SPRING SPORTS GIVE PROMISE

With Opening of Season only Three Weeks Away Both Teams Work Hard.

TEAMS TAKE TO FIELD

Three Baseball Games and Two Track Meets Make Up Home Schedule.

With the opening of the baseball and track season only a little more than three weeks distant intensive practices are being held by both squads. The weather the past week has been favorable for spring sports and if the weather man favors us with continued good weather the opening of the season will find both teams in tip-top condition.

The baseball squad took to the field the past week. However, little has been done except straightening out the kinks in the arms and the strengthening of muscles. Light batting and base running practice was begun.

There is an abundance of infield and outfield material but the pitching staff presents a problem. Ditmer will try to groom a hurler out of several men, of whom Renner, Wilburg, Bennett and Garver look the most promising.

WESTERVILLE WANTS GENERAL CONFERENCE

Council Invites United Brethren General Conference to Westerville In 1929.

Definite action has been taken by the village of Westerville to cooperate with the college and South-east Ohio Conference in an effort toward obtaining the General Conference of the United Brethren church for Westerville in 1929, when the council instructed the city manager to write a letter expressing the town's desire to entertain the conference. The letter expressly invited the conference to Westerville and urged that it be brought to Ohio, whether or not Westerville obtained it.

ANNUAL SPRING RECESS BEGINS THIS AFTERNOON

As a result of recent action of the faculty, the spring recess will begin this afternoon at four o'clock instead of 9:00 on Wednesday as stated in the calendar in the college bulletin. Students will take note of the fact that class work will be resumed at 7:30 instead of 9:00 on Tuesday, April 7.

PAUL GARVER
Retiring Editor

As editor of the Tan and Cardinal Mr. Garver worked whole heartedly to give Otterbein a truly representative publication. The results of his efforts are shown by a newsy, interesting and readable paper. He succeeded in raising the standards of the Tan and Cardinal just a few degrees higher.

W. S. WOOD
Retiring Business Manager

Starting the year with a heavy debt on his hands Mr. Wood worked with such diligence that before the end of his year's work the debt had been lifted, all accounts kept clean and a handsome surplus left for his successor. He has made an enviable record.

OTTERBEIN RADIO WEEK IS STILL IN DOUBT

Because of conflicting dates, no definite action has been taken by the School of Music to accept or decline the invitation of the radio station, WBAV, Erner & Hopkins Co., Columbus, to broadcast noon day programs for the entire week of April 12. Because of the possibilities of a glee club trip that week and the fact that the club will go to Richmond, Indiana, April 20, to make phonograph records of popular Otterbein songs, Director A. R. Spessard believes that he will have to decline the invitation. No definite decision will be made until after the Glee Club completes the Pennsylvania trip.

Glee Men May Perform Over Ether Waves in Pennsylvania

While in Pittsburgh, Pa., on its Easter tour, the Glee Club will probably broadcast from the Westinghouse Electric Company's station, KDKA, according to reports of Manager Pottenger. The radio performance will be given about six o'clock in the evening of April 2. The station KDKA has the reputation of being one of the best broadcasting stations in the country and has a larger broadcasting radius than any radio over which the club has ever sung.

CHURCH CHOIR WILL GIVE EASTER CANTATA

"Eastertide" Will Be Presented by Choir Easter Sunday Evening.

A very beautiful Easter cantata, "Eastertide," will be given by the church choir Easter Sunday evening, April 12, at 7:30 o'clock in the First United Brethren church.

The cantata does not portray the sadness of the Crucifixion but rather the glad tidings of the Resurrection. It is a fine piece of work for both choir and organ. The cantata was written by Daniel Prothers of Chicago, who is director of one of the largest choirs in Chicago.

The important solo work will be done by Lorene Smith, Mary Mills, Mrs. Wright, Lenore Smith, Dean Upson, Wendell Camp and Carl Eschbach.

Complete Work in 1925 Sibyl —Book to Appear about May 15

Work on Otterbein's 1925 Sibyl is nearing completion. All copy is in the hands of the printer, since the advertising section was sent in a few weeks ago. It is believed that the book will be ready for distribution about the middle of May.

Otterbein is assured of a good book this year as the printing and engraving of the Sibyl is of the best.

PARENT'S DAY COMES MAY 1,2

Otterbein to Observe Parents' Day on Campus May 1 and 2 with Appropriate Program.

COMMITTEE AT WORK

May Morning Breakfast and Athletic Contests to Feature Day's Program.

Parent's Day will be observed on Otterbein campus May 1-2, according to the resolution recently adopted by the Student Council and ratified by the Faculty. A committee headed by E. F. McCarroll is now at work formulating plans and arranging a program for this event.

The program as planned will begin Thursday evening with open sessions of the girls' literary societies. Friday's activities will include a baseball game with Kenyon and in the evening Philomatheia and Philophronea will entertain. Saturday promises to be the big day of the festivities. The day's program begins with the annual May Morning Breakfast served at Cochran Hall by the Y. W. C. A. In the afternoon a track meet with Kenyon will be the main attraction. The faculty very graciously cooperated with the council by suspending all class work on Saturday morning. Sunday morning the week-end program will be closed with services in the United Brethren church when Dr. S. Edwin Rupp will preach on an appropriate theme.

The committee will begin intensive work soon in an effort to make Parent's Day the red letter event on the 1925 college calendar.

PROGRESS BEING MADE ON NEW QUIZ AND QUILL

Rapid progress is being made on the work of the 1925 Quiz and Quill magazine and from present indications the magazine will be ready for the press at an early date. The staff is busy collecting, arranging and editing copy.

The editor of the Quiz and Quill this year is Wendell Camp, while Robert Cavins is business manager.

Only a few more than two hundred students have subscribed for the publication, which number is not enough to insure the financial success of the paper. If you have not subscribed you will be seen personally by some member of the Quiz and Quill Club. Alumni can order a copy by sending subscriptions to Wendell Camp. The price of the magazine is 60 cents.

HOME CONCERT COMES FRIDAY NIGHT, APRIL 10

Gleemen Will Perform Before Home Audience in College Chapel.

On Friday evening, April 10, the Otterbein Men's Glee Club will present the annual home concert in the college chapel. Only one concert will be given in Westerville this year.

The repertoire which the Club has to offer this year is one of the best which any Glee Club has ever presented, in that its program is so versatile both in composition and arrangement that the varied tastes of music lovers can be satisfied in one performance. As is its custom, the gleemen will sing for their opening number, "Here We Are From Otterbein," by Director A. R. Spessard. After this opener, the entire first part of the program will be given over to the rendering of the more heavy numbers by some of the old composers, such as Handel and Chopin. However, at the end of each group of songs the Glee Club has some witty encores to "uncork."

After two groups of songs Clarence Broadhead will play his piano solo, "Marche Militaire," by Schubert. In the next part of the program the Glee Club sings some of the more recent compositions such as the "Song of Steel," by Spross, and "Sleepy Hollow Tune," by Kountz. Then, the Banjo Orchestra which is also directed by Professor Spessard, will play a group of selections.

A very signal attraction of the program is a horn quartet, which is an innovation in the club's program. The quartet, composed of Robert Weitkamp, first cornet; Charles Kellar, second cornet; Francis Bechtolt, trombone, and Henry Davidson, baritone, will play, "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming," by Foster. The last group of songs which the Glee Club sings is made up of the college songs, the words and music of which were composed by Professor Grabill.

PROFESSOR ROSSELOT ADDRESSES "Y" MEETING

"My Confession of Faith" was the subject of Professor A. P. Rosselot's very interesting talk in Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening. Professor Rosselot's frank and thought stimulating manner of speaking was at its best as he drew his confession of faith from the practical events of an ordinary life.

The election of officers for the coming year was scheduled for this meeting, but since a quorum was not present the election was postponed until a later date.

SOCIOLOGY STUDENTS JOURNEY TO COLUMBUS

Thursday afternoon about thirty members of the department of sociology made the second observation trip of the year when they journeyed to Columbus where they visited the Schonthal Home for Children. A very interesting and profitable afternoon was spent in studying this well known social center.

LOCAL MUSIC LOVERS ENJOY REAL TREAT

Members of Metropolitan Opera Co. Present Verdi's Opera, "Falstaff."

One of the most unusual and interesting musical presentations given on the campus this year was offered last Friday afternoon in the college chapel by two members of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, Mr. Havrah Hubbard and Mr. Edward Harte, who offered an operalogue of Verdi's "Falstaff," an opera based mainly upon Shakespeare's play, "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

While Mr. Harte played the music of the opera in its entirety upon the piano, Mr. Hubbard told the story of the opera as the parts were played, and impersonated the character of Sir John Falstaff, the intemperate, portly, middle aged gentleman, who was filled with conceit regarding his seductive powers over women. At intervals Mr. Hubbard also portrayed other popular characters in the opera.

No Paper Next Week

Because of the spring vacation beginning today and continuing through until April 7, there will be no issue of the paper April 7. The next issue of the Tan and Cardinal, which will be edited by the new staff, will appear April 14.

The excellence of Mr. Harte's playing, and the simplicity which characterized Mr. Hubbard's explanation and dramatization compelled the audience's strict attention throughout the program, and was recognized by enthusiastic appreciative applause at its close.

PROFESSORS TO ATTEND SCIENCE CONVENTION

Professor Schear, Professor Hanawalt and Wendell Camp instructor in botany, will be in attendance at the annual convention of the Ohio Academy of Science held at the Wooster College this Friday and Saturday.

This convention is held annually in the spring and at each meeting matters of scientific interest are considered and discussed by the members of the society.

PROFESSORS PROMINENT IN COLLEGE CONVENTION

Otterbein will be represented in the program of the Educational Conference of the Ohio College Association to be held at Ohio State University this week. Professor Rosselot is secretary of the organization. Other Otterbein men who will participate in the meeting are Prof. E. M. Hursh, presiding at a meeting of the Bible and Religious Education section Friday afternoon, and Prof. L. G. McCarty, participating in a discussion in the "Teachers of Speech" section. Dr. W. G. Clippinger is a member of the Council of Educational Legislation.

"SWEETHEARTS' HOUR" FROM 7 TO 8 IN EVENING

From 7 to 8 o'clock in the evening is "Sweethearts' Hour" on the telephone in Ohio.

The Ohio Committee on Public Utility Information says that hour is the most popular for "making dates."

The fifteen minutes, from 7:15 o'clock to 7:30 o'clock, are busy ones in telephone exchanges in the larger cities. It is then that appointments for the theater, dances and other places of amusement are made.

Philophronea Installs Officers —Initiates Three into Membership

The officers of Philophronea for the next quarter were installed at the open session held in the Philophronean parlors Friday evening. P. J. Strouse, president, A. G. Leuchauer, secretary, and F. E. McGuire, critic, are the new officers.

J. Q. Mayne gave the critic's oration, "Carry On", W. S. Wood the president's valedictory, and P. J. Strouse the president's inaugural, "If." Dr. and Mrs. Sanders, and Professors Altman and Hursh gave short speeches.

A. O. Barnes, D. Harrold and C. Lambert were initiated into active membership.

GLEE CLUB TO MAKE LONG VACATION TRIP

Itinerary Will Carry Otterbein Glee-men Far into Keystone State.

The Men's Glee Club of Otterbein College will go out on one of the largest tours that has been made in recent years when it goes on its tour into Pennsylvania during spring vacation. The trip will take the club as far east as Johnstown and will include a series of seven concerts.

The remarkable fact about the tour is that the club will go to only one place where it performed last year, Latrobe. It is thus made possible to represent Otterbein to new audiences. On the whole trip the glee men will travel in the large pullman bus which has been used all season.

In its entirety the Glee Club is composed of 27 members, two professors and 25 students. The club consists of two organizations, the Glee Club Chorus and the Banjo Orchestra to which 16 members of the regular chorus belong.

Whatever success the organizations have achieved or will achieve is largely due to the hard work and splendid ability of the director, Professor A. R. Spessard. Professor Grabill, piano accompanist, and C. J. Broadhead, piano soloist and president of the club, have each contributed much.

The concerts for the splendid tour during spring vacation have been announced by Manager Pottenger as follows: Strasburg, March 31; Wilkinsburg, April 1; McKeesport, April 2; Altoona, April 3, Johnstown, April 4 and 5; Latrobe, April 6.

BLACK FACED COMEDIANS TRAVEL TO JOHNSTOWN

Wednesday evening, Otterbein's black faced Varsity "O" comedians journeyed to Johnstown where they presented their minstrel show. Although the auditorium was not quite filled to capacity the athletes presented their program in fine style and pleased the Johnstown audience with their merry-making.

Dean Upson was the best bet for the athletes. Bechtolt and Broadhead played their parts well.

SPRING FEVER

Signs of spring—after a six months' absence our freckles have again made their appearance in conspicuous places. Eureka! One of a species which we had thought to be extinct on all college campuses has been discovered to be enrolled as a Freshman at Otterbein. Either the specimen discovered is of a variety whose rarity has caused us to believe that none of the kind was now in existence or she has not been under the influence of college life long enough to have attained that degree of sophistication which the upper classman acquires. The above mentioned type is not so unusual if it appears during the winter months when wind, sleet, snow, and ice make a warm room and comfortable study table inviting, but at this time of year when a blue sky, a warm sun, and all Nature calls to us from without, the appearance of the type is exceptional. For—we have discovered a Freshman who enjoys studying in the library on such glorious spring days as we had last week.

EDITORIALS

Goodbye.

With this issue we complete a little more than a year's work as editor-in-chief of the Tan and Cardinal, and it is with a feeling of real regret that we write for the last time for the college paper. Our joys have been many and the experience has been pleasant as well as profitable. As it is only human to make mistakes we have blundered many times. We did not expect to put out a perfect paper, but we did the very best we knew how.
We do claim to have been sincere in our efforts to give our readers a newsy, interesting and readable paper.

Our task has not been all joy.
Many have been the trials that have almost driven us to desperation, but joy comes after the task is completed with the thought that we did our best and were in a small way successful.
Our efforts were rewarded with fine cooperation from the staff and loyal support by the entire college. The generous and appreciative attitude of the student-body and alumni has been an inspiration in our work.

The staff has edited a Tan and Cardinal that has been equal to the publications of former years. The retiring staff members are to a very large degree responsible for what ever success the paper has enjoyed.
With a true conception of the standard of former years they have earn-edly endeavored to raise the standard just a bit higher. With ability and application they have realized that desire. For this the editor, at this time, wishes to express his appreciation for the manner with which the retiring staff has cooperated with him.

While individual mention is not desired or expected yet we feel our appreciation can only be fully expressed by personally mentioning the members of the staff who have faithfully contributed to the paper.

To D. S. Howard goes much of the credit for the success of the paper.
D. R. Clippinger, Edith Oyler, Robert Cavins, Wayne Harsha and Gwynne McConaughy willingly did anything from reporting a rally to contributing special feature articles.
Pauline Wentz wrote the feature,
"Co-ed's Collum," while Wendell Camp wrote "Spring Fever." Elizabeth Saxour was the best Cochran Hall editor in recent years. Pauline Knepp always reported Y. W. C. A.
The locals were interestingly written by Duane Harrold. Too much credit cannot be given Professor Guitner for her faithful and efficient work as Alumna Editor. Her ready cooperation and never failing punctuality makes her assistance an inspiration to any editor. Joe Mayne and Ed Hammon ever kept the athletic page alive.
The "List'nin' In" column had as its editor Lenore Smith.

Wilbur Wood was an efficient and capable business manager and has placed the paper on a sound financial basis. Ladybird Sipe and her corps of loyal assistants were always on the job to see that the paper was prepared promptly for mailing.

As we leave you we want to express a simple but sincere "Thank You" to each member of our loyal staff. It has been a real pleasure to work with you. You deserve all the credit for whatever success has attended this year's work.

Brains or Money?

Does it take money or brains to achieve high social standing here at Otterbein? We believe, in fact we know positively, it's brains and not money that is used as a measurement to classify Otterbein students. In other schools we hear the complaint that money alone determines social standing but it is gratifying to know that such is not the case on our campus.

The boy who works to pay his way through school enjoys the same social privileges as the boy who has free access to his father's bank account.
One person said, "That if a boy works his way through he loses social standing and that, after all, is the main part of college life, the friends you make." That is not so, especially on the Otterbein campus. Here, the boy takes out of college about what he brings in. His social standing does not depend upon his father's bank account but upon his personality and his character. People with education, good manners and real character are welcome in any circle that amounts to anything.

After all, does social prestige have any bearing with people of more than 2 x 4 minds. It's not what you are socially but what you are mentally and spiritually that counts. One man has said, "As for social prestige, I don't know. It has never troubled me. I have met many fine people in my lifetime and none of them seemed to feel hurt because I worked for my living." And so it's no more a disgrace to work for your education than it is to work for your living.

Cutting Classes

Cutting a class doesn't do any particular harm to the professor and may not ruin the class standing of the cutter. But cutting is many times inefficient for it represents poor utilization of a student's time. When a class is cut an hour is gained which is devoted to something else. Very few times does the return for that hour equal what would have been gained by attending the class.

Perhaps the cutter intends to make up the work, but not in one case out of ten can a person make up outside of class the work which he missed by not being in attendance at the recitation. Seldom is there anything of sufficient importance to justify cutting of a class.

— O C —

IT STRIKES US—

That the members of the Tan and Cardinal staff who are doing their last journalistic efforts with this issue are not at all broken hearted.

That the new staff is efficient and will be able to carry forward the work of the Tan and Cardinal to greater honors.

That the editor does not lay down the reins of the paper without a heavy heart. The three years' work on the staff has always been pleasant and the friends we made both on the staff and in the Public Opinion office never will be forgotten.

That the work of the spring sports teams is progressing nicely and now we look forward to successful seasons in all three sports.

That athletes are brought to a school by only two methods. You either pay them to come or do personal work to get them here. Either one or the other method must be used.
Why not work the last method to the highest degree?

That the new Varsity "O" sweaters surely look fine. We hope that these will be adopted as regulation sweaters and that soon every athlete on the campus will be wearing one.

FIRST FORENSIC DAY OBSERVED TUESDAY

Debaters and Orators Given Recognition in Chapel—President Speaks.

The first formal public recognition of Otterbein's representatives in forensic activities was paid Tuesday morning in chapel. Professor Leon McCarty, head of the Public Speaking Department, presided. Those men who represented Otterbein in debate and oratory were called to the platform while the student body sang the Love Song. President Clippinger gave the principal address, setting forth the value of public speaking and the essential characteristics of a good speaker. Professor McCarty made an earnest appeal for a greater interest in forensics, especially on the part of those persons who have speaking ability.

The men recognized for their service in raising Otterbein's forensic standards by hard work this year were W. S. Wood, R. D. Miller, F. E. McGuire, D. S. Howard, E. R. Hoover, R. Knight, C. Laporte and D. E. Harrold.

DWIGHT HARSH TAKEN HOME LAST THURSDAY

Dwight Harsh, member of the freshman class who has been seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism since January was taken to his home at Minerva Thursday evening. He stood the trip real well but his condition is such that complete recovery will come only after a long period of convalescence.

For the past few weeks his condition was so serious that a nurse was at his bedside continually. His mother has been here with him since his illness became serious.

Mr. Harsh wishes to thank the students for their many deeds of kindness during his illness. Presents of fruits and magazines and the visits of the students will long be remembered by him.

ANNOUNCE NEXT YEAR'S LYCEUM COURSE PROGRAM

Talent for the Lyceum Course of 1925-26 has been booked but the definite dates for the various numbers have not been set. The program centers about the lecture to be delivered by John J. Tigert of Washington, D. C., who is the United States Commissioner of Education.

Three musical numbers will be given. The MacDowell Concert Party, who will major in MacDowell compositions; the Cello Ensemble and Little Symphony, an unusual combination of cellos, and the Rocky Mountain Quartet, a novelty company.

The reader will be Helen Waggoner who rivals Jean MacDonald in ability and interest. The humorist of the program is to be Herbert L. Cope who ranks with Jesse Pugh and Ralph Bingham.

The entire course is one of balance and unity which should please the most exalting patrons.

WELLS COMPANY WINS APPROVAL OF AUDIENCE

First Class Concert Number Closes Highly Successful Lyceum Course.

The last of the six entertainments offered to the patrons of the Citizens' Lyceum Course during the past season was presented last Tuesday evening by the Wells Comedy Company. The entertainers, Mr. and Mrs. Wells, pleased their audience with a program of vocal selections, and two plays, one a farce and the other of more serious nature. These two artists displayed fine talent, both in music and in dramatic ability which made their entertainment one of the most popular of the season.

Before the program, Doctor Cornet announced to the audience that the past season had been a success financially, and that an array of talent equal in quality to that presented this year has been purchased for the 1925-26 season of the Lyceum Course.

REMEMBER, STUDENTS, TO WATCH YOUR
"CUTS"

Just as a little reminder to the students we print the pre-vacation and post-vacation "cut" ruling.

"An unexcused absence from a class in any class prior to or following a recess or vacation deducts one hour's credit from that course." It is important to remember that the last class in a course may recite on Friday or Saturday and if that class is cut one hour's credit will be deducted.

DEBATE ASPIRANTS MUST BEGIN WORK AT ONCE

Candidates for Varsity debate will have their first and final try-out April 16 on the question, "Resolved: That Congress Should Have the Power to Nullify Decisions of the Supreme Court." To date, fifteen or sixteen men have signified their intentions of trying out and more are planning to do so.

Every college student is eligible to try out. From the try-outs seven new men will be chosen who will enter the debating class next fall and who will represent Otterbein on the forensic platform next winter.

O C

Arnold Succeeds Howard as Public Speaking Assistant

Dwight Arnold, '26, was appointed as assistant in the Department of Public Speaking yesterday. This appointment came after a recommendation that was made by Prof. McCarty, head of the department.

This honor as assistant includes the managing of the debate teams and of all other forensic activity. Arnold merits this honor as he has in the past been foremost in Public Speaking, Oratory and Debate. He is a member of Pi Kappa Delta.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

Carl Eschbach to Lead Men's Association Activities During Next Year.

The Y. M. C. A. election held yesterday morning after chapel resulted in the election of the following officers:

President—Carl Eschbach.

Vice President—Earl Hoover.

Secretary—Merle Houseman.

Treasurer—Franklin Young.

Through a change in the constitution the office of Corresponding Secretary has been eliminated.

The president at his inauguration has the power to appoint the chairmen of all the committees who in turn will select their own co-workers.

O C

SENIORS WILL SELECT CLASS PLAY SOON

The senior play committee has narrowed the prospective list of plays down to three. Definite decision will be made after the Easter vacation. Immediately thereafter the cast will be chosen competitively and rehearsals under the direction of Prof. Leon McCarty will begin. The play will probably be given two nights in the college chapel.

Two plays, one of which the final selection will probably be, are "Kempy," a comedy-drama, and "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde.

The committee chosen to select a suitable play is composed of Prof. McCarty, Pauline Wentz and George E. Bechtolt.

LEAGUE NEARS CLOSE

Onyx Club Maintains Dizzy Pace—League Leaders Are Undefeated.

With the girls' intra-mural basketball schedule nearing the close, the spirit of rivalry is keen and enthusiasm runs high. Nine more games were played during the last week, bringing the league leaders a little more to the front. The Onyx Club, thus far undefeated, made its position still more secure by winning two more games. On Tuesday the Onyx team defeated the Talisman five 14-1. On Saturday they encountered the Polygons who fell before them 22-4.

The Tomo Dachies, who lost a game on the previous Saturday, came back in all their strength and crushed the Lotus players 35-0. Again on Saturday they defeated the Greenwich team, 20-6.

The Arbutus Club nosed out the Polygons 7-6 in a close game on Monday. On Friday they had a still greater advantage when they defeated the Phoenix Club 12-8. When they met the Owls on Saturday, the Owls won 6-5.

The Phoenix seized its first victory on Monday by defeating the Arcady outfit 5-3.

COACH DITMER SCOUTS
GRID GAME SATURDAY

The first coach in the history of football to scout a spring football game was Coach Ditmer's privilege last Saturday afternoon when he witnessed a spring clash at the University of Dayton.

The men out for this popular spring sport were divided into two teams, the Reds and the Blues. For an hour and a half the battle was fiercely fought, neither side willing to give the other a single point. When the final whistle blew the score stood 0 to 0. The weather was ideal for a snappy contest.

New Varsity "O" Sweaters
Make Debut on Campus

Thursday the new sweaters which were awarded to members of the Varsity "O" Association made their debut on the Otterbein campus. The Varsity "O" sweaters have only one distinguishing mark, a service stripe or stripes on the sleeve. The new letters of chenille add greatly to the appearance of the sweater.

Only members of the Varsity "O" Association are wearing the new sweaters.

SPRING SPORTS
GIVE PROMISE

is. Although six veterans of last year's team have reported it looks as if at least four new men will get the call to various positions. An intensive fight is being waged for berths on the team by the old and new men and some of the new men are giving the veterans a stout run for their money.

Track Looks Promising

The track outlook for this year is even more promising than for baseball. After a highly successful season last year the team remains almost intact and there are veterans to enter every event. Seasoned dash and short distance men, as well as veterans in the field events are taking daily workouts. Last year's record breaking relay team is back and is working hard to do even better this year.

Ruffini, Stoughton, Upson, Broadhead, Widdoes, Porosky, Blauser and Drury are the men who will do most of the work.

Emmett McCarroll No. 4

One man who has left an enviable record in the athletic circles of Otterbein is Emmett McCarroll, who has distinguished himself as an all around athlete having earned the full quota of letters in three different sports. He is more than an athlete in that he has made a name for himself in other activities about school, being President of the Student Council and Varsity "O" Association, and was a member of the Tan and Cardinal and Sibyl staffs.

"Mac's" major sport is football, where he earned three letters and last year the honor of being the highest scoring guard in the Ohio Conference. He played all positions in the backfield and end and guard on the line. His line plunging gained many yards for Otterbein.

On the basketball team he played through three seasons at guard and was recognized as one of our best men at that position. "Mac" captained this year's squad and his ability coupled with his fine qualities of leadership made him a capable leader.

On the diamond he has a no less great record. As a first baseman he has few equals and at the bat he is a tower of strength. His Sophomore year he led the team in batting with an average of .500.

MANY MEN REPORT TO SPRING GRID PRACTICE

About twenty men have been reporting for daily spring football during the past week. Most of this number are Freshmen, although a few upper classmen have been going out also. The chief purpose for spring training is to get the candidates well grounded in the rudiments of the game so that it is not necessary to spend so much time on this work in the fall.

The work thus far has consisted of practicing the different blocks, punting, passing, etc. A few plays have been worked out and used also. The candidates have been working hard with Coach Ditmer, assisted by Professor Troop, to get ready for next fall.

O C COED'S COLLUM

Did you know the Arbutus were playing a dime for forwards—two Nichols. We didn't until Prof. Martin mentioned it.

It-Strikes-Us says it's time some of us were finding ourselves. But where—we ask?

Who says we coeds ain't up to date? Didn't some of us carry opera glasses to our opera Friday afternoon.

Why not a women's debate team next year. Women are supposed to have the natural inclination and plenty of experience.

Last week the printer spoiled two of our best jokes and ruined some verse. Well, that's just one pleasure we can will to our successor along with what's left of our sense of humor, if any, and the countless hours we've spent writing the collum.

Our successor may, if she cares to, get the College Humors we have on hand. But as one bright Freshman remarked he'd rather read College Humor in the original, we quit using it and took to Life instead.

We bid our readers glad adieu,
We will remain no longer,
Lest you should say just what you think
And probably make it stronger.

CLUB TALK

DAYTON ALUMNI PRAISE GLEE CLUB MANAGER

Editor of the Tan and Cardinal:

The Dayton-Otterbein Athletic Club would like to have the opportunity of commending the officers of the Glee Club, through the columns of your paper, in their efficient business methods and the splendid cooperation received prior to and during the stay of the Club with us in Dayton.

It was the sort of service we always hope for but seldom receive, and at no time were we held up by not receiving replies to letters, publicity material or any request for service.

We are sure all managers of teams, clubs, etc., at Otterbein could well afford to take a page out of the book of experience and copy the efficient methods used by the manager, Mr. Pottenger. He did not fail us once. The leader, Prof. Spessard, and the accompanist, Prof. Grabill, outdid themselves in giving us a wonderful concert.

Ernestine Mozer Leader
of Y. W. C. A. Tuesday Evening

The topic for the Y. W. C. A. meeting Tuesday was "Service." In keeping with this topic, Mabel Eubanks sang, "The Mission of a Rose." Daisy Griffith led devotions. The leader, Ernestine Mozer, discussed four types of service, mental, spiritual, social and Christian, which involves all. She said that service is reflected from the hearts of people and as attributes of service, she considered sincerity, humility and faith.

Francis Pottenger, manager of the Glee Club, has just returned from a two day trip to Pennsylvania in the interests of the proposed Glee Club tour during the spring vacation. While there, he visited some of the largest U. B. Churches in Pennsylvania. On this trip, he cinched six contracts for concerts for the Glee Club tour during spring vacation.

PI KAPPA DELTA WILL INITIATE AFTER RECESS

Harrold, Knight and Miller Are Men Eligible for Fraternity Work.

The annual Pi Kappa Delta initiation will take place some time after the Easter vacation in Philalethean Hall according to a report confirmed by President F. E. McGuire. The three neophytes who participated in this year's forensic season are: Robert Knight, Roy Miller and Duane Harrold. The initiation consists of ritualistic ceremony only.

Four men are eligible this year for special distinction in the forensic fraternity. F. E. McGuire, W. S. Wood, Don Howard and Earl Hoover will wear as degrees of special distinction a diamond set in a Pi Kappa Delta key. The requirements for this degree consist of participation in eight debates on four different subjects. Hoover took part in two debates this year bringing his total up to six. However, his work in oratory more than makes up for the remainder of the requirement.

McGuire, Wood and Howard completed their debate work in the Wittenberg-Muskingum-Otterbein contest. Earl Hoover and Roy Miller each have one more year. Robert Knight was the only Freshman to make the team this year and Duane Harrold was the only Sophomore representative. Clarence Laporte has another year of Varsity work. Dwight Harsh was forced to discontinue his debate work on account of illness.
