TIME OUT

FOR GINGER

DEDICATION

James A. Grissinger

Heading Otterbein's Speech Department is Professor James A. Grissinger whom we honor with this program.

Since coming to Otterbein in the fall of 1950, "Prof" has done much to improve and broaden curricula and departmental activities. Television and radio courses have expanded, and under his guidance, W.O.B.C. radio station is now an important part of campus life. With Mr. G. as coach, forensic and debate students have made distinguished records and won many trophies.

This man of easy wit and delightful humor never says "No." Thus, he is always ready to help, to advise or to do the job that must be done.

His interest in theatre is great and his constant encouragement and assistance have been invaluable in the steady growth of Otterbein's drama. He even boasts an acting stint, having appeared in the student production Two Blind Mice in 1952!

To Mr. Grissinger, a favorite professor and friend, we dedicate this program with appreciation and affection.

COWAN MEMORIAL HALL

THE TRADITION

Tonight's production marks the ninth annual student presentation since the tradition was revived in 1948. It is entirely student cast and produced under the auspices of Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society.

ABOUT THE PLAY

When Howard Carol publicly states that he believes nobody should be forced to do what they don't want to do, a chaotic series of events begins. Ginger kicks over the traces by reporting as a candidate for the football team. Howard backs her right to play football and almost loses his job. The school is thrown into a state of utter confusion, and the life of the Carol family becomes overwhelmingly complicated.

SCENE

The entire action takes place in the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carol. It is in a typical American town.

ON STAGE

Joan Durr

Walter Bonnett

Patricia Bland

JOAN DURR, a freshman from Arlington, Va., portrays Mrs. Agnes Carol, the mother in tonight's production. Joan is a psychology and philosophy major and made her first appearance on the Cowan stage this year in a freshman one-act play.

WALTER BONNETT, plays the part of Howard Carol, father of the family. He was seen in many Shakespearean plays and was a member of Antioch Area Theater. He has been seen in Cowan Hall in Antigone, Mr. Angel, The Biggest Thief In Town, and The Crucible. Walt is a member of Cap and Dagger and Theta Alpha Phi, the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity. He attended the Summer School at the University of Denver where he studied theater and speech. He is majoring in Speech and English here at Otterbein. Walt claims Dayton to be his home.

PATRICIA BLAND, a freshman, makes her second appearance tonight on Cowan stage as Ginger, a 14 yr. old tomboy. Pat was seen previously in a freshman one-act play. She is from Chillicothe and is majoring in voice and music education.

JOHN BULLIS makes his sixth appearance on stage tonight as Mr. Wilson, the school principal. John has been seen in The Circle, Knickerbocker Holiday, The Shrike, One Man On The Jury, Biggest Thief In Town, and The Crucible. He is a speech major from Bowling Green, Ohio and is a member of Cap and Dagger. He is also a member of the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity, Theta Alpha Phi. John is technical director for tonight's production.

GARY D. MURRAY makes his first appearance on the Cowan stage this evening as Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Carol's boss. Gary, a junior, is from Marion, Ohio and is a speech major here at Otterbein. He is a member of Cap and Dagger and a staff member of WOBC.

LARRY ZAGRAY, a freshman, makes his first appearance on Cowan stage tonight as Eddie Davis, the athlete. Larry is from Canton, Ohio, and is a music major.

All past and present members of Cap and Dagger are cordially invited to attend the reception immediately following the play in ~~Cochran Hall dining room.~~ Cowan Lobby

We would like to thank our advertisers, Brown-Royal Furniture Co., and those who have helped to make tonight's production possible. We sincerely hope you find the performance enjoyable.

CAP and DAGGER DRAMATICS SOCIETY

FLOYD MAY makes his first appearance tonight as Tommy Green, Ginger's boyfriend. Floyd is from Sugarcreek, Ohio, and is a junior. He played in most of his high school productions, and played the lead in the community theater production of One Foot In Heaven. He is a speech major. Floyd is a transfer student from Kent State University.

FRAN MYERS, a senior, plays the part of Liz, the humorous maid. Fran is a transfer student from Tonkawa, Okla. Junior College, where she participated in all the major plays such as Our Town & The Rivals. She was also a member of the dramatics group that toured the neighboring high schools. Fran is a journalism major and is a member of Cap and Dagger.

WAVALENE KUMLER appears on Cowan Hall stage for the first time tonight as Joan, the oldest sister. Wavalene is a freshman from Columbus and is a pre-nursing student. She was in the dramatics club in high school and had a leading role in the senior production, I Remember Mama.

EMILY BALE plays the part of Jennie, the 16 year old daughter. This is Emily's first appearance on Cowan stage, but she did participate in dramatics in high school. Emily is a sophomore from Westerville and is an elementary education major.

BACKSTAGE

ALLEN KEPKE, the student director is one of the most important men behind stage this evening. Al has had quite a bit of experience both on stage and back stage. He has appeared in The Circle, Knickerbocker Holiday, The Biggest Thief in Town, and The Lady's Not for Burning. Back home in Fairview Park, Ohio he played the supporting role in Harvey, a production of a local theater group. Al, a junior, is majoring in Speech and English. He has worked with most of the plays on Cowan's stage so he is not a stranger to the student.

JOHN BULLIS, the technical director is familiar with his backstage post. His knowledge of stage technique has developed through past experience as stage manager of Antigone and the freshman one-act plays. John worked on the staging of The Student Prince, The Heiress, The Bat, and Mr. Angel. He was the technical director for last year's student production, The Biggest Thief In Town. He comes from Bowling Green, Ohio, where he was seen in his senior class play and various one-act plays.
