GLEE CLUB MAKES ITS INITIAL APPEARANCE

Starts Season With Concerts At Centerburg, Coshocton, and Newark. Well Received.

The initial appearance of the Glee Club for this year was staged on Saturday evening, February 20, at Centerburg. Due to the fact that there was a basket ball game on the local floor, several of the Otterbein alumni came to Westerville to see the game. As a result the attendance at the concert was rather small. However the program was well given, considering the fact that this was the first concert of the season.

On Thursday, February 25, the club went to Coshocton, where it put on a concert that evening. The audience was well pleased with the program, as was indicated by their hearty applause. This program marks the initial appearance of any Otterbein Glee Club in Coshocton. The next day the club went to Newark and gave a concert in the high school auditorium. Arrangements were made for the program through C. M. Bowman, who was a student at Otterbein in 1923.

As a special feature on the program, Arvine Harold is receiving a hearty welcome as a cornet soloist. His Grand Russian Fantasy is pleasing the real music lovers. Professor A. R. Spessard is appearing in some readings, during the course of the program this year, thus giving it variety. Prof. Spessard deserves a great deal of credit for putting such a talented organization as this year's club, on the platform. His tireless efforts have built up a musical organization of which Otterbein may well be proud. Harold Thompson, who is proud.

Robert Knight to Represent Forensic Frat at Convention

Pi Kappa Delta cleared seventy-five dollars by the presentation of the picture, "The Fool," at the Garden Theater, Monday night, Feb. 15.

The money will be used to send Robert Knight as a representative to the National Pi Kappa Delta Convention, which will be held at Estes Park, Colorado, during the spring vacation. Knight will also enter an extemporaneous speaking contest at the convention.

WILL COMPLETE BASKET BALL CAREER SATURDAY

Courtesy Columbus Dispatch.

Captain Widdoes playing a forward position has been one of the team's most consistent scorers, even though he usually had a guard especially detailed to trail him. "Wid" is a good fighter and has kept the team scrapping all season. If there is ever a question of decisions he always stands his ground, letting every team know that Otterbein isn't to be caught napping. Next Saturday's game ends his third season as an Otterbein cager.

Y. M. AND Y. W. WILL HOLD JOINT MEETING

There will be a big joint meeting of Y. M. and Y. W. Tuesday evening, March 9. Six representatives from the Y. M. C. A. of Bonebrake Seminary will have charge of the meeting. Music will be furnished by a quartet included in the party from Bonebrake. A meeting like this should help create a fine spirit between the two schools.

No Paper Last Week.

On account of the Washington's Birthday holiday last Monday there was no issue of the Tan and Cardinal last week. Washington's Birthday was proclaimed a holiday by the faculty several years ago but owing to the fact that this day has come on Saturday and Sunday in the last two years no vacation had been granted.

DEBATERS WILL MEET AKRON AND BLUFFTON

Negative Team Will Meet Akron on Home Platform. Prof. Cooper to Judge.

Otterbein's first conference debate will be held in the college chapel Friday evening when the affirmative team of Akron University meets Otterbein's negative team on the conference question of Child Labor. Arnold, Fletcher and La Porte will uphold the negative side.

Otterbein affirmatives, Miller, Laukhuff and Knight, will meet Bluffton's negative team at Bluffton Friday evening.

Prof. W. H. Cooper, of Ohio University, will judge the debate here Friday night. He will give his decision orally.

The next debate is also a triangle one with Muskingum here, and Otterbein at Wittenberg, on March 12.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO CONTINUE THIS WEEK

This Evening Is College Women's Night.—College Men's Meeting Comes Thursday.

As a feature of the evangelistic services which are now being conducted in the United Brethren church under the direction of Dr. S. Edwin Rupp, the pastor, and Nels A. Wilburg, assistant pastor, Dr. Howard H. Russell spoke last Sunday evening on the subject, "A Lawyer's Plea for a Christian Faith."

Last night special services were held for the Christian Endeavor Societies. Tonight College Women will occupy a prominent place in the evening's services. The Men's Bible classes of the Sunday School will have special services Wednesday evening, College Men Thursday evening, and the Juniors, Intermediates, and Boy Scouts Friday evening.

All of the meetings thus far have had excellent attendance. Both the college and the town have been giving hearty support.

Girls' Banjo Class Organized

A new type of work has been successfully started in the music department. Mandolin classes for girls have been organized with Miss Hazel Barngrover as instructor. About twenty girls have enrolled in this course. The class meets in two sections at 6:00 and 7:00 on Tuesday evening.

TAN AND CARDINALS OUT PLAY B.-W. SQUAD

Returns to Form of Muskingum Game on Berea Floor—Wid does High Scorer.

Otterbein won her eighth conference basket ball game last Saturday at the expense of Baldwin-Wallace at Berea by the one-sided score of 61 to 34. The Tan and Cardinal quintet returned to its form of the Muskingum game at the beginning of the second half and had the game in hand the rest of the time. The score at the end of the first half was 26 to 13.

Widdoes was the leading scorer of the game with eleven baskets and one foul for a total of 23 points. Buell followed with six baskets and five fouls totalling 17 points. The foul shooting showed improvement over the Kenyon and Muskingum games. The team was successful in ten of the eleven attempts from the fifteen foot line. Porosky played his usual consistent game at the tip-off position and came through for five points. His biggest help however was not in his shooting but in his defensive work and in taking the ball off of the back board. Not one follow-up shot was made by the opponents.

Schill was the highest point-getter of the Bereans with nine points. The Tan and Cardinal found no difficulty in penetrating the defense of the upstaters.

Riegle had the misfortune to twist his knee badly in the shooting practice between halves and was unable

PREXY HAS BIRTHDAY

President W. G. Clippinger celebrated a birthday Monday, March 1. Whether or not the fact that March "came in like a lamb" had anything to do with it, we will not attempt to guess, but the President spent his birthday "quietly at home" and did not indulge in any wild capers such as might be ascribed to the "mad March Hare." Perhaps we should not tell, so we will just whisper that this birthday was the fifty-third.

VARSITY "O" PLANS STUNT NIGHT

TO CONDUCT BEAUTY CONTEST FOR CO-EDS

Will Come as the Finale to Parents' Way on May 1. Most Beautiful Girl to Get Candy.

Due to the fact that the Parents' Day program of last year was such a success, it has been decided to make the occasion an annual affair. Largely through the efforts of the Varsity "O" association a vaudeville contest will be staged as a finale to the program which will be given Saturday, May 1.

A program somewhat similar to that of last year is being planned by the Varsity "O." Each of the various social groups, both men and women, will give a vaudeville act, not to exceed twenty minutes in length. The audience will judge which act is the best and to whom the Varsity "O" vaudeville loving cup shall be awarded.

A new idea, which is being worked out, is to conduct a beauty contest among the girls of the college. The girl who is voted the most beautiful, by the audience, is to receive a large box of candy.

With these ideas as a nucleus, the Varsity "O" is perfecting plans to make this event one of the most prominent of the year.

Clippers Entertain.

President and Mrs. W. G. Clipping-er gave a Washington's Birthday dinner Friday evening, February 19th. Guests present were Miss May L. Hoerner, Professor and Mrs. B. W. Valentine, Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Rupp and their daughter, Dorothy, and Dr. Raymond Phelan.

WORDS TO FIGHT SONG PUBLISHED

Due to the fact that so many students do not know the words to the new Fight Song which was recently composed by Prof. G. G. Grabbill, they are here published for the first time.

We're here to fight for dear old Otterbein,

We'll never let her colors trail.

So play the game to win for Otterbein, Hang up the score, we cannot fail.

Come lads, remember, now, we've got to win,

Our colors shall not touch the ground, For alma mater we will do or die, In victory let our cheers resound.

INSTRUCTORS AND STUDENT GIVE PROGRAM AT SUNBURY

On Friday afternoon, February 19, a unique entertainment was given in the Baptist Church, at Sunbury, by three Otterbein representatives.

The program consisted of violin solos by Miss Hazel Barngrover and piano numbers by Miss Helen Vance, who are instructors in the Conservatory of Music, and several readings by Miss Alice Propst.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the performers, and insisted upon their early return to Sunbury.

EARL R. HOOVER DRAWS THIRD IN FORENSIC FRAY

England of Baldwin-Wallace and Jenkins of Wooster Take First and Second.

Carl D. England of Baldwin-Wallace was the winner of the State Oratorical Contest held Friday evening, February 19 at Hiram College. The topic of the winning speech was "The Sequence of Life". Although poorly attended, competition for honors was very keen.

Harold Jenkins of Wooster was awarded second place with "The Foundation of Peace".

Earl Hoover who was Otterbein's contestant ranked third with the oration, "Invisible Chains". Hoover has been active in the Oratorical Association for the last two years, taking second in last year's contest.

The orations were all of high quality as their titles indicate. The other speakers' names and their productions are as follows:

Cassel Higley, Hiram, "The Path of Peace"; Melton Boyd, Muskingum, "The Human Race"; Joseph Sittler, Jr., Wittenberg, "The Spirit of Pilate"; Frank Gwoh, Heidelberg, "China at the Cross-Roads".

More New Students.

Due to an error in the last issue of the Tan and Cardinal the following names were omitted:

Lena Cooksey, Logan, O.; Mrs. Mary O. Mayne, Westerville; Elsie Whitney, Westerville; Mrs. Laura Noel, Westerville. The name, Henry Lawrence, in the last issue should have been Lawrence Henry.

"HEN" BERCAW BRINGS CANTON ALUMNI TO GAME

A large crowd of alumni witnessed the Wooster-Otterbein game last week. About forty came over from Canton in a big bus furnished by "Hen" Bercaw, '16, superintendent of the N. O. T. & L. Co. Due to the fog they did not arrive until the first half of the game was over but were there for the big finish.

In the words of our correspondent for that district, "The spirit never ran higher than it did at that game. You see we all went there expecting to see Otterbein continue her winning streak and she did. We fought for our team every minute of the game but it wasn't until the very last few seconds when Porosky's fielder put Otterbein one point in the lead did our pep literally catch on fire. The basket was the signal to cut loose and all our reserve pep that had been held back for 39 minutes burst out like a pent-up flood. No one will deny but that Wooster held the upper hand for the first 39 minutes. I took four of Otterbein's most staunch supporters in this vicinity to the game. Once in the second half when the battle was going against us these four men began a chatter for O. C. the like of which I never had heard. Not one of them could talk on the way home—they had left their voices at Wooster."

That is fine support of the Old School's activities.

MID-WINTER HOMECOMING IS SUCCESSFUL

With the Muskingum-Otterbein game as an attraction the alumni responded to the call for a Winter Homecoming in fine fashion. It would be exceedingly difficult to name all of those present and someone would be sure to be missed so it is better not to attempt to name or number those present.

All, however, who were present went away satisfied that Otterbein has the best court team in years. The game, although we did not win it, was one in which enthusiasm ran high. Two wonderful teams battled splendidly for forty minutes. Each enjoyed the fine support of a crowd of rooters.

One of the nice little features of the evening was the appearance of our old cheer-leader, Dean Upson, '25, who led a few cheers.

The splendid response of alumni from Dayton, Columbus, Zanesville, Cleveland, Canton, Chillicothe, and certainly Westerville, and many other points leads us to believe that the mid-winter homecoming is a possibility and should be placed on the regular calendar of alumni events.

Civil War Veteran Writes Interesting Letter To Editor

"Ask the first gray-bearded farmer you meet on the streets of Westerville if the runs and brooks of his farm are as big as in his youth and I am sure he would answer you, after giving you a wondering, sizing-up look. Are they as big now as in my boyhood? Young man they are all dried up; runs in which I used to trap muskrats and in places wider than you could run and jump have all dried up sir, or dwindled down to a mere thread. So it is with Alum Creek. Why, I have seen big saw-logs, great limbs, fence rails and all sorts of trash go floating off on its broad, swirling breast after a spring freshet; look at her now! She is a mere shimmering bit of moonshine of her former self.

"Why dear sir, when I was a boy there was a swamp between the main road and Saum Hall wherein bullfrogs abounded and when the United Brethren boys—I am a sort of Universalist myself—would strike up at morning prayer in the Chapel 'On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand', they would regularly open and sing bass. But the swamp and the bullfrogs are all gone. I tell you, sir, there has been a great change in the runs since I was a boy, all are dried up, sir. Good morning!"

"So while the runs of my boyhood memories of Westerville are not all dried up, it is a little difficult to set them aflow again."

This mighty interesting letter comes from General Morris Schaff, of Cambridge, Mass., who was a student in Otterbein before the Civil War.

MRS. BRINER IS HOSTESS TO STARK COUNTY CLUB

Mrs. Orville Briner, ex., was hostess to the February meeting of the Stark County Woman's Club. The twelve members present answered to the roll call with quotations from Lincoln or Longfellow. Two very interesting papers were read. "Unusual Experiences in the Life of Lincoln," by Miss Helen Eldridge, ex., and "Longfellow" by Mrs. Lydia Garver Cooper, '16.

Mrs. Neva Anderson Mertz, '18, of Warren, Ohio, was a guest.

The correspondent of the club writes, "We are all very much pleased with the interest that is being taken in this club. Every one eligible, seems to want to join, and all are working hard to make the Otterbein Women's Club a success."

SOLOMON WEIMER DIES IN CLEVELAND HOME

Solomon Weimer, of the class of '78, died several days ago at his home in Cleveland. He was a pioneer educator and for a number of years principal of West High School of Cleveland. He had been ill for more than a year. At the time of his death he was 73 years old.

Mr. Weimer met with great success as principal of West High. In 1924, a year after his retirement, pupils, alumni and friends unveiled a tablet at a dinner in his honor. It was said to have been the first tablet to a living educator.

Mr. Weimer came to Otterbein from his home in Beach City, Stark County, Ohio.

He was a loyal friend of his Alma Mater and one of the first to support the new alumni program. In him we had a generous, enthusiastic friend.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters.

The Class of 1947

And still another boy—well we were getting too many girls anyhow in this class.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jaynes, '21, '20, Bonebrake Seminary, Dayton, announced the arrival of Robert Orr on February 21.

The prospective, debator, orator, and preacher weighed in at seven pounds and three ounces.

Congratulations folks. Welcome to the class Robert.

No chance boys, you can't gain on them this week. We are enrolling May Lizbeth Goodrich, daughter of Kay and Dick Goodrich, ex., '23, of Lebanon, Ohio.

And say—this young lady adds weight to the class—8 3-4 pounds. That's pretty fine.

May Lizbeth is all set for Otterbein and will fall right in line behind her big brother who will get to Otterbein a year or so before she does.

Once more a proud father failed to notify us of the arrival of a member of the class of 1947. It was not until after we had piled up a whole list of girls for the class that L. E. "Caesar" Johnson, '24, broke forth with the news of the birth of "Billie" Dean, who arrived about three months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson live at Deshler, Ohio, where "Caesar" is principal of the high school.

We just recently heard that Josephine Agnes Garver joined the class on January 19. She is a daughter of John Garver, '17, of Strasburg.

— O C —

'07. Nellis R. Funk, general manager of the Otterbein Press, Dayton, recently visited Westerville and his Otterbein friends.

This is Mr. Funk's first visit to Westerville for several years—don't let it happen any more, that is not visiting us for such a long time.

SUCCESS OF FAMILY REUNION IS ASSURED

Otterbein Groups in American Cities Have Responded 80% Strong.

Twenty points outside of Ohio will find groups of Otterbein followers uniting in the Big Family Reunion Program on the night of March 26th. There are only a few points where we have sufficient numbers of alumni, that have not responded to the call. New York City, due to the unfortunate accident to Mr. Frank Wilsey is still without a definite leader. Johnstown, Pa., Seattle and Spokane, Washington, and Charleston, W. Va., will complete the list if they come through. Twenty of twenty-five—80%—not bad.

Twenty-three counties in Ohio will have meetings on that night. Fourteen more should have meetings. That means twenty-three out of thirty-seven or 62% that isn't so good. Clark, Crawford, and great big Cuyahoga, together with Delaware, Fairfield, Fulton, Green, Hocking, Huron, Lorain, Mahoning, Marion, Miami, and Tuscarawas will make it 100%—possible? Sure. What do you say?

We haven't had time to hear from the foreign groups yet but from their ready response in the past we are confident that we can expect them to listen in—not on W. A. I. U. but O. C. P. E. P. which will be on and in the air on that night. Canton, China, Tokyo and Kyoto, Japan, and Manila and San Fernando, P. I., are sure to be in with us.

DAYTON-OTTERBEIN SOROSIS ENTERTAINED

The members of the Dayton-Otterbein Sorosis were entertained at the home of the Misses Lucille and Christina Wahl in Belmont. The weather was decidedly unfavorable but a good crowd braved the elements. "Icabod", one perfectly good Chevrolet, was stuck with all fours, but Reverend Wahl saved the sinking one with a couple of good Fords and the meeting proceeded.

The feature of the evening was the French newspaper, "Le Soleil," prepared and presented by Mrs. Opal Gilbert Cassel, '17.

Otterbein colors dominated the refreshments and decorations.

There will be no March meeting since the Sorosis is joining in the Big Family Reunion with the Dayton Alumni Association.

The April meeting will be the election meeting.

'17. John Garver, gave three addresses before a state-wide convention of Texas business men and merchants conducted by the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce at San Antonio February 2, 3 and 4.

EDITORIALS

MILITARISM MUST CEASE

A letter has just been received by the editor from a private tutor of Harvard University students in which the writer states that he is very much grieved over the perusal of the editorial "Teaching the Young to Kill" which appeared in the February 9th issue of the Tan and Cardinal. The writer states that:

"The College of the City of New York as well as Columbia University have in their student body large numbers of Jews and other foreigners who are revolutionary and wholly against the principles of our government. They are socialistic and communistic and are here engaged in a movement directed by mature revolutionists who are trying to overthrow the government by boring from within. They have formed many societies varying from light pink to deep red, but they are affiliated and run in the interest of revolution. The aim is to weaken our government in every possible way and to have most of the expenses paid by those who do not suspect what is being done."

But how can we completely disregard the statements of such nationally prominent people as Jane Adams, William E. Borah, Carrie Chapman Catt, Sherwood Eddy, Zona Gale, John Nevin Sayre, Kirby Page, John Dewey, Geo. A. Coe, and other equally important personages who stand for the educational influences that make unequivocally for peace?

A country which has refused to accept compulsory training and service for all of its citizens cannot consistently permit young men ambitious for an education to be forced into accepting military training as part of the price for that education.

Military training does not provide the best form of physical training and it does not teach constructive citizenship. The atmosphere of military training is not the atmosphere for the finest, the most thoughtful work along any line requiring independent thinking. Higher education ought to exist for the encouragement of independent thinking.

War should be outlawed. So long as thousands of students are forced, hoaxed, or bribed into military service it will be impossible to abolish the institution.

Prisons are used not only to shut up criminals but to shut away ideas.

Military training has provided no problem in Otterbein because it is not offered. But we do not concern ourselves with purely local campus problems; we are interested in all students and their problems. Student objection to military training has been given strong voice in so many universities over the country that it is up to every student in every college, if he be a thinker, to help solve this vital problem.

(Editor's Note: We are indebted to the pamphlet, "Military Training in Schools and Colleges of the United States" by Winthrop D. Lane for some of the basic statements used in this article.)

IT STRIKES US

That the evangelistic meetings are among the best Otterbein has ever had; they certainly deserve the excellent support they are receiving.

That our Tan and Cardinal quintet is certainly going to wallop Kenyon Saturday night.

That the debate squad is out for blood in its first triangle debate with Akron and Bluffton Friday night.

That innocence is a parent who believes everything his daughter writes home from "collitch."

HAMPERS INITIATIVE

A recent editorial in the Columbus Dispatch paying tribute to Lincoln mentioned his habit of thinking north, east, south and west of a problem, and attributes much of his success to his ability to "think things through."

The thing that will be of greatest value to the student when through college will not be the facts he has learned or the knowledge accumulated but the ability to think on his own initiative.

But does college work really make the contribution it should to this power to "think things through?" The student is told to "read this much, learn this, and do this" in laboratory work; too often he is told to "cut here and there and you will find such and such an organ, of this size and shape, and with this use. Draw it." And if the directions are followed implicitly enough an A shall be the reward. Instead of having the thrill of doing an original piece of work and discovering something the student merely follows directions. In a system where the student merely follows directions and is not trained in meeting new problems, initiative and original thinking cannot develop.

Examinations too often call for unassimilated facts, mere committed definitions, or memorized lists instead of a test to see how much this material has affected the thinking of the student. There must be both of these phases but we believe the development of thinking power should be given first consideration.

Princeton is attempting to meet this need by her new "upper-class" plan of study in which the junior and senior student is placed on his own initiative as far as possible even dispensing with regular class attendance. Commenting on this change, President Hibben of Princeton says, "The very fact that the student is treated like a man and is given the freedom of his own initiative will naturally evoke the best in him."

This need is being recognized to some extent here but could well be given more consideration.—D. A.

ALUMNUS DEFENDS YOUTH

"M. L. of Westerville seems to think that the students of Otterbein are a group of profligate individuals merely because some of the young men smoke and a few of the girls try to be like the girl students of today by dressing in apparel suitable for the student and mode of dress today. I for one, do not criticize them; nor do I criticize the former.

"Those Otterbein students will have to do worse things than the above to put those blots upon my Alma Mater.

"They say best men are molded out of faults." Alumnus.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS OF REDUCING

By Adelaide Pottenger.

Let us proceed to methods endorsed by our Alma Mater. If we remember aright we were deeply impressed during our Freshman course in Physical Education Theory, that exercise loses half its efficacy unless followed by a bath. Baths are half our battle as well. We have often recalled the days of the Spanish Inquisition as the hottest water obtainable has reached a higher and higher level and we have correspondingly resembled more and more closely a boiled lobster. To the general discomfort of heat has been added the local discomfort of granular crystals of well-known salts, until we, as the martyrs of old, have almost been willing to give up principles for the sake of relief. A half-hour of agony over, there can yet be no rest for the weary. We have staggered uncertainly to our couch only to be met by a diabolical room-mate who, despite our warm and anguished protests, has insisted on piling our helpless well-nigh corpse with blankets, comforters, Indian rugs, and even the very coats from the hangers within our closet. Then as friends and the curious gather from all floors our tortured brain has had visions of charging a penny a look only to come to the sad realization that that could mean but one thing—we would buy more peanuts! With a sob we have turned our face to the wall. But we can bear these painful recollections no longer.

There are yet a few ways we have not essayed. We have heard that swallowing vast quantities of vinegar has aided some sisters who have been driven to desperation. We have also heard of rubber armor and rolling pins—but this sounds too much like battle to our peaceful ear. Recently we observed in a well-known periodical a new way—a certain gum which if chewed regularly should bring results. But to us gum-chewing is a sacred rite and pleasure, and cannot be ruined by ulterior motives. Perhaps others of our sisterhood could tell of yet other methods of which we are in ignorance, as for us, our fund of knowledge is exhausted.

In closing, a word to our more fortunate sisters, the sylphs, if ever you desire to gain, follow our directions for they are guaranteed to work.

Kenyon Game.

Otterbein found unexpected difficulty at Kenyon and lost a close game of Ohio Conference basketball at Gambier Wednesday, February 24. The game was close all the way the score being tied at the intermission.

Barnes was the high scorer of the game with seven baskets and two fouls for a total of 16 points. Cory was next with eleven points.

The Otterbein attack lost a great deal of its sting when Captain Widdoes was forced from the game soon after the middle of the first half with four personal fouls. Reigle who went in to take his place was also benched for the same reason.

One of the power amplifier stages of the world's first super-power transmitter

The World's Loudest Voice

On the rolling plains of South Schenectady, in several scattered buildings, is a vast laboratory for studying radio broadcasting problems. Gathered here are many kinds and sizes of transmitters, from the short-wave and low-power sets to the giant super-power unit with a 50- to 250-kilowatt voice.

Super-power and simultaneous broadcasting on several wave lengths from the same station are among the startling later-day developments in radio. And even with hundreds of broadcasting stations daily on the air throughout the land, these latest developments stand for still better service to millions of listeners.

Only five years old, yet radio broadcasting has developed from a laboratory experiment into a mighty industry. And alert, keen young men have reaped the rewards.

But history repeats itself. Other electrical developments will continue to appear. And it will be the college man, with broad vision and trained mind, who will be ready to serve and succeed.

From the studio of WGY in Schenectady, six miles from the developmental station, there may be controlled a great number of transmitters, one of which is the first super-power transmitter in the world.

WGY, together with its associates, KOA of Denver and KGO of Oakland, is the General Electric Company's assurance to the American public that radio broadcasting shall be maintained upon the highest standards.

A new series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-1.

TAN QUINTET WINS BY NARROW MARGIN OVER WOOSTER AND LOSES TO MUSKINGUM 41 TO 33

Exciting Game on Wooster Floor
Ends 37 to 36. Barnes and Dodez High Scorers.

Otterbein defeated Wooster in a close game of basket ball at Wooster, Thursday, February 18, 36-37. Wooster went strong during the early part of the game and led at the end of the first half 17 to 15.

Otterbein took an early lead but Wooster soon overtook them and the score near the end of the first half was 17 to 10 but two baskets and a foul by Otterbein men brought the score to 15 to 17 just as the first half ended.

Wooster increased its lead in the second half until it was 29 to 20 with eight minutes to go. A terrific rally led by Porosky netted enough points to win, Porosky's basket in the last minute of play providing the needed point.

Dodez of the losers was the high point man of the game with 16 points. Barnes scored most for Otterbein with five baskets and three fouls for a total of 13 points. Porosky played best for Otterbein coming through

Crowd of Nine Hundred Witness
Defeat at Hands of Black and Magentas.

In the best basket ball game ever seen on the local floor Otterbein's basket ball team stubbornly yielded ground before the flashy attack of Muskingum's championship quintet and was finally downed by the score of 41 to 33.

Taylor led the scoring with 11 baskets and 4 fouls for a total of 26 points and is without doubt the best shot in the Ohio Conference.

Muskingum started the scoring and made a field goal and two fouls before the Otterbein team could get the ball. Barnes connected with a foul and Widdoes made good on a short shot and the game was on hot and furious. Muskingum retained the lead all through the game after it had been tied at 4 all. The score at one time was 11 to 12 and then 15 to 18 but at that point Muskingum rallied and scored five baskets, three of them scored by Taylor from the center of the floor, and the half ended 15 to 26 in Muskingum's favor.

Otterbein came back strong in the second half determined to win, outscored Muskingum 18 to 15 but the damage had been done.

Porosky played a consistently good game throughout. All he had to do besides keep Taylor from shooting short shots was take the ball off of the backboard everytime Muskingum shot and then do a lot of shooting besides. He did it all well only three of Taylor's baskets being made inside of the center of the floor. Muskingum failed to make good on a single follow shot and his record is clear on that point. Besides that he scored four baskets in the second half.

Had the team been playing at Wooster like they played against Muskingum the scorers would still be counting up the score. No complaint was heard from even the "Down Town Coaches" about the team play except to say that it was the best game that they ever saw or that they played better than they had at any time.

Widdoes led the Otterbein scoring with nine points. Barnes, Porosky and Buell came next with eight points each. Barnes was forced from the game in the last minute of play with four personal fouls.

COOK HOUSE CHAMPIONS OF GROUP LEAGUE

Dubs Defeat Bailey-Annex Squad
For Prune League Championship.

The Cook House won the undisputed championship of the Group League by defeating the Lakotas in a well-guarded game 7 to 3. Before Saturday each team had been defeated once. Marsh of the winners and Hoover of the losers were tied for individual scoring honors with three points each. The Cook House led at the intermission 3 to 2.

On the same afternoon the Dubs defeated the Bailey-Annex for the Prune League championship in an over-time game 17 to 12. The Dubs got a poor start and were trailing 7 to 9 at the end of the first half but settled down to work and tied the score just before playing time was called. In the over time period Riegle warmed up and made two baskets. He was the high scorer of the game with 4 baskets. Brock scored most for the losers with one basket and 3 fouls. Buell of the losers played best.

In the second game of the afternoon the Jondas lost to the Country Club 14 to 4. A defeat for the Country Club would have dropped them to a tie with the Jondas for last place. Sprinkle was the high scorer of the game with 2 baskets and a foul. Long of the losers and Thompson of the winners were tied for second honors with two baskets each. The score at the end of the first half was 3 to 0 in favor of the winners.

The Philotas dropped the Sphinx from a tie for second place to a tie for third place in the Group League by defeating them 16 to 6 last Saturday. The Philotas took an early lead and were leading 13 to 6 at the intermission. Keller was the individual high scorer of the game with three baskets and a foul totalling seven points. Green came next with three baskets. Gates, Mraz and Phalar scored a field goal each for the losers.

TAN AND CARDINALS WILL MEET KENYON SATURDAY

Otterbein will close one of the most successful basket ball seasons of her history when Kenyon will furnish opposition for Coach "Deke" Edler's fast stepping, near championship quintet, next Saturday night in the high school gymnasium.

The game will mark the passing into Otterbein basket ball history of Captain Widdoes, Porosky, McMichael and Upson.

It will be remembered that the Kenyon quintet has been the only team to outscore Otterbein excepting Muskingum this year. Any points that Kenyon gets they will earn, because the boys will be out with blood in their eyes to gain revenge for the defeat of last Wednesday night, as well as to close the season in the right way.

ANNEX WALLOPS ALPS IN THURSDAY GAME

Three games were played in the Prune League and one in the Group League, last Thursday.

In the first game, the Celtics set back the Kappas for a score of 18 to 6.

The Deltas and the Wonder 5 met in the next game. This was a pretty evenly matched battle. The Deltas, however, managed to get a lead on the Wonders and the score at the end of the game stood 16 to 14 for the former.

The third Prune League game was a complete walk-away for the winners, the Kozmops, who almost annihilated the Wobugas by a score of 59 to 9. Of the Kozmops 59 points, 32 were made by Miley. He made 14 goals and shot two fouls. In every game he has played fast and done his share of the scoring. Mendenhall, also of the Kozmops, scored 21 points.

In the only game of the Group League, the Annex took over the Alps by a 14 to 9 score.

NOVELTY IN C. E. MEETINGS

Foot-ball and travelling, a la railroad, have figured in the originality of the Christian Endeavor meetings of Section A in the last two weeks.

Charles Mumma led the athletic meeting in which a tie score was chalked down. The competition in participation encouraged an active interest in the topic, which in keeping with the evangelistic services, was testimonial in nature. Carl Eschbach and Dean Upson sang a vocal duet.

This Sunday's meeting was led by Helen May, who conducted a journey through the unexplored areas of our country. Numerous stops were made at interesting points and certain sections of peculiar importance as the arid areas of New Mexico, the South, and Ellis Island were investigated with explanatory talks by members of society. Two selections of special music were well rendered,—a vocal solo by Charles Mumma, and one by Lillian Shively.

YOUTHS IN REVOLT OVER CENSORSHIP

Great excitement reigns on our peaceful campus. Social Groups under suspicion and surveillance—Young Pledge is seen wearing a violent red necktie and the "Powers that Be" have adjudged it a public initiation. Shades of the Spanish Inquisition and the Military Censor Board of the Great War! "No stunts that attract any attention whatever by anyone whatever shall be tolerated on the campus of Otterbein"—so saith the Censor. Thus is the spirit of the wild, reckless, daring youth curbed at the start.

All is quiet along the Potomac—and pledges are initiated into the mysteries of the inner circle by munching two pounds of dry crackers and whistling quietly between halves, by giving a musicale consisting of a soft and gentle rendering of "Sweet and Low" and "Blest Be the Tie that Binds" (somewhere down along the

We are taking the opportunity to advise all pledges to step lightly during the next few weeks and not to stumble as such stumble might create another furor in said circles.

Y. M. AND Y. W. HOLD SPECIAL REVIVAL MEET

Last Tuesday night was "Y" night in the evangelistic services which are being held at the U. B. church.

There was a fairly good response of the members of both Associations. About one hundred of them were present. Quite a number of them sang in the chorus, which has been adding spirit to the meetings. Dr. Rupp had a sermon especially prepared for the occasion. His subject was "Wasted Lives." He pointed out that all lives are divinely designed, and how they are often wasted. He then showed how they may be redeemed when wasted.

GIRLS' LEAGUE BALL CONTINUES FAST PACE

On Tuesday, February 16, the T. D. defeated the Lotus 23 to 3 and the Onyx won from the Arbutus by the narrow margin of one point in an interesting game 16 to 15. Widdoes was the high scorer in the first game with ten baskets and an overhead shot for a total of 21 points while Palmer of the Onyx was the high scorer of the second game with six baskets and a foul, in all 13 points.

On Saturday, February 20, the Talisman nosed a victory at the expense of the Onyx in an interesting game. Trevarrow of the winners was high scorer with 4 baskets and 2 fouls closely followed by Palmer of the losers with 4 baskets and one foul. Both teams missed enough fouls to win the game with a good margin.

On the same afternoon the Arbutus won from the Phoenix 15 to 7 in an interesting game and the Greenwich swamped the Owls 20 to 1. Weimer of the winners scored most points in the first game with 13 points. Dew was high scorer in the second with the same number.

Tuesday, February 23, the T. D. lost an interesting game to the Arcady 17 to 12. Arcady took an early lead and led at the end of the first half 7 to 3. Widdoes of the losers was the high scorer of the game with three baskets and five fouls for a total of eleven points. Wardell scored most for the winners with four baskets and a foul for a total of seven points.

In the other game scheduled for the afternoon the Lotus forfeited to the Polygon.

HARPERS ANNOUNCE LITERARY CONTEST

For years it has been the policy of Harper and Brothers to encourage the undergraduates in American colleges to creative writing of high quality by the offering of prizes for the best literary productions of various types. This year a new contest has been opened to undergraduates of American colleges and universities on the accredited list of the Association of American colleges and Universities.

Harpers Magazine is offering a First Prize of $500, a Second Prize of $300, and a Third Prize of $200 for the best pieces of English Prose.

Each college or university may enter as many as five manuscripts to be selected by the head of the English department from those submitted to him by students. These manuscripts must be in prose, must be the work of undergraduate students, and must be suitable for magazine publication. Translations and adaptations are ineligible. The length of stories is limited to 7,000 words, the length of essays, articles, etc., is limited to 4,000 words. Manuscripts which have been published elsewhere than in college publications are ineligible. Manuscripts should be submitted not later than April 15 as they must be in the hands of the publishers by May 1.

The final choice of prize winners will be made by three distinguished writers: Christopher Morley, Zona Gale, and William McFee. The names of the winners are to be announced by June 1.

Harpers Magazine reserves the right to publish the manuscripts of the Second and Third Prize winners besides that of the First Prize winner which will be published. Others accepted will be paid for at the regular rates. Those not accepted will be returned to the authors.
