Video Highlights

Video highlights from today's game will be available to view on the Muskingum athletic web site WWW.FIGHTINGMUSKIES.COM on Monday afternoon.

Muskingum Hall of Fame

Muskingum will honor its newest members of the Athletic Hall of Fame during halftime today. Inductees being honored are Dr. Steve Kokovich '63 (Special Category), Richard Rider '65 (Football), Kristen Vejsicky McLane '01 (Volleyball), and Cheryl Davies Ficco '04 (Women's Soccer). The induction ceremony was held this morning at the Hall of Fame Breakfast in the Chess Center.

Captains

Muskingum captains for the this season are senior linebacker Damond Goggins and junior offensive lineman Sam Lucas.

National Respect

The Ohio Athletic Conference currently has two teams ranked in the D3football.com National Top 25 Poll: Mount Union (#3) and John Carroll (#7).

Hard-Hitter

Muskingum junior linebacker Chaney Fulton leads the Ohio Athletic Conference in tackles for loss with 6.5 for 37 yards. Furthermore, Fulton ranks fifth in the league in total tackles with 45. Fulton was honored by the league earlier this season for his outstanding play when he was named the OAC Defensive Player of the Week on September 29.

The Running Man

Muskingum junior running back Melvin Smith leads the team with 398 rushing yards with two touchdowns. Smith rushed for a career-best 153 yards on 25 carries to help lead Muskingum past Capital on September 27.

Turnover Creator

Muskingum senior defensive lineman Rob Bartosiwicz leads the OAC in fumbles forced with two. On the year, Bartosiwicz has notched 10 stops, including four tackles for loss for 10 yards.

Payback

Last year, Otterbein handed the Muskies a tough 12-10 setback on Homecoming. Muskingum churned out 355 yards of total offense, 22 first downs and held nearly an 11 minute advantage in time of possession.

ALS Ice Bucket Challenge

The Muskingum University Athletic Department completed the ALS Ice Bucket challenge on Monday, August 25. In turn, Muskingum nominated the Ohio Athletic Conference Office and the OAC Athletic Departments of Baldwin Wallace, Capital, Heidelberg, John Carroll, Marietta, Mount Union, Ohio Northern, Otterbein and Wilmington. You can watch the challenge on YouTube (MU Fighting Muskies) and on FIGHTINGMUSKIES.COM.

2014 Muskingum University Hall of Fame Inductees

Cheryl Davies Ficco – Women's Soccer – 2004

Davies Ficco was named the program's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American (First Team) in 2003. She was a two-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference honoree (2002, 2003) and two-time captain. Davies Ficco was named All-Ohio in 2003 and garnered First Team Academic All-OAC and OAC Player of the Week accolades. She led Muskingum to its first-ever OAC Tournament Final Four appearance in 2001. Davies Ficco ranks second all-time at Muskingum in career points (68), career goals (26) and career assists (16). She was also a standout for the Muskingum track and field team. Davies Ficco is a member of the school-record holding 4x800 meter relay squad and was a team co-captain for two years. She ended her career by being honored with the Ohio Athletic Conference Clyde Lamb Award, which honors the top student-athletes in the conference. Davies Ficco graduated from Muskingum in 2004 with a Bachelor of Arts in business.

Richard "CC" Rider – Football – 1965

Rider was a First Team All-Ohio Conference center for the Muskies from 1962-1964. In those three years, Muskingum's conference record was 21-5. In 1964, Rider helped power Muskingum to an 11-0 shutout victory against NCAA Division I University of Akron. With the help of Rider, the Muskies set the school record for most plays in a game with 79 against Waynesburg in 1962. Then in 1964, Rider started in the first-ever Grantland Rice Bowl, which was an annual college football bowl game in NCAA's College Division, for smaller universities and colleges. The bowl game was one of four season-ending national quarterfinals which led to the determination of a College Division national champion, by poll. Rider graduated from Muskingum in 1965 with a Bachelor of Arts in sociology.

Kristen Vejsicky McLane – Volleyball – 2001

Vejsicky McLane was a three-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference honoree (1998, 1999, 2000) and a starter on back-to-back OAC Regular Season and Tournament Championship teams in 1998 and 1999. She helped lead the Muskies to consecutive NCAA Regional Championships, including a third-place finish in the NCAA Tournament in 1999. In 1997, Vejsicky McLane helped lead Muskingum to the OAC Tournament championship game and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. She was named CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2000 and was a three-time Academic All-OAC honoree. Vejsicky McLane was named All-Great Lakes Region in 1998 and 1999 and First Team Academic All-District in 1999 and 2000. Vejsicky McLane holds Muskingum single-season records for assists per game (11.56) and total assists with 1,699. She ranks second in career assists with 4,290 and third in career service aces with 131. Vejsicky McLane ended her tenure by being named the Barbara Steiner Outstanding Senior Female Athlete and was honored with the Ohio Athletic Conference Clyde Lamb Award, which honors the top student-athletes in the conference. Vejsicky McLane graduated from Muskingum in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science in chemistry.

Dr. Steve Kokovich – Special Category – 1963

Dr. Kokovich has been an educator and strong advocate for athletics and student-athletes at Muskingum since 1976. He served as the Muskingum University Faculty Representative for the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) and Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) for more than 25 years. Dr. Kokovich established Muskingum's first graduate degree program in 1989: the Master of Arts in Education. His initiatives for an educational support system to allow students with dyslexia to fully participate in the Muskingum curriculum formed the basis for today's PLUS Program, nationally-recognized as one of the best in the country in supporting students with learning disabilities. While a student-athlete at Muskingum, Dr. Kokovich was a key member of two 7-2 football teams. During his two-year career, the Muskies allowed only 136 points and shut out their opponents eight times. He earned his Muskingum Bachelor of Arts degree in economics, and his Master of Education and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from Ohio University.

Muskingum Milestone Victories

The Muskingum University Fighting Muskies have an all-time record of 502-466-39 after 120 seasons of play. During that span, Muskingum has won 13 Ohio Athletic Conference championships.

Win No. 100

Friday, October 17, 1930
Muskingum 14, West Liberty 12
New Concord, Ohio

Muskingum notched its 100th career win under the lights of McConagha Stadium. Muskie Head Coach Bill Lange led the Black & Magenta to a 14-12 win over West Liberty. Muskingum won the Ohio Athletic Conference Championship in 1930. Lange was head coach of Muskingum from 1923-1935 and ended his career with a 71-32-6 record.

Win No. 200

Saturday, November 4, 1950
Muskingum 46, Marietta 7
New Concord, Ohio

Muskingum defeated Marietta College 46-7 to secure the 200th win for the football program. The Muskies were led by legendary Head Coach Ed Sherman, who guided Muskingum to the Ohio Athletic Conference Championship in 1950. On the season, the Muskies outscored their opponents 339-97, which included scoring 50 touchdowns. The Muskie offense averaged 433 yards per game, while the opponents only mustered 197 per game against the defense of Muskingum. Muskingum was conference champions and led the conference in passing with 1289 yards (161.1 per game), total offense with 3463 (438.8 per game) and total defense with 1577 (197.1 per game).

Win No. 300

Saturday, September 24, 1966
Muskingum 28, Akron 0
New Concord, Ohio

An alert and powerful Muskingum team scored one touchdown in each quarter to upset the highly favored Zips of Akron University in McConagha Stadium, 28-0. The Muskie attack was sparked by halfback Rick Harbold who carried 25 times for 136 yards, and the sharp passing of junior quarterback Jim Uszynski who connected on seven of nine throws for 93 yards, including a 32-yard touchdown shot to Harbold. The 1966 season was the final one for legendary Head Coach Ed Sherman, who guided the Muskies to the 1966 Ohio Athletic Conference championship. Sherman ended his Muskie tenure with an overall record of 141-43-7. Coach Sherman was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996. He entered as a member of the inaugural class of inductees from Divisions I-AA, II, III and NAIA schools.

Win No. 400

Saturday, November 9, 1985
Muskingum 38, Heidelberg 31
Tiffin, Ohio

Muskingum won at Heidelberg 38-31 to notch the football program's 400th win. Junior fullback Fred Todd gained his second OAC Player of the Week award, as he rushed for 190 yards on 29 carries and scored on runs of one and 62 yards. Ricardo Burks gained 94 yards rushing on the day. Quarterback Tim Palmer threw for 134 yards, while Orlando McCoy led the team in receiving with two receptions for 67 yards. Kevin Jarrett caught six passes for 47 yards. Jeff Allison led the way defensively with 14 tackles and one interception, while Chuck Turner recorded 10 tackles and one interception. The squad was led by Head Coach Jeff Heacock who coached the Muskies from 1981-2006. Heacock ended his tenure with 109 career wins.

Win No. 500

Saturday, October 5, 2013
Muskingum 35, Wilmington 28 (OT)
Wilmington, Ohio

The Muskingum University football team became the 41st school in NCAA Division III history to achieve 500 program wins with its thrilling 35-28 overtime win at Wilmington College. The Muskies, led by Head Coach Al Logan, rallied from a 21-point second-half deficit to spoil the Quaker's Homecoming en route to the milestone victory. The Muskies' memorable comeback was highlighted with a second-half surge that saw Muskingum outscore Wilmington 28-7 to force the extra frame.
