Graduate School News Highlights

From Bridget M. Newell, Ph.D. Interim Associate Provost for Graduate Studies
Welcome and Welcome Back!

While most graduate students do not have to start their graduate education in the fall semester, fall continues to feel like the “start of school” for many. For faculty and students this time of year is filled with hope, excitement, and perhaps a bit of nervous energy. Below I offer a snapshot highlighting themes we are focusing on this fall. Nursing Giving Report: What's New in Graduate Nursing at Otterbein

Did you know the Department of Nursing graduate students, staff, and faculty have continued to be productive despite having lived through the past two years of the COVID-19 pandemic and now into the economic crisis? In addition to duties at Otterbein, nursing faculty, clinical instructors, and graduate students have continued to work clinically on the front lines of healthcare throughout the pandemic while maintaining high-quality teaching, scholarship, advising, and service activities.
