HOME-COMING IS BIG SUCCESS

Home-coming Banquet Is Big Success and Features in Day's Program.

RALLY GOES BIG

Large Number of Alumni and Friends Return for Big Event of School Year.

Otterbein entertained the largest number of alumni at Home-coming in the history of the institution last week-end. All the natural conditions pointed toward a great Home-coming for some of the most beautiful weather of the season was enjoyed during the Home-coming days.

The alumni began to come Thursday in time for the women's Literary Societies, which prepared special invited sessions for the alumni. Some of the alumni were put in the chairs to see if they had forgotten what they had learned. Luncheons were served in the informal part of the programs.

By Friday night many more alumni had arrived in time to attend the Installation Sessions of the men's Literary Societies. Philophronea and Philomatheia both had the pleasure of meeting with some of their most distinguished alumni and a proof of the enthusiasm present was shown by the

Freshmen and Sophomores Work Hard In Preparation For Debate

In preparation for the Freshman-Sophomore Debate to be held Dec. 11 both classes are hard at work in the Varsity debate room and library digging away on material to use in the coming class combat.

The Varsity debaters have been divided into two divisions to work on their respective sides of the question until the next call which will come about Thanksgiving time.

Coach McCarty has as his purpose the turning out of teams as good as any in the state and is beginning early to assure success.

Otterbein's debating schedule will open Feb. 26 with a pre-season dual meet with Capital.

COUNCIL BANQUETS

Members of Student Council and Faculty Representatives Banquet Tuesday Evening.

Last Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock the Maple Tree Tea Room was the scene of an unusual event. The members of the Student Council and their guests, Mrs. Nellie Noble, Prof. Weinland, Dean Cornet and President Clippinger, participated in an evening's entertainment of both pleasure and profit.

Floyd McGuire introduced the toastmistress, Elizabeth Saxour, who cleverly presided over the program. The following subjects were discussed: "Student Government", Emmett McCarroll; "What Shall We Do With the Social Group", Prof. Weinland; "Woman's Place at Otterbein," Dean McFadden, presented by Lenore Smith; "Cochran Hall", Edith Oyler; "Student Administration", Dean Cornet. Extemporaneous speeches were given by Mrs. Noble and President Clippinger.

Lucile Judy and Carl Eschbach delightfully contributed to the evening's program with vocal solos.

Memorial services were held Sunday in Dayton for E. L. Shuey, former head of the Otterbein board of trustees. Men high in International Y. M. C. A. circles took part in the ceremonies in Mr. Shuey's honor.

GRID GAME WITH MUSKINGUM WILL FEATURE WESTERVILLE DAY PROGRAM

FOOTBALL SCORE BOARD GRACES ATHLETIC FIELD.

The old chapel pews have seen their best and last days and now they are serving a new purpose. Last week before "Home-Coming" several of the industrious type got together and built a score board out of some of the old seats.

The new board is ten feet long and seven feet wide and was erected on a large scaffold ten feet from the ground at the north end of the athletic field. On the board is painted in large white letters on a black background the positions for the Otterbein and visitors' scores. Just below it are the "Downs" and "Yards To Go". At the top of the board is a large clock with numerals up to fifteen and a large indicating arrow which shows the number of minutes in that quarter left to play. The number plates are made up of sheet metal painted black with white figures.

During the game there will be two attendants on duty all the time with constant telephone communication between them and the sidelines in order to assure correct score keeping.

Football Game at 2:30 Will Be Big Event of Westerville Day.

STUDENTS TO PARADE

College and Business Men's Association Cooperate to Stage Big Program.

Westerville will again put on her gala attire next Friday in honor of Otterbein and the Tan and Cardinal's big battle with Muskingum. It is chiefly through the efforts of the Business Men's Association that "Westerville Day" will be an actual reality. The Association is particularly anxious to back Otterbein and her football team. The entire town will be decorated in bunting and tan and cardinal flags and all the business houses excepting restaurants will be closed after two o'clock.

A gigantic parade will form on State street between Main and College a short time before the game begins and will march directly to the field. A. M. Spohn and F. E. Sanders are in charge of the parade. Prof. R. F. Martin and Mr. Siebert, a former student in Otterbein, have been cooperating to stir up interest among the members of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis Club, and, as a consequence, have secured the assurance that one hundred to one hundred and fifty automobiles loaded with members of these two bodies will form one section of the parade.

The Otterbein Band and the Westerville Band in co-operation with each other will lead the parade. Since the season for the town band ended some time ago, members of that organization have consented to join forces

SPECIAL PRICES MADE FOR WESTERVILLE DAY CONTEST

The Athletic Department announces that in connection with the Westerville Day celebration special prices of admission will be made for the Otterbein-Muskingum football game.

The advance sale of tickets will be $.75 while admission to the game at the gate will be $1.00. Tickets will be on sale at Freemans' and at Norris'.

The Westerville Hi football squad will attend the game in a body. Tickets will be on sale at the high school and will be sold to Westerville Hi students for $.25.

Hursh's Entertain Football Squad And Coaches With Turkey Dinner

The entire Otterbein football squad consisting of men, coaches and manager, numbering some thirty-five in all were guests last Wednesday evening to a sumptuous turkey dinner given by Professor and Mrs. Hursh.

The seemingly impossible task of furnishing turkey for two score gridders fresh from the football field and worn from the afternoon's practice was accomplished and the dinner served the men was not only refreshing physically but the squad was never higher than in the game of speech making which featured the evening's program.

The bounteous dinner in itself was a "knock-out" with turkey, oyster dressing, cranberry sauce and all that goes with the luckless bird—and all in such quantities that even Richter-like appetites were forced to say no to the Freshman football men who were serving.

Following the dinner, speeches were given by the five seniors on the squad and by Coaches Ditmer, Edler and Troop. "Kotsy" Durr was awarded first prize on his address, "Why I Always Talk to the Referee".

Groups of girls then added in boosting the squad by giving some Otterbein yells and singing the college songs.

The spirit of the occasion, the hearty welcome and treatment by Prof. and Mrs. Hursh, not only sent every man away with turkey packed tight under his belt, but also with a new determination under his hide that whatever might be the cost he would give his all for Otterbein.

The dinner was the first of its kind ever given the squad, and its contribution to the good feeling, morale and "clubby feeling" of the men was inestimable.

ALUMNAE SESSION

Alumnae Members of Philaethea
Conduct Session
Thursday.

The Home-coming session of Philaethea last Thursday evening was a vocational session conducted by the alumnae of the society. Old members filled all the offices and furnished the entire program. Mrs. Frank J. Resler (Elizabeth Copper) was president, Mrs. Ralph W. Smith (Helen Ensor) served as secretary, and Miss Gertrude Scott as critic.

Much merriment was caused by the report of the judiciary committee, given by the censor, Mrs. E. L. Porter (Nora Wills). Mrs. E. A. Lawrence (Lillian Menk) appealed from the decision of the committee, but was not sustained, and as a fine had to deliver an extemporaneous speech on Woman in the Home.

The regular program consisted of a group of songs by Mrs. Mabel Crabbs Starkey; an address, Women in Christian Work, by Miss Janet Gilbert of Dayton, Ohio; A Bid for Librarians by Miss Mary Neikirk Baker; a violin solo by Miss Hazel Barngrover; Present Day Journalism by Miss Rowena H. Landon; and a vocal solo by Miss Ruth D. Ingle of Dayton.

The president then called upon Miss Elva Lyon to speak extemporaneously on Woman and Teaching, and Mrs. James M. Davis (Laura Smith), president of the large Columbus Woman's Club, to speak on Woman in Club Life. As a closing number the song, Philaethea was sung to the old tune, Mrs. Thomas H. Kohr (Della Coe) acting as chorister and Mrs. F. E. Miller (Nellie Knox) as pianist. Fifty-two former members of the society answered to roll call; the oldest one among them had joined fifty-two years ago.

After adjournment the Westerville alumnae entertained the present members and their guests at an informal reception in the hall. Light refreshments were served and the old and new members had a delightful time together.

E. J. PACE, '05, GIVES
LECTURE IN CHAPEL

On his way to Orlando, Florida, where he will spend four months of intensive study on his new lecture "The Law of the Octave", Rev. E. J. Pace stopped in Westerville last Wednesday morning and gave a short, humorous talk in chapel about his life and active career.

Last year Rev. Pace was the pastor of the First United Brethren Church in Canton which church is the largest in the United Brethren denomination having a membership of two thousand and a Sunday School membership of three thousand.

Since his graduation from Otterbein in 1905 Rev. Pace has been engaged in mission work and was a foreign missionary for a number of years in the Philippines. He was Professor of Missions in the Moody Bible Institute for some time. However, missionary work is not the only field Rev. Pace is interested in. When he was only eighteen years old he was a cartoonist of note on a large Chicago daily. Some of the best cartoons that he drew while in Otterbein were the caricatures of the professors which appeared in the 1905 Sibyl. Rev. Pace also draws and writes a great deal for religious periodicals.

CHAUCER CLUB DISCUSSES
PULITZER PRIZE AWARDS

The Chaucer Club met Wednesday evening in Cochran Hall to discuss two additional features of the Pulitzer prize awards. Alice George, to account for the uniqueness of Robert Frost sketched his life. Josephine Albert read and discussed Robert Frost's latest poem, "New Hampshire, a poem with notes and grace-notes". Edith Oyler gave an interesting resume of Hatcher Hughe's drama, "Hell-bent fer Heaven". Alice Sanders reviewed current news notes.

The program furnished unusual instruction and entertainment. Every number, with its wealth of worthwhileness, was heightened in interest by its excellent presentation.

Professor Hursh's Mother Dies

To Professor Hursh the Otterbein student body extends its deepest sympathy on the death of his mother, Mrs. Harriet Hursh who died in Mansfield last Thursday. Mrs. Hursh was nearly seventy-seven years old and had been bedfast only eight days before she died. When Professor Hursh reached his old home Thursday afternoon Mrs. Hursh had been dead only a few minutes. Professor Hursh's father and five brothers and sisters all of whom live near Mansfield survive.

fact that present and past Philophroneans met at midnight and gave the dorms a Philophronean serenade.

Enthusiasm was at its best in the rally held in the college chapel Saturday morning. Between the cheers and songs Otterbein students heard messages from some of the former players, among whom were Anderson,

'24, Tibright, '22, and "Cupe" Lambert, '11.

An hour before the game many students met at the Association Building to prove their loyalty to their team by marching in the annual Home-coming Parade. The parade, which was led by the Otterbein Band, followed by floats of various organizations about the campus, marched from the Association Building through the main streets of Westerville and from there to the climax and central interest of the whole Home-coming, the football game with Heidelberg.

After the game the largest Home-coming banquet in the history of Otterbein was held in the evening in the basement of the U. B. church at six o'clock. The committee in charge contemplated an attendance of about 260 but before the time of the event it was clearly seen that the attendance would far excel the predictions, for over 300 advance sale tickets were sold. The old Otterbein spirit and enthusiasm were there despite the fact that some had to be turned away because of the banquet hall's being filled to its capacity.

After the assembly had dined, Wendell Camp introduced I. R. Libecap, '09, as toastmaster of the evening. In his opening remarks Mr. Libecap sounded the key-note for the evening, "Greater Loyalty to Otterbein."

After dinner speeches were made by Emmet McCarroll, Don Howard, Professor Martin, Coach Ditmer and A. L. Lambert.

WHERE EVERYBODY GOES

'11. John Finley Williamson, director of the famous Westminster Choir of Dayton, Ohio, will bring his choir to Columbus, Ohio, for a concert in Memorial Hall on the evening of December 15. Last year Mr. Williamson and his choir made an extensive tour through the West and next year they are expecting to go to Europe on a concert tour.

'09. Miss Una Karg, who has been engaged for several years in hotel work in Florida during the winter and in the North during the summer, has opened a Tea Room in Greensboro, North Carolina, near the North Carolina College for Women.

'87. Dr. Andrew Timberman, chairman of the county division of the Community Fund Campaign of Columbus, Ohio, presided at a dinner of campaign workers at the Deshler Hotel last Wednesday evening.

'11. Ira D. Warner, pastor of the First United Brethren Church of Akron, Ohio, is just completing a building enterprise for his church. A fine new church will be dedicated by his congregation this month. This structure which is costing over two hundred thousand dollars is one of the best churches in the denomination and the people of Akron and especially the pastor are to be congratulated on it.

'77. Judge Charles M. Rogers of Columbus, Ohio, was reelected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in Franklin County by a very flattering majority at the election last Tuesday. During the time he has been on the bench, Judge Rogers has established a reputation for honesty and impartiality that has brought him deserved recognition from the voters of the county.

'92. Frank J. Resler of Columbus, Ohio, is now in Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he is putting on a campaign for funds to build and equip a fine, large hospital.

'07. E. Clark Worman will sail from New York City on the Mauretania of the Cunard Line for England next Saturday on his return to India, after spending two months in this country. Since the close of the conference of leaders of the Young Men's Christian Association at Lake Placid, which Mr. Worman came to this country to attend, he has been traveling in the interest of the foreign work of the Association in Canada, Ohio, Massachusetts, and New York.

'23. Dan Harris, former soloist of the Otterbein Men's Glee Club, is achieving splendid success as a music instructor in Rocky Ford, Colorado. He has complete charge of the music in the high school there, which includes glee club, orchestra and band. Besides his work in the high school,

Mr. Harris is the supervisor of high school music.

CLUB TALK

Winning Teams

Many alumni, students and friends of Otterbein have been offering suggestions as to how we can have winning athletic teams, but nothing has been forthcoming. We have satisfied ourselves that a winning team is an impossibility until we have a new gym and greater endowment for the Athletic Department.

Every one of these is a gross fallacy. THERE IS BUT ONE THING THAT WILL PRODUCE WINNING TEAMS AND THAT IS A WINNING SPIRIT. Saturday we were beaten by a team of inferior ability. Heidelberg with her seventy-five rooters showed as much spirit as the thousand friends that represented Otterbein. Those seventy-five men and the eleven men on the field won that game. A mere handful of girls in the grandstand were all that rooted consistently for our team. The others sat back, not enough interested to speak.

Until defeat hurts each and every one of us, when we no longer go about consoling ourselves that we were up against a superior team and we had no chance, until we realize that the team represents us, that defeat is a disgrace to our interest, until we can put aside group spirit and fight and pray and work and live for our school and her honor then, and only then will we have a winning team.

No man, no family, no city, no state, no nation ever won fame until that man, that family, that city, or that nation was willing to give all they had for the common cause. The founders of Otterbein were loyal to its cause. They fought, they lived, they died, that we might enjoy the fruits of their labors. Are we going to rot and no longer evince interest in their work? Are we proud to read

40. Otterbein 0? Is that the Otterbein they dreamed of? Spirit, fight, drive, and above all, LOYALTY are necessary for a winning team, a new gymnasium, a new men's dormitory, a new president's home, a new class building and the hundred and one things that Otterbein must have.

Are we going to allow our school to stagnate, lose interest in everything, except that which we feel will net dollars to us or hurt us least? If we choose the latter, far better would it be that we had never come to college, that we had never gone to high school or even grade school. We are poor only when we think we are poor, we are defeated when we think we are defeated, we have reached our limit when we have gone as far as we think we can go. Wealth, success, and happiness are won only when we have ever before us a higher and yet higher goal of attainment. When each and every one of us realizes that we can have a winning team, a new gymnasium, and the other sadly needed improvements, we shall have them. Before that time we shall not deserve them.

Awake Alumni! Awake Students!

The world has no limits for us if we will labor. Yea Otterbein, Yea Otterbein, Glorious Now and Forever!

LEST WE FORGET

The clangor of war recedes;
scars heal; hearts mend.

But today the years roll back—and we remember.

Crosses in France; maimed bodies—a heritage of sacrifice too precious to be forgotten.

Debts

Those who must ask for money dislike the task even more than those who are asked. Both parts may be included in some of those distasteful things that make up life.

There is something about it all that makes it peculiarly obnoxious to us and that is, that all this worry could be forgotten if it were not for the few who are continually behind in their obligations. Clubs and organizations alike are lax in paying their debts to local business houses.

Credit is readily extended to students and campus organizations by the business men of Westerville but any organization whether willfully or through neglect that fails to meet a debt promptly when due should feel deeply chagrined. Right here in college is the best place to begin to observe the fundamental rules of good business practice. Neglect and poor business policy here only mean the same kind of business administration in later life. Meet your debts promptly and don't take advantage of the credit extended by local merchants.

Here at Otterbein our debts are legitimate ones and should be paid immediately. We should always make plans to meet our bills at the proper time if only for the selfish purpose of making better business men of ourselves. Play square with those who willingly give you credit.

— O C —

More Men Needed

One of the most essential factors in building up a winning team is the availability of men. If the coach does not have many men to use each night during practice he is under a big handicap. And this is just the condition with which our coaches are now struggling.

Men are needed to fill up the broken ranks of the second team. A good second team is the life and support of the varsity. The better the second team and the stiffer the opposition it puts up the better the practice will be for the varsity. Dead seconds make a dead varsity.

The day is past when a football game can be won by eleven men.
Eleven men plus good substitutes equals a winning team. A team is only as strong as its substitutes. Then the scrub is as valuable as the varsity man himself. It takes competition to make a winner so do your part to give us a winning team.

— O C —

Will We Win the Game?

Five games of the football schedule are history and only two more contests yet remain to be played.
What concerns us now is on what side of the ledger the next two games will be entered. It is largely up to the students for they have it to decide whether or not the game next Friday with Muskingum will be won.

Don't forget, students, that you have a share in sending a winning team on the field. Don't slow up the cheering no matter what the stage of the game or what the score is. Consistent cheering and rooting is one of the biggest factors that enter into the turning in of a win. During the week talk victory, encourage the team, get out on the field every practice night and victory will be helped.

This game with Muskingum Friday is the last home game of the season and a victory must be scored.
Remember the team will be out there doing its best. Will you?

— O C —

The Cheer Leader

What a wondrous creature is the college cheer leader! He blooms in the fall colorful like the wild aster.
Adverse weather may damp his finery but it never touches his spirit. Victory and defeat are all one to him.
His one function is noise. If the team loses it's not his fault, but if the grand stand has three minutes of quiet he flunks on the job.

Cheer leading, once a mere avocation, is fast assuming the dignities of a profession. Like a good judge, the cheer leader must be born, for it is beyond human skill to make him.
Strength of lung plenitude of double-acting joints in arms and legs, pulchritude personal popularity, a never-say-die spirit and talent for leadership—these are the qualities that make for success in that wildly gyrating, howling dervish who shouts at you through his megaphone and sends you home sore-throated.

Times and customs change, as they say in Latin. People at college games used to cheer when and if they had something to cheer about. Now they cheer because a highly developed human noise machine barks at you if you don't.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

STUDENT CLASSES MAY BE REORGANIZED

Plan Is Proposed to Reorganize
Student Sunday School Classes.

A committee of faculty members, students and Sunday School teachers headed by Professor Hursh has been working on a proposed reorganization for the Young People's Department of the Sunday School.

The proposal for change came out of a discussion group of faculty members and students. In discussing campus problems the suggestion was made that the Sunday School hour should be made more of a discussion period for young people to try to solve the practical problems of Christianity, instead of following the present plan of having the lesson presented as prepared by the International Sunday School Association (Religious Education Council).

In brief the reorganization would consist in organizing a Young People's Department to meet separately at the Sunday School hour in the college Chapel. Dr. Sander's class and Mrs. Cook's class would keep their present class organization and become a part of a larger organization. In fact the new department would consist chiefly of these two classes but possibly all young people of the Sunday School would be included.

Professor Hursh states that the organization, if affected, will be based on modern Sunday School departmentalization standards. A department organization of the young people themselves would conduct the opening exercises.

The young men and young women would have separate class organization for class matters. The big change would be in the method of teaching. Instead of the large groups that now exist, for teaching purposes the department would be divided into small groups containing from twelve to fifteen people. The group would not use the International Sunday School lessons but would base their discussions on their own problems of Christian living.

If the proposed plan materializes it will affect the college students as it includes Dr. Sander's and Mrs. Cook's classes. The advocates of the plan are very zealous in its defense, saying that it will afford the college students and young people in general a better means for solving their practical religious problems.

MANY STUDENTS HEAR PACE LECTURE WEDNESDAY

Dr. E. J. Pace, who spoke in Chapel Wednesday morning, spoke at the Central Presbyterian Church in Columbus that night. Dr. Pace addressed a convention of the Pocket Testament League, using his famous lecture, "The Law of the Octave in the World and the Word."

A carload of Otterbein students heard the lecture which was profusely illustrated with stereopticon slides of his own drawings and cartoons.

BUSINESS MEN DECORATE TOWN FOR HOMECOMING

Thanks to the business men of Westerville, the alumni of Otterbein were greeted Saturday morning with dozens of tan and cardinal flags floating from poles placed at regular intervals in the business section. The sight was most inspiring and created a lot of favorable comment.

The executive committee of the Business Men's Association acted on their own initiative and made the flags, and placed them on the street early Saturday morning as a surprise to citizens and students alike. Now that they are available it will form a splendid means of dressing up Westerville for Otterbein events.

Y. W. C. A.

The topic of Y. W. Tuesday evening was, "Bluffing and Knocking." For devotions Helen Cherry read a portion of Matthew 7. The leader, Elizabeth Saxour, talked of bluffing and knocking as we find them on our own campus. Three questions were brought up for discussion. Mabel Walters, Margaret Babbitt, Ruth Lucas and Alice Sanders discussed the question, "How truly are a man's acts a picture of what he is?" Mary Bennett and Verne Gorsuch gave reasons why the man you can count on is so much in demand. Verda Evans, Mae Mickey and Margaret Widdoes told just how valuable to a team is the man who plays to the grandstand.

Rev. D. Gilbert Cox Addressed Y. M. C. A. Last Thursday Night

Rev. D. Gilbert Cox, who has recently returned from a study of conditions in Europe spoke to Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night on the general theme of European conditions.

Rev. Cox made a thorough study of labor conditions in England and some of his statements about the labor situation in England are surprising. Rev. Cox affirmed that there were many persons in England with Ph. D. degrees, wearing ragged clothes and subsisting upon a very meager supply of food. He went on to say that millions were walking the streets unable to find employment. Furthermore he added that it is necessary for England to be jealous of her navy on account of the industrial condition, for England depends upon imports supplying her with food two days out of every three.

"That the United States would have acted the same as France towards Germany had she been in the same position," was a good point which Rev. Cox emphasized. Concerning France's economic condition he stated that France owes more money than all her resources and that the invasion of the Ruhr Valley was only a desperate attempt to solve the situation.

Concerning Germany Rev. Cox declared that the economic conditions were far from being good and that most of the burden was put upon the innocent, trustworthy and poorer class of German people.

AIR ATTACK SPELLS DEFEAT FOR TEAM

Varsity Puts Up Hard Fight But Breaks Go Against Team and Game Is Lost 6-0.

Before one of the largest Homecoming crowds in the history of the school O. C. was defeated in the last quarter by a lone touchdown. It was an evenly fought game, O. C. getting six first downs to Heidelberg's eight, but O. C. made most of theirs in the first half, while Heidelberg drew almost all of theirs in the last half.

The only score came early in the fourth quarter. After a few passes, most of which were batted by O. C. backs before coming to rest in the hands of a H. U. man, the ball was placed on the 4 yard line and two bucks by Captain DeWitt put it over.

O. C. lost its big and only chance to tally in the last part of the first half, when after a 25 yard pass, Renner to Porosky, the oval was placed on the 13 yard line. Three cracks at the line netted 6 yards and with four to go a pass was tried, but was grounded back of the goal line for a touchback.

Captain DeWitt and LeGalley were the offensive stars, while Mann at right tackle put up a great defensive game for Heidelberg. McCarroll was Otterbein's best bet in the backfield, bucking the line consistently for nice gains. He also was responsible for about the only thrilling moment in the slowly played game, by his return of the kick-off after Heidelberg's touchdown, to the middle of the field. From here O. C. tried vainly to score by the passing route but it was a fruitless attempt, completing one pass to Porosky for a short gain.

It is rather a hard job to pick the stars on the O. C. line for the whole line played a fairly good game up until the fourth quarter, but in this period the strain started to tell and H. U. pushed one over. Captain Reck played a good game, while Richter broke through several times and made some nice tackles.

The Line-up

Otterbein (0)	Pos. (6)	Heidelberg
Porosky	R. E.	Oldfather
Richter	R. T.	Mann
Collier	R. G.	Bucher
Reck (C)	C.	Funk
Durr	L. G.	Bobb
Garver	L. T.	Overholt
Ruffini	L. E.	Stubblefield
Renner	Q. B.	DeWitt
Widdoes	R. H.	LeGalley
Snively	L. H.	Prugh
McCarroll	F. B.	Forritter

Officials—Wells, O. S. U., referee; Hoyer, O. S. U., umpire; Corday, O. W. U., head linesman. Touchdown—DeWitt. Quarters—15 minutes.

MUSKINGUM NEXT

Otterbein Gridders Will Meet Muskingum on Local Field Next Friday.

When Otterbein takes on Muskingum here next Friday afternoon, she will be playing a team just three notches higher in the Ohio Conference. Muskingum has won two and lost three of her Conference games while Otterbein has won one and lost four.

Muskingum's 6-0 victory of last year has not been forgotten on the Otterbein campus, and neither have the conditions under which the victory was captured by the eastern Ohio team. The Muskingum field was heavy with mud and water, making good football impossible. Twice the Big Tan gridders carried the ball over, only to fumble, and at the end of the game they had the ball on their opponents' three yard line, ready to buck it over. This heart-breaking defeat will have to be avenged in Friday's game.

Comparative showings made this year puts Muskingum right in Otterbein's class, which means that the game will be intensely interesting. Last Saturday Wittenberg defeated them 21-0. Near the beginning of the season Case also won from her by a considerable margin. Next Friday the Tan and Cardinal team will prove to them that Otterbein is still in line for victories.

Second Annual Cross Country
Run to Be Held Next Monday

Next Monday afternoon at four o'clock the second annual Freshman cross country run will be held. Every Freshman is required to participate in this event in order to get credit in gymnasium work.

The route of the race, will be around the two mile square and the finish tape will be at the corner of Grove and Main streets.

One prize is given for this event by the Athletic Department. A bronze medal with the name of the winner engraved on it is awarded to the one who completes the run in the best time. Those Sophomores who failed to do this work last year are eligible for first prize also.

Columbus Business Men

To Cheer For Otterbein

Next Friday in the Otterbein stands there will be a section reserved for a delegation of men representing the Manufacturers and Wholesalers Association of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. This group of men come to Westerville in connection with the celebration of Westerville Day and at the football game will sit together and root for Otterbein.

LEAGUE LEADERS HAD EASY TIME SATURDAY

The Ohio Conference leaders had little trouble keeping on top in Saturday's games. Cincinnati and Akron did not prove to be very much of a menace to the title holders' positions, when Oberlin and Ohio Wesleyan played them last Saturday.

Oberlin was forced to journey from the north end of the state to the extreme south end to defeat the University of Cincinnati. Forward passing aided them materially in their fourteen to nothing victory.

The first conference team to defeat Wooster in three years did not worry the Wesleyan crew especially when the two met on Saturday afternoon. Wesleyan crossed Akron's goal line twice, while the Rubber City boys made one touchdown.

Case proved that she is still one of the strongest teams in the conference by handing Wooster its second defeat of the season with a score of 7-3.

Muskingum, Otterbein's next visitor, fell before Wittenberg, who stacked up three touchdowns and were generous enough to fork over a goose-egg in return.

St. Xavier, who will serve as hosts to the Tan team in Otterbein's last game of the season, tied with Kenyon, the score being 7-7.

Only One Out of Four

In the last five years Otterbein and Muskingum engaged in four football games. Muskingum triumphed three times against our lone victory, scored two years ago. Last year they won on a fluke. Who will be the victor this year?

1919—Otterbein 0, Muskingum, 19.
1920—Otterbein 0, Muskingum 24.
1922—Otterbein 26, Muskingum 7.
1923—Otterbein 0, Muskingum 6.
1924—Otterbein ?, Muskingum ?.

Week's Standing in Soccer League Remains Unchanged

Very little scoring featured the soccer ball games last week. Only three points were scored in both games, one of which was made in an over-time period.

The second clash between the Sophomores and Freshmen came on Monday afternoon. The Frosh showed much better form and ability than they displayed in the first tilt between these two classes, but they had not improved enough to score on their opponents. The Sophomores came out the victors with a score of 2-0.

The Seniors won their fifth consecutive victory, and, incidentally, their second one over the Juniors in a close game on Wednesday. Neither team was able to score during the game, but in the over time period the Seniors managed to kick the ball through for one point.

The present standing:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Seniors	5	0	1.000
Sophomores	4	1	.800
Juniors	0	4	.000
Freshmen	0	4	.000

SIDELINES

The contest Saturday was witnessed by the biggest crowd that ever attended a football game on the local field.

Exact statistics are not available but Heidelberg out weighed the locals both on the line and in the backfield.

The pass from Renner to Porosky late in the first half was the one bright light in the Otterbein offense.

The line was able to open holes through which the Tan backs were able to plunge for gains of five and six yards.

The work of McCarroll and Snively in the backfield featured in the locals' offense.

The Otterbein team is a team of hard losers. Don't misunderstand. There is a lot of difference between a poor loser and a hard loser. A poor loser is a poor sport, but a hard loser is the one who makes the best of the defeat and begins at once to plan to come back the next time.

The line put up a stiff defense throughout the game. Captain Reck, Durr, Collier and Richter did fine work in stopping the plunges of Heidelberg's backs.

"Good Things to Eat"

Cochran Hall entertained so many guests this week end, it was thought the Association would have to ask for a full page to publish the list, but inasmuch as the grant was not made, activities instead of personnel will occupy this column.

The Onyx Club and twelve Home-coming guests were entertained Saturday evening after the game with a delightful tea at the home of Isabel Nolan.

Mabel Bordner's parents were with her Saturday and Sunday.

The Owl Club feted their eighteen guests with a breakfast Saturday morning at the Tea Room.

Ruth Hursh went to her grandmother's funeral Friday.

Professor and Mrs. Schear had as their guest Miss Jane Weibel of Dover Sunday.

For their six alumni and for their new members, Mabel Walter, Mida Steele, and Edith Moore, the Arcady Club entertained at the home of Mrs. Ethel Wright Wilburg Saturday night.

A jolly and typical slumber party was arranged for the Tomo Dachi Club and twenty guests Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Alice Abbott Dellinger.

Frances Slade entertained her father, sister, and girl friend at Cochran Hall Sunday noon.

The Talisman Club gave a lovely tea Sunday afternoon for several Home-coming friends and a few Freshman girls. A slumber party was the special feature Saturday night for the out-of-town guests.

Florence Vance's family visited her Saturday and Sunday.

The Greenwich Club was charmingly entertained by ten of their alumni Saturday evening. The occasion was a party Saturday night in the dormitory.

Ernestine Schmitt, after an absence of a week due to illness, has returned to school.

Fifteen guests enjoyed a splendid luncheon given by the Polygon Club at the Tea Room Saturday noon.

Dorothy Wadsworth spent the week end with her parents in Columbus.

The Lotus Club, for Ruth Lyon, Mary Thase, and Josephine Flannigan, entertained with a breakfast at the Cottage Restaurant Saturday morning.

The home of Mrs. J. P. West was the setting for a lively Home-coming party at which the Arbutus Club entertained twenty guests Saturday evening.

We are all deeply grieved that Lucile Roberts, who was called home Friday, has lost her mother.

Another slumber party! Several alumni and new girls enjoyed this diversion furnished by the Phoenix Club at the home of Betty White Saturday night.

CO-ED'S COLLUM

Turkey in the Straw is coming back into popularity as a national anthem.

Considering the length of the hold-ers we've seen some men sure do keep cigarettes at a distance.

We may not be much on a tennis court but we ought to qualify as a horsewoman at least, after Saturday's game.

It's a shame we couldn't make the verb in Beat Heidelberg an adjective, isn't it?

We came, we saw, we purchased—but the five hundred bucks aren't ours.

You can blame anyone in particular if this collum is rather dry. Water's so scarce nowadays. And if it's too short—well, we have been so busy hunting our stray Gold Day coupons.

We had a great Home-coming—we saw Darn Bill, The Dorm Imp, and S. P. W. D. B., all former celebrities of the Tan and Cardinal.

LEMON DROPS

Now that we have settled for the next four years the momentous question as to which can sling the most mud, the Republicans or the Democrats, and are getting back on our feet financially as a nation after pre-election slump and on our feet financially as individuals owing to a slight miscalculation in our favorite's constituents—since all this has happened and we have survived (even tho some still prophecy that the country is sure to go to the dogs)—well we are glad that it is all over.

We wish to beg the gentle reader to tarry with us this week in view of the fact that we have no jokes for this column. We do have some but we feel that they must give way to weightier matters.

It would neither be fitting nor proper not to notice the Home-coming in this column. To make things as brief as possible. They came. They rooted. We rooted. They slapped us on the back and called us good fellows. We slapped them on the back—ditto—ditto. They spread a line about what a good bunch of men were still in school. Same bunk from us. Midnight feeds that last till the next morning. Give them your beds. You sleep on the floor. Good sports, you know, for it doesn't really matter since you didn't get any sleep the night before. And the—aw what's the use I'm too sleepy to go on any farther except that the student body has returned to normalcy.—I don't have my lessons for tomorrow but I'm going to bed anyway.—This is normalcy.

LIST'NIN' IN

At Denison the publication staff of the college annual sells Christmas greeting cards to provide additional revenue for the publication of this book. Committees are organized to canvass students, faculty, the town and business houses of Granville.

Interesting statistics have been gleaned by the Baldwin-Wallace Exponent in a recent survey made concerning the management of college publications. In only five of the 35 colleges reporting is there failure to recognize concretely the work done by the editor and business manager. In some schools college credit is given, while in others salaries are paid. Six colleges reported having journalism classes connected directly with the paper, either editing the paper or choosing the staff from the members of the class.

At West Virginia Wesleyan students are given a chance to take part in the chapel services. On one occasion the services are in charge of the Student Council. Again members of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. have charge, discussing such subjects as the "Honor System" and "College Standards." This gives a variety to chapel services and at the same time secures student opinion about campus life.

Mt. Union, realizing that their losing to Case could be attributed in great part to a lack of support from the grandstand, has organized a band of upper classmen known as the "Hundred Howlers" whose aim it is to support the team. Each member signed a pledge to attend all games and rallies with a megaphone and without a date so that plenty of noise can be made.

GRID GAME TO FEATURE WESTERVILLE DAY PROGRAM

with the Otterbein Band and make a greater band than Westerville has ever seen.

All of the business houses in town will be decorated with bunting and tan and cardinal. To the flag staffs, the holders for which are distributed throughout the business section, will be attached large tan and cardinal flags two yards long and one and one-half yards wide. The committee in charge of decoration is composed of R. F. Ulry, Ray Wilkins, C. H. Walker, C. W. Johnston and Clarence Williams. These flags are being made and paid for by the Business Men's Association, and it is their intention to put the flags on display every time Otterbein has a home game.

Placards have been placed in all the windows throughout the business section advertising "Westerville Day." "We're Going To The Game" is the way the cards read. This action was also sponsored by the Business Men's Association.

There is a great possibility of having a fireworks celebration just before the game if plans which are now being developed work out. Bombs and all the noise-makers of the Fourth of July will help instill the spirit of the day in the hearts and minds of everyone.

This is the first time in late business history that all stores have closed in order that their proprietors may witness a football game. The business men of Westerville are very anxious to show Otterbein that they are back of her coach and athletics to the last degree. To show their interest they have planned and developed "Westerville Day". The idea for such an occasion was first suggested by Prof. R. F. Martin back in September. The Business Men's Association grasped the idea immediately and adopted it the evening of the same day that it was suggested.

All of the business men of Westerville have suggested that Otterbein set aside one of her home games each year for "Westerville Day" so that they may show their interest in Otterbein and her activities. The Association is particularly desirous that the game be dated on Friday so as not to interfere with the Saturday onrush of business.
