HOWARD RUSSELL SPEAKS

Founder of Anti-Saloon League
Preaches Sermon in Church
Sunday Morning.

Dr. Howard H. Russell, founder of the Anti-Saloon League, gave on Sunday, January 18, a very inspirational and educating sermon entitled, "The Eighteenth Amendment, God's Gift to Our Nation."

Dr. Russell spoke directly to the college students when he made the statement that, "the task you take up will be blessed with good. Be submissive and dedicate your life to what God would have you do and success is sure to come."

The sermon dealt generally with two main points, namely, that prohibition has come through the edict and will of God, and, secondly, that God has a specific task for each and every human life. This second point was stressed to a high degree and then illustrated by the lives of no less personages than Moses and Paul. Coming to the present day the speaker stated that there was a chance for everyone to get into the work and to do God's work. He stated that the secret of discovering the commission of each individual is only possible by complete submission to the will of God.

Following this a complete account of the history of prohibition was presented, giving in detail a synopsis of the lives of the men who strove to make this movement a success. Particular stress was placed in the fact

TRUSTEES OF COLLEGE HOLD MEETING TODAY

Social and Religious Welfare of College to Receive Special Attention.

At ten o'clock this morning the Board of Trustees of Otterbein College will convene for the mid-winter meeting. The sessions will be held at the United Brethren church and continue through the afternoon and evening.

The meeting will be of a constructive and educational character and will not concern itself so much with annual reports as with educational and financial plans. Special attention will be given to the educational, social and religious welfare of the institution, and the material interest of the college will receive some attention.

A dinner will be served in the United Brethren church at 5:30 for the trustees, faculty and others. At the evening meeting the Glee Club will sing and President J. Knox Montgomery of Muskingum College will deliver an address to be followed by an open parliament on "The Place of the Christian College in the Church and Nation."

TAN TEAM ENTERS OHIO CAGE RACE AGAINST BIG RED TEAM HERE TONIGHT

VARSITY DEBATE TEAMS CHOSEN DURING WEEK

The past week, varsity debate has made signal progress in that both teams, that will meet Capital in the season's first debate, February 26, have been selected. The try-outs were held January 10 and 11, and Wednesday the successful candidates were named.

The affirmative team will have Wood, Miller and either Harsh or Gantz. Harrold, Knight and either May or Laporte will debate the negative side of the question.

Intensive work is being done and a strong argument will be presented by both teams.

Earl Hoover is slated for a place on one of the teams but he will not participate in any varsity debates until after the State Oratorical Contest.

Cleiorhetea Holds Second Election Session Last Thursday Evening

The second election session of Cleiorhetea took place last Thursday evening. The various officers responded to their elections by clever stunts, of literary, musical or a dramatic nature. The chair officers are Veda Bearss, president; Lucile Lambert, recording secretary, and Alice George, critic. Mrs. E. E. Harris of Westerville, was elected to honorary membership in Cleiorhetea.

GAME IS CHALLENGING

Denison Brings Strong Aggregation to Westerville Which Will Fight to the Final Whistle.

The Varsity basketball team opens its Ohio Conference schedule tonight at eight o'clock in the high school gym, when it meets the Big Red team from Denison in what promises to be one of the hottest and fastest games of the season. The squad is in the best of condition and Coach Edler has developed from it a fast, well-balanced quintet to start against the Denisonians who are very likely contenders for the conference championship.

It will be remembered that the Baptist five defeated the Tan and Cardinal team in both clashes of the two outfits last year. This, however, is no indication of what will happen this year. Rather, it is all the more reason why the Otterbein team should win, for nothing encourages supreme effort as much as the rankling memory of previous defeat.

The game with the former captains is an indication of what the team can do. In this combat it was pitted against a line-up of stars of the past four or five years. A faster and more consistent shooting team will probably not be seen on the home floor this season. To come out on top against a five of this caliber shows more than ordinary ability.

Captain McCarroll, whose absence from the line-up last week was so

PLANS TO REORGANIZE ALUMNAL ASSOCIATION SUGGESTED

When the Otterbein Board of Trustees convene today for the mid-winter meeting, one of the principal proposals that will be submitted for consideration will be the plan for reorganization of the Otterbein Alumni Association into a more active organization supporting a full-time paid secretary. The new movement is an outcome of a luncheon attended by forty alumni at the Chittenden Hotel, Columbus, during the holidays at which time the advantages of an active association were revealed. The plan will interest itself particularly in the welfare of Otterbein upon graduation and making it a business to keep in touch with them with an actual "Alma Mater" interest in their careers. The plan calls for a full-time paid secretary whose duty it will be to secure positions for graduates or find a new job if a change is desired, to do the work of a teacher's agency, thereby saving some $1500 paid annually to such firms by Otterbein graduates, and to act in the capacity of a service bureau, doing many little jobs of service of all kinds. It is suggested that the secretary would also co-operate with the college in all publicity.

At the meeting Professor W. O. Lambert revealed the facts that "Other institutions have paid secretaries who are constantly on the job looking out for the interest of their alumni, building machines throughout the state to efficiently function for the interest of their Alma Maters. They make it a point to keep in close touch with every alumnus, placing them in positions. Here at Otterbein the graduates leave with a big handicap. They must be at least 25 percent superior to the average college graduate in order to cope with them on an equal basis, simply because other graduates, placing them in positions stitutions have smooth working organizations that are building pathways for their graduates to tread upon, while Otterbein graduates must face the problem alone, single handed. I actually know that Otterbein graduates spent close to $3,000 the last two years for teacher agency fees. We must organize for a closer relationship between alumni and their Alma Mater. Like a big manufacturing concern, the college is turning out graduates and its business is to sell its product."

The committee at work on the plan is composed of J. E. Newell, Ralph Smith and W. O. Lambert.

HEERMAN CONCERT NOT TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Noted Cellist May Give Concert on Campus Sometime in Near Future.

News has just been received by Professor A. R. Spessard that Walter Heerman, a cellist of note with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, who was scheduled to give a concert in Lambert Hall on January 20, cannot appear on that date.

Mr. Heerman, in a letter to Professor Spessard, writes that due to conflicting concerts it will be impossible for him to make his appearance on the twentieth. However, a list of open dates was enclosed by Mr. Heerman from which Professor Spessard could choose another date suitable for the program.

Two years ago Mr. Heerman appeared before a local audience in conjunction with a concert given by the Ladies' Glee Club. Just recently, he was invited to give a private concert at the Governor's Mansion in Columbus, so that the coming of this eminent cellist is looked forward to with eagerness by many music lovers.

When Mr. Heerman does give his concert it will be under the auspices of the Department of Music. The receipts will be used for the furnishing and installing of lockers in Lambert Hall for music and art students.

LEDA CUMMINGS LEADS INTERESTING Y. W. C. A.

Leda Cummings with her "Fresh Beginnings" attracted a large number of girls to Y. W. C. A. last Tuesday evening.

During the development of the topic the leader reminded us that as college women in the "land of opportunity," we are facing a new year that is rich in opportunities for service; that to do our best now we must let the past take care of itself and apply ourselves diligently to the tasks near at hand.

After the leader's discussion Helen Cherry gave a most helpful talk on, "Service."

The solo, "Show Me the Way," by Ernestine Schmitt was in keeping with the topic and was much appreciated by the girls.

Professor Schear in Attendance at Convention at Washington

Otterbein was represented at the annual convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Science at Washington, D. C., during the Christmas holidays, by Professor E. W. E. Schear. The convention was the largest one ever held by the association and eminent scientists of every scientific field were present.

In the convention's conferences, Professor Schear was able to converse freely with some of the prominent scientists and to ask them questions concerning the scientific fields in which he teaches. Besides Professor Schear, Professor Hanawalt and Wendell Camp are the only other members of the association from Otterbein.

DATES ARE SELECTED

Annual Junior Class Play Will Be Presented in Chapel February 12 and 13.

The nights of February 12 and 13 have been chosen as the dates for the presentation of the play, given each year by the Junior class. On these dates, "Tweedles," a comedy written by Booth Tarkington, will be offered in the college chapel. The play is a satire on family pride, which enters as a complication into the love affairs of a youth and a girl who are brought together at a summer colony.

Members of the cast who were selected at the tryouts held some time ago, are Wanda Gallagher, Pauline Knepp, Mary Hummel, Alice Sanders, Carl Stair, Zane Wilson, Don Phillips and Wilbur MacMichaels. Albert May was chosen to act as business manager, and William Myers as stage manager.

Under the direction of Professor McCarty, practices are going forward at the rate of four a week, and the presentation of a finished production on February 12 is assured.

Fine New Specimen Is Added to College Museum

Professor Schear has just recently purchased a Trumpeter Swan from Detroit, to add to the collection in the museum in the Science Hall.

There are only two distinct species of the North American swans and this species is probably the rarer of the two. The college is very fortunate in securing a specimen of this bird for it is becoming so rare that the government prohibits the killing of it for any purpose whatever. The Museum now contains both specimens of the North American swan.

President Clippinger Addresses Y. M. C. A. Thursday Evening

The practical subject, "Does Christianity Apply on Otterbein's Campus?" was the theme of the address delivered by President Clippinger before Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening.

President Clippinger showed that Christianity would stand the honest test in every phase of college life, in social, physical and mental activity as well as spiritual. Furthermore, he gave examples where it had been done.

"Christianity will apply to every phase of life on Otterbein's campus and if it does not hold, it has never been tried," was the striking statement of President Clippinger.

Special music was furnished by Dean Upson and Carl Eschbaugh.

BANQUET IS SERVED TO MEMBERS OF CHURCH CHOIR

Wednesday evening after practice the church choir met in the basement of the church and enjoyed the first social event of the year. After an hour of games and fellowship a very delicious banquet was served. The evening was closed with talks from Dr. Rupp, Dr. Snavely, Director Spessard and Professor Schear.

that men were hard to enlist in this worthy cause and also that financial difficulties were a constant menace toward making the organization function with the best success.

In conclusion the speaker stated that the work of the Anti-Saloon League was not completed. There are four points to be still achieved, first, to further educational work for the ignorant; second, keep up legislative work; third, missionary service to be continued; and, fourth, support needed financially.

T. AND C. REPORTER HAS UNIQUE EXPERIENCE

Whose got a collar button? Hold my collar, will yuh? Buckle my vest. Do I look alright? Oh! I forgot my suspenders. This is a sample of what I heard coming from one of the dressing rooms of a Columbus photographer, last Saturday afternoon. Of course, my curiosity was aroused and I waited. And then in a few moments I saw some of the most ill at ease looking persons proceed from the room carrying themselves as if their backs were in slings and their necks in plaster paris cases. They looked like butlers, every one of them.

Going out; but where? I watched my chance and followed. Keeping far enough back from that last coat tail that I might not be seen, I became the calliope of that circus parade. Only—I did not furnish the brazen notes and piercing melodies that usually accompany such a demonstration. The activity was all in my mind, "What is that bunch doing here?" My theories of bank robbers, State Hospital inmates, initiations and Senators all vanished when I came to a brilliantly lighted room at the end of the stolid hall, for there were the sorry specimens.

In the end of the room, on soap boxes, some seated, others standing, they formed an unsymmetrical and unlucky horseshoe. Yes! It did seem like the display of an art gallery's unfinished statues and some of them were scarcely half done. Suddenly—as a flash, it dawned upon me, the purpose of it all. These were convicts lined up to be shot. I had guessed right for there was a man across the room aiming a large machine gun at these ignominious beings. With all the fury of my nature incited by love for my fellow beings I rushed toward the murderer that I might stay his hand and leave these unfortunates to eke out their miserable existence. Immediately, the murderer disconcertedly yelled, "Stand aside until the Otterbein Men's Glee Club is Photographed".

A Big Step Forward

What promises to be one of the most significant moves that the Otterbein Alumni Association has ever taken was made during the holidays when forty alumni of the college met at a luncheon in the Chittenden Hotel and effected plans to reorganize the Alumni Association into a more active organization. If the proposed plans are adopted it will be a real step forward for Otterbein, and her alumnal association will take a place alongside the graduate associations of the leading colleges of the state.

Many other colleges have paid secretaries who are constantly on the job looking out for the interest of their alumni. There has long been a need for a secretary of this kind here at Otterbein, and now it is almost imperative that such a position be created. The duties and services the secretary would perform are enumerated in an article elsewhere in this issue.

There is a big field for the new work and the position must be filled by a big man. The job is a big one and if the plan is to work the secretary must be a man with tact and a pleasing personality.

The plan proposed is looked upon with favor by both the alumni and student body, and these two groups pledge their cooperation to assure the success of the plans. The realization of the proposed plans of the Alumni Association will be the most significant move of that organization in recent years.

Y. M. C. A. a Live Organization

We are glad when we notice that the Y. M. C. A. is making rapid progress towards regaining the place of prestige it once held among the various campus activities. Years ago, the Y. M. C. A. held a big place in the activities of the men students of Otterbein. Practically every man in school belonged to it and was active in its work. But with the advent of so many student activities its position was greatly eclipsed.

After several years of obscurity it is once more moving to prominence in student affairs and we want to recognize and foster that rejuvenation.

Under the leadership of President Floyd McGuire the association is growing as evidenced by the good spirit at the meeting last Thursday evening. The program of each meeting is interesting, entertaining and beneficial, and for one to miss one of them is indeed a loss of something really good.

The Y. M. C. A. is awake, it is progressing. Its forward program deserves and needs support of the student body. Its success depends upon YOUR cooperation.

A Way to Better Rallies

We have been listening to much criticism lately on the part of numerous students who send their criticism in the direction of the cheerleader and his failure to organize athletic rallies. The criticism may have foundation, yet we feel the thing works like a boomerang; that the criticism directed at the cheerleader completes the circle and strikes back at the censor. The cheerleader is only a representative of the student body and what he does is in a large measure prompted by the spirit and attitude of the students themselves. Your attitude is reflected through the cheerleader.

The rallies this year have been promoted by one man, Dean Upson. He has done his best, has had to work against student indifference and unwillingness, and above all he has had no cooperation whatsoever. He has fought the battle alone and without any aid he has tried to instill pep into the whole student body. Quite some job for one man. And he deserves praise for having carried the whole load, and for doing all that one man could do.

It is not a one man job to plan and organize a rally and the one conclusion is that it is time a rally committee be organized here at Otterbein. This committee could be made such that it would function. It could plan and organize far enough ahead to be able to stage a real rally that would enthuse and be an aid in keeping at a high tension the true school spirit.

Let the Student Council appoint a committee representing the four college classes and instruct it as to what is wanted. It is apparent that a new rally system is needed and the Student Council should bring it into being.

IT STRIKES US—

That the team will be out to defeat Denison tonight. Every student there to help win that game!

That requiring students to remain

That the Varsity "O" Minstrel promises to be the big event of the mid-winter season.

That its in order to have a basketball 'rally before the Kenyon game.

O C MINSTREL MAKES PROGRESS— END MEN HARD AT WORK

The Varsity "O" minstrel which is scheduled to be given sometime after examinations will soon be ready for presentation. The interlocutor, Clarence Broadhead, with Abel Ruffini,

BASKET BALL SCHEDULE OF 1925 IS CHALLENGING

Schedule Begun Tonight Against Big Red Is One of the Hardest in Recent Years.

The schedule for the 1925 basket ball team which begins this evening with Denison is challenging to say the least. However, the schedule as a whole is not at all soft but is one of the hardest that has faced any squad in years. This year's team need feel no disgrace or inferiority to the teams of other seasons if, upon completion, the record is marred by several defeats at the hands of some of the larger teams to be met. But outside of these speedier opponents from larger schools, Otterbein's chances are even with the majority of the adversaries to be met.

The advantage, slight but sometimes important, of playing on the home floor is with Otterbein in most of their contests this year. Six more games are to be played in Westerville while the team journeys to Gambier, Granville, Cleveland and Springfield to play the other four games of the season. This boost of playing at home with greater support and a knowledge of the floor may figure largely in the outcome of such games as Wesleyan and Wooster. Advantages will break even between Otterbein, Denison and Kenyon as return trips are to be made.

Rating of Otterbein with other Conference teams may not yet be clearly seen as very few of the Big Six squads swing into action until this week. However, great as the odds may seem between the Tan and Cardinal and some of the other opponents, there is always the chance of the dope bucket being upset.

Friday morning in chapel the fifth anniversary of the going into effect of the 18th Amendment was observed. J. H. Larimore made a brief historical address to the students and faculty.

The speaker elaborated on the theme of "Liberty in Law" and pointed out that the eighteenth amendment was ratified by more state legislatures than any one of the last six amendments to the constitution. "It was not pulled over nor was there anything unusual about it," declared the speaker.

SIBYL DRIVE CONTINUES

Final Week in Campaign Opens—
No Extra Copies to Be Ordered.

At the close of a week of publicity and solicitation on the part of the business staff of the 1925 Sibyl under the direction of the circulation manager, Margaret Widdoes, the records show a total of two hundred and fifty copies already subscribed for. One hundred and sixty blanks were signed during the chapel period at the beginning of the week, and the remaining one hundred and forty came as the result of personal solicitation by members of the staff during the week.

A large number of students have not yet been interviewed, and the campaign will be continued during the present week, to give those who have not yet ordered Sibyls a chance to do so. This work will be completed by next Saturday, after which time no more orders will be taken. No extra copies will be printed.

Will Dedicate Pillar of Church As Memorial to Dr. E. E. Burtner

A bronze memorial tablet will soon be placed on a pillar in front of the First United Brethren church bearing an inscription that will fittingly dedicate the pillar to the memory of Dr. Elmer E. Burtner, pastor of the church for nine years. The bronze tablet was purchased by the Wagoner Memorial Bible Class, and inspired by Dean N. E. Cornet, teacher of the class.

DRIBBLES

The "segregation of the sexes" at the basketball games as inaugurated last year will be continued again this year. Now, everyone root until it hurts.

Coach Edler has been putting the varsity men through some stiff workouts the past week with an effort to smooth out some weaknesses uncovered in the Alumni clash.

Several of the varsity men were in attendance at the Wesleyan-Ohio game Saturday night, getting a slant at the strong Methodist crew that will furnish opposition here January 31. Wesleyan defeated Ohio 40-30, gaining some recompense for the gridiron defeat handed them last fall by Ohio.

Captain McCarroll has sufficiently recovered from the knee injury that he may break into the line-up tonight. "Mac" won't be able to give his best until the Wesleyan game next week.

Denison will be represented by a strong team here tonight. Last year the Big Red team was near the top of the heap when the conference race closed. Haskins, Hla and Douglass are the men who are expected to star for Denison in tonight's game.

In Intra-Mural Basketball Standing —Games Arouse Great Interest.

Nine more games of intra-mural basketball last week left three teams in the club league with clean slates. The Annex Club stands at the top with three won and none lost, with the Cook House and Lakota next, each having won the only game played. Country Club and the Jondas are sharing the bottom rung, neither having scored a win as yet.

The closest game in the club league was the Cook House-Country Club game, which the Cooks won, 12-10. Although slow throughout, neither team was able to maintain more than a two point lead very long at a time.

The Sphinx Club came out far, far in the lead in both of its combats. On Thursday it met the Jonda warriors, but soon left them at practically the same place. The score was 32-5. On Saturday afternoon the Sphinxers had Country Club as opponents, who succeeded in scoring seven points against their twenty-seven.

The Annexers proved that they are equal to the best by running up the highest score in the league so far in one game, and a score almost as high in another. On Monday they defeated the Alps, 37-4, and came back Saturday afternoon getting an almost unanimous vote against the Jondas. The count was 32-1.

In the Prune League, the Maroons won both times that their path was crossed. On Monday they whipped the Willy's 8-5, and on Thursday they defeated the Druggists. The score in the Bailey game was 16-12.

The Baileys evened up by getting a four point edge on the Forwards. This game ended a 14-14 tie, but in the over-time, James of the Baileys shot two field goals, winning the game, 18-14. On the same day, the Priests backed the Willys out, 8-5.

The Forwards took their second defeat of the week Saturday afternoon, at the hands of the Hanawalt Club. The first half ended 2-2, but although there was more scoring on both sides in the second half, the "Hanies" won 12-11.

SPRING SCHEDULES

Baseball and Track Schedules Are Announced—Five Home Contests.

Spring sport fans will look with favor on the baseball and track schedules for 1925 as recently announced by Athletic Director R. F. Martin. Neither schedule is complete and additional games and meets are yet being sought.

The baseball schedule calls for six games, three of which are to be played on the local lot. The season begins with a game with Denison here April 24. The four schools to be met will have strong teams and real battles are expected.

The track schedule presents the most complete array of meets scheduled for Otterbein in recent years. Six meets including the Ohio State Relays and the Big Six are on the list.

Only two meets will be staged on the local field. The home season begins with a meet with Kenyon, May 2.

The athletic department has been unable to arrange a tennis schedule as yet but there will be probably a tournament with Denison, and others with Kenyon, Antioch, Ohio Northern and Ohio Wesleyan.

The baseball and track schedules appear below.

KENYON GAME HARD

Otterbein Varsity Looks for Grueling Game Against Kenyon at Gambier Saturday.

Next Saturday Otterbein meets Kenyon at Gambier for the first time in two years in the second game of the season. Kenyon has a much better team than last year and will give the Westerville boys a hard fight. She already has several Ohio Conference victories to her credit and reports from Gambier are to the effect that nothing is going to stop them from adding several more to their string of three wins.

This week Coach Edler will inject a few new formations into the heads of the boys that will keep the Kenyonites guessing for a part of the game, while the old plays are expected to repeat with the same good results as formerly.

HE WILL LEAD VARSITY AGAINST DENISON TONIGHT

Captain McCarroll

"Mac" is the captain of the Varsity basketballers this season. He has been the backbone of the Otterbein defense for the past two years and this year he seems to be going better than ever. As a Frosh "Mac" displayed those qualities which now stamp him as a first class guard and during his Sophomore year he became a Varsity man. As a Junior he showed more class; but this year sees him at his best. His experience coupled with natural ability make him a truly great player and his qualities of leadership make him an ideal captain for this year's team.

Brilliant Athletic Victories Of The Past

May 26, 1916, Elmo Lingrel's home run drive in the thirteenth inning won a 3 to 2 victory for Otterbein over Denison in what Otterbein fans claim was the most interesting and sensational fray ever witnessed on the local lot.

Mundhenk, the iron man of the day, held the Denison sluggers to six scattered hits and in addition struck out nine men. During the last five innings only one opponent was able to reach first base.

Haller, his young battery partner, held him up in stellar fashion, working so hard that he was nearly overcome by the heat in the eleventh inning, but the plucky lad stuck to the job and finished the game.

The pluckiness and nerve of this player is typical of the never-say-die spirit of some of our Otterbein athletes.

COED COLLUM

It seems some folks would be awful lonesome if left alone with their thoughts very often.

Would it be cheating to gaze out the window the night of the astronomy exam?

I thought that I knew quite a lot That cramming was just so much rot, Then took an exam

Woke up with a slam— And now a young student I'm not.

Co—"Who was the date last night?" Ed—"Oh, just a prune."

Said the pious father as he read Jerry's letter about the approaching exams—"Humph, the lamentations of Jeremiah."

LEMON DROPS

Folks I tell you that it's worrying me. Just the other day I saw a certain young Sophomore, a real nice chap too, come into class all bruised, battered, and banged. I asked who hit him and he told me that he had run into several trees on the way to a 7:30 class. Now folks, this is bad, very bad, and in making a brief survey among the students of the Institution I have found that there are just twenty-six (26) such cases on record during the last two weeks. On further investigation I found the cause to be an insufficiency in the lighting arrangements of the campus.

In view of this fact I would recommend that all students having 7:30 classes be furnished with lanterns, said lanterns to be the property of the College and loaned to the students for the nominal sum of $1.98 per year.

In other phrases it is as Dwight Arnold says:

"This thing of getting up, dressing, eating your breakfast, and going to a 7:30 class in the dark is all BOSH!"

In instituting a chapter of Kappa Delta at Mt. Union, Miss Prugh, national chapterian of this organization, spoke with highest regards for the small colleges. She states that small colleges are more interested in scholarship than those of larger schools because there are not as many outside interests to distract their attention.

She also stated that she was much more in favor of co-educational than one sex schools because students of the former type schools have a broader view point than those of the latter.

Last week I could laugh at the Cochran Hall Editor and her complaints about the scarcity of news, but they say "turn about is fair play", so I guess the laugh's on me this week for I'm at my wit's end to invent enough interesting news to fill this column.

"Mike" Quinlan was called to his home in Cincinnati last Wednesday, because of the serious condition of his father, following an operation. Last reports indicate that his father is slightly improved.

Perry Laukhuff's parents and sister drove down from Mt. Vernon Saturday afternoon for a short visit with him.

Merl Killinger made a trip to his home in Akron over the week-end.

Dr. A. T. Howard, '94, of Dayton, was in Westerville Sunday, and came to C. E. in the evening.

The Annex Club journeyed to Centerville Friday evening at the invitation of J. B. Crabbs, '23, and played a practice basketball game with the high school. The Annexers won 53-12.

Sunday evening, returning from a business call at the dormitory at about 9:30 o'clock, I had very forcibly impressed upon me the fact that far too great a congestion occurs about the entrance and walks at that hour. I would suggest that the Student Council immediately get busy and place a traffic officer at each "dorm" to keep things moving.

Don Howard, '26, was in Westerville for a few hours Tuesday afternoon. Don did not return after the Christmas vacation because of a siege of boils. He hopes to be back in school either Wednesday or Thursday.

Harold Mayberry, '25, visited with friends in North Baltimore Saturday and Sunday.

George Slawita and Harry Kalbaugh journeyed to Columbus Saturday afternoon and attended several movies.

The active members of the Sphinx Club were entertained by the pledges at a supper at the Cottage Restaurant Saturday evening.

Dr. A. T. Howard, '94, president of the Bonebrake Theological Seminary at Dayton, was present in chapel yesterday morning and gave an address.

Dalton Buell, '27, was initiated into the Annex Club last Friday night.

Speaking of reading ads those Listerine ads got us to the place where we hesitate to speak to a child for fear of being told something.

Prof. McCloy tells his astronomy class that when they look into the sky they ought to be able to recognize and name every star. Kalbaugh says, "I'm afraid to look because I'll find out how dumb I am."

LIST'N' IN.

Akron University has recently been granted a chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, a national educational fraternity. The qualification for membership is a high standard of grades. This organization is an honorary society for teachers' training institutes. Its presence on any campus is a stimulus to higher standards of scholarship.

Oberlin, after years of dissatisfaction with their Alma Mater, and realizing their lack of other school songs, has decided upon a plan by which they can secure some new songs. They have planned a contest to close January 15, in which the person who presents the best Alma Mater will win $20, some other person $20 for a "General Oberlin song", yet others $5 or $10 for new songs to existing tunes. This seems to be a workable plan for addition of new college songs which are needed almost universally.

Coach Zupke of Illinois University states a few reasons "Why Men Should Play Football."

"To learn forty-nine Don'ts which develop control of self and to develop fifty-one Do's which develop controlled initiative guided by the above forty-nine Don't's. To learn when to express one's-self with abandonment and to get the habit of finishing after one has made the start. To realize as soon in life as possible that everything has its price. For example, you pay for football success by putting in hours of tedious work and receiving physical punishment."
