PHOTOGRAVURE
MADE OF CAMPUS

Pictures of Present and Proposed College Buildings and New Church Drawn by New York Artist.

COPIES TO BE ON SALE

Photographs, Diagrams and Sketches Made up in Skillful Manner—Will Take Place of Calendar.

With all of the present college buildings, the new church and several proposed buildings the beautiful bird's-eye view of the campus which the college is having made is distinctly Otterbein. This view is being made, sold and presented to various institutions in order to advertise Otterbein and give a graphic idea of its advantages and possibilities of the school and its surroundings.

The picture is made from a combination of photographs and drawings. The artist, Mr. Dimmel of New York, composed the picture from a number of photographs and drawings of the various college buildings. The survey which the late Professor Mills made of the college grounds was also used in placing these photographs in their proper positions. In addition to this President Clippinger made a number of sketches of different parts of the campus. All of these things were employed by the artist in making the first drawings. These were submitted to the college authorities for correction and suggestions. Upon two visits to New York President Clippinger visited the artist's studios and saw the drawings.

The proposed buildings which are shown in the picture scientifically represent the chapel and a men's building. Plans have already been drawn up for the science hall and chapel. New sums of money are at hand to begin the work with as soon as the way is opened for completion. Nothing definite is in sight for the men's building.

These new buildings will be placed on the campus near the administration building. The chapel will be just north of the main building and face Main Street. The science hall will face Main Street and stand at the north end of the old athletic field. The proposed men's building will be placed at the southern end of the old athletic field and face Park Street.

The original drawing by the artist is about six feet high by seven feet wide. Pieces of the completed and detail drawing the photogravures are being made by the W. T. Littig Engraving Company of Brooklyn. These pictures will be on heavy vellum paper and will be made in two different sizes.

SCHOLARSHIP IS TO BE AWARDED

Interest on Last Year's Gift by J. A. L. Barnes Becomes Available for New Scholarship.

THREE CASH PRIZES OFFERED

Prixes Given '15 Writers of Best Short Stories Based on an Incident in American History.

In the number and kind of prizes and scholarships Otterbein is most fortunate. The latest to be added was given last June by J. A. L. Barnes of the class of '94, in honor of his late brother, Walter Barnes. This gift of $3,000 is for a short story submitted in the best essay of the essay. The regularity of this sum is to be used annually in the following proportions: $10 for books on the short story to assist the contestants in their work; $40 for the best story; $20 for the next best and $10 for the third best story.

The requirements which are demanded of the story are that it shall be based on some incident in American history, shall be original and of such a character as to clearly emphasize virtue in good citizenship and shall consist of not less than 10,000 or more than 15,000 words. The three judges shall have no connection with any department of Otterbein University or any of the contestants. Copies of the prize winning stories will be placed in the college library. The contestants must be either juniors or seniors who have had at least one year's work in Otterbein.

This scholarship offers splendid opportunities for those who are interested in literary work. The rewards are very nice sums and the training in that sort of work is invaluable. Those who intend to enter into this contest should begin their work immediately. Advice, information and assistance concerning the stories and contests may be obtained from the college administration and the professors in the department of English literature.

Football Men Given Varsity "O".

Varsity "O" emblems for football were granted by the Athletic Board to twelve men at its last regular meeting. Those who have played fifteen quarters or merited special recognition were entitled to the foot ball insignia. The following names must have satisfied the following requirements: Elmo Lingle, William Connell, Clarence Booth, Harley Walters, Rodney Heber, Clifford Schmoke, Glenn Ream, Lathem, Russell Gilbert, Boy Peck, Roscoe Mase and Alva Sholtz.

President W. G. Clippinger was last week the guest of H. J. Heinz and the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh on a special tour consisting of three visits to various parts of the city and dinner in honor of Baron Ei-Ichi Shibusawu and his party of distinguished Japanese citizens. The interests of these gentlemen in the city of Pittsburgh attracted a great deal of attention. A special booth with the double national colors was prepared for the party at the football game on Thanksgiving Day and a dinner served at the Athletic Club on Friday evening. In one of the addresses of the dinner Mr. Zunomo, editor of the Tokio Times, speaking unhappily but as he felt in the spirit of the best people of Japan, said there need be but little fear on the part of Americans of any break of friendship with Japan at the present time.

PARING KNIFE USED

Hardships of War Doctors, Story of Atom and of Wireless Telephony Related.

"We hear so much about the miracles of modern war surgery and of the complex instruments that we are surprised to hear that many doctors who are doing very efficient work on the field are forced to work with very crude instruments," said Mr. T. H. Ross in a paper on "Medical Appliances in the European Armies." One doctor has been in the service ever since the war commenced and has performed 250 operations with a pair of common shears, a paring knife, common needle and ordinary thread. The scarcity of medical supplies made him seek other means of doing his work, and he has been forced to work with nothing more than a knife.

The second half was far as the Gladiators stove at the ball at all angles. All of the "Preps" managed to register from the middle of the field a series of good old days of "Chuck" Campbell. Peared after three tries a foul good. The "Sophia" became dangerous and by some tall work were able to make their count 19. But now again Haller rolled one in and Miller followed suit. This made the tall and the crowd was frantic as the "preps" fought to overtake their college opponents. The "Sophia" battled to the end and when the whistle blew the contest was won the game by the score of 14 to 9.

Hert Speaks to Men About All-around Work in College.

Thursday evening at the Young Men's Christian Association meeting Mr. Lyman Hert gave a very spirited and helpful talk on "The Man in the Midst."

"Every man will at some time exert his influence over his friends or over the community in which he lives," said Mr. Hert. "This influence will be either good or bad." We need men who will be interested in all things they believe to be right, even if it brings criticism or censure. We, men of Otterbein, should fearlessly uphold our standard of right, and strive against the things we know are wrong. In doing this we will be loved and respected by all good people, and hatred by all bad people. We must be very aggressive in extending our influence through right ideas, clean lives, pure thought, and good training. Although we may be defeated in our efforts, it will not put an end to our work. We will soon leave Otterbein for our life's work. Be a true man, and think out your line of battle in advance. But while here in Otterbein take an active part in everything that is right, in athletics, literary society, Y. M. C. A., Sunday School, and Church.

"Thank You."

How much better and how much more happy we would be, if we would make more use of these two words. Most of us say, "thank you" for favors and kindnesses but our attitude of heart may not really be a thankful one. A friend may be deceived by this, but God knows our hearts, just how we think and feel. How many things do we have to be thankful for? Shut your eyes and think! We should thank Him for all his blessings not just at this Thanksgiving season, but each day of our lives. He wants to be thanked sincerely, thoughtfully, and with our lives by service. The Y. M. C. A. meeting last week was a very helpful one. Quite a number of young men attended, receiving a share of the many good thoughts.

Present Day "Heathen."

How large a class of people this includes! Not only those in other lands but by the word heathen is meant one who is uneducated or irreligious. We think and speak so much about the heathen in other countries but if we stop to think that we are looked upon as heathen by them we would not use the word freely. It would be a good thing for us to refrain from using the word "heathen." This subject was discussed fully at Y. W. C. A. last week. Mabel Weik was the leader. Rev. Mr. Buntur, visited and spoke to the girls.

STUDENTS REPRESENTATIVE

Otterbein Folks Come From Many Different States and Belong to Various Religious Faiths.

Students in Otterbein as well as trustees, alumni and friends do not realize the vast amount of territory represented by the present student body. In former years Otterbein's enrollment came from only the immediate vicinity but today it is different. Students come to Westerville from the opposite side of the globe and from all parts of North America. Although supported to a great extent by the United Brethren Church and the leading educational institution of that denomination yet the student body includes many of various other denominational faiths. These people are in many cases friends of United Brethren denominations who come at their suggestions and invitations. In all instances, however, the advantages of Otterbein were recognized.

These facts show the marked growth in the scope and influence of this institution which has taken place in the last few years. With it all Otterbein is just on the verge of even greater expansion and development. The future is brighter and more promising than ever before.

The following statistics show the college classification of the present enrollment. The table does not include the students of Martin Boehm Academy and the Summer School.

Oberlin.—Oberlin College and Ohio State University, both have representatives on board Henry Ford's 'dug 200'
ALUMNI ARE IN DAYTON Y. M. C. A.

Otterbein Graduates Are Doing Important Work in Educational Department of Gem City Association.

With F. O. Clements, '96, the Chief Chemist, National Cash Register Company as Chairman of the Educational Committee; T. H. Nelson, '13, Educational Secretary; R. H. Huber, Ex '14, Associate Educational Secretary, the Dayton Y. M. C. A. Night School cannot help booming.

The industrial classes are larger than they have been for several years, in spite of strong competition with the public night school. Commercial courses are very popular, classes in higher accounting, law, salesmanship, efficiency, advertising, bookkeeping and stenography with very competent instructors are filled to maximum capacity.

The work of a Y. M. C. A. Educational Department consists largely in pioneering new classes. After the need of a certain class is displayed, the city takes it up by starting a course in their night school free. However, because of smaller classes and individual instruction at the Y. M. C. A.; also the very fact that it costs a minimum fee brings men and boys from the free night school to the Association. Men would sooner pay for their instruction and have the management obligated to them, that they can demand service.

The chief work of pioneering being carried on at present is among the foreigners. In the different school buildings all over the city there are classes of a dozen or more young people of all nationalities conducted by the Y. M. C. A. Educational Department. Some of these classes are taught by Otterbein men: E. E. Spatz, '14; C. E. Burris, '13, Forrest Overholtz, '15; J. A. Brennenman, '15, A. S. Wolfe, '15; J. S. Eingen, '14, and Orville Briner, '14, who are attending the Bonebrake Theological Seminary are doing fine work for these people who are so eager to learn English.

Chemistry is conducted by H. F. Williams, '96, assistant to Mr. Clements at the National Cash Register Company and son of J. R. Williams, Westerville. The ten men in his class have not missed a single night in twenty sessions in the last ten weeks. This regular attendance is a notable fact regarding the school. Each man is working for knowledge and advancement realizing the opportunity which he has and sacrificing entertainment for the chance to get into a class and laboratory or whatever his work may be.

Tryouts Postponed.

Tryouts for the girls' debate squad will not be held until after the holidays and not until the new semester of classes opens in January. The schedule for the tryouts will be published as soon as it is decided upon by those in charge of this work.

Gymnasium Work Begins.

During the past week regular work in the "gym" classes has opened. Intense interest is being shown by those who have enrolled for the work under the direction of Coach Martia. The schedule of classes and practice hours for both the Varsity and class basketball teams is as follows:

Ladies' Gym Class—Wednesday and Friday, 3 p. m.

Men's Gym Class—Tuesday and Thursday, 2 p. m.

Varsity Basketball—Monday and Wednesday, 6:30 p. m.

Men's Leaders Corps—Wednesday, 1:30 p. m.

Ladies' Class Basketball:

Seniors—Monday, 3:45 p. m.

Juniors—Monday, 3 p. m.

Sophomores—Thursday, 2 p. m.

Freshmen—Monday, 8:15 p. m.

Academy—Tuesday, 5 p. m.

Men's Class Basketball:

Seniors—Saturday, 11 a. m.

Juniors—Saturday, 8:45 a. m.

Sophomores—Saturday, 9:30 a. m.

Freshmen—Saturday, 10:15 a. m.

Academy—Saturday, 8 a. m.

All men must take a physical examination.

Only those in gymnasium or basketball clothing are allowed on gymnasium floor. Visitors are invited to the balcony.

Interclass Basketball Schedule.

Dec. 4—Sophomores vs. Academy.

Dec. 11—Freshmen vs. Seniors.

Dec. 18—Seniors vs. Academy.

Jan. 8—Sophomores vs. Seniors.

Jan. 8—Freshmen vs. Academy (Girls).

Jan. 15—Juniors vs. Seniors.

Jan. 20—Juniors vs. Academy.

Jan. 29—Seniors vs. Sophomores (Girls).

Feb. 2—Freshmen vs. Academy.

Feb. 5—Winners in Freshman—Academy game vs. Juniors (Girls).

Feb. 26—Freshmen vs. Juniors.

This schedule will be subject to slight changes throughout the season by the Athletic Board and basketball management. Tickets for the entire series of fourteen games are on sale at seventy-five cents.

Girls' Manager Elected.

Rowena Thompson has been elected girls' basket ball manager by the Athletic Board. Miss Thompson will be in charge of the inter-class girls' series and also manage the varsity team for the women.

Recital Tomorrow Night.

Otterbein's School of Music will give their regular December recital at Lambert Hall tomorrow night at eight o'clock. Some excellent numbers are promised at this musical. The program will be composed of piano quartets, duets and solos and vocal duets and solos. There will be several special violin numbers. All are cordially invited to attend this program.

This gospel of happiness is one which everyone should try to carry out. Set out with an invincible determination that you will bear burdens, and not impose them. Whether the sun shines or the rain falls, show a glad face to your neighbor. If you must fall in life's battle, you can at least fall with a smile on your face. Wellsprings.

December 15.

Are you going to support the Minstrel Show? That is a question which you must answer in the immediate future. This new kind of entertainment is given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The proceeds will be used in the development of tennis courts. The show will be a good one. An evening show, light music, and an entertainment is promised. It will be a case of "have to laugh." Those thirteen black face comedians will be a whole lot of fun for us all. Besides the second part of the program will be given by "Abbe" Glunt with his magic walls; Rambler with a talking picture set; Duran and his all-star band; Professor Fritz and Company in a funny face. The cause is a good one, and the entertainment strikingly high class. A large crowd with their "funny bones" ready to be tickled should be in the chapel Tuesday evening. Remember it. Will you be there to see those O. U. Hambone Minstrels?

Get busy.

At the meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Thursday evening there were but four cabinet members. This meeting was one which would have meant much to each one who was absent. The leader discussed in a splendid way the requirements of a "man among men." The men who are members of the cabinet are expected to occupy such positions in college activities.

The neglect of duty on the last meeting brings to our attention even greater short comings on the part of these men. The work is not progressing as it should. Some officers and committee chairman have failed to bring full reports to cabinet meetings and in some instances intentional absences from such meetings have been observed. The work of the Y. M. C. A. has been neglected by others altogether.

The splendid spirit which is exhibited in so many of our college activities makes these failures all the more deplorable. The majority of students are supporting things in an heroic manner. It is up to those upon whom responsibility has been placed to lead out. If they are unable to "hit the game" they should slide down and out.

"Gym." Men and women attend college in order that they may continue their studies and receive a broad vision of life and its possibilities. In a mad desire to get all out of a course in college many are likely to neglect the proper care of their physical beings. This is the height of folly and should not be allowed. We should use intelligence in regard to our bodies. We should take exercise of the right kind, giving our mental powers a chance to relax. Other students have the advantage of physical work but very few take these opportunities. The number of the various athletic teams is small and the gymnastic classes are not attended as they should be. Fully three times the present number of students should enroll in the regular gym classes. Besides the students many professors should indulge in this kind of recreation for a period of a few hours a week. Greater interest should be taken in all kinds of athletic and physical work.

If you are not taking some kind of regular exercise you owe it to yourself to get out for "gym" this week. See how is works to walk a little slower, sweat out upon your forehead, join in a little yelling and then enjoy a good refreshing shower. You will have twice the amount of "pep" for your college work, eat your meals with greater relish, sleep with greater comfort to your bed fellow and wear a "smile that won't come off."

The Bubble Breaks. Basket ball season has opened up with a "boom." The "pill" is being caged and the team are in action. The class series is in full blast and competition for places on the Varsity is hot. All players are working hard to make the season a success in every sense. Are you doing your share? Are you boosting the class series? Have you purchased your season ticket for the "boys" and girls' games?

The interclass tickets are good for fourteen games this year. Every one of those games promises to be a good one. All the teams are strong and about evenly matched. Some real battles are going to be staged before the championship is decided. The person who fails to see one of these games is missing something worth while. If you have not purchased your ticket or tickets yet get them this week. Don't fail to miss another game this season.

No Whistling. But—?

Some strange situations exist here at Otterbein—one of these concerns our social life. On the one hand both the girls and the boys are given rules governing the proper conduct at and around Cochran Hall. Then upon the other hand it is impossible to carry these regulations out.

We have reference to the practice of the boys in seeing the ladies at the dormitory. Whistling and communication from the window is absolutely prohibited and yet no one is there to answer the door bell. We don't know what to do in order to see a particular young lady. She will not appear at the sound of a whistle and yet no one will call her.

Such a condition is absolutely unfair. It gets the girls to a great disadvantage to say nothing of the hardship of the male sex. Many a gallant young man has splendid intentions and the charming maidens have fond hopes but the absence of a door keeper makes the "case" an impossible one. A situation so imperative this year should receive the prompt attention of those in authority.

It would be wise if some folks would watch their conduct during the daily chapel sears being held in a little more carefully. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Myself and I.

Myself and I close friends have been since way back where we started. We two, amid life's thick and thin, Have labored single hearted.

In every season, wet or dry, Of fair or stormy weather.

We've joined hands, myself and I. And just worked together.

Though many friends have been as kind. And lovely as a brother. Myself and I have come to find Our best friends in each other, For while to us obscure and small May seem the task that we accomplish. We've learned our fellowmen have all They and themselves can tend to Myself and I, and we alone, You and yourself, good neighbor, Each in his self determined zone Must find his field of labor. That prize that men have called, "Success." Has joy not pleasure in it To satisfy the soul unless Myself and I shall win it.

between the specific heat and molecular weights furnished a method of determining the atomic weight of many substances which were before unknown. In the very first the search for a more extended knowledge of the atom has led to great discoveries which affected the whole field of chemistry.

"Wireless Telegraphy," was discussed by R. D. Bennet, a teacher of science in the local high school and an Otterbein Alumnus. The successful transmission of the human voice through the air from Arlington to San Francisco and Honolulu which took place about ten weeks ago was one of the big events of the century.

European experimenters had proved the feasibility of the plan and many one had constructed a machine which would work, but it remained for the American engineers to first convince the world. The wireless telegraphy is much more complicated than the telephone, and for all of the variations of the human voice must be reproduced. Consequently the apparatus used is rather complicated. When atmospheric conditions are good the wireless will carry the voice more distinctly and more naturally than the common telephone.

The small one 8 1/2x11 inches is particularly suited to individual use and will make excellent Christmas gifts for Otterbein folks. The large pictures 11x14 inches in size will be used in high school and Y. M. C. A. lobbies and reading rooms. The small pictures will sell for one dollar with an additional charge of twenty-five cents if framed. The large pictures unframed will sell for two dollars and framed for two dollars and seventy-five cents. These sums cover the cost of production and the pictures are being made by the college just as the calendar which has been published in former years.

Proxy to Address Commission
On Church and Country Life.

On Friday afternoon, December 10, President Clippinger will address the first convention of the Commission on Church and Country Life in America in Columbus. The problems which will be discussed at this conference are all of special importance to those interested in the religious aspects of country life.

This convention will be addressed by some of the greatest religious leaders in the country, especially those interested in the one phase of Christian work which deals with the people in the rural districts. President Woodrow Wilson is scheduled to speak at the Friday evening session which will be held in Memorial Hall. A limited number of tickets for this meeting have been obtained by President Clippinger. Those desiring to attend should call at the college office on Thursday.

Russell Declamation Contest

At the recent monthly meeting of the Columbus Section of the American Chemical Society, Julius Steiglitz, Head of the Department of Chemistry at Yale, University of Chicago, gave a lecture, illustrated by experiment, on the subject "The Atomic Theory of Oxidation." The general trend of the lecture was that hot combustion of fuel is very wasteful therefore if an electric current could be produced at cold combustion it would be non wasteful and more efficient. Professor L. A. Phelps is a member of this society and attended the meeting.

Abraham Cooper, the father of Mrs. Kesler, died last Friday. He was the youngest of nine children, and was born March the 29th, 1839. He would have been 92 years old at his next birthday. For seventy years he has been a resident of Westerville and for thirty years either a member of the council or of the Board of Education. He was for many years identified with the college, has always been a favorite with the student body. Mr. Cooper always worked for a greater and better Westerville. He will not only be missed by his family but by the town as a whole.

COCHRAN NOTES

Two new girls dining at the Hall, Mrs. Noble and Louise. Minnie Dietz was the next to have a birthday and a surprise it was of course. It's all the style to have a cake and candies and surprises now-a-days at the Hall or else the occasion isn't a real birthday. Minnie made the birthday, Alice the surprise, and all the rest, the eating. Managers A. L. Glunt of the 1915 football team has given his full report for the season. The loss on the season amounts to about $898.00. This exceeded the amount which was allowed by the budget committee due to the poor support which was received at the Heidelberg and Wesleyan games. Mr. Glunt was required to purchase a great amount of new material and equipment for the team because so much was stolen last year. This has all been turned over to Manager Sechrist for next year. By careful management next year there should be no loss on the season at all. Manager Glunt exercised splendid care and judgment in all business during the season and deserves the highest commendation for his efforts and success.

Play the game and play it hard, through your luck looks glum to you.

Back the worth of every card,
And, if cards won't come to you,
Don't give over to despair,
For the poorest hand of all:

If you play with all your wit,
Though your luck may leave you for a spell,
You must buy a stack again;
But it must come back again,

Dare the woe or mirth of it;
If cards won't come to you,

And, if cards won't come to you,

You must buy a stack again;
But it must come back again,

For the poorest hand of all:

If you play with all your wit,
Though your luck may leave you for a spell,
You must buy a stack again;
But it must come back again,
