MUSKETEERS CRUSHED 44 TO 29

ORATORICAL CONTEST COMES FEBRUARY 19

Earl R. Hoover Will Represent
Otterbein at Hiram College
Friday Evening.

On Friday evening, Feb. 19, at Hiram College the annual State Inter-collegiate Oratorical Contest will be staged. The colleges belonging to this organization and who will enter contestants are as follows: Wittenberg, Muskingum, Heidelberg, Wooster, Hiram, Baldwin-Wallace, Oberlin, and Otterbein.

Mr. Earl R. Hoover is to enter representing Otterbein. In last year's contest Mr. Hoover placed second, the speaker from Wooster taking the first prize.

Each year there are two state oratorical contests, one in which any type of speech may be given, and one in which only orations on the maintenance of peace may be delivered. During his Sophomore year Mr. Hoover won the State Peace Contest with the oration, "The Way to Peace." The topic of the oration delivered by Hoover last year was "Civilization or War?"

In the oration, "Invisible Chains," which is the title of the oration to be delivered by Mr. Hoover this year, a

REVIVAL MEETINGS TO BEGIN SUNDAY

The Revival Meetings this year are to be held during the two weeks between February 21 and March 7. Every effort is being put forth to make these meetings as helpful as possible and Dr. S. Edwin Rupp is soliciting the hearty co-operation of every student in the college.

The Y. M. and Y. W., through the devotional committees are doing what they can, but it will be necessary that each one feel a personal responsibility to give support both through prayer and attendance at the services. Much good may be accomplished by filling in and mailing the cards which were passed out in chapel Monday morning.

A special feature of the meetings will be a choir composed of pupils in the Intermediate department of the Sunday School. An attempt is being made to have one hundred voices in this chorus.

National Research Council.

Dr. Carl E. Seashore, professor of Psychology and Dean of the Graduate School of the State University of Iowa, is visiting on the campus today in the interest of the National Research Council which concerns itself with the problem of how colleges may do something for the superior student.

Dean Seashore was formerly the chairman of the National Research Council's Division of Anthropology and Psychology. He has already visited many colleges and universities over the country and now plans to speak in several Ohio colleges.

PRESIDENT CLIPPINGER ADDRESSES CHURCH MEET

Declares Youth of Today is Much
Bolder But No Worse Than Parents Were.

Futures of "greater promise and greater perils" face the youth of today because of their boldness and straight-forwardness, President W. G. Clippinger told the gathering of five hundred members and friends of the Indianola M. E. church, last Thursday evening, at the twentieth anniversary dinner of the church.

"No worse but bolder than their parents," President Clippinger summed up the main characteristics of the younger generation. He added: "They do today on the front porch what their parents did yesterday on the back porch."

This tendency extends into all their relations, the President asserted, cutting "all lines of denomination, University or college and class," since they are following "the same general leadership."

NO MATCH FOR TAN CAGERS

Buell Was High Scorer With Nineteen Points. Reynolds and Bray
Are High Men For St. Xavier

Otterbein defeated St. Xavier in an Ohio Conference basket ball game at the high school gymnasium last Saturday night 44 to 29. St. Xavier started strong and led at the end of the first half 21 to 17, but the Tan and Cardinal pill-tossers came back strong and swamped the visitors under a fusillade of field goals.

Buell opened hostilities with a bucket and repeated a few seconds later with a one-handed shot from the corner. He was going strong and scored the first four Otterbein baskets. St. Xavier was never more than three points behind during the first part of the first half and a little while before the period was half over they forged ahead to a four point lead which margin they held at the intermission.

St. Xavier was probably the best team seen on the local floor this season but they were no match for the fast stepping Otterbein cagers.

At the beginning of the second half Otterbein came back strong and scored eight points before St. Xavier could score. A little while later the score was tied at 27-all but from then

"Yes, We Have No Hot Water" Sing Varsity Basket Ball Men In Plea for Better Showers

"How's the water? Very cold? Or haven't you been in yet?"

"Yes" in fine scorn, "it's so hot I had to stand still to keep from sweating."

"Well this is Friday, I'll either have to go in now or wait till Monday. Holy Smoke! That's cold enough to freeze the flame in the lamp of knowledge. I'd just as leave play water-polo in the An-Arctic as get into that now. I wish I was some relation to Pocahontas, then I would feel more at home, or maybe if I was trained like some of these blue-blood T. B. patients that go around on the campus in the snow without any hats on, I could stand it better."

"Come on, you walrus, don't flap your wings so much, I'm gettin' cooled off alright on my own account."

No, gentle reader we are not trying to arouse your ire, by rehearsing a scene from the ole' swimmin' hole, in the good old summer time but, to quite the contrary, this is the real thing. It happens every night in the

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS TO BUILD EDMUND A. JONES CHAPEL IN KAU CHAU KAI, CHINA

Will Build $1200 Structure For Religious and Educational Purposes for Chinese.

SURPRISES DR. JONES

To Begin Construction Work Next Summer—Class and Natives Furnish Funds.

As a fitting climax to the celebration of Dr. E. A. Jones' eighty-fourth birthday which was held last Thursday evening in the parlors of the United Brethren Church, Dr. Jones' Sunday School class announced plans for building the Edmund A. Jones Chapel in Kau Chau Kai, China. The announcement came as a complete surprise to Dr. Jones in the form of a poem which was very cleverly written by Miss Alma Guitner.

Promotion for the plans for this chapel has been under way since last summer when J. Stuart Innerst, a United Brethren missionary in Siu Lam, returned from the Orient.

To Cost $1200

According to plans drawn up by the Sunday School class in conjunction with Mr. Innerst, the chapel will cost in the neighborhood of $1200. A school will also be operated in connection with the chapel. The natives of this district are co-operating liberally in this new project.

Financial preparation for this new building is on the share plan. Fifty shares of stock at $25 a share have been pledged by members of the Sunday School class which numbers twenty-five. One-half of the pledge is due in June, 1926 and the remainder in June, 1927.

Construction work on the new chapel will not begin until next summer when Mr. Innerst returns to China. By that time all of the pledges will have been collected.

Mr. Innerst has been engaged in evangelistic work in Siu Lam and has addressed audiences in Kau Chau Kai. Mr. Innerst states that the natives are intensely interested in religious and educational institutions.

Mrs. Nellie K. Miller, widow of F. E. Miller who was a former Otterbein professor, is president of the Sunday School Class of the chief sponsors of this new project.

Valentine Theme Utilized.

The birthday party which is given to Dr. Jones annually by his Sunday School class was in the form of a four-course dinner which was served by the Home Economics department under the direction of Miss L. Mae Hoerner. The entire Sunday School class and twenty guests were present. Besides Dr. Jones, the guests of honor were Walter L. Jones, and Dr. and Mrs. S. Edwin Rupp.

COPE KILLS BLUES

Famous Humorist Keeps Audience in Uproar During the Entire Lyceum Program.

"Kill the Blues" seems to be the slogan of Herbert Leon Cope, world famous humorist, who appeared on the chapel platform last Thursday evening under the auspices of the Citizens Lyceum Course. Mr. Cope kept his audience bubbling with humor during the program.

With delightful contrast of the sublime and the ludicrous this fun-maker developed rare entertainment out of the absurdities, inconsistencies, and excesses of human nature. Mr. Cope took many of his models from life. In order to do this he simply buttoned or unbuttoned his coat, turned his collar up, fumbled his hair and became the person he represented.

The cast chosen for the Senior play, "Kempy," has been assigned parts as follows: Donald Phillips as Dad Bence, a sharp-tongued retired harness manufacturer; Adda Lyon, Ma Bence, a sweet old lady with a very meek disposition; Alice Sanders as Jane Wade, the independent and talkative elder sister of the family; William Myers, Ben Wade, Jane's husband. MANY COUNTIES PLAN FOR FAMILY REUNION

All Shadow of Doubt Dispelled As Replies Come in From All Over Country.

If there was a shadow of doubt concerning the success of the Big Family Reunion it has been dispelled with the replies to our follow-up letter to the key persons of the various centers. We have a fine list of Yea Otterbein votes to report this time.

Mr. and Mrs. "Russ" Palmer, '19, Ex., came in first reporting that Muskingum County will put the thing across.

Richland County is in charge of Mrs. Ruth Maxwell Miller, '14.

Ira D. Warner, '11, president of the Summit County organization, says that his crowd will co-operate.

The West Virginians are on the job too. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cornet, '21, Ex., are going to guide the small following of Otterbein at Huntington, and Miss Elva White, '08, is calling the meeting of the Weston group. These groups are small but enthusiastic.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kline, '15, '16, will arrange the meeting for Wilkinsburg and Pittsburg. Homer is in the midst of a big campaign for a new church as chairman of the building committee but says he will take time off for Otterbein.

Jackson and Lawrence Counties will be headed by Miss Geneva Bralley, '23.

Marion Hite, '24, has a big job ahead. The Otterbeiners in Cook County Illinois, Chicago and vicinity, are scattered and there are a number of them but Hite says, "I'll do the best I can." That means a successful meeting there.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keister, '10, '09, will entertain the Greensboro, N. C., folks at their home.

There are only a few alumni in Seneca County but Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bovey, '92, Ex., are going to get them together.

"Pete" Ward, '24, is going to collect a rather scattered group for a meeting somewhere in Brown, Highland, or Clermont county.

John Toy, '23, will be the main cog in the small crowd at Buffalo.

Ames, Cedar Rapids, and Waterloo, Iowa, will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Coover, '00, '00, of Ames.

Mrs. Loma Powell Urschel, '24, is going to entertain the Wood County crowd at her home. Wade Fausey, '20, of Gibsonburg, said that the Sandusky bunch is small and would like to go with Wood County. We haven't asked Mrs. Urschel yet but we'll bet that she will ask them too.

Greensburg, Pa., is going to come along too. "Peg" Graff, '24, says that J. C. Blackburn, '95, and F. L. Smith, '07, are heartily in favor of the plan.

The Goodriches, Kay and Dick,

STARK COUNTY GROUP TO GO TO WOOSTER

The Stark County Otterbein group have reserved twenty-five seats for the Wooster-Otterbein game next Thursday night to be played at Wooster.

"Hen" Bercaw, '16, superintendent of the Northern Ohio Traction and Light Co., is furnishing a big bus to carry the bunch to the game.

"Paddy" says that the spirit is running high and they are going to see that the Otterbein team adds one more to its list of six victories.

O C ALUMNALS

'76. Frank D. Wilsey, of New York, recently met with a very serious accident. While on his way to his office a high wind took him completely off his feet throwing him to the pavement. He suffered a fractured hip. At present he is confined to the New York Hospital.

Mr. Wilsey is one of Otterbein's most loyal alumni. He was planning to cooperate with our March 26th program at the time of his misfortune. We wish him a speedy recovery.

'24. Wilbur Wood, now teaching at Martinsburg, Ohio, was called to his home Sunday on account of the death of a younger sister who had been ill for a long time.

'89. Richard L. Swain, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, author of "What and Where is God?" has added another book to his series of books designed to answer the troublesome religious questions encountered by the average man and woman. The title of his new book is, "What and Why is Man?"

'02. Mrs. Bessie Detwiler Hall has gone to Los Angeles, California for an extended visit with her brother.

O C Class of 1946 Active.

The class of 1946 has become such a success that two young ladies aged 21 and 16 months respectively would like to see some mention made of their class. They want to be enrolled and have filed their application. They are Norma Ann White, daughter of R. J. "Jake" White, '23, Sidney and Jeanne Louise White, daughter of L. L. "Big" White, '23 of Marion, Ind. They haven't as yet made application to Dean McFadden for a place in Saum Hall but I understand that they intend to do that very soon.

(and little Dick) are going to head the Warren County outfit.

Finally Boston and vicinity will line up under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brentlinger, '18, '18

That is a pretty fine lineup—eh! Enough to insure the success of the evening right here. Let's line up now those of you who have been a little slow and make it perfect cooperation.

HOMECOMING IS FEB. 20

The Muskingum game promises to be the best of the season. A lot of alumni should want to see that game. If our boys come through at Wooster it will mean that Muskingum and Otterbein have lost only one game each. Muskingum defeated us in the last game on their floor and the boys are out to even the count.

With this prospect in view we sent out five hundred announcements to alumni in the vicinity,—that doesn't mean that the rest of you aren't invited if you can get here,—calling next Saturday night, February 20, the Mid-winter Homecoming. Let's support a real team. Not only that, it will be worth anybody's time and money to see that game.

Listen—if you are planning to come better send a card to the Alumni Office and reserve your seats. Last week the house was sold out and many had to stand.

O C LIST'NIN' IN

The Council of the Women's League and the Y. W. C. A. of Wittenberg College have submitted to their faculty a protest against cheating in examinations. They were aroused to take such action by the flagrant examples of cheating in the recent semester examination. They also made some suggestions which they believe, if carried out, would eliminate the practice among the students.

After investigation by the discipline committee, twelve students at Ohio Northern University were suspended for sponsoring and attending a dance in a fraternity house last November in violation of rules of the university.

The University of Minnesota has established a press for the purpose of publishing pamphlets, or books, written by its faculty members.

Greek over the radio is planned as one of the new courses to be given by the New York University Air College. The course will deal primarily with interpretations of the influence of Greek culture upon modern life.

At Temple University examinations have been done away with because the psychology department believes them to be inaccurate, antiquated and influenced by personalities.

Professor Kennedy, chairman of the Board of Athletic Control at Princeton says that if college teachers could inspire their students to appreciate the profound value of a collegiate training there would be no over-emphasis upon athletics.

Phi Beta Kappa, the honor fraternity of scholars, has decided that it will not in the future establish new chapters in colleges which restrict liberty of thought and speech by such intolerant policies as forbidding the teaching of evolution.

BOSTON ALUMNI ARE ACTIVE STATES LETTER

Suggests That New Comers Hunt Up Otterbein Club and Make Themselves Known.

Every once in awhile a letter comes into the office that we would like to publish word for word. We can't do that, of course, but we are going to take the liberty to tell you about one just received.

H. R. Brentlinger, '18, wrote two pages and a half chuck full of interesting comments concerning the activities of the Otterbein group in and around Boston. Four years ago the Brentlingers, (there are two of them, both alumni) hunted up the Otterbein folk in that community and had a New England Otterbein dinner with fourteen present. They organized then and the organization still exists and is going to function again.

The Brentlingers, the Fannings, and Gen. Morris Schaff, and ex-er of about '60, are very good friends. Gen. Schaff is an author of note having produced, "The Spirit of Old West Point," "Twilight of the Confederacy," and "Jefferson Davis." He entertains his younger friends frequently with stories of the days when he was in school.

Aside from the interesting comments this same letter carried a lot of fine suggestions.

"Can't we cultivate a method of getting newcomers in a city to hunt up the Otterbein club and make themselves known?" Fine idea—just what we want to accomplish as one of the by-products of the Family Reunion, a good live Otterbein Club in as many centers and we have enough people, then we will publish the names and addresses of the officers and the first step toward making Brentlinger's suggestions a reality is done. The rest is up to you.

The success of the alumni program is assured when the alumni catch the idea of co-operation with the alumni office as the clearing house for all activities.

O C HOME BREW

Valentine (In Exam)—"What is a bigoted devotee of the old school?"

Bright Senior—"A member of the school board who wants his own way."

"What made the Tower of Pisa lean?"

"I don't know. If I did, I'd try it myself."

Senior—"Did you ever take chloroform?"

Freshman (Hunting a Snap Course)—"No, who teaches it?"

Miss Taylor (In Poetic Forms)—"I'm tempted to give this class a test."

Bass Voice from the Rear—"Yield not to temptation."

TO MEET THE COLD WORLD

That's what the "Antioch Idea" is planning to do for the students of Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio. "That" is the revolutionary idea which is being promoted by Charles Francis Potter executive secretary of Antioch.

The plan of the "idea" is to connect young men and women with the realistic things in life and not to so educate them as to make them incapable of adjusting themselves to the world.

The plan which is now working full blast is to keep the students at Antioch for five weeks, where they are given intensive studies, and then sent out on a job for another five weeks. They literally have to work their way through college. There is no room for any other kind of student.

Five weeks of study; five weeks of work; then five more weeks of study and then another five weeks of holding down a real job—this, continued for four years, rounds out a young man so that he steps from college a genuine productive executive, so the Antioch officials claim.

This country needs more Antiochs but not all colleges can be Antiochs; but America does need more men and women of the type Antioch turns out.

Many prominent educators do not believe that the Antioch plan is a feasible one. They argue that a college student cannot reach a high point of attainment in merely five weeks contact with the world.

Writers who try to offend no one in the world usually end up by saying nothing.

CREATING A NEW COLUMN

One cannot write without offending someone. We do not apologize or make any amends for anything we have published heretofore and we will not change the policies of this paper.

Just think where the writer who tried to offend no one would be; he would end up by saying nothing and furthermore he would never get his readers to think!

Next week readers of the Tan and Cardinal will meet a new department entitled TIMELY TOPICS which will consist of a column especially reserved on the editorial page for the discussion of campus and world problems.

If you don't agree with our policies, cannot stand for the statements we make, here is a chance to air your opinions. We want you to use this column. Nothing can create a better understanding of things than an honest heart-to-heart discussion of our problems.

Just to get the ball rolling we have engaged an article for the column next week—an idea that is new and startling and we want your reaction to it. So use this column; it's yours and it's up to you to fill it every week.

HERE IS REAL LOYALTY

Here is a case of genuine loyalty on the part of one who is not a student, not a member of the faculty, and not an alumnus, but who is intensely interested in Otterbein. He is "Dad" Moon, our own janitor.

Saturday the bell-rope broke, thereby causing the failure of the bell at twelve o'clock. "Dad" went to the officials for a new rope; they requested him to wait until Monday to install the rope. "Dad" insisted that he do it Saturday afternoon for "the boys will surely want to ring the bell Saturday night after they beat St. X."

And we believe it was the faith that "Dad" had in the team that helped to bring about St. Xavier's defeat.

Talking Too Much.

Judge Gary says: "The average man talks too much, especially if he has a good command of language. It is well to let the other man talk half the time. Each one is trying to 'size up' the other before naming figures or stating final conclusions. 'A wise man keeps a close mouth.' In an extended discussion the experienced and wise man, if he is a good listener, is able to determine with considerable accuracy, something of what is in the mind of the other man. One should carefully weigh every word that is uttered by one's self and by the other person as well, and in doing so can form an intelligent opinion of the integrity of the other and the reliability of a statement that the offer made is the 'last dollar' that will be paid or accepted, as the case may be."

IT STRIKES US

That it is highly gratifying to us to read in the Ohio Northern Review in the account of the Otterbein-Ohio Northern game that the Polar Bears considered themselves "completely bewildered by the dazzling speed and magnificent team work" of Otterbein.

That Herbert Leon Cope certainly knew all about human nature in his contrasts of the sublime and the ludicrous last Thursday evening.

That our "old faithful" Tan and Cardinal quintet certainly mused the Musketeers last Saturday evening as they have never been mused.

That we should all thank the Otterbein Woman's Club for its loyal support to Otterbein and the alumni program.

That Otterbein is indeed fortunate in securing the state conference of the Y. M. C. A., for many speakers of national prominence will be brought to our campus for this gathering.

That our new "Marching Song" which Prof. Grabill composed is "quite the berries".

HOME BREW

At last our heart's desire has been gratified. The ideal examination is herewith presented for the first time. We hope our profs will profit by this exam which is really an index of a student's knowledge.

So here goes:

1. Who won the state track meet? (Real Loud).
2. Why don't you go to chapel?
3. Name three snap courses. (How, when, and where).
4. Translate: "All wet", "cagey", "hot spit", "plenty warm", "gothashow", "kill it", and "chicken".
5. Name three red-headed women.
6. Given names of three profs. (If so why. Outline).
7. Identify: Bun Hoffman, Chesterfield, Cal Coolidge, Gloria Swanson, Dad Moon, and Herbert Tarryton.

THE TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS OF REDUCING

BY ADELAIDE POTTENGER

Philaethea

For you, who have felt the joy of a lost pound, for you who have had the thrill of a tuck in a dress once snug, for you, oh fellow-sufferers in excess avoirdupois, we have written this little sketch, knowing that at some point during its delivery, you will recognize the call of a mutual interest.

There are many well-known methods of reducing, and we have tried most of those that have come to our attention. Dieting is perhaps the best know of all; exercise and exercises, never known to fail if religiously adhered to; baths—hot—accompanied by many pounds of salts, soaps or other reducing media; all these have we tried, until, as a human laboratory, we feel we can speak with authority.

Dieting! Who has not heard of "counting the calories?" Who of the sisterhood of the plump does not realize this discomfiting fact—that one, small, enticing, crunchy brown peanut contains ten plus calories and we are allowed but twenty-seven hundred calories a day! If we eat but 270 peanuts in one day, we dare not taste another morsel! Although we have long torn our hair in despair over moment we find ourselves yielding to the lure of the peanut. Then also have we tried the famous pineapple and chop, baked potato and milk combinations until now we shudder at sight of a pineapple can, juicy chop, rotund potato or harmless milk-bottle. Speaking of milk, we have but recently tested the buttermilk theory—two quarts a day until all our dreams were of seas of creamy buttermilk through which we floundered hopelessly after a sylph who did the Charleston just beyond our grasp. But enough of these painful memories! Let us turn to a field more to our liking.

Exercises and exercises! Nothing in our estimation is better than a good game of basket ball provided we do not immediately dash down to Willy's and fill exercise's aching void with sandwiches, malted milks, or our friend the peanut. Horse-back riding is recommended to reduce certain parts of one's anatomy if religiously continued for several years, but as has been said, "How can an animal that eats hay be so hard?" Potent, also, are tennis, hiking, roller-skating, and even that homely occupation—sweeping—but we seek a more romantic method than the latter. Then exercises—trunk-bending and twisting, knee-raising and lowering, vigorous rope-jumping, bicycle-riding upside-down without the bicycle, with or without music, these are all excellent, if one has but the courage of one's convictions and the stick-to-it-iveness of a bull-dog. Now, too, the Terpsichorean Art has come to our aid with the Charleston, that glorious achievement of the well-balanced and knock-kneed—but this is a Christian college.

OTTERBEIN QUINTET MEETS DIFFICULTY

on the game was all Otterbein's. Coach Edler's quintet scored ten more points before the Musketeers managed to wave the net again. That was the last of St. Xavier's scoring.

Buell was the individual high scorer of the game, with eight baskets and three fouls for a total of nineteen points. Reynolds and Bray divided scoring honors for the visitors with twelve and eleven points respectively.

Widdoes was the second high scorer for the winners with his usual eleven points. Barnes came in for his quota of three baskets in the second half. Snively played his usual good guarding game. Especially did he do his job well in holding his opponent to one basket and scoring two himself. The main reason for St. Xavier not scoring any follow shots was "Swede" Porosky, who took the ball off the back board every time the Musketeers missed a shot.

The visitors showed an exceptional ability to hit the basket from long range, making an extraordinary percentage of their long shots. Captain Weiner of the visitors was missed after he was forced from the game early in the second half with four personal fouls.

The auditorium at the high school was filled to capacity and spectators were standing in the aisles and along the back. Most of the spectators were on hand early and the north and south sections were full at least twenty minutes before game time.

There were only a few seats left in the center section at the same time.

Wonder 5 Wallops Wobugas in Monday Game—Wobugas Again Suffer Defeat.

Because of some conflict in schedule, the Wonder 5 and the Wobugas played the opening intra-mural game of the week last Monday. The Wonder 5 thoroughly walloped their opponents by a score of 24-6. Dodd, a new member of the winning crew, was the star of the game. He shot five goals.

The Alps team, in the group league, opened the series played on Thursday by defeating Philota 14-7. Yantis was high point man in this game scoring four baskets for Alps.

During the first half, the Jonda-Lakota game threatened to be a close one. The half closed with the score 4-2 in Lakota's favor. In the second half, however the Lakotas broke away and ended the game with a score of 13-4. The scoring was pretty well divided in this game.

The Wobugas suffered a second defeat in one week when the Kappas set them back for a 12-4 score. Laporte, of the victors, scored three goals.

GIRLS' INTRA-MURALS PROVE INTERESTING

Tuesday, February 9, the Talisman defeated the Arcady in the girls intra-mural basket ball league 41 to 8 and the Greenwich bested the Polygon 13 to 7.

The Talisman found no especial difficulty in handling the Arcady and led at the end of the first half 20 to 2.

Trevarrow and V. Peden of the winners were the individual high scorers of the game with 21 and 16 points respectively.

The Greenwich defeated the Polygon in an interesting game. The score at the end of the first half was five each but the Greenwich showed improvement and outscored their opponents 8 to 2. Dew was the high scorer of the game with eight points. Haney of the losers played an excellent guarding game.

Saturday, February 13, the Talisman had unexpected difficulty in downing the Phoenix sextet 11 to 10. The winners enjoyed a 7 to 1 lead at the intermission but were outscored 9 to 4 in the last half. Moody of the losers was the high scorer of the game with six points. S. Peden was close behind with five.

DOPE BUCKET IS UPSET IN SATURDAY VICTORIES

Sphinx Defeats Cook House and Country Club Crushes Annex Quintet.

Saturday was a day of upsets in the Group League, the Sphinx defeating the Cook House in a hotly contested overtime game, 13 to 11, and the Country Club winning from the Annex 14 to 6 in an interesting game.

The Cook House led at the end of the first half of their game with Sphinx by the narrow margin of one point. The game was a game of fouls, only five baskets being made from the field by both teams. The Cook House made three of these and the Sphinx got the other two. Both teams missed enough fouls to have won the game, the Sphinx missing seven and the Cook House six.

Mraz, of the winners, was the high scorer of the game with one basket and four fouls or a total of six points. Marsh, of the losers, was not far behind with two baskets and one foul for a total of five points.

The Country Club took an early lead and were never headed or ever in danger of being headed. The half ended 7 to 1. Beucier did all of the Country Club scoring, except one point, with six baskets and one foul. Roberts was the high scorer for Annex with two baskets.

On the same afternoon the Arbutus defeated the Owls 13 to 9. Weimer of the winners was the high scorer of the game with 9 points. Snively played best for the losers and scored six points.

HARD SCHEDULE FOR OTTERBEIN THIS WEEK

This week will mark the hardest week's schedule that the Otterbein basket ball team will have or has had this season. The Tan and Cardinal squad will travel to Wooster Thursday to meet the Wooster five. Coach Boles can always be expected to put a good team on the floor and a hard game is to be expected when the two teams meet next Thursday night.

The real test of the week comes however when Muskingum travels to Westerville to furnish opposition to Coach “Deke” Edler's battling quintet. There is no need of urging the students to be on hand to see that game as every one knows what it will be. In all probability it will be the best game to be seen on this floor this year.

Kozmops and Celtics Win.

The Kozmops found little difficulty in handling the Bailey-Annex basket ball team in the Prune League and defeated them 11 to 4 in an interesting game. The winners took the lead early in the first half and were leading 7 to 4 at the intermission. Miley was the high scorer of the game with six points.

The Deltas defeated the Celtics the same afternoon, namely last Saturday, by the score of 14 to 4. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 4. Propst was the high scorer of the game with four baskets. E. Hoover was next with four baskets. The game was unusually devoid of fouls only one personal foul being called in the whole game.

PHILOPHRONEA

A long and intense discussion took place in Philophronea's Hall last Friday evening. A motion was made by one of the members that Philophronea hold her session on Thursday evening instead of Friday. The majority of members present voted for the change by a vote of 16 to 10, but owing to a clause in the By-laws, a 2-3 majority is necessary for such action and the motion lost by one vote.

The advocates of the new plan based their arguments on the following reason:

Owing to the fact that the majority of varsity athletic events occur on Friday night those men represented therein find it impossible to attend society. Also the greater part of the concerts given by the Glee Club are held on Friday nights, thus necessitating the absence of more members. Members living in the near vicinity of Westerville find it convenient and economical to go home over the week end. Furthermore numerous events of student interest occur on Friday evening in Columbus. The above circumstances would be eliminated if the proposed plan was adopted.

FACULTY ENJOYS VALENTINE PARTY

On Friday evening, the Faculty enjoyed a Valentine Party at the home of Prof. and Mrs. West. Dr. Phelan who was chairman of the committee had a unique program arranged.

President Clippinger spoke upon the subject of human gratitude for Lincoln and also upon love between men and women in commemoration of St. Valentine.

Mrs. Clippinger entertained the guests by telling about the romances of Lincoln. The origin and the modern application of Valentine was discussed by Dr. Phelan.

All present spent an enjoyable evening although the refreshments mysteriously disappeared.

— O C — CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Ernestine Nichols led Christian Endeavor Section A, in a valentine meeting on the subject, "Christian Love." The whole meeting was for the purpose of carrying out the spirit of St. Valentine and his relationship with christian love and kindness. In keeping with this the leader's talk was followed by an exciting Bible verse contest on the subject of love. Ruth Trevarrow and Gwynne McConaughy being the leaders. Songs of sunshine and love interspersed the entire program. The novel arrangement of the chairs in the shape of a heart added much to the spirit of the valentine meeting.

— O C — CLEIORHETEA

The reading of a poem by Ruth Seaman revealed unsuspected genius.

to be an interesting and quick moving adventure written by Iva Thornton.

Mr. Hoover's experience in public speaking has been very extensive. He has been on the debate squad ever since he was a Freshman, with the exception of this year. He took second in the Russell Oratorical Contest during his Sophomore year and first place during his Junior year.

The above mentioned orations have been delivered before some 20 different audiences. Mr. Hoover having appeared before the Kiwanis and Exchange Clubs at the Chittenden Hotel in Columbus; the Lions Club of Chillicothe; Kiwanis Clubs of Lancaster and Mt. Gilead and numerous church organizations.

The ingenuity of the varsity basket ball squad has developed a straining process by which the luke warm water may be strained from that of a more frigid temperature. By turning the cold water faucets of all the showers on, except one, whose hot water faucet is turned on, the temperature of the latter shower is such that the bather may at least moisten the face and hands without being entirely exhausted by the physical maneuvers of his lower appendages, which movement is closely akin to the shiver. In the millenium our basketeers may be afforded a more pleasant opportunity for the taking of the usual shower.
