Otterbein Ranks Highest Among Ohio Schools

For the third consecutive year, Otterbein was ranked among the top ten liberal arts institutions in the midwest by U.S. News and World Report. Otterbein improved with a move from seventh place to fifth in this year's rankings.

These rankings were released this fall by U.S. News and World Report for the "1997 America's Best Colleges" guide.

In the category of regional liberal arts colleges, Otterbein ranked higher than any other Ohio institution. Otterbein is followed by Ohio Northern University at seventh, Marietta College at eighth and Mount Union College at tenth.

Otterbein has been steadily moving up in the rankings over the past three years. In 1995, Otterbein was ranked eighth; the College moved up to seventh in 1996 and moves up two spots to fifth this year. U.S. News and World Report also cited Otterbein as fifth in academic reputation, and second in student retention in the midwest region.

This is actually the fourth time Otterbein has been named among the top ten. In 1987, Otterbein was ranked eighth in the category of "smaller comprehensive colleges."

After that ranking, U.S. News and World Report changed the categories in the guide and dropped "smaller comprehensive colleges." Otterbein then was judged against a much broader range of schools. This year there were 421 institutions surveyed in the liberal arts category covering the four regions of the nation with 136 of those in the midwest region.

The schools considered for the guide were divided into categories based upon classifications maintained by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. The categories used are national universities, national liberal arts colleges, regional colleges and universities and regional liberal arts colleges. The guide also ranks business and engineering programs.

U.S. News and World Report surveyed college presidents, deans and admissions directors asking them to rate all the schools in the same category as their own institutions. The resulting reputation rankings were then combined with educational data that had been provided by the colleges themselves. These include statistics which measure student selectivity, faculty resources, financial resources, graduation rate and alumni support.

The complete overall rankings for the top 10 regional liberal arts institutions in the midwest are:

St. Mary's College (Ind.), Hillsdale College (Mich.) St. Norbert College (Wis.), Principia College (Ill.), Otterbein College (Ohio), Taylor University (Ind.), Ohio Northern University (Ohio), Marietta College (Ohio), Millikin University (Ill.), Mount Union College (Ohio).

Funding Complete for New Science Labs

Otterbein recently received a $30,000 grant from the George I. Alden Trust to complete funding for a molecular biology laboratory and a parallel processing computation laboratory. The Alden grant matches two previously funded National Science Foundation grants.

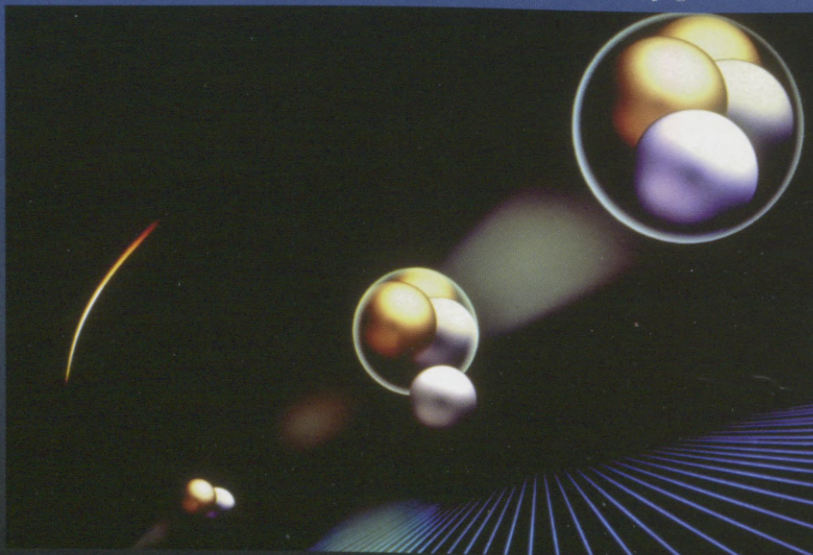

The molecular biology laboratory will accompany a new required freshman course, Molecules, Genes and Cells, to introduce recombinant DNA technology and integrate biochemistry, molecular genetics and cell biology.

In addition to the freshman classes, the laboratory will be utilized by life science majors taking five advanced courses and by others majoring in nursing, sports medicine and equine science. This past summer, a group of disadvantaged youth were introduced to molecular biology through hands-on laboratory exercises as part of their eight-day academic "camp" experience on Otterbein's campus.

The laboratory will include a state-of-the-art microscope with a video monitor and 35mm camera and six computer systems with software

Shivelys Fondly Remembered

To the Editor, "Towers" Magazine:

Mrs. Caroline Williams' letter in the Winter 1996 issue about Otterbein's ties to Japan brought back many beautiful memories of the Shively family. Dr. Benjamin Franklin Shively '05, was my father's professor at the Theological School of Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan. Dr. Shively was a missionary of the former United Brethren Church, and in addition to his teaching duties, he worked side-by-side with Rev. Chukichi Yasuda, pastor of Kyoto Marutamachi Church where I still belong. My father always had respect and love for him, as I recall. My parents were married at the Shively home, Mrs. Shively playing the "Wedding March" on her piano. Dr. and Mrs. Shively were like grandparents to me. I still remember how happy I was whenever Mrs. Shively brought me Christmas cookies in the shape of a Christmas tree, Santa Claus, or stars, homemade cookies so delicious and so interesting to look at, full of tasty things that we couldn't buy in the store at that time.

As I came to know their family, all of the older brothers and sisters were not at home any more, only the youngest son, Donald. I believe they came back to the States before the war, when I was still in grade school. When the war broke out in December 1941, my brother was only a little more than two, and when he heard of the war with America, he said to my mother, "Does that mean we are going to shoot Shivelys?" That really pierced her through the heart. We certainly prayed that they wouldn't be harmed, and I'm sure that they prayed for us, too.

In 1949 I was chosen to be a scholarship student of the Interboard Committee of the United Church of Christ in Japan. My father was very glad that I was sent to Otterbein College, thanks to the full scholarship provided by the Evangelical United Brethren Church, because the Shivelys had settled in Westerville upon their return to the United States. Before I left Japan I was invited to stay in Tokyo with Alice Shively Bunce '33, and her husband, Dr. W. Kenneth Bunce '30. I travelled by boat for two weeks and arrived in San Francisco, where I visited Lillian Shively Rice '29. While I was at Otterbein I had the privilege of meeting another son, John Shively me. The Shivelys retired to Pilgrim's Place in the outskirts of Los Angeles. I came home in 1954 and started teaching in the music department of Doshisha Women's College, and at the same time I led the choir and played the organ at my church. One Sunday in 1956, while I was at the organ, Rev. Yasuda reported the death of Dr. Shively to the congregation, and I couldn't hold back the tears. Until she passed away some years later, Mrs. Shively kept writing me very nice letters.

In closing, I would like to quote what my father, Dr. Tetsutaro Ariga, Professor of Theology, wrote in the Doshisha University Book of Personnel:

"Something that shouldn't have been missed at the annual Founders' Day Concert was that rich baritone voice of Dr. Shively, accompanied by his wife. Their music is still resonating in the ears of the people who heard them. He was also a tennis champion, and he often appeared at

Dr. Benjamin '05 and Mrs. Grace Ressler '06 Shively in 1950.

'33. During my student years I made a cross-country tour with my Filipino friend, Juanita Dacanay '51, visiting churches and giving concerts. On this trip I was invited to the home of Mary Shively Purcell '33, in Los Angeles.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank them for what they have done for me, and for treating me just like a part of the Shively family. Whenever I played in a recital at the college, Dr. Shively came to hear the tennis court with his racquet. Dr. Shively's special field was religious education, but he aimed at a kind of humanistic education, healthy in spirit as well as in body, and the development of a positive personality. And I have been greatly influenced by Dr. Shively, who was always liberal and forward looking in his thinking."

for molecular modeling. Computers will facilitate students' access to the World Wide Web to manipulate up-to-date results from the Human Genome Project and to communicate directly with scientists worldwide through electronic mail.

Since most of computer science now relates to parallel and distributed computation and since the current industry is pushing client/server computing, Otterbein is also creating a Parallel Processing Computation Server Laboratory which will be critical in preparing undergraduates for the work force. The laboratory primarily will serve the computer science majors but will also draw students from physics and mathematics.

The total project cost to create both of these laboratories is $78,113. The National Science Foundation awarded Otterbein $39,056, the departments that will use the laboratories contributed $9,057 and the George I. Alden Trust now completes the funding with a $30,000 grant.

Senior Year Experience — Only at Otterbein

Otterbein has established a new requirement for graduation that will help close the gap between classroom lessons and real world work. During the 1998-99 academic year, seniors for the first time will have to complete a Senior Year Experience (SYE).

Coordinators Susan Enyart, assistant professor of mathematics, and Alison Prindle, professor of English, describe SYE as "something that could only happen at Otterbein."

The aim of the program is to require seniors to pull together the sum of their college experience to examine contemporary social or intellectual issues from a wide range of disciplines and perspectives. The SYE allows seniors to see how all the pieces of their undergraduate learning fit together and how they can be transferred to the work world.

By requiring seniors to put all their learning together at the end of their college career, the SYE is intended to help Otterbein's students become self-directed, lifelong learners and prepare them to approach and handle the complexities and contradictions they will encounter in the "real world."

Otterbein has a long-standing liberal arts core called Integrative Studies which has received state and national recognition. In addition, Otterbein in the past has offered capstone courses for seniors. The SYE goes beyond both the Integrative Studies courses and the capstone courses.

This new senior-level requirement uses interdisciplinary teaching and learning to enhance sensitivity to ethical issues, strengthen synthesizing abilities and increase both the tolerance of ambiguity and the ability to hear and value different points of view.

With this program, Otterbein links its strong liberal arts core and the pre-professional programs. SYE actively brings both areas of learning together for students.

The SYE emphasizes extensive faculty-student interaction and cooperative learning among the students as they bring their own perspectives and expertise to the issues being examined. A team-teaching approach to courses will model for students how faculty work together and interact across disciplinary boundaries. That teamwork is the kind of skill the SYE is intended to foster and a skill students will need to carry over into their employment experiences.

Students will be able to fulfill the SYE requirement through a variety of options including both on and off-campus work. The requirement can be fulfilled through course work, internships, off-campus study programs or student teaching.

Physician & Humanist to Keynote Sesquicentennial Symposium

Child psychiatrist Robert Coles has been chosen as the keynote speaker for the Sesquicentennial Symposium on Thursday, April 24, 1997 in Cowan Hall at 7:30 p.m. His topic will be "Educating for Community: Moral Energy in the Young."

Coles has spent his working life trying to understand the lives of children from a variety of backgrounds. The result of that effort has been a series of books that tell of the particular lives of boys and girls who live in different regions of the United States and in foreign countries.

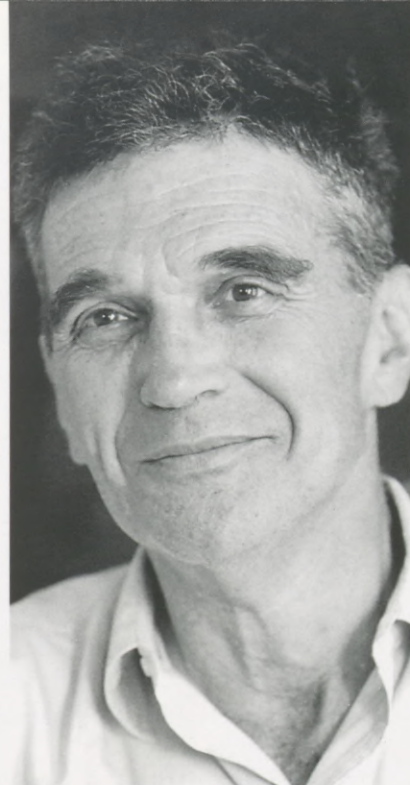

He is a research psychiatrist for the Harvard University Health Services, and a Professor of Psychiatry and Medical Humanities at the Harvard Medical School. He is also the James Agee Professor of Social Ethics at Harvard University. He has offered courses at Harvard College, Harvard Medical School, Harvard Business School, Harvard Law School, the Harvard School of Education, and Harvard Extension School. Coles received his A.B. from Harvard and his M.D. from Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Since 1961, Coles has published more than 1,200 articles, reviews, and essays in newspapers, magazines, journals, and anthologies. His 56 books include: Children of Crisis (in five volumes); Erik H. Erikson: The Growth of His Work; The Middle Americans; Walker Percy: An American Search; The Old Ones of New Mexico; Flannery O'Connor's South; Women of Crisis (with Jane Coles, in two volumes); The Moral Life of Children; The Political Life of Children; Dorothy Day: A Radical Devotion; Simone Weil: A Modern Pilgrimage; Times of Surrender; Harvard Diary; The Call of Stories: Teaching and the Moral Imagination.

Coles is the author most recently of a book on the meaning of children's drawings and paintings, and The Call of Service: A Witness to Idealism. He has examined how children from a variety of backgrounds acquire religious values in various social and cultural settings and how these values connect with a given child's life: The Spiritual Life of Children.

Coles has received numerous awards, including the Ralph Waldo Emerson Prize of Phi Beta Kappa (1967), the Anisfield-Wolf Award in Race Relations of the Saturday Review (1968), the Hofheimer Award of the American Psychiatric Association (1968), the McAlpin Medal of the National Association of Mental Coles lives outside of Boston, Massachusetts. Two sons, Robert and Daniel, are physicians. A third son, Michael, is in medical school.

Sesquicentennial Show Goes on the Road

Otterbein College and its 150th year celebration were present at two July events by means of the traveling Sesquicentennial exhibit. Designed by the Exhibits Committee (chaired by Lois Szudy, director of the Courtright Memorial Library), the three-panel, six-faced display highlights 150 years of history through photographic reproductions from the Otterbein archival collection. David Stichweh, director of the Instructional Media Center at Otterbein, was instrumental in preparing the photographs and designing the layout. Others on the committee who assisted with the project include Patricia Rothermich, Joanne VanSant, Melinda Gilpin, Beth Weinhardt, Jean Spero, Monty Bradley, Barbara Rutherford and Margarette Barkhymer '65.

The exhibit's first "port of call" was the Ohio Statehouse rededication, "A Capitol Revival," on July 7. In addition to asst. prof. Szudy, those volunteers present to greet the many people attending this special Ohio celebration were Patricia Rothermich, Greg and Mary Johnson, Margaret Trent '65 and Becky Smith '81.

Its second appearance was at the Otterbein booth of the Westerville Music and Arts Festival on July 13 and 14, held on the Towers lawn. Volunteers under the direction of Barbara Rutherford, executive assistant to president C. Brent DeVore, included Lois Szudy, Patricia Rothermich, Ann Rottersman, Malcolm Creager, Julie Russell, Diana Bell, Martha Miles, Mary Kay Freshour, Carolyn Coyne, Jean Scheer, Donna Bowers, Jo Beerman, Sylvia Vance, Sharon Sink, Nancy Nikiforow and Mike Christian '61.

The traveling exhibit will remain on campus through Homecoming, and then appear in various locations until its return to campus for Founders Week.

Otterbein Will Host NCAA Golf Championship

Otterbein College has been selected to host the NCAA Division III men's golf championship.

The 72-hole championship, scheduled for May 13-16, will be played at The Medallion Club, a Jack Nicklaus, Jr. designed course, in Westerville.

"Our golf team has made great strides over the last several years," says Dick Reynolds, men's athletics director at Otterbein. "This is a wonderful opportunity for our players, our athletics program and the Westerville community."

Otterbein, under head coach David McLaughlin, has played in the championship in each of the last four years, finishing as high as second in 1995. Other finishes include 13th (1996), fifth (1994) and eighth (1993).

"Hosting the championship is something our players have wanted to do and should help serve as a motivator," McLaughlin says. "It is an honor for our program, our players and our institution to have been chosen. We will work very hard to make it one of the best championships in recent years."

Kevin Weakley, a sophomore point guard, is the lone starter from last year.

In addition to the golf championship, Otterbein will host the NCAA Division III Great Lakes Regional in men's and women's cross country Nov. 9.

Women's Basketball Success May Hinge on Sophomores and Juniors

The Otterbein women's basketball team returns eight letter winners, including four starters, from last season's 15-10 squad, which finished fifth at 11-7 in the Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC).

Fifth-year head coach Connie Richardson feels the success of the 1996-97 team hinges upon the performances from the junior and sophomore classes. "I expect our seniors to perform," Richardson says. "How well the sophomores and juniors fill their roles will determine our success this season."

Seniors Jenny Lambert, a 6-0 center and a candidate for All-America honors, and Ali Davis, a 5-6 point guard, will be counted on for production and leadership.

Lambert, solid at both ends of the court, averaged 17.2 points and 12.0 rebounds a game last year, which placed her fourth and second, respectively, in the OAC. She led the conference in steals, averaging 3.4 an outing. Lambert, an honorable mention All-America and a first team All-OAC pick, tallied 18 double-doubles last season.

Davis added 4.4 points and 3.5 assists a game.

Rounding out the list of returning starters are Jaime Steffen, a 5-10 guard (9.2 ppg., 2.3 rpg.), and Julie Good, a 5-9 forward (8.2 ppg., 5.4 rpg.).

Other players expected to contribute include letter-winners Renae Bexfield, a 5-9 junior forward; Jenny Burns, a 5-11 sophomore center; Lindsey Jensen, a 5-7 sophomore forward; and Angie Wilson, a 5-11 sophomore forward.

Men's Basketball Will Have to Mature Quickly

Although Otterbein heads into the 1996-97 campaign short on seasoned veterans, 25th-year head coach Dick Reynolds remains upbeat.

"We might experience a very tough beginning," Reynolds says. "The Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) is a lot stronger now than it has been in the recent past."

"Early on, we will have to rely on enthusiasm, aggressiveness and quickness—and mature quickly," he adds.

Point guard Kevin Weakley, a 5-10 sophomore, is the lone starter among six lettermen back. The Cardinal playmaker averaged 8.0 points and 4.3 assists a game, and placed fifth for assists and third for steals (1.96 a game) in the OAC. He started all 25 games as a freshman.

Other letter winners back from last season's 12-13 squad, which finished tied for fifth at 9-9 in the OAC, are Joey Ferris, a 6-2 junior guard (2.0 ppg., 0.8 rpg.); Ryan Roston, a 6-5 sophomore forward (7.2 ppg., 4.0 rpg.); Dan McAuley, a 6-4 sophomore swingman (4.3 ppg., 1.0 rpg.); and Carl Scott, a 5-9 junior point guard (4.4 ppg., 1.5 rpg.). McAuley and Scott missed most of last season because of injuries.

Jeff Baumgardner, a 6-3 junior guard (2.7 ppg., 1.6 rpg.) who did not play last season, returns. He lettered as a freshman during the 1994-95 season.

Two post players highlight the freshman class. They are Jason Dutcher, a 6-6, 210 lb. center from Columbus (Watterson), and Trevor Yonkin, a 6-5 210 lb. center from Lockbourne (Teays Valley).

The Cardinals are seeking to replace the offensive output from guards Kelley McClure and Scott Davis, who graduated. Both players averaged 17.2 points a game. ■

Alumnae Duo Gets Kids Involved with History

by Patti Kennedy

Two Otterbein alumnae recently used their expertise in the field of public relations to motivate fourth graders all across Ohio to raise money for a new seal to be installed as part of the Ohio state house restoration.

Utilizing their expertise in historical celebrations and educating children, they are now helping with the Sesquicentennial by taking Otterbein history to Westerville elementary students.

Tammy Roberts Myers '88, a public relations manager with Bob Evans Restaurants, remembers when the company was asked to make a $25,000 donation toward the state house restoration. The money would be used to purchase a new state seal for the state house.

"That's a lot of money for our company," Myers admits. She was assigned the task of finding a way to raise the money. In seeking help with the project, she turned to her friend Susan Gaskell Merryman '88. At the time Merryman was an account executive with SBC Advertising, which had Bob Evans as a client.

The two women had been friends since they met as freshmen at Otterbein. "We lived on the same floor, were both officers for PRSSA, both interned at the Ohio State Fair, I was maid-of-honor at her wedding...yes, we've been friends for a long time" Merryman explains.

When Myers told her that Bob Evans had been asked to help with the state house restoration, the two brainstormed and came up with the idea of involving school children.

Research revealed that students throughout the state study Ohio history in the fourth grade. They then developed an educational kit that supplemented the unit on Ohio history and invited children to help with the restoration by collecting pennies or selling bookmarks. The industrious youths collected more than $21,000.

During the state house dedication ceremony, Governor George Voinovich said he would like every child in Ohio to have the opportunity to visit the newly restored state house.

One class did just that, courtesy of Bob Evans. They were awarded a field trip as the top collectors — not just in the amount they collected but also for their creativity in how they collected money.

"This project took on a life of its own," Merryman says. "The exciting part for me was the contest. The entries were unbelievable in their creativity and that really continued our excitement about the project."

The hardest part, Myers says, "was collecting all those pennies from across Ohio." Children would bring literally pounds of pennies to their local Bob Evans restaurants.

Myers and Merryman entered this project in the Public Relations Society of America national contest under the category of Special Projects and won the Silver Anvil award. "This project just had everything it needed to be considered for an award," Merryman says. "It involved school children, an historic event for the state and affected so many people — the teachers and parents."

The project began in 1993; they received their award in May 1996

and the state house dedication was a few months later in July.

With their alma mater approaching a milestone, Myers and Merryman are once again preparing educational kits for students. With the help of Beth Weinhardt and several Westerville teachers, they are putting together educational kits for third graders in the Westerville Public Schools. Third graders study local history and with Otterbein celebrating its sesquicentennial anniversary, it seemed the perfect time to supplement their knowledge of the College.

"We're finding great resources. We're learning a lot of history associated with the College. And with this project, as with others I've worked on, we've found so many alumni full of knowledge and willing to help," Merryman says.

The kits teach not only history but try to reach all disciplines including English, art and math. For example, the students will use the information in mathematics to compare prices from 1872 to current prices.

"We hope to convey what the environment was like in the 1800s; how a trip to Columbus was an all-day affair. We included the founders and important people like Benjamin Hanby and the Westervelts and how they contributed to the development of the town and the college," Merryman explains.

Myers added, "Our goal is that Otterbein not be just an abstract place in the community. A special event like the Sesquicentennial can be used to teach about Otterbein and Westerville in a fun and exciting way." ■

Saving the Grand Old Hall

by Patricia Kessler

"She stands serene mid treetops green, she is our dear Otterbein."

Those words from the alma mater could be singing of Towers Hall, that stately manor that has touched all alumni since 1871. It is the symbolic heart of dear Otterbein and neither fire nor sleet nor dark of night could wear her down. But sadly, time is wearing her out.

She rose from the ashes in 1870 after that memorable night when Reverend Lewis Davis marshaled the loyal force of trustees, faculty, alumni, students and friends to rebuild the burned main building into a structure that came to be fondly known as Towers.

Towers has been the center of serious study as well as the home of many pranks. Somehow she has endured the indignity of cows, horses and chickens in her classrooms, the reassembling of a farm wagon filled with hay in her Chapel and the pillage of her bell to steal its clapper.

She has nobly survived the many structural changes foisted on her to serve the needs of the times. Her Chapel has been a storage room, a library, a band and lecture room, a data center and faculty offices. She has been home to the College's presidents, treasurers, literary societies and when they left her, she willingly provided the College with more classroom and office space. With each change she stood steadfast and uncomplaining, because she was the spirit of Otterbein and proud of that role.

Though she may have desired to retain her former beauty and shape, she was willing to sacrifice to the GI "bulge" as some referred to the burgeoning enrollments after World War II. And she put up with making her stairways concrete when the wooden ones were declared a fire hazard.

After all, she had her memories to sustain her. She watched friendships grow, romances bloom. She watched fiery debates, theatrical productions and parliamentary procedures. She housed the conservatory, art studio, music rooms and laboratory with equal consideration.

She did not voice a whimper when her beautiful literary society rooms were turned into faculty offices. She stoically did her part in making way for progress.

When threatened with extinction in the 1960s, she suffered in silence and was heartened when the alumni overwhelmingly came to her rescue.

In 1971 she was placed on the National Register of Historic Places which further saved her from the wrecking ball.

It is rumored that she did not feel a twinge of jealousy for the handsome new building that took residence beside her in 1992. No, she cheered with the crowd as ground was broken and brick by brick each floor was laid.

Nor did she complain or even ask, "Why not spruce me up instead? After all, I've been here for you through thick and thin."

She did not shatter her glass, crumble her bricks or put new cracks in her walls in a fit of rage over what must have seemed to be a form of desertion from the community she had served so well.

The time has come to reassure her that we have not deserted her and that we appreciate all that she has done and meant to us.

The Centennial Campaign of 1947 had the goal of raising money to build a new library. To keep expenses reasonable the new Centennial Library was put into Towers Hall, who graciously made room for it. She was always a congenial hostess.

The Sesquicentennial Campaign has a clearly stated capital goal to restore Towers. No, not patch and paste with a lick and a promise, not just paint over past mistakes, but to restore her to her former grandeur.

It is time to show her we love her and will never abandon her.

A major Towers Hall restoration demonstrates Otterbein's commitment to the Sesquicentennial theme: Affirming our Past/Shaping our Future.

The restoration will include complete renovation of classrooms, work spaces and corridors. Changes designed to recapture the essence of the time period in which Towers was built will be evident throughout the facility.

Physical changes to make Towers more accessible, new wiring and a modern heating, ventilation and air conditioning system will be included.

Updated lighting, flooring, paint, restored trim and archways, network cabling and acoustic ceilings will prepare the building for the classes of the next millennium.

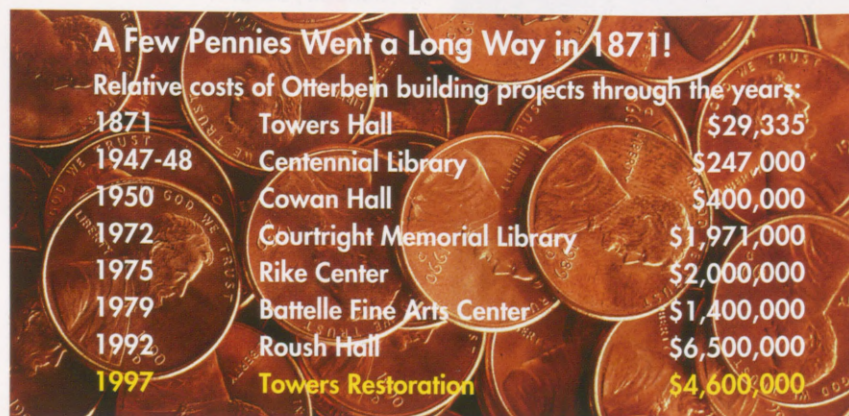

Currently residing in Towers are the Mathematics, English and Foreign Language, History and Political Science, and Religion and Philosophy departments. Other offices in Towers include the Tan and Cardinal; Continuing Studies offices, Grants office and the Registrar's office.

Naming Gift Opportunities are Many

Opportunity to name classrooms and offices in memory or in honor of families and faculty include:

- Main floor reading room: $250,000
- Philophronean room: $150,000
- Large classrooms: $100,000
- Main floor classrooms: $50,000
- Second floor classrooms: $25,000
- Faculty and Administrative offices: $5,000 to $15,000

All gifts designated for Towers Hall of $1,000 or more will be recognized with plaques within the restored facility and each contribution, regardless of size, counts toward The Campaign for Otterbein. ■

Towers: A Short History

Towers Hall was designed by architect R. T. Brookes of Columbus and constructed by A. W. Cornell of Newark. The cost in 1871 was $29,335. The date of completion was fixed as August 1, 1871 but when the contractor went bankrupt, the building was not completed for classroom use until the end of the year.

The curved wall in the center was originally part of the two-story chapel and remained so for 75 years. It was here that a public meeting was held to urge support for President Woodrow Wilson in World War I. Since it was the most sizable auditorium space on campus, it was the site of plays, variety shows, and lectures.

The first floor or lower-level was a dirt floor basement with living quarters for the janitor's family. On January 1, 1947 Sandy Frye became Business Manager for the College. He undertook the project of finishing the lower level to provide business offices.

Frye also oversaw the 1947 rebuilding of the stairways leading from the basement to the top floor. One contractor's bid was $16,000 lower than any other bidder. Later it was discovered the contractor made an error and figured only the cost of one stairway. Thus, Otterbein received two stairways for the price of one.

Towers' style of architecture is Victorian Gothic, and it was built with some of the same bricks used from the main building it replaced after the fire. Before the lower level was painted, charred bricks could be seen.

The bell was purchased in 1872 from Vanduzen and Tift of Cincinnati and weighs over one thousand pounds.

In 1972 Towers had a facelift with the repainting of bricks, erection of a new roof and the waterproofing of the basement. The next summer two of the towers were dismantled and replaced.

Convocation Kicks Off Sesquicentennial Year

by Patti Kennedy

Nearly 1,700 students, faculty, administrators, staff, alumni and friends of the College gathered on Sept. 24 for the Sesquicentennial Convocation, the official start of Otterbein's year-long celebration.

The convocation opened with a concert of traditional Otterbein music including the "Otterbein Love Song," "Come On Down to Otterbein," and Benjamin Hanby compositions "Darling Nelly Gray," "Up on the Housetop" and "Who Is He in Yonder Stall?" The concert also included "T.&C. March," written by Lee Shackson, a professor of music at Otterbein from 1936 to 1964. For the occasion, his son, James Shackson, a 1961 graduate, conducted the piece.

Following the concert, one of the Otterbein founders, Lewis Davis, in the form of theatre professor Ed Vaughan, spoke to the group. Davis was Otterbein's first financial agent, one of the College's three founding trustees and served twice as president of Otterbein.

Davis recalled his first work to raise money for Otterbein as he traveled to the Sandusky Conference. "I went on day by day through the mud, through the black swamp — mud, mud, mud, mud, till I could not tell the color of my horse."

At the conference he was faced by Bishop Russel who had made up his mind to oppose funding for the college. "You be still, you be still," he ordered Davis. Still the conference voted for the college. "I felt that a few more such victories would defeat me," he sighed.

When he reached the Muskingum Conference, Davis related that he again faced Bishop Russel, "and this time I asked him to be still." And so the work of creating a college began.

"Let it never be forgotten that such is the wonderful structure of the mind that it will be educated. The question is not, Shall the youth be educated? but what kind of education shall they have?"

Keynote speaker Dr. Martin Marty, after receiving an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, attempted to answer that question by speaking on the topic "Educating for Community Now."

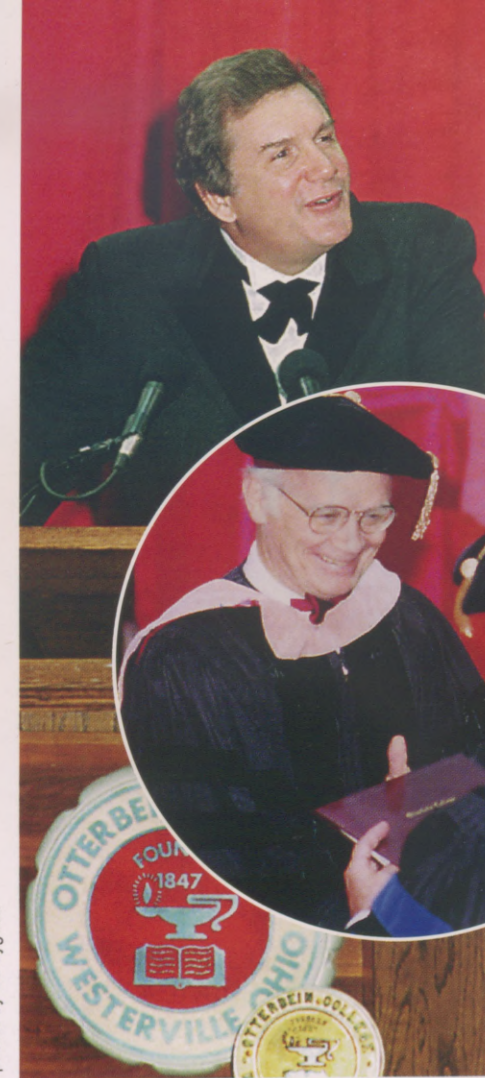

He congratulated Otterbein for getting back to basics and thinking about "what you are about. And you have decided what you are about is educating for community and my job is to add 'now.'"

He went on to discuss what is good about community and how a college educates for community.

He stated that community is essential because "We are social beings and nobody really stands alone even if

Heritage Fellowship

The Heritage Fellowship recognizes those persons whose gifts provide special leadership to the College. Through gifts already made, or with commitments to be filled through estates, those who participate in the Heritage Fellowship share a vision of Otterbein—a college that continues to make important, distinctive contributions to higher education.

Members of the Heritage Fellowship have made cash contributions or deferred gift commitments that together total at least $50,000. Within the Heritage Fellowship are four Circles:

Guardians Circle	$1 million or more
Benefactors Circle	$500,000 to $999,999
Leaders Circle	$200,000 to $499,999
Founders Circle	$50,000 to $199,999

Those named have made gifts and commitments to Otterbein that exceed $19 million. We are grateful for the generous spirit of all who are members of the Heritage Fellowship, and trust that their generosity will challenge others to join them.

Futures Society

The Futures Society recognizes individuals who have remembered Otterbein College in their estate planning and notified the College in writing of that intent. As of June 30, 1996, Otterbein College had planned and estate gift expectancies of over $11.6 million. This generosity is vital to the future of Otterbein. If you would like to be included with those persons listed below, contact the Executive Director of Development at (614) 823-1401, for further information. Welcome to the FUTURE!

Clubs

Gift clubs allow the College to thank and recognize the many people whose giving funds scholarships, equipment, and other areas that strengthen the educational opportunities provided to students at Otterbein.

These clubs exist to advance the development program by giving donors options for contributions at various leadership levels. Individuals are invited to join one of these clubs each year as part of the Otterbein Fund.

Membership in Otterbein's giving clubs is extended to individuals who contribute annually to the furtherance of the College's objectives.

Giving club memberships:

- May be initiated through a gift of cash or securities
- Include all contributions made within the July 1 to June 30 fiscal year
- May include matching gifts from a donor's employer

Otterbein's annual giving clubs are:

- The President's Club (gifts of $5,000 or more), Robert '56 and Ann Beth '55 Wilkinson, chairs
- Towers Club (gifts of $1,000 to $4,999), Susan Canfield '58, chair
- Tan and Cardinal Club ($500 to $999), H. Wendell '48 and Miriam '47 King, chairs

The "O" Club

Incorporated as a separate organization, the "O" Club was established in 1982 to provide additional funds for athletic programs and facilities at Otterbein College.

The 1995-96 giving year was a big one for the Otterbein "O" Club as nearly 500 individuals and businesses contributed more than $91,000 in gifts to the "O" Club plus in-kind gifts of more than $18,000. This exceeded our record setting year of 1994-95 by more than 10 percent. The "O" Club expresses sincere thanks to all those who made this such a successful year.

As a result of the outstanding support that "O" Club members gave the "O" Club and its Foundation, Otterbein teams, facilities and student body benefited. The club purchased new equipment for the weight room which is used by both men and women athletes and other members of the student body. They also made a significant contribution to help purchase new band uniforms. Other major projects included development of a new cross country track, rings for the men's championship track team, watches for the women's championship tennis team and banners for both.

We continue our pledge to operate in a sound fiscal manner in the best interests of Otterbein College. Also, the club expresses its sincere thanks for the on-going cooperation of the College Development Office.

Endowed Scholarships/Awards

*W*e again wish to highlight the contributors to our endowed scholarships, endowed awards and endowed special projects.

Opportunities to establish Otterbein College Endowed Scholarships begin at $15,000 and completion is to occur within five years of initiation. (Endowed scholarships established before January, 1993 begin at $10,000.)

Endowed scholarships provide funds for financial assistance to incoming students. Academic departments may recommend endowed scholars but eligibility decisions rest with the Scholarship Committee.

Figures with each endowed scholarship reflect the total of gifts received as of June 30, 1996. Those funds receiving no gift in the '95-'96 fiscal year are listed by title and gift total only.

HISTORY OF THE PROGRAM 1898 - 1996

The first endowed scholarship was established in 1898 by J. Wesley Welshans, who stated, "It is hoped that this gift may be increased and that many others of like character may be established." Welshans set up the scholarship in memory of his son and an Otterbein tradition was born.

During the 1996-97 school year, there are 153 endowed scholarships providing assistance to over 393 students.

he thinks he does." He added that community endows our lives with meaning and that we find our identity through community.

But how do we educate for community? Marty suggested several ways — through texts, through friends and the social experiences gained by living in the residence halls, belonging to a sorority, fraternity, athletic team or other group. And, of course, through our faculty.

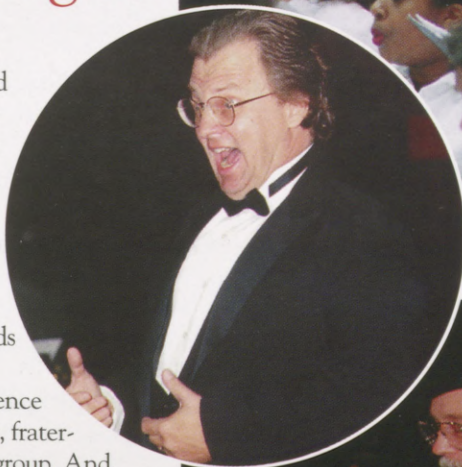

He encouraged the Otterbein community to continue its year-long conversation examining what is unique about Otterbein and how it teaches for community.

Marty's speech was followed by the truly inspiring world premiere of the Marvin Hamlish composition, "Always Something Sings" as performed by the combined Otterbein choirs, with 110 members, and 50-member Wind Ensemble. The composer was on hand to conduct his new music which he created specifically for the anniversary celebration. The composition was based on the Ralph Waldo Emerson poem "Music."

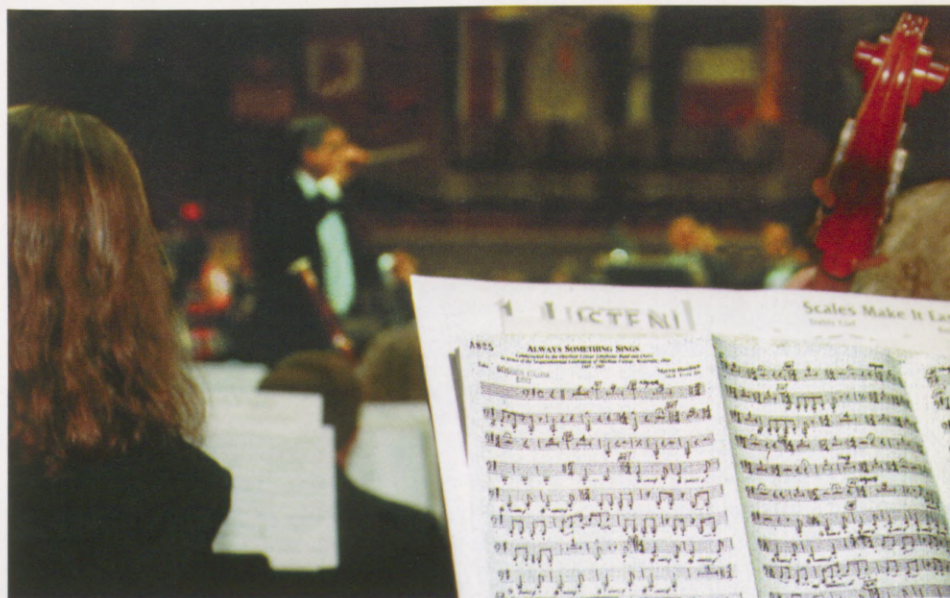

The idea of this commissioned piece of music began more than a year ago when Otterbein Band Director Gary Tirey approached Hamlish about creating a song specifically for the College's sesquicentennial celebration. The composer agreed to take on the project.

Hamlish addressed the group before presenting the song. "People ask me how I write music," he said. "I look at those in the United Nations who simultaneously translate speeches into another language. That amazes me. Just as they are saying something, people are speaking it in Spanish or German or Japanese. I think that's what musicians do but we translate the words emotionally into music."

The performance ended the convocation but the event was only the beginning as Otterbein continues to mark this milestone in the College's history. ■

Major portions of the academic and the celebratory emphases of the Sesquicentennial culminate in the events of Founders' Week (April 21-27, 1997) with the 150th anniversary of the founding of Otterbein College occurring on April 26. Three committees are making plans for this important week, under the direction of the Events Committee and the general Coordinating Committee. This account of coming events expands on the information in the Sesquicentennial Events Planner, and invites you to be present on campus to share with all of us here this exciting time. Please note that the unveiling of the montage and the class of '97 gift presentation are scheduled for times different from the Sesquicentennial Events Planner listing.

Friday, April 25 - 6:00 p.m., at the Campus Center: Pre-Performance Dinner, preceding the play Miller and Winter.

This event includes a buffet dinner, with a theme of Otterbein Theatre productions throughout the years. Entertainment will be songs from musicals that have been produced at Otterbein. Further information on tickets and reservations will be included in the winter issue of Towers magazine. (Contact person, Sue Long, 614-823-1250)

Friday, April 25 - 7:30 p.m., Miller and Winter, a play by Les Epstein, class of 1983, in the Campus Center Arena Theatre.

Monday, April 21 - 4:00 p.m., at the Courtright Memorial Library: Unveiling of the montage depicting Otterbein, past and present.

Using sources in the photographic archives of the College, David Stichweh (Director of the Instructional Media Center), Earl Hassenpflug (Professor Emeritus) and Leigh Ann Inskeep (class of '89) have captured the essence of Otterbein's presence and heritage. A reception "with music and celebration" will follow the unveiling. The montage will remain in the Library to be enjoyed throughout the remainder of the Sesquicentennial celebration and into the future.

See Exhibits, page seven of the Sesquicentennial Events Planner for other campus displays.

Tuesday, April 22 - Noon, Presentation of the class of '97 gift at the Campus Center.

Tuesday, April 22 - 4:00 p.m., Cox Debate
Pi Kappa Delta and the Communication Department will host these debates with an 1800s theme. The format will be similar to the original literary societies which used an Oxford style of audience participation debate. (Contact person: Prof. Susan Millsap, 614-823-1753)

Wednesday, April 23 And Thursday, April 24 - Sesquicentennial Symposium (See section below describing this cluster of events)

"Miller and Winter" is the story of the first two women to receive degrees from Otterbein College—their lives, their loves and their dreams. It is a play celebrating perseverance and unconditional love at a time when the dividing tentacles of civil strife were beginning to change America.

When on June 23, 1857, Otterbein University recognized its first graduates, conferring degrees on Mary Katherine Winter and Jenny Miller, the days and nights leading up to that momentous occasion had been anything but peaceful. Months before, a romantic composer named Benjamin Hanby had made the mistake of serenading his true love, Miss Winter, with a parody of her name. Offended by "Mary Had a Little Lamb," this Mary vowed never to speak to Hanby again, and forever changed her name to Kate! (Will she add "Hanby" to it?) And for Jenny Miller, there are challenges in society's rules and regulations. (Will she become the great teacher she dreams of being?) Come and see! Play directed by Pam Hill, class of '75; consultants, Professors Emeriti Charles Dodrill and Fred Thayer. Other performances at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday April 26, and at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 27.

Monday, April 21 through Friday, April 25 - Integrative Studies Festival Week, with the theme "Educating for Community: Growing Apart and Staying Together." Detailed schedule to be available by the beginning of spring term. (Contact persons, Professors Allan Cooper, 614-823-1411 and Michael Haberkorn, 614-823-1408).

Also during this week, the following Departmental Alumni Gatherings will take place:

Friday, April 25 - 5:30 p.m. in the Campus Center, History/Political Science (Contact person, Prof. Elizabeth MacLean, 614-823-1509)

Saturday, April 26 - 11:30 a.m. in the Rike Center, Health/Physical Education (Contact person, Sylvia Alspaugh, 614-823-1553)

Sunday, April 27 - noon at the Campus Center, Religion/Philosophy: featured speaker Dr. Paul Redditt (Contact person, Prof. Glenna Jackson, 614-823-1561)

For each of these Gatherings, contact will be made by the department with its alumni.

The Sesquicentennial Symposium

Just as the heart of the Otterbein College Sesquicentennial celebration is academic, so, too, is the heart of Founders' Week. Several campus study activities, organized around the academic theme, "Educating for Community," are serving to prepare for the two-day cluster of events described here. All events in the Symposium are open to the public without charge, and are made possible, in part, by a grant from the Ohio Humanities Council and the National Endowment for the Humanities. The Sesquicentennial Coordinating Committee appreciates also the generous support of the Otterbein Humanities Endowment whose gift completes the funding for this cluster.

On Wednesday, April 23 from 10:00 a.m. until noon in Roush Hall 114, there will take place a panel presentation and discussion entitled "Communities in Conflict." With its central issue that of immigration, part of the purpose of this session is to help students see how different positions can have their own principles and logic and "rightness." Not all conflicts in communities can be resolved. Where can we look, in the curriculum of higher education, to find insights concerning such conflicts? How can we bring to bear such insights concerning contemporary issues? A panel of policy makers and academics will be present to address these questions. (Kamel Abdallah, chair of the Department of Business/Accounting/Economics, is the contact person for information about this event: 614-823-1892.)

Also on Wednesday, April 23, from 2:30 p.m. until 9:00 p.m., a mini-conference on the theme, "Research and Community" will take place in Roush Hall. Its purpose is to highlight research interests and accomplishments of Otterbein alumni, students and faculty. Research is at the center of higher education. Equally important, however, is the second part of the theme: community. Presenters will be asked to explore a set of questions on the relationships between research and its communities, both those of the researchers and those impacted by their research. A key objective of the conference will be to begin to develop an Otterbein Research Network, parallel to the Cardinal Network for careers. Alumni will be asked to join this network to make themselves available to our current students for questions and guidance if students have an interest in doing research after (or in) college. The contact persons for this event are Professors Beth Daugherty (614-823-1659) and Michael Hoggarth (614-823-1667).

From 10:00 a.m. until noon on Thursday, April 24, "Otterbein Voices" will be presented in the Campus Center, East Main Lounge. This event is a readers' theatre collage of students' autobiographical writings and interviews with important people in their lives. The purpose of this event is to demonstrate the possibilities of community building through such stories. What does learning to tell one's own story entail? (Patricia Kessler, contact person for this event: 614-823-1600)

The keynote speaker for the Symposium is Dr. Robert Coles, who will speak on the topic "Educating for Community: Moral Energy in the Young." (See the article on Dr. Coles in News Briefs on page 5.) From 5:15 to 6:15 on Thursday, April 24, students and members of the new Westerville community book discussion group will join Dr. Coles in informal discussion (Roush Hall 114). At 7:30 p.m. in Cowan Hall Dr. Coles will give his address to the wider Otterbein community, followed by a short question and answer session with the audience. (Note the change of time from the Sesquicentennial Events Planner listing.)

Dr. Coles has special importance in relationship to the academic theme, "Educating for Community," because his own research has always focused on children and young people as they learn to cope in communities under challenge and as they create complex political, moral, and spiritual identities. His first work, Children of Crisis, began with a longitudinal and personal study of the first black children to enter integrated schools in the American South.

Under the leadership of Professor Alison Prindle, the committee which is preparing the Symposium is also sponsoring a new Westerville community book discussion group associated with the 150th anniversary observance. Led by Mary Pat Knight, Lillian Frank, Mary Davis and Kay Doeble, the group will meet monthly during the Sesquicentennial year, and will read works by the many speakers coming to the Otterbein campus during these months. The fall meetings are in Howard House on the Otterbein campus at 7:30 p.m. on September 17, October 1, November 5, and December 3. (Contact persons are Professor Emerita Lillian Frank (614-898-5497) or Mary Davis (614-882-3533).

Founders' Day (and Sunday)

Founders' Day, April 26, 1997, will be an all-day celebration of Otterbein—past, present and future. From many historic, nostalgic attractions and an all-day carnival atmosphere to children's activities, this is the event for the campus population, alumni and friends, children and grandchildren to enjoy. It will be a day to recall fond memories and to make new ones.

A section of Grove and Home streets will be closed to provide plenty of space to enjoy the Otterbein band, choir, and alumni choir, along with

Otterbein Entry Captures Grand Marshal Award

The Sesquicentennial year started when the Community Salute Committee, chaired by Janet Tressler Davis '82, organized an entry to the Westerville Fourth of July parade. The entry captured the Grand Marshal Award. Tammy Roberts Meyer, '88, coordinated the entry by getting Belgian Horses and a Bob Evans wagon which are owned by Barb and Jim Uhl of Lancaster, Ohio. Wendy Peterson, '95, organized the purchase of old-fashioned stick candy which was distributed along the parade route through the streets of Westerville.

Individuals rode in the wagon dressed in period costumes which were loaned from the Otterbein Costume Shop. Special thanks to the individuals who represented Otterbein by waving an OC flag and pennants: Paulette Sandor '99, Kent, OH; Hiroko Asano '98, Japan; Mark Hunter '98, Sierra Leone; Alex Isakbeev '99, Latvia; Marina Ourshanskay '98, Ukraine; Scott Wilson '94; Michael Maxwell '87; Becky Fickel Smith '81.

alumni artists who will return to delight you with their talents.

Also, as a community service, the Postal Service offers pictorial stamp cancellations to commemorate local events celebrated in the community. Otterbein will have such a cancellation to commemorate Founders' Week during the Sesquicentennial.

A brief ceremony involving the Otterbein community, interested alumni and the Westerville Post Office will take place on the campus at the Campus Center Station on April 26 immediately following the Kick-Off of Founders' Day.

Those attending the event may obtain the cancellation in person at the temporary post office established on campus for the day. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the cancellation may submit a mail order request.

Pictorial cancellations will be available only for April 26, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the date of the event. All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum first-class postage stamp (at present, 32 cents per envelope and 20 cents per post card).

If you wish a cancellation, affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of your choice, address to yourself or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in the envelope and tuck in the flap. Place the envelopes or postcards into a larger envelope and mail to Pictorial Cancellations, Founders' Day Sesquicentennial Station, Otterbein College, Westerville Ohio 43081-9998.

Those who want their items returned under protected cover should included a larger, self-addressed stamped envelope.

Philatelists will not want to miss this opportunity to add another item to their collections. The entire day will be filled with a wealth of activities, so everyone is encouraged to attend.

For information call College Relations, 614-823-1600 or e-mail PKessler@Otterbein.edu.

Pieces of our history, such as the Maypole Dance, Scrap Day and a rerouted two-mile walk, will be returning to the campus. The Heritage Walk, presenting Otterbein people, places, and events of the past will be presented twice during the day. A very talented group which does Civil War era reenactments will take us back in time with everything from a mid-1800s army camp to an historic baseball game.

What an opportunity to make noise! Look for more information on page 22 of this issue on the ringing of the Towers Hall bell 150 times beginning at (what else!) 1:50 p.m.

There will be lots of food, of course, including a nostalgic picnic lunch, street vendors from yesteryear, a pig roast on Grove Street for dinner, and, of course, a huge birthday cake with special commemorative candles. The "light of Otterbein" will remain well after dark, as a beacon will pierce the night sky, announcing our celebration to everyone within 30 miles.

Finally, following a band performance in the stadium, there is to be a dance in the Rike Center featuring music from throughout Otterbein's history, with WOBH and alumni disc jockeys presiding. A few surprises on this occasion will top off the evening in style.

There is also an additional event planned by the Founders' Day committee on Sunday, April 27: 10:30 a.m., Chapel Service in the Otterbein Chapel.

(The contact person for the Founders' Day events is Heidi Kellett, 614-873-8551, or e-mail at a.kellett@sci.compuserv.com.)

Separately arranged, but occurring on the Founders' Day weekend are the "Special Event Station" plans of Otterbein Amateur Radio Club Station KD8ZBD, which will be on the air Saturday and Sunday. (The contact person for this event is David Stichweh, N8GKQ, 614-823-1463.) ■

Sesquicentennial Tackboard

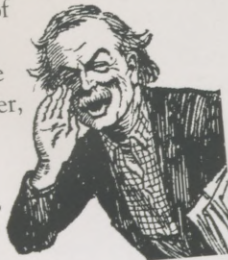

Commemorate the Past, Ring in the Future!

Beginning at 1:50 p.m. on April 26, 1997, the Towers Bell will ring 150 times to commemorate Otterbein's Sesquicentennial of Leadership to students, community and the world. The Founders' Day Committee is seeking 150 volunteers to contribute a minimum of $15 each (more if you wish!) for the opportunity to be a bell ringer. The money acquired will help defray the costs of Founders' Day. The list of bell ringers and the sequence of ringing will be listed in Towers before Founders' Day.

If you want to affirm the Past and help ring in the Future, please send, by Feb. 1, 1997, your name, address, and phone number on a memo that indicates "Bell Ringers." Make checks (with memo indicating "Bell Ringers") payable to Otterbein College and send to Otterbein College, Attn: Edith Walters Cole, Development Office, Westerville, Ohio 43081.

Got a Funny Otterbein Story?

There is coming a fine new history of Otterbein, written by Dan Hurley and illustrated with the help of many Otterbein people. It tells our story, and you will want to purchase one. But we know it can't tell everything you remember, especially the humorous things that happened when you were here.

With the leadership of two alumnae, who are both members of Quiz and Quill, a Sesquicentennial invitation is being offered to you to send for booklet publication your account of a happening that tickled your funny bone when it took place, and tickles it still in the telling. The collection will form not, perhaps, an elegant publication, but surely a memorable one. If you are willing to share, and trust the decisions of two experienced editors, some of the tales you recall at reunions can be made available for purchase at modest cost.

Brevity is the soul of wit. No more than a double-spaced single page is the length suggested for your accounts. Please submit on or before January 10 to Karla Hambel Lortz '64, 31 Stonebrook Drive, Delaware, OH 43015. She and Sharon Richardson '93 have offered to shepherd this project to completion, and how greatly the Sesquicentennial planners appreciate their fine offer! Just for fun, it will be done, if you will give these volunteers a memory that still brings a smile or a laugh.

*Barbs be there not, but foibles acknowledge,
There were times that were comic at our admirable college!*

Quilt Square Notecards Available

Sesquicentennial Quilt Square Notecards displaying selected squares are available for purchase by contacting Gretchen Sasfy or Becky Smith at 823-1140 or Lillian Frank at 898-5497. A package includes 3 different sets of cards and envelopes for $6.00. Profit proceeds will go toward a future showcase for permanent mounting of the Sesquicentennial Quilt.

Video Greetings

Do you want to wish the College a happy 150th birthday? We are asking alumni clubs and friends of Otterbein to send in video greetings to mark the Sesquicentennial celebration on Founders' Day, April 26, 1997. The combined video greetings will be shown at a gala dance that evening.

This is an opportunity for those who may not be able to attend the Sesquicentennial festivities to send a greeting. Wherever you are — get a group of Otterbein alums together and tape yourselves saying hello!

We need to get these videos in by March 31, 1997, in order to edit them all together.

Make a video (in the style of "Good Morning America"), saying who you are, and wishing Otterbein a happy 150th birthday. Send the cassette to: Fred Glasser, 5149 Longview Drive, Hilliard, OH 43026.

We especially want alumni clubs, families with multiple generations who have attended Otterbein, and all other alumni and friends to participate! The farther away you are, the more we need to hear from you!

Let's do the Maypole Thing!

To celebrate Otterbein's Sesquicentennial, we are attempting to re-create the time honored tradition of the Maypole dance. The dance will be performed on Saturday, April 26, 1997, with a mandatory rehearsal on Friday, April 25 from 6:30-8:00 p.m. Location for the dance is in back of the Campus Center, but in case of rain, both the rehearsal and actual performance will be inside the Campus Center. We will meet at the main doors inside the Campus Center. Contact Cindi Skunza Macioce '78, 790 Roebuck Drive, Gahanna, Ohio 43230 (614) 855-2461. Please respond by March 1, 1997!

Plea for Performers

We want to showcase Otterbein's multi-talented students and alumni with continuous entertainment on Founders' Day. We need singers, dancers, clowns, mimes, jugglers, actors, fire-eaters, poets, musicians-strolling or stationary, singles or groups, improvs, interpretation of all kinds of literature, etc., etc., etc.—We want you!!!

Send your name, address, telephone number and your particular talent to: Edie Cole, 2396 Andover Rd., Columbus, Ohio 43221, Ph. 614-486-8876, Fax: 614-486-8445. After January 1, 1997, send to Edie at 901 Collier Crt. #5/306, Marco Island, FL 33937, Ph. 941-394-8299, Fax: 941-394-8261. Please respond by Feb. 1, 1997.

Alumni College Keeps Growing

Alumni College at Otterbein this summer was the biggest and best ever with 126 people returning to campus for a weekend of fun and learning. Forty-two people came to campus for the first Alumni College six years ago. How it has grown!

This year actor Gordon Jump '55 returned as a dinner and lunch speaker to share his unique perspective on the subject of self-esteem. He discussed how to enhance self-image and confidently take on life's challenges.

Other alumni who willingly shared their time and their knowledge included Marilyn (Miller) Rehm '69 who talked about birds, Sally (Bodge) Wadman '54 who demonstrated Scandinavian art, and Hugh Allen '62 who addressed the topic of "Medical Health Care of the Future."

Students also had a chance to cover the history of the Anti-Saloon League, navigate the World Wide Web, explore the world of molecular and cellular biology and review Otterbein's historic costume collection. Alumni College participants also enjoyed Otterbein Summer Theatre's production of Black Coffee and a trip to the Columbus Zoo.

Cardinal Migration 1997!

Friday, March 21 through Monday, March 24, 1997

The Cardinal Migration, an annual Lifelong Education program, will be winging to sunny San Diego in 1997. Designed for alumni and friends of Otterbein College, the Cardinal Migration provides opportunities for personal growth and professional development. Highlights of the upcoming migration are a trip to the world famous San Diego zoo, a harbor cruise, and an Old Town trolley tour. The trolley tour will let you pick from attractions such as Balboa Park (the cultural heart of San Diego with more than 1,100 acres of sprawling green vistas), the San Diego Museum of Art (the country's largest art museum), the San Diego Automotive Museum, the San Diego Hall of Champions Sports Museum, the Reuben H. Fleet Space Theater and Science Center, and many more wonderful points of interest. Cardinals will roost at the U.S. Grant, a Grand Heritage Hotel. Hotel reservations must be made by February 21, 1997! For more detailed information, look for the upcoming mailing or call Greg Johnson at 614-823-1400.

San Diego!

Alumni Get Together in Pennsylvania

Executive Director of Development Jack Pietila '62 and his wife, Mary Jean Barnhard '61; Director of Church Relations Mike Christ-ian '61 and his wife, Judy Pohner '61, a lab supervisor in Otterbein's Department of Life Sci-ences; and Director of Alumni Relations Greg Johnson and his wife, Mary, traveled to Con-nellsville in early August to visit with alumni in western Pennsylvania. Special thanks to Bill '64 and Andrea Swan for opening their home for a wonderful cookout which was followed by a state-of-the-college update including news on the Campaign for Otterbein. The following day, the group enjoyed a golf outing.

Historical Drama Under the Stars

More than a dozen alumni from the Greater Dayton area attended the production of the historical drama Blue Jacket on Aug. 17. They enjoyed theater under the stars in the 1,200 seat amphitheater surrounded by the natural beauty of a rural setting. Ed '58 and Connie Myers '60 Mentzer and Bob '55 and Gail Bunch '56 Arledge graciously hosted a reception before the group traveled to the theater for a delicious buffet dinner and evening of excellent entertainment. A pre-play reception was held at the home of Ed and Connie Mentzer.

Cardinal Fans Get Sneak Peek

Cardinal football fans were treated to a pre-season peek of this year's football season on Sept. 14. About 40 alumni and friends got a chance to talk with Coach Wally Hood, see the team's new uniforms and tour the locker room and weight room facilities. Coach Hood is excited about this season and passed along information about how alumni and friends can support Otterbein's program in its recruiting efforts.

Cleveland Alumni Hear About the Future of Health Care

Alumni in the Cleveland area attended a dinner program on Tuesday, Sept. 10 to learn more about "The Future of Health Care in America." Brian Hartzell '70 served as alumni host at the Ronald McDonald House and Dr. John D. Clough, director of Health Affairs at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation, was the after-dinner speaker sharing his expertise on a subject of interest to everyone.

Batter Up!

For the second year Otterbein fielded two baseball alumni teams for a double header on Sept. 21 against former baseball players from Capital University. The fun and friendly competition was followed by a cookout at Coach Richard Fishbaugh's home and a chance to rehash every play. Oh yes, Otterbein won!

Alumni Trip on the Nile Planned

Coming Feb. 22-March 7!

Hosted by Paul Laughlin, chair of Otterbein's department of religion and philosophy, this trip is a deluxe 14-day land and river cruise tour with an optional extension to the Holy Land.

The very mention of Egypt conjures up visions of ancient kingdoms and the dynasties of the Pharaohs...the soaring Pyramids...the enigmatic Sphinx...the stunning temples dedicated to the gods of ancient times.

Join in this incredible journey of discovery to one of the great cradles of civilization — the Nile River Valley. You will be enchanted by the sense of history embodied in this splendid land.

You will travel to Egypt for 14 wonderful days, including six nights aboard the luxurious Sonesta Sun Goddess Nile Cruise ship cruising the most intriguing portion of the timeless Nile River. The tour group will float down this legendary river, pausing at one timeless wonder after another.

Most importantly, an English-speaking Egyptologist will accompany the group, enlightening you with the full background and significance of everything you experience.

This trip is being organized for Otterbein by Vantage Deluxe World Travel. For a complete itinerary, prices and reservations, contact Vantage at 1-800-833-0899.

Correction

In the last issue (Summer '96), we erroneously identified Irvin Bence '56 and his wife Connie as Robert Vance '49 and his wife Evelyn Bender Vance '51. So sorry for the mistake to all involved!

1967 Grads Reunite

Ester Burgess Palmer, Linda Bernegger Robinson, Dotty Deturck Miller, and Debbie Ewell Currin met this past June at the summer home of Debbie and Bill Currin in Chautauqua, New York. Reunions have been few and far between for these four friends, but the postal service and e-mail have kept these Otterbeinites close through the years even though 1500 miles separate them. These two Arbutus and two Talisman sisters have remained close since they met as freshmen thirty-three years ago. The four of them spent a wonderful weekend reliving Otterbein memories.

Maytag Repairman Lonely No More

Gordon Jump '55 (fourth from right), known as the Maytag repairman and as Mr. Carlson on WKRP in Cincinnati, enjoys Otterbein company at the home of Hugh '61 and Liz Glor '64 Allen.
