comes.

Alone?

No, never — how sweet the thought and back to service with inspiration brought by memory of unfailing devotion to things of the spirit—the great commission the winning of souls to a life for Christ. Yes—she's left us but her work will go on.

God bless her family wherever they sojourn.

Mary E. Degler

I will not say that she leaves to mourn or that these survive her—knowing her I must say that she leaves to carry on until they are summoned to join her in the triumph that is hers in Christ—her loving and faithful husband, servant of God in the Gospel ministry, Clyde R. Wendell, sons Philip and Danny—Mother, Mrs. Lottie Vermillion, of Marion, Brothers—Rev. Dean L. Vermillion, District Superintendent of the Oregon-Washington Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Darrell Vermillion of Marion, Ohio. Other relatives and a host of friends.

In these hours of perplexity there is no complete and satisfactory realm of reasoning but there is sufficiency out of trust and faith which gives us all hope for eternity. The poet, Whittier, best expresses it in his poem, "Eternal Goodness".

I know not what the future hath of novel or surprise

Assured alone that life or death, His mercy underlies.

I know not where his islands lift

Their fondest palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond his love and care.

This arrangement to be continued through the year 1953-1954; the same to be without surrender of membership or property rights, or any change in benevolence and missionary budget obligations. Our Superintendent of the District is to work out with the Mennonite officials some plan of joint supervision. At the end of this trial period of one year, the matter is to be again considered by the conference.

NEWS FROM CELINA CIRCUITMt. Carmel Church

Early in the summer the Sunday School sponsored a Daily Vacation Bible School under the direction of the Pastor's wife, assisted by Mrs. John Wall, Mrs. Dale Johnson and Mrs. Brayton Pyle. Average attendance for the two week period was 24.

The trustees of the Mt. Carmel Church recently replaced the church eaves and spouting and plan to begin in the near future some badly needed church renovating.

Two catechism classes, one for juniors and the other for intermediates, meet each Saturday morning. The denominational texts, "Being a Christian" and "The Christian Way," are being used.

Mrs. Brayton Pyle served as the lay representative this year. She attended the annual conference session throughout, and brought a good report before the Local Conference on August 19.

The annual Home Coming Sunday has been set for September 13. Pastor A. E. Givens, newly assigned pastor of the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church, Berne, Indiana, will bring the home coming message in the afternoon service.

Hope Church

Shortly before the annual conference session Hope Church co-operated with the other churches of Hopewell Township in sponsoring a Summer Evangelistic Mission. Services were held in a tent pitched in a nearby grove; Rev. Frank Turner, pastor Mendon Church of God, served as evangelist.

The Growing Links and Builders classes of the Sunday School recently completed a project of placing denominational road signs at three prominent intersections near Hope Church.

We rejoice that the summer's evangelistic efforts have resulted in two accessions to our membership since reports were sent into the annual conference.

During the 103 years history of Hope Church many of her young men have been called of God into full time Christian service. The most recent young man to go out from Hope Church into the Christian ministry is the Rev. Lysle E. Schmidt who was licensed by the 1953 annual conference and was assigned to the Ft. Recovery-Bethel Church. During the years Pastor Schmidt was a member of Hope Church he served as an officer in the Youth Fellowship, served as a Sunday School teacher, served as assistant class leader, and was in the choir. His departure from us is keenly felt, but we rejoice that he is leaving us to engage in greater Christian service. The prayers of the faithful in Hope will continue to ascend in his behalf.

Throughout the summer the Hope Church volleyball team has been very active in the county league. At the present writing our team is in tie for first place.

The trustees have completed the exterior redecorating of the trim, both the church and parsonage.

FAREWELL TO PASTOR

"Farewell and good luck" said the party given for Rev. and Mrs. Graham in the basement of the Pasco Church. A pot-luck supper was served to 103 members and friends of the church. The hours following were informal and featured a presentation of gifts to the honored couple.

Rev. Charles Adams, a senior in the Bonebrake Theological Seminary, is the new pastor.

The difference between a prejudice and a conviction is, that you can explain a conviction without getting mad.

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE

September 14-17 are the dates for registration at North Central College. At the time of this writing it appears that the enrollment will be from 50 to 75 higher than a year ago.

Splendid progress is being made on the construction of the new College and Seminary Library. The foundations are being poured at present. The laying of bricks will start in the near future. It is the plan of the Architect to have the building under roof before winter arrives. Most local churches will find that they will be able to reach their local church goal much easier if they place their annual amount into their Church Budget, instead of trying to raise their amount by way of a special campaign. Church Treasurers should send all their amounts to the Conference Treasurer. Amounts sent to Naperville are recorded as special gifts.

The friends of North Central will be interested in knowing that a loan has been secured for the purpose of building a new men's Dorm. This new Dorm will house 144 men, blue prints are being completed so that bids can be accepted and contract let by Sept. 15th. We hope that this building will also be under roof before winter sets in. This is a 40 year loan and can be liquidated from the rentals. Gifts, however for the retirement of the debt will always be acceptable. This new building will solve a part of our extreme housing shortage for men.

Homecoming will take place on Saturday, October 24. An interesting football game with Carroll College will take place. Parents Pastors, Sunday School Teachers are invited to visit our Campus with their young people on that day.

We covet the prayers of our local Churches so that we may be of great help in directing the Spiritual as well as Mental growth of the young people entrusted to our care.

I AIN'T DEAD YET!

My hair is white and I'm almost blind,

The days of my youth are far behind.

My neck's so stiff can't turn my head,

Can't hear half that being said.

My legs are wobbly, can hardly walk

But Glory Be, I can surely talk.

And this is the message I want you to get

I'm still a-kickin' and I ain't dead yet!

My joints are stiff, won't move in their sockets

And nary a dime is left in my pockets.

So maybe you think I'm a total wreck;

To tell the truth, I look like heck

But still I have just loads of fun

And my heart with joy is over-run.

I've lots of friends so kind and sweet

And many more I never meet. Oh, this is a wonderful world of ours

Shade and sunshine and beautiful flowers.

So you just take it from me, you bet

I'm glad I'm living and I ain't dead yet!

I've got corns on my feet and ingrowing nails

And do they hurt? Here language fails;

To tell you my troubles would take too long

If I tried, you sure would give me the gong.

I go to church and Sunday School too

For I love the story that is ever new.

And when I reach the end of my row

Then to my Heavenly Home I'll go;

But when I leave my house of clay,

If you listen closely, I'm apt to say

"Well, folks, I've left you, but don't forget

I've just passed on, but I ain't dead yet!"

REV. A. M. RICKEL

On the third Sunday of August, 1903, A. M. Rickel preached his first sermon at his home church, Trinity, near Ashland. He was recommended to the ministry and a few weeks later accepted his first appointment at Logan Circuit while attending college at Ada. For several weeks Mr. Rickel had planned to return to Trinity August 23rd and preach his 50th anniversary sermon but was taken ill the week before and returned to the hospital in Columbus. Rev. Gerald Zimmer, pastor, and members of the congregation went ahead with the service as planned and Rev. Zimmer brought a challenging message to a packed church on the subject Mr. Rickel had chosen, "The Evangelism of Jesus". A quartette, all cousins of Mr. Rickel's, brought the gospel message in song. Five of the members who attended the service fifty years ago were present and Mr. Ora Morr spoke briefly of that first service. The following week a fine gift of money from the congregation and friends was sent to Mr. Rickel. Mr. Rickel retired in 1948 after having given forty-five years of continuous service in the Ohio Conference. He wishes to take this opportunity to thank his friends in the Conference for their prayers and many helpful greetings during his illness.

EVENTS AT WHITEHOUSEBrotherhood Retreat

The Men's Brotherhood of the Zion E.U.B. Church at Whitehouse, Ohio, held a Planning Retreat during the afternoon and evening of Sunday, August 23. The program, as planned, promises to be interesting and very active. Mr. Craig Tetrick, president of the Ohio Sandusky Conference Brotherhood, was the special advisor for this Planning Retreat.

A fellowship lunch of apple pie a-la-mode and coffee was served at 6:00 p.m.

Rev. Merle Wolverton was the guest speaker of the evening. He has served ten years in the Chaplaincy of the United States Army, one and a half years of this time was spent in Japan. Rev. Wolverton took as his theme for the evening, "Japan Then And Now," or "What Japan Needs Today." He left many challenging thoughts with those in attendance.

Welcome Back Party.

Members and friends of the Whitehouse Zion E.U.B. Church held a Welcome Back Party for Rev. R. A. Gallagher and his family Monday evening, August 24.

Entertainment was furnished by the Work and Win Sunday School Class and the Ladies Aid Society furnished the refreshments.

This is Rev. Gallagher's third parish since he joined the Evangelical United Brethren Church and this is the beginning of his third year here at Whitehouse. We hope that he may be able to stay here a long time.

LIMA EAST CHURCH

The Lima East Church purchased a parsonage at 438 Orena Ave., Lima, Ohio. The pastor, Rev. Paul R. Temple, moved into the new parsonage the last day of August. Attendance on Sunday morning is running about 85 and the prayer service attendance has averaged about 20. The Lima East Church continues to worship in the Y. M. C. A. while they continue with their plans for building.

THE NAME ST. MARYS

Because of the interest in the name "St. Marys" as it is particularly applied to our Camp, located on Lake St. Marys, I have been asked to prepare some data as to the background of the City and surrounding territory. Recognizing that the name as used by our Camp has no connection with the doctrines and practices of any other church I am glad to add my bit to help reach a better understanding of the matter.

It has been said that the beginnings of St. Marys can be traced back to the great glaciers that moved down from the North and ended in this territory causing what is known as the Continental Divide. The waters of St. Marys drain to the Great Lakes while only a few miles south the flow is to the Gulf of Mexico via the Mississippi, Ohio, and Miami Rivers. The Indians very early discovered that the shortest "portage" across this divide was the twelve mile stretch between what is now Fort Loramie and St. Marys. It is because of this Continental Divide that both Lake St. Marys and Lake Loramie were created to feed water to the Miami and Erie Canal. These projects were completed in 1845 and contributed much to the development of a wide area as concerns agriculture and manufacturing.

It is quite likely that the first white man to visit this area was the French Explorer LaSalle who in 1680 set out to explore this territory and went as far south as Louisville, Ky. Setting out from Detroit he came across the west end of Lake Erie, down the Maumee River to the small unnamed river that had been the path of Indians for generations. Coming to this river, he asked its name. (Some ascribe this incident to an unnamed Jesuit Priest at a little later date.) Receiving no answer, he said, "Then I will name it after the Holy Virgin." From that time to the present, it has been known as the St. Marys River. Lest you question some of these facts concerning the river, it is a matter of history that the building of the Lake, completed in 1845 drained about half of the watershed area of the river and thus cut its flow almost in half. As a result, the river which at one time could handle large flatbottom boats can hardly handle a canoe today. For many years the Federal Government listed the St. Marys River as a navigable stream. If this listing has been dropped at all, it has been in recent times with very little publicity.

The French explorers laid claim to the area. This was disputed by the British and for many years it was not only the subject but also the site of bitter conflict between the two nations. Sometime before 1750 some unknown individual opened a trading post in a "dugout" in the banks of the St. Marys River just south of the present site of the city. In 1782, James Girty, the cruelist of the four infamous Girty Brothers built a small hut over a dugout near the south end of what is now South Main St. This seems to have been the first house erected in St. Marys. Soon a number of Indian families located close by and the place became known as "Girty's Town."

In 1794, General Anthony Wayne, fearing the large Indian encampment, built a fort near the Girty house. Girty, driven away by the presence of the soldiers was succeeded by Charles Murray who is generally considered to be the first white settler of the city. (Actually the four Girty Brothers were white but were stolen and raised by Indians from the time they were small. They became more vicious than Indians in dealing with white people and generally considered themselves as Indians.) During the time of the War of 1812, General Harrison came and built Fort Barbee near the probable site of the earlier fort. This soon became an important supply depot and it was not long until an enlarged fort and stockade was relocated near the present location of the Fire Station. In 1813 the Fort became the permanent headquarters of General Harrison and was shortly accounted the most important military post in Ohio. At one time as many as 3000 men were stationed there.

Trouble with the Indians continued. In 1818 a great Treaty Convocation was held on the large plain to the South of the town where the whole Indian problem was settled once and for all.

A Moravian Missionary named Erwig came up to the Convocation and asked permission to preach. This was granted and the first "Church Service" was held out of doors. White settlers began to appear, especially after it was certain the Treaty would be effective.

Charles Murray and two newcomers named William Houston and John McCorkie purchased 400 acres of land from the Government and in August of 1823 filed a plot of 68 lots. These lots were on the tax list of 1824 with a tax value of 24 cents.

Sometime before this, the name "Girty's Town" had fallen into disuse and the settlement was called St. Marys after the first Fort or after the River and denoting that here was the St. Marys river end of the twelve mile portage which ended at Ft. Loramie on the south. Just when the name was changed or who suggested the name that was adopted is not known.

There is some confusion among historians as to early church history of the city. The Catholic claim that Charles Murray was a Catholic seems well founded. But it is also a fact that he helped the Moravian missionary Erwig to plan his service in 1818, so, he seems to have been kindly disposed toward other faiths. It is also a fact that in the plotting of the village a free lot was offered to any responsible church group who would establish a church on it. The only early Catholic contact seems to have been a Jesuit priest, who, passing through took sick and died here. He was nursed and then buried by Charles Murray but there is no report of his having been able to say a Mass here. Apparently about 1824 a Rev. James B. Finley held a meeting which resulted in the organization in the following year of a Methodist Episcopal Society. Some give the date 1829 for this but the earlier date seems correct. This church met for a number of years in the schoolhouse but in 1840 (1843??) built a frame church. The Presbyterian Church dates to 1838 (some say 1848). The Baptist Church was organized about 1840 and the parent church of both the present St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed and the Zion Lutheran Church was established in 1849. The United Brethren Church came later, altho not the last to enter the city, in 1897. Several rural United Brethren Churches had been in existence near St. Marys for more than 50 years preceding this.

As near as can be ascertained, the Catholic work began in St. Marys with the holding of a Mass in a hotel or private house about 1836 or 1837. This is about the time work was beginning on the Lake and the Canal and many Irish laborers who came here for work were Catholic. There is confusion here as to the actual time of the first service. The first actual organization of a Catholic Church was effected in 1851 and the first church was built and dedicated in 1854.

The only figures available to me as to the comparative size of the churches are those of 1922 when the city celebrated its centennial. At that time the Catholic Church reported "800 plus" members. St. Paul's E & R Church reported 880, the Methodist 590, the Lutheran 660, the Baptist 130, the Presbyterian 185 and the United Brethren 159 members. Inasmuch as the Catholics count all baptized individuals and the Protestant Churches involved count only Confirmed or officially received members, there is apt to be a wide variation in the actual memberships. To the best of our knowledge, the proportions given here are not too much at variance with the membership relations today.

With the exception of one little flare-up about 1914, there has always been a state of peace and harmony, if not actual collaboration, between the Catholic and Protestant portions of the city. It would be untruthful to say that either group dominates. It is our sincere hope that this condition will persist. The name St. Marys is ancient and honorable and we need feel no compunction using it to designate what has been called the most beautiful and valuable spot on the Lake. May it always be used to glorify His Name and His Will for men.

OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

Two weeks before the opening of school the enrollment of Freshmen appears to be about 10% ahead of last year, with the prospective total enrollment about the same as a year ago. The Admissions Office has worked hard to attain this result. The cooperation of E. U. B. pastors is appreciated as they have directed their young people toward Otterbein College, and fostered interest in the High School Day, E. U. B. Day and other college contacts.

The College-Seminary Offering is exceedingly important to Otterbein College. The College is making every effort to offer an academic program and special services, (health, athletics, debate, visiting speakers, counselling, etc.) which a good college should furnish for its students.

It has been impossible in the last two years to make ends meet.

The budget of Otterbein College operates on a very narrow margin. Every penny withheld makes a difference in some good teacher's salary, or in the scholarship aid available for some deserving student.

Remember that while Otterbein College receives $9,000 from the College - Seminary Offering on September 20, a much greater sum is raised by your church and the other churches in the Otterbein College Territory. (The OC territory consists of all the churches associated with Otterbein College before Church Union.) The total to be raised in the OC territory on September 20 is $22,000 of which Otterbein will receive $9,000, the remaining $13,000 going to the three theological seminaries and the other seven EUB colleges, particularly the western colleges and Shenandoah College in the Virginia Conference.

NAPOLEON Y. F. WINS FIRST

The Youth Fellowship of Christ Church, Napoleon, recently won first prize for their float in competition with civic and commercial floats, in the Henry County Fair's Centennial Parade.

A seven foot cross covered with white "Kleenex" flowers was placed in front of a mountain scene drawn by one of the girls of the Y. F. Printed above and to the side of the mountains were the phrases "For America . . . for the World . . . Christ the same yesterday, today and forever". A large open Bible was at the foot of the cross.

Seated on the float were young people dressed in costumes representing nations of the world. During the parade, this group sang well known hymns of the church to the accompaniment of an old reed organ.
