OTTERBEIN MEN SPLASHED UNDER

Muskingum Downs Tan Gridders In Their New Stadium By 13 to 0 Score.

TAYLOR STARS

Otterbein's Offense Weakened By Injuries and Wet Field. O. C.
Makes Most First Downs.

Otterbein varsity was muddled and splashed under in last Saturday's decision at New Concord by Muskingum 13 to 0. Playing in a continual downfall of rain the game was slow and furnished but few thrills.

Muskingum obtained an early lead in the first quarter when her big end ran 30 yards around Otterbein's right end placing the ball on the ten yard line in position to score by way of the aerial route. Play from the first favored Muskingum, who was driving through the Otterbein line repeatedly. The big man of Muskingum, Taylor, outpunted Widdoes and gave the Muskingum outfit a decided edge.

In the second half Otterbein came back strong and marched down the field to Muskingum's ten yard line where they were halted on downs with two yards to go. Otterbein lost her best opportunity to score and to win in this case by the lack of the final punch in offense. An exchange of punts gave Muskingum the advantage and carried the ball into safety for the Muskingum outfit.

NOLAN R. BEST SPEAKS FROM CHAPEL PLATFORM

Nolan R. Best, class of '92, a member of the board of trustees of the college, and former editor of the "Continent", and now Secretary of the Baltimore Federated Council of Churches, spoke in chapel Monday morning. Mr. Best spoke in his characteristic way of original thought and clear expression. He has been in Westerville visiting his father, Mr. James Best, who celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday Sunday.

Ruth Davis Doing Nicely.

Ruth Davis who was operated on for appendicitis in Dayton, on Monday, is recovering very nicely. Though it takes time to regain strength after undergoing an operation of this kind, Miss Davis expects to return to school in about three weeks. Students will continue to wish for her speedy and complete recovery.

COLLIER FUNERAL

Large Number of Students and Townpeople Attend Funeral Last Tuesday Morning.

The funeral services for Ray Collier were held in the United Brethren church Tuesday morning. Over eight hundred students and townspeople were present to pay their tribute of devotion.

After the church services the burial was made in the Otterbein cemetery. The services were conducted very beautifully and impressively by Dr. S. Edwin Rupp. There was a great number of beautiful floral pieces as evidences of the sympathy from the students and friends.

SCIENCE CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEET OF YEAR

Large Group of Interested Students Attends Uniquely Arranged
Science Program.

About sixty guests enjoyed the first meeting of the Science Club Friday night at 8:15 in the Science Hall. The meeting was unique in that it combined a business and social program and was a progressive affair.

When the guests assembled in Professor Weinland's recitation room the following program was presented: "The Manufacture of Paper from Wood 'Pulp,'" Kenneth Millett; "The Life of Galileo," Glenn Botdorf; "Some Experiences in Teaching Science," Professor Hanawalt. After this program the guests heard a radio program in Prof. McCloy's room. The next move was made to the third floor hall which was transformed into a banquet room. A hot plate supper which had been scientifically prepared in the bacteriology laboratory was served. Wm. Myers, president of the club, acted as toastmaster and called upon Geo. Griggs and Prof. Schear to speak.

The success of the affair was due largely to the efforts of Margaret Baker.

The meeting of the Club hereafter will be held on the last Monday of each month. All students who are interested in science will be welcome to these regular meetings.

ANSWERS LAST CALL

HAROLD R. PIFER

Harold R. Pifer, 21, died in Grant Hospital last Monday night at 11:30 o'clock from peritonitis which had set in after three operations, the first of which was for appendicitis. He was a senior in Otterbein and a member of the Lakota Club.

The first operation was performed a month ago. "Sparky," as he was known on the campus, rallied well from the operation and it was thought that he would recover rapidly. Another operation was necessary a week after the first one due to the seriousness of the operation.

MRS. A. L. BILLHEIMER DIES

Mrs. A. L. Billheimer, daughter of Bishop William Hanby and sister of Benjamin R. Hanby, author of "Darling Nelly Gray", died at the home of her daughter in Birmingham, Alabama, Saturday night at the advanced age of ninety years. Her body will be brought to Westerville for burial in Otterbein Cemetery beside that of her husband, who died twenty-five years ago. Mrs. Billheimer was a student in Otterbein in 1851-52 and two years later the family moved to Westerville. She and her husband left from this place when they started out as pioneer missionaries to Africa immediately after their marriage here in 1862.

ALUMNI! WE WELCOME YOU

To the Alumni of Otterbein College, we, the students of the same beloved institution, address our cordial invitation and sincere welcome to be present here on the day that is distinctively your own, the Annual Homecoming Day. Otterbein College is enjoying a record year in many aspects and we shall be happy to share with you all the rights and privileges of making this Homecoming Day the greatest and best of all the years.

TREAT IN STORE FOR HOMECOMERS

Mr. U. S. Martin, '92, Will Act as Toastmaster at Annual Alumni
Banquet at 6 o'clock.

GAME IS HEADLINER

Rally at 10:30 in the Morning. Band
Will Appear in New Uniforms
In Pre-Game Parade.

This week will mark the happy reunion of many old grads when the Home-coming day is celebrated. A very versified program is in store for the graduates and former students who return.

The headliner of the day will be a football game played with Hiram. The annual home-coming banquet will also be a feature of the day. At this time the present students and old ones will have an opportunity to compare former methods of pep with the present.

The alumni council has secured Mr. U. S. Martin, of the class of '92, as the toastmaster at the banquet and he will introduce prominent alumni and faculty members as well as a representative of the student body for short speeches that are forecasted to be spicy.

An added attraction to the football game will be the parade that will be formed before the football game and will make a tour of the main streets of the village. This parade will be headed by the band which will appear in its new uniforms for the first time. The dormitories and cottages are planning to participate in the parade.

Mother of Frances Slade Taken By Sudden Death.

Frances Slade was called home Monday by the very sudden and unexpected death of her mother, Mrs. Walter Slade. Mrs. Slade's death came Monday morning as the result of a paralytic stroke. Frances was unable to reach home before her mother died.

Funeral services were held from the home in Greenville, Wednesday afternoon. Burial was made at Ithaca.

The Otterbein student body extends its sincere sympathy in the event of this bereavement.

as a body. A number of floats will also be in evidence.

The student council has been hard at work trying for the best results and up to the present time they are succeeding. Plans have been made for the Y. M. and Y. W. to have bureaus for the incoming alumni in order to furnish them with accommodations for the day and evening. These bureaus will be located in the association building.

All plans and indications point to the success of this year's Homecoming and the affair should be the best in the history of the college, both from the stand point of attendance and enthusiasm.

The program for the day:

10:30 a. m.—Rally.

2:30 p. m.—Football game.

6:00 p. m.—Annual Alumni Banquet.

O C

OTTERBEIN MAN PRES.
OF STATE CONFERENCE

Otterbein has the distinction of furnishing the president of the State Conference of Young People of the Ohio Council in the person of Feron Troxell, who has been occupying that position in the last year. Mr. Troxell has just returned from the annual conference that was held last week at Ashland, Ohio.

Nearly seven hundred young people from the various churches, schools and colleges were in attendance at the conference. Troxell reports the conference as being successful.

O C

World Court Conference to Be Held Here November 6-8.

Otterbein college will have the honor of being host to the conference on World Courts and World Friendship here on November 6, 7 and 8. Nearly one hundred guests are expected as representatives from Ohio colleges, universities and seminaries.

The program is not yet complete, but will include possibly men such as Rev. Joel Hayden, of Cleveland, Raymond Fosdick, Mervin Sayne, Kirby Page, Conrad Huffman, and Judge Allen.

O C

Pay Your Band Pledge.

Notice comes from the Student Council that only about $75 of the pledges made to pay for band uniforms have been paid. When we consider that the pledging was practically unanimous and at the rate of fifty cents each, the number of unpaid pledges is large. It is asked that all who possibly can do so, please pay their pledges this week.

JUNIOR FALL FESTIVAL

Carnivals may come and Frolics may go but you'll never forget the fun you'll have at the Junior Fall Festival which will be held all over the campus on Monday evening, November 16. Fun that will make your eyes glisten with glee, and odd and mysterious things that will make your optical organs pop and stare, will abound in the extensive program which the Juniors will present. So hold November 16 open, don't plan on doing anything else that evening, and be sure to come to the Big Junior Fall Festival, prepared for several hours

PRESIDENT PREACHED
IN COLUMBUS SUNDAY

Last Sunday morning President Clippinger preached at the First Congregational Church, West Broad street, Columbus. This is the church made famous by Dr. Washington Gladden, and of which Dr. M. H. Lichliter, who delivered the commencement address here last spring, is now the pastor. It will also be remembered that Prof. G. G. Grabill, head of the Conservatory of Music, is the organist for this congregation.

O C

PRESIDENT SPEAKS
AT DISTRICT RALLIES

The Southeast Ohio Conference has been holding a series of district rallies throughout its area. These rallies cover Sunday School and Christian Endeavor work.

President Clippinger has been unable to attend all of the rallies, but wherever it has been possible for him to be present he has been the principal speaker, delivering two addresses, one of which deals with the subject, "Our Preparation for Kingdom Building."

HAROLD PIFER DIES

Last Monday morning physicians again operated and discovered that peritonitis had set in. "Sparky" never fully recovered from the effects of the anaesthetic and died later in the evening.

Pifer was a member of the Westerville unit of the Ohio National Guard, having joined that organization last spring. He would have been the manager of the baseball team next spring.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Pifer, of 1236 Melbourne Road, Cleveland. Besides his parents, two sisters survive him. The body was sent to the family home in Cleveland Tuesday.

Funeral services were held in the Trinity United Brethren church in Cleveland Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. The six senior members of Lakota Club acted as pall-bearers. Prof. R. F. Martin, Prof. E. W. E. Schear and "Deke" Elder also attended the funeral with four other members of the club.

Mr. Pifer was the second member of the student body to pass away within thirty-six hours, Ray F. Collier having died in Grant Hospital Sunday morning at 4 o'clock.

LETTER TO PIFERS

October 19, 1925.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pifer
and Family:

It was a distinct shock to us, the students of Otterbein College, when we received the news of the death of our fellow-schoolmate, Harold Pifer. We were all looking forward to his speedy recovery when he was so unexpectedly taken away.

True, too true, he has gone, and Otterbein has lost an outstanding student and a true friend, but the memory of him will ever live to call us on to better achievement and to higher aims.

To you who feel his loss as son and brother most keenly we extend our profound sympathy, and pray that in this hour of bereavement you may find rest for your deep sorrow in the Savior Who has assured us that He is the Resurrection and the Life. In His name,

The Students of Otterbein College.

A CONCRETE MANIFESTATION OF REAL SPIRIT

J. S. Wilhelm, '90, Editor of Canton Newspaper Writes a Letter Full of Real Spirit.

That is a very high sounding title to give to what is a most delightful affliction.

J. S. Wilhelm, '90, editor of the Repository, Canton, Ohio newspaper, has it. His letter reads, "The Tan and Cardinal tells me that a new band has been organized. I notice that an appeal for funds was made. I assume that a small part in the payment will be granted me, so I am enclosing a little remittance."

"One more item: I am tickling my vanity by responding to an appeal for more rally yells. The enclosed called forth little effort, hence it will be easily thrown into the waste basket. May be it might be catch enough to be used or to suggest something that could be adapted to the purpose desired by cheer leaders."

How's that for the proper spirit. Notice another point—he said "The Tan and Cardinal tells me—." If you want to be up and coming on things that are happening around the institution you ought to be receiving the official publication of the Alumni Association.

Mr. Wilhelm was chairman of the committee of the Board of Trustees which brought in a report endorsing the new program suggested by the alumni and also recommended the appropriation to subsidize the work.

So far the younger generation has been a bit outdistanced in its show of loyalty to the new program. Mr. Wilhelm and others like him will help to make the new program a real functioning force in the life of Otterbein.

"ARE YER COMIN' BACK FER OUR HOMECOMING?"

That's what Chester G. Wise, '04, Akron attorney, wants to know. What's the answer?

Sure! Everybody's comin' back. Ain't this goin' to be the best and biggest ever?

Listen! The students lined up the liveliest toastmaster possible. Who? Why, Judge U. S. Martin, '92. Boy, oh boy but he has a line. He was judge of the Common pleas court in Montgomery County for so long that the people in the county thought he owned the Republican party. With the background of years of service on the bench and many a hard fought campaign he'll put the banquet across big.

The banquet's only one feature, though. We're beatin' Hiram too, and that's enough for one afternoon of anybody's time.

Bring the old-time enthusiasm along and we'll make it a real day.

MEET THE ALUMNI COUNCIL

MISS OTIS FLOOK

This week we are introducing Miss Otis Flook to those who should know the members of the Alumni Council. Miss Flook belongs to the class of 1900 and since her graduation she has served as a teacher in the Westerville High School. The students of the school in which she teaches know her as a remarkable teacher and a sympathetic friend.

The election of Miss Flook by the alumni group indicates the esteem in which she is held by those who know her. She is making a definite contribution to the new organization by offering loyal, enthusiastic support to the new program.

ALUMNALS

'07. Walter D. Kring, director of religious education of the Broad Street Presbyterian Church, Columbus, O., was the special speaker at the October meeting of the Woman's Association of the Nelson Memorial Presbyterian church last Wednesday afternoon.

'19. Mrs. William R. Evans (Frieda Frazier) of Scranton, Pa., left last week for Boston, Mass., where she will remain for three months, taking special work in the Leland Powers School of Expression.

'99. Walter E. Baker, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was in Westerville early last week visiting his father, W. O. Baker, and family, and his daughter, Margaret.

'88. Frederick H. Rike, president of the Rike-Kumler Company, of Dayton, Ohio, was elected treasurer of the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants at the annual meeting of the organization held last Monday in Cleveland. Mr. Rike was chosen also as one of the trustees of the council.

'87. Dr. Andrew Timberman, of Columbus, Ohio, is one of the delegates to the international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association which convened in Washington, D. C., last Saturday. For many years Dr. Timberman has been prominent in the Y. M. C. A. of Columbus and in the state of Ohio, and he is now a member of the National Council of Y. M. C. A. with headquarters in New York City.

'04, '06. Miss Mabel Moore, who is head of the Ohio State Traveling Libraries, and Miss Mary Baker, county library organizer for the state of Ohio, attended a tri-state convention of librarians in Fort Wayne, Ind., last week. Representatives from Michigan, Ohio and Indiana were in attendance.

'18. Dr. and Mrs. Virgil Parent (Alice Hall) of Lima, Ohio, were week end guests of Mrs. Parent's sister, Mrs. Clarence R. Folkerth (Mary Hall) and family in Columbus, last week.

'08. Miss Lulu Bookwalter, who is in mission work in Jaffna, Ceylon, under the American Board, spent some time in Europe during the latter part of the summer and took a short vacation for rest and recuperation in Kodaikanal, India, before returning to her work as head of the Girl's School in Uduvil, Ceylon.

'00. Mrs. W. F. Coover (Effie Richer) of Ames, Iowa, is first vice president of the Faculty Women's Club of two hundred and fifty members, and is also chairman of the social committee, having in charge five large social affairs during the year.

'04. U. B. Brubaker, who was engaged in work last year for Bonebrake Theological Seminary, has been assisting in the department of Sunday School literature in the United Prethren Publishing House, Dayton, Ohio, for the last five months, during the long illness of Dr. W. O. Fries, editor of the Sunday School literature, which resulted in his death, October 15. Dr. Owen, the assistant editor, has taken charge of the work and Mr. Brubaker has been helping him in editing the various publications.

OTTERBEIN GRADS IN OHIO 'TEACHERS' MEETING

Meeting of Central Ohio Teachers' Association Gives Place on Program to O. C. Grads.

The Central Ohio Teachers Association meets at Dayton, Ohio, on November 6 and 7. Otterbein graduates will take an active part in the program to be presented there.

Miss Nettie Lee Roth, '15, assistant principal of Roosevelt High School, Dayton, is the secretary of the "City Superintendents' and Principals' Section."

The Mathematics Section, in special session, will have the privilege of listening to Miss Chloe Z. Niswonger, teacher in Stivers High School, Dayton. The subject of Miss Niswonger's address is, "From Soup to Nuts," which doesn't sound very much like mathematics to us. Maybe it means the same as "know your oats."

Mr. L. K. Replogle, '19, teacher of chemistry at Roosevelt, Dayton, is president of the Chemistry Section of the association. He will preside at the special session of the section at which time Prof. L. A. Weinland, '05, professor of chemistry at Otterbein, will talk on the subject, "The Conservation of Educational Values in the Teaching of Chemistry."

Otterbein graduates are making contributions to life everywhere and we call your attention to this group that will lend much to the meetings they attend.

O C

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST

Another oldtime grad responded to the new program with a splendid contribution to the library.

W. W. Ferrier, '78, of Berkeley, Cal., sent his book, "Religious Progress on the Pacific Coast," and two pamphlets on religious subjects, to the office this week as a gift to the library. Mr. Ferrier is a minister in the Congregational church and in recent years has given his life to the writing of the history of the church on the coast. He has also written other books on the history of California, devoting his whole time to these pursuits since 1919, at which time he resigned as editor of the Pacific Coast Congregational Church Paper.

Mr. Ferrier is now in Washington, D. C., where he, with Mrs. Ferrier, is attending the National Council of Congregational Churches. He expects to stop in Westerville on his road home and see Dr. Sanders and Mrs. Keister, who are both former classmates.

Fine! We'll be glad to see you and hope that you just happen to drop in at the Home-coming time. We are pleased to know what our graduates are doing especially when the evidence is sent with the letter.

Harold R. Pifer.

When, in the course of three days,
death removes from a college community two young men of great promise, the expression of sorrow can only be felt. At the failure of words we turn to reflection.

In his way of quiet virtue, Harold Pifer influenced every person he met.
His broad smile was characteristically contagious. He was steadfast in all of his habits of life. The sincerity of his approach to every task radiated his spirit of earnestness. It was this resoluteness and constancy that spelled success for his life.

But now life is gone, the body is removed, yet his radiant spirit lives on. We can never forget Harold Pifer, classmate and friend. We shall always remember him as a good citizen of the college community—a true Christian gentleman.

— O C —

Chronic Joiners.

At this time of year some folks seem to spring into surprisingly sudden popularity. With almost every turn they are beseeched to "join us."
"And they'll get you if you don't watch out."

Such a time calls for sane judgement and calm deliberation. It is hard to learn to say the word "no."

But unless you do, you are going to be classified among the "chronic joiners." For you the side-shows will have swallowed up the circus.

A good principle to follow in choosing which specialized organization you will consider would seem to be,
"Line up with your line."

— O C —

Have Alumni Register.

We still have vivid recollections of a regret that arose in connection with the first annual Parents' Day that was held last spring. Our parents came and were soon gone, and then we realized that we did not have a record of who had been here. The value of such a record is self evident.

Let us not permit Homecoming to pass without having a permanent record started of the visiting alumni.
We suggest a registration booth at which every alumnus would have the opportunity of signing his name in a large ledger which would serve for several years. We are anxious also to publish the names of all visiting alumni.

Let's do it!

— O C —

Be A Citizen

As college students we have superior advantages in citizenship. We are particularly obligated to good citizenship. If a man coming to Westerville to work for thirty-one days has the right to vote, certainly we who have our residence here nine months of the year have the same right.
However, it is more than a right, it is an obligation, which we owe to the community and state as deriving the protections of citizenship. It is our obligation to be good citizens of this community.

A good citizen will vote Nov. 3.

— O C —

Hallowe'en.

The season of black cats and hobgoblins is here. To mention the coincidental events would be trite. Oftentimes they become extremely boyish, and on occasions destructive. We need to always remember that there are certain inviolable property rights, even at this time. Whatever we do bespeaks or besmirches the good name of Otterbein College.

— O C —

Profit by Panko

Some weeks ago we were reading in the papers about Panko Mativi Soko-lowski, of Newark, N. J. Panko had startled the world by purchasing a $100,000 apartment house with what he had saved from his salary as a window cleaner, after supporting his family, of wife and four children. Panko based his success on a list of ten rules, but he said all of them in the first one, "Even if you make little spend less."

Surprise yourself, "If you make little, spend less."

If "Dad's" pocketbook is footing
the bills, "If your allowance is little, spend less," and give him the surprise of his life.

— O C —

Quiet in Halls.

A case of absent-mindedness is again brought to our attention. We all like to get out of classes before the close of the period. In fact we see no use in holding a class if the work has been covered, and there is no need for further recitation. But there are some of us who become a bit too exuberant when a class of ours is dismissed and thoughtlessly tramp the halls and stairs with heavy heels, sometimes, nay always, letting the tongue run full speed ahead.

Under such circumstances we should bear in mind that other classes have not been as fortunate as we, and that as a matter of courtesy we should try to be quiet while in the halls.

— O C —

For the purpose of increasing interest and encouraging freshmen to be faithful in wearing their caps, a point system has been established at Oberlin. The points are given in connection with the tie-up and forensic and athletic contests. Each ten points won by the freshmen will bring the date of the cap burning one week earlier. If the freshmen win no points, their caps will be discarded at the spring recess.

Because of the return to the old tie-up as the event for the frosh-soph scrap at Oberlin College, the women students were not allowed to witness the scrap. A half holiday for the annual clash was granted to the entire school, but, through action of the faculty, the women were prohibited from witnessing the struggle.

CLEIORHETEA

Seven girls answered the call to active membership in Cleiorhetea, Thursday evening, and six joined as associate members. The new active members are Frances George, Dorothy Shaeffer, Lillian Shively, Elizabeth Lesher, Irene Bennert, Margaret Edgington and Mildred Marshall. The associate members are Dorothy Ertzinger, Ina Weber, Virginia Miles, Thelma Gustin, Thelma Pletcher and Grace Apple.

The program for the evening was as follows: Piano solo, Mildred Wilson; Reverie and Reality, Rosalie Copeland; Quartette, Charlotte Owen, Frances Hinds, Margaret Norris; Novelette, Jean Turner; Piano solo, Katherine Minnick; Childhood Recollections, Bernice Norris; Vocal solo, Ethel Wilburg; Legend, "Anacoma, the daughter of Logan," Iva Thornton.

That we wonder, since our domestic science profs teach that a "boiled egg" should no longer be boiled, what is the difference between a fresh and raw egg.

That we do appreciate the current world life bulletins in the hallway.

That the crusade against library dates will send some folks back to reading "epitaphs."

That when a movie wins preference to backing the team at a rally, the living spirit of Otterbein has not yet punctured the "membranous external investments."

That with the newly organized alumni association hitting on all six, we should experience the best Homecoming ever.

That it all ought to mean the advent of a new gym.

— O C —
THE BUSY ATHLETE

We wish to quote here to you, portions of a speech by Dr. Raymond Phelan, made recently at the Sphinx Club rooms. In it, we believe, there is much sound thinking.

"It is a common experience that to get things done in the civic, social, or political world, one must depend very largely upon men and women who are already very busy. This is so partly because the capable people in a community are usually busy people. But it is also true that busy people are capable because they are very busy. Busy people are keyed up. Their capacities are not in cold storage, but are ready, available for action.

"Just so is it with athletes. The loafing athlete cannot begin to be the man that he is when a full schedule faithfully adhered to precludes loafing.

"If, of course, a man uses all of his energy in physical effort, he cannot study successfully. As a rule a man cannot work hard for eight hours in a foundry and expect to be a successful student. A division of energy between athletics and study is good for both athletics and scholarship.

"Brains in active working order are a great asset on the gridiron. A student in athletics has obviously less time for study than has a man who does nothing but study. But the athlete, where athletic activity does not demand too much energy, should, in a given number of hours, study to a greater advantage than the non-athlete of the same mental caliber.

"Where athletics and scholasticism are properly co-ordinated, as I believe that they are at Otterbein, the momentum of the football field should tell in study, and the momentum of study should tell on the football field."

OUR FROSH BROUGHT
QUEER THINGS ALONG

There are certain personal belongings which our Freshman could not leave behind when they kissed their mothers good-bye and bid fare-well to the old home town. Possessions which had become parts of their lives and units in their very souls could not be taken from them by well-meaning parents. They could leave their sweet-hearts with a kiss, their homes with a smile and their towns with a sigh of relief, but to leave behind certain worldly possessions would have meant to tear asunder the strings of their hearts, the cords of their souls and the twine of their kit-bags.

One dear Freshman brought to Westerville a cat. I forget whether it was a tom-cat or a pussy-cat. Anyhow kitty had purred its way into his heart in such a manner that when the time for parting came they just couldn't leave each other and Freshie brought pussy along. Now, besides problems in math, Latin and physics, this industrious Freshman is confronted with another somewhat more confounding problem, whether to buy milk at Willie's or to put the cat in Cochran Hall to feed on rats. At night our Freshman does not put out the clock and wind up the cat as his proverbial grandfather did. Kitty nestles right by his side and purrs him to sleep. We hope he won't catch cat-arrrh.

HOME-COMING OUTLOOK CALLS FOR CLOSE GAME

Conference Scores Equal By Fact That Neither Team Has Won a Game.

The Tan and Cardinal gridders will stack up against Hiram next Saturday, in the annual Home-coming melee. These two schools have formed a habit, so it seems, of playing each other for the home-coming game. In 1922 Otterbein was beaten at Hiram in the home-coming game by a blocked punt, the final score being 13 to 6.

In 1923 Hiram was beaten by a 13 to 0 score. This game was one of the bright spots of the 1923 season. Hiram had an exceptionally good team that fall also. Batis, who played at tackle, being placed on the All-Ohio team. This game helped to make the home-coming of 1923 a success.

And then last year the Tan team trimmed Hiram to the tune of 18 to 0. This game marked the first win for O. C. last fall. As these results show, a very keen rivalry exists between the two schools.

Thus far this season Hiram has not won a game. Western Reserve defeated her by one touchdown, Kent Normal tied 0 to 0, and Muskingum took her into camp by a 45 to 6 score.

However Hiram is a team that will come back in spite of reverses, so no doubt they will be on their toes when they hit the O. C. gridders. At all odds a hot contest will be on tap for home-coming.

What was, at the beginning of the season, one of the largest squads in the history of the school, has dwindled, through illness, injuries and death. Some who are working have been forced to quit in order to maintain their positions also. Hence Otterbein will be handicapped by a lack of reserves.

Some of the men who are available are suffering from injuries. Renner and Bishop have bad ankles, Reigle has a twisted knee, and Schear is suffering with a broken nose. In spite of these drawbacks, Coach Dit is optimistic about Saturday's game.

FACULTY GYM CLASS IS HARD AT WORK

About a dozen gentlemen members of the faculty banded together and formed a faculty gym class. They get together every Wednesday and Friday evenings for a little exercise. The work at present consists mainly of volley ball, with a little medicine ball work thrown in for good measure. Part of the time a snappy calsthenic drill precedes the volley and medicine ball.

SPEED BALL

The Seniors defeated the Freshmen 3 to 0 last Monday and the Sophomores beat the Juniors 16 to 0 on Thursday at speedball.

The Seniors had the game with the first year men their own way most of the time. The yearlings only threatened to score two or three times.

The Sophomores stretched their winning streak to three in a row at the expense of the Juniors in water and mud. The Juniors showed a slight improvement of interest from the week before, having five men on the field instead of four. The third year men threatened to score four or five times but the Sophomores kept the ball in Junior territory most of the game.

The Freshmen will have a chance to stop the undefeated Sophomores when the two teams meet for the second time this year. According to the way the games have been going, the second year men should not have much trouble with the Freshmen.

Sophomores	3	3	0	1.000
Seniors	2	1	1	.500
Freshmen	3	1	2	.333

OTTERBEIN MEN SPLASHED UNDER

Muskingum's second touchdown came in the last quarter when an Otterbein punt was blocked and Taylor scooped up the ball and ran across the line. From then on the game was evenly contested, neither team having an opportunity for scoring.

The game was played in Muskingum's new stadium that is being used its first year and a medium crowd was in attendance. The field was in very good condition considering the weather. The sod was very slippery however and way laid Otterbein's aerial attack as well as her end runs. The Otterbein team entered the game with a great disadvantage due to the fact that several regulars are on the sick list. Renner's passing and running were missed and slowed the team down considerably.

Otterbein made seven first downs to Muskingum's four.

Otterbein completed five passes for a total of 71 yards in fourteen tries. One Otterbein pass was intercepted. Muskingum completed two passes in seven tries for a gain of twenty-three yards.

Lineup and summary:

On Friday night the Bennett Cottage girls entertained a number of their friends with a taffy pull.

"Shorty" Widdoes spent the week end at Piketon, Ohio, where she visited with Alice George and Vera Johnson.

The Polygon Club announce Gladys West as a pledge to their group.

Friday evening the Onyx Club entertained a number of friends with a dinner party at the home of Dorma Ridenour in Columbus. A theatre party closed the evening's entertainment.

Edna Heller spent the week end at her home in Canal Winchester.

Lucille, Marian, and Mary Farber, of Beach City, stopped in Westerville a few hours on Sunday, upon their return from Wittenberg, to visit Ruth Weimer.

Ruth Hayes spent the week end as the guest of Katherin Everett at her home in Dayton.

Mary McKenzie was at her home in Delaware, Ohio, this week end.

Last Monday evening the Lotus Club entertained a number of girls with an outdoor "push" in Cochran Hall. The unfavorable weather conditions did not in the least detract from the good time enjoyed by all.

Florence Martin spent the week end visiting in Utica, Ohio.

Thelma Gustin spent the week end with Clarabelle Steele at her home in Circleville.

The Greenwich Club and friends were guests of Alice Propst for lunch on Sunday evening.

Margaret Duerr, Ruth Musselman, and Freda Snyder spent the week end at their respective homes in Dayton.

Last Monday evening the Talisman Club entertained a number of friends at a "Puzzle Party" in the home of Mrs. R. A. Noel.

Frances Slade has been called home on account of the death of her mother. We extend our deepest sympathy to Francis in her bereavement.

The Misses Esther and Edith Moore entertained guests from Chillicothe and Canal Winchester at dinner on Sunday.

Friday evening the Owl Club and a number of friends enjoyed a Masquerade Party at the home of Agnes Buchert.

The Talisman Club announces Ruth Trevorrow as a pledge to their number.

Adelaide Pottenger visited in Cincinnati this week end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pottenger, Jr.

The Arbutus Club immensely enjoyed the fried chicken which Amy Morris received from home on Saturday.

Prof. and Mrs. Grabill were guests of the T. D. Club at lunch on Sunday evening.

Betty McCabe, of Greenville, spent the week end with her sister, Mary.

We are glad to report that Ruth Davis is recovering rapidly from the operation she underwent last Monday.

Thursday evening the T. D. and Owl Clubs jointly enjoyed a delicious waffle "push."

O C PHILOPHRONEA

Unusually interesting extemporaneous speaking by Alumni and active members made last Friday evening's program at Philophronea very enjoyable. George Glauner, '19, Professors Vance and Valentine, spoke inspiringly and the active society was represented by Basler and Lehman.

The regular program consisted of an Autobiography, B. P. Shaffer; Satire, E. H. Hammon; Adventure, R. F. H. Lohr.

Two new men were taken into active membership and six voted into associate membership.

O C Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Widdoes was the speaker of the evening at the World Fellowship meeting of Y. W. Tuesday night.

The devotions were in charge of Katharine Darst. After a vocal solo by Mary Mills, Mrs. Widdoes gave her talk on "Girls of the Philippines." She presented many interesting incidents concerning the girls' schools in the Islands. She also brought out the similarity between the Phillipino girls and American girls for, although their customs are so different, at heart they are the same.

PHILOMATHEA

Five associate and one active members were admitted to Philomatheia in the regular session last Friday evening. Literary exercises were dispensed with for this meeting to provide time to discuss the new constitution and its revisions. Next Friday evening will be election session. Remaining portions of the constitution will be considered at this time.

O C PHILALETHEA

The members and guests of Philalethea enjoyed the literary program of the Installation session Thursday night. The four productions given were:

Chaplain's Address, "Is Education Happiness," by Ruth Hayes.

Critic's Critique, "As I Like It," by Adda Lyon.

President's Valedictory, "Whatever Things Are Lovely," by Alice Sanders.

President's Inaugural, "Footprints," by Lenore Smith.

During the program Viola Peden sang a vocal solo, and Ernestine and Marjorie Nichols played a piano duet.

ABOUT OUR SONGS

Love Song Written at Side of Sick Bed in Wee Hours of Night. Other Interesting Stories.

In a quiet peaceful village by the name of Westerville the lads and lassies in Otterbein College used to have yells that exhibited just as little actual horse sense as they do today. If you don't believe it just listen to this one.

Wah hee! wah hoo!

We are not you!

Wah, who are we?

We're nineteen three!

Here's one they used before the World War:

Bier, Bier Die Wacht am Rheine, Wir Sind, Wir Sin Verein Deutsch-
chen Verein,

Von Otterbein, JAH!

Professor Guittner will have to vouch for this German.

But when it comes to the songs, how many Otterbein students know under what circumstances the Otterbein Love Song was written? During the year 1918, when it seemed that the Endowment campaign might prove a failure, Prof. and Mrs. G. G. Grabill felt down in their hearts that Otterbein sadly needed a Love Song. For days and days no suitable ideas presented themselves.

Then suddenly one night one of the children became seriously ill with pneumonia and Mrs. Grabill was forced to sit up all night to give medicine. Through the long hours of the night as she sat by her sick child, Mrs. Grabill composed the words to the Otterbein Love Song. The next day Professor Grabill wrote the music and the song was complete.

Mrs. Grabill is a graduate of the College of Wooster in the class of 1907, and Prof. Grabill is an alumnus of Otterbein, having graduated with the class of 1900.

The oldest football song Otterbein has is a collection of peppy football words which were sung to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia," way back in 1899.

In order to make some money for the Sibyl the Junior Class asked Prof. Grabill to write a new football song. J. Warren Ayer, a holder of a half-mile record, wrote the words for "Otterbein for Aye," and Prof. Grabill composed the music, which he thinks has one of the best melodies of any he has ever written.

At the same time Nolan R. Best composed the words for "Razzle Dazzle Zazzle Zoo." Within a half-hour after the words had been written Prof. Grabill had composed the music. The song still lives in the popular college song books.

The Marching Song, which, by its right title, is called "Crown Our Loved Otterbein," was written in 1911 for a campaign in the interest of the new athletic field. The song was printed in a very elaborate folder which contained many football action pictures and college scenes.

When the Glee Club felt the need of an introduction song Prof. Spesard wrote the words and music to "Here We Come From Otterbein." The song has never been sung by any other organization than the Glee Club.

Mrs. Daisy Shumaker of Pittsburgh, wrote the Cleiorhetea song and Mrs. L. K. Miller wrote Philalethea, the music of which was taken from an old German song. Later Samuel Richard Gaines, a noted Boston composer, wrote new music.

"Philophronea" was written by Bishop A. T. Howard. The music was taken from "My Little Old Cigar." "Maryland, My Maryland" was the tune from which Prof. Grabill arranged the music as it now is played for the Philomathean song.

Margaret Brooks, a student in Otterbein four years ago, wrote the music to "We've got a Team that's Hard to Beat," a song that is still popular.

Prof. Grabill suggests that what Otterbein now needs is a stirring band march something after the nature of Ohio State's march, but not like it.

A peculiar fact about the new songs is that the Sibyl has sponsored every one of them.

RALLY

Pep? Well, I guess yes, and plenty of it. A full house, two real cheer leaders, honest-to-goodness pep and a crowd willing to make lots of noise, all this was manifest at the rally last Thursday night. And what more could be desired?

The number of people out to the rally Thursday evening nearly equaled the crowd present at the Freshman Bonfire. The enthusiasm shown there proves that Otterbein, in spite of her losses, has not lost any of her old fighting spirit.
