The Year 1944
Westerville, Ohio

Hi Kellae,

We all decided to take some time out from working on the libyl to drop you a line --- (one that we've fallen for too!!!) It's <sup>chatter</sup> some about a school that's old and loved, but a school that has vastly changed in material things. Yes, Otterbein still has the two-mile, and after-dinner music, and mid-night serenades --- thought now it's the delicate (?) co-ed who has to instigate most of the activities. But, we have new, energy, out-lets and ideas, too --- less rug-cutting and more Red Cross, fewer fudge sundae and more air-mail stamps, fewer phone-calls and more "snaps" for our albums, and photographs for our desk-tops. We have enclosed your "pin-up" pals thought you'd like a little you

The Ad building still its ivy camouflaging and there a stained glass Science Hall rocks with of petty explosions.
Sambert confused strangers

Our own with its myriad of steps and the gym still house the hot-shots of basketball. But the library isn't openly a date bureau anymore and the cemetery is left entirely to the ghosts. The kids have just as hard a time rolling out of their downy beds when Reveille sounds at 6:30 A.M., but they don't take in as much night air as in the olden days.
It is different, kids, but it is still your Otterbein. And we're proud to be carrying on the Otterbein spirit as best we can,
'til you come back again!

ACTING DEAN
A. J. Esselstyn

Dean Esselstyn is credited with more than an ordinary amount of admiration and respect. Due to the war emergency his duties are doubled. Trying to train future scientists and supervise the general student body, too, is no simple combination.

Accomplishments? Many and varied! B. S.—Alma College, M. S.—Cornell University, summer sessions at Ohio State, and part time work at State for several years. Besides all this, he finds time to be a fisherman as well as to cook up some new compounds in his lab.

Yes, fellahs, we have a Dean whose help and advice is invaluable — and he's about the busiest man around.

DEAN
Nora W. Porter

Dean of Women, Nora Wills Porter is as versatile as they come. She seems to easily find time to be housemother of Cochran Hall; teach Freshmen English; and even when the occasion demanded, help cook for King Hall when Mom Smith was ill. She's a whizz at study, too——B. A.—Otterbein, M. A. in Guidance at Ohio State, Graduate Work at Harvard, and M. A. in English at Ohio State.

To top it off——she's a super Dean. She takes an active interest in all the girls on the campus, and her words of friendly advice make them all take an active interest in her counsel.

THE FACULTY

Agreed: the faculty often becomes a problem to the student, and the student often becomes a problem to the faculty. The students discuss their problems in "bull sessions" and various groups while the faculty has an organization called the Faculty Club. The functions of the club are both social and educational. Food being a favorite stimulant the group greatly enjoys their dinner meetings. Travel difficulties have made outside speakers rare.

The change in the rest of the world has not affected the classroom procedure and those "Term (ite) Papers" are still as popular and easy to assign. There have been a few changes in the personnel of the faculty but those changes are only temporary. The personalities of these "teachers" are many and varied and so it is that each student has favorite "Profs" and in most cases they are very different. That again is Otterbein, and the fine faculty is another thing we like so well about it.

Classes

we have really done quite well, to a man --- a lonely man's haven --- that's the stated of Otterbein's classes in 1944. Co-eds study under a sprinkling of service stars and manage to breeze the mailman every day as mob J.R.'s communication board.

we 55 seniors,
we fellows,
more serious think of what owe to you.
"corny" thanks
freshmen boys.

The Sophs are perfect of Gremlins to the new initiated Freshmen.

The Seniors still pursue their pedagogy and of a future that will
to have and to mold

Juniors are busy
the dignity (ahem!) - of the insignificant educated Seniors. The become freshmen have already become notorious as members of the "Centennial Class of 1947". These lonesome (?) Freshmen are cute furlough morale builders. (Hmmm)

And as always the students need food for thought. After the "burnt offerings" K. O. on the home front begins; hours and acres of it! Rationing has not

STUDENT GOVERNING ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

The odd jobs in campus legislation were ably dispensed with by Prexy Zezech and his Council.

COCHRAN HALL BOARD

First Row: Hovermale, Shipley, E. Wilson, Cornell, Smoot. Second Row: Garver, Frye, Blum, Hodson, V. Woodford, Neilson, M. Turner.

President Emily Wilson and her aides, ruled with an iron hand, restraining the more adventurous activities of the female population.

CAMPUS SOCIAL COMMITTEE

First Row: Hickey, Steck, Wright, Mugrage, Cassel, Hoover. Second Row: Hilliard, J. Schaeffer, Zezech, R. Scott, Arndt, Cornell, M. Turner. Nights of all-campus fun were planned by Jerry Wright and her social-minded group.

Government galore and organizations for all. Leadership in a compact form— that's the quality Otterbein is trying to develop in encouraging the students to plan and supervise campus affairs themselves. From government details to culprit punishment, the students know how to back up the laws and traditions of their college.

KING HALL BOARD

Prexy Hoover, and her staff, painfully guided the footsteps of the bewildered freshman girls.

CAMPUS COUNCIL

Unscrambling the muddle of organization, meeting dates is the peculiar headache of the Campus Council . . . and they have no lights to solve their traffic problems.

REPRESENTATIVE SENIORS

John Zezech, President

The class of 1944, with the longed for white scroll under their arms, left the routine of college life behind on May 5. With them went a wealth of happy memories. There were memories of great men and auspicious occasions, humorous recollections of freakish pranks, thoughts of classroom debates, elegant formals, fall and spring strolls on a beautiful campus, and an uncounted number of other occasions. Hearts were broken and mended. Soon after they really became upperclassmen many of their number left to fight for these memories. 55 of those freshmen who entered Otterbein in 1940 have found it possible to stick to their primary purpose, that of completing a college education.

Four outstanding members of their class were elected as representative of the class of 1944 . . . John Zezech, Virginia Barr, Mabel Sizer, and June Neilson.

On April 26, Senior Recognition Day, Maurice Gribler, a member of the junior class, recognized the seniors and John Zezech gave the reply for his class. As the paths of these 55 seniors diverge into different and distant individual lives for each they will constantly be reunited by all those things that are Otterbein.

Esther Smoot, Treasurer

Phyllis Brown, President

Betty Bridges, Vice-President

Shirley Server, Secretary

The Junior Class tried its best to flaunt its new maturity at the under-classmen, but it has been at a disadvantage (numerically of course). Therefore, a look of dignity has replaced the old authoritarian glare.

One of their contributions to Otterbein and to a large share of the general public is the Junior trio . . . Shirley Server, Gloria Server, Wilma Bennett and their accompanist, Phyllis Brown. We overlap a bit to point out that Shirley Server, Phyllis Brown and Esther Smoot were elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges."

Andy "Swish Shot" Vonovich represented the class as an o. k. guy on the basketball team this year. A subdued, member in an unconscious moment, attempted to edit "Ye Sibyl."

As is the tradition, the Juniors planned Senior Recognition Day. At this time they properly honored the class of their predecessors and sincerely showed their appreciation of having them for friends and classmates. Now they have accepted the responsibility of becoming the Seniors of 1945.

The Sophs spent the year trying to beat things . . . beating raps, beating up (or trying to) lowly freshmen (the rest of the time they were beaten) . . . Jump Week managers (Hebbeler and McCalla) rehashing every feeble joke they could think of to humor their fans and drag a vote . . . Prexy Blum elected Fall Homecoming queen . . . definite lack of man-power . . . Jane Bently elected Editor of the Tan and Cardinal for 1945 . . . underneath it all they're glad to be so close to spending a year as joyful juniors (especially so, when remembering the dousing in good ole' Alum Creek) . . . climax: sophs gorge themselves, at their own expense, at Sophomore-Senior banquet . . . their resolution: "What you don't know won't hurt you."

THE CENTENNIAL CLASS OF 1947

Walter Wendt, Vice President; Jane Hinton, Secretary;
Paul Payne, Treasurer; John Regenos, President.

September to June . . . the freshmen have completed the first year of their notorious career as the famous Centennial Class of 1947 and are looking forward to celebrating Otterbein's 100th birthday with equal prominence. The freshman mixer emerged in a fine stew . . . they took a big drop in chapel out of the balcony, to the lower deck . . . proved scrappier than the Sophs on Scrap Day . . . bonfire burned up on the first try and so were the freshmen . . . a few, ah, rugged, brawny individuals on parade . . . Saum Hall presents Follies, their amazement, our amusement . . . lowly, green pledges crawled humbly (?) for honorable actives . . . Hell "weak" . . . girls present "Charms in Song" electing Shuck to reign as prettiest with nine attendants . . . girls repeat program for soldiers at Cambridge hospital . . . Wendt, the fems choice for Jump Week . . . Uncle Sam catches up with Regenos and breathes hot and heavy down new prexy Wood's coat collar . . . and then in their spare time they exhausted themselves getting in and out of unimaginable predicaments.

QUIZ AND QUILL

Celebrates 25th Anniversary

First Row: Professor Altman, Pfeifer. Second Row: Reed, Mignerey, Koons, Gribler, Smoot, Alexander.

Many of the Otterbein Shakespeares are now at some distant front defending the right to dash off a sonnet, an expression of love, or something else that bothered them.

This year the group proudly celebrates the 25th year of their existence as an organization. Something else to prize is a special publication that the Quiz and Quill issued . . . an anthology of notable compositions of the last 25 years. Many a doughboy and Otterbein graduate will be able to leaf through the Silver Anniversary Issue tomorrow and see what they did yesterday at Otterbein. The Quiz and Quill continues as an expression of the thoughts of Otterbein students.

Jacqueline Pfeifer and Esther Smoot were Presidents of the group, first and second semesters respectively. Jane Alexander is the secretary and Anna Jean Waters acts as Program Chairman.

Production, scenery, costuming and management are right down the Cap and Dagger Club's alley . . . in fact . . . at Fall Homecoming it was right down "Schubert Alley."

Bob Koehler guides the activities of the talented group. For the May Day celebrations the club is presenting "Out of the Frying Pan."

In fact, the talent exhibited by the club as a whole seems to have Prof. Smith, their advisor, "speechless."

This year the debate team was made up entirely of freshmen. Before two of the members were drafted they debated the Phi Kappa Delta Question. The negative team, Regenos, Takahashi and Scott, won the debate.

The impossibility of forming a complete men's team prevented inter-collegiate debating.

First Row: Ariki, Aydelotte, I. Cole, Michelich. Second Row: Professor Esselstyn, C. Robertson, Mayne, Hovermale, Professor Schear. Third Row: Smoot, Rone, Shipley, Professor Hanawalt, Kohberger, Koda, Henderson.

Sigma Zeta is the National Honorary Science Fraternity. The Epsilon Chapter at Otterbein was founded in 1929 and is one of 15 chapters. A 3-point average in their science major is the requirement for membership. Members must also maintain a 2.5 average in their other studies. Associate and honorary members are also selected.

A worthy activity of the year was the recruiting of blood donors from the student body. The group afforded transportation for twenty Otterbein students to the Red Cross Center in Columbus.

The Epsilon Chapter is headed by Henrietta Mayne, President; Catherine Robertson, secretary-treasurer; and Ann Hovermale, Program Chairman.

Sigma Zeta

Phi Sigma Iota is Otterbein's chapter of the National Honorary Romance Language Fraternity, organized in 1933 to "foster interest in the romance languages." New members are elected to the club each spring by the members themselves. To be eligible, a prospect must be at least a junior, majoring in one of the romance languages, and maintaining a "B" average in all subjects.

Professor Mills and Professor Rosselot are the advisors and Mrs. Rosselot is often the hostess for the meetings. Mae Pletcher is President of the club.

The club has the opportunity of hearing many interesting papers and discussing that about their study that interests them most. A formal dinner was held near the time of commencement.

Phi Sigma Iota

Here are some of the most popular girls on the campus. Their mail from the males exceeds that of all the groups combined. They are the future homemakers of tomorrow who are making a scientific study for their future reference. They've planned meetings on nutrition, textiles, Red Cross projects, and as a service to the church, they have displayed their interior decorating ability by making the primary department more attractive for the children.

A luncheon in Columbus and a style show at Lazarus gave the girls a "gastronomic" and an "esthetic" thrill. The group also gave two interesting and informative chapel programs. This very successful and active year ended with merry time at a club picnic.

The Home Economics Club

Henrietta Mayne was the president and Miss Mary Lou Lashbrook, advisor.

Education Club

Recently organized in 1941, the Education Club is a relatively new group. The membership consists of those students who are members of the Education Department. An Elementary Education Department has been introduced into the college program. Miss Jean Fraser heads this department. Dr. Bartlett is advisor for the club.

The club offered two helpful speakers . . . Mr. Buell, the superintendent of the Berlin Township Schools, and Mr. Ray Morris, Superintendent of the Westerville Schools. Both speakers listed hints and suggestions for new teachers.

Irene Cole is president of the group and Emily Wilson acts as chairman. The secretary is Phyllis Koons, and Jean Brubaker is treasurer.

Y.W.C.A.

The Y.W.C.A. is one of the most prominent organizations on the campus. Besides the routine duties of the organization it cooperates with the Y.M. C.A. in promoting the "Y" Mixer, helps other groups with the All Campus Christmas party, and goes caroling. The May morning breakfast is also taken care of by the Y.W.C.A. One of their most worthy and impressive gestures is the "White Gift Service" at which donations from every women's organization on the campus are offered, and secretly given to some Otterbein girl who needs financial aid. Another nice gesture that creates a tide of friendship is "The Big, Little Sister Movement" which is also sponsored by this group.

Professor Hursh, Shirk, Fulk, Jones, Bridgers

One of the first duties of the Y.M. C.A. is to cooperate with the Y.W.C.A. in functioning to make the freshman feel at home at the beginning of each year. The first day a freshman arrives on the campus he receives a "Y" Hand book, which tells him all the facts about the college, teaches him the school songs, and offers him some free treats. They also sponsor a "Y" Mixer the first week of school.

This group has an outstanding past. Through student support in 1892 the Y.M. C.A. built the Association building which was the second "Y" building west of the Appalachian Mountains to be built by a student group.

Other groups in need of assistance can always count on the "Y" fellows to help. The Otterbein Y.M.C.A. belongs to the State Council of Y.W.C.A.'s

The officers of this year were entirely new as none of those elected last spring were able to return. Howard Fulk has served as president; Ray Hughes, vice-president; Elwood Shirk, secretary; Bob Jones, Program Chairman; and Fred Walker, Membership Chairman. Professor Hursh is the Advisor.

C.C.A.

The Campus Christian Association was founded expressly for the purpose of organization and unification of the religious groups on the campus. The council this year was headed by co-chairmen Mabel Sizer and Bob Bridgers. Mary Shiba acted as Scribe and Karl Varner was the man with the "money appeal." The raising of money in financial drives for funds for the budgets of campus religious organizations is one of the main jobs of the C.C.A. The finances are thus solicited all at one time and, as J.R. invariably says, "that puts all our begs in one askit." And anytime the council needs advice Professor Hursh and Rev. Boyer are ready and capable of words of fatherly wisdom.

Securing religious speaker to the campus. Dr. Slutz C.C.A. has conducted the budget drives for all campus religious organizations.

Life Work Recruits

The activity of the Life Work Recruits has mainly been helping other religious groups under the advisorship of Professor Engle and its president, Karl Varner. Caring for the services at the Negro church in Westerville, and sending out Deputation teams to other churches to help out in their services were two of the worthiest projects of the year.

The cabinet includes Deputation Chairmen Roy Fisher and Joan Schaeffer; Music Chairman, Dewey Long; Membership Chairman, Bob Jones; Social Service Chairman, Ruth Deever; Program Chairmen, Loye Donelson and John Olexa.

From the various departments represented in the cabinet, the diversified interests and fields of work accomplished by the group are easily seen.

Youth Fellowship

Youth Fellowship means exactly what the name of the organization implies. It is a Christian fellowship that they have and they offer it to all the youth of Otterbein.

Outdoor meetings have been prominent this year. The group sponsored an all-campus hayride, a campfire service, and a lecture by Dr. Schear down by Alum Creek. There was also a series of discussions on the Four Freedoms. The leaders of the discussions were members of the faculty and prominent persons from Westerville and Columbus.

The first semester officers were: Mabel Sizer, President; Mary Shiba, Program Chairman; Irene Parker, Secretary-Treasurer.

Leading the group for the second semester were: Martha Good, President; Emigail Lilly, Program Chairman; Laurel Gilbert, Secretary-Treasurer.

International Relations Club

The prospects of a cozy chair, a glowing fireplace, and delicious refreshments at Dr. Rosselot's home twice a month is an added incentive for the members of the International Relations Club. The spirited discussions that ensue counterbalance any tendencies toward snoozing that such comforts would create.

The club outlined the discussions on the problems of peace, and committees were appointed by the president for the leadership of these discussions throughout the year. After the club discovered, as best it could, what it would advocate as a plan for peace, a round-table discussion was presented in chapel.

The president of the club is Mary Lord, Janet L. Roberts is the secretary, and Robert Bridgers is the treasurer.

The singing groups of Otterbein have brought widespread recognition to the school and a great deal of enjoyment to the participants. War has curtailed the extensive activities of these groups such as trips to distant localities and the traditional tours. Although the lack of manpower is acute, the quality of the programs is still among the very best.

The Men's Glee Club, consisting of twelve members, proved their merit in a special chapel program.

This year the Women's Glee Club has carried the responsibility for most of the programs in song for the college. Numerous church groups, clubs, and community gatherings, have highly praised the girls.

Besides furnishing the regular Sunday morning music for the College Church, the Choir presented the traditional Christmas and Easter programs.

These faithful musicians provide plenty of pep and added spirit at the football and basketball games and pep rallies.

Mary Margaret Tuttle, a freshman, is the striking Drum Majorette who artistically twirls her baton and leads the formations on the field during the halves of the football games. An applauded specialty was the piccolo and basshorn solo played in "Yankee Doodle."

Professor Shackson directs the band. Elinor Mignery is president of the group. There are about twenty members.

Band

Orchestra

Mabel Dunn Hopkins, instructor at Otterbein and Capital University directs the orchestra. Mary Shiba is the Concert Meister.

There are 20 members in the orchestra. They furnished the music for the Homecoming plays. The chapel programs given by the orchestra are always favored ones. The group also planned an entire Grieg program. The orchestra is another example of the loyal way that all the organizations have carried on in spite of present obstacles and shortages.

The purpose of the Publications Board is to guide the activities of the Tan and Cardinal. The board meets once or twice a year to select the editor, business manager, and circulation manager of the paper.

It is a function of the Student Council to select the students for these positions. Persons interested in these positions may make an application to the board. Each applicant is interviewed and the new editor and business manager is chosen with care.

Lois Hickey, representative of the senior class, is chairman of the group. Other class representatives are junior, Mary Lord; sophomore, Ruth Fletcher; and freshman, Bob Koehler.

Before the year progressed very far John Smith left for the service and Dottie Hilliard, the capable Associate Editor of the T&C was left in full charge of the publication. When the Business Manager, R. W. Gifford, went to Ohio State to continue his studies there, Bob Koehler was selected to replace him.

This year the editor and three members of her staff attended the Convention of the Ohio College Newspaper Association at Denison University and came back with honors in both hands. Otterbein's newspaper, a bi-weekly publication, received the first prize and trophy for one year for ranking highest in its class. To add to this glory it was awarded third place for the quality represented in the news stories. This gives us pride in a publication of quality and unusually, successful, feminine Editor and her Staff.

Next year, the Convention of the O. C. N. A. will be held at Otterbein. Jane Bentley is the new editor for 1945.

Sports, play days with other colleges, picnics and hikes, ice skating parties, war bond drives, help with management of the high school basketball tournaments, and chapel movies . . . these are just a few of the activities that the busy and peppy girls of the Women's Recreational Association undertake and execute.

The girls were guests at Ohio State for a hockey and a basketball play day and acted in their turn as hostesses to the O. S. girls. There was also some competition held between the Capital athletes and the Otterbein sports stars.

Lois Hickey was president for the first semester and Mary Bright took over her duties for the second semester. Participants in each different sport elect delegates to the W. R. A. Cabinet, to represent their interests. Miss Bryant is the advisor.

Varsity "O"

The Varsity "O" has carried on its activities this year remarkably well. It began the year with two members from last year's organization, but, with varsity sports going full speed ahead, many new members were accepted.

These men of muscle and brawn elected June Neilson to reign as princess of their Winter Homecoming activities. They also sponsored a dance at the armory after the crowning of the Princess. As is the custom, the Varsity "O" men took charge of Scrap Day.

The officers of the group were: Maurice Gribler, President; Robert Gormley, Vice-President; Robert Scott, Secretary; Don Smith, Treasurer; and John Zezech, Committee Member at large.

Athleta

Feminine sports leaders have Athleta as the organization that recognizes girls of honorary rating in this field. Only seniors are eligible and are selected because of high attainment in scholarship, earnest enthusiasm, character, leadership, and participation in many sports.

This honor comes to the girls as a surprise at a dinner held in their honor in the spring of the year. The honorary group for 1945 was chosen by the graduating group of senior girls. Athleta is of fairly recent origin. This was the fourth group to be selected. This picture should disprove any theory that girls with athletic inclinations are without femininity.

Sororities and Fraternities

season of rushing, rush teas parties are. Bedding is the tension "Hell Week". really is fun. Formal initiation impressive, goals and ideals.

Inter-Fraternity Council

With four fraternities weathering the present storm, the Inter-fraternity Council tried to maintain their former status and keep rushing and other activities on the legal side.

Reverend Allton, the new Public Relations Director, and his family have moved into the Zeta Phi house and are running it for the boys. Maurice and Byrl Gribler are pursuing their studies and in their spare time running the Jonda house. Mom and Pop Jones are still keeping the home fires burning for the Country Club fellows. Although the Sphinx club did not open its house the frat is still active. The Annex Fraternity, which does not have a representative on the campus this year, received the scholarship cup for 1943. Lee Franks, who was home on leave accepted, the cup for his club.

Inter-Sorority Council

With an added number of freshmen girls, making up for the depleted male number, the problems of the Inter-sorority Council have been more numerous. This year the Council granted permission to reorganize to a discontinued sorority of several years ago. Toma Dachi is now represented in the council and will continue as the seventh sorority on the campus. Prexy Brubaker finished her studies in February and left Mary Shiba a full time president's job as official guardian of the interests of seven sororities.

New to the current group of students but familiar to those of former years, T. D. accomplished something that very few sororities of past years have been able to do. An old sorority became a new sorority. The devoted and loyal alumnae of T. D., known as the Phi Sigma Epsilon Society, rushed with the same fervor, hope and pain as did the student activities of the other six groups. Ten new Otterbein girls, eager and proud to form the nucleus of the new sorority, became pledges.

Their rebirth hasn't prevented them from being active—they endured all the "cruelties" of Hell Week and had a bang-up formal initiation at the Deshler-Wallick Hotel in Columbus. As is the club's custom the new actives were "pinned" with jeweled crests of the alumni. The very close association and cooperation with their alumni makes them unique.

Its members are fast becoming prominent, campus leaders and both the sorority and the actives, personally, will in the future (yes, next year) have much to offer the "rushee". We all admire Tomo Dachi and wish the best for them.

The Owls have an accomplishment to be proud of, and one that has made a reputation for them. The Owls are again this year the worthy possessors of the sorority, scholarship cup.

Their activities are not all of "cerebral nature" . . . no jitterbug expert can deny the dignified President, Dottie Hilliard, a place in the groove; June Neilson, outstanding for her dramatic ability, reigned as Winter Princess; Gwen Blum was elected Fall Homecoming Queen; Phil Nelson was an attendant to June. The club also purchased a bond and most of the members made a trip to the Blood Doner Center in Columbus.

Then too, purely, on the social side, the girls have "heaps" of fun. Replacing the co-ed parties of former years the girls have had some really nice dinners at the Dutch Tavern, Fort Hayes Hotel and several theater parties including plays at the Hartman.

The surplus of diamond rings and wedding announcements among the Owls all goes to prove that intelligence and romance do go together.

"Thoughtful each of all", a worthy motto, is typical of this bunch of "super" girls. The girls are clever and ably take part in all campus affairs. Proof of just one of their talents was the unusual success of their chapel program.

These girls have a bountiful share of good times too. The pledges gave the actives a "whizz" of a Christmas party. To prove that they were good "skates", the actives reciprocated in March by giving the former pledges a skating party.

Less entertaining, except for the standers-by, was the redecorating of the club-room. After several hours they decided they had done a good job and toasted themselves very honestly by saying, "Here's paint in your eye!"

The marriage of their efficient President caused a deserved amount of excitement. History repeated itself at an early date when Betty Shumway traveled to California to follow the example of Henrietta (Hobbs).

Twenty-nine years ago Tau Epsilon Mu was organized in secrecy among the fourth-floor girls of Cochran Hall. As cream always rises to the top they called themselves the "cream of the dorm". Later, in the past, they acquired another nick-name, "the sorority of queens". Upholding this reputation Ginny Barr reigned as 1943 May Queen, Jo Case was maid of honor to the Fall Homecoming Queen, Janet Shipley attended the 1944 May Queen, and Marilyn Shuck was elected prettiest in the freshmen class with six TEM pledges as attendants.

These girls have had some smooth times too . . . spreads, a slumber party, a happy surprise, when the pledges played hostess to the actives at a dinner at the Maramor and a theater party, a special breakfast at Willie's and gifts for the pledges, dinner at the Seneca and entertainment at the Hartman, teas (a special one where each TEM girl brings as a guest, a girl from another sorority group), purchased a war bond and so on . . .

Keeping their Motto "Everybody's Lonesome" in mind the girls had fun at a Carnival rush party. Their motto has a secret, special meaning to every TEM girl.

The girls of Onyx are bound together by the motto "Sisters and Friends to the End." Such "smooth" times, like the waffle party at Prexy Margaret Cherrington's house, make for good fellowship as well as good food. In 1946 the club will celebrate its 25th anniversary. These girls take their share of the honors and true to their motto are friends, not only to their club sisters but to everyone.

An Indian party was "heap-good rushing." In fact they "whooped up" so much fun that they took nine pledges into the tribe. To show the actives how pleased they were the pledges took them to dinner at William's Grill. In times like these what more could one ask for fun.

When the club wanted a little extra cash they rustled up some rummage and went from "rags to riches."

At the Fall Homecomings you can always recognize an Onyx girl by the proud way she wears her yellow crysanthemum.

True to its motto, "Love and Honor", the "Are-Beauties" are a friendly, gay, and happy, bunch of girls. These girls can boast of supplying the campus with many of its beauties and leaders.

This year they offered Doris Moomaw for Sibyl Queen, Phyllis Baker as attendant to the Fall Homecoming Queen, Lois Smathers for attendant to the Winter Princess and two May Day attendants, Eleanor Taylor and Marjorie Day.

The typical Arbutus pledge can be recognized by her white middie, a black skirt, and black cotton stockings. For their rush party the actives planned a super "Pirate's Escapade".

A "Slumber Party", dinner at the Seneca, and always lots of fun in the making. Two sets of twins claim most of the confusion. By the way, the clubroom is something to be proud of too.

Arbutus began as a secret society in 1917 and has become a prominent and popular organization.

The Greenwich girls are a popular bunch in whose presence there's always fun and excitement. In proof of their attractiveness, Evalou was elected to the Fall Homecoming Court and Shirley reigned as the 1945 May Day Queen.

Their originality and resourcefulness has given them a lovely, newly, decorated clubroom. A smooth rush party given as "a Stage Door Canteen" fairly took the "rushee's" breath away. They can often be seen proudly wearing their colors, purple and white.

There always seems to be something "cooking" . . . two slumber parties, a formal dinner-dance, a co-ed party at Willy's, dinner at Babione's and Hursh's, and many other friendly times like special tables and afternoon cokes at Dews.

Hell Week

Pictured to the left is one of a lowly species found in abundance 12 miles north of Columbus about the first week in February.

Lowly green worms they were, groveling in the dust. Sidewalks were scrubbed, stars counted, and cob-webs dusted from the music strains. Men were won . . . and lost! The moments never dulled. The sophisticated actives wore themselves to a frazzle trying to think up new, novel, and nauseating things for their putrid pledges to do; the pledges beat their heads against stone walls trying to evade the gimlet eyes of their imposing superiors. For "Hell Week" it was—the time when all the pledges ran around looking like it, and the actives acting like it.

We are proud of our teams. Yes, fellows, brawny men, athletic Amazons, are still finding an outlet for their energy in competitive team sports. By the time the 1943 football season struggled around the manpower situation was acute. But the squad made up almost entirely of inexperienced gridgers was plucky and scrappy. Not results 2 wins, 1 tie, 1 loss.

Despite a small squad and green gridders, the scrappy 1943 football team maintained their own two victories, one loss, and one draw. Even with numerous injuries, the Otters always came back on their feet and were in there fighting with the will to win. Gribler and Gormley were Co-Captains.

The small "Otter" basketball squad really went to town during the 43-44 season with the very commendable record of eleven wins and only five losses. The grand climax of the season was the Ewingmen's triumph over Wooster on their "bowling alley". The Scots had been beaten only one other time on the home floor in eleven years, and that by Denison's seasoned Navy team. Yep, the fellows had a fine time defeating even Capital on our home floor and trouncing every service team they met for a game.
