SPIRITED COMEBACK BRINGS GREAT VICTORY

OTTERBEIN CLOSES SEASON WITH SPECTACULAR WIN OVER MUSKINGUM

SPIRITED ASSAULT COUPLED WITH GRIM DETERMINATION OF TAN AND CARDINAL PROVES TO BE TOO MUCH FOR MUSKINGUM—WIDDOES STARS.

For the second time in three weeks the college bell rang out a song of basketball victory Saturday, but it never before pealed out the tale of such a victory! At the close of a spectacular basketball game that would make a Frank Merriwell story look slow, Otterbein left Muskingum with the leaner end of a 36-35 decision in the Tan team's last contest of the 1925 season. The Otterbein five's sensational comeback in the last few minutes of play was a fitting close of a season in which the team came through with two victories after being left in the zero column of Conference averages during the early part of the 1924-25 basketball season.

The crowning victory Saturday night proved an appropriate tribute to the "Carry On" spirit of the team and Coach, because in the last half Otterbein came back with the score 21-14 against her and in two sensational rallies forced the United Presbyterians to accept defeat.

The final rally and comeback staged Saturday night in the last few minutes of play was a proper complement to the football game won from the Black and Magenta last fall after Muskingum took the lead in the first three minutes of play but later yielded to an indomitable spirit and succumbed to a rally in the last half.

Coming back into the game Saturday night in the second half with Muskingum leading 21-14, Otterbein took a spurt and soon put herself one point in the lead with the score 24-23. The United Presbyterians then mustered their forces until they rolled up a nine point lead—a seemingly insurmountable advantage with but four minutes to go! But it was then that five grim and determined wearers of the Tan and Cardinal staged a comeback that would make fiction's most dramatic rally look tame. With a ringer by Upson began the final onslaught that three and a half minutes (Continued on Page Eight)

MCCARTYS GIVEN BUFFET SET BY JUNIOR CLASS

As a reward for their untiring efforts in making "Tweedles" a big success, the Juniors presented Prof. and Mrs. McCarty with a hammered copper buffet set composed of a fruit dish and a nut dish.

This evening Prof. and Mrs. McCarty are entertaining the cast of "Tweedles" at their home on South State street with an informal party.

RADIO FANS PLEASED WITH GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Many Fans Join in Praise of Glee Club Concert—Program Was Well Received.

That many radio fans were pleased with the Glee Club concert broadcasted from Columbus last week is attested by the many favorable comments that have come to the attention of the director of the club, Professor A. R. Spessard. Radio enthusiasts were pleased with the variety of the program and the skill with which the numbers were presented.

One Columbus man who was at one time director of the chorus and ensemble work for Al G. Fields' Minstrels and who is in a position to know, said that the chorus work of the Glee Club was the best he had ever heard. Another fan said that the program was the best of its kind ever broadcasted from any Columbus station.

FOURTH CONCERT WINS APPROVAL OF AUDIENCE

Appearing for its fourth time this season the Otterbein Men's Glee Club performed before a full house at Gahanna last Friday evening. The brass quartet, a new feature of this years club, was seen at its best in this performance. "Where My Love Lies Dreaming" by Stephen Foster played by the quartet was enthusiastically received by the audience which called the horn players back to play "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" for an encore. The brass quartet is composed of Robert Weitcamp, first cornet; Charles Keller, second cornet; Francis Bechtolt, trombone; and Henry Davidson, bass horn.

Museum Presented with Collection of Minerals from Kentucky Caves

In strange coincidence with the time when Floyd Collins was sealed in the cave that later became his tomb, Dean Upson, '25, presented to the college museum a collection of stones and rocks which he himself collected in the caves, in and about the same region of Kentucky where the tragedy of Floyd Collins was enacted.

The collection includes specimens of onyx, quartz, pieces of stalactites and stalagmites, minerals which are very common in the cave region of Kentucky.

DEBATERS LOSE TWO CONTESTS

Both Negative and Affirmative Teams Lose Argument in First Conference Tilt.

UP-STATE TEAMS WIN

Negative Team Loses to Baldwin-Wallace Here by 2-1 Decision —Heidelberg Wins 1-0.

Otterbein's debate teams, contesting last Friday night with Heidelberg and Baldwin-Wallace in a triangular debate, suffered defeat in both contests.

The negative team composed of Wood, McGuire, Miller and Arnold was bested by a two-to-one decision of the judges in the meet with the affirmative team from Baldwin-Wallace staged in the college chapel.

The affirmative team, Harrold, The affirmative team, Harrold, Howard, Knight, and Hoover, meeting Heidelberg at Tiffin, also lost the decision in one of the fastest, and brainiest debates in which Otterbein has participated for a number of years.

Although the Otterbein debaters have dropped three decisions out of four to their opponents in the initial contests of the season, the weak points in the arguments and strategy of both teams have been brought to light and with these errors corrected, the remaining contests should afford victories for Otterbein's debaters.

J. R. WILLIAMS DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

J. R. Williams died Monday afternoon, March 2, after an illness that has extended over many years and which had made Mr. Williams an almost helpless invalid during the last two years of his life. Mr. Williams was one of the older merchants of the town, having started a bake shop in the rooms now occupied by the Williams Confectionery, 38 years ago. In 1913 the bakery was converted into a confectionery and ice cream factory.

Mr. Williams was keenly interested in boys working their way through Otterbein and through his kind consideration a large number of boys made their expenses.

Funeral services were held at the United Brethren church, Wednesday afternoon, followed by burial in the Memorial Mausoleum in the Otterbein Cemetery.

DEBATERS WILL TRY TO SMASH FRIDAY 13 JINX

Debaters Clash with Hiram in Third Forensic Contest of Year Friday Night.

Otterbein's second forensic clash in the Ohio Inter-Collegiate Debating Conference comes this Friday evening when she meets the affirmative team from Hiram in the college chapel at 8:15. The question for debate is: Resolved: That the United States and Canada Should Jointly Construct the St. Lawrence Deep Sea Waterway. The same question was used last Friday night at the Baldwin-Wallace vs. Heidelberg vs. Otterbein triangle. Prof. Sanford of Ohio State University will be the only judge for the home debate.

For this contest the affirmative teams of Hiram, Ohio Northern and Otterbein will travel, the home team going to Ohio Northern, Hiram coming here and Ohio Northern going to Hiram. In the triangle debate last week the negative teams took the road.

Wood, McGuire and Miller make up Otterbein's affirmative team which will meet Ohio Northern on its own platform. The negative team is composed of Howard, Hoover, and Knight.

TWO LEAGUES MEET

Annex, Baileys and Hanawalts Win In Championship Games Saturday.

The Annex team, champions of the Club League, defeated the Priest Club champions of the Prune League, by the overwhelming score of 20-4, thereby winning the championship of the whole school. The game was featured by a great deal of rough playing, in the first half, but both teams played a little better brand of basketball in the second half.

The Sphinx Club, second placers in the Club League, had the score doubled on them by the Baileys, second placers in the Prune League. The Baileys led throughout the game and finally won 20-10.

The game for third place between the Cook House and the Hanawalts was the closest of the three. Neither team was able to maintain the lead for very long at a time, and the game went into an overtime period at 13-13. A single field goal from past the middle of the floor claimed the victory for the Hanawalts.

Pullman Bus Will Haul Gleemen On All Journeys This Year

The Glee Club will make all trips this year in a fine big Pullman bus. In previous years the club traveled part of the time by bus but this year every trip, including the Pennsylvania tour, will be made via bus.

The bus chartered is large and is the latest word in bus construction. It is really a Pullman of the highway, affording practically all of the comforts and conveniences of the Pullman car.

POPULAR ORGANIST

Professor Glenn Grant Grabill, '00, Enjoys Widespread Reputation
As Organist.

That Professor Grabill's fame as an organist has become very widespread is attested by the fact that he has responded to quite a few requests for dedicating organ recitals during the last three or four years. Besides rendering an organ recital at Akron this week, Professor Grabill has given recitals in Portsmouth and Galion, Ohio, and in Peru, Indianapolis, Anderson and Elkhart, Indiana. He is also organist for the Scottish Rite bodies and for the Aladdin Temple Shrine of Columbus.

The degree in organ which Professor Grabill now holds is given only to successful candidates who have been able to pass a strenuous two day examination given by the American Guild of Organists, whose central offices are in New York City. Professor Grabill is a member of the Executive Committee of the Central Ohio Chapter of this guild, located in Columbus. The letters A. A. G. O. indicate Associate in the American Guild of Organists. Only a comparatively small number of organists of the country are able to pass this examination.

EDITORIALS

Let Us Have That News

We've learned since assuming the manifold duties connected with the publication of the Tan and Cardinal that editing a paper is a real job and one of no small dimensions. We've also found that the staff can't do all the work and that the cooperation of the student body is essential if the paper is going to be a success, even if it is in only a very small way.

Our aim is to make the Tan and Cardinal a newspaper giving to every phase of college life its share of notice. It is our sincere desire to make it interesting and full of news but we can't do this unless you tell us the news. We want this paper to be your paper, and to represent the entire school, but in order for it to function properly in that respect we must have your cooperation. If you are planning some big event, if you know some item of interest not known to everyone, tell it to some member of the staff. Of course we are the staff and are responsible for the paper and are supposed to get everything going on without any aid whatever. We could spend the time to make a systematic canvass for news, but we are not a paid staff, and as a result we do not have time to be hanging around at any place and at any hour in search of news. All we ask you to do is to call our attention to things and we will do the rest. Tell us the news and get it to us in time for publication.

We will do all that is necessary and a little more to make you feel that this is your paper. We are willing to dig in and work but we will be glad to have you swing in line and give us a little lift from time to time by calling our attention to things that do not come under our observation or that ordinarily escape our attention.

The Tan and Cardinal can be made a far better paper if there is a little closer cooperation between the staff and the student body.

Bragging

To most people no one is more repulsive than a braggart and he is always avoided when at all possible.
Bragging never becomes anyone at any time or at any place. It is always out of order.

We know a lot of fellows who do a number of things well but they seem to be afraid that folks won't find it out, so they go around "tooting their own bugles." In fact, we doubt the power and ability that makes too much display of itself.

If you can do something better than anybody else you will be recognized and given due credit. If you have exceptional ability, folks are bound to notice it and they are bound to get a better idea of how good you are if you are modest. Lots of fine fellows spoil themselves and their good records by bragging.

— O C —

Let's Be Human

Freshmen and new students tell us that one of the things that first impress them at Otterbein is the congenial and friendly spirit in evidence on the campus. This, they say, is in marked contrast with their high school life. They tell us that in high school no one spoke except personal friends and acquaintances. The mark of distinction seemed to be the extent to which one could "high hat" his fellow students, who were not especially well known to him.

Here at Otterbein, on the other hand, they found that nearly everyone tried to be friendly and helpful.
Perfect strangers took an interest in them and were more than willing to help them get into the swing of things. This spirit of friendliness is commendable and one to be fostered.

This spirit has always existed here
but it now seems to be weakening.
The habit of returning a salutation is too little practiced and actually seems that it is going to be discarded. The person who fails to return a greeting is as small as the amount of energy required to say "Hello." The person who fails to speak cannot be excused,
and he can rightfully be called provincial, snobbish and other names descriptive but not complimentary.

The number of us who are strained to the breaking point to return a greeting is still unbearably great.
Condescend, students. It won't humiliate a Freshman, it won't hurt you, and it won't lower the dignity of a Senior or faculty member. Speak, smile, show you are human, and you will get many miles farther on your road through life.

IT STRIKES US—

That it doesn't pay to waste time worrying about knockers for the dirty work will proceed just the same.

That the students should be more considerate during the organ prelude in chapel.

That it is about time the Freshman flag committee sees that the flag is put up. There has been much laxness in this matter of late. You who are responsible should get busy.

That the Glee Club presents a program that is peerless.

That it would be well for several Freshmen to re-read the regulation pertaining to the wearing of Freshman caps. This little matter should be attended to before it is too late.

NEARLY ORIGINAL WIT

By Tee and Cee

Tango colored suspenders are now the vogue for college men. Who'll be the first brave man to sport them here in Otterbein?

We would have less objection to eight hours of sleep if it didn't keep us at home.

It doesn't take long to classify a man according to his religious beliefs
if he will eat pork on Friday.

How's this for describing a football player? A dashing, crashing, slashing, smashing fullback.

Famous Last Words

"I'll strike this match and see if the gasoline tank is empty."

Slips!

President Clippinger said that the girls turned out in fine shape at the Tuesday evening revival services.

A certain dormitory girl overheard
two men talking about balloon tires and then she was heard to say that she didn't know that balloons had tires.

Goat Grabbers

The guy who endeavors to get away with a line of bull and then when he is caught tries to back it up with more bull.

Fishbaugh says that he's not lazy, and he substantiates his statement by saying further that he and work get along so well that he can lay right down beside it and sleep.

If every one of our coed's face was her fortune, many of them would be arrested for counterfeiting.

Late to bed and early to rise is the way to solve the problem that has puzzled fraternity men, that of being able to wear your own clothes when you want them.

The Unkindest Cut of All
"So this is a picture of your girl.
She must be very wealthy!"

"Follow the Swallow" sang the booze hound, as he set sail for Cuba.

STUDENT MUSIC RECITAL COMES TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock there will be the third recital this year of the students in the School of Music. The program is unusually interesting in that it calls for many popular selections of a varied nature. There will be piano, violin and instrumental quartet numbers that are sure to please music lovers in Otterbein. The student recitals this year have been of an unusually high standard and tomorrow night's recital promises to be even better than those given in the past.

CRIBBING UP TO DATE

European Student Has Latest Out in Cribbing—Method Is Novel.

The New Student reports that cribbing can be kept up to date as well as other things. A medical student in Strassburg University, Germany, was answering exam questions with ease when it was reported that he was cheating. Search revealed copper hair wires under the linoleum below his chair, passing through the floor, along the corridors and to the student's room. There a lady was found. A radio set with microphone in the examination room transmitted the questions to the young lady and she dictated the answers by telephone. The student had a microphone concealed under a bandage over a pretended cut on his finger. Complete paraphernalia for a five tube wireless set and the necessary batteries were part of the equipment.

TO BROADCAST SECOND GLEE CLUB CONCERT SOON

A few days ago Professor Spessard arranged another concert with the Columbus Dispatch to be broadcast about the fifteenth of April. The definite date has not been announced. This program will not be broadcast at night as was the concert on February 27, but will be given on one of the Dispatch's popular noonday programs, the musical numbers of which begin at noon and last until 12:35. A news bulletin and market reports follow the musical entertainment.

This concert will undoubtedly be given in the new Hotel Deshler studio which was formally dedicated last night. The new studio is one of the best designed and most exquisitely furnished in the country.

ANNEX CLUB WINS CAGE CHAMPIONSHIP

Goes Through Season with Eleven Wins and One Defeat—Sphinx Places Second.

The Annex Club won the intra-mural championship and permanent possession of a silver loving cup when they defeated the Priest Club, champs of the Prune League, in a rough game, 20-4, Saturday. The champions' final standing was eleven games won and one lost. The Sphinx and Cook House finished the race in second and third places respectively.

The race this year for the championship was fast and hot. The first round went to the Annex Club, which did not lose a game, and it seemed that they were destined to win in a walk. The second round did not go long until the race tightened a little when the Sphinx boys abruptly stopped the march of the champs by handing them a 25-7 beating. After this defeat the Annexers came back and won three successive games by overwhelming scores.

The league was a success this year in every way. The attendance at the games was good and at times the gym was filled to capacity with enthusiastic followers of the league. At this time something might be said concerning the student referees. Their task was exceedingly difficult and their job a thankless one. Even though at times their judgment seemed bad, the better judgment of time has shown that they were fair and right in their decisions.

Edler Returns from Hospital And Resumes Work as Coach

Basketball Coach "Deke" Edler returned to the campus Thursday afternoon after spending several weeks in the University hospital, Columbus, convalescing from an operation for appendicitis.

When his work with the basketball team was interrupted by his illness Coach Ditmer took charge of the team.

TRACK aspirants under the leadership of Captain Ruffini are taking daily workouts indoors and soon light work on the field will begin. In the dash events Ruffini, Upson and Stoughton will star, while Blauser and Falstick will do the bulk of the work in the distance runs. Porosky and Bennett will no doubt enter the discus and weight events. Garver and Drury, last year's high jumpers, will enter this event again this year, while Widdoes will repeat in the pole vault.

CLASS BASKETEERS WILL TANGLE NEXT SATURDAY

Juniors to Meet Freshmen and Sophomores Clash with Seniors in First Tilts.

Next Saturday afternoon the first series of the inter-class basket ball tournament will be played in the college gym when the Freshmen will be pitted against the Juniors, and the Sophomores will take on the Seniors. The winners in these two games will later play each other for the class championship.

In the first game, the Juniors will have to watch Buell and Barnes, who are first and second high scorers in the Club League. To do this the Juniors have Seibert and their choice of several other good guards. They also have Stair and Widdoes, of the Varsity.

The Seniors' Varsity men, McCarroll and Durr, are both guards, but there are a number of good pill tossers in their ranks. The Sophomores have Snively, Seaman and Allison, and plenty of other good men to make a good line-up.

O C

HIS SHOT WINS GAME

"Eddie" Seibert

With only 30 seconds left to play and with Muskingum one point in the lead, Seibert is the man who caged the ball from two-thirds the length of the floor and gave Otterbein the two points necessary to win the game.

ABOUT twenty men are expected to respond to the baseball call issued by Coach Ditmer this week. There are five letter men from last year who form a nucleus for Ditmer to build a team. They are Captain Garver, McCarroll, Seibert, Ruffini and Renner. McCarroll, Seibert, Renner and Garver are experienced infielders and Ruffini is an outfielder who is certain to land a job. There are several Juniors and Sophomores who have real possibilities and competition for positions on this year's team will be keen.

STATISTICS INTERESTING

Sport Editor Lists Point Getters in League—G. Buell Leads List With Big Score.

Below we list the high scorers of the league with the number of points and the team. Four forwards, three centers, four guards, and three utility men are listed. The utility men are listed this way because they played either forward, center or guard positions and it would be unfair to them to class them as forwards and unfair to the guards to class them as guards. These three men, VanCuren, Young and Norris, were valuable assets to their teams.

GIRLS' INTER-CLASS GAMES BEGIN WEDNESDAY

Games have been arranged between girls' basket ball teams representing the four college classes. Drawings have been made but the dates when the games will be played have not yet definitely been set. However, the games will probably begin this Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. Two games are scheduled for each afternoon.

As a result of the drawings the following set of combinations for the first round are: Seniors vs. Freshmen, Sophomores vs. Juniors; second round, Freshmen vs. Sophomores, Juniors vs. Seniors; third round, Seniors vs. Sophomores, Juniors vs. Freshmen.

Captains for the teams have been elected as follows: Senior, Veda Bearss; Juniors, Helen Palmer; Sophomores, Ruth Hayes; Freshmen, Helen Trevarrow.

DRIBBLES

Saturday's game was a nip and tuck affair and was anyone's game up until the final whistle. One game a season like the Muskingum nerve tester is all one can stand.

It is interesting to note that both of the forwards for Muskingum went scoreless for the game. They didn't score either a field goal or a foul. The one forward substitute managed to score a foul.

Widdoes was again high point man for Otterbein, scoring eight baskets from action.

It appears that Otterbein has Muskingum's goat, at least we have it tied down pretty close this year. A win in both football and basketball gives us the edge over the Black and Magenta for 1924-25.

The team loses only two men this year, McCarroll and Durr, and with the new material coming in from the Freshman Class, great things can be expected next year.

O C

Floyd Beelman

Beelman is an athlete that Otterbein can rightly claim as her own. He came here unheralded as an athlete and when he graduates he will leave a good record. He is a Ditmer product both in track and football. Beelman earned his first letter in his Sophomore year as a member of the record breaking relay team. In his Junior year he won a football "O". On the gridiron he was a fleet, nervy and hard hitting halfback. This year he annexed his second football letter and he is slated to earn his third letter in track.

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles that will appear in the Tan and Cardinal written about Senior athletes soon to leave school. The articles will appear in alphabetical order.

LAST Saturday's game will no doubt land Widdoes a place on the mythical All-Ohio basketball team. His sixteen points Saturday, all of which were fielders scored from action, place him among the select few who stand at the top of the Ohio Conference scoring list. His shooting has been consistent all year and he is the kind of forward every coach wants—one who can be depended on for at least twelve points a game. With Saturday night's game he closed his second season of Varsity service.

KNOWING full well that the system of student referees for the intra-mural basketball series was not altogether a success we would offer the following suggestions as a solution to the problem. First, select one man from each team to act as a referee and then at the same time the schedule is made let a referee be selected for each game. The referee would then be definitely decided and much of the trouble and unpleasantness of the present system would be avoided.

grand debut and was hence the greater person of the two. He had cautiously unmoored a gay canoe (which activity, you know, is quite taboo). Long say hasty youth his reckless action rue, wish in vain he could the luckless deed undo! For behold, as o'er the waters he withdrew, there resounded on the shore a wild "halloo"!

In the air a hefty rock the stranger threw; for its mark it made a pathway straight and true. Quick the barque capsized as if it were bamboo, and both man and maiden got a quick shampoo.

There is absolutely nothing I could do that would please me quite so much as tell you who all these people are—and as I would be through—but there's not another thing that rhymes with "oo".

who are to report all persons they see cheating to the Honor Court, composed of the four Senior Senators and one other member elected by the Senate. Students who mean to support the Honor System are asked to sign a pledge promising to disclose the names of persons seen cheating.

For first offense the guilty person's examination is nullified. The second offense causes the Honor Court to recommend to the faculty his separation from the institution.

This certainly will obliterate a great amount of cheating during examinations.

O C SPRING FEVER

Soft and roguishly the balmy breezes blew; all the little doves began to bill and coo; surreptitiously maids opened billet-doux (this of course you understand, is entre nous). There, in fact, as you can see, was much ado, and the more I watched the more my wonder grew. So I formed a plan to follow out a clue and, if no one object, follow out a clue and, if no one object, I'll tell the same to you. She, the night before, had made a later ended in Otterbein's second victory of the year.

TEAM CLOSES SEASON WITH WIN OVER MUSKINGUM

With the good work begun, Widdoes came through with three long "swishers" in quick succession, reducing Muskingum's lead to one point at 34-35. With thirty seconds to go a timely field goal by "Eddie" Seibert clinched a victory which twenty seconds later was sealed by the timer's gun!

With the excitement and tension over, the howling mob of spectators broke loose and to the world the story of an Otterbein victory over Muskingum was told by the college bell and retold and proclaimed by the huge 35-36 on the water tower.

KENYON DEFEATS TAN

Monday night, March 2, saw Otterbein go down to defeat before the Kenyon basketball team on the home floor by a score of 53 to 22. It was the Tan and Cardinal's second defeat this season at the hands of Kenyon, this time even more disastrous than the first.

Seaman again started the scoring via the free throw route and from the first the game went fast and furiously. The Episcopalians wasted but little time rolling up a lead, showing Otterbein the dust before the contest was well under way. Working innumerable tip-off plays and going straight into the O. C. offense and taking the ball from them in their own territory, the Kenyon combination remained a riddle throughout the game.

Bent on stopping Van Epps, lanky Kenyon center who scored around 30 points in the previous contest, the Tan quintet managed to do so to their sorrow. For while they were "ganging" Van Epps, an obscure Kenyon forward or guard would sneak in for a sucker shot.

The tilt proved rather rough, both Seibert and Van Epps taking the showers by reason of personal fouls. The whole Otterbein crew was badly off in shooting.

Line-up and summary:

Kenyon 53	Pos.	22 Otterbein

LISTN'IN' IN

The inauguration of an Inter-fraternity Council at Case Tech promises to encourage democracy on the campus and a more friendly feeling between fraternities. The members of this council are presidents of the various fraternities and have agreed upon monthly meetings. A special feature of the organization is the adoption of plans for inter-fraternity activities, the most important of which is the establishment of a scholarship prize which will be awarded to the fraternity with the best standards of scholarship as decided by the regulations made by the Council.

Prof. Lawson of the University of California in a discussion concerning the advisability of examinations, says that constant worry over frequent exams hinders a student from getting the most out of his studies. Prof. Lawson thinks that the English system of giving examinations, which are fewer in number and more comprehensive, is more efficient than ours.

"Al" Elliott stopped in Westerville Saturday evening to witness the Otterbein-Muskingum game when he was on his way to Lancaster, Ohio. He is doing boy scout work.
