PHOTOGRAVURE MADE OF CAMPUS

Pictures of Present and Proposed
College Buildings and New Church
Drawn by New York Artist.

COPIES TO BE ON SALE

Photographs, Diagrams and Sketches
Made up in Skillful Manner—
Will Take Place of Calendar.

With all of the present college buildings, the new church and several proposed buildings the beautiful birds-eye view of the campus which the college is having made is distinctly Otterbein. This picture is being made, sold and presented to various institutions in order to advertise Otterbein and gave a graphic idea of the advantages and possibilities of the school and its surroundings.

The picture is made from a combination of photographs and drawings. The artist, Mr. Rummel of New York composed the picture from a number of photographs and drawings of the various college buildings. The survey which the late Professor Mills made of the college grounds was also used in placing these photographs in their proper positions. In addition to this President Clippinger made a number of sketches of different parts of the campus. All of these things were employed by the artist in making the first drawings. These were submitted to the college authorities for correction and suggestions. Upon two visits to New York President Clippinger visited the artist's studios and saw the drawings.

The proposed buildings which are shown in the picture are a science hall, a chapel and a men's building. Plans have already been drawn up for the science hall and chapel. Nice sums of money are at hand to begin the work with as soon as the way is opened for completion. Nothing definite is in sight for the men's building.

These new buildings will be placed on the campus near the administration building. The chapel will be just north of the main building and face on Main street. The science hall will face Main street and stand at the north end of the old athletic field. The proposed men's building will be placed at the southern end of the old athletic field and face Park street.

The original drawing by the artist is about six by eight feet in size. From this complete and detail drawing the photogravures are being made by the W. T. Littig Engraving Company of Brooklyn. These pictures will be on heavy vellum paper and will be made in two different sizes.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher Will Lecture Here Friday Evening.

As an editor and lecturer of national reputation, Thomas Brooks Fletcher comes to Westerville on Friday evening to appear on the lecture course program in the college chapel. Mr. Fletcher is starting his tenth year as a lecturer and is the youngest man of similar renown on the American lecture platform. He is said by prominent critics to be the leader of the younger thinkers and lecturers of this generation.

Mr. Fletcher possesses a wonderful personality and holds his audiences from the very start. Reports from lecture course committees that have engaged him class him among the distinguished orators of the present day. He has appeared before large audiences in practically every state in the union with great success. He interests students particularly.

PREPS OUTPLAYED

First Interclass Game of Season Full of Fight and Interest But Lame on Teamwork.

The first contest in the class championship series took place in the gymnasium last Saturday, between the Sophomores and "Preps". Quite a crowd of basketball enthusiasts turned out to cheer for their favorite team. The game displayed little team work for both sides, owing to the unusually close guarding game. The final score was low, owing to the fact that neither team had a good scoring machine.

The game began at 7:30 and was close from start to finish. The "Sophs" scored first, when Barnhart registered a field goal. Bingham followed suit five minutes later and six minutes more Oppelt started by making good a beautiful hair-raising whistler. The "preps" hadn't scored yet, but Haller started things and tagged one. The half ended with the "Sophs" leading 6 to 2.

The second half was furious as the gladiators dove at the ball from all angles. Elliott of the "Preps" managed to register from the middle of the floor, bringing up happy memories of the good old days of "Chuck" Campbell. Peden after three tries made a foul good. The "Sophs" became desperate and by some tall work were able to make their count 10. But now again Haller rolled one in and Miller followed suit. This made the count 10 to 9 and the crowd was frantic as the "preps" fought to overtake their college opponents. The "Sophs" battled to the end and when the whistle blew they had won the game by the score of 14 to 9.

SCHOLARSHIP IS TO BE AWARDED

Interest on Last Year's Gift by J. A.
L. Barnes Becomes Available
for New Scholarship.

THREE CASH PRIZES OFFERED

Prizes Given to Writers of Best Short Stories Based on an Incident in American History.

In the number and kind of prizes and scholarships Otterbein is most fortunate. The latest to be added was that given last June by J. A. L. Barnes of the class of '04, in honor of his late brother, Walter Barnes. This gift of $2,000 is for a short story scholarship. The interest on this sum is to be used annually in the following proportions: $50 for books on the short story to assist the contestants in their work; $40 for the best story; $20 for the next best and $10 for the third best story.

The requirements which are demanded of the story are that it shall be based on some incident in American history, shall be original and of such a character as to clearly emphasize virtue in good citizenship and shall consist of not less than 10,000 or more than 15,000 words. The three judges shall have no connection with any department of Otterbein University or any of the contestants. Copies of the prize winning stories will be placed in the college library. The contestants must be either juniors or seniors who have had at least one year's work in Otterbein.

This scholarship offers splendid opportunities for those who are interested in literary work. The rewards are very nice sums and the training in that sort of work is invaluable. Those who intend to enter into this contest should begin their work immediately. Advice, information and assistance concerning the stories and contest may be obtained from the college administration and the professors in the department of English Literature.

Football Men Given Varsity "O".

Varsity "O" emblems for football were granted by the Athletic Board to twelve men at its last regular session. Those who have played fifteen quarters or merited special recognition were entitled to the foot ball insignia. The following men were awarded letters: Elmo Lingrel, William Counsellor, Clarence Booth, Harley Walters, Rodney Haber, Clifford Schnake, Glenn Ream, Lathon Higelmire, Russell Gilbert, Roy Peden, Roscoe Mase and Alva Sholty.

Prexy Meets Distinguished

Japanese Guest of H. J. Heinz.

President W. G. Clippinger was last week the guest of H. J. Heinz and the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburg on a special tour of inspection and dinner in honor of Baron Ei-Ichi Shibusawa and his party of distinguished Japanese citizens. The presence of these gentlemen in the city of Pittsburgh attracted a great deal of attention. A special booth with the double national colors was prepared for the party at the football game on Thanksgiving Day and a dinner served at the Athletic Club on Friday evening. In one of the addresses at the dinner M. Zumoto, editor of the Tokio Times, speaking unofficially but as he felt in the spirit of the best people of Japan, said there need be but little fear on the part of Americans of any break of friendship with Japan at the present time.

Hardships of War Doctors, Story of Atom and of Wireless Telephony Related.

"We hear so much about the miracles of modern war surgery and of its complex instruments that we are surprised to hear that many doctors who are doing very efficient work on the fields are forced to work with very crude instruments," said Mr. T. H. Ross in a paper on "Medical Appliances in the European Armies." One doctor has been in the service ever since the war commenced and has performed many skillful operations with a pair of common shears, a paring knife, common needle and ordinary thread. The scarcity of chemicals is also very marked. Ether is unknown. Hydrogen peroxide is used rather freely and the Russians have even used quicklime on the superficial wounds. Doctors are in great demand and those on the field are overworked, averaging 150 men per day. Almost the entire output of the medical schools is going to the front. When the war is over and their work has been recognized the doctors will be among the greatest heroes of the war.

C. L. Richey, gave an interesting "History of Atomic and Molecular Weights," starting with the hypothesis of Dalton based on quantitative tests. The consideration of compounds made up of the same substances but in different proportions compelled a more careful consideration of the question and finally to a new theory of valency. The theory was strengthened further by the Law of Combining Volumes of Gay Lussac, Avogadro's Hypothesis, Dulong and Petit's discovery of the relation Hert Speaks to Men About All-around Work in College.

Thursday evening at the Young Men's Christian Association meeting Mr. Lyman Hert gave a very spirited and helpful talk on "The Man in the Midst."

"Every man will at some time exert his influence over his friends or over the community in which he lives," said Mr. Hert. "This influence will be either good or bad." We need men who will be interested in all things they believe to be right, even if it brings criticism or censorship. We, men of Otterbein, should fearlessly uphold our standard of right, and strive against the things we know are wrong. In doing this we will be loved and respected by all good people, and hated by all bad people. We must be very aggressive in extending our influence through right ideas, clean lives, pure thought, and good training. Although we may be defeated in our efforts, it must not put an end to our activity. We will soon leave Otterbein for our life's work. Be a true man, and think out your line of battle in advance. But while here in Otterbein take an active part in everything that is right, in athletics, literary society, Y. M. C. A., Sunday School, and Church.

"Thank You."

How much better and how much more happy we would be, if we would make more use of these two words. Most of us say, "thank you" for favors and kindnesses but our attitude of heart may not really be a thankful one. A friend may be deceived by this, but God knows our hearts, just how we think and feel. How many things do we have to be thankful for? Shut your eyes and think! We should thank Him for all his blessings not just at this Thanksgiving season, but each day of our lives. He wants to be thanked sincerely, thoughtfully, and with our lives by service. The Y. W. C. A. meeting last week was a very helpful one. Quite a number of young men attended, receiving a share of the many good thoughts.

Present Day "Heathen."

How large a class of people this includes! Not only those in other lands but by the word heathen is meant one who is uneducated or irreligious. We think and speak so much about the heathen in other countries but if we stopped to think that we are looked upon as heathen by them we would not use the word so freely. It would be a good thing for us to refrain from using the word "heathen". This subject was discussed fully at Y. W. C. A. last week. Mabel Weik was the leader. Rev. Mr. Burtner visited, and spoke to the girls.

STUDENTS REPRESENTATIVE

Otterbein Folks Come From Many Different States and Belong to Various Religious Faiths.

Students in Otterbein as well as trustees, alumni and friends do not realize the vast amount of territory represented by the present student body. In former years Otterbein's enrollment came from only the immediate vicinity but today it is different. Students come to Westerville from the opposite side of the globe and from all parts of North America.

Although supported to a great extent by the United Brethren Church and the leading educational institution of that denomination yet the student body includes many of various other denominational faiths. These people are in many cases friends of United Brethren people and come at their suggestions and invitations. In all instances, however, the advantages of Otterbein were recognized.

These facts show the marked growth in the scope and influence of this institution which has taken place in the last few years. With it all, Otterbein is just on the verge of even greater expansion and development. The future is brighter and more promising than ever before.

The following statistics show the college classification of the present enrollment. The tables do not include the students of Martin Boehm Academy and the Summer School.

ALUMNI ARE IN DAYTON Y. M.

Otterbein Graduates Are Doing Important Work in Educational Department of Gem City Association.

With F. O. Clements, '98, the Chief Chemist, National Cash Register Company as Chairman of the Educational Committee; T. H. Nelson, '13, Educational Secretary; R. H. Huber, Ex '14, Associate Educational Secretary, the Dayton Y. M. C. A. Night School cannot help booming.

The industrial classes are larger than they have been for several years in spite of strong competition with the public night school. Commercial courses are very popular, classes in higher accounting, law, salesmanship, efficiency, advertising, bookkeeping and stenography with very competent instructors are filled to maximum capacity.

The work of a Y. M. C. A. Educational Department consists largely in pioneering new classes. After the need of a certain class is displayed the city takes it up by starting a course in their night school free. However, because of smaller classes and individual instruction at the Y. M. C. A.; also the very fact that it costs a minimum fee brings men and boys from the free night school to the Association. Men would sooner pay for their instruction and have the management obligated to them so that they can demand service.

The chief work of pioneering being carried on at present is among the foreigners. In the different school buildings all over the city there are classes of a dozen or more young people of all nationalities conducted by the Y. M. C. A. Educational Department. Some of these classes are taught by Otterbein men. E. E. Spatz, '14; C. E. Burris, '15, Forrest Overholt, '15; J. A. Brenne-man, '15; A. S. Wolfe, '15; J. S. Angle, '14, and Orville Briner, '14, who are attending the Bonebrake Theological Seminary are doing fine work for these people who are so eager to learn English.

Chemistry is conducted by H. E. Williams, '05, assistant to Mr. Clements at the National Cash Register Company and son of J. R. Williams, Westerville. The ten men in his class have not missed a single night out of twenty sessions in the last ten weeks. This regular attendance is a notable fact regarding the school. Each man is working for knowledge and advancement realizing the opportunity which he has and sacrificing entertainment for the chance to get into class and laboratory or whatever his work may be.

Tryouts Postponed.

Tryouts for the girls' debate squad will not be held until after the holiday vacation instead of Saturday morning, December 11, as announced before. The girls' debates will not be held until some time in April. The exact date for the tryouts will be published as soon as it is decided upon by those in charge of this work.

This gospel of happiness is one which everyone should lay to heart.
Set out with the invincible determination that you will bear burdens, and not impose them. Whether the sun shines or the rain falls, show a glad face to your neighbor. If you must fall in life's battle, you can at least fall with a smile on your face.
Wellspring.

December 15.

Are you going to support the Minstrel Show? That is a question which you must answer in the immediate future. This new kind of entertainment is given for the benefit of the Athletic Association. The proceeds will be used in the development of tennis courts.

The show will be a good one.
An evening of fine fun and entertainment is promised. It will be a case of "have to laugh." Those thirteen black face comedians will be a whole show in themselves. Besides this the second part of the program will be given by "Abe" Glunt with his magic stunt; Ream with a talking picture act; Durant and his all-star band; Professor Fritz and Company in a funny face.

The cause is a good one, and the entertainment strictly high class. A large crowd with their "funny bones" ready to be tickled should be in the chapel seats next Wednesday evening, December 15. Will you be there to see those O. U. Hambone Minstrels?

Get Busy.

At the meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Thursday evening there were but four cabinet members present. This meeting was one which would have meant much to each one who was absent.
The leader discussed in a splendid way concerning the requirements of a "man among men." The men who are members of the cabinet are expected to occupy such positions in college activities.

This neglect of duty on at the last meeting brings to our attention even greater short comings on the part of these men. The work is not progressing as it should. Some officers and committee chairmen have failed to bring full reports to cabinet meetings and in some instances intentional absences from such meetings have been observed. The work of the Y. M.
C. A. has been neglected by others altogether.

The splendid spirit which is exhibited in so many of our college activities makes these failures all the more deplorable. The majority of students are supporting things in an heroic manner. It is up to those upon whom responsibility has been placed to lead out. If they are unable to "hit the pace" they should slide down and out.

"Gym."

Men and women attend college in order that they may continue their studies and receive a broader vision of life and its possibilities. In a mad desire to get all out of a course in college many are likely to neglect the proper care of their physical beings. This is the height of folly and should not be allowed. We should use intelligence in regard to our bodies. We should take exercise of the right kind, giving our mental powers a chance to relax.

Otterbein students have the advantage of physical work but very few see these opportunities. The number out for the various athletic teams is small and the gymnasium classes are not attended as they should be. Fully three times the present number of students should enroll in the regular "gym" classes.
Besides the students many professors should indulge in this kind of recreation for a period of a few hours each week. Greater interest should be taken in all kinds of athletic and physical work.

If you are not taking some kind of regular exercise you owe it to yourself to get out for "gym" this week.
See how it feels to work a little honest sweat out upon your forehead, join in a little yelling and then enjoy a good refreshing shower. You will have twice the amount of "pep" for your college work, eat your meals with greater relish, sleep with greater comfort to your bed fellow and wear a "smile that won't come off."

The Bubble Breaks.

Basket ball season has opened up with a "boom." The "pill" is being caged and the teams are in action.
The class series is in full blast and competition for places on the Varsity is hot. All players are working hard to make the season a success in every way. Are you doing your share?
Are you boosting the team, the class series? Have you purchased your season ticket for the boys' and girls' games?

The interclass tickets are good for fourteen games this year. Every one of those games promise to be a good one. All the teams are strong and about evenly matched. Some real battles are going to be staged before the championship is decided. The person who fails to see one of these games is missing something worth while. If you have not purchased your ticket or tickets yet get them

this week. Don't fail to miss another game this season.

No Whistling, But—?

Some strange situations exist here
at Otterbein—one of these concerns our social life. On the one hand both the girls and the boys are given rules governing the proper conduct at and around Cochran Hall. And then upon the other hand it is impossible to carry these regulations out.

We have reference to the practice of the boys in seeing the ladies at the dormitory. Whistling and communication from the windows is absolutely prohibited and yet no one is there to answer the door bell. We don't know what to do in order to see a particular young lady? She will not appear at the sound of a whistle
and yet no one will call her.

Such a condition is absolutely unfair. It puts the girls to a great disadvantage, to say nothing of the hardship of the male sex. Many a gallant young man has splendid intentions and the charming maidens have fond hopes but the absence of a door keeper makes the "case" an impossible one. A situation so imperative as this should receive the prompt attention of those in authority.

It would be wise if some folks would watch their conduct during the daily chapel services a little more carefully. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Myself and I.

Myself and I close friends have been Since way back where we started.
We two, amid life's thick and thin,
Have labored single hearted.
In every season, wet or dry,
Or fair or stormy weather,
We've joined our hands, myself and I.
And just worked on together.

Though many friends have been as kind

And lovely as a brother
Myself and I have come to find
Our best friends in each other,
For while to us obscure and small
May seem the task they bend to,
We've learned our fellowmen have all
They and themselves can tend to.

Myself and I, and we alone,
You and yourself, good neighbor,
Each in his self determined zone
Must find his field of labor.
That prize that men have called,
"Success"

Has joy not pleasure in it
To satisfy the soul unless Myself and I shall win it.

between the specific heat and molecular weights furnished a method of determining the atomic weight of many substances which were before unknown. From the very first the search for a more extended knowledge of the atom has led to great discoveries which affected the whole field of chemistry.

"Wireless Telephony," was discussed by R. D. Bennett, a teacher of science in the local high school and an Otterbein Alumnus. The successful transportation of the human voice through the air from Arlington to San Francisco and Honolulu which took place about ten weeks ago was one of the big events of the century. European experimenters had proved the feasibility of the plan and Marconi had even constructed a machine which would work, but it remained for the American engineers to first convince the world. The wireless telephone is much more complicated than the "telegraph for all of the variations of the human voice must be reproduced. Consequently the apparatus used is rather complicated. When atmospheric conditions are good the wireless will carry the voice more distinctly and more naturally than the common telephone.

At the recent monthly meeting of the Columbus Section of the American Chemical Society, Julius Steiglitz, Head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Chicago, gave a lecture, illustrated by experiments, on the subject "The Electric Theory of Oxidation." The general trend of the lecture was that hot combustion of fuel is very wasteful; therefore if an electric current could be produced at cold combustion it would be non-wasteful and more efficient. Professor L. A. Weinland is a member of this society and attended the meeting.

Abraham Cooper, the father of Mrs. Resler, died last Friday. He was the youngest of nine children, and was born March the 29th, 1821. He would have been 92 years old at his next birthday. For seventy years he has been a resident of Westerville and for thirty years either a member of the council or of the Board of Education. He was for many years identified with the college and his home has always been a favorite with the student body. Mr. Cooper always worked for a greater and better Westerville. He will not only be missed by his family but by the town as a whole.

ALUMNALS.

'88. Seymour B. Kelley and wife left their home in Dayton last week for a trip through the west. They expect to be gone for two months and will visit all important and interesting points in the west.

'13. Mr. and Mrs. John Snavely (nee Helen Ditmer), of Massillon, Ohio announce the birth of a son, John, on November 18. The lad is strong and promises to be a football player of the same caliber as his father. Mr. Snavely teaches mathematics and directs athletics in the Massillon High School.

'15. S. R. Converse, who is an inspector in the Bethlehem Steel Corporation in Dayton went to Cincinnati on Thanksgiving to see the Cincinnati-Miami football game. D. R. Weber accompanied him.

'11. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williamson (nee Rhea Parlette) entertained the Williamson family at Cleveland at their home in Dayton on Thanksgiving. Mary Williamson, '15, who is on the staff at the public library in Cleveland, was present with the other members of the family. Mr. Williamson is the director of the music at the First U. B. church in Dayton, where Dr. J. G. Huber, '88, is pastor. His trained choir of fifty voices is recognized as the very best in the city. On the Sunday evening following Thanksgiving his choir gave the great oratorio, "The Holy City" before a very large audience. Besides directing this chorus he is one of the leading teachers of voice and is very popular in all music circles.

'15. Ruth Koontz has recently been appointed at the head of the English department in the high school at West Alexandria, Ohio.

'10. M. A. Ditmer has had an exceptionally fine football season with Piqua High School team this year. He has won every one of the ten games on his schedule. His team has scored 328 points and have had but 40 points scored against them. The team which Mr. Ditmer has coached this year is practically to a man the same as that of last year which lost every game on its schedule.

'10. Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Custer of Dayton, Ohio on Thanksgiving Day and took away their son, Charles, who was eighteen months old.

'15. C. F. Bronson, who is teaching and coaching at Nowata, Oklahoma, had a very successful football season. His team won seven out of nine games.

The following alumni spent their vacations in Westerville: C. E. Gifford, '15, of Upper Sandusky; Stewart Nease, '15, of Coolsville; H. C. Plott, '15, of Fostoria; Miss Edith Bennett, '12, of Barnsville; Miss Mildred Cook, '14, of Oak Harbor; Frank Shepherd, Ex. '13, of Canton.

'95. W. B. Gantz, of Detroit, Michigan, made a short visit in Westville, last Friday. Mr. Gantz was one of the speakers at the National Reform Association convention held in Pittsburgh, December fifth. Christian Citizenship was the general theme of the convention.

'15. C. M. Campbell, who is teaching and coaching at Harpers Ferry, spent his Thanksgiving vacation with his father and sisters in Westerville. "Chuck" had a very good foot ball season, winning six out of ten games.

Twenty-six of Otterbein's alumni and friends gathered at the Rike-Kumler dining room on Saturday, November 27, for luncheon. The affair was very informal and made a pleasant "get together" for Otterbein boosters in the Miami Valley. Those sitting at the table were: F. H. Rike, I. G. Kumler, Park E. and Bertha R. Wineland, Elizabeth Richards, Park Harbison, Robert Kline, E. E. Spatz, A. S. Wolfe, Maude John, Inez Staub, Ruth Koontz, Margaret Marshall, Charlotte Kurtz, R. H. Huber, T. H. Nelson, F. E. Williams, H. L. Stephens, L. M. Troxell, W. R. Huber, D. R. Weber, Virgil Parent, Alice Hall, Glenna Stafford, C. R. Hall, and L. E. Smith.

'10. Fred W. Fansher and wife spent a few days at Thanksgiving time with Mr. Fansher's parents in Dayton.

'08. Jamse H. Weaver, head of the department of Mathematics in the High school at West Chester, Pennsylvania, has been instrumental in establishing a Mathematics Club in that school. An important part of their work is the study of men renowned for their mathematical achievements. About twenty-five students have joined the organization and considerable enthusiasm is being manifested.

'00. A. L. Gantz, of Sandusky, Ohio, made a short visit in Westerville the latter part of last week. Mr. Gantz is in business in Sandusky.

'12. Miss Edith Coblenz, who is teaching at Wilmington, Ohio, has been at home the past week on account of an epidemic of scarlet fever.

COCHRAN NOTES

Two new girls dining at the Hall, Mrs. Noble and Louise.

Minnie Dietz was the next to have a birthday and a surprise it was of course. It's all the style to have a cake and candles and surprises now-a-days at the Hall, or else the occasion isn't a real birthday. Minnie made the birthday, Alice the surprise, and all the rest, the eating.

My but Mabel Wilson's suitcase was heavy when she came back Monday. Yours would be too if it were full of everything from chicken to cookies. But Mabel's heart is as big as her suitcase was heavy, and she spread her "load" abroad and made some folks glad.

Do you wear "Holeproof" Hosiery? They're guaranteed to wear well. Irwin's Shoe Store.—Adv.

"Ninety-four, Rah!!" The dining room rang with the cry after Mrs. A. T. Howard, who spent Wednesday in Westerville, made a speech to the Cochran Hall girls. Mrs. Howard carried the spirit of her college days to us so enthusiastically that every one agreed, "There're no flies on the class of '94."

Christmas seals, post cards and booklets. Bender & Rappold.—Adv.

You've heard about it—Vida Whelm's "Push". When the postman came Friday he could scarcely carry his load, so numerous were the packages for Vida. But what was in them was more interesting than the packages. Space forbids that the contents be here enumerated—it is sufficient to say, "Vida had some feast."

Wanted—A young woman to sell high grade line of Hosiery from manufacturer to wearer. For details see local column.—Adv.

What a good time some of us had in Clair Kintigh's room Friday night! One of those "pushes" given for everybody by everybody.

Ermal gave a good "send off" the night before vacation. But everybody who was in it had to bring an egg. Despite the frailty of the above mentioned no accidents occurred and the "Push" was a grand success.

The New Sophomore Bibles are here. Bender & Rappolds.—Adv.

New Mezzanine floor opened on Thursday night! Artistic pictures graced the walls while pillows and chairs made convenient resting places for weary third and fourth floorers. The effect was beautiful but because of the popularity of the place in other words because of the congestion in the hallway, this delightful new addition to our establishment had to be removed the next day. The furniture was kindly lent by the Misses Blackmore and Noel—the work donated by "Us & Co."

Football Manager Gives Final Report for Season.

Manager A. L. Glunt of the 1915 football team has given his full report for the season. The loss on the season amounts to about $286.00. This exceeded the amount which was allowed by the budget committee due to the poor support which was received at the Heidelberg and Wesleyan games. Mr. Glunt was required to purchase a great amount of new material and equipment for the team because so much was stolen last year. This has all been turned over to Manager Sechrist for next year. By careful management next year there should be no loss on the season at all. Manager Glunt exercised splendid care and judgement in all business during the season and deserves the highest commendation for his efforts and success.

The True Gambler.

Play the game and play it hard,
Though your luck looks glum to you;

Back the worth of every card

And, if cards won't come to you,
Don't give over to despair,
Play as though the card were there!

For the poorest hand of all

May assure the game to you;

If your bluff don't get a call

It is just the same to you

As if luck to you should bring

Four big aces and a king.

What if some one calls? Ah well,

You must buy a stack again;

Luck may leave you for a spell,

But it must come back again,

If you play with all your wit,

All your skill and nerve and grit.

Life's the game—so play it hard,

Dare the woe or mirth of it;

Back up each and every card

To the utmost worth of it.

Pikers find existence tame

If you'd live—why, play the game!
