Barretts of Wimpole Street
Miss Van Sant, our Dean of Women, has made many and varied contributions to the success of Cap and Dagger. She has given her fullest cooperation to one of the most common problems involved in production, that of permitting girls to leave the dormitory for the rehearsals and technical aspects of production.

To one who has always appreciated our efforts in the theater and who is always striving to help the students of Otterbein College we dedicate this program.

COWAN MEMORIAL HALL
THE TRADITION

Tonight's production marks the eleventh annual student presentation since the tradition was revived in 1948. It is produced under the auspices of Cap and Dagger Dramatic Society.

ABOUT THE PLAY

The play centers about the life of Elizabeth Barrett and her love for Robert Browning. The domination of an unreasonable father controls the entire household and threatens the love of Elizabeth and Robert.

SCENE:

The entire action takes place in Elizabeth's room.

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES:

Act I, Scene 1 — 8:30 P.M. of a day in early spring in 1845.

Scene 2 — The following afternoon.

INTERMISSION

Act II — Afternoon three months later.

INTERMISSION

Act III, Scene 1 — Afternoon a few weeks later.

Scene 2 — Evening a week and a half later.
MARY ANN ANDERSON, a sophomore from Ashland, Oregon, plays the part of Bella Hedley. She was first seen in the Freshman One-Acts. Mary Ann is an elementary education major.

NEAL LUND, a senior from North Olmsted, Ohio makes his third appearance tonight as Doctor Chambers. He has been seen on the Cowan stage in Brigadoon, and Arsenic and Old Lace. Neal is a psychology major.

JOHN PAYTON appears as Captain Surtees Cook in tonight’s production. He was in Arsenic and Old Lace earlier this year. John is majoring in English.

ROBERT PENDELL, a freshman from Brookville, Ohio, creates tonight the role of Robert Browning. Robert is an Elementary Education major, and has appeared on the Cowan stage earlier this year in the Freshman One-Acts, and Arsenic and Old Lace.
DENNIS GUSTIN is seen in tonight’s performance as Henry Bevan. He has appeared previously on the Cowan stage in Brigadoon. Dennis, a sophomore, is a history and government major from Fletcher, Ohio.

NANCY MYERS, a freshman from Canton, Ohio plays the part of Henrietta Moulton-Barrett. Nancy, a speech major, was seen earlier this year in the Freshman One-Acts.

JERRY GRIBLER portrays the part of Doctor Ford-Waterlow. Jerry is a math and physics major from Van Wert, Ohio. He has been previously seen in Brigadoon, and Born Yesterday.

PAUL KOONS, a junior from Mansfield, Ohio portrays the part of George Moulton-Barrett. He has appeared before in the Freshman One-Acts, Brigadoon, Born Yesterday, and Arsenic and Old Lace. Paul is majoring in psychology.
