Football Media Guides and Programs

Otterbein's 1985 football media guides and programs are published by the College's Office of College Relations. Programs were prepared through the efforts of the college relations staff, the athletic department staff, Touchdown Publications of San Francisco, Calif., and the Ohio Printing Company, Ltd., Columbus, Ohio.

OTTERBEIN IN BRIEF

The College: Founded in 1847, Otterbein is a private, independent, coeducational four-year liberal arts college affiliated with the United Methodist Church.

Location: Westerville, a suburb of Columbus, Ohio.

Degrees: Majors are offered in 36 fields. Degrees offered include the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Music Education, Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre, Bachelor of Science in Education; Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and Associate of Science in Nursing. In addition, master's degrees in education and business administration are offered in cooperation with two other Ohio institutions.

Campus: 70-acre campus with 25 buildings, including 137,000-volume library, learning resource center with television studio, extensive computer facilities, theatre with newly-constructed scene shop, fine arts center, completely equipped sports and recreation center, newly-renovated planetarium and observatory, campus radio station, student center, and more.

Students: Approximately 1600 men and women from throughout Ohio, surrounding states, and several foreign countries.

Athletics: Men and women participate in NCAA Division III and compete in the Ohio Athletic Conference. Complete intramural program available to all students.

Fraternities

& Sororities: Nearly 50% of Otterbein students participate in the six fraternities and five sororities on campus.

The Arts: Professional training programs in music, theatre, and visual arts with numerous cultural events free to students, including a professional Artist Series, Musical Department events (orchestra, opera, band, choirs), monthly Visual Arts exhibits (students and professionals) and the widely recognized Otterbein College Theatre.

Faculty: Student-Faculty ratio is 12 to one. More than 65% of faculty hold doctorates or appropriate terminal degrees. Professors are active in campus affairs, serve as advisers to students, and participate in a unique sabbatical program to research and study recent developments in their fields.

Programs: Off-campus programs in France, Germany, Spain, England, Washington D. C., Philadelphia, New Mexico. Internships available throughout Ohio and other states. Army, Navy, and Air Force ROTC offered in conjunction with Ohio State University. Internships provide experience in chosen career fields.

Costs: 1985-86 annual tuition—$6,750. Room and board for one year—$2724.

MESSAGE FROM C. BRENT DEVORE OTTERBEIN COLLEGE PRESIDENT

I have had the privilege of serving four collegiate institutions with NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA programs. My experience has convinced me that NCAA Division III has the proper perspective, providing the best balance of academics and athletic activities.

Otterbein has a proud tradition of intercollegiate athletic competition dating from the turn of the century. Throughout that period, our commitment has been to the whole person, both in and out of the classroom. Our coaches are teachers first, mentors making deep and lasting impressions on their students.

While the drive to win is important, our real commitment lies in developing leadership traits and the competitive spirit which will aid our scholar athletes during life after Otterbein.

Ours is a proud tradition and we welcome your support and continuing involvement.

E. W. "BUD" YOEST OTTERBEIN ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Under the direction of athletic director, E. W. "Bud" Yoest, Otterbein's men's athletic programs have grown in size and scope and gained national recognition.

In fact, since Yoest took charge in 1974, five of the nine men's athletic programs have turned in cumulative winning percentages of more than .500 and 27 student athletes in five intercollegiate sports have been named All-America. The Otterbein baseball and basketball teams have reached the national finals and semi-finals respectively.

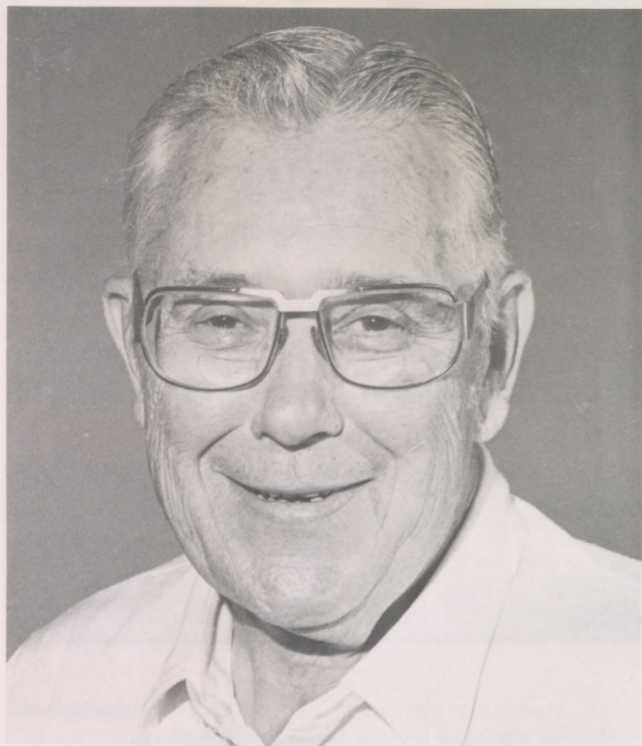

A 1953 graduate of Otterbein, Yoest started his career at Mifflin High School in Columbus serving as a physical education instructor and football coach. Returning to Westerville in 1956, he joined the Cardinal staff as head track coach and an assistant football coach. Yoest's Otterbein track teams compiled a 133-73 record over 18 years. During this time, he coached 156 All-OAC athletes and nine NCAA All-Americans.

A professor in men's health and physical education, Yoest serves as the department's chairperson, continuing to teach as well as supervise the academic and athletic programs.

BOB SHAW

OTTERBEIN HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Bob Shaw, defensive coordinator for the Otterbein football team since 1981, enters his first year as head coach of the Cardinals.

The 1943 All-America tight end replaces Rich Seils, who resigned last summer to assume the duties of athletic director for the Worthington (Ohio) school system. Seils compiled a 49-40-2 record in ten seasons at Otterbein.

Shaw brings over 35 years of professional playing and coaching experience to his new position.

"I'm excited about it, I really am," Shaw said. "I'll approach this assignment as I've always approached a new coaching assignment—in a positive way."

The 62-year-old Shaw, a native of Richwood, Ohio, began his football career at The Ohio State University in 1941. He played three years at tight end, earning All-Conference honors in 1942 and 1943. He was named Associated Press All-America in 1943.

After a two-year stint in the service, Shaw played for the NFL champions Cleveland Rams in 1945 and was their starting tight end in 1946. He sat out the seasons of 1947 and 1948 after suffering a cervical fracture.

He played for the NFL Western Division champions Los Angeles Rams in 1949. With the Chicago Cardinals in 1950 he set an NFL record for most touchdown receptions in one game, by catching five scoring passes. The record, which he shares with Kellen Winslow, still holds today.

Shaw left the NFL in 1951 and played three years with the Calgary Stampeders (1951-52) and the Toronto Argonauts (1953) in the Canadian Football League (CFL). At Calgary, Shaw set a CFL scoring record of 110 points in 1951.

While playing in the CFL, Shaw spent one semester a year at Otterbein and earned a bachelor of science degree in education in 1953.

Shaw spent the next three years as head football coach at high schools in Washington Court House and Cuyahoga Falls before entering the professional coaching ranks in 1957 when he was an assistant coach under Hall of Fame coach Weeb Eubank at Baltimore. After two years as receiver coach at Baltimore, Shaw went to San Francisco in 1959.

He left the NFL in 1960 and became director of athletics at the New Mexico Military Institute, a two-year junior college located in Roswell. Shaw also served as the college's head football and basketball coach and was the one who introduced the pro offense to Roger Staubach, quarterback of Shaw's 9-1 team in 1960. Shaw compiled a 22-6-1 record in football in three years at the institute.

In 1963, Shaw returned to professional football, this time seeking head coaching experience in the CFL. He spent four years at Saskatchewan (1963-64) and Toronto (1965-66) before returning to the NFL in 1967.

He spent the next nine years as pass offensive coach for New Orleans (1967-68), Chicago (1969-71) and Buffalo (1972-75). In his 12 years as an assistant coach in the NFL, Shaw worked with such standout receivers as Dan Abramowicz, Ahmad Rashad, Raymond Berry, Harlon Hill, Billy Wilson and Dick Gordon; and quarterbacks Johnny Unitas and Y. A. Tittle.

Unable to nail down an NFL head coaching assignment, Shaw went back to the CFL as head coach and general manager of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats from 1976-77. He was named CFL Coach of the Year in 1976 when the Tiger-Cats made it into the Eastern Conference finals. Shaw relinquished his head coaching duties in 1978 and continued to serve as general manager. In six seasons as head coach in the CFL, he compiled a 39-54-2 record.

Shaw joined the Otterbein Health and Physical Education Department in 1981.

He and his wife, Mary, live in Westerville and have two children, Webb, 34, and Amy, 26.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Phil Mauro... Defensive backs... Returns to Otterbein College after a five-year stint in Texas as chairman of the physical education departments of the Texas School for the Deaf, and the Lockhart and Calallen Independent School Districts where he also had track and football coaching responsibilities. In addition to assistant football coach, Phil will serve as head track coach at Otterbein. Previously, he served as assistant football coach at both Otterbein (1981-1982) and Ohio Wesleyan (1980-1981). He earned his bachelor of arts degree in health and physical education from Denison in 1977, and his master's degree in athletic administration from Bowling Green State University in 1980. He is married.

Jack Pietila... Linebackers... A retired major with the United States Air Force, Pietila is director of alumni relations as well as director of annual giving at Otterbein. He is a 1962 graduate of Otterbein and was a four-year starter at offensive guard and linebacker for the 1958-1961 teams. He was selected All-OAC honorable mention at both positions in 1960, and first team All-OAC at guard in 1961. He holds a master's degree in industrial management from the University of North Dakota. Jack and his wife, Mary Jean, have two daughters and live in Westerville.

Dick Reynolds... Offensive backs... Needs little introduction. Reynolds will start his 14th season as head basketball coach at Otterbein College, sporting a 213-122 record. A 1965 graduate of Otterbein College, Dick was a 12-time letter winner in football, basketball and track. Was selected second team All-OAC at defensive back in 1962 and All-OAC honorable mention at quarterback in 1964. Dick and his wife, Ellen, have two children and live in Westerville.

Mike Havens... Defensive line... Joined the Cardinal staff in 1983. Havens was a starting offensive tackle for the 1979 Otterbein squad that finished the year with a 7-2 record. He earned a degree from Otterbein in 1980, after spending his first two years at Akron University. Mike, who is currently pursuing a master's degree from Ashland College in sports administration, gained previous coaching experience at North Olmstead High School in the Cleveland area.

Dan Thompson... Wide receivers... As well as holding the post of Registrar at Otterbein since 1979, Dan manages to squeeze in time for football. This is his fourth season as assistant coach. A 1978 Otterbein graduate, with a degree in business administration, Dan saw limited action at defensive end. He and his wife, Valerie, live in Westerville.

Dave Hahn... Offensive line... A 1983 Otterbein graduate, Dave was a three-year starter at offensive guard and served as captain of the (5-4) 1982 squad. He holds a master's degree in physical education from Bowling Green State University and is doing post-graduate work at Ohio State University. This is his second season as assistant coach.

OTTERBEIN OUTLOOK— 1985 CARDINALS INSTALL NEW LOOK

The Otterbein College football team fields a new look this season, as first-year head coach Bob Shaw dismantles the wishbone and installs the T.

"I think it will be a lot more fun for the players and certainly more entertaining for the fans and student body," Shaw explained about the offensive switch. "I think the guys are looking forward to a change.

"And, I know it (pro-T offense)," said Shaw, a veteran pro tight end with 12 years of assistant coaching experience in the NFL, plus another six as head coach in the Canadian Football League.

Shaw realizes the offensive transformation won't necessarily lead to a winning season.

"If we're going to improve upon last year's 3-7 record, some of our upperclassmen will really have to come through and have developed over the summer," Shaw said. "Hopefully, we can win some close ones and eek out a couple more."

Despite the record, the 1984 Cardinals were very close to a .500 team, losing critical games to Mount Union and Capital in the final quarter of play.

The Cardinals return only five starters from last year's offensive unit, which finished sixth in the Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC), averaging 249.3 yards per game in total offense.

Junior quarterback Chris White will battle senior Jeff Wiles for the starting nod. Largely due to injuries, neither quarterback could establish himself as the regular starter last season. The pair averaged a combined 104.2 yards per game in total offense in 1984.

Otterbein's greatest asset on offense is the experience and depth of its running backs. Veteran halfbacks Randy Lepley, a senior, and Dave Main-ella, a junior, team up with senior fullback David Skrobot to form the core of the Cardinal rushing game. Those three accounted for over half of Otterbein's 1,600 rushing yards last season.

A mixture of old and new make up the 1985 receiving corps. Last season's starting tight end, John Kusan, has moved to defense leaving the tight end position up for grabs between Dave Kiger, a sophomore, and senior letterman Tim Bates. Junior Jim Boltz is penciled in as the starting split end, while senior Paul Collier gets the pre-season nod at flanker. Both are lettermen and saw considerable action last season.

The Cardinal starting offensive line remains as one of Coach Shaw's biggest concerns heading into the new season. The entire left side of last year's starting line is gone including center Chris Cebull, two-time All-OAC first team guard Matt Clegg, and tackle Dick Moore. The right side is back intact, and includes 1984 All-OAC honorable mention Scott Pryfogle, a 6-3, 240-pound senior guard, and John Piper, a 6-0, 239-pound senior tackle.

Defensively, the Cardinals return nine starters from last year's unit, which was ranked last in the OAC, giving up 380.1 yards per game. Shaw remains optimistic, however, noting that his staff worked hard during the off-season seeking recruits capable of filling key positions, one of which is the spot vacated by two-time All-OAC first team end Gary Ubry.

The defense will revolve around the play of returning starter and senior linebacker Todd Wehl, who should get plenty of help from returning senior linebackers Tim Harris and Craig Breneman, and returning sophomore linebacker Dan Harris.

The Cardinals' greatest strength on defense, perhaps, is its experienced backfield corps led by speedster Steve McConaghy, who missed most of last season due to an injury. McConaghy, an All-OAC track selection, will play the free safety position. Mark Collier, a sophomore returning starter, will play the strong safety position. Returning junior starters Victor Canini and Barry Goldslager will anchor the corners.

Although the Otterbein linebacking and backfield corps seem solid, the Cardinals are short of experienced down linemen. Senior nose guard Tom Chance is the only returning down lineman from last season's defensive unit. Sophomore Barry Sutherland and junior Tim Dolder, both lettermen, are the pre-season selections for the end positions.

Senior place-kicker, Dave Chilcote, and punter, John Watts, are both returning starters.

CARDINAL CAPSULES — 1985 RETURNING LETTERMEN

TIM BATES

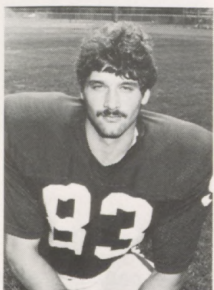

TE 6-1 180 Sr.
Connellsville, Penn.
(Connellsville)

Started as a freshman at free safety, Bates made the move to tight end last fall and will compete for a starting role at that position this season. Tim is a starter at shortstop for the Otterbein baseball team and is majoring in mathematics.

Receiving	Rec.	Yds.	Avg.	TD
1984	2	26	13.0	0

JIM BOLTZ

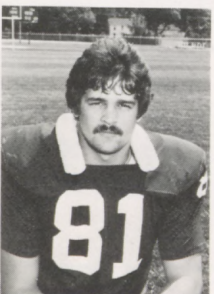

SE 6-1 187 Jr.
Marion
(Marion Catholic)

Started as a sophomore. Has nice size for a wide receiver. Runs disciplined pass routes. Vastly improved in strength and should compete for a starting position. Jim is an accounting/business administration major.

Receiving	Rec.	Yds.	Avg.	TD
1984	8	102	12.8	0

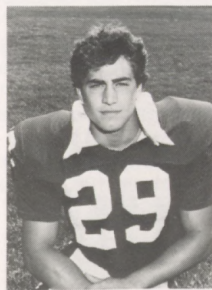

CRAIG BRENNEMAN

DE 6-3 225 Sr.
West Jefferson
(West Jefferson)

A starter since the middle of his freshman year at tight end, Craig moved to defensive tackle last season. His size, plus improved strength during the off season, should make for a great senior year. Craig is a business administration major.

VICTOR CANINI

DB 5-8 163 Jr.
Carroll
(Bloom-Carroll)

Moved into a starting role as a defensive back his sophomore year. Very intelligent. A quick, hard hitter. One of only four freshmen to earn a letter in 1983. Victor is a mathematics/education major.

Interceptions	No.	Yds.	TD
1984	2	22	0

ED CHACEY

RB 5-9 195 Jr.
Newark
(Licking Valley)

Used in a reserve role his first two years. Good balance and determination. Could see action as a fullback this season. Ed is a computer science/business administration major.

TOM CHANCE

MG 5-10 203 Sr.
Mason
(Mason)

Anchored the defensive line his junior year. Chance has been a visible figure on the Cardinal defense since his transfer from the University of Cincinnati in 1982. Improved quickness and strength should make him a premiere player this season. Tom is a health and physical education major.

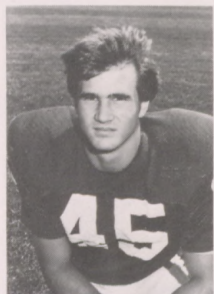

DAVE CHILCOTE

K 5-10 176 Sr.
Westerville
(South)

Two-year starter at placekicker, replacing All-America Jim Hoyle. Very consistent. Hit 15 of 17 extra points and 5 of 8 field goal attempts last season. As a sophomore, Dave was a perfect 15 of 15 on extra point attempts and hit 6 of 8 field goals including the longest of his career, a 47-yard effort against Ohio Wesleyan. Also tied a single game Otterbein record by booting six extra points in Otterbein's 45-14 win over Marietta in 1983. Dave is a business administration major.

MARK COLLIER

DB 5-10 165 So.
Heath
(Heath)

Moved into a starting role his freshman year because of injuries to upperclassmen in the defensive backfield. That experience, combined with improved strength during the off-season, should make him a starter this year. Brother to Paul. Mark is a mathematics major.

Interceptions	No.	Yds.	TD
1984	2	24	0

PAUL COLLIER

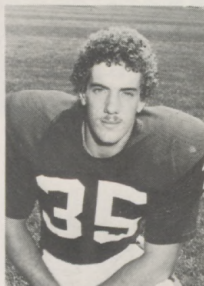

RB 5-8 180 Sr.
Heath
(Heath)

Saw action his junior year as a running back. Good balance, speed and strength could make him a key to the offense in '85. Paul is a business administration major.

Rushing	Att.	Yds.	Avg.	TD
1984	16	58	3.6	0

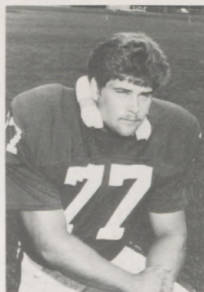

DAVE DANIEL

FB 5-11 200 So.
Attica
(Seneca East)

One of ten freshmen to earn letters last season. Saw action on the specialty teams. Improved strength during the off-season could make him a contender at fullback. Dave is an accounting major.

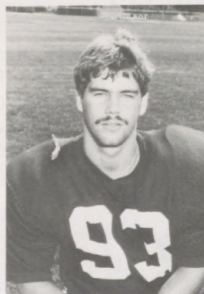

TIMOTHY DOLDER

DT 6-0 227 Jr.
Baltimore
(Eastmoor)

Saw limited action as a sophomore. Could be a factor in the defensive line this season if quickness improves. Tim is a physical education major.

MICHAEL DUNLEVY

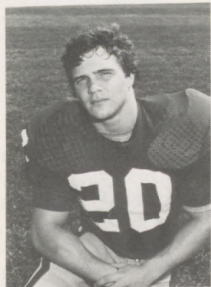

SE 5-10 165 Jr.
Kettering
(Fairmont)

Served in a reserve capacity as a sophomore. Mike's lone catch last season was a 6-yard touchdown reception against OAC champs Baldwin-Wallace. Good hands and experience should make him a contender for a starting role. Mike is a business administration major.

Receiving	Rec.	Yds.	Avg.	TD
1984	1	6	6.0	1

BARRY GOLDSLAGER

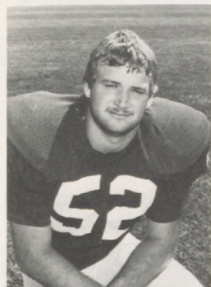

DB 5-10 191 Jr.
Reynoldsburg
(Reynoldsburg)

Possesses some of the finest athletic skills on the football team. Learned a new position as a sophomore last season after serving on the specialty teams in 1983. Was one of four freshmen to earn a varsity football letter that year. Quick feet and great hitting ability should make him one of the finer defensive backs in the OAC this season. Barry is a chemistry major.

Interceptions	No.	Yds.	TD
1984	1	0	0

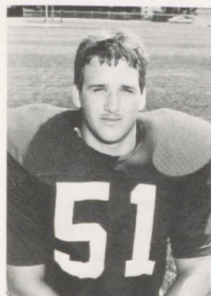

TIM HARRIS

LB 6-0 205 Sr.
Crooksville
(Crooksville)

Tim has been a starter in the middle of the Otterbein defense since his first game as a freshman. Hampered by a shoulder injury for part of 1984, Tim will be a driving force behind the success of this year's defensive unit. A versatile athlete like his brother, Dan, Tim has served as designated hitter for the Otterbein varsity baseball team the last three years. Named "Most Valuable Freshman" for both the football and baseball teams in 1982-83. Tim is an accounting major.

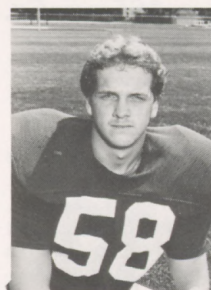

DAN HARRIS

DE 6-0 202 So.
Crooksville
(Crooksville)

Named by teammates as "Most Valuable Freshman" last season. Started at outside linebacker late in the season and will be counted upon heavily in the same capacity this season. Dan is a pitcher on the Otterbein baseball team and is an accounting major.

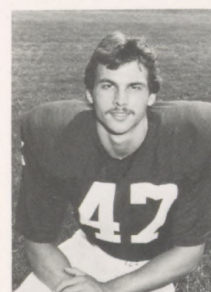

JOE HELMER

C 6-2 215 So.
Dayton
(Meadowdale)

One of ten freshmen to earn a letter last season. Used as a long snapper in '84 and could fill that role again this year. Joe is a business administration major.

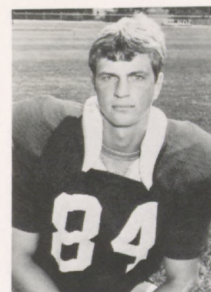

JAMES KALTENBACH

RB 5-11 175 So.
West Carrollton
(West Carrollton)

Great athletic ability and potential. Played a reserve role as a freshman and earned a varsity letter. Should see playing time this season and, possibly, earn a starting position. James is a business administration major.

JOHN KUSAN

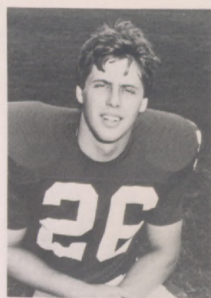

TE 6-5 230 Sr.
Columbus
(Bishop Ready)

Last season marked John's first year back after a three-year layoff. A transfer student from Ohio Wesleyan, the 6-5, 230-pound senior is an imposing figure at the tight end position. Earned a varsity letter in basketball while at Ohio Wesleyan. John is a computer science major.

RANDY LEPLEY

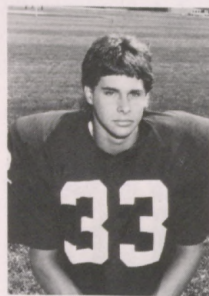

RB 5-8 165 Sr.
Akron
(St. Vincent-St. Mary)

Second leading rusher last season as starter at the left halfback position. Versatile runner as well as receiver, catching 15 passes for 100 yards and one touchdown last season. Team's leading kickoff return specialist, averaging 20.5 yds. a return. Scored on a 95-yard kickoff return against Muskingum last season. Missed his entire freshman season because of a broken collarbone. Great instincts, moves. Will be counted on heavily in '85. Excellent student. Randy is a political science/business administration major.

STEVE McCONAGHY

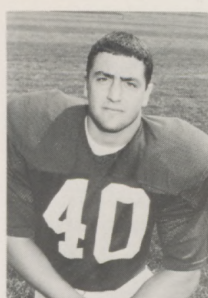

DB 6-0 165 Jr.
Westerville
(North)

Stepped right into the starting free safety job as a freshman. An injury in the third game of the season against Muskingum cut short his sophomore year last season. He will anchor the Cardinal secondary this year. One of the best all-round athletes on the squad, Steve has great speed and agility. Earned All-OAC status by finishing second in the intermediate hurdles at the OAC track championships last spring. Steve is an accounting major.

DAVE MAINELLA

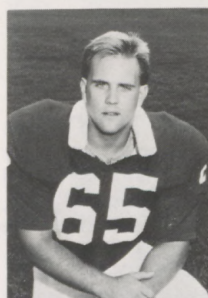

RB 6-0 193 Jr.
Weston, West Virginia
(Lewis County)

Possibly one of the hardest runners of all the running backs. Rushed for 5.5 yards per carry last season, which was the best average on the squad. Longest carry was a 56-yard touchdown run against Mount Union last year. Size, strength and experience make him a mainstay in the offensive backfield. Dave is a second cousin to Mary Lou Retton, U. S. gold medalist in the 1984 Olympics. He is a business administration major.

Rushing	Att.	Yds.	Avg.	TD
1984	50	277	5.5	2

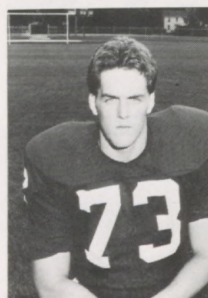

JOHN PIPER

OT 6-0 239 Sr.
Sunbury
(Big Walnut)

A starter on the offensive line his last two seasons, John should get the starting nod at right guard this season. His experience, strength and aggressiveness make him a mainstay on the offensive line. He is a business administration major.

SCOTT PRYFOGLE

OT 6-3 240 Sr.
Westerville
(South)

Three-year starter on the offensive line. Scott is a prototype OAC offensive lineman. Experience and strength should spell a great senior year for him. Selected All-OAC honorable mention last year as well as voted "Most Improved Player" by teammates. One of the top shot putters on the Otterbein varsity track team. Scott is a business administration/accounting major.

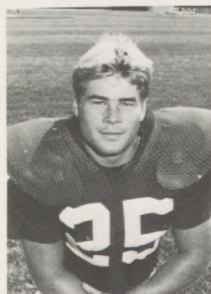

MARK SELL

LB 5-9 177 Jr.
Tipp City
(Tippecanoe)

Saw limited action at linebacker as a sophomore. One of only four freshmen to earn letters in 1983. His experience, combined with his quickness, should make him competitive for a starting assignment in the linebacking corps. Mark plays right field on the Otterbein varsity baseball team. He is an accounting/pre-law major.

DAVE SKROBOT

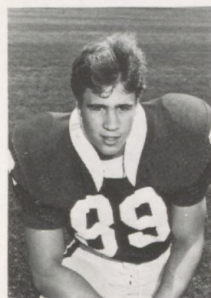

FB 5-10 186 Sr.
Columbus
(Bishop Hartley)

Started at fullback during the last half of 1984. A strong blocker and hard runner, Dave ran for three touchdowns last season, including a 70-yard run against Capital. Possessing a strong competitive desire, Dave is the pre-season choice to start at fullback. He is a life science/pre-med major.

Saw limited duty as a defensive lineman on his way to earning a varsity letter as a freshman last season. Could be used as a defensive lineman or outside linebacker in 1985. Barry is a visual arts major.

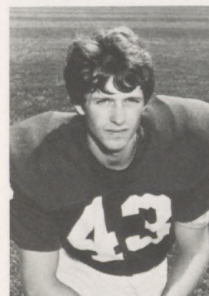

JOHN TIBERI

LG 6-2 201 So.
Columbus
(St. Charles)

Fine, young offensive line prospect. Earned a letter as a freshman in 1984. Should be competitive for a starting position this season. John is a business administration major.

JOHN WATTS

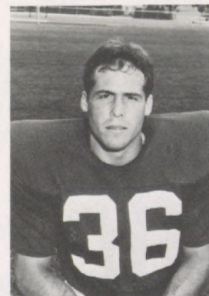

P 6-0 164 Sr.
Greenfield
(McClain)

Starting punter as a walk-on in 1984. Improved vastly as season progressed. Should be a fine punter this season. John is a life science major.

TODD WEIHL

LB 5-11 188 Sr.
Marietta
(Marietta)

A three-year letterman, Todd played both inside and outside linebacker the last two years. A very intense, hard-working individual, will anchor the defense in 1985. Todd is a pre-veterinary major.

CHRIS WHITE

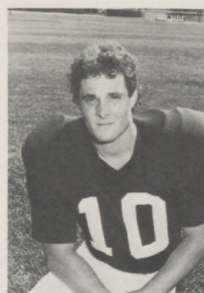

QB 5-11 164 Jr.
Crooksville
(Crooksville)

The Otterbein selection for Most Valuable Freshman in 1983, Chris started every game that year. An injury-plagued sophomore year cut down his effectiveness last season. If he returns to form of his freshman year, he should make vast contributions to the team in 1985. Will battle Jeff Wiles for the starting assignment. Chris is an accounting major.

Has shown flashes of greatness. Highlight of 1984 season was his performance against Mount Union when he connected on 12 of 17 passes for 177 yards including three touchdowns, one of which was a 52-yard strike to Jeff Clark. Hobbled by injuries throughout the second half of the season last year. If he remains injury-free this season, should make it an interesting race for the quarterback position. Jeff is a business administration major.

'85 Outlook

Head coach Jim Moretti inherits plenty of experience as he heads into his first season as head coach of the Saxons. Alfred returns 16 starters—eight each on offense and defense—from last year's 6-4 team.

Leading the charge is sophomore quarterback James Carman, who threw for 1,519 yards and 15 touchdowns last season as a freshman. Three of his favorite receivers—junior halfback Gary Sheely, senior tight end Michael McGowan and senior wide receiver John Yorio—return. Those three accounted for 13 touchdown receptions in 1984. Senior fullback Rick Musacchio leads the ground attack.

Alfred has experienced only three losing seasons in the last 20 years.

Muskingum, runner-up to Baldwin-Wallace for the OAC title and OAC total offense leader last season, enters 1985 on a cautious note. The Fighting Muskies return only four starters each on offense and defense from last year's 9-1 team.

Key returnees include senior offensive tackle Greg Ours, a 1984 first-team All-OAC selection; wide receiver Darrell Hazell, 1984 second team All-OAC; and defensive tackle John Demers, 1984 second team All-OAC.

'85 Outlook

Wittenberg, under second-year head coach Ron Murphy, will look to improve upon last season's 6-4 record. Although the Tigers return six starters each to offense and defense, it appears defense will control Wittenberg's destiny in 1985.

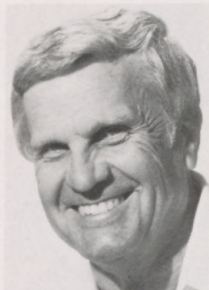

Ranked No. 1 in total defense in the OAC last season, Wittenberg returns five All-OAC players to its defensive unit, including first team selections Mike Jones, junior defensive end, and John Barren, senior safety. Barren led the team with eight interceptions.

Other defensive standouts include second team selections Scott Watters, junior linebacker, and Dwan Johnson, senior defensive halfback. Senior defensive tackle Eric VonStein, an honorable mention, also returns.

'85 Outlook

Gene Slaughter enters his 25th season at the helm of the Capital Crusaders on a rebuilding note. Only 24 lettermen and eight starters—four each on offense and defense—return from last year's 5-5 team.

Senior quarterback Bryan Haenszel will team up with receivers Todd Fentress, a junior, and Kevin Sheets, a senior, to form the nucleus of the Crusader offense. Haenszel missed most of 1984 after suffering an injury in the third game of the season.

Senior defensive back Todd Fisher, selected first team All-OAC last season, will anchor the defense.

Senior wide receiver Chuck Ritzler, 1984 first team All-OAC, will pair up with senior split end Chuck Longnecker. Ritzler had 10 touchdown receptions last season, while Longnecker caught six scoring passes.

Junior quarterback Shane Fulton, 1984 All-OAC honorable mention, will guide the offense for second-year head coach Dick West. Fulton was the third leading passer in the league last season and was second in total offense.

'85 Outlook

Although Baldwin-Wallace may be the team to catch in the OAC, don't count out Mount Union.

The Purple Raiders return 35 lettermen and 16 starters—eight on offense and eight on defense—from last year's 6-4 squad, making it one of head coach Ken Wable's most experienced teams in recent history. The offense will be led by senior quarterback Scott Wolf, a transfer from Ohio State, who led the OAC in passing efficiency last season and was named second team All-OAC.

Six of Mount Union's ten games are at home. Its final three, however, include back-to-back encounters with Wittenberg and Baldwin-Wallace at home and a season-ending trip to Muskingum.

'85 Outlook

Baldwin-Wallace—9-1 overall and 8-0 in the OAC last season—is the team to catch in the league as the Yellow Jackets seek an unprecedented fourth straight OAC title. Although head coach Bob Packard must replace Gregory Award winner and All America Brian Moore at quarterback, he still has returning two All America's: wideout Dave Miller and inside middle linebacker Kert Boedicker.

B-W returns 35 lettermen, including 1984 first team All-OAC selections John Price, running back; Mark Schwertner, right guard; and Phil Trupo, defensive end. In addition, second team selections fullback Joel Steiner and safety Luke Altieri return. Altieri, who battled Moore for the quarterback position two years ago, will start at quarterback this season.

'85 Outlook

Ohio Northern enters the 1985 season with experience on offense. Except for departed quarterback Mike Eicher, the Polar Bears return all starters to the offensive unit from last season's 2-6-1 team. Five starters return on defense.

Second-year head coach Dan Kratzer, employing the pro-set offense, will choose from sophomore Rod Hampton and junior Nate Long at quarterback, while relying on junior Ted Hardoby at wide receiver. The versatile Hardoby averaged 14 yards a catch for his 24 receptions last year and also maintained a 39.3-yard punting average.

'85 Outlook

Last season marked a transition period for Ohio Wesleyan under first-year head coach Steve Farkasovsky, who guided the Battling Bishops to wins in their last two games and a 3-6 record overall.

Ohio Wesleyan returns five starters on offense, including senior tight end Bob Hill, who hauled in 37 receptions for 574 yards and four touchdowns in 1984. He was selected third team Pizza Hut All America. Eight starters return on defense, including seniors strong safety Dean Hood and inside linebacker Dean Cordle, both Pizza Hut All America honorable mentions last season.

'85 Outlook

Marietta's lone victory last season snapped a 41-game winless streak. Third-year head coach Mike Hollway will try to keep that winning attitude alive in 1985 as the Pioneers return seven starters each on offense and defense.

Evan Lipp, selected All-OAC honorable mention last year as a freshman, will pace the offense from his fullback position. Lipp was the third leading rusher in the league last year, averaging 76.6 yards per game. Senior linebacker Phil Schmucker, second team All-OAC last season, will anchor the defense.
