STUDENTS HEAR NOTED LECTURER

Milton Stauffer to Give Series of Addresses on Campus Tuesday.

LECTURES IN CHAPEL

Holds Conference with Campus Organizations—To Lecture in Chapel Tuesday.

"If you can persuade the Chinese to add one inch to their gowns, you will give business to all the cotton mills in the world," stated Milton Stauffer, Educational Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, on Christian Internationalism yesterday morning in Chapel. Such a statement gives a truly correct idea of the vastness of the Chinese Empire.

After spending six years in China as the National Survey Secretary, Mr. Stauffer has acquired a very broad knowledge of the problems of that country. "How China has advanced industrially in the last few years is absolutely astounding. Last year Manchuria exported 60 millions of bushels of soy beans all over the world. That is only an idea of the vastness of Chinese agriculture."

Mr. Stauffer also spoke in Prof. Hursh's ten o'clock section of Sociology Monday morning on the subject of "Population and Immigration."

"The population of China is taken by the amount of salt that is consumed. The officials of the provinces determine how much salt is consumed in their province, and also how much salt each person ought to consume. Then, by simple arithmetic, the number of persons is determined."

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Stauffer delivered a lecture before a group composed of the cabinets of the Y. W. and the Y. M. C. A.'s. In chapel this morning, "The Craze for Education in China" was the topic of the talk. Throughout the two days that Mr. Stauffer was here he met various groups of students interested in the study of conditions in China.

Teachers' Association Meets

The fifty-fifth annual session of the Central Ohio Teachers' Association will be held in Columbus on Friday and Saturday, November seventh and eighth. Headquarters will be located at the Deshler Hotel. An attendance to exceed eight thousand is expected. A number of nationally prominent literary and educational leaders are on the program.

CONCERT THURSDAY NIGHT

Troubadour Male Quartet Will Present Musical Program Thursday Evening.

The second number of the Lyceum Course will be presented this coming Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the chapel, by the Troubadour Male Quartet.

The Troubadour Quartet possesses exceptional experience and ability; not only is it a singing organization, but it features on its program a variety of excellent instrumental selections, piano, cornet, violin, saxophone, banjo and clarinet being the instruments used.

A program of a thoroughly pleasing nature, comprising both the classical and the popular is assured.

Single admission tickets will be thirty cents, with reservations, forty cents. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Frank Bookman.

Will Launch "Y" Membership Drive Early Next Week

Within a week or so the Y. M. C. A. membership drive will open with team of three or four men in the various classes securing signatures to the membership cards of the "Y". The statements which prospective members are asked to sign are easily within the power of every man on the campus to subscribe to and the new feature of membership will place a man's affiliation with the Y. M. C. A. on something other than a mere financial basis as has existed in the past.

It is hoped that all the men of the student body can be interviewed within a few days and the aim of the "Y" is to secure the statement of purpose of every man on the campus to strive to attain the objectives set forth, placing a membership of one hundred per cent of the men in school on the "Y" roll book.

Reception for New Pastor

Held in United Brethren Church

Thursday evening between the hours of eight and ten a delightful reception was given in the United Brethren church in honor of the new pastor, Dr. S. Edwin Rupp, and his assistant, Rev. N. A. Wilburg, with their respective wives. Mr. L. W. Warson delivered the address of welcome to which Dr. Rupp responded. The musical program consisted of numbers by the high school orchestra, a vocal solo by Viola Priest, and a selection by a ladies' quartet. Refreshments were served by ladies of the church.

November 7 Is Deadline!

Friday, November 7, is the dead line for all Seniors to have their Sibyl pictures taken. If you want to have your picture in the 1925 annual don't fail to have your sitting made before it is too late. The Baker Art Gallery has the contract for the taking of all the Sibyl pictures and it is necessary when you have your picture taken that you state that you are from Otterbein so that the picture can be made in a uniform size.

NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK BEING OBSERVED

National Education Week is again being observed throughout the country this week by the schools, churches and civic organizations. This movement which is fostered by the National Education Association and the National Parent-Teachers Association, has for its purpose the emphasizing of the value of education and the training of youth, and the arousing of interest on the part of the people at large in education.

The movement strikes a decidedly optimistic note for educational development in the near future, revealing as it does a wide-spread interest in the proper training of the nation's youth not only on the part of the educators, but on the part of the general public as well.

Griggs Elected Advertising Manager of Men's Glee Club

At a recent meeting of the Otterbein Men's Glee Club George Griggs was elected to the position of Assistant Business and Advertising Manager.

This position is the first of its kind in the glee club. Under this new arrangement a man from the club itself is elected assistant to the business manager while under the old arrangement a man outside the club was elected. This new arrangement will be more advantageous than the old one for both the business manager and assistant will travel with the club.

The duties of the new position will be to carry on the correspondence and to send ahead publicity material.

OHIO WESLEYAN ROUTS VARSITY IN GRID GAME

Wesleyan Uses More Than Three Teams and Every Man on Squad Gets Into Game.

SCORE AT WILL

Tan Gridders Display Fight and Determination in Face of Overwhelming Odds.

Driving through the light but scrappy Otterbein line for seven first downs and a touchdown the Wesleyan regulars began the havoc later finished by the nearly two score of Methodists thrown against their United Brethren guests. The Wesleyan advantage over the Tan eleven was increased as McCarroll and Felton were forced to remain on the bench as a result of injuries. The twelve Otterbein grid-ders that faced the thirty-nine Wesleyanites did themselves proud in the onslaught of their ever freshening and much heavier adversaries.

Beginning with the kickoff Wesleyan started a drive down the field and without losing possession of the ball the first stringers made a touchdown and had taken the ball to a good scoring position toward the end of the quarter when a new line was substituted. Early in the second quarter the family combination Blickel to Blickel got to going and completed a pass for Wesleyan's second touchdown. Winters annexed the Methodists' third tally in the same quarter when he tore through center and crossed the Otterbein goal line.

Otterbein's passing combines seemed to be missing one or more cylinders and passes were grounded, broken up and intercepted, while the Methodist aerial game went on with disastrous effect for the Tan outfit. Mc-

MIAMI VALLEY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION HOLDS RALLY

Thursday night the Miami Valley Athletic Association held a pep rally and a weiner roast on the campus of the Bonebrake Theological Seminary at Dayton. Eighty-seven members, including friends and alumni of the college, were present at the rally.

A short social program was held after which the association organized and elected officers. I. R. Libecap, '09, was elected president, and P. E. Wineland, '10, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

"DON'T FAIL TO VOTE"

Is Plea of Attorney Boyd P. Doty in Address to Students Given in Chapel Friday.

"Election day is an expression of the sentiment of the American people," declared Boyd P. Doty in an address on the "How and Why of Voting" in chapel last Friday morning. "The character of our government depends upon what we do on election day, and if we do not exercise our right of franchise we have no right to complain about the type of government that results," Mr. Doty further stated. He also strongly urged that all students of voting age should certainly exercise their right of franchise in compliance with the laws of their home states.

Mr. Doty revealed some startling figures that were taken from our last national election. Out of 54,000,000 people of voting age only 26,500,000 cast votes! When Harding was elected only 30 percent of the electoral votes were cast, yet he received a greater majority than any other president. Surprising as these figures may be they show absolutely the attitude of the American people toward their own government.

Mr. Doty asserted that the largest degree of interest in public affairs is taken by college students, and that the great questions of government must be decided by intelligent groups of people.

Since absentee voting is not permissible in Pennsylvania, students who live in that state may secure a man from the state department at Columbus to take their vote, and make a sworn statement of it, and mail it to their respective home precincts. The girls were more interested in their exercise of franchise than were the boys, as it was through their desires that Mr. Doty was secured to speak on the subject.

FOOTBALL SQUAD EATS*SUPPER AT COOK CLUB

The Otterbein football squad including both Coach Ditmer and Freshman Coach "Deke" Edler, all had supper together at the Cook Club last Tuesday evening. The get-together was for the purpose of bringing the members of the football squad closer together and to help to foster the friendly feeling on the squad. The morale of the team this year is superior to that of any Tan team for many moons and it is the hope that this attitude can be maintained.

The football feed was made possible by the cooperation of the stewards of the four boarding clubs. Inasmuch as the Cook club had a decided majority of the football men the feed was held there and the other clubs volunteered to take care of the men displaced by the hungry gridders. It is this same cooperation that has helped to bring the members of the squad closer together on previous occasions when the team has been fed after long, tiresome trips and is resulting in a fine "clubby" spirit among the squad members.

PROFESSORS ENJOY PROGRAM

Faculty Club Holds First Social Session in President's Office Monday Evening.

Even the faculty can have a good time once in a while as was in evidence last Monday night, October 20, when they had their first social and very informal session of the year in the president's offices. A very humorous and delightful program, supervised by Miss Lyons, was given by several members of the faculty. Light refreshments were served.

"Resolved: That Matrimony Is Considered Successful at the End of Four Months" was the question for debate that proved to be the feature of the evening. Mrs. Leon McCarty argued the negative and Professor Troop defended the affirmative. Mrs. Dunn gave a short talk on "Painter's Colonies" and Professor Rosselot described his eventful automobile trip through the west. President Clippinger gave a brief account of his trip to Atlantic City.

For future meetings, which will be held on the first Monday of each month Mrs. Nellie Lowe Noble, Chairman of the Faculty Club committee, announces special features for several months in advance. A speaker from Antioch College will talk on an educational experiment being conducted in that school at the November meeting. For December there will be a program of music and readings by the various stars of the faculty. Professor Kelley, head of the Art Department at Ohio State, will speak on some phase of art at the January session. Other future programs will be announced as they are formulated.

Y. W. C. A. Meets

For the devotions in Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening, Elizabeth Saxour read passages from Psalms and I Thessalonians. Hazel Barngrover played a violin solo. "Messages from Autumn" was the most timely subject of Helen Cherry, the leader. In her talk she emphasized the unselfishness of autumn, always giving in preparation for the next year. So must we prepare ourselves for the future. Miss Cherry illustrated the topic with poetry. Mida Steele gave a short talk on "Why I Like Autumn."

Eschbach Leads Y. M. C. A.

"The Place of Y. M. C. A. on the Campus", was the subject on which Carl Eschbach led a discussion last Thursday night in "Y. M." The conclusion was drawn that if Y. M. C. A. is to have a definite place on the campus it would have to hold a definite place in the hearts of its members.

The leader called on several of the fellows to give short talks about the four attributes of Y. M. C. A., physical, spiritual, social and mental growth.

The meeting was featured with a selection by an instrumental trio, consisting of Clarence Broadhead, piano; Robert Weitcamp, cornet, and George Rohrer, violin.

'24. Dewey A. Ewing of Lakefork, Ohio, and Miss Edith Merrill of Westerville were married last Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride, Dr. T. J. Sanders performing the ceremony in the presence of twenty-five guests. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Lakefork, where Mr. Ewing is pastor of the United Brethren church.

'88. Frederick H. Rike of the Rike-Kumler Company of Dayton, Ohio, was reelected treasurer of the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants at the annual meeting of the council trustees held last Tuesday at the Southern Hotel in Columbus.

'17. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Irwin (Hulah Black) of Zanesville, Ohio, were in Westerville one day last week, the guests of Miss Maude A. Hanawalt.

'23. Miss Virginia Blagg of Cincinnati, Ohio, accompanied by her friend Miss Eleanor Stewart of Springfield, Ohio, motored to Washington, D. C. recently and spent a week visiting places of interest in that vicinity.

'21. Miss Martha Stofer, who is probation officer in Mansfield, Ohio, was visiting friends in Columbus and Westerville last week.

'72. Mrs. Lillie Resler Harford of Omaha, Nebraska, is spending a few days in Westerville renewing old acquaintances. She came East to attend an important meeting in Dayton of the trustees of the Woman's Missionary Association, of which she is the president. Since coming to Ohio she visited with her classmate, Mrs. S. C. Collier (Lizzie Hanby) in Ravenna, Ohio. She will be in Ohio for several weeks yet.

'24. Mrs. Albert H. Miles (Mary Tryon), who spent the summer in St. Augustine, Florida, where her husband had a pastorate, is now teaching in the high school at New Straitsville, Ohio. Mr. Miles is taking his senior year in the theological department of Wittenberg College this year.

'12. Miss Margaret Gaver, teacher in the high school at Mansfield, Ohio, came to Westerville last Thursday evening to spend a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Moore. Instead of attending the teachers' meeting of the northeastern section, Miss Gaver spent Friday visiting the schools of Columbus.

'10. Dr. W. A. Knapp of Westerville, is conducting an evangelistic campaign in Toledo, Ohio, where his work is meeting with good success.

'85. Mr. F. A. Z. Kumler was in Westerville over the week-end visiting with his daughter Margaret. He visited the college offices Monday morning and was celebrating his Seventieth Anniversary. He was happy in the fact that most of his college friends regarded him as a very much younger man than his years would indicate. Mr. Kumler takes an active interest in all the work of the college and is particularly anxious to see the success of the movement for a new gymnasium.

Western Reserve awards four scholarships to students through competitive examinations given every June. The awards are made for the first college year and are renewed each succeeding year provided that the holder maintains a high record of scholarship. The examinations are held in English, a foreign language and in two other units selected by the student.

Bluffton College presents a unique idea in the first recital of the year. ### EDITORIALS

Don't Fail to Vote.

Another presidential election is at hand and with it come many questions and issues that must be solved. Political comment of any kind on the editorial page of a college paper is out of place, but there are certain things an editor can say relative to an election and student vote. The task of this editorial is not to get the students' vote but to get the students to vote.

The student now in college will soon be the future citizen of America, and it is necessary that he be acquainted with the governmental problems and civic questions of the day. Students can not divorce themselves from the political issues of the day.

The voting students of Otterbein should feel a personal responsibility for their part in the election this fall. For many years there has been a plea for intelligent voting and who is more qualified to cast an intelligent ballot than the college student? If you are a voter begin now to do some serious thinking and then cast your ballot November 4.

If you are not a resident of Westerville and are not in a position to sign affidavit that you will make Westerville your home after completion of your college course, you are compelled either to go home to vote or to apply to your home election board for an absent voter's blank.

Take your vote seriously and consider it a privilege to be able to cast a ballot. The right to cast a free and untrampled ballot has cost so much that it should never be bartered for position, influence or friendship, nor for anything but what in the judgment of the voter will be the best good of the community, state or nation. If you are a qualified voter, don't fail to go to the polls Tuesday, November 8.

Support the Band.

An effort is being made this year to organize systematically and to put the college band on a permanent basis. A capable director was engaged and nothing was left undone to make the band a success. Thus far the band has had very little cooperation from the students and those who can play instruments.

When the band was organized forty men signified their willingness to play but now when actual work has begun only twelve to fifteen members report for practice. Effective work cannot be done unless every member goes to practice every night. No director, however efficient, can accomplish anything unless he has the support and cooperation of those who can play musical instruments.

If you signed up to play in the band get out and fulfill your promise and if you can play an instrument get out and do your duty. We want a good band for Home-coming and since only two more weeks of practice remain it is necessary that all members get out now and work hard. Only by careful practice and strict attention to business can any musical organization hope to attain any measure of success. We must have a good band but we can't and won't have such until everyone supports it.

Chapel Announcements

Some have been wondering what the real purpose of the chapel period is—is it a devotional service or is it an "announcement party"? Every day the President is obliged to read too many unimportant announcements. Let's see if we can't reduce the number of chapel notices to the minimum. It appears rather foolish to take up the time of 500 students to make an announcement that concerns only about three persons.

The custom of reading announcements in chapel is a good one and the President is glad to read important notices but please don't take advantage of him and a well established custom by asking him to read your unimportant notices. Save the chapel service by posting your notices on the bulletin board.

— O C —

IT STRIKES US—

That the rally last Thursday night was a failure because the students did not attend and those who were there displayed an indifferent attitude.

That if facilities on the athletic field for water are ordered by both the President and Board of Trustees that we wonder why it hasn't been done.

The week of rest will be welcomed by every member of the squad.

That every student who has the right to vote, should make preparations now to vote November 4.

That the literary societies are not dead but are showing signs of growth.

That a fine bunch of loyal fans followed the team to Wesleyan.

That we all should get back of the "Y" membership drive and help make it a success.

That the football team will come back now and win two of the remaining three games.

That it's no disgrace to lose to a team the calibre of Ohio Wesleyan's...

SIBYL HAS ADVANTAGE OF AN EARLY START

The work on the 1925 Sibyl has the decided advantage this year of an early start. Many scenics are already in the hands of the printer to be mounted and then sent to the engraver and the plans of the book have been thoroughly discussed with both the engraver and printer. Last spring the engraving contract was let to a Chicago firm while the Champlin Press in Columbus has been secured to take care of the printing. The prices quoted by both these firms were not the lowest bids placed but were accepted because of their excellent workmanship and the fine cooperation which they extend. The contract has been given to the Baker Art Gallery to do all the photographic work. Seniors must all have their pictures taken at the Art Gallery on or before the seventh of November.

Alumni and Friends Attend Stag Session of Philophronea

Philophronea enjoyed the presence of many alumni and friends last Friday night at Stag Session. The regular program for the evening was a musical session, which consisted of a piano solo by C. F. Kellar, group singing and several selections by the Philophronean orchestra.

After the regular society program the meeting adjourned to the reception hall where refreshments were served.

At the call of the toastmaster, Prof. J. P. West, the group congregated again in the reception hall where the regular stag session began. Toasts were given by the alumni, Dr. T. J. Sanders, Rev. Bovee, Prof. E. W. E. Schear, Prof. Valentine, Dr. Keister and C. F. Williams. Toasts were also given by Dr. Rupp, D. S. Howard and several visiting Philomatheans.

Chaucer Club Meets

A program of exceptional value was presented at the regular meeting of the Chaucer Club Wednesday evening. The Pulitzer Prize system from its beginning, was discussed by Elizabeth Saxour. Mabel Walter and Miss Lyon gave critical analyses of the plot and characters of Margaret Wilson's prize novel, "The Able McLaughlins," and Ruskin Hoover reviewed several items of interest in the literary world.

The studies of the club this year, as tentatively outlined, will be of equal interest and fascination. The work done will encompass the field of modern fiction, drama and poetry.

OHIO WESLEYAN ROUTS O. C. VARSITY 35 TO 0

Carroll's absence backing up the line is an explanation of Otterbein's seeming weakness on pass defence. In the second quarter three Methodist passes were responsible for two touchdowns, either in taking the ball over the line or placing it in a good scoring position.

Following the whistle that opened the second half of the battle Wesleyan took the ball and drove through to a touchdown without losing possession of the ball. Otterbein showed in the third period that the advantage held over them in the way of score and far fresher men had not led them to throw up their hands in dismay, as some of the brightest bits of playing for the Tan team came in those darkest moments. Collier broke through the line a number of times and socked Wesleyan backs before they quite knew that the play was off. One of "Swede's" punts was fumbled in the final period and Reck, half dead, from the drive he was putting into his game was right on top of the ball when the limbs, players, etc. had been untangled. Not to be outdone, "Kotsy" Durr follows his captain's worthy example and dropped on a ball that he spied rolling around.

Not the least remarkable part of the game Saturday was the way that the backfield men held up under the strain. Being pounded by tackles as good as any in the conference, and hitting a line that outweighed Ohio State's line about ten pounds to the man, the backfield kept their drive and fought the Methodists all the way to their victory. Four teams took the field for the Red and Black while the defenders of the Tan numbered only twelve—Miller having been substituted for Schear in the third period.

Outweighed, outclassed, outplayed, but not OUTFOUGHT, Otterbein put up a fight that was remarkable for its stubbornness in the face of the odds against which they were pitted.

REST WEEK FOR VARSITY

With No Game Saturday, Varsity Players Will Be Given Light Workouts.

After playing four of the seven games of the season, the Varsity football squad is taking a well earned and much needed rest this week. The open date this Saturday will give the squad time to regenerate a new supply of pep and energy for the next week. Signal practice, punting and passing, principally, will constitute this week's work on the field. Those men who have been handicapped in the last few games, or kept out altogether, will have ample opportunity to loosen up stiff joints and to recuperate generally before the next game.

It is probable that no practice will be held Monday and the other remaining nights of practice will be light. Ditmer will use the few night's practice to ward off any impending "staleness."

Seniors Still at Top of Heap in Inter-class Soccer League

Three more games in the interclass soccer league were played last week with the result that the Seniors still hold first place. The games on Monday and Friday were between the Juniors and Freshmen, while the Wednesday game brought the Sophomores and Seniors into conflict.

Both Freshman-Junior encounters proved to be interesting. In the first game the Frosh took the lead early in the game and held it until late in the second half. Just when Victory was circling around looking for a perch on the Freshmen's goal post, the goal-tender committed a foul within the penalty area, which called for a penalty kick. The ball sailed between the goal posts and under the crossbar, scoring the point needed to tie the game. Two overtime periods failed to break the tie, so the two captains decided to call it a draw, to be played off later.

In the Friday game, the Freshmen started the game with only nine men, later adding one more player to the line-up. This game was also a tie, neither team being able to score, although each had several splendid opportunities. The biggest disappointment in the game was the failure of the Juniors to score on a penalty kick. The ball shot directly into the goal-tender's hands and he kicked it safely out to center field.

In the tilt on Wednesday, the dope favored the second year men, who were then tied with the Seniors for first place. The latter, however, surprised both themselves and their opponents by outplaying them. They made two points, one on a field goal and one on a penalty kick, while holding the Sophs scoreless.

RACE GROWS TIGHT

Ohio Conference Championship Race to Come to Climax This Week-end.

With the football season half over, the best bets for Ohio Conference championship honors are already being decided upon by gridiron fans. The season has been unusually interesting thus far.

The four erstwhile champions are Oberlin, Case, Wittenberg and Ohio Wesleyan. Next Saturday, however, two of the contenders for the blue ribbon will be eliminated as Wittenberg meets Wesleyan at Delaware, and Oberlin journeys to Cleveland to fight for northern Ohio honors against Case. The outcome of these two games is uncertain, but Wesleyan should come out on top in her tilt, and Oberlin should win by a touchdown in her game.

Wooster was shoved out of the upper berth by Akron several weeks ago. Up to that time she was slated for a 1,000 percent season, but now the best she can do is to finish second or third from the top. Wooster captured the conference championship last year.

Hiram, one of the strong teams of last season, listed among the upper five, took a sudden drop and landed at the bottom, where she will probably remain throughout the remainder of the season. Miami is standing on Hiram's shoulder, with a decimal point and three naughts for her percentage.

Although Otterbein is quite a distance from the top, she is also far from the bottom. The games she has lost have been with three of the four first teams, which have been taking everything in the state. The remaining three games are with teams which should furnish plenty of opposition, but in the end, fall before the Big Tan's offense. By winning the next three games, Otterbein will have the same percentage as last year, and finish at practically the same place in the conference.

Rally Draws Small Crowd

A brief rally was staged in the chapel last Thursday evening after girls' societies. But a small crowd was present to respond to the efforts of the cheerleaders. "Captain "Dave" Reck made a few remarks on behalf of the football team, and college songs completed the program. While the brevity of the session is to be commended, it is up to the rally committee to insert a little spice in the program by way of new yells and stunts. This should bring about better spirit and better cooperation from the students in their support.

McCarroll and Felton Are Only Men on Injured List

The midseason open date is welcomed by all the members of the Varsity squad. To date only two members are suffering injuries serious enough to keep them out of games. Other members are coming through in fair shape after hard knocks in early games.

McCarroll and Felton are the two members of the team who are unable to play. McCarroll suffered an injury to his knee last Tuesday night. He was confined to his room for several days but now he is able to be up and around with the aid of a cane.

Felton is the other cripple. His complaint is a bad knee received in the Hiram game. He is up and about but he must still rely on the assistance of crutches.

SIDELINES

The work on the line of Durr, Captain Reck, Collier, Ruffini and Richter featured for Otterbein.

The fact that the secondary defense could not solve Wesleyan's pass attack was largely responsible for the overwhelming victory of the Methodists.

The interference shown by Wesleyan on the return of the kick-off at the beginning of the second half was as fine as one will see anywhere.

It is estimated that over three hundred people were in the Otterbein stands.

Collier and Durr were heads up all the time and pulled several Wesleyan plays down before they were started.

Captain Reck played his usual good game. "Dave's" work as offensive and defensive center is a pleasure to the fans.

Wesleyan made twenty-eight substitutions while Otterbein made only one.

Felton and McCarroll who are compelled to be out of the game on account of injuries, watched the game from the Otterbein bench.

Wesleyan scored the first touchdown after they had made seven consecutive first downs following the kickoff.

Saturday was Wesleyan's fourteenth consecutive Ohio Conference victory.

Wesleyan has a team this year that cannot be defeated by any Ohio Conference team.

Between halves the Ohio Wesleyan band faced the Otterbein bleachers and played the Otterbein Love Song.

Alice Propst, Margaret Kumler, Florence Vance, Mary McCabe, Katherine Steinmetz, Wanda Gallagher, Leona Raver, Dorothy Cowan, Mary Greenawald, and Mary Elizabeth Hoffman and Joan Fox were at their homes for the week end. Norma Richardson accompanied Florence Vance to her home in Greenville.

The Greenwich Club, on October 16th, gave a shower to Miss Marguerite Reed, whose marriage to John Bradrick, '23, will be an event of this fall. Miss Reed was hostess to the Club last Thursday at her home.

Miss Eunice Taylor of Columbus spent the week end with her sister, Miss Lela Taylor at Saum Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Barngrover spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Hazel.

Mrs. Gantz's home was the scene of a very novel gypsy party for the Tomo Dachi Club and six guests Monday evening. The girls were in costume.

Lucile Roberts, Margaret Mathews, Mabel Eubanks, and Ethel Kepler were the fortunate hostesses to their parents Sunday.

Geneva Braley and Virgil Lewis of Wellston, Ohio, spent Sunday with Ruth Braley.

Friday evening, the Owl Club entertained Mrs. Schear, Marion Grow, Ethel Kepler, Margaret Weinland, Lucile Roberts, Zoa Hachet, Geneva Mitchell, and Florence Bausman with a very lovely dinner at the Tea Room.

Mildred Wilson went with Francis Hines to Newcomerstown over the week-end.

Lois Bingham was at the home of Mrs. Grace Hill Staake, '23, Saturday and Sunday.

Adda Pritner's father came Thursday from Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and took Adda home to spend the week end. Not many of us are fortunate enough to make such a remote week end trip.

Ten fourth-floorites of Cochran Hall feted Lorene Smith with a birthday party Saturday evening—a helpful balm for a badly sprained ankle.

Mrs. West took the Arbutus girls and Mabel Walter to the Thomas Cabin, near Central College, Friday evening for a most delightful bacon-and-egg supper. The woods, the novel little cabin, and especially the abundance of delicious harvest tidbits prepared by Mrs. West's lavish hand, gave the party a never-to-be-forgotten flavor.

Geneva Bushey, Mabel Bordner, Ruth Streich and Helen Miller were with friends in Columbus this week end.

Ladybird Sipe, Marion Grow, Ruth Musselman and Gertrude Wilcox took their suppers Saturday evening to Smokey Hollow,—a delicious recompense for missing the Wesleyan game!

The Greenwich Club enjoyed a hamburger fry at the old tile mill Monday night.

Betty Marsh's father and mother and brother, and Frances Cooper's mother were with Betty and Frances for the week-end.

O C COED'S COLLUM.

What did folks talk about before we had radios and used cars and prohibition and Saturday classes?

We wonder what age folks would reach if they had to wait for "the next car" to leave town.

We haven't had a "table talk" in the dormitory this year, but then the fad for spiritualism has died out.

Westerville folks must have thought summer had come again with all of Otterbein beating it to Wesleyan last Saturday and leaving them alone.

These good Republicans mustn't get too excited about the coming election 'cause what are all these saw votes anyway but a lotta chaff?

The Campus Cat—What did Dela Ware that made Wesleyan play football like that?

O C LOCALS

Two alumni visited Country Club last week when "Red" Richman came out from Columbus and "Chick" Staats, '24, quarterback on Otterbein's team last year, made the trip from Huntington, W. Va.

The Annex Club entertained with a push in the upper part of Sleepy Hollow Wednesday evening. Included among those who "pushed" were a number of Freshmen.

"Perk" Collier, '23, coach at the Maple Heights high school, Cleveland, and Wilbur Coon, '23, a teacher in the same school, were in Westerville over the week-end.

Howard Minnich visited some friends at Ohio Wesleyan after the game Saturday, returning Sunday.

The Sphinx Club welcomed back a number of men over the week-end. Lowell Gibson, '23, from Middletown; Homer Tracht of Columbus, and "Ed-die" Stoltz, '24, at present coaching at Nelsonville, were back.

The two Democrats in school report that after an intensive campaign they have secured about ten converts, so that they feel quite confident of Mr. Davis' election.

Keene VanCuren, '27, visited at Delaware with Ohio Wesleyan friends Saturday and Sunday.
