Graduate School News Highlights

From Bridget M. Newell, Ph.D. Interim Associate Provost for Graduate Studies
Welcome and Welcome Back!

While most graduate students do not have to start their graduate education in the fall semester, fall continues to feel like the “start of school” for many. For faculty and students this time of year is filled with hope, excitement, and perhaps a bit of nervous energy. Below I offer a snapshot highlighting themes we are focusing on this fall. MBA The Only Constant Is Change

First, I would like to thank Dr. Don Eskew for his tireless work creating future leaders at Otterbein University. Not only is he an esteemed professor, he’s most recently been both the chair of the Business, Accounting, and Economics (BAE) Department and the MBA graduate director.

As the incoming MBA graduate director, I am honored to lead Otterbein’s dynamic business graduate program into the future. For a quick background, I've called Westerville home since 1972. I graduated from Ohio University with a BBA, graduated from Otterbein University with an MBA, and I hold several licenses, including a CFE (Certified Fraud Examiner), CPA (Certified Public Accountant), CFP (Certified Financial Planner), and FINRA Series 7/66 security.
