THE COACHES: Jeff Heacock is in his 19th season as head football coach at Muskingum. The 1976 Muskingum graduate is 11-4 against Otterbein.

Wally Hood is in his fifth season at Otterbein and his 23rd season as a college head coach. Hood's Cardinal teams have compiled a 1-3 record against Muskingum.

RECORDS: Both teams are 2-1 in all games and 1-1 in the OAC. The winner of tonight's game will remain in a tie for second place in the conference standings, one game behind the winner of the John Carroll-Mount Union game.

Muskingum recorded a 42-21 come-from-behind win over Capital University in week three.

Otterbein is coming off a 27-24 loss at John Carroll. The Cardinals opened the season with home victories over The College of Mount Saint Joseph, 30-13, and Baldwin-Wallace College, 32-12.

MORE ON WEEK THREE: Muskingum exploded for five second-half scores, including TD runs of 31 and 15 yards from junior fullback Luke Thimmes, to erase a 14-7 halftime deficit.

Senior Homer Atkins tied the score on a 21-yard touchdown run. Thimmes gave the Muskies the lead for good with his first TD, and junior quarterback Jeff Morris hooked up with sophomore split end John Bullard for a 31-yard touchdown strike.

In the fourth quarter, Thimmes scored his second TD and sophomore tailback Matt Colvin reached the endzone from five yards out.

Muskingum utilized eight student-athletes to amass 355 rushing yards. Thimmes led the way with 76 yards on seven carries. Colvin had 64 yards on nine carries. Senior tailback Rocco Dobran gained 60 yards on eight carries.

Morris completed nine of 18 passes for 112 yards. Bullard caught three passes for 56 yards, while senior Marques Scott had four receptions for 35 yards. Sophomore split end Charlie Amlin caught two passes for 21 yards.

MAKING STOPS: Senior line-backer Eric Peterson led the Muskie defense with 13 tackles (five solo and eight assists). Senior defensive back Chris Clifton was involved in 10 stops (six solo and four assists). Sophomore linebacker Rob Beight was credited with eight tackles, and senior defensive back Bob Kane made seven stops.

SPECIAL TEAMS: Junior Kevin Smith averaged 36.8 yards on five punts against Capital. His longest punt of the game went 44 yards and he pinned one punt inside the Crusader 20. He also converted all six of his extra point attempts.

THE SERIES: Muskingum holds a 36-20-2 lead in the all-time series. Otterbein claimed a 15-0 victory in the first meeting in 1905. More recently, Muskingum has won six of the nine meetings in the 1990s. Muskingum has a three-game winning streak, eking out a 9-7 victory in 1996 and a 21-17 win in 1997. Otterbein's last win in the series was a 7-6 decision in 1995.

LAST YEAR'S MEETING: Fullback Scott Ray rushed for 70 yards and a touchdown and tailback Matt

Colvin (West Lafayette/Ridgewood) scored the first touchdown of his collegiate career, and the defense made big plays in the second half as Muskingum claimed a 14-7 decision over Otterbein on a damp and rainy afternoon in Westerville.

Muskingum started quickly, scoring two touchdowns in the first 18 minutes of the game. Ray rumbled into the endzone from one yard out with 8:37 left in the first quarter. Defensive back Zack Howard set up the Muskies drive by recovering a fumble at the Otterbein 34.

Colvin scored from two yards out with 12:08 left in the second quarter.

Otterbein quarterback Matt D'Orazio, who completed 19 of 39 passes for 177 yards, hooked up with tight end Jeff Gibbs for a 14-yard TD strike with 36 left before halftime.

The Cardinals drove the ball deep into Muskingum territory twice in the fourth quarter, but the Muskies defense forced an interception in the endzone and a turnover on downs.

COVER STORY

O-LINE DOING ITS JOB IN THE TRENCHES

By Hank Alfman '00
*Muskingum College
Sports Information*

Despite being overlooked, one of the most important facets of the game of football depends on the offensive line and how it holds up. From containing a blitzing defense, to pass protecting, or run blocking, the offensive front doesn't get as much credit as it should game in and game out. Without these punishers up front each and every play, the ball carrier would be picking up their remains off the ground all the time. Needless to say, they're actually pretty important, huh?

Just three games into the '99 season, the Muskie offensive line has looked in mid-season form. The pass protecting has been superior as quarterback Jeff Morris has been able to buy time to throw downfield to open receivers and rank fourth in the Ohio Athletic Conference in passing efficiency. Additionally, the running game averages nearly 454 yards per game (second in the conference) as holes have opened up very nicely. So who's being counted on to do most of the unappreciated work in the trenches for Muskingum this year?

A pair of seniors are going to be looked upon for that responsibility with Brian Petruska and Dan Filtz leading the way.

Senior tri-captain Brian Petruska who starts at left guard, is the most experienced veteran on the line. Petruska, who is from Poland, Ohio, is a three-year starter in his final season. He will be counted on to anchor the inexperienced line through his leadership. Petruska, reflected on what it has been like to grow through the years.

"Coming in as a sophomore starter, I was obviously a little bit younger and I tried to learn as much as I could from the guys that had been playing before me because they were a little older than I was," Petruska said.

"Over the previous years I've tried to learn from experience, he added. "As far as being the most experienced player on the line and being a leader, I'm not real vocal with the guys. I lead by example. I go out and do my job and I trust in the line that I'm with and I know they'll do the same."

Meanwhile, senior Dan Filtz has been in a different situation over the years. Filtz, is a first-time starter on this year's team after waiting in line for three years for his chance to contribute. Filtz, who is from Steubenville, Ohio, will be counted on to start plays at the center position and help aid the middle of the field with solid blocking. Filtz, explained his feelings on getting the chance to start after waiting in the wings as a backup.

"I'm proud to be starting now. Everyone wants to start. I've put in my time here, I've worked hard for four years and I'm just grateful to have the opportunity to still be playing and be able to start."

Filtz also believes that it's been a valuable experience to wait his turn.

"I think the three years previously waiting behind Eric Curtis and Scott Will made me learn a lot. I watched them play and I worked hard to be as good as they were. I'm going to try to do the best that I can on the field."

As the season progresses, continue to look for the Muskies to score points, gain yards in chunks, and the offensive line to keep playing strong in helping the offense to succeed led by Petruska and Filtz.

MUSKIE ATHLETICS

RECOVERING FROM INJURIES HELPS MUSKIES GROW AS PLAYERS, TEAM

By J.D. King '02
*Muskingum College
Sports Information*

The 1998 season started Muskingum College men's soccer coach Jim George in the face like a tunnel with no end in sight.

This was because he was missing his top returning forward in all-OAC Athletic Conference performer Josh Boyer and his fastest player on the team in defender Danny Rigsbee. However, George still believed that the team could produce a .500 season or better if it was able to catch some breaks.

Just four matches into the season the tunnel got just a little longer as team's top all-around player Jason Adams, an all-conference honoree himself, went down with a torn anterior cruciate ligament.

"The hardest part was coming to the matches and watching the team struggle, and knowing there was nothing that I could do to help," says Adams.

This point was reiterated by Rigsbee and Boyer who found that the time they had to spend away from the game was nearly as painful as the injury itself.

Every tunnel, though, has a light at the end, and that light might just be the rehabilitation of Boyer, Rigsbee, and Adams along with the return of all-OAC performers Derek Hone and Steve Crawford. The Muskies also returned six other starters from a year ago when they recorded a 5-13-1 season.

All three players are expected to pick up where they left off before the injuries, and at least Boyer and Rigsbee say they are back to around 100 percent. Adams, on the other hand, has a different story.

"I am around 75 percent right now, and that means I can't run as fast or jump as high as I would like to," says the sophomore. "On the other hand, I am just happy to be playing again."

Each contributes something to the team that was missing a year ago.

"I feel I bring a lot of depth and leadership to the defense with my speed," says Rigsbee.

He will have to prove his leadership in his final season as the Muskie defense features a young lineup with first-year players Rob McBurney, Justin DeBlasis, and Rick Yost, along with sophomore J. D. King who has been converted from a starting position at forward.

Boyer and Adams, who look to start the season up front for the Muskies, each bring some different strengths to the game which could create a solid scoring nucleus for a team that scored just 23 goals in 19 matches a season ago.

Boyer, who has 22 goals in just two full seasons as a Muskie, believes his hard work and elusive quickness on the field help make him a scoring threat at all times.

Adams, on the other hand, believes his knowledge of the game and leadership abilities make him a player every team needs to watch out for.

The Muskies also rely on junior midfielders Nate Young and Mike Luttrell, along with senior defender Mike Hartley to fulfill the winning expectations in 1999.

"As a team we need to raise the bar, and take that step up to the next level," said George about the '99 season. "I feel we are returning enough talent that we can do that, and have a very successful season."
