Otterbein Swamps Kenyon by 103-26 Score

OTTERBEIN WILL MEET TRI-COLOR TRACK MEN

HEIDELBERG'S FIRST MEET

Nothing Is Known of the Strength of Opponents. Easy Time Not Expected.

Otterbein will hold its third track meet of the season next Friday on the Otterbein field with Heidelberg as the opponent. Nothing is known of the strength of the Tri-Color men on the cinder path as the meet will be the first of the season for them.

Otterbein's team should show added strength as new weaknesses show themselves and are corrected.

Unless Heidelberg has much new material in the Sophomore class Otterbein should experience no great difficulty in continuing her winning streak of little less than two years.

Parents' Day Winners Get Prizes; Mrs. Collier Speaks

The act presented by the Sphinx and Onyx Clubs, jointly, was declared winner in the "vodvil" contest. A large silver loving cup was given the two clubs as their trophy, in chapel Monday morning. Alice Propst received a large box of candy as the prize offered for the most beautiful girl in Otterbein.

Deadline Is Ten O'clock.

The deadline for all copy for the Tan and Cardinal is ten o'clock Monday. This rule must be rigidly enforced if the paper is to be issued on time.

TENNIS COURTS RESERVED

Beginning Thursday of this week, the three south tennis courts are to be reserved for the girls gym classes from 2:00 until 4:00. In like manner the north courts will be reserved from 3:00 to 5:30 for the Varsity every night. All students are asked not to use the courts while they are wet.

SPHINX AND ONYX WIN VAUDEVILLE CONTEST; ALICE PROPST IS VOTED MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL

The "vodvil" in the chapel Saturday night, winding up the Parents' Day celebration, was much more thoroughly worked out than that of last year. The capacity crowd and its apparent appreciation of the program go to show that the acts presented were both unique and interesting.

The first act was given by the Chesterfield Trio. It finally proved that this number was well selected for the opening act. This scene was laid in a college student's room. Several songs of real melody were rendered by the trio.

Sphinx-Onyx Win.

The second act which proved to be the prize winner, was staged by the Onyx and Sphinx clubs jointly. A parlor scene, in which the sister's beau was entertained by the "mischievous little sister," was dramatically portrayed. In order to amuse the caller until the older sister was ready, the younger sister showed him the family album. This album was the size of a man, with large swinging leaves so constructed that while (Continued On Page Eight).

NEW DRAMATICS CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED SOON

The dramatics club of the Public Speaking department, Cap and Dagger, has been disbanded and a new club is to be organized. The old club had been organized without a definite constitution, and as a result, did not have any definite aim or purpose. It seemed best to start all over again and organize a new club on a firm foundation.

The new club will go into operation at the beginning of the school year of 1926-27. There will be a definite program of meetings and a better program of plays. The new club may be called the Otterbein Dramatics Club.

On Parents' Day for the first time in Otterbein's history one of her students was crowned as Queen of the May. Marian Dew was the lady selected by the Varsity "O" last week to receive this honor.

The opening feature of the ceremony was a solo dance given by Alice Sanders. The queen's procession then wended its way to the throne from the Administration Building. Included among the queen's escorts were her two flower girls, Pauline Howe and Lena Cooksey, her crown bearer Alice McCloy, and her eighteen maids arrayed in blues, greens, and yellows.

After being crowned, the queen was honored with a Grecian dance by her maids. The May-Pole dance given by ten girls clad in white closed the ceremony.

Miss Gladys West was in charge of (Continued On Page Eight).

BOB SNAVELY BREAKS O. C. HIGH JUMP RECORD

KENYON WINS NO FIRSTS

High Jump Record is 5 feet 9 1-4 Inches. Stoughton Is Individual Star.

Otterbein swamped Kenyon in a dual track meet on the Otterbein field last Saturday 103 to 26. The Tan and Cardinal cinder artists took every first place and all but six of the seconds.

Captain Stoughton was the individual star of the meet with a first place in each of the dashes, besides running anchor man on the relay team. Widdoes scored 13 points with a first in each of the hurdles and a second place in the pole vault.

Snavely broke the Otterbein high jump record with a leap of 5 feet, 9 1-4 inches. The old record of 5 feet, 8 1-4 inches was held by Campbell, of the class of 1915.

Stoughton equalled the Otterbein 440 record held by himself when he finished the race in the fast time of 51 seconds.

Several other Otterbein records were almost equalled and may be broken before the end of the season.

Meyer showed promise of being a good vaulter when he crossed the bar at the height of 11 feet, 6 inches.

Eberth scored most for Kenyon with a second in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and when he was awarded second place in the 440 yard dash. The second Otterbein man was disqualified for cutting too close on the turn.

The summary:

100-yard dash—Stoughton (O.) 1st, Eberth (K) 2nd, Smith (O) 3rd. Time—10.2 seconds.

Discus—Porosky (O) 1st, Pinney

OHIO COLLEGE EDITORS HOLD MEET AT AKRON U.

8 COLLEGES REPRESENTED

Ohio College Newspaper Association
Organized to Replace Ohio

Lorin Surface accompanied him.

The Akron meeting was in charge of Eugene B. Denning, present editor of the Akron Buchtelite. Knight, managing editor of the Akron Beacon-Journal. Friday evening the editors were the guests of the Laughing Masque Club at its annual show "Tee for Two."

A definite system for the exchange of publicity material and cuts was established between the colleges included in the Association.

Woolman, Kent State Normal; Victor W. Free, Ohio Wesleyan; Donald M. Dozer of Wooster; Clarence S. Boles, and D. E. McMichael of Ohio U.; and Ralph M. Beese of Heidelberg.

The next meeting will be held on the campus of Ohio University some time next fall.

TO DECIDE NEXT YEAR'S DEBATE QUESTION FRIDAY

Monday night, April 26, the Varsity debate squad met for discussion of next year's question. A list of twelve questions was submitted by the Ohio Conference debate coaches, from which the Otterbein men were to make their selection. The varsity debaters favored the question concerning the limitation of intercollegiate athletics.

On Friday, May 7, Prof. Leon McCarty accompanied by Palmer Fletcher, will go to the conference at Columbus, where the questions will be finally decided.

ORCHESTRA REALIZES $53 ON HOME PROGRAM

Chapel Concert Well Received. Proceeds Will Pay For New Set of Drums.

From its concert last Tuesday night the college orchestra has realized about $53 which will just cover the price of the drums it has purchased and programs for the occasion. Distinctive features of this entertainment were vocal solos by Lorene Smith, Vera Wright, and Lenore Smith, the oriental numbers, and the selections from "Blossom Time" which fittingly ended the program.

Aside from this concert the orchestra has, during the year, played at various college functions such as the Declamation Contest and the Junior Play. Tentative plans have also been made for it to appear at the Wagner Memorial Church in Columbus sometime this spring as well as at several High School Commencements.

Professor Arthur Ray Spessard has expressed pleasure at the fine response the student body made in coming out to hear this concert. "It is this sort of thing, when the student body co-operates with such an organization serving the entire college, which helps to create a real school spirit."

Orchestra officers are Ellsworth Reese, president; Celia Johnson, secretary and treasurer; and Lawrence Green, manager.

O C OTTERBEIN BASE BALLERS TO MEET DAYTON AGAIN

For the second time this season Otterbein will meet Dayton on the diamond and attempt to gain revenge for the defeat sustained at the last meeting. The game is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon and will be played at Dayton.

With the added practice and experience since the last meeting Otterbein should be able to muster more strength both defensively and offensively. The kinks they showed up in the game with Muskingum should at least be partially ironed out by Wednesday afternoon.

THE COLLEGE BRED MAN

You can always tell the college man.
There is something different about him.

At present going through college rarely makes any decisive change in the mood and outlook of the graduate.
There is, it is true, the old saying that you can always tell a Harvard man, but you can't tell him much. But like most caustic remarks it does not hit the mark. The college graduate is no longer arrogant but timid and bewildered when he discovers himself in a strange world for which he has been so expensively unprepared. He ordinarily prizes his experiences in college in retrospect for various adventitious friendlinesses rather than for a fuller understanding of himself and his surroundings.

If one observes the college-trained men about one, the truth of this assertion becomes apparent. College men merely learn certain trades at their various schools. They have mastered such vocations as engineering, preaching, farming, advertising and the like. They go to college to learn a certain thing which will enable them to live with as little output of energy as possible; the amenities of civilization are neglected. They return moderately skilled in their professions, in other respects unchanged.

The output of potential Frank Cranes from our colleges is enormous.
Men study law and then sell insurance.
The theological student becomes a commercial secretary. In some, however, there is a firm intention of living for the benefit of humanity.

THE NEW STAFF

With this issue of the Tan and Cardinal the new staff recently elected by the Publication Board will assume its duties. The number of contributing reporters has increased materially as the result of staff try-outs which were held several weeks ago. This plan proved to be an excellent method for securing new reporters from the list of students actually interested in college journalistic work.

With the installation of the new staff must come praise for the members of the old staff. To Margaret Widdoes as the retiring Circulation Manager we give our highest commendation for her most efficient services throughout her four years on the circulation staff. Three senior contributing reporters, Wanda Gallagher, Lenore Smith, and Pauline Knepp, and Florence Rauch as the retiring Dormitories Editor, deserves a great deal of credit.

We also wish to thank Dr. Raymond V. Phelan, Miss Marie Bowman, and the other faculty members and students, who so capably assisted us in our struggle to find the news.

We wonder why officials of the Citizen's Military Training Camp did not solicit students from Otterbein for the camp which will be held at Fort Thomas this summer. Inconsistency is evidently the keyword.

Will someone please come forward and dare to climb the flagpole and put a rope through the pulley so we can see Old Glory wave once again? The matter has already been delayed too long.

What kind of a tradition will the senior class establish this year? Graduating classes in some colleges have introduced swagger sticks for the women and canes for the men.

The entire college is in the grip of the Spring Fever germ. You can tell it by the way the professors and students carefully suppress yawns and gaze longingly at the great outdoors, the bright sunshine and the green grass.

Did you ever hear the story about the college election that wasn't accused of being run by campus politics?
Neither did we.

All of which goes to show you that the little red devil is back, next to the keyboard, kicking his heels against the backspacer, and grinning at us.

TIMELY TOPICS

WANT THIS TYPE?

For the past few years the Tan and Cardinal has been little more than a mirror reflecting news and campus happenings which the administration thought would present Otterbein in the best light. All others were not published, they were only talked about. Now and then, when an article was somehow published which merited administrative disapproval, the editor was at once "called upon the carpet" and "urgently" requested to suppress such items.

That is why last year one of the cleverest stunts ever used to break up Senior Recognition Day was never mentioned in the Tan and Cardinal.
That is why this year a student who has twice been detected picking his fellow students' pockets has been kept in school while another who spills a foul smelling liquid in chapel is expelled with no word of these happenings in the Tan and Cardinal until recently.

Surely it is a delightful change to have an editor who writes the truth, showing us not only our good qualities but also our faults. A few more editorials such as we have recently had may benefit the school considerably more than the late policy of suppression.—R. G.

MUSKINGUM CHALKS UP DIAMOND WIN ON TAN AND CARDINAL DIAMOND IN CONFERENCE TILT

Otterbein lost her first Ohio Conference base ball game of the season last Friday afternoon on the local field 10 to 1. Muskingum scored four runs in the first inning on three passes, a single and two errors. It later proved sufficient to win.

Otterbein scored her lone tally in the third inning when Yohn doubled down the right field foul line and took third on the poor throw-in. He scored on Slawita's slow roller down the first base line.

In the sixth inning Otterbein had another chance to score. After Slawita flied out to Montgomery, Renner was stife when Mintier muffed his hot grounder. Young forced Renner at second. Carrol singled to left and Roberts filled the bases when he got in the way of one of Gabbord's offerings. Beucler's best was a grounder that Trotter managed to get in front of, retiring the side.

Another chance was lost in the next inning when Slawita and Renner went out on long flies to the outfield after Schott had singled and taken second on Young's sacrifice.

Yohn pitched well the seven innings that he worked, allowing seven hits. He didn't walk a man. Errors behind him cost him several runs. Otterbein made a total of eight errors during the course of the game.

Gabbard pitched well for Muskingum, allowing but six hits and struck out seven batters. He had masterful support in the pinches.

Piano Solo	Nellie Wallace
Soliloquy	Betty White
Musical Reading	Lois Bingham

Piano Solo	Doris Wetherill

THE CLASS OF 1947

We are enrolling also, Paul Ensor Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Smith (Helen Ensor) of Columbus.

Ralph belongs to the class of '12 and Helen to the class of '18.

Paul has a big brother John who belongs to the class of '45 and both of them are planning to come to Otterbein.

We just discovered another prospect on one of our information cards. He is ten months old but belongs in this class just the same.

George Raymond Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter of Springfield, Massachusetts. Mrs. Walter was Mary Lancaster, ex-'24.

And still another boy. Walter Connor, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Connor of Menominee Falls, Wisconsin. We know Mrs. Connor as Bertha Hancock, '21.

Walter Jr. has a dad who is a Methodist preacher but that doesn't make any difference. Otterbein claims part of him anyhow.

— O C — WHERE ARE THEY?

The Class of '16, is planning a big tenth anniversary reunion at commencement time. They would like to have 100% of the class present. Five of the members of that class are lost. Do you know where they are?

Joseph Goughenour we understand is in Dayton. But that is a big city. Estella G. Reese, formerly in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, Cleo Garberich, Mansfield, Ohio; Orpha Mills, Tuscola, Illinois, and Clara Kreiling are also missing.

Do You Know Where They Are?

Crows

In a field in sunny Spain stands a stone mortar. Crows hover around it, picking up bits of grain and chaff—cawing.

Here Marcheta, in the fresh beauty of her youth, will come to pound maize. For years she will pound maize. The stone will stand up under the blows; not a dent has the muscle of three generations of women made upon it. But the crows will hurl their black gibes upon a woman aging early and bent with toil. Old Marcheta—still in her thirties.

The American woman does not pound maize. But she still beats carpet; she still pounds clothes; she still pumps water. She exhausts her strength in tasks which electricity can do better, and in half the time.

The high ideals of a community mean little where woman is still doomed to drudgery. But the miracles which electricity already has performed indicate but a fraction of the vast possibilities for better living and the tremendous opportunities which the future developments in electricity will hold for the college man and woman.

Electricity, which can release woman from her burdens, has already created a revolution in American industry. Wherever mankind labors, General Electric motors can be found carrying loads, driving machinery and saving time and labor. And there is no branch of electrical development today to which General Electric has not made important contributions.

A series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-1.

BENJAMIN R. HANBY MUSIC CLUB PRESENTS RECITAL

Personal Glimpses of Big Brother When a Boy Given by Hanby's Sister, Mrs. Collier.

Westerville was the scene of a fine Otterbein occasion when the members of the Hanby Musical Art Club presented a memorial recital in Hanby's honor, Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church.

The club is composed of Westerville girls, a number of whom are now students at Otterbein. Miss Maude Hanawalt, '06, is the director of the club and is largely responsible for the program presented.

The honoring of this renowned son of Otterbein honors likewise his college. Hanby was a member of the class of '58. Shortly after his graduation the song he wrote while in college, "Darling Nellie Gray" was so widely accepted that he quickly became famous.

Hanby's wife, who survives him, is likewise a graduate of Otterbein. She is Mary Kate Winter Hanby of the class of '57, now living at Redmonds Beach, California.

The recital program consisted of a number of selections by the club. All of the selections given were compositions of Hanby. Otterbein people remember him usually only as the composer of his widely known song, but many other compositions also came from his pen.

Dr. E. A. Jones, professor emeritus of Bible, of Otterbein, addressed the club. His subject was, "Hanby's Contribution to Life and History."

Mrs. Elizabeth Hanby Collier, '72, presented a few of her personal recollections of her big brother. She was four years old when Ben went away to college and of course a big brother away at college was quite important to a little girl.

Mrs. Collier was a very small girl when the family moved to Westerville. Shortly after the arrival of the family in their new home Ben graduated from Otterbein. It was a great occasion. The college buildings were all too small to contain the graduation ceremonies so a tent was erected on the campus. Hanby's graduation address was written in poetic form. His subject was the "Husking Bodkin." The story goes that he was faced with the task of writing a commencement address and was unable to decide upon a subject. He finally determined to close his eyes, take two or three turns around his room and then open his eyes, and the first thing coming to his attention would be the subject of his commencement address. Upon opening his eyes the first thing that came to his notice was the husking peg belonging to his roommate. From this humble suggestion he received the inspiration for a poem which is evidence of his genius.

While in college Hanby was an all-around student. He was the leader in literary activity. He was represented by his fellow students as a good physical man. On one occasion he saved a fellow-student from drowning in Alum Creek. According to the testimony of his sister he was always kind and generous and gave much of his time to the counseling of his friends. Whenever a student became ill or homesick he received attention at the Hanby home. Ben,

CLASS OF 1947

One boy comes on the list this week also. John Stanley Wilhelm Brunner the son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Brunner of Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. Brunner is Vida Wilhelm of the class of '19.

You know of course where the lad acquired the John Stanley part—from his grandfather John Stanley Wilhelm, class of '90, editor of the Canton Repository.

It is safe to enroll him in the class for he will certainly hear about Otterbein.

like his father, Bishop Hanby, who was one of the founders of the College, was interested in the general welfare of the College and gave much to it in the way of personal service.

Dr. N. E. Cornet, '96, and Horace W. Troop, '23, also had a part on the program.

ANOTHER ECHO

The Darke County Alumni and ex-students of Otterbein met at the home of Elizabeth McCabe at the time of the broadcasting of the Glee Club from Columbus. There were eleven present.

Informal talks were given by Mr. Harry Metzgar, Mr. Charles Minnich, and Mr. C. L. Bailey. A prominent organization was formed with Elizabeth McCabe as president and Helen Miller, Secretary and Treasurer.

Plans are now being made for a social gathering to be held at the Greenville County Club the latter part of June. The purpose of this is to revive Otterbein spirit among the ex-students and alumni of Darke County as well as to interest prospective students.

HANBY MUSICAL ART CLUB GIVES MEMORIAL PROGRAM

Several members of Otterbein's faculty and student body appeared on the Benjamin R. Hanby Memorial program which was given last Sunday afternoon in the Presbyterian church. Dan N. E. Cornet gave two readings both written by Hanby. H. W. Troop, Director of Alumnae Relations of the college, gave a short address on "Benjamin Hanby, Student and Citizen."

Dr. E. A. Jones, professor emeritus of Bible, used for the subject of his speech, "Benjamin Hanby's Contribution to Life and History."

Dorothy Sowers played an organ prelude at the beginning of the program. Viola Priest sang that most famous song, "Darling Nellie Gray."

Membership of the Hanby Musical Art Club is composed almost entirely of Otterbein students. Miss Maude Hanawalt, director of the Westerville Branch of the Morrey School of Music, is the sponsor of the Club.

O C PARENTS' DAY

one picture was being shown, another could be prepared. Real live figures appeared, looking through the pages, in various costumes.

In the next act some music of real merit was rendered on the violin, cello, and piano by Professors Barngrover, Spessard, and Vance, respectively.

"Why the Italians Are a Menace" was the title of the act presented by the Sociology Club. The usual trials that must be endured at the hands of the parsimonious matron were shown in characteristic fashion by an Italian fruit and vegetable dealer, with his little cart of vegetables.

Radio Novelty.

Radio Station S-T-A-T-I-C was next in order. This act was put on by the Philota Club. Various kinds of music was broadcasted, from the sweet songs of the quartet down to the number played on a hand-saw with a wooden mallet.

A dancing exhibition by Mary Meyers elicited considerable applause from the lovers of dance music.

The final number was put on by Paul Upson and Curt Poulton, guitar and banjo accompaniments lending real harmony to the songs and ditties which were incorporated in this act.

The organ prelude by Prof. Grabbill helped to get the program started in the right direction.

The Varsity "O" has been largely responsible for the carrying into effect of the whole Parents' Day program, hence a large share of the credit for its success is due them.

O C RAPID PROGRESS BEING MADE ON KING HALL

Rapid progress is being made on King Hall, the new Men's Dormitory. The foundation is completed and the brick work up to the first floor will be finished by the end of the week.

Ernestine Nichols will also retain her place as Exchange Editor. H. W. Troop and Prof. Alma Guitner were re-elected as Alumnae Editors.

O C MAY DANCE

the morning's program. Piano accompaniment was played by Grace Cornet.

May Morning Breakfast.

There is one day in the year when a man can breakfast in the dormitory without being the cynosure of all eyes. Many of the masculine persuasion took advantage of this fact last Saturday to attend the May Morning Breakfast given in Cochran Hall under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

Prospective husbands were introduced to the cooking of their future wives, fond daughters waited upon by doting parents, all to the tune of a five-piece orchestra in the Cochran Hall dining room. The decorating committee had striven valiantly and the cleverly ornamented tables testified to their labors. Of particular interest was the Freshman table decorated with the first Alum Creek violets, and festooned with greens.

O C OTTERBEIN ELIMINATED IN STATE PEACE CONTEST

In the Peace Oratorical Contest, held Friday night, Wittenberg, Bluffton, and Ohio Northern were selected to be represented in the State Peace Contest.

The Otterbein representative, Karl Kumler, was eliminated from the speakers from three other colleges.

Cleiorhetea Will Present Operetta at Commencement

Rehearsals began last week for "Princess Chrysanthemum," a Japanese operetta in three acts, which Cleiorhetea will present on June 10, according to its annual custom of giving an operetta for Commencement Open Session.

Viola Priest will have the feminine lead, and Gwynne McConaughy will play the hero. Thelma Gustin, Frances Hinds, and Lillian Shively will have other important parts. About thirty members of society are included in the cast. Others will serve on committees, this being the first time Cleiorhetea has ever undertaken to give an operetta without outside aid. Wanda Gallagher is coaching the dancing, and Viola Priest is directing the chorus. Other plans have not yet been definitely formulated.

FRANCES HARRIS GIVES FIRST SPRING RECITAL

The first of the series of spring graduating recitals offered by the music department was given Sunday afternoon by Miss Frances Harris playing the chapel organ. A small but appreciative audience attended the concert.

The opening number, four movements from a sonata by Guilmant, was by far the most interesting. There followed a descriptive suite by Nevin entitled, "A Day in Venice". The four selections of this delightful group, "Dawn," "Gondoliers," "Venetian Love Song" and "Good Night", were full of melody, furnishing Miss Harris opportunity to bring out the loveliest tones of the organ. The third Sonata of Borowski, a modern composer, completed the program.
