September 26, 1964

Otterbein's football season kicks off this year with a home game against Indiana Central College, my own alma mater. I played a modest role on Indiana Central's first football team in the autumn of 1924. We had a successful season, due to the fact that our coach, Johnny George, was an Otterbein alumnus, and a star half-back on the Otterbein teams of 1920-22. Indiana Central's present coach is a fine fellow, but he is not an Otterbein alumnus, so their prospects are not quite so bright.

After Indiana Central, we face our usual array of worthy opponents with a team lacking experience in several key positions. There will be no shortage of vigor and determination, however. I am sure that we will see nothing but spirited football this year, and we want to assure the members of our squad that we will support them whole-heartedly throughout the season.
