CLYBOURNE PARK

By Bruce Norris

Directed by Lenny Leibowitz

June 4–7 11–13

Two performances on June 12- 2 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Individual Tickets: $25

Clybourne Park is a funny and provocative play about race, real estate, and the volatile values of each which won nearly every honor a play can win, including the Tony Award, the Olivier Award, and the Pulitzer Prize. The play takes place in two acts 50 years apart. Act One: in 1959 nervous leaders of a well-appointed Chicago community anxiously try to stop the sale of a home to a black family. Act Two: the same house in 2009, as the now predominantly African-American neighborhood battles to hold its ground in the face of gentrification.

THE NERD

By Larry Shue

Directed by Melissa Lusher

June 18–21, 25–27, July 2 & 3

Two performances on June 26- 2 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Individual Tickets: $25

This extraordinarily inventive, side-splitting comedy was first presented by the Milwaukee Repertory Theatre, then produced in Great Britain, then went on to Broadway. The action centers on the hilarious dilemma of a young architect who is visited by a man he's never met but who saved his life in Vietnam—the visitor turning out to be an incredibly inept, hopelessly stupid “nerd” who outstays his welcome with a vengeance.
